ST. JOHN, N.B., April 24.—At low tide the water in St. John harbor runs out like a mill race, and just at Reed's point peer where the steamer Dominion lies are the swiftest eddies. A boatload of men and girls upset at this place this morning about 3 o'clock and two were drowned, the others being rescued with great difficulty. The young people had been attending a dance in Carleton. The gunwale of the boat struck the bow of the steamer and in a moment capsized. Lines were thrown from the steamer and the most terrible confusion ensued. The men fought amongst themselves for ropes and while the girls, seated in the stern, were shrieking for help, a couple of these stalwart cowards fastened lines to themselves and were hoisted up. Two of the girls, Ethel Allen and Nellie McAllister, were drowned.

Switchman Fatally Hurt.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., April 24.—William Martin, aged 21, switchman in the M.C.R. yards at Montrose, fell from a flat car and the train passed over him. Both legs were so badly mangled that they had to be amputated. Martin, who belongs to St. Thomas, will probably die.

Free to Ladies.

Every lady reader of this paper sending at once her address on a postal card will receive a free copy of THE LADIES (Pictorial) NEWSPAPER, containing full particulars of their old-fashioned English Prize Competition. Over $6,000.00 in prizes will be given away between now and June 1st, with special daily prizes of value for each locality. THE LADIES NEWSPAPER is one of the largest and most profusely illustrated publications in Canada, and the Competition offered by them is to be conducted in a strictly fair and honorable manner without partiality to persons or locality. Anyone can secure a good prize by a little work. No cheap presents will be given. It costs you nothing for full information and a sample copy, if you send at once. Address: THE LADIES NEWSPAPER Co., Canada Life Building, Toronto, Ontario. d25w10

The publishers of Our Homes, a large, elegantly printed 32-page magazine, announce that in order to increase their circulation they are willing to devote their entire first year's profits to this end, and in order to do so, offer competitions in which they give large cash rewards to those taking part. One of these competitions is now in progress and closes on April 28th. In addition to the large amount given in cash on their general prize list, they offer as an extra inducement the following special cash prizes:—During the weeks ending April 11th and April 18th they offer daily cash prizes of $10, and a weekly cash prize of $50 for the first named week, and $100 for the latter. For the week ending April 25th they offer daily cash prizes of $25, and a prize of $100 for the week. These exceedingly generous prizes are in addition to the general prize list, and the person who gets one of the special rewards may also get a large prize in the general list. No other magazine publishers have ever made such a liberal offer, and as the competition remains open three more weeks you should avail yourself of the liberal offer at once. Send 10 cents in stamps for a sample copy of Our Homes and complete particulars of the competition. Address OUR HOMES PUBLISHING Co., Brockville, Ont. d46-1w

INTERCOLONIAL

Railway of Canada.

The direct route between the West and all points on the Lower St. Lawrence and Baie des Chaleur, Province of Quebec, also for New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward and Cape Breton Islands, Newfoundland and St. Pierre.

Express trains leave Montreal and Halifax daily (Sunday excepted) and run through without change between these points in 30 hours and 55 minutes.

The through express train cars of the Intercolonial Railway are brilliantly lighted by electricity and heated by steam from the locomotive, thus greatly increasing the comfort and safety of travellers.

New and elegant buffet sleeping and day cars are run on all through express trains.

Canadian, European Mail and Passenger Route.

Passengers for Great Britain or the Continent leaving Montreal on Friday morning will join outward Mail Steamer at Halifax on Saturday.

The attention of shippers is directed to the superior facilities offered by this route for the transport of flour and general merchandise intended for the Eastern Provinces and Newfoundland; also for shipments of grain and produce intended for the European market.

Tickets may be obtained and all information about the route; also freight and passenger rates on application to

"UP TO THE GAME."

Jealous of the great success and world-wide reputation of "Sunlight" Soap, unscrupulous imitations have been put on the market, and in order to further deceive the public, the directions for using "SUNLIGHT" SOAP have been pirated holus-bolus.

But the trick is "too thin," the intelligent housewife knows that "SUNLIGHT" SOAP is as much superior to these imitations as the light of the sun is to that of a farthing candle.

While it is flattering to "SUNLIGHT" SOAP to be imitated, it is none the less reprehensible for these imitators to attempt to cheat the public.

Remember there is only one "Sunlight" Soap, and it has been awarded 6 gold medal.

IN FLOUR!

1. Scale Weight.

2. First Quality.

If good flour makes good bread it follows that one sort of flour makes better bread than another.

Which sort makes best?

That depends. The best flour is the purest, the best ground, the strongest and containing the most health giving and nourishing properties.

These good points are all found in our Flour.

Have you tried it? Perhaps yes. Perhaps no. If you have not, do so, and you may find a better flour than you have been using, and we a customer.

ATTRACTIONS IN DRY GOODS
At TURNBULL'S.

The change in the weather has brought with it a great demand for millinery; also for spring shades in dress goods. Our store was never more attractive in these lines than at present. We have every New Shade of Dress Goods in Stock, with Millinery to match. If you are in town this week have a look at our Gray Dress Goods and Millinery window. Large Gray Checks for young people made up alone or mixed with Black, Small Black and White Checks and Stripes. Broken patterns for older people, goods that are hard to find in Neat Patterns. We justly claim to take the lead in our Tailoring department for Quality of Goods, Fit and Price. We get up a Splendid Suit in Halifax Tweed or Navy Serge for $12.00. Fine grades of Almento and other makes of Tweed for $13.00, $14.00, $15.00 and $16.00; Scotch Tweeds and Serges from $16.00 to $20.00 for the best. Fine All Wool Worsted, Venetian Finish or Diagonal Cords for Coat and Vest, with Black or Fancy Panting to match, at from $19.00 to $22.00 a suit. Remember our prices. Call and see our Stock and do not go and pay a great deal higher figure through force of habit. We have added this week to our already Attractive Stock of Boys' Clothing another shipment just turned out of the manufacturer's hands, Neat and New Styles. We have shown an Immense Range of Patterns in Cottonades and Shirtings in the Best Quality; we also keep all the lower lines, beginning at 5c. a yard for Shirtings and 12½c. for Cottonades.

THE NEWS OF EUROPE.

REBELLIOUS MANIPURIS NOW SUING FOR PEACE.

A French Duel—One of the Combatants Shot in the Chest—The Queen at Grasse—Died of Starvation Although Worth Half a Million Dollars.

SIMLA, April 26.—British forces advancing on Manipur met and engaged a force of about 1000 Manipuris on the 23rd instant. The latter commenced hostilities by opening fire upon the British column. The latter replied with the fire of their field artillery and the enemy fled in disorder. Several messengers from the tribesmen have arrived in the British camp suing for peace for the insurgents.

The British forces continue their advance unchecked upon Manipur. As the British troops advance the rebels abandon their villages and retreat upon the first volley of the advancing columns.

PARIS, April 26.—Queen Victoria is one person in England, another person abroad. She keeps her pleasant manners for the foreigners. At Grasse she is the sweetest, kindliest and most unaffected of old ladies. Her sunshade is never before her face when she takes carriage airings. She often steps out on the balcony of her sitting-room windows, which look upon the high street, and she shows herself to the infantry band, which up to the day on which she received the intelligence of the massacre at Manipur came daily to play for her in the garden of the hotel where she is staying. The royal carriage is stopped when children on the roadside offer flowers for sale or country women for kindness. Little tea parties are given, to which the local officials, the officers of the regiment in attendance as a guard of honor and their wives are invited. Since the news of the Manipur affair the Queen's spirits are not so good. Her heart is in India. This is shown by the extraordinary favor enjoyed by her Indian servants, of whom she now has three. They attend her in the grounds of the hotel and wait in the anteroom when she is indoors. They are also constantly in attendance in the sitting-room.

A STRANGE CASE.

A Woman's Mind Turned by Her Great Good Fortune.

LONDON, April 26.—Driven insane by the joy that followed her knowledge of having fallen heiress to $250,000 left by a wealthy relative who had died intestate, poor Martha Spencer of East London, an indigent laborer's wife, was debarred by her mania from taking the fortune. Thus, while a lunatic, she actually died of starvation because her condition kept the wealth away from her.

Frightful Tragedy at Pressburg.

LONDON, April 26.—A Berlin dispatch tells of a horrible tragedy at Pressburg. The wife of Herr Kutzkar, a member of the council of that city, became wildly insane, and having cut the throat of her daughter, she burned her body on the hearth of their dwelling, and then proceeded to set fire to herself with a view of destroying herself with her daughter. The neighbors were attracted to the scene by the shrieks of pain which the woman could not suppress, and they promptly extinguished the flames and handed her over to the police.

Death Due to a Wrestling Bout.

PRESCOTT, April 26.—Albert Rhole, aged 17, died Thursday from the effects of a blow received in the abdomen in a friendly wrestle some weeks ago.

LIKE LONDON'S FIEND.

THIS MURDER AND MUTILATION SUGGEST THE "RIPPER'S" WORK.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Police detectives, working under the personal supervision of Chief Inspector Byrnes, were straining every nerve yesterday in a search for the human butcher who murdered old Carrie Brown in the lodging house at Catharine and Water streets, and mutilated her corpse as "Jack the Ripper" mutilated the bodies of his victims in the Whitechapel district of London. When asked if he thought that the murderer of Carrie Brown was the real "Jack the Ripper," he replied: "I can't say."

The murderer is believed to be a madman, with the cunning and nerve which often accompany insane delusions. There are now about 15 men and women in custody detained as witnesses, but the actual murderer is still at large.

Deputy Coroner Jenkins performed an autopsy upon the body of Carrie Brown at the Morgue yesterday morning. He found that the woman's death had been caused by strangulation. Her body had been mutilated immediately after death and the murderer evidently had carried away a portion of the viscera.

The dead woman was known among those of her class as Carrie Brown, alias Jeff Davis, alias Shakespeare. She first came to New York 15 years ago, taking up her residence in the Fourth Ward. She was a hard drinker, but was well liked by her associates because of her free-handed liberality and her superior intelligence. Her maiden name was Caroline Montgomery, and she married when quite young a sea captain named James Brown and lived in Salem, Mass., where Brown died, leaving his wife in comfortable circumstances. Two of her daughters, Ellen and Annie Brown, live there still. It has not been learned why Mrs. Brown left her home to take up a degraded life. When Mrs. Brown was not on the Island she was an inmate of an institution in the city where she sometimes went to recuperate from the effects of her sprees, and her expenses here were paid by a relative named Lawson, who resides in Salem. She returned from her last trip to the Island only a few days before her death.

Inspector Byrnes at 3 o'clock this afternoon arrested the second engineer of the Red "D" Line steamer Philadelphia lying at her pier on the East River at the foot of Market street. The description of the man corresponds almost identically with the murderer of Carrie Brown.

Detailed Story of the Murder.

The scene is laid in a squalid, foul little room on the topmost floor of a vile resort known as the East River Hotel, on the southeast corner of Catharine Slip and Water street. The entrance to the place is through a narrow hallway on the Water-street side. It was through this that a man and woman passed at 10.30 Thursday night. The woman was slight, with gray hair and small [illegible], appearing to be considerably past 60. Over her head was thrown a shawl and an old black skirt and waist completed her attire. She was a typical specimen of the poor creatures that frequent the lower East side slums.

Her male companion looked not over 32. In build he was slight, about 5 feet 8, with light complexion, sandy mustache, sharp features and a prominent nose. He wore a high crown black derby hat with its top slightly crushed in, and was attired in a brown cutaway coat and trousers of some dark material. The couple were met at the door by the housekeeper, Mary Minter, who declares the man had a German accent. The old woman asked for a room, at the same time handing the housekeeper a dollar, receiving fifty cents in change.

"What is your name?" enquired the girl, addressing the man.

"Knicle," he answered, without looking up, and this was the only word he was heard to utter. Mary Minter then passed into the adjoining barroom, where Clerk Sam Stine entered the names on the register and assigned the couple to room 31.

"Go and get us a pint of beer," said the old woman.

"Wouldn't you prefer ale?" asked the housekeeper.

"Yes, mixed ale—ale is the proper drink for ladies and gentlemen," she replied. The ale was procured, which the old woman carried, preceded by her companion, who held aloft a sputtering candle as they stumbled up the rickety stairs to room No. 31. It is a corner room, with a window facing Water-street and another looking out on Catharine-slip. Like the other forty apartments in the house, it is black with filth. In the southwest corner stood a narrow wooden bedstead, on which was a greasy mattress, a pillow and a torn coverlet. Near the bed stood a rickety little washstand. It was into this hovel of filth and wretchedness, that was soon to be turned into a slaughter pen, that the woman and her companion passed, and not a sound was heard there or a person seen to emerge from the room during the night.

At 8.30 Friday morning James Fitzgerald, the day clerk, pushed open the door of No. 31 to rouse the occupants. A sight met his horrified gaze that will not be effaced from his memory for many days. Lying on her right side, naked from the shoulder down, lay the old woman, dead. Her body, the quilts and mattress were soaked in blood, while a crimson stream had trickled down the side of the bed forming a dark pool that spread for some distance over the floor. The head and neck were wrapped in fold after fold of the woman's undergarments and apron. She had been completely disembowelled, the cut extending from the middle of the abdomen down through the length of the abdominal cavity, ending at the back. On the left hip the fiend, by a dexterous stroke of the knife, had carved a cross. The right arm doubled under the body, the hand standing out as if held there by the murderer while doing his brutal work. There was still another cut on the right breast, and from the discoloration of the face and bandages tightly bound round the neck it was plain that the victim had been strangled to death.

A messenger was dispatched to the Oak-street station and Captain O'Connor with two officers repaired to the scene. A careful search of the room disclosed the knife with which the crime was committed. It was an ordinary steel table knife, with the blade cut diagonally in the shape of those used by shoemakers. This with a small reticule made of cretonne and two pairs of spectacles, was taken to the station house. An officer was left on guard. Mary Minter was sent to the House of Detention as a witness. Mary Healy, a companion of the dead woman, who occupied room 12 during the night of the murder, was found there in a beastly state of intoxication and locked up at the station house, but was too drunk to talk last evening.

Coroner Schultz, with his assistant, viewed the remains early in the afternoon. In removing the bandages from the woman's face and neck he was obliged to cut them, the knots being so firmly tied as to make it impossible to loosen them. The expression of the face was one of great agony and the knees were drawn up, while the gray hair was in tangles about the ghastly face.

The assassin must have done his work quietly, as the slightest noise can be heard through the thin partition that divides the room from the adjoining one.

It was noon before Police Headquarters appreciated the gravity of the situation. Inspector Williams then went direct to the scene of the murder, and the machinery of the Police Department began to move. The inspector characterized it as a crime without a motive. Captain O'Connor said it was a crime with a motive. He claimed to know the woman, saying that she had two daughters, one of whom was about 25. The dead woman was known among her associates as "Shakespeare," but had never been seen at the East River hotel until the night of the murder.

Detective McCloskey, who is detailed on the case, was in London at the time "Jack the Ripper" was terrifying that city, and went minutely into the details of the crimes committed, so that his work in the present case is expected to prove particularly valuable. Late in the afternoon the body was placed in a pine box, together with the clothing, which is said to be such as is worn by women on the Island, and removed to the morgue.

A doctor who viewed the corpse said some parts of the body were missing, which makes the resemblance to the Whitechapel crimes even stronger. The location, too, could not have been more aptly chosen. Within sight are the very worst dives to be found in the city. Outside of the house where the deed was done are the rickety buildings, the narrow alleys, the crowd of filthy men and women that characterized the Whitechapel district. A short distance away are the noted Cherry-street, Mullin's-alley and Blind Man's alley dives. In the hotel where the crime was committed murder was done some years ago, when a bartender named Thompson shot a man there. Since that time another man has been stabbed in the hotel, and minor crimes, almost without end, have been perpetrated behind its door. James Jennings is said to be proprietor of the bar and John Thompson of the lodgings.

The murdered woman was called "Shakespeare" because of her habit of correcting those who spoke ungrammatically. A reporter learned that she had been living at No. 49 Oliver-street with Mamie Harrington and two men, one of whom, a Greek, was known as "Frenchy." Mrs. Harrington said: "I have no doubt the murdered woman was the one who lived with me. Her name is Carrie Brown. She was born at sea and is 60 years old, and came from the Island three weeks ago."

The scenes in the streets on Cherry Hill last night very closely resembled those of the Whitechapel district when London was scared by the "Ripper." All night long crowds gathered in front of the East River Hotel, and the police were kept busily engaged in preventing them from taking possession of the place. Women of all grades in the quarter between Cherry Hill and Water-street, and of all ages, were in the streets curiously examining everybody that passed, and particularly the detectives, who simply swarmed in the district.

In Bleecker-street, Little Twelfth-street and other notorious haunts of unfortunate women patrolmen were plentifully distributed. There was in some places a great falling off in the number of strollers, but whether or not the absent ones had been drawn away to Water-street by curiosity could only be conjectured. In the slums generally one heard at every step that one name of terror, "Jack the Ripper," and fears are entertained that if Inspector Byrnes does not accomplish a crowning work by effecting the capture of the assassin he will have still other victims in New York.

BEHRING SEA DISPUTE.

Hearing in the Supreme Court Postponed Until October.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The case of the schooner Sayward, involving the question of the jurisdiction of the United States over the seal fisheries in Behring Sea, set for hearing in the United States Supreme Court on Monday, has been postponed until Oct. 19 next. Counsel for both sides were ready to proceed Monday, but the court desired that both cases be heard by a full bench, which the illness of Justice Bradley at present renders impossible. The briefs of both sides have been made public. They are documents of nearly 200 pages each and there are also copious appendices. The argument on each side may be divided into two parts, viz.: First, legal argument involving the right to bring the case before the court in the rather unusual form of a writ of prohibition; and second, a politico-legal argument involving the relations between the legislative, executive and judicial departments of the Government and the binding force upon the judiciary of a decision by the Executive as to the jurisdiction appertaining to the United States.

The First Sod Will be Turned on Thursday Next.

WINDSOR, April 26.—At a meeting held in the parlors of the Crawford House yesterday, the Michigan & Canada Tunnel Company was organized and directors elected, and it was decided to at once proceed with the construction of a tunnel under the Detroit River from Windsor to Detroit. Among the shareholders present were James Ross of Montreal, D. O. Bliss of New York and A. Onderdonk. The Michigan Central and Canada Southern roads were represented by their solicitors. The only information they would give to the public was that they had decided to begin work on the tunnel at once and that many American and Canadian capitalists are interested in the success of the project. Chief Engineer Hawks of the Michigan Central announces that the first sod of the tunnel will be turned on Thursday next at 11 a.m. on the Canadian side of the river.

Opening of Parliament.

OTTAWA, April 26.—The opening of Parliament is fixed for Wednesday. The business that day will, however, be confined to the swearing in of members and the election of a Speaker. The former ceremony will take place in the morning and the latter in the afternoon. The Governor-General will not be present on Wednesday, but will be represented by the Deputy-Governor. The formal opening will take place on Thursday.

Mrs. Josephine Barnaby, widow of a Providence, R.I., millionaire, and Mrs. G. S. Worrell, wife of a prominent Denver real estate agent, have been poisoned to death by a small flask of whisky sent to them with this inscription: "With best wishes accept this fine old whisky from your friends in the woods."

April showers may be the forerunner of May flowers, and they are also certain to bring with them cold in the head, which if neglected, develops into catarrh, perhaps into consumption and death. Nasal Balm never fails to give instant relief, and will permanently cure the worst case of catarrh if faithfully used. Sold by all dealers.

ALL GERMANY MOURNS.

THE DEATH OF COUNT VON MOLTKE A NATIONAL AFFLICTION.

Sincere Expressions of Regret Throughout the Empire—Further Details of the Demise of the Great Field Marshal—Arrangements For the Funeral Thursday.

BERLIN, April 26.—Count von Moltke intended to leave this city this week for the baths at Kudowa, where he expected to recruit his health. The Count was working daily on the plans for the fortifications of the Island of Heligoland, all the most intricate of these plans being drafted by the field marshal himself. The Empress visited the death chamber at 10 o'clock this morning and laid a magnificent wreath of roses upon the bier on which the great general rested. The Empress spent a quarter of an hour in trying to console the family for the loss which they have so unexpectedly suffered. Splendid floral offerings are arriving at the dead field marshal's official residence from all parts of Germany.

Still further details in regard to the Count's death show that after enjoying his supper in his official residence on the Konigsplatz he sat down and listened to musical selections which were played on a piano. He then took a hand in a game of whist, but during the course of the game he complained of feeling unwell, and placing his hand of cards upon the table he left the room.

The Count was immediately put to bed, but in spite of the efforts made to relieve him of what was considered for some time to be nothing more than a severe indisposition he soon expired.

Great crowds of people, respectful and sympathetic, surround the Count's residence and throng the streets. Many of the stores in the leading thoroughfares are closed and the city throughout is commencing to display emblems of mourning for the death of Germany's favorite soldier.

In the Lower House of the Prussian Diet to-day the President of that body, in communicating Count von Moltke's death to the representatives, said that the high value of the deceased's services to the Fatherland would cause universal sorrow and mourning to be felt throughout Germany at the loss that the Empire had sustained. "This," added the President, "convinces me that the House does not desire to proceed with to-day's business. Therefore, I propose that we adjourn until Monday, as a mark of respect to the dead." The President's proposition was unanimously adopted.

The Emperor telegraphed his sympathetic condolence to Count von Moltke's family, saying the Field Marshal's death was a greater loss to Germany than the loss of an army corps would have been. The Emperor has summoned all the princes and the crowned heads of the different German states to attend the funeral, which will take place Thursday next and will be attended by imposing military ceremonies. The body will be escorted, in state, from the Moltke residence to the railway station, whence it will be taken to Creisau for interment. The ceremonies at Creisau will be quiet and without display, in accordance with the late count's wishes.

The remains will lie in state in the apartment in which the Count died until Thursday morning. The coffin will be surrounded with battle flags and will be in charge of a guard of honor. During the morning, by the Emperor's orders, the imperial standard was conveyed from the ante-chamber in the palace adjoining the Emperor's apartments to the room in which the remains of the dead soldier will lie in state. This was done as a special mark of the Emperor's favor and as showing how deeply he feels the loss which Germany has sustained in the death of the Field Marshal.

Count von Moltke died without showing the slightest sign of pain, a death which he had often wished for, remarking: "How beautifully men die that die in a syncope!"

The body of the late Count was viewed by the public to-day from noon until 3. The bier is of yellow oak and draped with white silk, embroidered with silver, and a coverlet designed by deceased for the purpose covers the body as far as the breast. The Emperor has ordered the army to go into mourning for eight days.

TORONTO TOPICS.

TORONTO, April 27.—It is reported that the Meteorological Office, together with the Observatory, will shortly be removed to Ottawa.

Saturday at the Criminal Assizes was a day of sentences. All the prisoners convicted during the week were brought before Mr. Justice Street and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment. William McMillan, convicted on one charge of forgery, in view of the fact that it was his first offence got off with a year in the Central Prison. George McPhaden, convicted on his own confession of stealing a watch, was allowed to go on his own recognizances to appear when called upon.

The heaviest sentence was passed upon William Hayes, the man convicted of a criminal assault on Minnie McKenna, the full particulars of which have been published. Hayes was sentenced to the highest penalty permissible by law, namely, seven years in the Kingston Penitentiary.

The Ontario Rugby Union held its adjourned annual meeting Saturday afternoon in the Rossin, President Ed. Bayly in the chair. There were present these delegates:

Sarnia, S. F. Houston; London, A. H. Campbell; Stratford, A. W. Ballantyne; Varsity, H. Pope, W. Bunting; Ostario, W. Carleton, J. Pottinger; Osgoode Hall, G. R. Bigger; Ottawa, W. McKay; Queen's College, D. Robertson; Trinity College, H. N. Bedford-Jones; Toronto, A. H. Marsh.

Notices of motion to have the number of players reduced from 15 to 12 a side, and to have an umpire and referee in all matches, were withdrawn.

Mysterious Attempt at Suicide.

ST. CATHARINES, April 26.—An unknown man, aged 61, registered at the American Hotel Wednesday and was assigned a room. Friday night his room door was forced and he was found lying across the bed, apparently dying, with an empty bottle labeled laudanum beside him. Physicians succeeded in reviving him somewhat, but at latest accounts he was unable to tell his name.

Killed By Handling Oats.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 26.—Miss Clara Meredith, until lately cashier and bookkeeper of the Bates House, has just died from blood poisoning, the result of handling oats.

Sugar Poisoning Affair in Scotland.

GLASGOW, April 26.—A woman named Crumb died on Saturday at Crieff, Perthshire, from arsenic contained in sugar. How the poison got into the sugar is quite a mystery. The woman's husband died on Friday night from the same cause. Fifty people are suffering.

Purify Your Blood

The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is heredited and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing more conclusively proven than the positive power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. Thousands testify to the superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. Full information and statements of cures sent free.

A BROTHER'S REVENGE.

THE SHOOTING OF THOS. McCONNELL BY FRED. BARTLETT.

The Principals in the Terrible Tragedy were Victoria County Men—A Determined Race for Life.

The St. Paul's Pioneer Press, of April 19th, gives full particulars of the awful murder which resulted in the death of Thomas McConnel, at the hands of Fred. Bartlett, two men who at one time resided in Victoria County. The REVIEW has already mentioned the tragedy, but the following account shows the awful determination that characterized the deed:—

The most terrible tragedy that has occurred in the history of the Red River valley took place Saturday afternoon near Bowesmont, a small station on the Northern Pacific, about eighteen miles from this city. The tragedy is all the more terrible from the fact that the parties involved were all quiet, peaceful and respected citizens, and most of them were well-to-do farmers, to the most of whom the trouble was as unexpected and surprising as it turned out bloody and tragical.

The man who did the bloody work was a farmer named Fred. Bartlett. He has a brother, Tom, each of them have a farm in the vicinity about a mile apart. They have usually farmed here summers and returned to Chicago in the winter. Last summer a young sister aged about fifteen, came out to keep house for them. She was petite, but quite pretty. Near by, about a mile away, lived Thomas McConnel, also a farmer, and at that time a bachelor. McConnell paid some attention to the girl during the summer, taking her to picnics, etc., but last fall married a young lady from Carlisle, a Miss Works. Miss Bartlett returned to Chicago last fall, where she has a married brother, and where she now is. During the months since the Bartlett boys have taken the matter very much to heart and the elder one especially has brooded over it constantly. They have tried to see if they could not call McConnell to account in the courts, but found under the circumstances, not being able to prove a promise to marry, that they had no case. Fred is reported to have then said, "That if the law could not punish him that he would do it himself."

THE TRAGEDY.

Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. McConnel just after dinner went to Robert Irwin's, who lived about two miles away, to visit. Irwin and his hired man, W. Upton Hill, had a team backed up to the stable door and were busy cleaning and loading seed, while McConnel stood in a stall near by with his two horses. Fred and Tom Bartlett had come from Tom's place just across the road from Irwin's, where they were building a new stable. The Bartletts had been in the habit of putting their team in Irwin's stable and came over at times for that purpose. Tom Bartlett remained outside while Fred brought in the horse; he spoke to Irwin and Hill but said nothing to McConnel. Passing into an adjoining stall he tied his horse, then stepping out and in between McConnel's horses, he drew a revolver and fired two shots at McConnel, both taking effect in the breast but not seriously disabling him. Bartlett then went back, passing through a door near by into a hay mow. Irwin followed him in and said, "What in the world are you doing, Fred?" Fred answered, "He ruined my sister; I've killed him and I am going to die for it." Irwin then tried to persuade him to put up his pistol and go home, and Fred put up the pistol. In the meantime McConnell had passed out of the stable and gone to a shanty outbuilding near, passing Tom Bartlett on the way. Tom Bartlett came in where Irwin and his brother were and said, "come on, Fred!" Irwin thought they meant to go home, and soon as they got outside the stable, Tom pointed to the small shanty outbuilding where McConnell was, and Fred started for the shanty. Irwin, who had followed from the stable, then realized that they were still on the shoot and seized Fred Bartlett by the arm. Hill grabbed him by the other arm, then Tom Bartlett seized Hill and flung him away from Fred. Fred then turned on Irwin and said, "Let go me or I'll shoot you!" and immediately fired, striking Irwin almost in the centre portion of the abdomen. Irwin then let him go, and Fred, running after Hill, fired two shots at him, saying "I'll shoot the whole lot of you." Hill, badly wounded in the breast, escaped to the dwelling house, where the frightened woman locked the door. Then Fred turned and went to the shanty where McConnell was, and meeting McConnell at the door, snapped the revolver at him, in his excitement evidently forgetting that he had emptied the five chambers already. The two men clinched and had a struggle but McConnell getting himself free, ran around the stable, Tom Bartlett trying to head him off with a revolver in his hand, and Fred following reloading his revolver from cartridges in his pocket as he ran. McConnell ran around the stable to where Irwin was, and Irwin told him, "run to the house, they are going to kill you sure." McConnell did as directed, but was delayed considerably by the door being locked, and by the time he got in the Bartletts' coming around the stable, discovered where he had gone.

Irwin's horses, which had been standing at the door of the stable, had been frightened by the shooting, ran away and at this time came circling around near the building again. Irwin ran out and caught them and jumped into the wagon and drove over to Johnston's, near by, for help. While he was gone the Bartlett boys went to the house, forced open the door, and Fred pointed the revolver at Mrs. McConnell, but, lowering it, said, "I won't shoot you, but I will kill Tom." Then Fred Bartlett started upstairs to the open room to which Hill and McConnell had fled. Four steps up a door barred the way. Hill and McConnell tried to hold the door, until Fred Bartlett shot through the panels, hitting McConnell in the leg. McConnell then went to the window upstairs and, forcing out the sash, jumped to the ground. He then ran to the stable and concealed himself. Here he remained for a few minutes getting his breath, then getting frightened again, started off in a northerly direction along the track, across some breaking. In the meantime Bartlett forced open the stair door and rushed up stairs, found that McConnel had escaped, and in his blind rage again fired at the already wounded Hill, this time shattering his arm close to the shoulder. Tom then called to Fred to come down. They then hitched their horse to the buggy. Fred got in and Tom walked, both going in the direction of Tom's house, about two hundred yards away, across the road and in the same direction McConnel had gone from the stable. The frightened and dazed people at Irwin's watching them did not know where McConnel had gone, but saw Tom Bartlett coming out from the back of his house, pointing up the breaking, and Fred lashing his horse in pursuit of McConnel, who was running ahead and dodging first one side and then the other of the horse's head to avoid the revolver shots which Fred was firing at him. At last McConnel got one in the mouth ranging downward to the neck, taking out a couple of teeth; this knocked him down and Fred, jumping out of the buggy, came up to him. McConnel looked up and said, "Well, Fred, you have done me now." "Yes," answered Bartlett, "and now I'll finish you," and stooping down, placed his bull-dog revolver to McConnel's ear and fired. Then the two brothers (for Tom had by this time come up on foot) climbed into the buggy and rode away.

A Brilliant Player.

Daily Spectator, Hamilton, Dec. 10th, 1888, says:—"Mr. J. Churchill Arlidge, of Toronto, was the only performer who was a stranger to the Hamilton public. He is a flutist who plays not only with rare skill and brilliancy, but also with a discriminating delicacy of expression when such is required. There is evidently much music in his soul. His brilliant executive power was shown in his two solos, but the sympathetic support which he gave to the voices in his two obligatos betrayed a sunacquired musical instinct. He was twice recalled and responded both times—the first time with the last movement of the solo, and the second time with the simple, unembellished air, "Home, Sweet Home." Mr. Arlidge made friends of the audience last night, and everybody who heard him will be glad to hear him again." Mr. Arlidge plays at the P.A.A.A. concert, Tuesday evening, April 28th. ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

"CHUB" COLLINS A DECEIVER.

DUNDAS, April 26.—Charles Collins, hotel-keeper, better known as "Chub" Collins, baseball player and umpire, is being sued by Miss Phoebe Smith, who was employed for some time in the Dundas Cotton Mills, but who is now a resident of Hamilton, for breach of promise. Everybody who has ever taken an interest in baseball knows "Chub" Collins. For many years he was a member of the Hamilton team, and since he retired from active part in the game as a player he has acted as umpire in the International as well as in some of the larger leagues.

Artistic Photographers.

A few of our Canadian cities can boast of Photographers who can compete successfully with any in the world, as far as beautiful and finely finished Photography is concerned. Of course such Artists are largely patronized by those who value good work, and who pay no more for it than the ordinary Photographer would charge.

Sales Worth Attending.

Mr. C. Stapleton, auctioneer, has booked for early in May two sales of household furniture, furnishings, etc. The goods to be disposed of are all new and in first-class order and of very desirable quality. The circumstances of the sales require that everything must be sold without reserve. Those who are proposing to buy furniture should wait for these sales and possibly secure what they require at prices very much below the average. 3197

The publishers of Our Homes, a large, elegantly printed 32-page magazine, announce that in order to increase their circulation they are willing to devote their entire first year's profits to this end, and in order to do so, offer competitions in which they give large cash rewards to those taking part. One of these competitions is now in progress and closes on April 25th. In addition to the large amount given in cash on their general prize list, they offer as an extra inducement the following special cash prizes:—During the weeks ending April 11th and April 18th they offer daily cash prizes of $10, and a weekly cash prize of $50 for the first named week, and $100 for the latter. For the week ending April 25th they offer daily cash prizes of $25, and a prize of $100 for the week. These exceedingly generous prizes are in addition to the general prize list, and the person who gets one of the special rewards may also get a large prize in the general list. No other magazine publishers have ever made such a liberal offer, and as the competition remains open three more weeks you should avail yourself of the liberal offer at once. Send 10 cents in stamps for a sample copy of Our Homes and complete particulars of the competition. Address OUR HOMES PUBLISHING CO., Brockville, Ont. 41d46-7w

BUY NOW IF AT ALL.

EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Fitz property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighborhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

THEY HAVE MARCHED ON.

SEVENTY-SECOND ANNIVERSARY OF ODDFELLOWSHIP.

The Local Brethren at Church—One Soweth and Another Reapeth—Able and Appropriate Sermon By Rev. E. F. Torrance—Speeches at the Lodge Room.

Time as it ever moves on toward the ocean of eternity sees the retrograde or onward movement of all things, no person or organization remaining in an unchanged condition during the flight of years. In no organization, perhaps, have the fleeting years seen more advancement or greater increase than in the Independent Order of Oddfellows. Founded seventy-two years ago in North America on the 26th of April, 1819, by Thos. Wildey, who brought with him from England the seed which has grown into a mighty tree, until the Order is known everywhere as a benefactor of mankind, and the emblem of the tripple links is to be found in every clime.

Yesterday was therefore the seventy-second anniversary of the American Order, and the day was suitably celebrated all over Canada and the United States. In Peterborough Oddfellowship is vigorous and strong, and the brethren here commemorated the anniversary in an appropriate manner. To the number of over two hundred the members of the two local lodges and Peterborough Canton assembled in Otonabee Lodge rooms and at seven o'clock marched in procession to St. Paul's church, where Rev. E. F. Torrance preached an eloquent and appropriate discourse. Bro. W. J. Miller, of Otonabee Lodge, and Bro. A. McIntosh, of Peterborough Lodge, performed the duties of marshals, while among those in the procession were two Past Grand Masters of the Order in Ontario, Bro. Read, of Brockville, and Bro. Dr. Bell, of Otonabee Lodge. Canton Peterborough, in full uniform, headed the procession.

The service was a most interesting one. At the church the centre pews were reserved for the members of the Order, while the remainder of the commodious edifice was filled by the congregation and friends of the Oddfellows. The sermon was well adapted to the congregation, and not a word from the rev. gentleman's lips fell on inattentive ears. The singing led by the excellent choir under the leadership of the organist and choirmaster, Mr. Arlidge, was hearty and united. The choir also rendered an anthem in grand voice during the time the collection was being raised, and Master Arlidge, the boy soprano, sang "Abide With Me" in a peculiarly sweet and effective manner.

THE SERMON.

Rev. Mr. Torrance chose as the basis of his discourse the words:—

"And herein is that saying true, One soweth and another reapeth. I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labor; other men labored and ye entered into their labors."—John IV., 37 38.

These words, the rev. gentleman said, formed part of the reply which the Lord Jesus made to his disciples upon their return from Sychar. The preacher then followed up the conversation and circumstances as given in the chapter which had led up to the utterance of the words of the text, and asked his hearers to consider first, the saying he had just quoted, and, secondly, the application made of the saying to the disciples, and the application under the circumstances they had met that evening. "One soweth and another reapeth" was an utterance the truth enunciated in which was thought to be one of the anomalies of the world. While the truth might appear to be one of the anomalies of the world, it was inseparately connected with their existence here, so connected that some must reap the harvest others sowed. Fathers sowed seeds by their earnest attention to business and their children reaped the harvest in a superior education and material advancement. A patriot sowed seed and his country reaped the harvest in purer freedom and increased national prosperity. The general sowed seeds when he met the enemy and put him to utter flight, and the nation reaped the benefit. Not only in relations of men to one another was this true, but also of one generation to another. Each generation occupied the position both of sowers and reapers, sowers to those who were to come after them, and reapers to those who had gone before. This was the necessary result of the progress of the human race. In this respect was different from that of the lower animals. The lower animals remained the same as they were years ago. This principle of sowing and reaping, the rev. gentleman proceeded to show, was seen in scientific discovery, and he went on eloquently to point out that the scientist, school boy and illiterate man of to-day all knew many things that were unknown to those who had made discoveries in earlier times. This principle of sowing and reaping was also true in regard to the moral and political reforms. These reforms were introduced by one man, misinterpreted and misunderstood, and sometimes the reformers had obloquy heaped upon them and obtained no benefit from the reforms. But those who came after them reaped the harvest. Wilberforce and Clarkson persevered in their labors for the freedom of the slaves until those labors were crowned with success and the Anglo Saxon race as well as the negroes were now reaping the harvest from the seed these men had sown and a foul blot had been removed from England and the United States and the condition of the negro was improved. Cobden and his agitators for free trade had continued in their agitation until their efforts were also crowned with success and during the years that free trade had prevailed the wealth of England had increased at an enormous rate. The principle of sowing and reaping was true also in regard to literature, although this was not continually advancing as the moral and political reforms. The poets and writers of Greece such as Homer, Aristotle and Demosthenes and, coming down to a later age, those of the Elizabethian period stood out as stars in the firmament and the world was from the galaxy of bright lights. They to-day reaped the benefit, he went on to point out, by reading the thoughts of these men. This principle of sowing and reaping was also true in regard to little acts of every day life and the preacher impressed upon his congregation that as they were reaping the harvest of the seeds of scientific discovery, moral and political reforms and of the firmament of literature, they were also reaping the harvest of the acts of kindness, nobleness and unselfishness of every day life. As they were reaping they should seek to sow such a harvest as would benefit those coming after them. He dwelt upon the thought that it was the little things that aggregated great things and that it was attention to details and little things that had made great men. The preacher then passed on to show the application of the words of the text to the disciples, saying that the Old Testament prophets and the Saviour had sown the seed which had brought forth much fruit to the disciples who reaped the harvest. As to the application to their society he said he found in their constitution and by-laws a clause which said among were (1) to visit the sick, (2) to relieve the distressed, (3) to bury the dead, (4) educate the orphans and (5) to care for the widow. The rev. gentleman then took up each of these benevolent duties which is part of Oddfellowship and showed how each was laid down with special stress in God's Word and in the performance of which Oddfellows and other similar societies were setting an example to the Christian church, the members of which too often left the sick to be visited by the pastor and thought themselves fortunate when they had no poor or distressed among their members. In referring to the duty of relieving the distressed he said 2,384 persons had received sick benefits during the year, 197 widows had received benefits amounting to $15,386. He referred to the harvest which would be reaped from this sowing and in closing he urged them to so sow that those who came after them would derive benefit from that which they had sown. He hoped that they would so sow that they might reap as their harvest immortal life.

AT THE LODGE ROOM.

At the conclusion of the service the brethren reformed in procession and returned to the Lodge room, where they went into open lodge, Bro. Chas. Huffman, N.G of Otonabee Lodge, presiding.

Bro. Huffman made a few opening remarks as to the pleasant character of the service of the evening and the lessons that were to be derived from the discourse delivered.

Bro. Read, Past Grand Master, was called upon and made a short address. He expressed his pleasure at being present to commemorate the anniversary of the Order with the Peterborough brethren and referred to the advancement Oddfellowship had made during its existence of nearly three-quarters of a century. He impressed upon the brethren a thought brought out in the sermon of the evening in regard to the individual responsibility of men and the importance of little things. He spoke of the antagonism which had been exhibited towards the Order by the church not many years ago and rejoiced that things had changed now and the Church and Oddfellowship were going hand in hand doing a common work.

Bro. Dr. Bell, Past Grand Master, and Bro. J. D. Tully, N.G. of Peterborough Lodge, also spoke in a similar strain.

Bro. Early, P.G., of Otonabee Lodge, moved, seconded by Bro. Mulligan, V.G. of Peterborough Lodge, a resolution of thanks to Rev. Mr. Turrance for his eloquent and able sermon, to the officers of St. Paul's church for their kindness in granting the use of their church and to the choir for their excellent singing. The resolution was heartily carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

TO BE IMPROVED.

Mr. Thos. Kelly's Dry Goods Establishment to Undergo Extensive Improvements.

Mr. Thos. Kelly, the well-known dry goods man, is about to make extensive changes in his premises at the corner of Simcoe and George-sts. A large plate glass window will be placed on the Simcoe-st. side of the building at the corner making a fine double show window. Farther west on Simcoe-st. towards the rear of the store another plate glass window will be placed, thus giving much additional light to the interior of the store.

Then inside the store will be refitted from cellar to garret. The shelving will be changed, the ceilings and walls decorated, and many improvements made. When the changes are made the store will have undergone a complete transformation and will be one of the finest dry goods establishments in the town.

These changes will be made as soon as Mr. Kelly can reduce his large stock of staple and fancy dry-goods. In order to do this he proposes to hold a great clearing sale, when he will lighten his stock by giving big bargains.

Simply Appalling.

It seems that an uptown housewife relates that she was about closing an engagement with a new help the other day and after acceding to several stipulations as to hours out, Sunday's off, etc., finally had to break off the prospective engagement, when the applicant inquired whose teas were used in the house, and learning that the article was bought from the regular grocer replied that she couldn't stay in a house and do justice to the table where they did not use Hawley Bros'. teas, the best and purest sold in town. d93f-w18

The superior merit of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral as an anodyne of the most powerful ingredients. Nothing like it has ever been attempted in pharmacy, and its success in the cure of pulmonary complaints is unparalled.

How Great are the Goughs!

There is apparently no limit to the ingenuity and resources of Gough Bros., the wonderful cheap men. Though always making some startling advance on the prominent positions they take, the last great stride is after all, an astonisher. They have saved a great clothing dealer from bankruptcy. He was going to the wall for want of a large amount of ready cash. He offered his stock as a great sacrifice for cash, and Gough Bros. united the resources of their several establishments in Peterborough, Toronto and Brantford (though for ordinary purposes they are absolutely separate and distinct), paid the wholesaler spot cash for a splendid bill of ready made goods, and that enables Gough Bros. to give the magnificent bargains hinted at in the following specimen brick of paralyzed prices—a few diamond pointed tips:

Men's Suits at		Men's Suits at		Boys' Suits at
$16 00	for $8.	$8 00	for $4.90	$4 00	for $2.90
$14 00		$7 00		$4 00
$12 00		$6 00		$3 50
$10 00		$5 00		$3 25

The same sweeping reductions in shoes and boots, and in every line of the several departments of Gough Bros.' business. A special drive in fine wool hats. See to it that you do not miss this wonderful chance, for at the prices quoted Goughs' great stock of goods will go like snow in the midsummer sun, or like the man who "wants work," when you give him a job. 2436-2w18

It is in a Healthy Condition—Letter from the Medical Health Officer.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—The town has been so free from infectious disease in recent years that the occurrence of a few cases of diphtheria excites alarm and gives rise to many misstatements and exaggerations. Allow me, then, to give the exact condition of affairs as regards infectious diseases of the graver kind.

There is not a single case of scarlet fever in town or village. I am not aware of any case of pure typhoid fever. Diphtheria exists in only four houses and the patients are all nearly well; no new case has been reported for several days. Five deaths have unfortunately, occurred in the last month, but the majority—I may say all—were in families to whom no sanitary neglect, public or private, could be imputed. It is easy to say that the Board of Health should take active measures or that the Town Council should put in a system of drainage at once, but, as a matter of fact, diphtheria occurs in the best drained towns and in the best conducted families. It is a disease more similar to typhoid fever than to any other in its mode of propagation. It is not carried in the clothes—to use a common expression—like scarlet fever or small pox. Although not well understood even by the highest authorities, it seems to be due to the coincidence of certain conditions. During the present spring, throat affections have been prevalent, such as common colds, la grippe, quinsies, mumps, measles, scarlet fever, all more or less affecting the throat, and it has invariably been found that under such conditions some cases will take on the diphtheritic form, especially when the system is susceptible.

Regarding the West Ward school, about which so much has been said, the condition of the building and premises is not responsible for the cases in the vicinity. They would have occurred had the school been a mile away. I inspected the buildings and found them in a good sanitary condition. I analyzed the water and found it very good. The privies are not at fault, although to make assurance doubly sure the board are about to construct others. There is very little water in the cellar, but the mere fact of its being damp is not dangerous to the health of the scholars. In private houses where there is decaying animal or vegetable matter in damp cellars there is a good deal of risk. Then as to the means taken to prevent the spread of the disease. Let anyone put his nose into one of the infected houses and he will soon find out whether anything is being done to check it. Never before have isolation and disinfection been so thorough. The question as to whether the father of a family should be allowed to go on with his work is an important one. I have always taken the stand that breadwinning should be interferred with as little as possible, providing no danger is incurred. It is bad enough for a poor man to have diphtheria in his family without being forced to remain idle for a month, but that is not the question. I do not think a man should work among children, and here let me correct another misstatement, namely, that the caretaker of the West Ward has continued his duties the same as before diphtheria occurred in his family. The truth is he was stopped at once and another man put on—his son, it is true, but who lives in another place altogether. I can see no objection to a man working—say in a foundry—provided he uses such precautions as he is sure to use for his own sake. Of course there are some nervous persons who believe that too much cannot be done when a case of diphtheria appears. They think schools and even streets ought to be shut up, and that furniture, clothing, and even the house itself should be burned to ashes. A few years ago a fatal case of diphtheria occurred at a leading hotel in town. The health officer was soundly abused because the house was not placarded at the front door and then practically shut up. Think of the danger to the town and travelling public, people said. What was done was to put the child in a remote room, isolate and disinfect thoroughly, use all possible precautions and the result justified the means used for not another case occurred. When a case of smallpox appeared here some years ago the Board of Health rose to the occasion and soon stamped it out, but diphtheria is a totally different disease and cannot be driven out by so-called vigorous measures. It is the result of many conditions slowly operating together, and all that can be done is to keep the town up to the sanitary standard as far as possible and hope for the best. In Toronto the Board of Health spends $15,000 or $20 000 a year, and yet they have far more diphtheria and typhoid fever in proportion than we have.

Let me here give a hint or two to those who are bringing up small children where diphtheria is prevalent. Boil all water and milk. I don't mean to say that our supply of either is impure, but it is best to be on the safe side. Avoid depressing influences. A child is glad to get out in the early spring, and will play until he is fatigued, inhaling at the same time a good deal of irritating dust. He then comes in and lies down in a cool place. It is in these moments of languor and depression that the germs of disease make headway. At the same time everything about the house should be kept in good sanitary order, and I would here call attention to the provisions of the Health Act which require that all yards and premises be thoroughly cleaned out by the 15th of May. The inspectors will soon be on their rounds and will show no mercy to offenders.

At this point in the history of the town it is unwise to discuss health matters in the newspapers, as it gives the impression that the town is unhealthy, which is utterly untrue. At the same time when glaring misstatements appear in print it is important that they should be contradicted.

Yours, etc.,

J. CLARKE.

Peterborough, April 25, 1891.

P. S.—Since the above was written no new case of infectious disease has appeared up to the time of printing.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is on the flood tide of popularity, which position it has reached by its own intrinsic, undoubted merit.

The Diphtheria Cases.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—People naturally are asking for the cause of the provalence of this disease. The answer is hard to find. Cases have appeared in different parts of the town, but all in the north western part. For years it was the custom with the people in the south end to cry out against Spaulding's bay as a prolific source of sickness, but the fact is, that the south end of the town has been peculiarly free from sickness, and on enquiring it will be found that fewer danger cards have been put up there by the police than in any other part of the town.

Most of the residents in the south end own their houses and in consequence they are more particular in keeping their premises clean than in the more largely rented premises at the centre and northerly part. Then again, very many of the wells at the south end are driven wells, which are most likely to give pure water. Here, then, may be a reason for the comparative freedom from disease, pure water, clean premises. In the north west part of the town there is an extensive gravelly plain, where the water rises near to the surface and many cellars are wet in spring. These are conditions sufficient to account for disease. You have privy vaults, water in abundance, sunk wells. If the polluted water sinks to the wells can good results be expected? Some people blame the White dam for the sickness in its vicinity, but there are above that dam no causes for pollution. It is country from the dam all the way to the swamps from which it is fed. The rise of water in the dam does not affect the cellars, for the cellars on Donegal-st. which are now drained into the creek have become perfectly dry. If the cause is in the water it is because of the privy vaults which contaminate it. The remedy is in abolishing sunk pits. Let all closets be raised sufficiently high to take barrels. Let the scavenger have a legal right to go and remove the barrel, say four times a year, or oftener if needful. Let the scavenger be authorized to lay complaints against all persons who do not afford proper facilities for cleaning. It is an extraordinary thing that a people who are fastidious as to cleanliness in most ways are as to outhouses so utterly indifferent and criminally filthy.

Nothing but heroic measures will compel people to be clean and since we have no drainage the least that should be expected from the Council would be the passing of stringent by-laws to compel people to save their own and others' lives by such sanitary observances as decency and prudence suggest.

BUY A HOME!

Stop Paying Rent! Be Your Own Landlord!

We Offer For Sale by Public Auction on

MONDAY, 11th MAY, 1891, at 3 p. m., ON THE GROUND

Lots on Romaine-st. Each lot is 33ft. by 220ft. Soil high and dry, sandy loam. 10 minutes walk from the Edison Works, Peter Hamilton Works, the Carbon Works and the Bridge Works. The new Electric Car Line will touch this street and George and Aylmer-sts. will be opened through to the Fair ground.

To secure a respectable street the deeds will contain a clause compelling the purchasers when they build to erect a uniform distance from the front, and that the houses when built shall not cost less than $600. These lots are double the depth of the ordinary town lot and are fine for gardening. This is the finest property in the market and one which will afford the best building lots to be had at low prices. These are only lots left on the south side of the street. Lots in the neighborhood half the depth sell at $8 to $10 per foot frontage, while these lots are 220ft. deep and will be sold for what they will bring. These lots while sufficiently near the great factories, are close to George-st. and being off the muck are clean and healthy.

Ten years will be given for payment. $5.00 on the $100 down; $5.00 on the $100, in one month; $10 on the $100 in 3 months, then a free deed will be given and mortgage taken back for the remainder of the purchase money, payable in 9 equal annual payments with interest at 6 per cent. Five per cent. discount will be allowed for cash. For further particulars apply to

A Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache and is the best Spring Medicine. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. and $1 a package.

BEATRIX RANDOLPH.

BY JULIAN HAWTHORNE.

Her head was bent, her veil was over her eyes, the air was full of snow and the confusing dazzle of street lights; it was impossible that she should know who this man was, and yet she did know at once, and she even fancied that she had anticipated the meeting a moment before it occurred. And, first, a great wave of joy seemed to swell and murmur in her heart, and then she called to mind all manner of unwelcome and crippling considerations, and drew herself together in a defensive attitude. Physically she stopped, breathing quickly, and removing one hand from her muff to keep down her veil. She thought he would perhaps not recognize her. But a man can recognize the woman he loves by a glimpse of the movement of her shoulder far off in a crowd—nay, by the toss of the feather in her hat. The magic of love consists mainly in its stimulating us to use our senses; and then we are surprised to discover what marvelous capacity and keenness [illegible]. The heavenly intelligence of angels can only be the result of the depth and ardor of their power to love.

"Mademoiselle"—he began, and stopped, for he had never called her by her real name, and though he knew now what it was it had no personal association with her in his mind. "I was going to find you," he continued.

"I was not lost. So you have returned, Mr. Bellingham?"

"I must speak to you, Miss Randolph!"

"Is it necessary on this corner? A singer must be careful of her throat, you know."

"Take my arm. I'll get a hack for you."

"Thank you; I am doing very well."

She walked on and he walked beside her. The facilities for conversation were certainly not good, even had the readiness been there. He was six or seven inches taller than she, and he was obliged to stoop and speak loud in order to insure her hearing him, while he was in danger of missing or misinterpreting the muffled murmur of her replies. But there was in Bellingham a great deal of constancy and concentration of purpose.

"I don't expect you to forgive me," he said. "Only understand that I can never forgive myself. Such a blunder should have been impossible to a man who felt toward you as I did. If I had been worth your caring for I should not have made it."

"It was natural; you could not have done anything else; I do not blame you,' said Beatrix through her veil. Geoffrey did not wholly catch her words; he understood her to say that such a mistake was only to be expected of him, and his face fell. She perceived the change in him, and faltered out, "I mean that I do forgive you!" But a Fifth Avenue stage, rattling by just then, drowned this sentence altogether.

"I don't mean to persecute you," he remarked, speaking in a monotonous tone, as they walked onward side by side. "I didn't return from Europe for that; I merely wanted you to know. I used to think that, whatever happened, I could always think and act like a man who believed in goodness and—purity. But I failed at the important moment, and you may be right—it was only natural in me. For a long time—many years—before I met you I had nothing to do with women, and thought as little as possible about them. You seemed to me, when I first saw you, at the same time, everything that I most disliked. It was the contradiction between what I felt you were and what I thought you were. That began with our first evening and went on exaggerating itself until the end. That's my story, Miss Randolph. After all it's only a long way of saying, 'I made a mistake and beg your pardon.'"

Beatrix heard all this, and the more she heard the more tormented she felt and the faster she tried to talk; but the sidewalks were slippery, and at last in crossing the street her foot slipped, and she would have fallen if Geoffrey had not caught her arm. She stopped, pressing her hands, which were clasped inside her muff, against her heart, and glancing this way and that, like a bird that knows not which way to fly. She was just in such a half frantic, half hopeless mood as often prompts women to acts which appear—and perhaps really are—insane. She knew that on the passing moment depended probably the failure or success, the happiness or misery, of her whole future life. She knew that everything was going topsy-turvy, absurdly and gratuitously wrong. And she felt paralyzed—wholly unable to utter a word to set everything right. A word would have done it. What prevented her? In part, perhaps, the very urgency of her desire, which tripped up its performance.

But what appeared to be the real obstacles were utterly trivial material accidents, such as being in the open street, being buffeted by the wind, being obstructed by her veil, being unable to see the expression of Bellingham's face, because it was in shadow. The more despicable small the hindrances were, and the more out of proportion with the thing they were hindering, the less could Beatrix prevail against them. So it often seems to be in this world; it is not only that the mountain in labor brings forth a mouse, but that a mouse prevents the bringing forth of a mountain.

Bellingham also was wretchedly aware that he had ruined whatever little chance he may have had; that he had spoken boldly and perfunctorily, with a frozen tongue, although his heart was on fire. He could not help it; he could have died for her on the spot, but he could not put into his voice or face as much life as would have kept a gnat in motion. It was all over.

"Will you stop this stage for me, please?" Beatrix had said as another of those gorgeous vehicles came swinging and lumbering along.

"With pleasure!" Bellingham replied, not ironically, but mechanically. The stage pulled up: he handed all he loved in the world up the step; he saw her fall into a seat, and then, with a jerk and a hoof clatter, stage and all disappeared in the gloom and snow. Bellingham remained for a few moments in the middle of the road like a policeman till, recollecting himself, he saw before him the hospitable entrance of Delmonico's, and went in there.

Catarrh

IS a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emaciated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom it had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."—Charles H. Maloney, 113 River st., Lowell, Mass.

Two Good Things IN FLOUR!

1. Scale Weight.

2. First Quality.

If good flour makes good bread it follows that one sort of flour makes better bread than another.

Which sort makes best?

That depends. The best flour is the purest, the best ground, the strongest and containing the most health-giving and nourishing properties.

These good points are all found in our Flour.

Have you tried it? Perhaps yes. Perhaps no. If you have not, do so, and you may find a better flour than you have been using, and we a customer.

ATTRACTIONS IN DRY GOODS
At TURNBULL'S.

The change in the weather has brought with it a great demand for millinery; also for spring shades in dress goods. Our store was never more attractive in these lines than at present. We have every New Shade of Dress Goods in Stock, with Millinery to match. If you are in town this week have a look at our Gray Dress Goods and Millinery window. Large Gray Checks for young people made up alone or mixed with Black, Small Black and White Checks and Stripes. Broken patterns for older people, goods that are hard to find in Neat Patterns. We justly claim to take the lead in our Tailoring department for Quality of Goods, Fit and Price. We get up a Splendid Suit in Halifax Tweed or Navy Serge for $12.00. Fine grades of Almento and other makes of Tweed for $13.00, $14.00, $15.00 and $16.00; Scotch Tweeds and Serges from $16.00 to $20.00 for the best. Fine All Wool Worsted, Venetian Finish or Diagonal Cords for Coat and Vest, with Black or Fancy Panting to match, at from $19.00 to $22.00 a suit. Remember our prices. Call and see our Stock and do not go and pay a great deal higher figure through force of habit. We have added this week to our already Attractive Stock of Boys' Clothing another shipment just turned out of the manufacturer's hands, Neat and New Styles. We have shown an Immense Range of Patterns in Cottonades and Shirtings in the Best Quality; we also keep all the lower lines, beginning at 5c. a yard for Shirtings and 12½c. for Cottonades.

We have an opening now for an apprentice in the Millinery department. Apply until Saturday.

MANIPUR BURNED.

THE REBELS FIRE THE VILLAGE AND FLEE TO THE HILLS.

The Capital of the Disaffected Country Was to Have Been Assaulted at Daylight This Morning Unless it Capitulated in the Meantime.

SIMLA, April 27.—Despatches received here from the commander of the British columns advancing upon Manipur show that the British troops are now within 10 miles of Imphal, the capital of Manipur. A body of cavalry sent forward on reconnaissance has rejoined the main body of the British troops and reports that the troopers found the country ahead to be deserted. The British force will attempt to take Imphal by assault at 5 o'clock to-morrow morning unless the capital surrenders before that time.

It is reported that the Maharajah has fled from Manipur and that previous to his departure he caused the town to be set on fire. Manipur is said to have been destroyed.

LONDON, April 27.—It is generally believed here that England will annex outright the little State which is wedged in between the British possessions in India and Burmah, interrupting communications, barring the way to a development of commerce, and constituting, as the present sad experience goes to prove, a harboring ground for all that is most dangerous from the side of the fierce border tribes.

AN INSURGENT DEFEAT.

LONDON, April 27.—At the Registrar's office in South Shields yesterday a midget girl only 30 inches high was married to Prof. Hedley, a man 6 feet 1 inch tall. Humbert, the man without arms, gave the bride away, signing the certificate by holding the pen between his teeth. The bridesmaid was Miss Nina, the American giantess, who weighs 616 pounds.

The best man was Capt. Dallis, who is 7 feet 10 inches tall. Gen. Motilona, 29 inches high, was one of the wedding party. All were connected with a traveling circus going through the country.

A gang of robbers attacked the railroad station at Arad, 145 miles from Buda Pesth, last night, killed the watchman, and breaking open the safe stole all the registered letters. The latter contained, in addition to money and postal orders, articles of jewelry valued at $5000.

Capt. Verney's conviction on the charge of procuration is almost certain. The Crown's evidence shows that for ten years Verney, under different names, has been carrying on this nefarious pursuit. He had actually rented a house in a quiet part of London, where his victims were enticed. It is believed he will not get above six months' imprisonment, two years being the maximum for his offence if convicted. If convicted he will be expelled from the House of Commons.

The N.Y. State Board of Mediation and Arbitration has submitted its fourth annual report to the Legislature. The number of strikes in the state during the year was much greater than in any previous year since the creation of the board. In the building trade particularly has this been the case, one or more strikes occurring on nearly every working day of the year. Special reference is made to the "sweating system" practised by the contractors or middlemen in New York.

BRITISH HOUSE OF LORDS.

KNUTSFORD'S COERCION BILL PASSES ITS SECOND READING.

Adverse Criticism of the Proposed Measure—Suggestions As To the Continuation of the Modus Vivendi—The Position of the Imperial Government on the Question.

LONDON, April 27.—In moving the second reading of his bill, known as the "Newfoundland Coercion Bill," in the House of Lords to-day, Lord Knutsford, Secretary of State for Colonial Affairs, contended that the bill did not interfere with local questions in Newfoundland nor with the independence of the colonial Legislature. He also said it was a matter of Imperial obligation that the arrangements affecting the fishing rights of France should be as binding upon the colony as upon the Empire. The Government, he added, desires to meet the wishes of the colonies, so far as is consistent with international obligations. Lord Knutsford added that the measure took the colony by surprise. The Colonial Government, he said, never held out any hopes that they would consent to legislation on the basis of arbitration and they could not expect the French Government to accept general arbitration. If the colonists made that the sine qua non, the Imperial Government would go on with the bill in its present form. The second reading of the bill would not take place in the House of Commons before Whitsuntide (week of May 18), thus giving ample time to consider any amendment which might be suggested. Lord Knutsford hoped reasonable counsels would prevail and thus maintain harmony all around. He said that if before the bill reached the House of Commons, the Colonial Legislature passed an act which, in the Government's opinion, was sufficient to secure the observance of the modus vivendi of 1891 and to enforce the decision of the arbitration commission on the lobster question and in regard to the treaties existing between England and France the Government would not proceed with the bill. But if such an act was not passed by the Colonial Legislature it would be necessary to pass the Imperial Government's measure as rapidly as possible. The Government was ready to consider with the Newfoundland delegates the terms of the bill which they suggested might be discussed. But difficulties of an international character required careful handling, and the passage of the Colonial Act should not be delayed until the terms proposed by the Imperial bill were settled. The Government saw no difficulty in giving Newfoundland representation on the arbitration commission; in fact, the Government had requested the colony to name a delegate to act on the present arbitration commission, but the colony had refused to do so. "The colonists may be assured," said Lord Knutsford, "that we should not further press any of the subsidiary points referred to arbitration until the Imperial Government had fully consulted the colonists."

The Earl of Kimberley said the Newfoundland Government ought to have been notified of the Imperial intention in regard to Newfoundland. The present position of affairs demanded that the bill ought not to be carried further until the Newfoundland Legislature had further considered the matter. Lord Kimberley hoped Lord Knutsford's measure would never be required.

Lord Dunraven criticised the bill adversely. All the questions involved, he said, ought to be submitted to arbitration.

Lord Herschell thought Newfoundland was justly indignant, seeing that France pressed the treaties beyond legitimate grounds. The bill passed the second reading without a division.

FIRES OF A NIGHT.

A Village in Essex County Stands a Good Chance of Being Wiped Out.

COMBER, Ont., April 27.—At 10 to-night fire destroyed Harmer's hotel here. The residence of Moses Creighton is also in flames. The M.C.R. came to the rescue by sending an engine to aid with water. The big barn belonging to the hotel is in flames, and Lindlaie and Ainslie planing mills, the elevator at the station, besides a row of houses, are in great danger. The northern part of the village is doomed as well as the station. Assistance has arrived from the neighboring towns.

The residence of Leonard Woolly of South Dorchester, near Springfield, was burned yesterday. Cause, defective chimney. Loss $600; insurance $300.

The dwelling of George Carr, a farmer, near Brussels, was destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss $600, insurance $400.

At Hamilton yesterday Frank Rowlin's fertilizing factory was damaged to the extent of $7000 with $400 insurance; Prof. Hand's fireworks factory caught fire from a stove and $200 damage was occasioned and Charles Newberry's carriage house, Robert-street, was damaged to the extent of $150.

For Robbing His Mother-in-Law.

HAMILTON, April 27.—George Haskins, a clerk in the office of the E. & C. Gurney Company, is under arrest on a charge of embezzlement. The warrant was issued on the information of Mrs. Doyle of Brockville, his mother-in-law, who claims that when Haskins was living in Brockville Mrs. Doyle entrusted him with $2100, a piano and some household goods. Haskins afterwards skipped out. The prisoner claims that the goods were given him.

A Murder Over Marbles.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 27.—James Lenox, aged 7 years, to-day shot Benjamin Griffith, aged 9. The boys were playing marbles with Charles Bushell, aged 15. They quarreled and Bushel handed Lenox the revolver, urging him to use it. The ball lodged in Griffith's brain.

Princeton's Mystery Unravelled.

PRINCETON, April 27.—A telegram has been received from Mr. Latimer, the Princeton station agent, from Bridgeport, Conn., where he has been laid up with the grip. He is with his wife and her friends. He promises to write more fully as soon as able.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

The Cost of the New Parliament Buildings Will Be $1,330,000.

TORONTO, April 28.—The Ontario Legislature is fast completing its labors.

Mr. Fraser, in moving a resolution to provide for the further expenditure of $120,000 in connection with the new Parliament buildings assured the Assembly most positively yesterday that the buildings would be completed for the sum of $1,330,000. Tenders had been accepted for 3 out of the 4 classes of work remaining to be done, namely, for lathing and plastering, for heating and ventilating and for plumbing. The tenders for roof covering, slating, copper work, etc., were refused because they were too high. New tenders for this work would be called. The tenders accepted amounted in all to $112,900. The names and individual amounts could not be given because the contracts were not yet signed. He was confident from the rate at which the structure was building that the work now under contract would be completed before the end of this season, that the departments would occupy the east wing before the close of next year and that the Legislature would meet there session after next. In reply to Mr. Meredith, he said he could not give any estimate of the cost of furnishing or of beautifying the grounds.

Patrick O'Brien, the efficient housekeeper of the Legislative buildings, was presented yesterday by Dr. Willoughby, on behalf of the Conservative members, with a beautiful set of gold studs and cuff buttons engraved with his initials in recognition of his services during the session.

A deputation consisting of W. G. Reid, contractor; S. R. Poulin, engineer; J. M. Ansley, secretary, and W. Beatty, director, of the Parry Sound Railway asked the Government yesterday for a bonus for four miles of their road additional to the 45 miles already bonused.

About 10 o'clock this morning the police at [illegible] Station were notified that the body of a woman was floating in the slip by Salter's boat house, foot of Sherbourne-street. The corpse was removed to the Morgue, where it now awaits identification. It is that of a woman apparently about 25 years of age, 5 feet 4 in. in height. The deceased has evidently been in the water some weeks. It is believed the body is that of Lizzie Fitzgerald, a prostitute, who has been missing about four weeks.

The wholesale and retail grocers of the city gathered at the Queen's Hotel last night and tendered a complimentary banquet to Hon. Frank Smith on the eve of his retirement from the grocery business after a lifelong connection therewith. The Senator expressed the sorrow the severance occasioned him, but as he was getting up in years and by frugality and industry had acquired enough of this world's goods to carry him through, he thought best to retire. He reviewed his career from the time when he was a penniless lad at Dixie, Ont., until last night, and it is indisputable that his life has been one of energy. A beautiful illuminated address was presented to Mr. Smith and thereon was engrossed the respect in which the trade held him.

CARLING A SENATOR.

A Temporary Arrangement Under Which He is to Retain His Portfolio.

OTTAWA, April 27.—Hon. John Carling has been called to the Senate. He will retain his portfolio as Minister of Agriculture, the Parliamentary part of his work being carried on by one of his colleagues. It is understood that this is a movement not bearing the character of permanency, and the expectation is generally entertained that he will soon be in his accustomed seat in the House.

Hon. Alexander Lacoste has been appointed Speaker of the Senate.

As previously announced Mr. Peter White is to be Speaker of the House of Commons, and it is definitely settled that Dr. Grandbois, M.P. for Temiscouata, is to be Deputy-Speaker. Mr. Corbould, M.P. for New Westminster, and Mr. Hazen, M.P. for St. John city, will move and second the address in reply to the speech from the throne.

There are already over 186 applications for private bills, a greater number than for several years past.

The senators will have to hear seven divorce cases. They are as follows: Thomas Bristow of Collingwood, Mary Ann Beattie of Glanford, Mabel Ellis of Toronto, W. J. Murdock of Toronto, H. R. Mead of Pincher Creek, Adam Hamworm of Carrick and Isabel Carpenter of Hamilton.

Three times in all has Parliament met in April. In 1869 Parliament opened April 15 and prorogued June 22. In 1873 the date of opening was April 11 and prorogation June 14, and in 1887 the first session of the sixth Parliament was opened April 13 and prorogued June 23. Parliament has only twice sat well into the summer months, the first being the session of 1873, which closed August 13, and the second that of the long session of 1885, when Parliament sat from Jan. 29 to July 20.

Both houses of Parliament have been thoroughly renovated and put in readiness for Wednesday's proceedings. The precincts of both houses have already assumed a business-like appearance. Each train as it arrives brings an additional number of members and senators to swell the small contingent who have already arrived and taken up their quarters in the city.

The Federation of Belgian miners has decided to go on strike with the German miners in the effort to obtain the passage of laws making eight hours a legal day's work and granting universal suffrage.

April showers may be the forerunner of May flowers, and they are also certain to bring with them colds in the head, which if neglected, develop into catarrh, perhaps into consumption and death. Nasal Balm never fails to give instant relief, and will surely cure the worst case of catarrh. [illegible]. Sold by all dealers.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

THE HAPPENINGS OF A DAY ACROSS THE OCEAN.

A Mother's Desperation and [illegible]—A Frank Wedding—The Samoan Naval Treaty—Von Moltke's Will—Cable Between England and Germany.

LONDON, April 27.—The dispute between Actress Dorothy Dene and her dressmaker was brought into court yesterday. The judge ordered Dorothy and her sister to put on the gowns. Dorothy appeared in a beautiful brown and gold silk costume, while her sister wore one of heliotrope. The judge patted the ladies, turned them about, and after critically scanning the costumes, decided that they were not good fits.

Dorothy's sister declared that the collar of her dress was too tight. His Honor inserted his fingers between her neck and collar, and agreed in her view of the case.

BECAUSE HER HUSBAND WAS FALSE.

She Strangles Her Children and Burns Herself to Death.

METZ, April 27.—A farmer named Winkart, living with his wife and two children in the outskirts of this city, has of late been making love to a handsome young woman in the neighboring village of Proing. Heartbroken at her husband's treachery Mrs. Winkart locked all the doors, strangled her children, clothed herself in white and, having saturated a bed with oil, lay down upon it and set it afire. At the same moment she cut her throat with a razor to make doubly sure of death. The house was nearly destroyed by fire, and the bodies of the mother and two children were burned to a crisp.

A Terrible Scene at a Wedding.

HAMBURG, April 27.—During a wedding supper last evening at Strade, about twenty miles from this city, the bridegroom, named Ehlers, quarreled with a former suitor of the bride, one Behren, who was among the guests. A fierce fight ensued, Behren attacking Ehlers with a table-knife. Mrs. Ehlers vainly endeavored to separate the men, and the struggle went on until Ehlers fell dead, stabbed to the heart by his unsuccessful rival in love. Behren and all the guests were arrested.

Monte Carlo's Victims.

MONTE CARLO, April 27.—Great excitement has been caused here by a sensational suicide which took place last night. An English lady of fashionable appearance, who is supposed to have lost large sums recently at the gaming table, suddenly plunged headforemost into the sea from the top of the terrace. A sailor sprang into the water and brought her body to land. The lady's name has not been made public.

Reported Italo-English Compact.

LONDON, April 27.—Notwithstanding denials there is reason to believe the report of an Italo-English alliance, [illegible] tive. It is stated on authority generally accurate that England has been asked to protect Italy from hostile approach by sea, Italy in turn placing her fleet at the disposal of Great Britain.

The only happening stated for such an arrangement is that in the event of war a French squadron might descend upon the Italian coast and capture Rome and Naples, after defeating the Italian fleet.

Russia's Tariff.

LONDON, April 27.—The Russian customs commission proposes to tax jute, sulphur and other raw products, hitherto free, and to increase the duty on woolens, silks, dressed leathers, manufactured and some cast irons. Fifty per cent. of imports will be liable to duty.

The British Census.

LONDON, April 27.—The British census shows, as did the last German enumeration, an increase of population in the cities and a decrease in nearly all the rural and farming districts. Some of the cities are growing very rapidly. Glasgow has gained 85,000 in the decade.

The South Africa Convention.

LONDON, April 27.—Sir James Fergusson, Under Foreign Secretary, stated in the House of Commons to-day that the Portuguese Government had not yet accepted the convention regarding South Africa, but instead had sent counter proposals, which were now being discussed.

An Indecent Paper Seized.

LONDON, April 27.—The police have seized to-day's issue of Vie Parisienne, owing to indecent pictures.

Mrs. Henry K. Updegrave Enjoys a Unique Distinction.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., April 27.—The wife of Henry K. Updegrave, who keeps a hotel at Tower City, lacks over three months of being 48, but is a great-grandmother. She was married when only 13. The eldest of her children was born a year after her mother's marriage and was named Martha. She at the age of 15 married Jonathan Rumberger. Within a year Martha had a daughter whom she christened Maggie. A year ago Maggie, who was then 16, married Daniel Mesmer and to this pair a son has just been born. At 30 Mrs. Updegrave was a grandmother, and now as a great-grandmother at 47 is still remarkably comely in feature and graceful in figure with glossy raven hair and sparkling black eyes. Should the young Mesmer boy thrive and ultimately marry early, as there is every prospect of doing if he follows the traditions of his family, she may confidently look forward to being a great-great-grandmother and possibly a great-great-great-grandmother.

Death in a Mosquito Bite.

PHILADELPHIA, April 27.—James McDevitt, aged 57, of Chestnut-place, was bitten by a mosquito four years ago. He scratched the sore [illegible] until his face became greatly swollen and he was in danger of dying from blood poisoning. Yesterday he was admitted to the hospital and to-day he died.

Had His Leg Cut Off.

BELLEVILLE, April 27.—This morning about 9 o'clock John Millin, a freight conductor on the G.T.R., slipped while [illegible] a train at Mallorytown and had his leg cut off. Mr. Millin has been [illegible] here and Brockville, where he resides, for the past 20 years. He was taken to his home.

To Protect [illegible] Fishermen.

HALIFAX, N.S., April 27.—The captain of the British warship Pelican, which arrived from Bermuda yesterday, received orders from the Imperial authorities while at Bermuda to proceed to St. George's, Newfoundland, as soon as the ice would permit, to protect the interests of Canadian fishermen.

Purchased the Galt Line.

WINNIPEG, April 27.—A rumor is current throughout the west that the Galt Railroad has been purchased by the C.P.R., who will broaden the gauge to Lethbridge from Dunmore and extend the line through Crow's Nest Pass to Kootenay District in British Columbia.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

That Tired Feeling

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." Ed. Jenkins, Mt. Savage, Md.

Fagged Out

"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. Begole, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out

"Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Indeed, I might say truthfully it saved my life. To one feeling tired and worn out I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. Phebe Moshier, 10 Brooks Street, East Boston, Mass.

The Collegiate Institute Building.

The Committee of Appointments of the Board of Education met last evening but little business was disposed of. The subject of much discussion was the Inspector's report on the building and the matter was left to be further discussed at the regular meeting of the Board on Tuesday evening next. The question of an Institute building will now probably have to be faced. To make the present building meet the requirements it will necessitate the expenditure of about five thousand dollars and then only give a third class building. A new building with grounds and proper equipment would probably cost between thirty and forty thousand dollars. The question of a new building will have to be faced sooner or later and some think it might better be faced at once.

The Human Body Affected by Atmospheric Changes.

It is believed by many scientists that the electrical conditions of the atmosphere have a considerable effect upon the human body. Many persons are seriously affected during a thunderstorm, under circumstances that preclude the supposition that the effects are owing to fear. There are many persons that can predict a storm by a peculiar physical condition. Probably much of the influence of certain winds upon the system is owing to this cause.

It is an acknowledged fact that broken-down and debilitated systems are easily and often most seriously affected by electrical atmospheric changes. These varied changes and conditions of atmosphere at this season are particularly fraught with difficulty and danger to those who suffer from nervous debility, a tired, wearied feeling, a clouded brain sensation, restless and disturbed sleep, a languid feeling, a morose disposition, melancholia and feelings of morbidness. All of these characteristics are to be dreaded; they are symptoms which lead to terrible and direful results, unless promptly attended to. The genius and science of man has fortunately come to the rescue of suffering humanity with that wonderful preparation, Paine's Celery Compound. It is no simple tonic, causing exhilaration at the moment it is used, without after effects. It is a true brain and nerve food, giving strength and vitality to all parts of the system, and builds up a body with vigor to resist the various forms of disease which lurk around. Paine's Celery Compound has always been successful when physicians have failed; it has given life and strength to the weak, and long years to the hopeless and despairing one.

Messianic Prophecy.

The Review has received from the author, Mr. John Carlisle, a pamphlet on Messianic prophecy, being an answer to the views expressed in a lecture and afterwards published by Prof. Workman. Mr. Carlisle examines this new doctrine in the light of Scripture, and his quotations from the sacred volume are apt and the conclusions drawn from them plain. The pamphlet is vigorously written and is an earnest protest against the teaching of views such as Prof. Workman has expressed. It is neatly printed and will no doubt be largely read.

The publishers of Our Homes, a large, elegantly printed 32-page magazine, announce that in order to increase their circulation they are willing to devote their entire first year's profits to this end, and in order to do so, offer competitions in which they give large cash rewards to those taking part. One of these competitions is now in progress and closes on April 25th. In addition to the large amount given in cash on their general prize list, they offer as an extra inducement the following special cash prizes:—During the weeks ending April 11th and April 18th they offer daily cash prizes of $10, and a weekly cash prize of $50 for the first named week, and $100 for the latter. For the week ending April 25th they offer daily cash prizes of $25, and a prize of $100 for the week. These exceedingly generous prizes are in addition to the general prize list, and the person who gets one of the special rewards may also get a large prize in the general list. No other magazine publishers have ever made such a liberal offer, and as the competition remains open three more weeks you should avail yourself of the liberal offer at once. Send 10 cents in stamps for a sample copy of Our Homes and complete particulars of the competition. Address Our Homes Publishing Co., Brockville, Ont. 4d40-7w

School Accommodation.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—I have noticed from the papers that our good friends, the people of Norwood, are about to build a new grammar school. They have figured the matter out and come to the conclusion that the presence of a large number of students in their village is a source of profit, and so they have determined to build a large and commodious building for the better accommodation of their high school. This, Mr. Editor, is in striking contrast with the action of the Peterborough people, who are content to have underground cellars used for school rooms. Is it any wonder that the Government demurs to making grants to a people who are unable to appreciate the fact that a college in their midst is from every standpoint a source of profit to the town? Now that the new law will compel the county to pay a fair fee for the tuition of the county pupils, will Peterborough pursue the suicidal policy of driving those who would buy property here for the sake of educational advantages to Norwood? Can we expect county pupils to put up with cellar accommodation when they can get health, sweetness and light at the same price in other places?

We are up to the mark in most respects, but as to high school accommodation we are not to be named with Campbellford, Lindsay, Bowmanville—and Norwood will soon laugh at us. What is to be done, Mr. Editor? Shall this state of things continue, or shall we redeem ourselves and come up in respect to our institute with our high efforts in industrial enterprises?

The Collegiate Institute is now, I am told, charged $1,000 a year rental. We can get money on 30 year debentures at 5 per cent. An expenditure of $20,000 for a school would be $1,300 a year. The present accommodation is insufficient, and when the new commercial department is running, as it will be next year, and the cellar now used is abandoned, as it must be, where is the accommodation to come from? And if obtained, will not the rent be increased? Better at once face the matter and let us have an institute which will be in keeping with our development and progress in other respects. There is already urgent need of school accommodation, and if the Collegiate Institute were removed from the central building every room would be needed for the public schools. New schools must be built somewhere; would it not be as well at once to build the institute and utilize the central for public school purposes?

BELMONT.

The Ledyard Mine.—T. D. Ledyard, Esq., and the company to whom he sold his mine, visited the mine last week. They were pleased with the prospects and ordered the work to be pushed forward. The diamond drill is still at work testing the bed of ore. The "core" taken up with the drill shows the quality and nature of ore or rock, as the case may be, as it penetrates; hence all is carefully noted down. It is much talked of to the effect that the Company intends to build a branch from the C.O.R. rather than from the C.P.R. to the mines. Mr. [illegible] of this place, was tendered the appointment of superintendent of the mine, and having declined on account of other business, a man is to be sent from New York to take charge of the mine. It is proposed by the company to increase the force from 10 to 100 men at no great distant date. The company is liberal in wages and prompt in payment, and the good effect of their operations is already felt, as in all cases the cash is forthcoming for all they require.—Herald.

What Good Behavior Will Accomplish.

"I can truly say that my work and operations extend over the whole Dominion at the present time. However, just a month ago, a grocer engaged me to go to a remote village in Ontario to work for people who heard of my reputation. The grocer assured me that from what he heard, the people would receive me kindly and joyously. He said two would-be workers at my trade had been tried, but the people were very indignant about the miserable work they turned out. I went away with the grocer, and was introduced by him, and just think of it! I have now the whole field to myself. The people call me 'honest working and trusty Diamond Dyes,' and will employ no other."

BUY NOW IF AT ALL.

EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the [illegible] property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighborhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

LeBRUN & Co's

Spring Announcement.

MR. LEBRUN has just returned home after a personal inspection in the best markets for Cloths and Clothing: We are satisfied you will be pleased to take a look through our New Stock of Spring Goods for 1891, and learn the splendid values we can offer you.

In Foreign and Canadian Cloths, we make a display of very fine goods, the leading styles for the season.

We have also provided a large assortment of Spring and Summer Clothing of the newest styles, and best of all, at prices which will be found extremely moderate

By a Special Purchase of West of England and Scotch Tweeds, we are in a position to make up pants, worth from $6.00 to $7.00 in the regular way, for the very low price of $4.50. We say it, and say it confidentially, that our range of Tweeds, Worsteds and Pantings can hardly be excelled.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices gives us a great advantage. We carry in stock, all the fast selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit all ages and sizes.

Special lines in Fine Spring Overcoats, and Fine, Spring and Summer Suits. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

Gentlemen of Peterborough seeking the latest styles and best values for their money as well as an opportunity of selecting from the largest stock of Furnishing Goods, should not fail to visit the

CITY CLOTHING STORE.

FIGURED SILKS

Among the handsomest materials for decorative work are the new China Figured Silks. I have just received from New York, an assortment of ten patterns, beautiful rich goods, the very latest things. They are desirable for drapes, etc. Ladies should see these Silks, as they are artistically correct and exceedingly beautiful.

TUESDAY, APRIL 28, 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Protest Papers Filed.

The papers in the protest against the return of Mr. John Burnham, Q.C., as member of Parliament for East Peterborough, were filed in Toronto yesterday. Mr. Andrew Davidson is the petitioner. A protest was also filed against the election of Mr. John Hargraft, in West Northumberland, Col. [illegible] being the petitioner.

A Blaze in the Grass.

A fire was ignited in the grass at Inverlea last evening and ran dangerously close to some of the barns in the vicinity. A message was sent to the fire station and the men at the hall went up with the hose waggon, but the fire was under control when they arrived and their services were not required.

Displaying Enterprise.

The Cobourg Post says:—"Mr. H. Calcutt, of Peterborough, is evidently displaying great enterprise in the beet root sugar business. His last move towards encouraging the growth of the beets in this and adjoining counties is worthy of mention." The Post quotes from the REVIEW Mr. Calcutt's offer of a prize for the best beets grown in this section, to be awarded at Jubilee point on Sept. 15th, and proceeds:—"A few more men with a like amount of push would ensure the certainty of the establishment of a sugar industry in our immediate neighborhood within a short space of time. Unfortunately they do not exist."

The Effect of Drainage.

Last fall several drains were put in near the Edison building. An immense stream of water has flowed continually from them. The result may be seen to-day. The company are putting in the foundations for their new buildings, and in digging they find the land perfectly dry. When one examines the excavations now being made for buildings beyond the reach of these drains and sees a bog with water within a foot of the surface, the amazing effect of the drains is readily realized. The argument is apparent. The big drain on Park-st. should be continued north as far as Wolfe-st., to be paid for by local assessment. The owners of land affected could well afford the cost for it would change the whole character of their property and give them health and comfort. The cost would be but trifling compared with the accruing benefits.

What is Being Done by and for the "Y."

The duties of professional life making it necessary for Miss Lumsden to be frequently out of town on the regular meeting night, her resignation was received on the 9th inst. and Mrs. Seward was unanimously elected her successor.

Recognizing the disastrous effects of the Spring Hill catastrophe as a case calling for the practical sympathy of women, a number of our members collected the sum of $64.50 which was handed to Mr. Lewis, Treas. of the Relief Fund.

The Thursday evening class in short hand continues to increase in numbers and interest. This class, which was arranged by the kindness of Mr. R. J. Colville, General Secretary of the Y.M.C.A., is conducted by Mr. Jolly of Hazel Brae Home, who generously gives the instruction free to all "Y" members. Any young woman who wishes to take advantage of this privilege, by fulfilling the conditions of membership, will be heartily welcomed on Thursday evenings at 7 o'clock sharp.

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial.

THE CALL SUSTAINED.

A special meeting of the Peterborough Presbytery was held in St. Andrew's church this morning for the purpose of dealing with the call of the St. Andrew's congregation to Rev. A. MacWilliams, of South Mountain, in the Brockville Presbytery.

Rev. Mr. McEwen, of Lakefield, moderator, presided, and among those present were: Rev. E. F. Torrance, of St. Paul's, Peterborough, Rev. Mr. Hyde, Warsaw, Rev. Wm. Bennet, Springville, clerk, and Messrs. Wm. Graham, Lakefield, and G. M. Roger, of St. Paul's, elders.

The call to Rev. Mr. MacWilliams was formally sustained. It was presented by the clerk of the Presbytery, supported in speeches by Dr. Bell and Mr. John McClelland, of St. Andrew's, and sustained.

The call, with reasons for the translation and a guarantee of $1,200 salary and manse, will be forwarded to the Brockville Presbytery, which body will now have to deal with the call.

A committee consisting of Rev. Mr. McEwen, from the Presbytery, and Dr. Bell and Messrs. John McClelland and G. Paton were appointed to attend the Brockville Presbytery and plead for the translation.

Another Presbyterial matter was disposed of. Rev. Mr. McEwen, moderator, and Mr. Wm. Graham were appointed to represent the Presbytery at the Synod meeting on the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Presbytery then adjourned.

POLICE PARAGRAPHS.

The Complaints that Reach the Officers—A Keg of Lager Captured.

Perhaps no men have to listen to more complaints or are more continually made the object at which to throw long strung out grievances than are the police officers. Chief Roszel has some queer complaints made to him and it requires some tact to dispose of them all without disturbing the amiability of the complainants. Yesterday while the reporters sat in the police office a man entered who was anxious to clean a number of backs yards on George-st., but could not get all those who made the yard a dumping ground to subscribe to the expense of clearing away the accumulations of winter. This man may probably get the influence of the police as these yards must be cleaned.

Next a young girl probably sixteen or seventeen years of age came in and wanted the Chief to get her clothes which were being held by her last mistress. The girl said she had contracted a doctor's bill while at the place and her mistress had promised to pay it, but when she left the lady held her clothes until she would be shown the doctor's receipt. The girl said she had worked for nothing and had no money. The lady lived outside the limits of the town and as it was a civil suit the girl was directed to the Division Court.

A man who lives on Sherbrooke-st. was the next complainant. There was a dead dog on the property behind his place and he wanted to know who was going to bury it. The Chief told him if the canine was on private property the owner would have to bury it. However, he told the man that he could have had the dog buried while he was walking up to make the complaint. It was satisfaction the man wanted and he was going to make some one else bury the dog, he was not doing such work for nothing. Another citizen complained of a live dog, which was keeping him awake in the morning by barking. He was advised to get even with the dog. So the complaints continue.

There was no Police Court yesterday morning, the only prisoner in the cells Sunday night being a five-gallon keg of lager which Constable Stewart had taken from a number of young men who were holding high carnival beneath the King-st. bridge Sunday. The keg was about half empty. The young men said they had caught the keg coming down the creek. This was good enough for a story, but the keg was confiscated notwithstanding.

THE GRAND TRUNK.

The Retiring Members of the Board Re-elected by a Large Majority.

By Telegraph to the Review.

LONDON, April 28.—The meeting of the Grand Trunk railway shareholders which was adjourned from the 15th inst. was held here to-day, when the policy of the President, Sir Henry Tyler, was confirmed and the retiring directors re-elected by a vote of 47,200 to 28,750.

Prosperous and Enterprising.

The Toronto Mail says editorially:—"Among the most prosperous and enterprising of the large towns of this province is Peterborough, the population of which, according to the assessors' returns for this year, is 9,841, an increase of 584 since last year. The town and its suburb, Ashburnham, have a total population of about 11,500. This figure will doubtless be largely increased during the present year as the result of the opening of the works of the Edison General Electric Company, the completion of whose monster machine shop was celebrated on Monday evening last by a grand ball given to the citizens by the company. It is estimated that between three and four thousand persons were present on this occasion."

It is To Be a Flyer.

Mr. J. J. Daly, says the Lindsay Post, arrived home on Saturday morning at an early hour from Toronto, where he had gone the previous day to meet his new equine purchase, Minnie Belle. The animal, although not in good humor for "receiving" after her long trip of nearly ninety hours in a freight car, at once became the centre of attraction and was subjected to the pleasures of an "at home" for the remainder of the day. Minnie Belle is a dark bay in color, with black points and long flowing tail—and, as "wigglers" go, is a nice piece of goods to own. In point of breeding she will also fill the fancy of admirers of the American harness horse, being sired by Mambrino Davis. On Monday Mr. Daly announced that at two o'clock he would visit the agricultural park and introduce Minnie to the local track. The result was that quite a crowd had assembled at the appointed hour, and as Mr. Curtis was also present with Jimmie, the grounds presented quite a "matinee" appearance. After a little exercising work the pair were "brushed" along the straight at close to a thirty clip, and although somewhat tied up Minnie convinced those present that the "side-wheeler" could go so some and would be there when the bell rings.

What it Costs

Must be carefully considered by the great majority of people in buying even necessities of life. Hood's Sarsaparilla commends itself with special force to the great middle classes, because it combines positive economy with great medicinal power. It is the only medicine of which can truly be said "100 Doses One Dollar," and a bottle taken according to directions will average to last a month.

SKIPPED HIS BAIL.

A Man Charged with Mayhem Leaves Buffalo and is Followed to Peterborough by His Surety.

For the past couple of days a respectable looking colored gentleman with grey hair and whiskers has been in town. The gentleman's name is Mr. Thomas and he came from Buffalo on a peculiar mission.

It seems that some time ago a man by the name of Eddy got into an altercation in which it was alleged he chewed the ear off his opponent. He was arrested and his colored friend, Mr. Thomas, stepped forward and secured him his liberty pending a trial by going his bail for one thousand dollars.

When free Eddy made good use of his liberty and leaving his wife and family crossed the line into Canada jumping his bail and leaving his surety to pay the forfeit. Eddy came to Peterborough where he has friends, having lived in this vicinity.

Mr. Thomas followed him and during the past few days has tried to persuade the man to return to Buffalo and meet his trial and save him his one thousand dollars. Eddy at first apparently was willing to go and last evening the two men got on the evening C.P.R. express going west. The train had only gone a short distance, however, when Eddy jumped from the coach. Still hoping that he might succeed in saving his money by prevailing upon his man to return Mr. Thomas also jumped from the train and both were in town last night.

This morning, however, Eddy thought better of his action and left with Mr. Thomas for Buffalo on the early train.

Mr. Thomas had a lively time last evening for a short time. A man in town who had been drinking was certain that the negro was a whiskey informer who had worked in Port Hope and was going to have his life. The belligerent individual, however, was frightened away by the police who were called.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The Business Scheme for the Building Fund—The Meetings Held and to be Held.

The young men's meeting was well attended Saturday evening. Mr. E. A. Mansell's impressive address on "David" carried conviction to every heart, the singing was hearty and greatly enjoyed. At the close Mr. G. M. Roger explained the new business scheme and what we hoped the young men would do to further the interest we all have so much at heart. An enthusiastic young men's committee was appointed to canvass the young men for subscriptions for the new building. Mr. Albert Hamilton is chairman, Arthur Jolly, Secretary, and have entered heartily on the work which is sure to bring success.

On Sabbath morning the consecration service was a season of blessing. Mr Herbert Fife led the meeting in an acceptable manner.

Personal purity meeting Sabbath afternoon was addressed by Mr. Albert Hamilton, whose heart-searching words impressed all with the fact that we did not live for self, for if we did our lives would be a failure. He urged all to accept Christ; then we would be sure of success. The orchestra led the singing very acceptably.

The gospel and song service Sabbath evening was attended by a large number. Mr. Frank Mason gave a very thoughtful and practical address from Luke 12-21. It was good to be there, for the Holy Spirit applied the words to the hearts of all present, and results are sure to follow the earnest gospel message.

Bible class Tuesday evening at 8 p.m.

Reception committee will meet Tuesday at 9 p.m.

Devotional committee will meet Wednesday at 9 p.m.

Rescue Brigade will meet Friday at 8 p.m.

The free illustrated lecture in the Opera House on Thursday evening on Association building by Mr. T. S. Cole, Travelling Secretary, illustrated by Mr. R. M. Roy, will be a treat to all, and the address of Rev. Mr. Johnston, of Lindsay, will no doubt attract many. The plans of the new building will be submitted for our citizens. No subscriptions will be asked. All interested in the welfare of our young men and prosperity of our town should be present. Music by Y.M.C.A. band.

We were surprised to receive from a citizen last week "The History of the World" in 8 vols. in which is inscribed the following, which speaks for itself:—

"To the Y.M.C.A.:

"From an admiring friend who has thought previous to this date that the hotel men were better friends to him than the recipients of this small mark of esteem. May God bless and prosper the efforts of the Y.M.C.A. is the earnest prayer of the donor, 22nd April, 1891."

We give God the praise who will bless our friend for his practical gift.

Do You Cough?

Don't delay. Take Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. It will cure coughs and colds. It will cure sore throat or a tickling in the throat. It will cure pains in the chest. It will cure influenza and bronchitis and all diseases pertaining to the lungs, because it is a pure balsam. Hold it to the light and see how clear and thick it is. You see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Large bottles 50c and $1.

They Did Not Meet.

A meeting of the Board of Health was to have been held last night, but the absence of a quorum prevented the meeting. At eight o'clock Messrs. Edg. Pearse, Ben. Shortly, Wm. Lech, Dr. Clarke, Town Clerk Macdonald, secretary, and Chief Roszel, sanitary inspector, were present. The other members were prevented from attending by other business, and the Board adjourned to meet on Wednesday evening, being one short of a quorum.

The superior merit of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral as an anodyne of the most powerful ingredients. Nothing like it has ever been attempted in pharmacy, and its success in the cure of pulmonary complaints is unparalled.

Very Enjoyable.

The open meeting of the Charlotte-st Epworth League of Christian Endeavor was largely patronized last evening. Every number of the programme was well rendered and heartily appreciated by the large audience. The performers were: Miss Clarke, Mr. Knowles, Mrs. Pearse, Prof. Ketcham, Mr. Ross, Miss Wrighton, Miss Husband, Miss Brundrette and Mr. A. L. Davis. The pie social was a great feature of the evening, and all did justice to the dainty edibles. Much credit is due to the ladies of the League and their friends for their efforts in making the entertainment such a signal success. The Charlotte-st. Epworth League is growing rapidly, and the conditions of membership are that one must subscribe to either the active or associate member's pledge. The League meets in the school room every Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The subject for next Monday evening is "Dancing." All the members, and any wishing to become members, are invited to attend.

THE LICENSES GRANTED.

The Applications All Considered—Rules and Regulations to Govern Liquor Sellers.

The Board of License Commissioners for West Peterborough met yesterday and concluded the consideration of applications for licenses.

Tavern licenses were granted to Messrs. J. Carew and Tim. Cavanagh, and to Robert White when he complies with the requirements of the law. Messrs. R. R. Hamilton (tavern) and John McKee (shop) are the only two former license holders who made applications and were refused.

The total number of licenses granted were 41, as follows:—Peterborough, taverns 21, shops 7; Lakefield, taverns 4; Smith, taverns 5 and 1 for six months; Ashburnham, taverns 2, wine and beer 1, shops 2 There are two less shop licenses in town, Mr. John McKee's, refused, and Mr. Robt. Pope's unapplied for.

The Commissioners adopted rules and regulations for this year, as follows:—

Therefore the Board of License Commissioners in and for the West Riding of the County of Peterborough on this 27th day of March, 1891, resolve, declare and enact as follows:—

1. That no tavern or shop license within the meaning of the above Act will be granted to any person whom the said Board has reason to believe is not a fit person to keep such tavern or shop.
2. That all persons now holding or hereafter holding tavern license within the meaning of the said Act shall during the continuance of the license entirely remove and keep removed from the lower half of the windows of the barroom of such tavern all frosting, blinds and shades of every description whatever between the hours of eleven o'clock every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings and six o'clock on the next morning, and between the hours of seven o'clock each Saturday evening and six o'clock on the following Monday morning.
3. That all persons now holding or hereafter holding a tavern license within the meaning of the said Act shall during the continuance of the license close and keep closed the barroom of such tavern each day between the hours of eleven o'clock in the evening and six o'clock of the following morning and between the hours of seven o'clock each Saturday evening and six o'clock on the following Monday morning.
4. Any person duly convicted of any offence against sections 2nd or 3rd above shall be liable to a penalty for each offence of not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty dollars with costs, such penalty and costs to be collected in manner provided by such act.
5. The Board requires all parties receiving a license to strictly see that their places so licensed will be kept according to the above requirements of the said Board and especially enjoin them to kept their places closed on Sundays and on Saturday nights, as any one licensed so offending will be strictly dealt with according to law.
6. That the Mayor and Town Council are hereby requested by the Board to have their Chief of Police and all police officials to aid the Inspector in having the Crooks Act rigidly enforced.
7. The newspapers of the town are kindly requested by the Board to notify the public through their columns that, according to the Crooks Act, any person who buys or obtains or attempts to buy or obtain intoxicating liquors during prohibited hours is equally guilty of an offence under the Crooks Act with the seller of the liquor obtained under such circumstances.
8. The Inspector is instructed to make a personal service of a true copy of all the above resolutions upon all persons receiving a license for taverns and shops and that he make such personal service for reference hereafter as confirmation of such service by the Board of Commissioners.

A Chance for Christian Kindness.

A widow living at No. 11 Elm-st., is in a condition to arouse Christian sympathy to an unwonted degree. She is a respectable hard working widow when in health, with five helpless children dependent on her and in her hour of affliction is deserving of help. She has had three children ill with diphtheria and since the attack of the first one has been unable to work for two reasons. She would not be allowed to enter any house and besides she has had to nurse her three children through the disease, having help only two nights. Of course her income was cut off when she quit work, and food for the little ones that were well and medicine and dainties for the sick children were scarce, and furnished by a few kindly neighbors. Now the mother is quite ill, from exhaustion and anxiety, and the children though recovering are in sad need of care and nourishing food such as the appetites of invalids require. This is a case of genuine distress, sadly needing relief, and the ministrations of the Christian-hearted. Persons who may feel timid about visiting the house may leave contributions in money or kind with Mrs. Yokome, 88 Gilmour-st., and they will be forwarded at once to the relief of a very sad case of distress.

Nature requires aid in correcting irregularities at this season, and for both men and women no other remedy equals Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a spring blood tonic. They supply all the constituents necessary to enrich the blood and build up the system. Sold by all dealers, or sent post paid on receipt of price—50c. per box, or five boxes for $2—by addressing Dr. Williams Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

MONDAY, 11th MAY, 1891, at 3 p.m., ON THE GROUND.

Lots on Romaine-st. Each lot is 33ft. by 290ft. Soil high and dry, sandy loam. 10 minutes walk from the Edison Works, Peter Hamilton Works, the Carbon Works and the Bridge Works. The new Electric Car Line will touch this street and George and Aylmer-sts. will be opened through to the Fair ground.

To secure a respectable street the deeds will contain a clause compelling the purchasers when they build to erect a uniform distance from the front, and that the houses when built shall not cost less than $600. These lots are double the depth of the ordinary town lot and are fine for gardening. This is the finest property in the market and one which will afford the best building lots to be had at low prices. These are only lots left on the south side of the street. Lots in the neighborhood half the depth sell at $8 to $10 per foot frontage, while these lots are 290ft. deep and will be sold for what they will bring. These lots while sufficiently near the great factories, are close to George-st. and being off the muck are clean and healthy.

Ten years will be given for payment. $5.00 on the $100 down; $5.00 on the $100, in one month; $10 on the $100 in 6 months, then a free deed will be given and mortgage taken back for the remainder of the purchase money, payable in 9 equal annual payments with interest at 6 per cent. Five per cent. discount will be allowed for cash. For further particulars apply to

Is a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emaciated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom it had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."—Charles H. Maloney, 113 River st., Lowell, Mass.

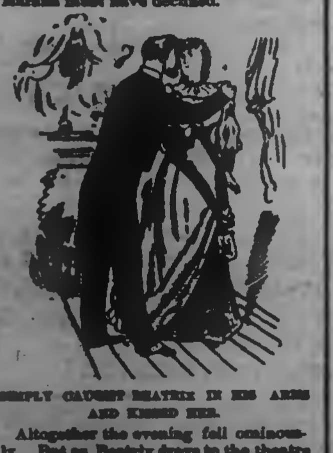
CHAPTER XV.

THE GREAT MARANA.

The next night was the last of the opera season, and the prima donna who had attained such unexampled popularity with the New York public was to bid them farewell in the same character in which she had made their acquaintance—the Gretchen of "Faust." She had intended to spend the day as much as possible in solitude; she wished to think—to work into her mind and arrange the throng of ideas that were crowding one another there, to review what was past, to contemplate what might be to come. But it all turned out differently. She was allowed no repose from morning till night.

There was a multitude of petty matters to attend to, many people to see; at another time much of this might have seemed to her of no little importance; but now all passed before her like a troublesome dream, and when night came she could not have given a clear account of anything that had happened. There had been an [illegible] painful scene with Madame Bemax, who had fallen into a sort of frenzy, and grasped the skirts of Beatrix's dress, and poured forth a long and revolting story about the wrongs she had endured from Hamilton Jocelyn; had ended by calling herself a wretch, and declaring that unless Beatrix pardoned her she would kill herself.

Beatrix pardoned her immediately, with only a confused understanding of what she was pardoning her for; but she could see that the woman was in great distress of mind, and that was something she could sympathize with. She had seen Ed and her father and Wallis Dinsmore; there had been a great deal of discussion and some disputing, ending apparently in a sort of conditional reconciliation; but she had been unable to keep her attention fixed on the subject long enough at a time to comprehend the bearings of it. She had also seen Inigo, who was in an agitated frame of mind, jumping up from his chair and sitting down again twenty times, asking questions which he tried to answer himself, talking about his reputation, about his fidelity to his contracts, about his financial liberality and about Mlle. Marana, whom he alternately abused and praised, and between whom and Beatrix he seemed anxious to bring about an interview. Beatrix was willing, even desirous, that the interview should take place; but nothing of the sort happened, and the inference was that Mlle. Marana must have declined.



SIMPLY CAUGHT BEATRIX IN HIS ARMS AND KISSED HER.

Altogether the evening fell ominously. But as Beatrix drove to the theatre in a covered sleigh a kind of calmness, almost happiness, came over her. These regular meetings with her audiences had grown to be an indescribable resource and support to her. They enabled her to throw aside herself and her affairs; to appeal from the narrow and interested circle of her private friends and enemies to the vast, impersonal, careless, good humored world of the public, who loved and applauded her artistic self, and knew and cared nothing about her real thoughts and existence. How would it be when this resource no longer remained to her? She put that question aside, and the porter at the stage entrance, who attached great importance to the smile of greeting he received each evening from the diva, reported on this occasion that the dear lady had seemed to be in especially good spirits. Moreover she had slipped into his hand a "snuff" box (he was a Hanoverian and took snuff) containing, not snuff, but a $20 bank note.

A few hours before the theatre opened Wallis Dinsmore had met Geoffrey Bellingham in that great rendezvous of American celebrities the corridor of the Fifth Avenue hotel.

"I've been looking for you for the last twenty-four hours," he said, "but this is the last place I expected to see you in."

"Maybe that's why I'm here," responded Geoffrey laconically.

"I wanted you to dine with me yesterday."

"I went to Delmonico's."

"Europe has demoralized you."

"Perhaps. I saw Hamilton Jocelyn there, and Inigo. That fellow's a scoundrel."

"Inigo?"

"Jocelyn. Do you know what he has been doing? They had both of them been drinking and it leaked out. He has been defrauding Miss Randolph of a part of her salary—about twenty-five or thirty thousand dollars."

"Then the agreement was for four thousand?"

"Inigo paid that to Jocelyn for her. Jocelyn kept back part. It seems to have been a sort of arrangement between Jocelyn and Inigo—I imagine Inigo allowed it to keep Jocelyn quiet. It was a rascally transaction, as I told them; the fellows ought to be locked up. He's not to be found today, and I expect he's cleared out."

"Very likely. That Mme. Bemax seems to have had something against him, too. But if this new Marana can only be pacified I shall be content to let the rest go. Of course you will be at the opera to-night?"

"No."

FOR A VILE CRIME.

True Bill Returned Against Larocque, the Alleged Butcher of the Babes in the Wood Near L'Orignal.

L'ORIGNAL, Ont., April 27.—The trial of Narcisse Larocque for the outrage and murder of the little McGonigle girls at Cumberland, Nov. 7, is about to begin. The village is crowded with jurymen, witnesses, officials and newspaper men, and hotel accommodation is at a premium. The excitement over the case is growing hourly. About 60 witnesses are here. The line of defence will be an attempt to prove that the bush at the time of the murder was infested with a gang of toughs, and one girl will swear she was chased by them just previous to the murder.

The grand jury came in at 5 p.m. with a true bill against the accused. While the finding was being read a pin could be heard to drop. Larocque appeared quite indifferent, and when asked the customary guilty or not guilty, replied in an off-hand way, Not guilty. He carried himself erect. The prisoner has evidently fared well in jail, for he is sleek and fat.

The Government Forces Win a Victory in Chili.

LONDON, April 28.—A despatch from Valparaiso says: The Government cruisers Almirante Condell and Almirante Lynch pursued and engaged the insurgent cruiser Aconcagua. The latter resisted stoutly, but was about to strike when a man-of-war, supposed to be an insurgent vessel, Esmeralda was sighted, whereupon the attackers retired, and the Aconcagua escaped. The casualties on the government boats were one killed and ten wounded, on the Aconcagua 133 were killed. The insurgents appear to be dispirited. Telegrams received in Paris from insurgent sources confirm the foregoing and add that the engagement lasted 90 minutes, that the Aconcagua was hit seven times, that she then forced the entrance to Caldera Harbor and that she sustained no serious damage.

CASH HARDWARE STORE.

On and after 1st April we shall do business on a Cash Basis.

To cover the inevitable losses attendant upon a credit business, (which accrue from amount of time spent in keeping accounts, collecting, bad debts, interest account, and in numerous other ways, larger margins of profit must be asked.

In these times cash buyers ask, expect and are entitled to close prices. A careful consideration of the subject convinces us that the time has come for a cash business done on smaller profits.

The only customers who may be put to inconvenience are those who have had long credit. In more ways than one it will be to their advantage to pay cash.

For convenience of our old customers who consider their accounts due when presented, we will call 30 days cash and render all accounts the [illegible], and we [illegible] to any [illegible] we will be happy to do business with them on these terms.

As the new departure is something of an experiment, what would be considered a close cash price will be made all through the stock. Not a few leaders only, but a general reduction in everything from the fourth flat to the cellar.

Our idea is to perform more than promised rather than promise more than can be fulfilled.

Our stock is large and varied, consisting of Builders', Contractors', Household, Mechanics', Painters', Shoemakers', Farm, Mill, Factory, Lumbermen's, Sporting, Threshers', Cabinetmakers', and other lines of Hardware.

ATTRACTIONS IN DRY GOODS At TURNBULL'S.

The change in the weather has brought with it a great demand for millinery; also for spring shades in dress goods. Our store was never more attractive in these lines than at present. We have every New Shade of Dress Goods in Stock, with Millinery to match. If you are in town this week have a look at our Gray Dress Goods and Millinery window. Large Gray Checks for young people made up alone or mixed with Black, Small Black and White Checks and Stripes. Broken patterns for older people, goods that are hard to find in Neat Patterns. We justly claim to take the lead in our Tailoring department for Quality of Goods, Fit and Price. We get up a Splendid Suit in Halifax Tweed or Navy Serge for $12.00. Fine grades of Almento and other makes of Tweed for $13.00, $14.00, $15.00 and $16.00; Scotch Tweeds and Serges from $16.00 to $20.00 for the best. Fine All Wool Worsted, Venetian Finish or Diagonal Cords for Coat and Vest, with Black or Fancy Panting to match, at from $19.00 to $22.00 a suit. Remember our prices. Call and see our Stock and do not go and pay a great deal higher figure through force of habit. We have added this week to our already Attractive Stock of Boys' Clothing another shipment just turned out of the manufacturer's hands, Neat and New Styles. We have shown an Immense Range of Patterns in Cottonades and Shirtings in the Best Quality; we also keep all the lower lines, beginning at 5c. a yard for Shirtings and 12½c. for Cottonades.

We have an opening now for an apprentice in the Millinery department. Apply until Saturday.

BOTH DROWNED.

A Craft Overturns Near Terrebonne—The Director of the College and a Scholar Perish.

TERREBONNE, Que., April 24.—Rev. M. C. Lacasse, director of the college, left in a boat with two scholars to cross the river. The boat was carried over the dam by the swift current and the director and one of the scholars named Courtemanche were drowned. The other scholar named Bastien managed to hang on to the boat and was rescued by people who witnessed the accident from the shore. Rev. Father Lacasse has been director of the college here for over five years and is a son of N. Lacasse, notary, of Ste. Elizabeth, county of Berthier, and brother of Auguste Lacasse, parish priest of St. Henri of Montreal. Young Courtemanche belonged to Worcester, Mass., and was 17 years old.

Gave Up Its Dead.

WINNIPEG, April 28.—A Maple Creek despatch says that yesterday a sensation was created by the finding of a man's body in Bear Creek. On his person was found a pocketbook containing the name and address of G. G. Leetch of Montreal. The body was much decomposed.

Lumberman Drowned.

OTTAWA, April 28.—Up the Du Lievre River beyond Buckingham a chantyman named Telesphore Larocque, in the employ of James McLaren & Co., was driving logs on St. Denis Creek when he fell through and lost his life.

MALTREATED BY GREEKS.

Attempted Massacre as the Result of a Rumor Respecting the Revival of an Old Superstition.

LONDON, April 28.—Despatches from Corfu report an outbreak of the Greeks against the Jews. The Greeks recently spread a report that the Jews murdered a Christian girl for the feast of the Passover, a child's body being found in the Jewish quarter, though the body was identified as that of a daughter of a leading Jew. The Jews declared the Greeks murdered the child as an excuse for rioting and plunder. The excitement became so great that 6000 Jews were compelled to close their shops and the Government put a military cordon around the Jewish quarter. In spite of this a crowd of Greeks broke into the Jewish quarter and built a bonfire in the square in which they declared the Jews should be burned. Before the rioters could carry out their intentions they were dispersed by the troops, although not before many Jews had been terribly beaten and injured.

FEET-WASHING AT A FEAST.

The Dunkards Perform a Peculiar Ceremony.

LANCASTER, Pa., April 28.—The Dunkard Brethren, or German Baptists, held the first of their annual feasts of love to-day, on Sunday and the ceremonies concluded to-night. The leading feature of the service was the concluding one, which is the washing of each other's feet. The men sat on one side of the meeting house and the women on the other. Then each man washed the feet of four or five of his brethren and wiped them with a towel, and kissed them twice. The women go through the same performance among themselves. Not a pair of corsets could be found in the entire assemblage, the Dunkards frowning down such earthly appliances.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

ANOTHER BRITISH VICTORY REPORTED FROM MANIPUR.

Preferring Death to Dishonor, a Noted Historian Cuts His Throat—Another Jack the Ripper Unearthed—General News of a Day from All Lands.

LONDON, April 28.—The hearing of the charge preferred against C. A. Fyffe, the well-known historian of modern Europe, was to have been held to-day but owing to the critical condition of the accused, who, overwhelmed by the charge, cut his throat yesterday, the court granted an adjournment. Mr. Fyffe is the candidate of the Liberal party for the vacant seat in the House of Commons for the Eastern or Devizes division of Wiltshire and his character has always been above suspicion. The charge against him, that of committing an indecent assault upon a boy while traveling in a train, has created considerable discussion and many people believe it to be unfounded.

A large number of persons holding high positions in the church and others eminent in literary circles were in court to-day for the purpose of testifying to the blameless character of the accused. The Election Committee having Mr. Fyffe's political interests in charge has adopted a vote of confidence in him.

PRACTICAL CHARITY.

The Charity of the Queen of Portugal Makes a Good Impression.

LONDON, April 28.—Amid the excitement in Portugal an act of charity by Queen Amelia is favorably commented on. Having heard that the wife and children of Capt. Leitao, the Republican leader of the Oporto insurrection, were in absolute want, the father and husband being under sentence of imprisonment, the Queen herself has taken them under her protection and is supporting them, as well as other destitute families of the insurgents, out of her own private fortune.

As the success of the insurrection would have deprived the King and Queen of their throne and perhaps their lives, this is regarded as a remarkable example of magnanimity and charity.

RUSSIA MEANS WAR.

Everything Ready for the Immediate Transport of Troops.

LONDON, April 28.—A Vienna correspondent gives certain details in answer to the denial of warlike preparations by Russia. Several first-class fortresses including Warsaw and Kovno, also second and third-class fortresses, are being reinforced for the reception of increased quantities of ammunition, provisions, field stores, etc. The network of railways leading up to Galicia and Bukovina is being extended. All these lines are under military supervision and the stations are supplied with military commanders. Everything has been made ready for the immediate transport of troops. All provincial and municipal officials stand under the direction of a committee at St. Petersburg, whose duty it is to prepare for the transformation of the army from a peace to a war footing in the shortest possible time in case of emergency. A new army corps, the 20th, is being formed near the Galician frontier. Altogether the conduct of Russia is said to be that of a nation getting ready for war.

THE "RIPPER" EVERYWHERE.

This Time He Appears in a Town on the Polish Frontier.

BERLIN, April 28.—Another frightful atrocity, similar to those committed by Jack the Ripper, is reported from Beuthen on the Polish frontier. The body of a woman was found this morning behind the military hospital in that town. It was mutilated in the usual manner, the abdomen having been cut open and other injuries inflicted too horrible to describe. The victim has been identified as the wife of a tailor named Lindner. The husband has been arrested, but gives an account of himself which frees him from suspicion of the crime. [illegible] his wife had been criminally intimate with Pte. [illegible] of the army, who is now under arrest on suspicion of having committed the murder. He is highly connected.

The Rebel Rout in India.

SIMLA, April 28.—Gen. Graham's column on Saturday last surprised a force of 800 Manipuris, who were entrenched behind earthworks. The British first cut off the retreat of the Manipuris and then charged upon the entrenched position. A terrific hand-to-hand fight followed. The enemy was completely routed, losing 200 men. One British officer was killed and four officers were wounded.

SIMLA, April 28.—Further dispatches from the British columns advancing on Manipur confirm the report that the Regent of Manipur has fled to the hills with the prominent chiefs who assisted him in the revolt. A great fire has been seen in the direction of the capital, and a loud explosion which took place during the conflagration seems to indicate that the capital has been destroyed.

The British column which was recently at Silcoor has utterly routed the enemy at Bisenpur. It is not expected there will be any further opposition of a serious nature offered to the advance of the British.

GRASS-WIDOWS GOOD TIME.

Hungarians' Money Squandered When It Reached Home.

BERLIN, April 28.—Three-fourths of the male inhabitants of Hamurst, Saro county, Hungary, having emigrated to America, they sent back enough money to take their wives over. The wives instead of going to join their husbands with the money have begun a disgraceful drunken carousal, which the authorities are unable to stop.

LORD LORNE FOR INDIA.

LONDON, April 28.—Lord Lansdowne leaves India in October. The Marquis of Lorne will succeed him in the viceroyalty. The Princess Louise will go out with the Marquis.

THE DIURNAL WRECK.

Collision Between Freight and Passenger Trains on the Baltimore & Ohio.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—An accident by which four persons were killed and several were injured, occurred at 4.10 p.m. on the Metropolitan branch of the B. & O. Railroad, one mile this side of Gaithersburg. The Cincinnati express ran into a freight, which was at a standstill at a small station called Waring.

The Killed.

ENGINEER G. ELLIOTT of the express.
ENGINEER GROFF of the freight.
FIREMAN MURPHY of the freight.
POSTAL CLERK BURDETT.

Postal Clerk Peacock and Fireman Miller of the express were seriously hurt. None of the passengers were dangerously hurt. The western mails were partially destroyed. All the killed and injured resided in Baltimore.

ROUND THE GLOBE.

The C.P.R. Steamer Empress of India Arrives at Victoria, B.C.

VICTORIA, B.C., April 28.—The steamship Empress of India arrived off Victoria this morning at 6.30 o'clock. She encountered strong gales on the 20th inst., and a cyclone on the 25th, which reduced her speed somewhat. The steamship China, which arrived at San Francisco on Saturday, left Yokohama six days before the Empress of India, and not two as reported. She has 131 first class passengers and 385 Chinese. Among the passengers are Sir John Gladstone, Mr. and Mrs. Power of Dublin and others.

Upon the steamer's arrival here she was met by the mayor and council, and on behalf of the city of Victoria Mayor Grant presented the captain and officers with a handsome silver punch bowl.

The Empress of India's time is 10 days 14 hours and 34 minutes from Yokohama to Victoria. The quickest trip ever made from Yokohama to San Francisco was made by the s.s. China, December, 1889, in 12 days 20 hours and 54 minutes.

LAID AT REST.

Von Moltke's Funeral Yesterday was Attended by Kings and Emperors.

BERLIN, April 28.—The funeral services over the remains of Field Marshal Count von Moltke took place to-day in the ballroom of the general staff building, in which building the veteran died and where his body has been lying in state. Emperor William, the King of Saxony, the Grand Dukes of Baden, Saxe-Weimar and Hesse, the principal members of the royal families of Germany, with the leading German generals, were present. The casket containing the field marshal's remains was then carried with much ceremony to the hearse, which was drawn by six of the Emperor's horses. After passing through streets lined with troops and packed with spectators the remains arrived at the Carte station at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and were placed upon a railroad car draped in black, which was there in waiting. Along the route of the procession to the railroad station the hearse was preceded by Col. Gossler, carrying Count von Moltke's field marshal's baton, and by all the officers of the general staff, carrying the insignia and orders conferred on Count von Moltke during the course of his distinguished career. The casket was covered with large numbers of floral wreaths sent from all parts of Germany and from many parts of Europe. Emperor William, the members of the royal families of Germany and the German generals followed the hearse to the railroad station.

During the ceremony in the general staff building the Emperor was moved to tears. Prince Bismarck sent an immense wreath and the following telegram:

With profound sorrow received the telegram announcing the irreparable loss sustained by the Fatherland. I feel the loss more acutely owing to the fact that it had been vouchsafed to me to enjoy for several decades Von Moltke's glorious co-operation and the invariable amiability [illegible] friendly relations.

THE MURDERED BABES.

TRIAL OF THE ALLEGED BUTCHER OF THE M'GONIGLE GIRLS.

Intense Interest Taken in the Trial at L'Orignal—Only Two Frenchmen on the Jury, Which Was Empanelled With Great Difficulty.

L'ORIGNAL, April 28.—Narcisse Lacasse was placed on trial to-day for the murder of Mary and Ellen McGonigle in the woods near Cumberland on the afternoon of October 7, of last year. The murder was one of the most shocking in the records of crime. The victims were two school girls, daughters of James McGonigle, a farm laborer living about two miles from Cumberland, a village some eighteen miles below this city. The girls were 14 and 12 years respectively, and attended the village school. On the afternoon of Oct. 7, they left the schoolhouse at the usual hour for home. At a certain point in the road they were in the habit of parting from their young companions and taking a short cut to their home through the bush. The first part of their way lay over a steep road cut through Mr. Gamble's farm, ending in a mere car track through a dense plantation of second-growth trees. At the top of the hill they met a son of Mr. Gamble's driving a wagon, and they were likewise seen by one of Mr. Gamble's men, who was looking after cattle in an adjoining field. Their murderer is the only other person who is known to have seen them again in life. They did not get to their home that night, but as it was raining their parents concluded that they had remained at a friend's in the village, a course they had adopted on stormy nights more than once before. When, however, they did not reach home after school hours on the following day their mother became seriously alarmed. After supper the father started in to the village to make some inquiry. After diligent search he ascertained that the girls had started for home. The matter was canvassed among the simple villagers, and late at night it was determined to institute a search for them. Torches were procured, and the path along which they usually went through the bush examined. A little way off the regular way home the bodies of the two girls were found, lying almost side by side. It was easy to see that a considerable struggle had taken place before the murderous brute who encompassed their death had finished his work. The leaves all about the spot were tossed, and the surrounding shrubbery had been beaten down and broken. The most unpractised eye could guess the means of death. The protruding eyeballs and bruised throats showed that both had been strangled by the compression of strong and ruthless hands. The elder girl had also been struck over the head so that her scalp was laid bare, and her face and hands bore other contusions and evidences of the brutality of the monster who had slain her. The bodies were tenderly put on a vehicle and conveyed to the home. It would be useless to attempt to portray what a terrible home-coming this was to the distracted mother. The medical autopsy showed the motive for the fiend's deed. The bodies of both children had been violated.

The prisoner is defended by Bain [illegible] Crimmon of Macdonald, Macintosh & McCrimmon, Toronto, associated with A. Constantineau of L'Orignal. It took four hours to empanel the jury, the Crown objecting to all but two Frenchmen and the defence objecting to all jurymen from the district in which the murder was committed. Some 60 names were called and finally the court had to wait till the jury in another case was through in order to obtain fresh material. The jury when finally selected had only two Frenchmen.

"EARNEST WORKERS" ARRESTED.

An Alleged Swindling Scheme Exposed in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—Edwin W. Harris, Supreme President of the Beneficial Order of Earnest Workers, and Henry C. Clark, Supreme Treasurer, were arrested to-day on a charge of conspiracy and obtaining money under false pretences. A warrant has also been issued for A. Judson Harris, the Supreme Secretary. The "Earnest Workers" was one of many short term and quick profit institutions with which that city has been flooded the last few months, and by which thousands of people have been duped. The circular of the Earnest Workers promised $200 to all who paid $10 initiation fee and $6 per month for three months. An application was made to-day for the appointment of a receiver for the Beneficial Order of Earnest Workers. A hearing will take place Friday.

FELL TO HER DEATH.

Shocking Tragedy at St. Thomas Yesterday Morning.

ST. THOMAS, April 28.—A shocking fatality happened at the residence of Mrs. Jane Dickson, corner King and Walnut-streets, this morning, whereby her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, met her death by falling downstairs and breaking her neck. The deceased, who has been visiting at her mother's for some weeks, has been ill with la grippe for about a fortnight past. About a quarter to four o'clock this morning her brother, Arthur, heard her get up and start to go down stairs. He says he heard her go down two or three steps when he heard her fall. He jumped out of bed, hastily lighted a lamp and found his sister lying, attired only in her night dress, at the bottom of the stairs.

An examination showed that the victim's neck had been broken by the fall. It is supposed that she got out of bed to go down stairs for a drink or medicine, and that being dizzy from the effects of the grip or suddenly fainting, she fell head first to the landing below. The deceased was a daughter of the late John Dickson and was in the 31st year of her age. She was married some years ago to Mr. W. H. Jones of Grand Rapids, Mich.

DIVORCED, HE SOUGHT DEATH.

A New York Commission Merchant Fatally Shoots Himself.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Leopold Lauder, the Wall-street commission merchant, whose wife was granted a divorce to-day on the ground of his illicit intimacy with servants, shot himself to-night at the Cooper Union Hotel, inflicting wounds in the neck and breast which are likely to prove fatal. He was removed to the hospital.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

17-Year-Old Mary Moorhouse Sought to End Her Troubles.

MERRITTON, April 28.—A young lady named Mary Moorhouse, aged about 17 years living with her parents in Merritton and employed in the cotton mills, attempted suicide by swallowing a quantity of laudanum. Medical aid was summoned as soon as the condition of the girl was discovered and she will recover. It is understood the rash act was prompted by despondency arising from domestic troubles and a love affair.

King of Medicines

A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well.

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY

STILL ASKING FOR MORE.

In the Legislature another "final" call for more money for the new Parliament buildings has been made. What the expenditure on these buildings will yet amount to no one, not even to the Commissioner of Public Works, can say. When the project was first taken up by the Government the House was asked for $500,000. This the Government found insufficient, and the appropriation was increased to $750,000. When this increased sum was granted the Government assured the House and the country that it would be sufficient to complete the work. However, that assurance was found to be without foundation, for the Legislature was again called upon, to raise the appropriation to $1,000,000, which the Minister was sure would be enough. This was granted, but again this session he came before the House, throwing his former assurances and pledges to the winds, and notified the legislators that he would want $150,000 more. Between the time of giving the notice and moving the motion, however, more light had been obtained and $50,000 was added, and on Tuesday he asked for $200,000, making the total appropriation $1,250,000.

A million and a quarter is a large excess over the $500,000 first voted and over the $750,000 which the Government assured the House would be sufficient. But even that will not be enough. Mr. Fraser assured the House, as he had done each time an increase was demanded, that the sum now asked for would complete the building, but Mr. Fraser's promises in this regard have been found to be so easily broken that it would be foolish to depend upon them. Besides, the Commissioner could give no estimate of the cost of furnishing the pile when it was completed or of laying out the grounds, and that will have to be added. In this matter the Government has deceived the Province and tricked it into a large expenditure, either with or without the connivance of its supporters in the House. By asking at first for a moderate sum and commencing the erection of the buildings it got the Province committed to the work, and it will have to be completed, but the buildings will be a monument of the mismanagement of the Government and of its deception of the electorate.

Your Lame Back

Would get well at once if it were rubbed with a little of Clark's Lightning Liniment, and the soreness in side and limbs would go away if treated the same. This wonderful preparation does not affect a cure next week, but relieves at once, and almost miraculously. Try a bottle of your druggist, price fifty cents, and be sure you get it. No Arrangements Perfected.

NEW YORK, April 28.—A Washington special says: Secretary Foster denied today that there had been any conclusion of negotiations between the United States and Great Britain with regard to the sealing operations in Behring Sea during the coming season. "I do not say," he added, "that an arrangement of some sort may not be reached between the two Governments, but that I can take no cognizance till it comes. Our vessels are under orders to sail May 15, so that any change in the program must be made soon or it will be too late."

Married By Typewriter.

MARION, Ind., April 28.—Albert Barney and Jennie Karns, deaf mutes, were married at the Spencer House parlors by Rev. W. D. Weaver, who pronounced the important questions with the aid of a typewriter. The novelty of the affair attracted a large attendance.

Good Uses of Tobacco.

Raise a few leaves of tobacco on your farm every year. The dried leaves will keep the vermin from hens' nests, and the leaves or stems steeped to a strong decoction with sulphur, four ounces of tobacco to one of sulphur, in a gallon of boiling water, will kill the sheep-tick.

Good Manners.

Never press a favor where it seems undesired.

Never intrude ill-health, pains, losses or misfortunes.

We Understand Them so Well !

"Let other people do as they see fit my dear Nora, you and I will stick to Diamond Dyes, we understand them so well. We have used them for five years and have never had cause to regret our choice. Some of our neighbors have suffered losses, and wasted time by using some of the new dyes recently introduced, while we have always been very successful. No change for us Nora." "You are quite right mother; Diamond Dyes are indeed unequalled in the world; and only to-day I heard of two of our friends who solemnly declared, that for the future they will use only the Diamond."

Cold in head, catarrh, consumption, death are the four stages that rapidly follow each other. If you would avoid the latter do not neglect the former, but use Nasal Balm at the first symptoms.

IT WAS NAPOLEON.

His Wonderfully Intelligent Dog Recovered the Lost Coins.

It was dark, and down a retired street in Paris a man rode alone on horseback. Suddenly the horse stopped as if frightened. Then a man rose from the pavement in the middle of the street and jumped to one side with a cry. The rider was angry and exclaimed: "Are you drunk man, that you lie about in the middle of a dark street to get yourself run over?"

"You might better lend a poor fellow a hand than scold in that way," exclaimed the other. "I had 200 franks in gold in this bag, carrying it to pay a bill for my master, and the bag has broken and it is all lost over the street. If you have some matches they will do me more good than your curses."

"It's no easy task to find lost money on a night like this," said the rider, dismounting. "I have no matches, but perhaps I can help you. Have you any of the pieces left?"

"Only one," replied the unfortunate fellow with a sob.

"Give it to me," said the other.

The poor man hesitated, but the stranger repeated the words in a tone of authority, and the last coin was handed to him.

The stranger whistled and a great Spanish mastiff stood beside him. He held the coin to the dog's nose, and leaning to the rough pavement said: "Find them."

The dog sniffed the gold-piece and began the search.

One, two, three, he began bringing in the coins and dropping them into his master's hand, while the poor servant stood by in silent wonder.

Thirteen times he returned with a 20-franc piece. Then, after a long search, he came back empty, with a grunt that seemed to say: "There are no more."

"We are yet lacking one piece," said the stranger. "Are you sure there were just 200 francs?"

"Sure as sure can be, sir," the servant replied.

The man looked, and sure enough found the last gold piece there.

"Oh, sir!" he exclaimed, as the stranger sprang into his saddle, "you are my deliverer. Tell me your name that my master may know who has done him such a service."

"I have done nothing," said the stranger, "Tell your master that the one who helped you was a very good and intelligent dog by the name of Jole."

It was some years afterward, when France had seen troubled times and the royal family was no more, that the master was telling the incident to a party of friends, one of whom had been employed in the palace.

"Jole! Jole!" he exclaimed. "There never was but one dog of that name and there never was a more remarkable and faithful dog than he. He always accompanied his master when he went in disguise about the city."

"Who was his master?" they all asked.

The reply was brief: "The Emperor Napoleon."

Don't Feel Well.

And yet you are not sick enough to consult a doctor, or you refrain from so doing for fear you will alarm yourself and friends—we will tell you just what you need. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will lift you out of that uncertain, uncomfortable, dangerous condition, into a state of good health, confidence and cheerfulness. You've no idea how potent this peculiar medicine is in cases like yours.

TOOK HIM FOR A CANNIBAL.

An English Dinner Party Horrified by Burton, the Celebrated.

Dining in England with a very straight-laced set of people in the country, who, he fancied, considered him as something little short of an ogre, Burton met several very young ladies, and he made up his mind to horrify them. He commenced giving a narrative of an imaginary shipwreck on the Red Sea, or the Blue Nile, remote from all human habitation or help.

After describing how they all suffered from the pangs of hunger, and the wolfish glances they began to cast on one another from time to time, as the days wore on, and no relief came, dropping his voice to a mysterious whisper, almost under his breath, he added:

"The cabin boy was young and fat, and looked very tender, and on him, more than on any other, such looks were cast, until——"

Here he paused, looked around at the strained and startled faces of his auditors, in which horror was depicted, and then abruptly ended, as though dismissing a disagreeable memory.

"But these are not stories to be told at a cheerful dinner party in a Christian country, and I had best say no more. Let us turn to some more cheerful subject."

Of course, he was pressed to continue, and complete his story, but stubbornly refused, leaving his hearers in a most unsatisfactory state of mind as to the denouement of the unfinished narrative.

Burton told me he was thoroughly convinced by the startled looks cast upon him by the younger ladies that they believed that he and his tougher comrades in the shipwreck had roasted and eaten that cabin boy, whose tenderness he had so eulogized. They seemed to have no doubt that he was a cannibal, in fact as well as in intention.

BUY NOW IF AT ALL.

EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Erie property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighborhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

A Pointer from Some One.

A gentleman who drives towards Lakefield frequently wishes to call a meeting of those who drive over the Lakefield road and all livery men of the town, the meeting to be held on the road near Mr. John Carnegie's residence and organized into a "bee," for the purpose of clearing the stones off the road which were put on last year by the pathmaster. He says they are boulders and that the road is in a miserable condition for driving over.

A Councillor Climbs a Fence.

A runaway attended with some little sensation occurred at the G. T. R. station at noon to-day. A horse attached to a light waggon and driven by John Connors, who was in the freight shed getting some packages, took fright and dashed away. A barrel of feathers in the back of the rig went in a cloud into the air and the other articles of burden were thrown out upon the road. One of the second ward Councillors was standing on the sidewalk when the horse and wagon came dashing along. There was no escape but to climb the fence and up he went, and just got his limbs out of danger when the wagon dashed past. The horse was captured after damaging the waggon considerably.

A Tramp's Trick Exposed.

A few days ago Police Magistrate Dumble sent three tramps up to the castle on the hill to spend one month at hard labor as the guests of the county. One of these gentlemen of leisure, the youngest of the trio, had his arm in a sling, and by the aid of a hypocritical, pain-stricken face and the splint-dressed arm, had been appealing to the charity of citizens. Any jar or jostling was apparently very painful to the youth. On Saturday last the gaol physician thought it was time the young man's arm was dressed if it was crippled, and an examination was made, when suspicions were confirmed, and the arm that was suspended in the sling was found to be well and sound. A little exercise with the axe or saw will probably take out any stiffness and the young man will leave the gaol fully restored to health.

MUSIC HATH CHARMS.

A Pleasing Evening's Entertainment in Opera House Given by Local Talent.

For local musical talent Peterborough has always stood high and last evening some of her best and finest was listened to by a delighted audience at the annual concert of the P.A.A.A. given in the Opera House.

The audience included the most appreciative of the music loving public of Peterborough. In dimensions it was good, filling the floor of the house almost completely. In appreciation it was demonstrative and in some numbers emphatically so.

The programme was of a proper length, comprising thirteen numbers, which occupied about an hour and three-quarters in rendition, "God Save the Queen" being reached at ten o'clock. There was not a soloist on the programme who was weak, each being an artist, and the audience were decidedly pleased with the evening's entertainment.

Some new talent made their debut before a Peterborough audience and scored a great success. Mr. Churchill Arlidge, organist of St. Paul's church, and his young son were the two new contributors and both will hereafter be received with popular enthusiasm. Mr. Arlidge was down on the programme twice for flute solos. As a flutist he is a brilliant and talented virtuoso, his execution being such that his music entranced his audience. His first number was a flute song "Du du Liegst Mir am Herzen" by Boehm, a difficult rendition given with finish and expression. To a rapturous encore he responded with the ever beautiful "Home, Sweet Home," given in all its sweetness without any variation embellishment. His second number was a delightful selection "The Keel Row" rendered with marvellous expression. Again he was encored, the audience evidently desiring to listen longer, although as a rule there is a tendency to tire evident in the mixed audience when listening to several similar musical numbers be they cornet, flute or violin. Miss Bertha Leech played the accompaniments for the flutist, and her difficult task was performed in a manner which marked her as a finished pianist of talent.

Master Arlidge, the boy soprano, carried the audience by storm and was treated to grand appreciative demonstrations. His first number was "Angels Ever Bright and Fair," and in this his phenomenal voice came out with effective sweetness and captured the audience. He was loudly encored but did not respond. The gifted boy's second selection was the beautiful song "Hope and Joy," rendered with piano accompaniment by Miss Bertha Leech and flute obligato by Mr. Arlidge. This was a bright and delightful number in the finale of which the power of the lad's voice was fully evidenced. He was vociferously encored, and responded with the old favorite "Suwanee River," rendered with pathetic effect. The boy possesses a phenomenal voice and, if not taxed beyond its power he will develop into a wonderful tenor.

Miss Vair was the only lady vocalist on the programme, and her solo was one of the best numbers of the evening. Possessing a full, sweet soprano voice of good compass and richly cultivated, she seemed in good voice, and for her solo sang with power and expression. To her talents as a vocalist she added a pleasing presence, which greatly enhanced her magnificent efforts. Her selection was Gomes' "Mia Piccirella," and the audience [illegible] applauded. In her duet with Mr. T. Dunn, "The Venetian Boat Song," Miss Vair again acquitted herself as a finished vocalist, and the only duet of the evening was received with prolonged plaudits.

Mr. T. Dunn, the popular baritone, gave two solos, and from his reception it is evident that his marvellous gift of voice never ceases to charm the audience. His power as a vocalist is known to every concert-going person in Peterborough, but last evening he was in grand voice, and sang with a spirit and expression that electrified the audience. His first solo was "The Raft," by Pinsuti, and an encore was demanded, but only responded to by a bow. His second selection was "Tell Her I Love Her So," by Defaye, and to an irresistable encore he gave "Happy Moments," from "Maritana." In his duet with Miss Vair he was also in fine voice. Mrs. Dunn played the accompaniments for Miss Vair and Mr. Dunn and did so with a feeling and grace that was charming.

Then there was the quartette by Messrs. Manning, Ross, Matthews and Drope, a meritorious rendition which was encored. The selection was "The Old Brigade," and the encore, "Moonlight on the Lake."

A diversion from the musical numbers was the exhibition of club-swinging by Mr. J. R. Cobb. The lights were turned down and in the darkness of twilight Mr. Cobb appeared with illuminated clubs and gave a clever exhibition which was well received.

Last to be mentioned, but not least, is the Amateur Orchestra. The musicians numbered ten, under the leadership of Mr. Butcher, and their three selections were given with a spirit, unison and harmony which was stirring and delightful. Peterborough can well feel proud of this organization, evidencing the musical talent which is within her borders.

It was a pleasing musical evening, and a fair sum was netted for the funds of the Athletic Association.

The Association wish to return their most sincere thanks to those who contributed to the programme and made the concert one of the best amateur entertainments held this season. Mr. Jackson who kindly loaned the handsome piano used for accompaniments is also to be thanked for his kindness.

The Late James Calcutt.

The Port Hope Times has the following obituary of the late James Calcutt, a brother of Mr. H. Calcutt, of town:—"Our readers will learn with deep regret of the demise of Mr. James Calcutt, who passed away at his residence here on Monday night, 27th inst. Deceased was an old resident of Port Hope, and was well-known and highly respected throughout the old Newcastle District. He was born in Mountmellick, Queen's County, Ireland, on the 10 of April, 1821, and came to Canada in company with the rest of the family in 1832. He was married in 1850 to Julia, sixth daughter of William Sowden, of Beaver Meadows, in the county of Northumberland, by whom he had two sons, Frederic Kingsley, since dead, and James F. C., and one daughter, Miss Julia Elfrida, all of whom own Port Hope as their birthplace. Mr. Calcutt engaged in the brewing business almost all his life, and at one time carried on a large business in this town. He died at the age of 70 years after a short illness. Mr. Calcutt took an active part in public affairs, and for many years was the leading member of the Town Council."

Persons.

Mr. George A. Cox is in town to day.

Mr. D. W. Dumble is in Toronto to-day.

Mr. Albert Gilmour, of Gilmour, Reed & Co., the new firm of confectionary and biscuit manufacturers, is in town and will henceforth be a resident of Peterborough. He will be welcomed as heartily as his partner, Mr. Reid, who is now a "well-known resident" comparatively.

Mr. G. V. Clementi was in town yesterday renewing many acquaintances. He went to Lindsay to-day and leaves for the south to-morrow.

Doctors may differ in opinion as to the cause of that feeling of languor and fatigue so prevalent in the spring; but all agree as to what is the best remedy for it, namely, Ayer's Sarsaparilla; it makes the weak strong, and effectually removes that tired feeling.

The Story of a Western Potato.

Sir Walter Raleigh is reported to have returned to England from one of his voyages having among his effects samples of a much esteemed tuber upon which the people of its native country largely subsisted. The new vegetable was planted on British soil and proved to be the progenitors of the potato of civilization. In some such way we have cropping up in this vicinity a new potato and the history of its coming to this part of the continent is rather singular. About five years ago Mr. John Edwards who was living at Seattle, U.S., wished to send home, as evidence of an early spring, a bunch of flowers. He cast about for a means to convey the flowers fresh and bright. It occurred to him to take one of a large and prolific variety of potato, scoop out the inside, insert the flowers and mail the package. Mr. R. B. Edwards received the consignment, but on opening it found the flowers rather moist and wilted. The potato packing case was put aside and lay about until the following spring. Being the relics of an unusually fine-looking tuber, it occurred to them to plant it and watch results. When dug up the yield was large and good. Replanting the following spring brought a very large yield. Tried at table the potatoes proved to be a capital article and kept through the winter in good condition. Repeated plantings multiplied the crop until the yield last fall was about three hundred bushels. The potatoe has been named the "Seattle," and will prove to be a welcome addition to the list of potatoes raised as crop in this vicinity.

The Board of Health.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—I wish to ask the Town Council through your valuable columns why it does not direct its attention to the carelessness of the Board of Health. I am sure that we are all gratified to the Council for the singularly able manner in which it has discharged its duties to the great benefit of the town, but I humbly submit that it should not regard the public health as a minor matter.

Yours, &c.,
CAUTION.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache and is the best Spring Medicine. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. and $1 a package.

The Health of the Town—Reply to Dr. Clarke.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—Dr. Clarke has at last come out of his shell in response to the rather severe criticisms of his ability as public health officer. His reply to his accusers does not indicate in the least that he has any degree of fitness for the position. Like a woman's letter, his has its pith at the end where he kindly gives the following advice:—"At this point in the history of the town it is unwise to discuss health matters in the newspapers, as it gives the impression that the town is unhealthy, which is untrue." Where would you discuss them then, dear doctor, at the Board of Health meetings? You know you never call one except when absolutely compelled. The one called for Monday night failed to come off for want of a quorum.

What is the mysterious prompting which induces Dr. Clarke to give this gratuitous and impertinent advice? The Board of Trade should move in the matter, for it is high time. Was the doctor appointed to act as medical health officer, or as municipal adviser-in-general?

Let us now analyse the doctor's scientific treatise which literally reeks with the knowledge of biology and zymotic diseases. "Five deaths have unfortunately occurred, but the majority—I may say all—were in families to whom no sanitary neglect, public or private, could be imputed." Is it possible that the doctor takes this on faith as he expects us to do? Are they above the law? Surely he will not tell us that he has uttered a principle of sanitary science. Let me tell the doctor that a most likely nest of microbes is sometimes found in an unlikely place. We see, frequently, fine houses with water-closets over the cream. But does the cleanliness of a family preclude contagion? What nonsense! A clean and healthy family may surely catch a disease like diphtheria from a dirty family, doctor? But the climax of absurdity is yet to be reached in a truly scientific observation made with reference to a mechanic's family where diphtheria was. "I can see no objection to a man working, say in a foundry, provided he uses such precautions as he is sure to use for his own sake." (The italics are mine.) Just think of the science of sanitation and its application being summed up in the memorable words "as he is sure to use for his own sake." This is rich. It is unnecessary to quote from standard medical authorities to confute the doctor's quaint remarks in other parts of his letter in view of this statement.

I am a ratepayer having a right to speak but desirous of having facts speak for themselves, nor am I aware, the doctor to the contrary notwithstanding, that a newspaper discussion can do harm unless the checking of the truth can be said to do it. That it may do harm seems to be the ground of his objection. I challenge the doctor to show what good the Board of Health, as a board, has been to Peterborough. It is in my opinion a sham. We do not want stale observations on disease in general nor the patronizing platitudes of medical men. The main question is "Is everything that can be reasonably expected of a Board of Health resolved upon and when resolved upon is it done?" I say, emphatically, "No."

It is high time that this cant about the reputation of the town ceased. A false reputation is unworthy of us. The Government returns show that Peterborough is unhealthy at this critical season in each year. The allowing of public funerals in cases of diphtheria (to which the doctor took good care not to refer) is a scandal in this age.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Simply Appalling.

It seems that an uptown housewife relates that she was about closing an engagement with a new help the other day and after acceding to several stipulations as to hours out, Sunday's off, etc., finally had to break off the prospective engagement, when the applicant inquired whose teas were used in the house, and learning that the article was bought from the regular grocer replied that she couldn't stay in a house and do justice to the table where they did not use Hawley Bros'. teas, the best and purest sold in town. d98tf-w18

BUY A HOME!

Stop Paying Rent! Be Your Own Landlord!

We Offer For Sale by Public Auction on

MONDAY, 11th MAY, 1891, at 3 p. m., ON THE GROUND.

Lots on Romaine-st. Each lot is 33ft. by 220ft. Soil high and dry, sandy loam. 10 minutes walk from the Edison Works, Peter Hamilton Works, the Carbon Works and the Bridge Works. The new Electric Car Line will touch this street and George and Aylmer-sts. will be opened through to the Fair ground.

To secure a respectable street the deeds will contain a clause compelling the purchasers when they build to erect a uniform distance from the front, and that the houses when built shall not cost less than $600. These lots are double the depth of the ordinary town lot and are fine for gardening. This is the finest property in the market and one which will afford the best building lots to be had at low prices. These are only lots left on the south side of the street. Lots in the neighborhood half the depth sell at $8 to $10 per foot frontage, while these lots are 220ft. deep and will be sold for what they will bring. These lots while sufficiently near the great factories, are close to George-st. and being off the muck are clean and healthy.

Ten years will be given for payment. $5.00 on the $100 down; $5.00 on the $100, in one month; $10 on the $100 in 3 months, then a free deed will be given and mortgage taken back for the remainder of the purchase money, payable in 9 equal annual payments with interest at 6 per cent. Five per cent. discount will be allowed for cash. For further particulars apply to

Is a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla — the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emaciated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom it had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."—Charles H. Maloney, 113 River st., Lowell, Mass.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29, 1891.

THE TWO PARLIAMENTS.

OPENING OF THE ONE, CLOSING OF THE OTHER.

Little Business Transacted at the Legislature Yesterday—The Consolidation and Revision of the Laws Respecting the Education Department.

TORONTO, April 29.—In the Ontario Legislature, yesterday, Mr. Meredith called attention to the fact in the bill consolidating and revising the laws respecting the Education Department, the minister proposed to give up the authority of the department over separate schools which was given by the organic law of those schools. He insisted that the educational institutions which were supported by public taxation should be controlled by the state.

Mr. Ross, in reply, said that there was no surrender of the statutory control of separate schools. The power of the department over separate schools is set forth in the act relating to those schools. This bill simply sets forth the powers which the department exercises over such schools, as it has unlimited control over and was drawn deliberately with the intention of indicating plainly the extent of those powers. The bill does not give up any of the powers the Government now has over separate schools.

Upon Mr. Hardy's motion to go into committee to consider the bill respecting the new mining regulations, Mr. Conmee moved in amendment that the House had not sufficient information to form an opinion upon the effect of the imposition of a royalty, that the bill be not now considered and that a commission of practical men be appointed to enquire into and report upon the best mode of dealing with the mining lands. After a brief explanation from Mr. Hardy the amendment was withdrawn for the present. Several important changes were made in the bill. The price of mining lands in Algoma, Thunder Bay, Rainy River and Nipissing, north of French River, Lake Nipissing and River Mattawa was placed, when in a surveyed township within 12 miles of a railway, at $4.50 per acre, when in unsurveyed territory within 12 miles of a railway at $4 per acre, and all other mining lands in that district at $3 per acre. The price of all other mining lands south of the aforesaid lakes and rivers, when in a surveyed township within 12 miles of a railway, was placed at $3 per acre; when situated elsewhere, at $2 per acre. Under certain conditions grants may be made of mining lands at the price heretofore applicable for which bona fide applications were made prior to April 24, 1891. The royalty of 2 per cent. on silver, nickel or nickel copper remained, but the proposed royalty of 2 per cent. on iron was dropped. Iron was placed on the list of ores which "shall be subject to such royalty as shall from time to time be imposed by order in council," not to exceed 2 per cent. "Nevertheless, and to assume speedy development, it is provided that the royalty hereby reserved shall not be imposed or collected on any ores mined, wrought or taken until seven years from the date of the patent of the lease."

Mr. Mowat introduced a bill respecting local option in liquor selling. The decision of Chief Justice Galt quashed a number of local option bylaws. The Attorney-General's bill is for the purpose of taking a test case to the Court of Appeal. In the meantime the License Commissioners will be given power to issue temporary licenses.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

The Speech from the Throne Will Be Delivered To-Morrow.

OTTAWA, April 28.—Ottawa is shaking off its lethargy to-night and once more assuming a busy aspect. The members are coming in fast, over one-fourth being here to-night, and in the morning trains will probably bring in twice as many more as are here now.

To-morrow's proceedings are not expected to be anything more than pro forma. The swearing-in of members will commence at 12 and, to use a phrase which has become historic, they will be "sworn in in batches," until they have all taken the oath. The usual form is to swear in as many at once, four, six or eight, as can get their hands on the Bible. After that each member signs the roll of the House, and then, and only then, becomes a full-fledged member of Parliament. The swearing-in and signing being over, the distinguished body will be summoned to the Red Chamber, where they will be informed that His Excellency does not please to disclose the reason of his summoning Parliament until they have elected a Speaker, and the House will be dismissed until 3 o'clock on Thursday, when the formal opening will take place and the Speech from the Throne be delivered. No intimation can of course be got to-night as to what the speech is likely to contain, but it is not anticipated that the Government will announce any startling change of policy or pre-shadow any legislation of a nature likely to provoke determined opposition. It has already been announced that no great or general change in the tariff will be made, and the legislation members are said to be good speakers and some of them are practised Parliamentarians but the familiar slouch hat and sonorous rounded paragraphs of Mr. Blake will be sadly missed from the Opposition benches, while the Government will mourn the loss of argumentative strength occasioned by the enforced absence of Mr. Colby. Apropos of this gentleman, I understand that his resignation has been accepted and that he does not anticipate a very early return to public life, as his business in England will probably occupy him for some time. The House will also miss the portly presence of Mr. Carling which will add somewhat to the appearance of the Senate. It is very freely stated that he will not remain in the Senate very long after the close of the session, but transfer his sphere of usefulness to Government House, Toronto, Sir Alexander returning to the Senate.

Invitations have been issued for the usual state dinner on Thursday night and the drawing room will be held in the Senate Chamber on Saturday.

How Tall Chimneys Oscillate.

The extent or degree of the oscillation of tall chimneys may be exactly taken by a close observation as the shadows they cast upon the ground. An instance to the point is that of a chimney 115 high and four feet in diameter externally at the top, near Marseilles, France, the oscillations of which were observed by the shadow during a high wind to attain a maximum of over twenty inches.

LYNCHED BY SOLDIERS.

A Former Windsorite Shot to Death by Soldiers—Particulars of the Walla Walla Lynching Affair.

WINDSOR, April 28.—J. D. Hunt, the notorious crook, who formerly made his home in Windsor, is no more. He was lynched in Walla Walla, Wash., by American soldiers. Hunt was one of the most noted and desperate thieves and lawless people that ever lived in this place and his "sudden" death is not very much regretted. The particulars of his death are as follows: "On Wednesday night J. D. Hunt, a gambler, whose reputation was bad even among his companions, became engaged in an altercation with Private Miller, and struck him in the face. Miller returned the blow, and was getting the best of the fight, when Hunt drew a revolver from his hip pocket and shot Miller dead. A mob at once collected, and an attempt was made to lynch the murderer, but he was hurried to the jail by the authorities, who determined that the law should take its course. Talk of lynching has been heard of on the streets ever since the murder, and the sheriff, fearing an attempt would be made to take the prisoner out and lynch him, swore in a number of citizens as special deputies, armed them, with instructions to guard the prisoner at all hazards. Last night the jail, a strong structure, was surrounded by fully 150 soldiers, who demanded the surrender of Hunt. The sheriff refused, hot words were exchanged, and several of the more impetuous deputies fired upon the soldiers, who answered with a volley. The despatches say half a dozen persons were killed and many wounded, but whether they were citizens or soldiers is not known. After the shooting the soldiers are reported to have battered down the door of the jail and riddled Hunt with bullets."

A BAD HUMOR CURED.

$5,000 Expended on Doctors and Medicine Without Avail. Gave Himself up to Die.

Good Wife Suggests Cuticura Remedies. Uses them 7 Months, and is entirely Cured

I was in the war during 1861-64, and took a heavy cold at Gettysburg, from which I never fully recovered. In 1876 I broke out in sores all over my chest and shoulder, which seemed impossible to cure. I tried all the famed doctors I could find, and to no avail. I expended some five thousand dollars trying to find a cure, but could not, and finally giving myself up to die, my good wife suggested to me, one day, to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES which were so extensively advertised and used. I followed her suggestion, and am happy to say by diligent application of your CUTICURA REMEDIES for seven months I was entirely cured, after spending five years of time and money without avail, and am a sound and well man to-day. You may refer to me if you wish, as I will tell any one who may call on me my experience.

If good flour makes good bread it follows that one sort of flour makes better bread than another.

Which sort makes best?

That depends. The best flour is the purest, the best ground, the strongest and containing the most health giving and nourishing properties.

These good points are all found in our Flour.

Have you tried it? Perhaps yes. Perhaps no. If you have not, do so, and you may find a better flour than you have been using, and we a customer.

ATTRACTIONS IN DRY GOODS At TURNBULL'S.

The change in the weather has brought with it a great demand for millinery; also for spring shades in dress goods. Our store was never more attractive in these lines than at present. We have every New Shade of Dress Goods in Stock, with Millinery to match. If you are in town this week have a look at our Gray Dress Goods and Millinery window. Large Gray Checks for young people made up alone or mixed with Black, Small Black and White Checks and Stripes. Broken patterns for older people, goods that are hard to find in Neat Patterns. We justly claim to take the lead in our Tailoring department for Quality of Goods, Fit and Price. We get up a Splendid Suit in Halifax Tweed or Navy Serge for $12.00. Fine grades of Almento and other makes of Tweed for $13.00, $14.00, $15.00 and $16.00; Scotch Tweeds and Serges from $16.00 to $20.00 for the best. Fine All Wool Worsted, Venetian Finish or Diagonal Cords for Coat and Vest, with Black or Fancy Panting to match, at from $19.00 to $22.00 a suit. Remember our prices. Call and see our Stock and do not go and pay a great deal higher figure through force of habit. We have added this week to our already Attractive Stock of Boys' Clothing another shipment just turned out of the manufacturer's hands, Neat and New Styles. We have shown an Immense Range of Patterns in Cottonades and Shirtings in the Best Quality; we also keep all the lower lines, beginning at 5c. a yard for Shirtings and 12½c. for Cottonades.

We have an opening now for an apprentice in the Millinery department. Apply until Saturday.

TORONTO TOPICS.

A Boy Killed by a Street Car—A Mysterious Death.

TORONTO, April 30.—James Macdonald, the 8-year-old son of David Macdonald, 348 King-street east, met with a terribly sudden death at noon yesterday. The little fellow was returning home from the Sackville-street school, and while crossing King-street, near St. Lawrence-street, was knocked down and run over by a Danforth-avenue car. His skull was crushed and death ensued in a few minutes. The car was driven by James Hepburn.

No. 17 Soho-street has a rather unlucky record. It was in that house that the young Salvation Army private, Van Brunt—afterwards hanged in New York State for the murder of his sweetheart's brother—attempted suicide by shooting himself. The building again sprang into unenviable notoriety yesterday morning, when an old man named Thomas Mills, 68 years of age, died somewhat suddenly in one of its rooms, under circumstances which led to the belief that he had taken poison, willingly or unwillingly so far has not been proven. Mills did the chores around the house for the landlady, a Miss Annie Fisher, who had succeeded Marion Mills, his daughter, as keeper of the place. Marion had written Miss Fisher on Tuesday telling her to tell her father that she was not coming back from Montreal where she had gone on a visit, and telling her to make the old man get out and hustle for himself.

Mills took the letter very much to heart and wept a good deal. Later in the day, however, he seemed to have recovered his usual spirits and went to bed with a fairly good load of whisky in him. He awoke the people in the house with his groans about 2 in the morning. Doctors were sent for, but they could do nothing, and he died at 5 yesterday morning. The autopsy failed to indicate any poisonous presence, and it was the more fully to ascertain the cause of death that Coroner Johnson last night empanelled a jury in No. 3 Police Station. The medical testimony was uncertain as to the cause of death, and an adjournment was made until to-morrow evening for further evidence.

SETTLING WITH THE SURVIVORS.

Harrison Sends a Delegate to Palermo to Settle up.

ROME, April 29.—L'Opinione publishes a despatch from Palermo stating that an American journalist named Engelmann who has arrived there has been delegated by the Government of the United States to render assistance to the families of the Italian subjects lynched in New Orleans. It is stated that Engelmann visited the village of Caccamo to give help to the family of Monasterio, one of the lynched men who resided at that place.

Stole a Quarter of a Million.

NEW YORK, April 29.—A suit brought by Charles H. Holmes shows that Arthur C. Gilman, a member of the firm of J. H. Lorabee & Co., tea merchants, who died suddenly at Flushing, L.I., last December, was a defaulter to the firm in the sum of $263,[illegible]. Gilman was taken in at a salary of $8 a week in 1879 and became a partner without putting in any capital in 1883. As he kept stealing the money he deposited it with the Seventh National Bank, the Flushing Bank and the Queen's County Bank. What he did with the money does not appear.

TO BE HANGED JUNE 4.

THE CUMBERLAND MONSTER SENTENCED TO DEATH.

The Judge's Severe Arraignment—The Jury Only Required Half-an-Hour to Arrive At a Verdict of Guilty—The Prisoner Appears Unconcerned.

L'ORIGNAL, Ont., April 29.—The awful murder of the little McGonigle girls at Cumberland on Oct. 7 last will be avenged. Narcisse Larocque was to-day found guilty and will be hanged Thursday, June 4, at this place. The prisoner's lawyers, Messrs. McCrimmon and Constantine, made a brilliant defence considering the material they had to work on, but the crown case was so strong that the jury only remained out 35 minutes. The verdict was unanimous. The judge's sentence was extremely solemn and his censure of the crime terribly severe.

In addressing prisoner, before passing sentence, His Lordship said: "Perhaps in the annals of crime in this country no more diabolical offence has been committed than that which you have perpetrated and of which the jury have very properly, I think, convicted you. The circumstances all pointed to you as being the guilty party: You were last seen in the company of these two little girls, who were unable to protect themselves, and you being a friend of the family your duty ought to have been to have protected them against the hand of anyone. Instead of that, as the evidence must satisfy everyone, you first, in order to satisfy your lustful passion, outraged them both and then you committed this offence for the purpose of covering up the guilt of the first crime."

Prisoner after the verdict was announced, turned deadly pale, his lips quivered and it was thought he would break down, but near the close of the sentence he braced up and finally left the court room with a firm step though with a bowed head.

The Evidence that Convicted.

The evidence was purely circumstantial. James McGonigle, the father of the murdered children, a laborer, testified to their ages, namely, that of Mary about 14 years and that of Eliza about 12. They were at school at Cumberland on Oct. 7 last; they did not come home that night: the next night, Wednesday, Oct. 8, about 10 o'clock, the two girls were found dead by him and some others in a bush just out of a lane, which the children traversed on their way to and from the village.

George Brown, the school teacher, and Cosy McCollum, a little girl who was a schoolmate of the murdered girls, testified to the latter having been at school on Oct. 7 and having left it for home about 4 o'clock.

Margaret Cochrane deposed that she saw the prisoner running towards the lane on the afternoon of the murder, as did also her son.

William Gamble testified that he had met and spoken to the prisoner, who was following the girls towards the bush on the afternoon in question. Prisoner was walking at a brisk pace.

Benjamin Bernard gave the most incriminating testimony. He swore positively that while in a field getting his cows he saw prisoner walking with the two girls in the lane leading up to the bush. One girl was walking alongside him, while the other was walking just behind.

The evidence of Robert Dalrymple corroborated that of the two preceding witnesses as to the time at which they returned from the field. He also heard screaming at intervals of 15 minutes from the direction of the woods.

Considerable evidence was given as to the tracks made by the murderer, which exactly corresponded in size with those made by boots belonging to the prisoner. It was also shown that trees on the route prisoner admitted he took in going to his brother's house were covered with blood marks, as if a bloody hand had been wiped thereon.

Edward Larocque, a cousin of the prisoner, swore that prisoner arrived at his house at 6 o'clock on the evening of the murder and remained all night.

Ghastly Relics in Evidence.

The medical testimony was very conclusive. Drs. Marks, Jamson and Ferguson, who made the post mortem, testified that there was every evidence that the children had been horribly outraged. The immediate cause of death was strangulation, the finger-marks of the assassin being plainly discernible on the neck, while the windpipe bore evidence of great pressure. There were also numerous marks on the hands showing that fingernails had dug into them. Dr. Marks produced in court the hands and other injured parts of the children preserved in spirits, together with photographs of the hands and impressions of the fingers of the prisoner and the jury compared them. A shudder of horror ran through the audience during the course of the evidence of Coroner Marks. The younger girl had evidently been the first victim of the fiendish monster, as the marks of violence in her case were the most pronounced, and in strangling the child the murderer had used such force that he had broken a bone in the throat.

There was no evidence for the defence. Prisoner's counsel did not think it advisable to call witnesses as to character, and the attempt to show that other girls had previously been chased in the same woods was abandoned.

Locchia Liberated.

CAYUGA, April 29.—Locchia, the Italian who was accused of murder and arson in connection with the burning of a farmer's residence in North Cayuga, whereby two children were burned to death, has been released from jail on his own recognizance, the Crown Attorney believing that the evidence against him was not sufficient to justify his further detention.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

The Undertakers' Bill Shelved—A 10-Year-Old Inmate.

TORONTO, April 30.—The bill to amend the Medical Act passed through Committee of the Whole House yesterday with but one amendment. Strong opposition was expressed to the clause to provide that a doctor giving evidence in his professional capacity in any court shall be paid $4 a day in addition to traveling expenses. It was defeated by a large majority. Incidentally, Mr. McCleary read a letter from a medical man in his constituency saying, "The Medical Council is no good any way. The profession don't want it. It is a parasitic fungus which should be annihilated." As a result of the discussion on the rejected clause of this bill, Mr. Whitney introduced a bill to provide that artisans and mechanics giving expert testimony in a law court shall be paid in addition to the traveling expenses a per diem allowance equal to their daily pay.

Joe Tait's bill respecting undertaking, embalming and organic chemistry was virtually killed. The House went into committee on it, but after a brief discussion Mr. Balfour moved that the committee rise, report progress and ask leave to sit again. This motion was carried by a vote of 43 to 30. As there probably will not be another opportunity to go into committee again on the bill this session, the motion really disposed of the bill without eliciting from the members an expression of opinion upon the merits of it.

Mr. Gibson (Hamilton) said, in reply to Mr. Monk, that a boy 9 or 10 years of age was confined in the Central Prison, having been committed by the Police Magistrate of Hamilton for 18 months on a charge of larceny. The Government was not informed why the boy was not sent to some house of refuge. He could not be sent to Penetanguishene Reformatory because of a law of last year, that no boy under 13 should be sent there. Further inquiry would be made and the boy transferred to some other institution if possible.

In reply to Mr. Snider, Mr. Dryden said sugar beet seed had been distributed in several sections of the province. Samples of the beet produced were analyzed and found of a fair quality. It was found that a slightly larger yield per acre might be obtained in Europe. The Government did have under consideration a request for assistance towards establishing a beet root sugar factory but did not see its way clear to granting the assistance asked.

When Mr. Campbell, the Equal Righter, was called on to move his resolution, respecting separate schools, that the B.N.A. Act should be amended so as to place education completely under the jurisdiction of the Ontario Legislature, he stated that, as the members seemed anxious to get through the work of the session, he would withdraw the resolution, but would press it to a vote next session.

Dr. McKay (Oxford) and Mr. W. M. Dack, the Government whips, presented Patrick O'Brien, the housekeeper of the Legislative buildings, yesterday with a well-filled purse in recognition of the efficient manner in which he performed his duties during the session.

Mr. Sol. White, member for North Essex, has in his possession, among other interesting and valuable historical relics, the original parchment of the treaty between the crown and the Wyandotte tribe of Indians, made in 1764. He has also the "wampum" in connection with it, a belt conveying to the Indians the intention of the treaty. The method of interpreting the "wampum" was lost long ago. These articles have always been in the possession of Mr. White's family, handed down from father to son, Mr. White being the lineal descendant of the chief who signed the treaty and his father being the last chief of the tribe.

Interred in the Mausoleum.

KREISAU, April 29.—The remains of Count von Moltke reached here to-day and were conveyed to the mausoleum by officers of cuirassiers, the procession being headed by Gen. Levinsk, Bishop Kopp and the civil authorities of Kreisau. The route of the procession was lined with members of the different veteran soldiers' associations. Pastor Graeditz delivered an oration at the graveside and the ceremonies concluded with an anthem.

A Chess Player's Medals Missing.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The disappearance of the valuables of the late Capt. Mackenzie is the subject of speculation and indignant comment among the great chess player's friends. Even the championship medals won in many contests of absorbing interest on both sides of the Atlantic have disappeared. Undertaker Kipp, who had charge of the remains of Mr. Mackenzie from the time of the discovery of the dead body until the burial, was summoned before Coroner Levy this afternoon and questioned in regard to the missing valuables, but knew nothing of them.

Crushed by Wheels.

KINGSTON, April 29.—One of the heavy waggons of the Sheddon Company was being driven along Earl-street, loaded with furniture, when several little fellows ran towards it. One of them named Powers, about 7 years old, jumped on the rear axle and falling off, was drawn under the wheel, which passed over his hips, crushing him severely. The little fellow was picked up and sent to the Hotel Dieu in the ambulance.

Is This the New York Ripper?

WASHINGTON, April 29.—A man answering in some particulars the description of Jack the Ripper is under arrest here. The prisoner gave his name as John [illegible], and residence New York.

Perforated by a Pick.

NIAGARA, April 29.—A serious accident occurred here about 4 o'clock this afternoon. It seems that George Goard, who with a number of others are engaged in making excavations for the laying of waterworks pipes, was accidentally struck in the back with a pick-ax by a man working behind him, injuring the spine. He was taken to St. Catharines Hospital.

The Government's Free Education Plans.

LIVERPOOL, April 29.—Arthur Bower Forwood, Conservative member of Parliament, in an address here to-day, said he believed upon good authority that it had been officially declared that the Government would dissolve Parliament if the Government's free education plans were obstructed. Mr. Forwood's statement has attracted considerable attention.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

MR. PETER WHITE ELECTED SPEAKER BY ACCLAMATION.

Sir John Macdonald and His Son Take the Oath of Office Together—The Leader of the Opposition Twits the Conservative Party on the Loyalty Cry.

OTTAWA, April 29.—The proceedings in the House and Senate to-day were of the usual personal character and not characterized by any special feature except the swearing in of Sir John and his son together, this being, so far as the writer is aware, the first time such an event has occurred in Canada. Sharp on midday, the Clerk of the Commons and his assistants appeared in the Chamber and the swearing in of members was commenced, the first three to take the oath being Robillard, Dr. Landerkin and McMullen, who signed the roll of the new House in the order named. The junior member for Ottawa was therefore the first to attach his signature to the new roll. The swearing in proceeded rapidly and by 3 o'clock nearly the whole of the members had taken the prescribed oath and inscribed their names in the roll.

The Commoners then retired to their own chamber and Sir John Macdonald, addressing the Clerk, moved, seconded by Sir Hector Langevin, that Peter White, member for North Renfrew, do take the chair as Speaker of the House. He remarked that to the old members of the House it was unnecessary for him to say anything about Mr. White, who, he was sure, would impart dignity to the important position he was to fill. He had been for 14 or 15 years in the House, and from his first entrance had always shown ability and assiduity in the discharge of his duties. No matter on which side of the House he had been, whether on the right of the Speaker or the left, he had always comported himself in a manner which justified the wisdom of those who sent him to the House. He thought that Mr. White would prove perfectly acceptable to both sides of the House.

Mr. Laurier twitted the Government on having suffered a reduction in its ranks in the elections, and also on the fact that they did not propose to follow the British precedent of re-electing the old Speaker. In a good-natured sort of way he touched on the loyalty cry and said that Conservative loyalty shines brightest at election times, but after the election it was put under a bushel. He had thought that Mr. Wood of Brockville, who had made an excellent deputy-speaker, would have been the choice of the Government, but he had no special fault to find with Mr. White. He complimented that gentleman on the possession of sound judgment although he had supported the National Policy, and felt sure that on assuming the position of Speaker he would leave party feeling behind him, and act fairly and justly to both sides of the House.

Mr. White was then declared elected unanimously and conducted to the Speaker's chair by Sir John Macdonald and Sir Hector Langevin, where he made the customary short address declaring his intention to maintain the honor and dignity of the House and to do his duty impartially to the best of his ability.

The House adjourned at 3.35.

The Speech from the Throne.

It is not expected that the Speech from the Throne to-morrow will likely be very long or contain any intimation of any extraordinary legislation, in view of the season of the year at which the House meets.

It may be expected that the usual allusion to the harvest of last year will be varied by some reference to the advanced condition of the crops for the early period of the season and hopeful anticipations that under such auspicious circumstances the industry of the people will be rewarded by good returns for their labor.

The recent negotiations with a view to the enlargement of our trade relations with the United States will no doubt be alluded to and reference made to the fact that Oct. 12 has been fixed as the date for the consideration of a number of questions of great interest to both countries.

As closely connected with this question it is but reasonable to suppose that His Excellency will intimate that Parliament will be asked to continue for the present season the modus vivendi provided for by the treaty of 1888, which the United States Senate failed to ratify.

The attack of Mr. Plimsoll on the Atlantic cattle trade and the charge of the improper treatment of cattle in transit will doubtless cause a reference to the fact that the investigation held by the Dominion Government showed that the charge of cruelty was unfounded, and the statement that the report on the investigation will be laid before Parliament and a measure submitted for the purpose of avoiding all reasonable apprehension of abuse in future and to protect the interests of this important branch of commerce.

Last winter the Minister of Justice addressed a circular to judges asking for suggestions as to changes in the criminal law, including the question of the abolition of grand juries, which some eminent judges had declared themselves in favor of. It is most probable, therefore, that there will be some intimation of submission of a measure codifying the criminal law, in order that that branch of our jurisprudence may be simplified and improved. It will be remembered that an act was introduced at the last session of parliament with reference to the transference to the different provinces in the interest of the Dominion Government foreshores and with reference to obstruction in navigable waters. The act only reached its second reading, but it will be pretty certain to be re-introduced this session.

There has rarely been a session of Parliament in recent years in which it has not been found necessary in view of the growth and development of our Northwest Territories to introduce some legislation with respect to that large and important section of the Dominion, and as several questions of importance have been attracting attention in that section, it is but reasonable to anticipate that the speech will intimate that Parliament will be asked to consider amendments to the acts relating to the Northwest Territories.

It is also probable that the speech will indicate that amendments will be proposed to one or two other acts, and no doubt there will be a reference to the satisfactory condition of the revenue, as evidenced by the surplus last year, and the estimates will be presented at any early period of the session.

If the above proves to be a correct anticipation of [illegible] to be submitted to parliament, it will be seen that while not indicating any measure of a radical or a startling nature calculated to provoke a long and acrimonious session, there will still be a sufficiency of useful legislation proposed.

Dyspepsia

Intense Suffering for 8 years—Restored to Perfect Health.

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1883 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it had cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

INFAMY IN HIGH LIFE.

YOUNG GIRLS BARTERED AS CHATTELS IN AFRICA.

Grave Charges in the Italian Chamber of Deputies Against Army Officers—A Resident of Pesth Kills His Entire Family and Himself.

ROME, April 29.—Sig. Imbriani in the Chamber of Deputies to-day, speaking on the African question, charged the Italian Government with permitting the slave trade to be carried on openly. Imbriani also asserted that 25 young girls who had been taken from their former owners under the the pretext of rescuing them from slavery had been distributed among a number of Italian officers serving with the Italian army in Africa.

The Marquis di Rudini, replying for the Government, protested against such accusations being made without absolute proof of their truth being first obtained.

Amidst cries of "It's a lie," "Withdraw," the Minister of War declared he would not remain in the House unless the charge was withdrawn. A prolonged uproar, during which several violent scenes were witnessed, followed the announcement of the determination of the Minister of War. The President of the Chamber was utterly unable to control excited deputies and consequently he was compelled to suspend the sitting.

CHOKED TO ORDER.

A Woman Pays a Lover to Strangle Her and He Does So.

BUDA PESTH, April 29.—A farm hand by name of Marcsin Gilcman has been arrested for killing a rich female, the keeper of a well-known inn at the village of Detta, near here, and by name of Josepha Kirsch. The woman was found dead in her bed yesterday morning, and the only evidences of violence which might have led to her death were blue marks about her throat indicative of strangulation. Gilcman finally confessed that he had killed the woman, but claimed that he had to do so in accordance with her positive instructions, and produced the following letter which has been identified by those familiar with Mrs. Kirsch's handwriting, as having been written by that woman:

"As I have told you before upon several occasions, my life is no longer bearable and I have decided that the only rest for me will come by taking my life.

"I have decided to ask you to kill me, and if you do it you may have two florins and a quart of whisky, both of these I have provided. I presume you will require something to give you courage to do this deed, and for that reason I have got the quart of whisky, and I will give it to you just as soon as you say that you will kill me, and the two florins will be where you can get them as soon as you satisfy yourself that I am dead.

"At 7 o'clock this evening I shall be entirely finished with my day's work and will await you in my room. I want you to tie my hands and feet together securely. Then I want you to clasp your hands around my throat for five minutes, which will be sufficient time to kill me; then sprinkle my body with holy water and take the two florins which you will find in the pocket of my dress."

The cowardly fellow considered for several hours and finally decided to undertake the job. He tied her as directed, took the whisky, sat in a chair facing her for two hours, during which time he drank all the liquor and became so intoxicated that he had no remembrance of what he did. He supposed he must have killed her in the way proposed. He did not fail to take the two florins.

The Persecution of the Jews.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 29.—A decree has been issued ordering the enforcement in St. Petersburg of the same measures against the Jews as were recently decreed against the Hebrews of Moscow. The decree assigns certain places where Jews will be permitted to reside in St. Petersburg.

The priests and pastors of Moscow are overwhelmed with requests from Jews for baptism in order to avoid expulsion. The law prevents such conversions except in the case of Lutherans and Catholics, and then permits conversions only in limited numbers. The flight of Jews continues. The expelled Jews are cruelly treated, being marched out of the city afoot, chained in bands by the wrists.

Widowed Mrs. Grimwood's Story.

CALCUTTA, April 29.—Mrs. Grimwood, wife of Mr. Grimwood, late British political agent at Manipur, who was murdered when Chief Commissioner Quinton and other British officials lost their lives, has arrived here. She says the Manipur disaster was entirely due to the rashness of Quinton in refusing to listen to sensible advice which was given him in regard to the negotiations being conducted with the native chiefs concerning the deposition of the maharajah.

Was He the Ripper?

LONDON, April 29.—It is reported that Jack the Ripper has been identified as being the unknown man who committed suicide at Wimbledon some three weeks ago by shooting himself with a revolver. An American Athlete Speaks.

At the annual meet of Athletes held on the grounds of the Montreal Lacrosse Club in Montreal, one of the celebrated American Athletes was spoken to in regard to athletic matters and proper training. When asked, "Is it necessary for you athletes to take medicines, or often seek medical advice in order to keep in trim for your various contests?" He replied, "Indeed it is. We feel at times the need of a cleansing, toning and strengthening tonic, quite as much as other mortals who never think of athletics. Speaking from a knowledge of facts, I may say that athletes often experience nervousness, weariness, low spirits, a fulness in the head, and are often troubled with a nervous wakefulness or insomnia. These are serious symptoms, and must be got rid of, if the athlete wishes to excel in his particular line of athletics. As for myself, and I may also speak for other athletic friends, we shun drug and medicines generally, and now invariably use Paine's Celery Compound. I have used it with great success, and am quite satisfied that it is the athlete's friend. It tones up and renews the whole system, both mental and physical, and gives to the digestive organs a vigor that every athlete requires. I would be pleased to see your athletes of Canada better acquainted with this valuable remedy, and prize it as highly as we do on the other side."

Coming from such a source, these opinions should have weight with all interested in Lacrosse, Baseball and Bicycling during the present year.

Nature requires aid in correcting irregularities at this season, and for both men and women no other remedy equals Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a spring blood tonic. They supply all the constituents necessary to enrich the blood and build up the system. BUY NOW IF AT ALL.

EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Brie property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighborhood is rapidly being taken up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

CASH HARDWARE STORE.

On and after 1st April we shall do business on a Cash Basis.

To cover the inevitable losses attendant upon a credit business, which accrue from amount of time spent in keeping accounts, collecting, bad debts, interest account, and in numerous other ways, larger margins of profit must be asked.

In these times cash buyers ask, expect and are entitled to close prices. A careful consideration of the subject convinces us that the time has come for a cash business done on smaller profits.

The only customers who may be put to inconvenience are those who have had long credit. In more ways than one it will be to their advantage to pay cash.

For convenience of our old customers who consider their accounts due when presented, we will call 30 days cash and render all accounts the first of each month, and we wish to say that we will be happy to do business with them on these terms.

As the new departure is something of an experiment, what would be considered a close cash price will be made all through the stock. Not a few leaders only, but a general reduction in everything from the fourth flat to the cellar.

Our idea is to perform more than promised rather than promise more than can be fulfilled.

Our stock is large and varied, consisting of Builders', Contractors', Household, Mechanics', Painters', Shoemakers', Farm, Mill, Factory, Lumbermen's, Sporting, Threshers', Cabinetmakers', and other lines of Hardware.

TAKING GIFTS WITH THEM.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Daly Remembered by Friends of George-st. Church.

A pleasing event occurred last evening—or rather the event was duplicated. At the close of prayer meeting, which was largely attended at George-st. Methodist Church, Mrs. Jas. Kendry and Mrs. Dr. Fife, on behalf of the ladies of the congregation, went forward to the platform. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Daly were asked to step forward, when Mrs. Kendry read the following address:—

PETERBOROUGH, April 29th, 1891.

DEAR MRS. DALY,—It is not our intention to present you with a formal address this evening. We might easily do so, and unlike many other addresses each word, carefully chosen, would find an echo in every heart present.

We have heard with very deep regret of your departure from our town and we desire as a congregation to give some slight expression to our esteem that we have for you. We feel that we are indebted to you for your service of song so freely given, both in the public worship of this church and its social services.

We have ever found you willing, no matter at what personal sacrifice, to help us with your voice. Indeed so true and faithful have you been that we are fully persuaded that your motive can be none other than to please your Divine Master in using for Him the talent of song that He has entrusted to you.

Your singing has been most helpful to us. As you have sung the songs of Zion in the sanctuary our hearts have been uplifted and our courage renewed and many times we have been blessed while listening.

> "These seasons of delight,
> The dawn of glory seemed > Like rays of pure celestial light
> Which on our spirits beam."

We desire to extend to Mr. Daly and yourself our very best wishes for your future happiness and prosperity. We would, if we were permitted, choose for you and yours a serene future, replete with the choicest temporal blessings, but these things are in the hand of our wise Heavenly Father, and He giveth to his beloved the "best gifts." But we do ask for you rich and lasting spiritual blessings, and that God in His wise providence may long permit you to use your voice in His service in the church below, and at least may we all be so unspeakably happy as to meet together round the throne to join with all the ransomed in singing the new song of Moses and the Lamb.

We ask your acceptance of this watch and chain as a slight recognition of our indebtedness as a congregation to you during your residence in Peterborough.

Signed on behalf of the congregation.

Mrs. Dr. Fife handed the handsome gift to Mrs. Daly, who received it with evident emotion. Mr. Daly briefly and in a manly way returned thanks on behalf of himself and wife. He mentioned the extreme kindness which they had invariably experienced during the six years of their life in Peterborough among the friends of George-st. church. Their beautiful gift was the last of a long series of kind attentions that would ever remain a green and pleasant memory. Such service as he and his wife had rendered had been given as much from a sense of duty as from a desire to please the friends of the church.

Rev. Mr. Davis and Mr. Locke gave a few words of commendation and wished Mr. and Mrs. Daly a happy future.

At the close of the meeting many of the friends adjourned to the pleasant rooms of the "Y," where they found the choir of the church gathered and tables spread with a dainty supper. All were entertained as the guests of Mrs. Seward and a cheerful hour spent discussing the good things, after which the following address was read by Mr. Dobbin:—

To Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Daly:

DEAR FRIENDS,—The choir of George-st. Methodist church learn with much regret of your intended departure for Napanee. While they know you are returning to renew associations of past years they feel that in so doing you are severing ties of friendship very dear.

Not only is a pleasant [illegible] departure cause regret. Your marked musical ability has been a means of affording pleasure on many occasions while your valuable assistance has been so readily and cheerfully given that the choir has gained favorable comment and been enabled to achieve marked success. We wish you much prosperity and happiness in years to come and as a slight recognition ask your acceptance of this basket, the gift of the choir.

Signed on behalf of the choir.

A. F. HILL, R. J. CROWE,
JAS. EDGCUMBE, HATTIE LUMSDEN,
MRS. L. SEWARD, L. SEWARD.

The silver fruit basket is a large and handsome piece of plate and was filled with magnificent flowers by the kindness of Mr. Manning. Mr. Daly suitably acknowledged the beautiful gift and heartily thanked the choir for much kindness and attention shown to himself and wife.

In leaving Peterborough Mr. and Mrs. Daly part from many friends. The rare musical talent of Mrs. Daly has ever been at the service of every good work and will be sadly missed in church and among the societies, while Mr. Daly has been ever kind and helpful. They go to Napanee, where they will make their home.

It may be mentioned that the handsome watch was procured at Mr. W. Sanderson's, the basket at China Hall and the beautiful flowers were supplied by Mr. F. Mason, florist.

SPORTS ON THE WATER.

The Boating Season Beginning to Boom—Two Club Meetings.

The Chemong Lake Boat Club held a meeting last evening in the office of Messrs. Hatton & Wood. There was a good attendance of charter members and an enthusiastic spirit pervaded the meeting. Mr. Geo. Hatton, president, was in the chair. The coming season is to be a brisk and lively one at Chemong Park, and the Boat Club will share in the vigor and activity of increased patronage, and will probably have a largely augmented membership. With the handsome new pavilion which Mr. Elliott intends to erect, and the commodious and beautifully situated club house, together with the splendid accommodation of the fine new hotel which Mr. Fobert will have completed shortly, the resident at the Park and the members of the Club will have all convenience and accommodation afforded them.

At the meeting last evening it was decided to increase the membership by taking in annual members, at a reasonable fee. These members will be entitled to all the privileges and accommodations of the club and it is expected that their number will be large. The membership subscription lists will be prepared at once and applications will be received next week.

The facilities for reaching the park will also be increased by more efficient bus service. A ferry boat will also make regular trips from the railway terminus on the lake to the park, so that the popular suburban resort can be easily reached by rail.

The Otonabee Canoe Club.

The Otonabee Canoe Club also held a meeting last evening and an enthusiastic spirit which augurs well for the season prevailed. Mr. H. Stock, commodore, presided.

It was decided to have the club boat house lighted by electricity and other improvements made.

An excursion will also be held by the club early in the season, either to Stony Lake or to Pigeon Lake, to the latter if the Bobcaygeon and Lindsay Canoe Clubs will participate in the joint meet on the occasion.

A communication from the Bobcaygeon club asking the Otonabee canoeists to exercise their influence in having the annual meet of the A. C. A. held at Pigeon Lake or some other central point instead of at Georgean Bay was considered, and the secretary was authorized to write the Purser of the A. C. A. favoring Pigeon Lake as the place for the meet.

THEY MEAN BUSINESS.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH GOING TO ASSERT ITS POWER.

A Feeling that There is a Power Preventing the Carrying out of the Sanitary Enactments of the Board—A Resolution as to the Disatisfaction and Complaints of Carelessness—The Slaughter Houses Must go—Sewerage has to be Considered to Remove Lurking Danger—A Sanitary Officer for the Board.

The Board of Health had its first meeting for this year Wednesday evening and from the vigorous character of the discussion, the members mean business in earnest this year and are going to have their resolutions and wishes carried into active operation. "Hew to the line, let the chips fall where they may" will be their motto. The feeling was that the Council had not properly backed the Board up in the past and now the Board will weild its own wand.

Those present were Messrs. Wm. Lech, Rdg. Pearse, H. Denne, Dr. Brennan, Ben. Shortly, J. L. Hughes, Dr. Clarke, Medical Health Officer, Town Clerk Macdonald, Secretary, and Chief Rossel, Sanitary Inspector.

The first business was the election of a chairman and Mr. Lech was chosen for the position for 1891.

THE STATE OF THE TOWN.

After the reading of the minutes and their confirmation, an enquiry was made if the Medical Health Officer had a report.

Dr. Clarke said he had no written report but might make a statement in reference to infectious diseases, a good deal in regard to which had been heard lately. During the last few days no new infectious cases had been reported except one case of diphtheria of a mild form which had been removed to the hospital. Many of the cases were now better and he thought there were only three cases in town. The majority of these cases had been on Cedar and Elm-sts. Diphtheria was the only infectious disease in town at present and in all cases the usual steps had been taken to disinfect and isolate these cases. There not having been any Board meeting he had sent a statement to the papers to stop the exaggerated reports which were current in regard to the prevalence of infectious diseases. The sanitary work had hardly begun yet, as the frost was hardly out and the Act called for all yards and closets to be cleaned by the 15th of May.

PUT THE BLAME IN THE RIGHT PLACE.

Mr. Shortly referred to the general reports in regard to the alleged carelessness of the Board and to meet these complaints and place the matter before the public in a proper light he moved the following resolution:—That this Board deems that it is its duty to place on record its dissatisfaction and regret that the instructions and directions of this Board heretofore adopted have not been attended to or enforced; that although there is a resolution to the effect that a Board meeting shall be convened within a month after the members are appointed, the meeting today (29th April) is the first meeting which has been called this year; that although it is provided that the Chairman of the Board of Health shall before the 1st day of December in each year present to the Municipal Council a report containing a detailed statement of the work of the Board during the year and the report of the sanitary condition of the municipality as rendered the Board by the medical health officer no report of the Medical Health Officer for the year 1890 was submitted to the Board and no meeting of the Board convened for the purpose of considering the same.

This resolution gave rise to considerable discussion.

Mr. Pearce asked the Sanitary Inspector if all the slaughter houses were outside of the town, in accordance with a former resolution of the Board.

Chief Rossel replied that he had served the notices in accordance with that resolution, but that a resolution had been passed in the Town Council asking the Board to reconsider their resolution and allow the slaughter houses to remain until April 1st and he understood that the Board had acquiesced in the matter.

Mr. Pearce objected to the presence of a slaughter house and said the Board had never acquiesced in the Council's resolution; but he said that the Board might as well stop holding meetings when there was a power behind the sanitary officers which prevented them from carrying out the wishes of the Board.

Dr. Brennan pointed out that at another meeting he had moved a resolution asking that the slaughter house resolution be enforced.

After some further discussion the motion carried.

BEGINNING AT HOME.

Mr. Denne was going to have the stench which pervaded the room in which the Board were sitting and the town officials rooms removed and moved,—"That the sanitary conditions of the town buildings should be attended to."

Mr. Pearce seconded the resolution and it carried.

Dr. Brennan said they all wanted to see a stop put to these nuisances. The sanitary inspector took his authority from the chairman and to back up the latter he moved,—That any resolution of this Board is to be strictly enforced by the Chairman hereafter.

The enforcement of the slaughter house resolution was again dragged up and some of the members were most emphatic in their demands that the owners of these slaughter houses shall be prosecuted until the nuisances were removed.

The motion carried.

SEWERAGE IS WHAT IS NEEDED.

Mr. Pearce then moved the following lengthy resolution:—

That whereas in December, 1889, this Board adopted a resolution regretting the necessity of directing the attention of the Town Council to the fact that the sewerage of the town was in an execrably deficient condition, and in June, 1890, this Board again directed the attention of the Town Council to the fact that in the opinion of the Board the health of the inhabitants of the town was greatly endangered, and the Board adopted the following resolution, a copy of which was forwarded to the Town Council:—

"That whereas English's creek running through the heart of the town is used as a common sewer by no less than 749 people and the outlet of this creek is wholly within the limits of this town,

"Whereas the system of cesspools in this town, the closing up of old ones and the opening up of new ones, is such as to cause the complete permeation of the soil with excreta and matter which decay in a way most dangerous to the health of the inhabitants,

"Whereas the Otonabee river is also used as a common sewer,

"Whereas people are in the habit of getting ice from a place which to some extent is the depository of this filth,

"Whereas from the above recited causes and other good and sufficient evidence this Board is of the opinion that the health of the town is greatly endangered,

"And whereas the functions of this Board are such as to require the firm and conscientious execution of its duty and therefore this Board wishes to place on record that in the event of an epidemic timely warning had been given and that it has carried out the trust imposed on it by the law and by the people,

"And whereas in the opinion of this Board the condition of the town is such that it is absolutely necessary some immediate action be taken in the matter of the construction of a through system of sewerage,

"This Board urgently recommends that the Town Council without delay ascertain the wishes of the people in this matter.

"The Board is further of the opinion that the impending danger to the health of the community will be rendered less imminent by the adoption by the Council of a system of clearing cesspools by scavengers employed by the Council and under the direction of the health inspector."

And whereas the opinion of this Board, as expressed in the above recited resolution, viz., "that the health of the town was greatly endangered," has unfortunately been verified and fully established in the official report of mortality in the principal cities and towns of Canada for the month of March, 1891,

This Board, therefore, again urgently recommends the Town Council to take immediate steps in the direction of the construction of a thorough system of sewerage, and this Board is of the opinion that if, until the system of sewerage is completed, cesspools, etc., are cleaned by parties employed and paid by the Town Council under the direction of the health inspector, the cleaning will be more frequent, more thorough and far less costly to the ratepayers. And that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Town Council.

This resolution was briefly discussed, all the members being strong in supporting its sentiments, and it was passed.

TO APPOINT THEIR OWN MAN.

Dr. Brennan brought up a point he had mentioned before. He said it was work for one man's whole time to properly perform the duties of sanitary inspector. Chief Rossel was placed in the position of serving two masters, and could not properly perform the duties of inspector. He moved that the Board appoint an officer to act at the instance of the chairman in carrying out the wishes of the Board.

This was favored by all, as it was thought that a man beholden only to the Board would be able to more thoroughly attend to his duties and more faithfully perform the wishes of the Board. However, as there was a doubt as to the power of the Board to make such an appointment, the matter was allowed to lay over until the town solicitor's advice was received in the matter.

A GOOD CHIEF.

Mr. Pearce took occasion to say that in all his remarks he did not wish to cast any insinuations upon the efficiency of Chief Rossel. He thought the town had a most able officer at the head of its police force, a man who would do his duty fearlessly and faithfully.

On motion it was decided that the secretary call the first meeting of the Board each year on the second Monday after the appointment of its members as required by statute.

After further discussion the Board adjourned.

Dyspepsia's victims are numbered by thousands. So are the people who have been restored to health by Hoods Sarsaparilla.

HOLDING THE FORT.

The C. P. R. Men Sweep Down and Drive the Corporation Men Away from the Edison Siding.

A small and unexpected bit of excitement was aroused to-day by a repetition here of some of the incidents of the Red River Valley railway war that caused so much public interest a short time ago. Here it was a blocking by the C.P.R. of the work of laying the G. T. R. siding into the Edison works.

The Grand Trunk siding running into the Edison works has been completed past the Carbon Works through the Hilliard property and last night the rails were laid close up to the [illegible] boundary of the property where it borders on the C.P.R. siding running into the Edison Works. The rails had next to be laid across this C.P.R. siding and in order to do this the rails of the latter must be raised. The Grand Trunk men, of course, would not undertake to raise the rails of their opposition line without due permission and it devolved on the town, who owns the property over which the C.P.R. siding is laid, to make the crossing for the Grand Trunk. Accordingly this morning shortly after seven o'clock Street Inspector Pope and four men went to the scene to take up the rails and make the crossing. But the Canadian Pacific were to have something to say about it, and when the corporation men started to pull the spikes Section Boss James O'Brien, of the C.P.R., appeared on the scene and ordered the Street Inspector to cease operations. These orders were unheeded and with one eye on the section boss the Street Inspector went on with the work. The railway man, however, was prepared for the emergency and returning to the station he marshalled about forty Italians and navvies and marched to the scene of the dispute. When the small army bore down upon him the Street Inspector had nothing else to do but to gather his small force and "retreat in good order."

This he did and the C.P.R. men were left in full possession. The engine and gravel train from which the navvies were marshalled was then run up the siding and stationed on the track where the rails were to have been raised. This successfully blocked all further operations in making a crossing for the Grand Trunk. The engine and train remained on the siding while the forty or more section men roosted on the fence or enjoyed a snooze in the van, happy in the thought that their pay was running on and their work had ceased.

A REVIEW reporter visited the scene at about eleven o'clock and the fence was still lined with the C.P.R. men and the engine and train still held the fort. Section Boss O'Brien when questioned said he was simply acting on orders in preventing the work of construction and he knew nothing of the company's position in the matter.

It was said that the C.P.R. were waiting to have some minor details finally settled before they allowed the Grand Trunk to cross.

Councillor R. H. D. Hall was seen and he stated that all these "minor details" had been considered and the town last week promised Mr. Tait, the General Superintendent, to carry them out and fully intended to adhere to that promise. Mr. Tait promised to send instructions here to allow the crossing to be made, but had failed to do so. The railway company had really no right to act as they had as the siding was on the property of the town, but the only way to clear the line at once was by main force and this was not a desirable means to resort to.

The opinion was also expressed by one of the Councillors that the C.P.R. were desirous of blocking the Grand Trunk siding until the Edison company moved and they would have the handling of all the effects.

A special meeting of the Town Council is called for this evening to consider the matter.

LeBRUN & Co's

Spring Announcement.

MR. LeBRUN has just returned home after a personal inspection in the best markets for Cloths and Clothing: We are satisfied you will be pleased to take a look through our New Stock of Spring Goods for 1891, and learn the splendid values we can offer you.

In Foreign and Canadian Cloths, we make a display of very fine goods, the leading styles for the season.

We have also provided a large assortment of Spring and Summer Clothing of the newest styles, and best of all, at prices which will be found extremely moderate

By a Special Purchase of West of England and Scotch Tweeds, we are in a position to make up pants, worth from $6.00 to $7.00 in the regular way, for the very low price of $4.50. We say it, and say it confidentially, that our range of Tweeds, Worsteds and Pantings can hardly be excelled.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices gives us a great advantage. We carry in stock, all the fast selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit all ages and sizes.

Special lines in Fine Spring Overcoats, and Fine, Spring and Summer Suits. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

Gentlemen of Peterborough seeking the latest styles and best values for their money as well as an opportunity of selecting from the largest stock of Furnishing Goods, should not fail to visit the

CITY CLOTHING STORE.

FIGURED SILKS

Among the handsomest materials for decorative work are the new China Figured Silks. I have just received from New York, an assortment of ten patterns, beautiful rich goods, the very latest things. They are desirable for drapes, etc. Ladies should see these Silks, as they are artistically correct and exceedingly beautiful.

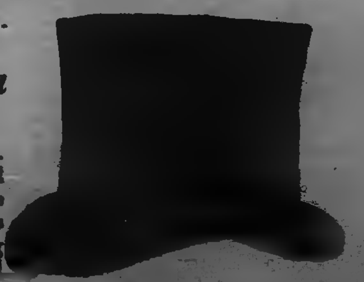
YOUR ATTENTION



is once more called to the immense stock of

FINE STIFF and SOFT FELT HATS

manufactured to the order of S. Glaister the Hatter of Stratford which we bought at a sacrifice and are now selling at prices that defy competition. During the past week they have sold exceedingly well and therefore it behooves every man that wants to get a Fine Hat at a saving of from 25 per cent. to 50 per cent. to call at once and inspect this stock.

Save Your Hair

By a timely use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. This preparation [illegible] as a dressing [illegible] cool, and healthy, and preserves the color, fullness, and beauty of the hair.

"I was rapidly becoming bald and gray; but after using two or three bottles of Ayer's Hair Vigor my hair grew thick and glossy and the original color was restored."—Melvin Aldrich, Canaan Centre, N. H.

"Some time ago I lost all my hair in consequence of measles. After due waiting, no new growth appeared. I then used Ayer's Hair Vigor and my hair grew

Thick and Strong.

It has apparently come to stay. The Vigor is evidently a great aid to nature."—J. B. Williams, Floresville, Texas.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for the past four or five years and find it a most satisfactory dressing for the hair. It is all I could desire, being harmless, causing the hair to retain its natural color, and requiring but a small quantity to render the hair easy to arrange."—Mrs. M. A. Bailey, 9 Charles street, Haverhill, Mass.

"I have been using Ayer's Hair Vigor for several years, and believe that it has caused my hair to retain its natural color."—Mrs. H. J. King, Dealer in Dry Goods, &c., Bishopville, Md.

BEATRIX RANDOLPH.

BY JULIAN HAWTHORNE.

"That's absurd! You must come."

"No; why should I? You have chosen to suppose that there was something between Miss Randolph and me. I never cared to undeceive you—it would have been giving the affair too much importance. But, whatever there might have been, there is certainly nothing now, nor ever will be."

"If I was deceived then I don't see why you refuse to come to-night."

"I simply don't care to," said Bellingham abruptly.

Wallis looked at him and decided that the wisest course would be not to press him any further. They parted, and Bellingham went to his rooms, lit a lamp and sat himself down to read. But when the hour for the performance approached he closed the book, dressed himself and drove to the theatre. He could not resist this impulse. When he arrived the overture was just concluding. "I shall not be able to get a place," he said to himself; "It is just as well. But when he presented himself at the ticket office the clerk, who recognized him, remarked with a smile, "Just one seat vacant, Mr. Bellingham, and that is the one you used to occupy the first of the season; will you have it?" It seemed like manifest destiny. "All right," said Bellingham. He took the ticket, entered the house, and sat down. As he did so the curtain rose.

The interval between this night and the one on which he had last been here enabled him to draw a comparison between the Gretchen of the debut and this of the farewell. There was a sentimental feeling perceptible among the audience. The American people are fond of sentiment, when managed dramatically; and this, no doubt, had its effect on the singer, and warmed and sweetened the music of her voice. But, such accidents aside, it was evident that she had improved, though precisely in what respect Bellingham would have found it difficult to say. Her manner was less exuberant, more concise and true. She had learned her power and her resources and used them with full confidence and art.

In her singing, moreover, could be discerned not the music merely, but the human character which the poet portrayed. When she was on the stage it was difficult to realize the separate existence of anything else; wherever she stood she was the center and reason of the scene. Every gesture and movement was an enlightenment and a gratification. She was always where she belonged. Each thing she did so nicely fitted the occasion that the spectator fancied he had known beforehand that it would so be done. "This is what she was born for," said Bellingham to himself with gloomy frankness. "I should only have been in the way. I'm glad I came here, if only to have made sure of that. Such a woman should no more be monopolized and caged in domesticity than a waterfall or a strain of music. The mischief of it is that I did not recognize the fact before."

As he sat absorbed in her, and happy in spite of his unhappiness, he noticed that she carried in her girdle a bunch of marguerites. The discovery gave him a gradual start, so to say; he became only slowly aware how much it surprised and affected him. He had always provided her with a bunch of them, whenever she sang in "Faust," from the first day onward; often not without difficulty, for daisies do not grow in northern meadows all the year round. Had she, during his absence, been procuring them for herself, or was this the first occasion of her wearing them since he went away? The former was much the more likely. Actresses become accustomed to little particulars of the toilet, and are not at ease without them. Nevertheless Bellingham could not banish the notion that the latter alternative might be the true one. Did he believe it because he wished it? Why should he wish it? It was useless to torment himself with such questions.

In matters appertaining to Miss Randolph he seemed to be swayed by an influence, a fate, an attraction, almost independent of his own will and reason. What could be more unreasonable than to suppose that this bunch of marguerites was a secret [illegible] him to come to her, to speak [illegible], to be once more all that he had been to her—and more? Had not that interview in last evening's snowstorm put an end to all such anticipations? But, again, was this the same woman who had vanished from him in the [illegible] on that occasion? With so much difference in her surroundings was there [illegible] Well, she had betrayed no consciousness of his presence to-night. They had exchanged no glance, as sometimes in the former days. After it was said and done, however, Bellingham knew that he should find himself behind the scenes, face to face with her, before the night was over.

"OLD HUTCH" MISSING.

CHICAGO, April 29.—The break in the prices of grain on the Board of Trade this morning was caused by rumors that B. P. Hutchinson, the veteran speculator, was in financial trouble. No facts in evidence were given by those who talked of the matter, though it was common report that he lately lost heavily in wheat and corn, both on the sudden heavy advance and subsequent break in prices. Mr. Hutchinson was not to be found upon the floor and later it became known that Mr. Hutchinson was mysteriously missing. None of Mr. Hutchinson's family have seen him since yesterday afternoon when the board closed. His people were of course very anxious in regard to him. The supposition among Mr. Hutchinson's friends is that he has wandered away in a fit of temporary despondency. The actual condition of his affairs is not known, though it is understood all of his trades on the board have been closed out, and a private despatch from Milwaukee says all his deals there have been closed. Whatever may be his financial condition, it is not believed anyone will lose anything through him, as his family, it is confidently expected, will see them paid, if necessary. Hutchinson's checks have gone through the clearing house so far without question. Present interest centres in the whereabouts of the Board of Trade King who for years ruled the market, putting prices up and down at will by the sheer force of the millions with which he was able to back his opinions. His sudden and mysterious disappearance recalls the fate of the late millionaire B. H. Campbell, who disappeared last December, and whose body was found in the river afterwards.

It is now learned that Hutchinson started for Florida last night. One of Hutchinson's brokers estimates his liabilities at $250,000 and his assets at $250,000. He says Hutchinson lost $3,000,000 during the past 14 months.

Death from Heart Disease.

KINGSTON, April 29.—Last evening Mr. Gallivan, engineer, returned from his work to his home in Alfred-street feeling in good health. About 9 o'clock he took sick and before a physician or a priest could be got to the house he passed away. Heart failure is supposed to have been the cause of death.

Councillors of McGill.

MONTREAL, April 29.—At a meeting of the McGill University Graduates' Society held to-night Mr. J. J. McLaren, Toronto, and Sir James Grant, Ottawa, were appointed non-resident councillors, and the president and secretary of the Ottawa Valley Graduates' Society were named members and officers.

Chat from Over the Sea.

A despatch from Iquique says: The Parliamentary forces have occupied Copiapo. Five hundred of Balmaceda's friends, who were defending the town, fled.

A despatch from Chili says a dynamite bomb was thrown at President Balmaceda's palace yesterday. The bomb exploded without doing any damage. There is no clue to the perpetrator of the outrage.

A most curious feeling of alarm prevails in official circles in Paris at the possibility of an Anarchist outbreak on May 1. The military and police authorities are taking the most extreme precautions, and are making every preparation to, if possible, effectually meet and promptly suppress any disorder on the part of the Anarchists or others. From today until the May Day excitement is over no soldiers will be allowed to leave their barracks, except on guard duty, to bring in supplies of provisions, etc. Even the officers are confined to the barracks. To each soldier of the garrison 130 rounds of ball cartridge have been distributed.

BUY NOW IF AT ALL.

EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Erin property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighborhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

ATTRACTIONS IN DRY GOODS
At TURNBULL'S.

The change in the weather has brought with it a great demand for millinery; also for spring shades in dress goods. Our store was never more attractive in these lines than at present. We have every New Shade of Dress Goods in Stock, with Millinery to match. If you are in town this week have a look at our Gray Dress Goods and Millinery window. Large Gray Checks for young people made up alone or mixed with Black, Small Black and White Checks and Stripes. Broken patterns for older people, goods that are hard to find in Neat Patterns. We justly claim to take the lead in our Tailoring department for Quality of Goods, Fit and Price. We get up a Splendid Suit in Halifax Tweed or Navy Serge for $12.00. Fine grades of Almento and other makes of Tweed for $13.00, $14.00, $15.00 and $16.00; Scotch Tweeds and Serges from $16.00 to $20:00 for the best. Fine All Wool Worsted, Venetian Finish or Diagonal Cords for Coat and Vest, with Black or Fancy Panting to match, at from $19.00 to $22.00 a suit. Remember our prices. Call and see our Stock and do not go and pay a great deal higher figure through force of habit. We have added this week to our already Attractive Stock of Boys' Clothing another shipment just turned out of the manufacturer's hands, Neat and New Styles. We have shown an Immense Range of Patterns in Cottonades and Shirtings in the Best Quality; we also keep all the lower lines, beginning at 5c. a yard for Shirtings and 12½c. for Cottonades.

We have an opening now for an apprentice in the Millinery department. Apply until Saturday.

FUGITIVES IN THE JUNGLE

THE BRITISH TROOPS IN POSSESSION OF MANIPUR.

The Village Totally Deserted, the Palace Wrecked, and the Heads of the Slain Britishers Cut Off and Exposed—Imposing Funeral For the Massacred.

SIMLA, April 30.—The British columns have met and entered Manipur, which they found to be totally deserted. The magazine had exploded and the palace had been wrecked and stripped of everything of value. A ghastly sight was witnessed in an inclosure where the heads of Commissioner Quinton and others of the English party were found. The Rajah, Senaputty, Princes and inhabitants had fled northeast by the only road of escape shortly before the arrival of the British, Saturday's engagement being the final struggle.

Hiding in the Jungle.

MANIPUR, April 30.—The Maharajah and the Manipur chiefs who support him are still fugitives in the jungle. A mounted detachment of troops has been despatched in pursuit. Shortly after the British troops entered Manipur the headless bodies of Chief Commissioner Quinton, Political Agent Grimwood and those of the other members of the commissioner's staff who were killed were exhumed and now lie in state pending an imposing military funeral service which will take place on Monday next. A commission of army officers has been formed to enquire into the causes which led to the rebellion and the massacre of the British officers.

There is great scarcity of provisions in and about Manipur, the inhabitants having fled with the Maharajah. However, many of the Manipuris are now reassured by the fact that those who remained here have not been shot, as it was expected they would be, and some of them are leaving their hiding places and returning.

NOT YET EXPLAINED.

Princeton Still Excited Over the Absence of Station Agent Larmour.

PRINCETON, Ont., April 30.—A telegram, purporting to have been sent by Mr. F. Larmour, the missing station agent here, to Capt. Williamson about the mysterious disappearance of the gentleman referred to did much at the time to throw oil on the troubled waters, but as the promises made in the telegram have not been carried out adds to the excitement, and fears of foul play are freely expressed that the telegram was a fraud and helps to deepen the mystery.

Crushed His Head Like an Eggshell.

WAHNAPITAE, Ont., April 30.—William Paget of Sundridge, a brakeman for the Emery Co., was killed while coupling cars. Some of the cars were loaded with logs, the ends of some of the logs projected over the ends of the cars. He was in the act of coupling, and not lowering his head sufficiently to miss the projection it was caught and his skull cracked. Death was instantaneous.

A Mother Accidentally Poisoned With a Dose of Saltpetre.

BRACEBRIDGE, April 30.—Mrs. Brown, mother of William Brown of Trout Creek, died yesterday from a fatal mistake of her son, who supposed he was giving his mother a dose of salts which proved to be a heavy dose of saltpetre.

SEVENTH PARLIAMENT.

OPENED WITH LOTS OF FUSS AND FEATHERS.

The Speech from the Throne—Both Parties Hold Caucuses—Sir John's Appearance—The New Whips—General Capital Gossip.

OTTAWA, April 30.—The formal opening of the first session of the seventh Parliament of the Dominion of Canada this afternoon was attended by the largest number of members and the greatest assemblage of spectators which has been seen at any opening for many years. The day was a perfect one, the city was gay with bunting and the Parliament grounds were fairly alive with gaily dressed people. The usual guard of honor was furnished by the Governor-General's Foot Guards, and the guns fired, the band played, the small boy yelled, and as usual "all went merry as a marriage bell." Inside the building, the Senate chamber was the centre of attraction, and the floor was crowded with invited guests, amongst whom was a larger percentage than usual of ladies, who added the charm of beauty to the scene. All the ministers were present, but the only ones who appeared in full diplomatic dress were Abbott, Smith and Carling. Sir John wore his dress as an Imperial Privy Councillor, stiff with gold lace.

One of Lord Stanley's best points is his promptness, and before the hands of the clock in the Commons had quite reached the hour of 3 the booming of guns on Nepean Point announced that he was coming. The House had just got completely seated when the Black Rod's knocks sounded on the door of the Chamber, and immediately after that functionary entered the Chamber, made his wonderful bows and in the name of the Governor-General summoned the Commons to the Senate Chamber.

I have never seen such a heterogeneous crowd crushing through the lobbies as passed along them to-day, and the space outside the bar of the Senate was speedily filled almost to suffocation.

Mr. White having announced that he had been elected Speaker received the usual acknowledgment and His Excellency then delivered this Speech from the Throne:

The Speech From the Throne.

Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate: Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I am glad to welcome you to the duties of the first session of a new Parliament, which I hope will be memorable for wise deliberations and for measures adapted to the progress and development of the Dominion. The season in which you are assembled has opened auspiciously for the industries of our people. Let us hope that their labors may be crowned with fruitful returns from land and sea, and that the great resources of Canada may continue to reward the toil and enterprise of its inhabitants. My advisers, availing themselves of opportunities which were presented in the closing months of last year, caused the willingness of the Government of Canada to join in making efforts for the extension and development of trade between the Republic and the Dominion as well as for the friendly adjustment of those matters of an international character which remain unsettled. I am pleased to say that these representations have resulted in an assurance, that, in October next, the Government of the United States will be prepared to enter on a conference to consider the best means of arriving at a practical solution of these important questions. The papers relating to this subject will be laid before you. Under these circumstances, and in the hope that the proposed conference may result in arrangements beneficial to both countries, you will be called upon to consider the expediency of extending for the present season the principal provision of the protocol annexed to the Washington treaty, 1888, known as the modus vivendi.

A disposition having been manifested in the United Kingdom to impose on sea-going ships engaged in the cattle trade increased safeguards for life and greater restrictions against improper treatment, a careful enquiry has been made as to the incidents of that trade in so far as this country is concerned. While I am glad to learn that our shipping is free from reproach in that regard, your attention will be invited to a measure which will remove all reasonable apprehension of abuses arising in the future in connection with so important a branch of our commerce.

The early coming into force of the Imperial statute relating to the vice-admiralty courts of the Empire has made it necessary to revise the laws in force in Canada respecting our courts of maritime jurisdiction, and a measure will therefore be laid before you designed to reorganize those tribunals. A code of criminal law has been prepared in order that that branch of our jurisprudence may be simplified and improved, to which your best attention is invited.

Measures relating to the foreshores of the Dominion and to the obstruction of its navigable waters will be submitted to you, and you will also be asked to consider amendments to the acts relating to the Northwest Territories, to the Exchequer Court Act and to the acts relating to the trades marks.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

The accounts for the past year will be submitted to you. The revenue, after providing for the services to which you appropriated it, has left a surplus for the works which you designed to be carried on by capital expenditure. The estimates for the coming year will be laid before you at an early date.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate—Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I pray that in the consideration of these matters and in the performance of all the labors which will devolve upon you your deliberations may be Divinely aided, and that your wisdom and patriotism may enlarge the prosperity of the Dominion and promote in every way the well-being of its people.

Subsequent Proceedings.

On returning to the House the Speaker made the usual formal announcement of the visit to the Senate, and imparted the information which speakers always impart, that "for greater accuracy" he had secured a copy of the speech delivered by His Excellency.

Sir John then moved that the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne be considered to-morrow, and also that a committee of seven, Sir John, Langevin, Thompson, Cartwright, Bowell, Laurier and Mills be appointed to strike the usual standing committees.

The House then adjourned at 5.30.

OTTAWA, April 30.—A deputation from the Canadian Press Association subsequently waited on Hon. Mr. Haggart, Postmaster-General, to ask that the press association be notified if the Government, as was rumored, contemplated re-imposing postage on newspaper circulation. Hon. Mr. Haggart said the Government had never so far even considered the idea, and he did not think it was likely to at present. He said that, so far as revenue was concerned, such a step had no great claims as the largest postal revenue ever derived from newspaper postage when it was in force was only about $100,000.

Both parties held caucuses this morning.

The Conservative whips are Taylor (South Leeds), McKay (Hamilton) and Corby (West Hastings), for Ontario; Frechette, Bergeron and Pope for Quebec; Macdonald (Victoria) for Nova Scotia; Wood for New Brunswick; Daly for Manitoba and Northwest, and Prior for British Columbia.

The Liberal whips are Trow (South Perth), Sutherland (North Oxford), Rinfret, Brodeur and Carroll.

It is said that Dr. Roome will introduce again this session his bill providing for the establishment of a Board of Health for the Dominion, which reached its second reading last year.

The address in reply to the Speech from the Throne will be moved in both Senate and Commons to-morrow.

Notices are given by Edgar of a bill to amend the Franchise Act; by Wood (Brockville) to amend Elections Acts; by Taylor, act to prohibit the importation of foreigners and aliens under contracts or agreement to perform labor in Canada.

Watson (Marquette) will ask on Monday whether the Government has agreed to pay the expense of testing the constitutionality or validity of any acts passed by any legislature, and if so, what act or acts, and whether it is the intention of the Government to bear the costs of any portion of them of obtaining a final opinion as to the constitutionality of the Manitoba School Act.

The usual state dinner is in progress to-night at Rideau Hall.

There promises to be quite a deal of labor legislation proposed this session. Lepine, the labor representative, says he is receiving large numbers of petitions from Knights of Labor against Chinese labor, and a bill prohibiting importation of Chinese may be proposed. Taylor's Alien Labor Act is said to be a copy of the American anti-contract labor law.

Clarke Wallace will probably re-introduce his amendment to the Combines Act, which was killed in the Senate last year.

The Speaker of the Senate held a reception after the opening this afternoon. Sir John and Lady Macdonald were present for a few minutes.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

TORONTO, May 1.—In the Legislature yesterday there was a lively debate on the question of the French language in the public schools. When Mr. Ross moved the third reading of the bill to revise and consolidate the public school laws, Mr. Miscampbell moved:

That the bill be not now read a third time, but that it be referred back to the committee with instructions to strike out these clauses:

"Where deemed necessary from the general use of the French or German language, the County Council may appoint additional examiners, not exceeding two, for the purpose of conducting the examination of candidates for a teacher's certificate in either of the languages aforesaid.

"In counties containing any municipality wherein the French or German language is the common or prevailing language, an inspector may have charge of any number of schools not less than 40."

Because, in the opinion of the House, it is inexpedient that exceptional legislation with regard to the appointment of examiners and inspectors of the public schools should exist in the cases provided for in the foregoing sections.

After some discussion the vote was taken and the amendment was lost by a vote of 20 to 56. The division was on party lines except that Messrs. Magwood and Sol White voted with the Government.

Mr. Wood moved another amendment to the effect that it was expedient that elections for public and separate school trustees should be held by ballot.

This amendment was also lost on a party vote of 35 to 53. Mr. Sol White voted with the Government, and Messrs. Caldwell and Duck with the Opposition.

Another amendment by Mr. Meredith, that the right of control over inspectors by the Government should be confined to cases where at least one-half of the salary is paid by the Government, was defeated 33 to 53, Mr. Biggar voting for the amendment.

On Mr. Ross' motion for the third reading of the bill revising and consolidating the laws respecting the Education Department, Mr. Sol. White moved that it was expedient to place the Education Department under control of a non-political head and that the office of Minister should be abolished after the dissolution of the present House. This was lost on a party vote of 31 to 51.

Mr. Meredith moved in amendment:

That every school supported in whole or in part by moneys voted by this House, and every school on the trustees or other governing body of which the Legislature has conferred the power of levying taxes for its support, is subject to the regulation of and to control by the Legislature; that neither the B.N.A. Act nor any other act or law has divested the Legislature of that power or conferred it upon any religious organization or body; that the rights conferred by the said act upon or secured to the supporters of separate or dissentient schools are civil rights appertaining to them as citizens, and that it is within the constitutional authority of the Legislature, through the Department of Education, to regulate such schools and to prescribe the text-books to be used and the course of study to be pursued in them, religious instruction excepted; and that the said bill be not now read the third time, but be forthwith referred back to the Committee of the Whole House with instructions to amend the same so as to include such separate and dissentient schools within the classes of schools dealt with by the said bill.

Mr. Fraser moved in amendment to the amendment:

That, except as prescribed in this act, nothing shall be deemed, taken or construed as in any manner, or for any purpose, altering, varying or affecting any power, right or authority which, before the passing of this act, was by law vested in or held, had or possessed by the Minister of Education or the Department of Education in respect either of Roman Catholic separate schools or of any matter or thing whatsoever pertaining to or affecting said separate schools.

Mr. Meredith pointed out that this amendment really meant that the department had no control over separate schools.

Mr. Mowat said he was as good a Protestant as Mr. Meredith or any of his followers, but he was going to stand by the constitution and protect the rights of his Roman Catholic fellow-citizens. The bill gave up no authority the department previously had.

Mr. Fraser's amendment was carried on a party vote of 52 to 31, except that Mr. Sol. White voted for it and with the Government. The bill was then read a third time and passed.

WHY THE LUNCH NEVER CAME.

A Young Girl Perishes in a Shallow Pool on the Roadway.

BRACEBRIDGE, Ont., April 30.—Miss Tressa Ewing, daughter of a farmer living west of Trout Creek, undertook to take a lunch to her brother in the sugar bush. Her long absence caused her father to follow, and he found her lying on the road in a shallow pool of water quite dead. It is supposed she fainted and fell forward on her face into the water.

May offers specially favorable circumstances for driving catarrh out of the system, and every sufferer from this loathsome disease should use Nasal Balm for that purpose. It cures when all other remedies fail, if the directions are faithfully adhered to. A single bottle will convince you of its merit. Sold by all dealers.

THAT ENGLISH SCANDAL.

MISS NELLIE BECKETT'S SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST CAPT. VARNEY.

Most Positive Evidence Against the Accused Member of Parliament—Committed For Trial and Held in $50,000 Bonds to Appear.

LONDON, April 30.—At the Bow-street Police Court to-day the trial of Capt. Edmund H. Verney, M.P. for North Buckinghamshire, charged with instigating the procuration of a governess, Miss Nellie Beckett, for immoral purposes, was continued. The courtroom was crowded with people of all classes. Many letters signed "Wilson," the name which Capt. Verney is charged with assuming, were identified as being in Verney's handwriting. The hall porter of a fashionable club testified that letters addressed to "Wilson" were forwarded at Verney's request to the latter's address. Louise Adeline, keeper of a hotel in Rue Laffitte, Paris, testified that Verney had called upon her on several occasions and asked her to procure for him two or three girls, promising her 100 francs if she succeeded. Witness said that in spite of the captain's solicitations and the inducements he held forth she positively refused to undertake the procuration referred to.

Mme. Adeline was positive in her affirmative replies to all questions as to her identification of Verney. The presiding magistrate, Sir John Bridge, closely questioned the witness on this point. One of Sir John's questions was:

"When Capt. Verney asked you to procure the little girls, did he give you information as to what purpose he desired them for?"

"Yes," replied Mme. Adeline. "He said he wanted them in order to seduce them and they must be virtuous and chaste."

Mme. Adeline's last reply increased the sensation which her evidence had caused among those who thronged the courtroom.

After some discussion between counsel as to the question of jurisdiction, Verney was instructed to rise, and was charged in the usual form with the offence of procuration, and was afterwards asked if he had anything to say in his own behalf as to why he should not be committed for trial.

To this Captain Verney replied in a clear, firm voice, "I understand, Sir John, that there is no power to deal with the case here. Therefore, I propose to say nothing to-day."

Captain Verney was then held for trial. He was again released on bail, giving his personal bond in $50,000, and furnishing two bondsmen as sureties for $12,500 each, a total of $75,000.

SAMOAN'S EX-KING.

The Overthrown Ruler of the Samoans Succumbs to Disease.

MELBOURNE, April 30.—Advices received here from Samoa state that ex-King Tamasese is dead. He had been suffering from Bright's disease of the kidneys for some time past and finally succumbed to that complaint.

Tamasese was the head of the house of Tupua, one of the two rival royal families of the Samoan Islands. In 1873 the Samoans began the experiment of securing peace between these rival houses by taking two kings, one from the house of Malietoa and the other a Tupua, with a term of four years only, one being king and the other vice-king. Tamasese was serving in the capacity of vice-king when the Germans in 1877, in order to increase their influence in the islands, deposed Malietoa and installed Tamasese as king. This position he held during the most troublous period in the history of the islands, his deposed rival, Malietoa, having been carried off as a prisoner of state by the Germans. In the fall of 1888, however, Tamasese was overthrown by the friends of the exiled Malietoa, and in accordance with the settlement effected at the Samoan Conference held in Berlin in June, 1889, Malietoa was brought back in August of that year and duly installed in his old position as king. Tamasese meanwhile had quietly acquiesced in the new order of things.

TWO KIND OF CIRCUSES.

The One Harmless Enough, the Other Attended by Rope Dancing.

FRANKLIN, Tenn., April 30.—The city was crowded with negroes yesterday, the occasion being the performance of a 10 cent circus. One negro, Jim Taylor, became very troublesome and shot Policeman Charles Cook, who was trying to arrest him. He also shot one of the circus men. He was afterward jailed and two pistols and a dirk were found in his possession. Last night a well-organized mob attacked the jail, overpowered the sheriff, secured his keys and quietly took the negro down a side street to the covered bridge and hanged him to a cross beam. His body was riddled with bullets. The mob then dispersed. Most of them were on horseback.

Simply Appalling.

It seems that an uptown housewife relates that she was about closing an engagement with a new help the other day and after acceding to several stipulations as to hours out, Sunday's off, etc., finally had to break off the prospective engagement, when the applicant inquired whose teas were used in the house, and learning that the article was bought from the regular grocer replied that she couldn't stay in a house and do justice to the table where they did not use Hawley Bros'. teas, the best and purest sold in town. ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

A PEACEFUL MAY DAY.

Extraordinary Precautions Taken to Prevent Rioting and Bloodshed.

LONDON, April 30.—Telegrams received from every populous centre in Western Europe indicate that May day will pass without serious disorder. Everywhere the local powers have been armed so strongly as to convince the worst disposed that a pacific demonstration is advisable. But the labor manifestations will be no less memorable because orderly. The manifestoes of the Socialist leaders in every country, while giving prominence to the eight hours cry, proclaim a battle for other points of the Socialist charter in plainer language than they ever used before. This fervor of revolutionary language frightens the public, keeps every Government alert and has caused extraordinary preparations to be made on a scale equal to what would be required if Europe was about to be transformed into a field of battle. In Paris as processions are forbidden the Socialists will hold four mass meetings. Petitions in favor of a work day of 8 hours will be presented to the authorities by delegates from Socialist committees. The Government has no fear of a public disturbance from the Socialist factions.

The Anarchist organ Pere Peinard bluntly states to-morrow's plans. The Anarchists will wait for a chance row in the streets and if one occurs they will join and will fight to kill or die. The Government will rely chiefly upon the cavalry in the event of an emeute. The troops have been distributed throughout the city, and the main streets have been sanded to enable the cavalry to operate promptly. Public traffic will be kept open unless a row occurs.

Telegrams from Rouen, Havre, Amiens, Lyons and Bordeaux announce that all workmen will suspend work to-morrow. The program is the same everywhere. Delegates will go to the prefectures and hand their petitions to the authorities. Banquets, and balls will be held in the evening. The garrisons will be kept under arms. Troops have been sent to industrial centres where there are no garrisons.

The Marseilles delegates declare they will persist in their intention to parade and would face a collision with the troops.

Throughout Germany the proposed May Day manifestos create no disquiet. The workmen will go on excursions and will not be interfered with if they are orderly.

In Vienna the Workmens' committees propose to march 100,000 men in isolated detachments to the prater where they will group around the various speakers and will pass the various resolutions.

In Rome no uneasiness was manifested as a minor importance is attached to May day demonstration. In Naples, however, a semi-panic prevails owing to Anarchists threats to blow up public buildings with dynamite.

A Little Babe Fatally Poisoned With Toothache Drops.

KINCARDINE, April 30.—The 3-year-old daughter of Mr. Woods, 9th con., Kincardine, met her death by swallowing some carbolic acid. One of the household had been using the acid to relieve toothache and the bottle had been left where the child could reach it. After swallowing some of the poison the little one went to her mother and said "Mamma, I'se so sick." It was then found out what the little sufferer had swallowed. She lived several hours, suffering terrible agony.

First Sod Turned.

WINDSOR, April 30.—At 10.30 this morning Chief Engineer Hawks of the M. C. R. turned the first sod of the proposed tunnel under the Detroit River. The ceremony took place on the land of the M. C. R. in the south part of Windsor, three-fourths of a mile from the river. He said, that it devolved upon him as president of the tunnel company to open the ground where the Michigan and Canada tunnel was to be constructed, and gave details of its length and dimensions.

BELIEVED TO BE THE RIPPER.

"Frenchy No. 1" Was the Slayer of "Shakespeare"—Traced By a Trail of Blood.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Inspector Byrnes to-day made a statement to the effect that the man known as "Frenchy No. 1" was ascertained to have slept in the East River Hotel on the night of the murder. The murdered woman, Carrie Brown, occupied room No. 31, while "Frenchy No. 1" slept in room 33. On the evening of the night of the murder Carrie Brown was seen going into the hotel with a strange man. This man left the place before midnight. It is believed that "Frenchy No. 1" went to Carrie Brown's room, that they quarreled and the result of the row was the murder of the woman. The detectives, while investigating the murder, traced blood marks across the hall into room 33. Upon further investigation of room 33 the detectives found a chair and pillow saturated with blood. Upon the arrest of "Frenchy No. 1," an examination of his clothing showed that his shirt front bore marks of blood. It was also found that his shoulder had blood marks upon it as though a bloody hand had been placed upon it. Inspector Byrnes employed two expert chemists and the examination of the blood on the shirt revealed that it was that of a human being.

The suspected murderer's name is said to be George Frank, alias George Francois. He has also been known as Frank Sherlick. He is an Algerian 33 years old. He has been under arrest since Friday night, since which time he has been confined in a cell at the Oak-street station. It is against the rules of the hotel to allow men alone to go upstairs, but Frenchy had slept there before, and he gave Eddie Fitzgerald, bell-boy, 25 cents and the boy let him go up.

Fitzgerald saw Frenchy come downstairs. When Frenchy saw the boy he turned around, and with his face toward the wall as though trying to evade being seen he sneaked out of the private entrance. In addition to the trail of blood found leading from room 31 into room 33 on the door of 33 were several blood spots which came evidently from some one pushing in the door inside. On the wall was more blood. The seat of a chair in the room was covered with blood, the bed tick was spotted with it. When Frenchy was arrested he wore no drawers and had on a cheap merino shirt. The tail of the shirt was besmeared with blood and underneath his finger nails was what appeared to be blood.

This afternoon Joseph Franks, an Arabian, was taken to police headquarters. This man in all particulars answers the description given of the strange man who rented the room at the East River hotel.

House-Keepers, Attention.

House-keepers who purpose replenishing their stock of furniture will make a note of the sale by auction of the new furniture in the store, No. 424 George-st., next to H. S. LAKEFIELD LOCALS.

A Dwelling Burned in Smith—The Steamer Golden City—Foresters' Officers.

Correspondence of the Review.

FIRE.—We regret to have to chronicle the loss by fire of the house of Mr. John Stewart, of Smith. It occurred on Saturday about noon, supposed to be from a defective chimney. Mr. Stewart not being well, was in bed at the time. When discovered by the neighbors the roof was a mass of flames. They all went to his assistance and saved what they could, but what was saved was badly damaged. His loss will be heavy; insured for about $600. Mr. Stewart has been unfortunate with fire. Last summer a new barn that had shortly before been erected, was completely destroyed with the contents.

THE GOLDEN CITY.—The steamer Golden City (formerly Cruiser) was launched on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

HIGH WATER.—The river has about reached its height. At present it is running about 18 inches over the steamboat wharves. It is higher now than it has been for some years.

A Midnight Blaze.

Shortly before one o'clock this morning an alarm of fire was sounded for a blaze discovered in a frame house at the corner of Stewart and McDonnell st. The brigade responded promptly and the fire was extinguished in short order. The house was owned by Mr. W. H. Wrighton and was vacant. The cause of the fire is unknown, although it looks like incendiarism. However the scavengers were working there last night and in this way the fire might probably have been ignited. The loss will be about $50 and is covered by insurance.

Personal.

On Monday next Mr. W. A. Y. M. C. A. BUILDINGS.

A Meeting in the Opera House—Addresses and Views.

A largely attended meeting was held in Opera House last evening under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, the hall being filled to the doors. The object of the meeting was to listen to an illustrated address by Mr. T. S. Cole, Travelling Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., on Association buildings, and an address by Rev. Mr. Johnston, of Lindsay. Mr. D. W. Dumble presided and on the platform with him were Mr. Cole, Rev. Mr. Johnston, Rev. E. F. Torrance, Mr. G. J. Early, President, and Mr. R. J. Colville, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. The meeting was opened with Scripture reading and prayer. The Y. M. C. A. band was present and gave several admirable selections which were highly appreciated.

THE CHAIRMAN'S REMARKS.

Mr. DUMBLE, in opening the meeting, expressed his gratification with the commencement of an effort to erect buildings for the Association which would be creditable to Peterborough and suitable for the Association. He strongly commended the work of the society, which directed the energies of the young men into right channels, provided proper society for them, and aided in the culture of body, mind and heart. He was certain that the people only needed to understand the aims of the Association to enlist their sympathies and to secure the accomplishment of the object they had in view, the erection of a building with complete equipment for the work.

ASSOCIATION BUILDINGS.

Mr. T. S. COLE was then called on. He said that the Y. M. C. A. might be appropriately called the Christian Business Men's Association, on account of the aid given to the associations by prominent business and professional men. He rapidly sketched the history of the organization from its foundation in London in 1844, remarking that the first association in America was founded in Montreal, and pointed to the rapid growth of the societies on this continent after 1856 until now their revenues amounted to $2,000,000 a year. He then gave descriptions of Association buildings in different parts of the world, his remarks being illustrated by views of the buildings thrown on the canvas by Mr. R. M. Roy. The views were strikingly clear and brilliant, and the audience frequently applauded them. Among the buildings thus show were those of Albany, Auburn, Brooklyn and Buffalo, N.Y., Capetown, South Africa, Exeter Hall, London, Milwaukie, Wis., Newcastle, Penn., Bowery Institute, New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and Scranton, Pa., Racine, Wis., and St. Johnsberg, Vt., and the first series closed with a portrait of the late Lord Shaftesbury. The cost of the buildings varied from $22,000, the cost of the building at Auburn, which has a population of 8,000, to $400,000, the cost of the Philadelphia building.

A PURPOSE IN LIFE.

Rev. Mr. JOHNSTON was then introduced and gave an eloquent and practical address on "A Purpose in Life." He said that young men must have some aim in life if they ever accomplish anything, and what was that aim to be? Had anyone a better claim to their powers, their strength of body and mind, than they themselves had? Yes, God who had lent them those powers had a better claim to them. He had placed them in charge of a vineyard, with the implements necessary to do the work, and he required that work of them. They must either serve God or self, and serving self was only another form of serving Satan, for, as he did with Adam, Satan tempted them through self. Men who lived for self robbed God, and were thieves and rebels, for they were not their own, but God's servants. The proper purpose in life was, with the powers God had given them, to do the work of the hour. Each day's work properly performed would be a stepping stone to the next day's work, and they should do that and leave the future in Christ's hands.

MORE BUILDINGS.

Mr. Cole and Mr. Roy then resumed their part of the programme, and views and descriptions of buildings in various parts of the United States were given, and also in Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal. The last views were a picture of the front elevation of the building to be erected here, of the side elevation on Murray-st. and of the ground floor plan. Mr. Cole said this was the building that was to be erected in Peterborough as soon as $7,000 was subscribed by their friends in addition to the amount they received for the building fund from Mrs. Nicholls' bequest. They intended to call on the people and would receive subscriptions for any sum.

Mr. COLVILLE on behalf of the Y.M.C.A. thanked Rev. Mr. Johnston, Mr. Cole, Mr. Roy and the Chairman for their assistance, and expressed the hope that the meeting would be of much benefit to the Association.

The meeting was closed with the National Anthem and the benediction by Rev. Mr. Torrance.

The meeting can scarcely fail to be of benefit in the work the Association has undertaken. The large number present could not fail to have been struck with the handsome and convenient buildings erected for Y.M.C.A. work, in many cities, and in some places smaller than Peterborough, and the explanations no doubt gave a clearer idea to many of the nature of the work of the organization. The committee in charge of the building fund should receive a very favorable reception from the people of Peterborough.

Twenty Dollars or Two Months.

John Quinn, of Bridgenorth, who was charged with assaulting and ill-treating his wife, came before County Magistrate Edmison this morning. He was fined $20 payable forthwith, or two months in gaol at hard labor. He went to gaol, but an effort will be made by friends to pay his fine.

Born, Married and Dead.

The vital statistics for the month of April as registered with Town Clerk Macdonald were as follows:—

Births	29
Marriages	16
Deaths	31

Went Into the Cold River.

At Lakefield yesterday when the launching of the steamer Golden City was in progress a little excitement "on the side" was furnished for the crowd. Dr. Fraser, of the village, started to respond to a call of a patient up the river in a sailing canoe. He had not gone far when his craft capsized and he was given a cold bath in the river He was soon rescued, but he lost a case of instruments which was in the canoe.

Brevities.

—A man was fined $50 and costs at the Police Court this morning for selling liquor without a license.

—The entertainment of the Murray-st. Baptist Mission Band is to be held this evening.

—A tramp rested his weary limbs on the oaken couch at police headquarters last evening.

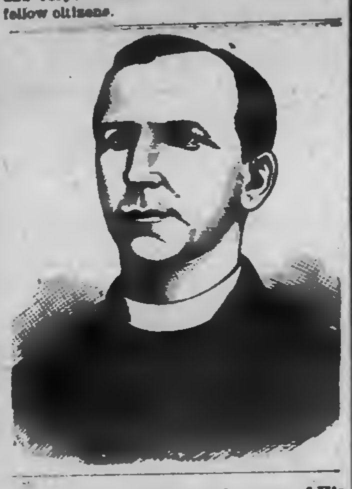
A GALAXY OF BRIGHTNESS

MARKS BISHOP O'CONNER'S EPISCOPAL BIRTHDAY.

An Entertainment at the Congregation de Notre Dame in Honor of the Second Anniversary of His Lordship's Consecration—A Bright and Beautiful Scene—Some Speeches.

Two years ago to-day was a memorable one in the history of the Roman Catholic church in Peterborough diocese, that being the day upon which Rt. Rev. Dr. O'Connor was elevated to the Episcopal dignity. The solemn and imposing consecration ceremony, it will be remembered, was witnessed by thousands of persons from the town and country and the largest gathering of clergy ever witnessed in Peterborough was here for the occasion. To refer to the two years that have passed since that day when His Lordship was handed his holy symbols of office, the mitre and the crosier, is unnecessary. The great and vigorous work he has accomplish to better the condition of his parishioners, spiritually, educationally and physically are known to all. The St. Joseph's hospital has been completed, a large and handsome addition has been made to the Convent de Notre Dame and the spiritual welfare of the people has been strengthened and supported. At the close of this second year as Bishop he is beloved by all his parishioners and respected and esteemed by all his fellow citizens.



Yesterday evening the anniversary of His Lordship's consecration to the holy office of Bishop of Peterborough was commemorated by an entertainment given by the ladies of the Congregation de Notre Dame, And very bright, entertaining and interesting was the event which marked the second anniversary.

The entertainment was given in the hall of the convent which is in the new addition that has recently been completed and which was used for the first time yesterday. It is a spacious apartment, with excellent acoustic properties and yesterday presented a most attractive and beautiful appearance. It is splendidly adapted for concerts and musical reviews.

Well lighted, richly carpeted and artistically decorated with evergreens, bunting and mottoes the interior was a picture to behold when the hundred or so children in spotless white were gathered to greet His Lordship. The mottoes were appropriate among them being "Many Happy Returns," "God Bless our Bishop," "Joy," Love," etc.

Among those present were Messrs. Thos. Cahill, Thos. Kelly, Dr. Brennan, Dr. McGrath, John Maloney, W. A. Stratton, Wm. Lech, Wm. Cluxton, A. G. Gough, John E. Belcher, architect of the addition, F. J. Lynch, D. H. McDonald, H. Fessenden, principal of the Collegiate Institute, John Delaney, Jos. Griffin, Jos. Bagley, John P. Hurley, Thos. Dunn, Jos. Primeau, R. W. Muncaster, L. T. Laplant.

Bishop O'Connor entered accompanied by Rev. Father Whibbs, Rev. Father Scollard, Rev. Father Rudkins and Rev. Father Nairn. As His Lordship entered the galaxy of pretty little ones rose and greeted him with a graceful courtesy. Then they render a song of welcome which was appropriately worded for the occasion. Then five of the little ones came forward and in a pretty, well-acted dialogue presented His Lordship with handsome floral bouquets. These had only returned to the flock of bright children when eight or ten dots came trooping in and ranging in front of His Lordship, sang a beautiful, simple dialogue on the florals and the festive anniversary day, finishing by calling upon the fairies to bring flowers with which to do honor to their Bishop. In response to the call five beautiful little girls came dancing in, dressed as little fairies. They were dressed in pure white, with fancy wings of pink, wore circlets of gold and silver in their hair and carried their magic wands. They were indeed dainty representatives of fairy land and when in the song which followed the children circled in kindergarten fashion, it was an enchanting picture of bright, happy innocence. The scene concluded with another floral presentation to His Lordship. The happy sight must have gladdened the heart of the Bishop as it did those of all present.

A musical selection of popular airs was then given by a sextette of the graduates and elder pupils, after which the children sang a chorus "Many Happy Returns of the Day," in which there was three solos all beautifully taken by youthful vocalists.

HIS LORDSHIP SPEAKS.

One of the older pupils then came forward and read a beautifully worded address to His Lordship, embodying sentiments of pleasure, loving homage and expressions of appreciation of his many acts of kindness and attention to their welfare and wishes for many happy returns of the day.

His Lordship in replying did so briefly. He expressed his sincere thanks for the very flattering and poetic address in which they had expressed their sentiments towards him. He was pleased to meet with them upon the first occasion in their new building and spoke of his pleasure at seeing so many gentlemen friends present. He did not merit all the thanks for their spiritual welfare as they had to be obedient in order to follow in the path pointed out to them as the way to life. He spoke in glowing terms of their entertainment, and said each had done her part well and showed the good training they had received from the excellent sisters. He hoped it would be the will of God to spare him to work among them. He impressed upon them that it was their duty to lay up a store of information and knowledge as they were to be the future women to take the places of their good mothers. He was pleased with the new hall and additional class rooms that had been added and said for these they have to thank the trustees. He closed by again thanking them for their kind address and hoped God would bless them and that they would grow up in simplicity and respect the high training they received from the good sisters.

OTHER SHORT ADDRESSES.

Mr. Wm. Cluxton referred to the becoming character of the commemoration, spoke of the works that had been accomplished during Bishop O'Connor's two years and hoped he would be long spared to go on with his good work in the town.

Mr. J. E. Belcher, architect of the addition, was called upon and in a short speech referred to the splendid accoustic properties of the building, thanked the Sisters for their kindnesses in the past and spoke in laudatory terms of the pleasing entertainment, which reflected so highly upon the teachers.

Dr. Brennan, on behalf of the School Board, said he was exceedingly pleased with the entertainment. He felt that the Board could claim no credit for the proficiency of the pupils, the praise and credit for which was all due to the training of the Sisters. He spoke of the decided and distinct improvement that was noticeable in convent schools and said there was no place where girls could get better fitted to make life pleasant and to take their place in society or get a musical and lady-like education than in a convent.

Mr. Wm. Lech expressed his pleasure in attending, eulogized the Sisters' training and wished His Lordship many happy returns of the day.

Another popular musical sextette was rendered, after which His Lordship wished the children many happy returns of the day, again expressed his pleasure at the entertainment and admonished them to industrous, studious habits. He then left the hall and the entertainment closed.

As all the speakers remarked the entertainment was one that reflected great credit on the careful, patient training of the sisters, for the little ones acquitted themselves in a wonderfully clever manner.

AND PEACE REIGNETH.

The Railway Blockade at the Edison Siding Removed and Work in Progress.

The special meeting of the Town Council called to consider the railway blockake at the C.P.R. siding into the Edison works was not held last evening. The Councillors were discussing the unexpected piece of trouble when a telegram was received from Mr. Tait, General Superintendent of the C.P.R., which placed affairs in a more satisfactory light, so much so that the meeting was not considered necessary. The telegram read as follows:—

TORONTO, April 30.

JAMES STEVENSON,
Mayor.

Understand Grand Trunk threatening to interfere with our Edison Company's siding in such a way as to prevent use of it. We will not permit this siding to be interfered with until new grade for it is built and everything arranged so that it will not be rendered unfit for use more than a few hours. Plan of proposed arrangements submitted by you is satisfactory, but Grand Trunk must carry it out in such a way as not to render siding unfit for use more than few hours as stated. Trust you will see this so arranged and thus prevent trouble.

THOS. TAIT.

All last night the C.P.R. locomotive and van held the fort at the point where the crossing was to be made and up to about eleven o'clock this morning the big iron horse stood guard. About that time instructions were received by Roadmaster Mahoney to withdraw the company's forces and this was done.

MILTON, May 1st.

James Stevenson, Mayor, Peterborough.

Have instructed Roadmaster Mahoney to alter our siding to agree with proposed plan you sent me. As soon as this is done and you guarantee the G.T.R. in making connection with our siding will not prevent its use any longer than one day will give instructions to allow G. T. R. siding to be connected with ours.

THOS. TAIT.

This message was forwarded to Mr. J. G. Macklin, Chief Engineer of the Midland division of the G. T. R. and this is his reply:—

JAMES STEVENSON, M P.,
Mayor,
Peterborough.

MY DEAR SIR,—In reply to the following message, which Mr. Macdonald, Town Clerk, has just brought in:—

From Milton to Jas. Stevenson; Mayor of Peterborough:

Have instructed Roadmaster Mahoney to alter our siding to agree with proposed plan you sent me. As soon as this is done, and you guarantee the G.T.R. in making connections with our siding, will not prevent its use longer than one day will give instructions to allow G.T.R. siding to be connected with ours.

THOS. TAIT.

I will undertake on the part of the Grand Trunk railway not to delay more than 24 hours connection being made with the rails of our siding by the C. P. R. Company so as to give them within that time connection with the Edison Company's works.

Yours truly,
J. G. MACKLIN,
Chief Engineer.

Thus all difficulties were removed and everything now will progress smoothly. The C. P. R. have a gang of men at work this afternoon changing their siding according to the original proposed plan and the G. T. R connection will be made without delay.

BREAKING WINE AT LAKEFIELD.

Launch of the Steamer Golden City—What She is Like.

Yesterday afternoon the quiet of one of Peterborough's suburbs, Lakefield, was slightly ruffled by the ceremony of launching the steamer Golden City (formerly the Cruiser). The launch was successfully made, and the smoothness of the event, it is hoped, will only be characteristic of the success and smoothness of Capt. Reynolds' season with his trim craft. The Cruiser has been greatly improved, in fact is a thing of the past, and the Golden City, a practically new steamer, has taken her place. The launch took place at the wharf in the presence of a good crowd of spectators, and as the steamer glided peacefully into the water Miss Reynolds, daughter of the captain, broke a bottle of wine on her bow and she was christened the "Golden City."

The vessel will be a popular one with the campers this season. The Cruiser has disappeared and in her place has come the new steam propeller, Golden City, a nice staunch little craft, twenty feet longer than the Cruiser. There are two fine large cabins on the lower deck, which are being painted, cushioned, &c., for the comfort of the many passengers which she is expected to carry during the coming season. Another stairway has been added amidships leading to the promenade deck, which has now double the capacity it formerly had. Improvements have also been made in the engine room and the boiler and engine thoroughly overhauled. A new donkey engine has been added for fire protection purposes and if necessary to feed the boiler. The hull has been painted black and the body white trimmed with black, giving it a very neat and showy appearance, while over the wheel house, in gilt letters, "Golden City" stands out quite prominently. A tall mast has been put in for carrying her colors, which will greatly add to her appearance. The crew will be the same as formerly on the Cruiser, Capt. Reynolds in command, who will be found ready and willing to oblige all who may patronize them during the season.

We Offer For Sale by Public Auction on

MONDAY, 11th MAY, 1891, at 3 p. m., ON THE GROUND.

Lots on Romaine-st. Each lot is 33ft. by 220ft. Soil high and dry, sandy loam. 10 minutes walk from the Edison Works, Peter Hamilton Works, the Carbon Works and the Bridge Works. The new Electric Car Line will touch this street and George and Aylmer-sts. will be opened through to the Fair ground.

To secure a respectable street the deeds will contain a clause compelling the purchasers when they build to erect a uniform distance from the front, and that the houses when built shall not cost less than $600. These lots are double the depth of the ordinary town lot and are fine for gardening. This is the finest property in the market and one which will afford the best building lots to be had at low prices. These are only lots left on the south side of the street. Lots in the neighborhood half the depth sell at $8 to $10 per foot frontage, while these lots are 220ft. deep and will be sold for what they will bring. These lots while sufficiently near the great factories, are close to George-st. and being off the muck are clean and healthy.

Ten years will be given for payment. $5.00 on the $100 down; $5.00 on the $100, in one month; $10 on the $100 in 3 months, then a free deed will be given and mortgage taken back for the remainder of the purchase money, payable in 9 equal annual payments with interest at 6 per cent. Five per cent. discount will be allowed for cash. For further particulars apply to

FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1891.

BEATRIX RANDOLPH.

BY JULIAN HAWTHORNE.

Inigo, by what he considered a bold stroke of statesmanship, had placed one of the stage boxes at the disposal of Mlle. Marana, known as Mrs. Peters. "If she means to make a row," he argued, "treating her gentlemanly won't make it worse, and it may just tone her down a little." But, whatever the lady may have thought of the compliment, she omitted to avail herself of the box. When the curtain rose she had not arrived, and the box remained empty all the evening. This was of evil omen to the peace and friendly feeling which Gen. Inigo was so solicitous to insure. He resorted frequently to the bar, though with no good effect on his anxiety.

"Now, what the blazes can she be up to, eh?" he frequently asked himself and the elder Randolph, as the hours passed away. He seemed to think she was quite capable of coming into the house with a Nihilist bomb, by way of expressing her dissatisfaction. As for Ed he knew as little about her as any one else, though he had learned, before coming down to the theatre, that she was not in her rooms at the hotel. She had gone out but had not left word where she was going.

The audience seemed determined on this night to surpass all previous demonstrations of enthusiasm. A cynic might have said that they had set their hearts on reading in the next morning's papers that the applause and floral tributes which greeted the great singer on the eve of her departure from our shores were such as to outdo anything hitherto experienced. The popular favorite was summoned innumerable times before the curtain, and at the conclusion of the performance— But before the conclusion of the performance some events happened which did not appear in the papers, but which it will be necessary to relate.

As the curtain descended upon the last act but one Gen. Inigo, who was in will say good-by." She put out her left hand toward him and smiled. "Good-by!"

He covered his eyes with the back of his hand. "I can't bear it!" he said in a broken voice.

Marana's inscrutable face quivered for a moment; she seemed to waver: she swayed slightly toward him as she stood; her lips parted and her eyes shone. But then, with a deep breath, she regained her self command. She looked at Beatrix, as much as to say, "You must comfort him." Then she turned, with a sweep of her black dress, moved to the door and opened it. Bellingham and Wallie Dinsmore were just approaching.

"You are late, messieurs," exclaimed Marana in a gay tone. "I have been offering my homage!"

Wallie looked from one to the other of the three, quickly observant. Ed, with his face averted, was putting on his overcoat and hat; he then pulled the brim of the latter over his eyes and went hastily out, looking neither to the right nor left. Beatrix, with one hand resting on the marble dressing table, and her eyes wide open, stood in a sort of trance. She had not yet seen Bellingham. Wallie offered Marana his arm.

"Since you are going, diva," he said, "permit me to escort you. You misunderstood me yesterday morning. Whatever homage I have to offer shall be paid to you."

Bellingham, thus abandoned to his own guidance, strode up to Beatrix, who uttered a cry; it seemed to her as if he had suddenly started up out of the floor. It had been his purpose to make a final appeal to her, and no doubt his words would have been eloquent and moving, and possibly they might have gained him his object, though he would have had to contend against the incomprehensible doubts, hesitations, perversity and pride of a woman who loves, and knows that she is loved, and yet draws back for the sake of something—heaven knows what. But, as it happened, not a syllable of Bellingham's appeal was ever uttered, for before he could open his lips to begin the bell rang which conveyed the order for the curtain to rise on the last act. So he, perceiving that there was no time to lose, simply caught Beatrix in his arms, met her eyes for an instant, and kissed her. After that it was too late for her to draw back, even had she wished to. She went to take her part on the stage, but she left a marguerite in Bellingham's hand.

Such is the private history of that memorable last night, the other details of which have been sufficiently described in the journals of the period. Mrs. Peters is understood to have sailed for Europe a day or two later. Jocelyn disappeared, leaving unsavory traces behind him. Mr. Randolph, senior, returned to his place up the Hudson, where he is occasionally visited by his married daughter. Ed entered the office of the latter's husband in the capacity of clerk, and is doing well. As for Mlle. Marana, the famous prima donna, she has vanished as utterly as if she had never had any existence.

There are two or three persons in New York who are believed to know something about her; there are perhaps a dozen who know enough to look wise when the matter is broached in their presence; there are a hundred or two who have heard a report to the effect that there were some facts connected with her engagement in this city which have never been fully explained, but the great mass of the public have never been at the pains to entertain any misgivings on the subject. They content themselves with looking forward to the time when that most faithful and enterprising of impresarios Gen. Inigo shall once more bring out of his new opera house the great Marana.

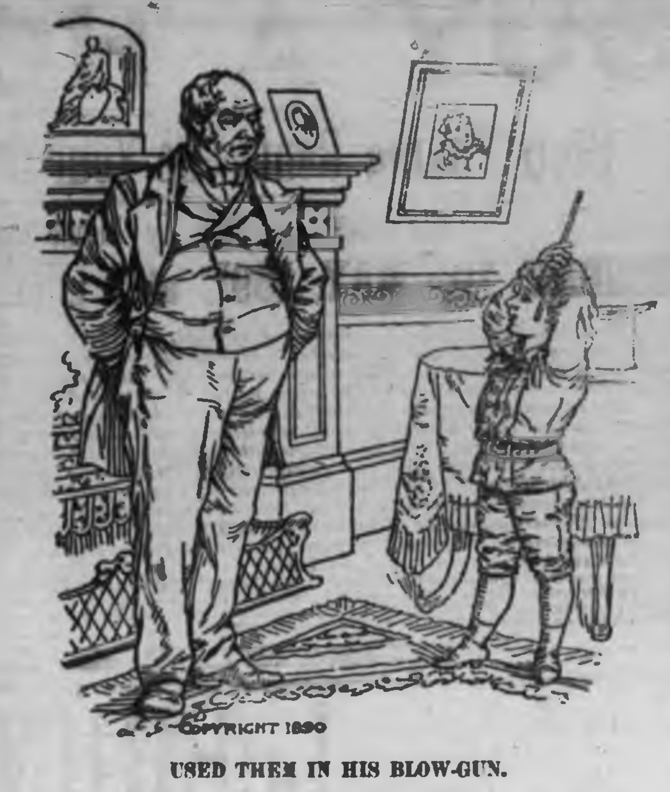
THE END.

NEW YORK, April 30.—About 6500 carpenters and others will strike here to-morrow for an eight-hour day.

A SCENE IN COURT.

Judge MacMahon Interrupted While Addressing the Ottawa Grand Jury.

OTTAWA, April 30.—Judge MacMahon arrived here to-day from L'Orignal, where he sentenced Laroque to death. In his address to the grand jury here, when referring to one case in which a father was charged with attempting to commit a criminal assault upon his daughter, he said the law presumed in some cases similar to this that there was no consent on behalf of the daughter although there was submission, a voice called out, "Hang him, my Lord, hang him!" The intruder, a drunken man, was forcibly ejected."



USED THEM IN HIS BLOW-GUN.

Doctor—"Well, my fine little fellow, you have got quite well again. I was sure the pills I left for you would cure you. How did you take them, in water or in cake?"

Boy—"Oh, I used them in my blow-gun."

The little fellow put the nasty, great, griping, old-fashioned pills to a good use. At most, all his internal economy needed was a dose of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, easy to take, and are gently aperient, or actively cathartic, according to size of dose. As a laxative, only one tiny Pellet is required.

The "Pellets" cure Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels. In explanation of their remedial power over so great a variety of diseases, it may truthfully be said that their action upon the system is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative influence.

The "Pellets" are put up in vials, hermetically sealed, therefore always fresh and reliable, which is not the case with pills put up in wooden or pasteboard boxes.

The "Pellets" are purely vegetable, and operate without disturbance to the system, diet, or occupation.

They are a convenient vest-pocket remedy.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets are the cheapest pill, sold by druggists, because they are guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or their price (25 cents a vial) is refunded. You only pay for the good you get.

A BABY'S RESTING PLACE.

A New York Moving Incident—A Father's Fruitless Search—A Mother's Find.

NEW YORK, April 30.—James Ransom, clerk in Ehret's brewery, yesterday moved to a cottage north of Harlem River. The household belongings were littered about the new home last night. The Ransoms were going to sit down upon the lids of their trunks and partake of a cold supper, when Ransom exclaimed suddenly, "Where's the baby?" The youngest of the children, a two-year-old girl, was missing. After a thorough search had been made in the house the father was dispatched back to the flat in Seventy-ninth-street. Nobody there had seen the child since morning, and Mr. Ransom notified the police of his loss. Then he hurried home and found his family still distracted. Mrs. Ransom, sitting down on a trunk, began to cry. A responsive wail arose from the trunk and springing up Mrs. Ransom hastily opened it. There on the top of a great pile of clothing lay the baby, just awakened from a sound sleep. Before the trunk was quite filled she had crawled in unnoticed and one of the other children closed the lid. The arched cover had given her additional room and slumbering uninterruptedly she was carried away on one of the trucks with the furniture.

Escaped From Central.

TORONTO, May 1.—James McGlinn, serving a term for abduction, escaped last evening. He was working in the store department. Taking advantage of the bursar's absence for a few moments, he managed to leave the jail walls behind him. He was in his prison garb at the time.

A very sad death occurred yesterday at the residence of John Davison, real estate agent, 282 Brunswick-avenue. His little daughter, aged 1 year and 9 months, [illegible] white bean in her throat and [illegible] was dead.

Two Good Things IN

FLOUR!

1. Scale Weight.

2. First Quality.

If good flour makes good bread it follows that one sort of flour makes better bread than another.

Which sort makes best?

That depends. The best flour is the purest, the best ground, the strongest and containing the most health giving and nourishing properties.

These good points are all found in our Flour.

Have you tried it? Perhaps yes. Perhaps no. If you have not, do so, and you may find a better flour than you have been using, and we a customer.

BUY NOW IF AT ALL.

EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Erin property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighbourhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

ROWSE'S
365 George-st.
Next to Sanderson's Jewellery Store.

What Dry Goods Store in Peterborough keeps the ladies so well posted in the styles as we do? Every time you go to Rowse's you see something that is striking and attractive. To day they are offering a lot of Wide Plain and Fancy Ribbons at 10 cts. per yard. Their Gloves and Hosiery are going off with a rush. We think the best Black Hosiery at 20 and 25 cents is to be had at Rowse's. Of course they have Hose from 5 cts. per pair upwards, but you never saw the best of the values they give you at 30 cts. Another thing, you can get the Best Fitting Corsets at Rowse's. They control several makes that are not to be had in other stores. When you want to make a present to a dear friend, just get one of those Elegant Shopping Bags hand-painted at $1.50 or a lovely Table Scarf, or a hand-painted Silk Tidy. ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

MOWAT TO GET $7000 AND MEREDITH $2000 ANNUALLY.

In Recognition of Their Distinguished Services to the Province—An Increased Indemnity for Members Which was not Granted.

TORONTO, May 2.—This resolution was unanimously carried in the House yesterday:

> In view of the onerous and important duties performed by the Honorable the Attorney-General as Premier of the Province, this committee of the whole House is of opinion that the salary of the office held by him is inadequate and should be increased to $7000 per annum, said increase to date from Jan. 1, 1891.

Mr. Guthrie in moving the resolution was frequently applauded as he eloquently referred to the services of the Attorney-General. The time had arrived, he said, when they should do a simple act of justice and offer the Attorney-General some better recognition of his inestimable services to the Province. In eulogising his works Mr. Guthrie referred to his singular assiduity, remarkable ability and unfailing courtesy. No one could say he received adequate compensation. He could retire to private life and by his practice make an income twice as large as that proposed. The leader of the Opposition could not take the position without a financial sacrifice. Ontario was much behind other colonies in its treatment of public men. Australia, Victoria and New South Wales paid their premiers $10,000 a year. Cape Colony paid $8000 or $9000. Ontario did not pay the premier what was paid the judges or the subordinate officials of the Dominion. The motion was loudly applauded by both sides of the House.

Mr. Marter in seconding the resolution paid a brief tribute to Mr. Mowat's services and remarked that, although they differed politically, he always felt a spirit of kindness towards the honorable gentleman.

The motion was then carried, Mr. Waters alone dissenting. The former salary was $5000.

Mr. Mowat said he hoped no one would imagine that he had the remotest idea that such a proposition would be made. He was extremely grateful to Messrs. Guthrie and Marter for their kind words. He did not know that the resolution would be acted upon, but felt just as grateful as if he were the recipient of the salary voted.

Mr. Conmee, with his broadest smile, sprang the next surprise, this time on Mr. Meredith. He moved that:

> In view of the fact that the duties of the leader of the Opposition require constant and diligent application regarding all measures and legislation passing through this House, made all the more necessary on account of the province having but one chamber, it is in the opinion of this committee only just and equitable that his sessional allowance should not be less than $2000 per annum.

Mr. Caldwell, in seconding the resolution, said he often wondered why the Opposition leader received no larger indemnity than an ordinary member. It was only fair and just that he should receive more.

Mr. Waters again protested against an increase. To increase the indemnity of the leader of the Opposition, he thought, was without precedent and unjust. The motion, however, carried with the same degree of unanimity as the former one.

Mr. Sol. White introduced the greatest surprise of all and, in view of the subsequent discussion, a disagreeable surprise. After remarking that he was sure his motion would commend itself to every member of the House he moved, seconded by Mr. Field, that:

> In the opinion of this committee the indemnity of the members should be increased to $800.

"If I had my way," added Sol. "I would make it $1000." This proposal to increase the sessional indemnity by $200 met with strong opposition.

Mr. Waters was astounded at this proposition. "If you had advocated an increase last June, precious few of you would be here to-day. I solemnly protest against this measure." Mr. Gibson (Huron), Mr. O'Connor, Mr. G. B. Smith, Mr. H. E. Clarke, also opposed it.

Mr. Fraser said that if there was a general desire that the first two propositions should meet with hearty approval, they should not attempt to load down either of them with such a resolution. Would not the people think that it was a scheme to stroke down the leader of the Government and the leader of the Opposition and then bag the plunder?

Mr. Guthrie declared that the resolution detracted from the character of the resolutions passed regarding Mr. Mowat and Mr. Meredith.

Mr. White, in withdrawing the resolution, said he was not treated in a manly fashion, for when he was asked to move the resolution he was told there was a general feeling in favor of it. "I don't care whether I come back here or not. If the people in my constituency don't think me worth more than $600 they can get someone else."

Supplementary estimates brought down yesterday provided $250 for a fellow in engineering (half year) at the School of Practical Science and $2500 for the Teachers' International Convention.

Letters patent have been issued incorporating "The T. Eaton Company," with a capital of $500,000.

The City of Toronto Bill was read a third time and passed. Mr. E. F. Clarke moved to restore the provisions of the McDougall scheme, struck out by the Private Bills Committee, but the motion was defeated on a vote of 32 to 41. Messrs. Balfour, Biggar, O'Connor, McMahon and Gibson (Hamilton) voted in favor of the restoration.

The House will meet again this morning at 11. Prorogation will take place Monday.

A return was presented to the House yesterday showing the net earnings of registrars for 1890 after deducting their disbursements in connection with the fees for salaries as well as the sums payable to the municipalities. The incomes derived were: In Algoma $658, Brant $2568, Bruce $3342, Carleton $3375, Dufferin $3358, Dundas $1104, Durham East $599, Durham West $965, Elgin $3650, Essex $3156, Frontenac $1255, Glengarry $911, Grenville $1101, Grey North $3153, Grey South $1522, Haldimand $1303, Haliburton $332, Halton $1579, Hastings $3908, Huron $3467, Kingston $838, Kent $4436, Lambton $5136, Lanark North $327, Lanark S. $1515, Leeds $2305, Lennox and Addington $1213, Lincoln $2524, London $2227, Manitoulin $399, Middlesex North $3309, Middlesex West $1562, Muskoka $1116, Nipissing $552, Norfolk $2196, Northumberland East $1417, Northumberland West $1042, Ontario $3731, Ottawa $3874, Oxford $2149, Parry Sound $441, Peel $2177, Perth North $1855, Perth South $992, Peterboro $2934, Prescott $1718, Prince Edward $1053, Rainy River $530, Renfrew, no return, Russell $1592, Simcoe $4963, Stormont $1735, Thunder Bay $1113, Toronto East $3721, Toronto West $4875, Victoria $2197, Waterloo $3118, Welland $1852, Wellington North $1685, Wellington South and Centre $3112, Wentworth $3827, York East and West $3393, York north $1511. The amounts payable to municipalities by registrars for 1890 were about $40,000, including $5562 from Toronto East, $3998 from Toronto West, $6064 from York East and West.

Mr. Gibson, in moving the third reading of the bill to amend the Ontario Insurance Act, said that it contained clauses restricting the business carried on by companies from abroad as insurance or mutual endowment companies, which in many cases entered into obligations which they were unable to carry out. When similar legislation was introduced last session existing companies strongly protested, but if they had anticipated the present competition they would gladly have accepted it. In view of the wide-reaching character of the business, he decided to drop the clauses this year and to bring in a more comprehensive measure next session. The clauses were accordingly struck out.

TORONTO TOPICS.

The G.T.R. Refuses to Carry the New Express Company's Parcels.

TORONTO, May 1.—Yesterday business was to have been commenced by the new O. R. & T. Express Company, but the Grand Trunk declined to accept the freight, pending instructions from Montreal.

The report of Æmilius Irving, Q.C., who was appointed to enquire into the nature of the business of Union Provident & Live Association has been published and shows the concern to have been a wholesale swindle. The charter has been revoked, and Jones he fled.

The inquest on the death of Thomas Mills, who died under suspicious circumstances at 17 Soho-street, was concluded last night. The principal evidence taken was that of Marion Mills, daughter of deceased, who wept bitterly while giving her testimony. Coroner Johnston charged the jury at some length and a verdict of "death from poison" was returned.

THE ACCIDENT RECORD.

Sad Death of a Young Boy at Thornbury—Thrown From a Vehicle and Killed.

THORNBURY, May 1.—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burns attended the funeral of a relative, leaving their little four-year-old son Wilbur in the care of his grandmother. The little fellow, who was playing around the yard, was last seen about 1 o'clock. Shortly after this he was missed and on search being made he was found about 4 o'clock, a few yards from the house in a post hole, containing about six inches of water. Life was extinct. Death was caused by suffocation.

Fatal Runaway Accident.

ORILLIA, May 1.—Mrs. Bidwell, wife of the section foreman on the G.T.R. at Longford, was driving towards Orillia with her 10-year-old son and had got close to Ralston's tannery when an outgoing train came puffing up and frightened the horse. The animal started to run, stopped suddenly and started again, throwing Mrs. Bidwell over the dashboard and the wagon passed over her. It was found that her spine was fractured that she otherwise was hurt internally. She died next day.

To be Buried Alongside His Victim.

SHERBROOKE, Que., May 1.—Advocate Pillet of Montreal has just arrived from Quebec bearing with him the order in council signed by the Lieut.-Governor ordering that the body of Remi Lamontagne, hanged for the murder of his brother-in-law, be given into his charge for removal to the cemetery at Wotton.

MANY MAY DAY RIOTS.

ITALIAN AND FRENCH ANARCHISTS CAUSE TROUBLE.

The Crowds Charged by Gendarmes and Soldiers and Many Killed and Wounded—At Lyons a Cannon Has to be Drawn Upon the Square to Intimidate the Rioters.

LYONS, May 1.—A number of very exciting scenes were witnessed here to-day. A crowd of workmen, followed by large numbers of women and children and bearing red cards containing various sentiments in reference to the rights claimed by laboring people, attempted to hold a procession. The authorities had decided to prevent marching, and as the workmen refused to disperse the police attacked them. The workmen made a desperate resistance and a general melee followed. A policeman was seriously wounded. The noise of the conflict attracted a great crowd and the workmen were soon reinforced by many others. The police being unable to cope with increased force of workmen, cavalry were despatched to the scene. The horsemen charged upon the workmen who assailed them with volleys of stones. The workmen were unable to withstand the combined attack by cavalry and police and retreated sullenly and with defiant shouts. A number of arrests were made and several prisoners were heavily armed.

Subsequently the mob marched to the cemetery headed by men carrying black and red flags for the purpose of holding a demonstration over graves of those who lost their lives in former riots. The authorities again appealed to the military for aid in dispersing the crowd, a force of cuirassiers charged upon the people. The mob resisted repeated charges and desperately disputed every inch of ground. Showers of stones and other missiles were hurled at the soldiers several of whom were seriously injured before they cleared the burying ground of the mob. The crowd again formed in procession and marched back again to the city defiantly denouncing the authorities and singing "La Carmagnole" in a grand chorus. When the rioters reached the city they savagely attacked the police, overcame the officers and broke through the cordon which they had established. Again the cuirassiers were called upon to disperse the rioters. The soldiers charged upon the mob and the latter were forced to retreat. The fighting between the rioters and the police and military has caused the greatest alarm among the people of this city, and the excitement intensifies every hour. The police are powerless to control the howling mob who have become more defiant than ever. The authorities have summoned additional reinforcements of soldiers for protection of the city. The rioters have cut the telephone and telegraph wires and are holding uproarious meetings at workingmen's headquarters, where Anarchist speakers are vociferously inciting the maddened men to commit further acts of violence. A dense crowd surrounds the labor exchange, which building the soldiers have cleared of all persons at the point of the bayonet. The military are taking every precaution to subdue the mob and have brought a cannon to the place for the purpose of intimidating them. A mass meeting of workmen has been called for 9 o'clock this evening. The place selected for the gathering is the principal square of the city. The authorities have determined to use every means to control the immense crowd that is expected to be present.

BORDEAUX, May 1.—Several attempts were made by workmen to parade to-day, but the workmen were dispersed. Many arrests were made.

PARIS, May 1.—A number of Socialists, headed by Cunningham Graham, who tried to parade to-day were dispersed by the police, who warned Graham that he would be arrested if he again attempted to form a crowd.

ROME, May 1.—A meeting of workingmen took place this afternoon near the Church of San Giovanni. There were five members of the Chamber of Deputies present. An Anarchist speaker violently urged the assembled men to attack the police. The speaker's words so excited his hearers that soon after the mob stoned the troops stationed in the neighborhood. Some rioters hurled stones at the troops from the windows of the houses. The gendarmes fired upon the rioters, and the cavalry charged upon those who had not been put to flight by the gendarmes' fire. At the same time the infantry soldiers near the scene were ordered to storm the houses from which the stones had been thrown. A terrible uproar followed. When matters had calmed down somewhat it was found that Sig. Barzilai, a member of the Chamber of Deputies, Sig. Cipriana, a Socialist leader, and 25 others had been wounded. One man was killed outright by the gendarmes' fire. A gendarme was stabbed to death by the rioters. During the cavalry charge several troopers were unhorsed and were trampled upon and kicked by their comrades' horses.

FOURMIES, France, May 1.—There was a bloody collision between miners and the police here in which 7 were killed and 12 wounded.

A mob attacked the Maire this evening, in an attempt to rescue imprisoned comrades, and wounded two soldiers. The troops opened fire and three men fell dead. The mob then fled.

PARIS, May 1.—A mob threatened the police station at Clichy and gendarmes sallied out to disperse the crowd. The mob took refuge in a wine shop, which they barricaded. The police attempted to dislodge them and were met by a volley of revolver shots. Four policemen were wounded.

CHICAGO, May 1.—With the exception of Iowa, where the miners in nearly all the coal fields have quit work, advices from numerous northwestern mining and industrial districts indicate that there was no concerted movement on the part of the laboring classes looking to the adoption of the eight-hour day.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Ten thousand Hebrews belonging to various trades unions celebrated May-Day here with a parade. Fully 12,000 people attended an 8-hour day mass meeting of the various labor organizations to-night in Union square. Twenty-five labor organizations were represented. The numerous bands played tunes that have liberty as their theme. All the flags displayed were red except one and that was blue. Not an American flag was in the lot. The organizations represented included cigarmakers, bakers, waiters, confectioners, tailors, brewers, food producing trades and the clothing industry.

The meeting was under the direction of the socialistic labor party and the Central Labor Federation. Lucien Daniel called the meeting to order. He said the working classes must have the eight-hour day. He severely denounced the [illegible] Joseph Barondess was [illegible]. He also denounced Chauncey M. Depew. August Delabar also denounced [illegible]. Other speakers followed in the same vein. The meeting adopted resolutions in favor of the eight-hour day and urging all organized workers to rally under the socialistic labor party.

Other Labor Troubles at Home and Abroad

Six thousand railroad miners of the Pittsburg district went on strike yesterday, pending an adjustment of wages. The strike has nothing to do with the eight-hour question.

The trouble between the union and non-union men on the lumber docks of Woods, Jenks & Co. at Cleveland, O., culminated this morning in an attack by union men and several members of the company were brutally beaten by clubs and had to be taken to their homes in ambulances.

There were no strikes in any of the Pennsylvania coal regions.

The proposed general strike of the Pennsylvania bituminous miners, scheduled for yesterday, was indefinitely postponed.

Perfect order prevailed in Vienna, Austria, despite the fact that 40 meetings of workingmen were held in different parts of the city.

At Marseilles, France, yesterday, cavalry found it necessary to charge a mob, which quickly scattered.

Four thousand Socialists attended a meeting at Madrid and advocated an eight hour law. No violence was attempted.

Specials from Newcastle, Erie, Washington, McKeesport, Braddock and other western Pennsylvania and near-by Ohio towns indicate a general strike among the carpenters, stone masons and bricklayers.

There is no strike in West Virginia section. Everything is moving as usual in the coal mining districts.

A coal miner's strike was inaugurated in the Duguvia, Ill., district for 8 hours and weekly pay.

About 4000 housesmiths went out in New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City. Six hundred framers will return to work to-day, having secured their terms and about the same number are out.

Trades unions 10,000 strong demonstrated at Chicago. Everything was quiet and peaceful.

DEATH OF MR. PURCELL.

The Millionaire Ex-M.P. for Glengarry Passes Away in Nova Scotia.

CORNWALL, May 1.—P. Purcell of Summerstown, ex M.P. for Glengarry, died at Annapolis, N.S., this morning. The remains will be interred at Flanagan's Point, east of Cornwall, Tuesday at 2 p.m. Mr. Purcell's wealth was estimated at about $1,000,000.

Deceased was born in Glengarry May 1, 1833, and consequently was 58 years old the day of his death. He married Isabella, daughter of Angus McDonald of Glengarry. For years he has been a railway and canal contractor and constructed St. Peter's Canal, N.S., section 21 of the Intercolonial Railway, 250 miles of the C.P.R. west from Port Arthur and several other important railway and canal works in Canada and the United States. He only served one term in parliament, retiring at the last general election.

SUICIDES OF A DAY.

An Adelaide Farmer Drowns Himself in a Well—Deliberately Stood in the Water and Drowned.

STRATHROY, May 1.—James Fraser, a well-to-do-farmer, living on the town line of Adelaide, committed suicide about 11 o'clock to-day. He tore off the covering of the well on his own place and jumped in, sinking in about 20 feet of water. His wife saw him and gave the alarm, but before any help could reach him he sank to rise no more. For the past three months he has been somewhat deranged in his mind and has been watched closely by them. He made an attempt to take his life about six weeks ago by cutting his throat with a razor and ever since has been in rather low spirits. Deceased was married and about 50 years of age. He leaves his wife, two sons and three daughters.

Thought He Had Lived Long Enough.

TWEED, Ont., May 1.—A man named James Baker of Lime Lake took a tablespoonful of Paris green and died from its effects. He was nearly 95 years old, and it is said was tired of life and wanted to die.

James Gillespie's Body Found.

INNERKIP, May 1.—The body of James Gillespie was found to-day at about 3 p.m. by William Brown, one of the large party which has been scouring the county for nearly two days in search of the missing man. The body was found in Hagey's pond, a sheet of water of about 20 acres extent, and nearly four miles from Innerkip. The body was about 40 feet from the shore and standing erect in the deep mud, which everywhere covers the bottom of the lake. There was only about two feet of water above the head. It was apparently a most determined case of suicide, as a heavy plow point and piece of rock were found inside the clothes.

SUNK IN THE IRISH CHANNEL.

The Captain and Two Stewards Drowned—A Boatload Missing.

LONDON, May 1.—The steamer Drumburlie, bound from Glasgow to Bombay, has foundered in the Irish Channel. The captain and two stewards were drowned. A boat containing 11 of the persons who were aboard the steamer is missing.

Collapse of a Railway Bridge.

LONDON, May 1.—While the Brighton express, crowded with people on their way to business in the city, was crossing the bridge on its way to Norwood, about seven miles south of London, this morning the structure collapsed and six of the rear carriages fell into the bed of the shallow stream beneath. The carriages were smashed to atoms and very many of the passengers sustained most painful injuries, but no one was killed.

An Altar in His Bedroom.

HALIFAX, May 1.—A little over two weeks ago there arrived here on one of the English steamers a man who registered at a big hotel as a clergyman from Ilfracombe, England. It was generally understood he was an Episcopal clergyman. He was ritualistic in his ideas and is known to have had arranged in his room an altar, at which candles were kept burning and before which he was repeatedly seen to be on his knees as if in devotion or prayer. St. Luke's was among the churches visited by him, and yesterday some articles of value were missed from the altar. Suspicion attached to the clergyman from England and a search of his room was made, which resulted in the finding of the missing articles. The man was arrested, but later the matter was dropped and he was released. It is thought by some that the "reverend" gentleman's mind must be demented, as he is evidently a well-educated man.

Last week the Essex Centre Council decided not to oppose the motion to quash the local option bylaw. A meeting was held yesterday, however, when it was decided to instruct J. J. McLaren to appear for the town and oppose the motion. The License Commissioners will withhold licenses for the town until the matter is settled.

May offers specially favorable circumstances for driving catarrh out of the system, and every sufferer from this loathsome disease should use Nasal Balm for that purpose. It cures when other remedies fail, if the directions are faithfully adhered to. A single bottle will convince you of its merit. Sold by all dealers.

SATURDAY, MAY 2, 1891.

FLOCKING INTO MANITOBA.

THE movement of settlers across the lines from Dakota into Manitoba, begun some time ago, continues. A despatch from Winnipeg in Tuesday's Globe says:—

People still continue to flock into Manitoba from South Dakota with stock and effects. A large contingent arrived this morning, their train being decorated with legends as follows:—"No more 3 per cent. a month." "No more five mile water haul," "No more two bushels to the acre," "No more exalline fuel," "No more grinding machine agents." "Good-bye, South Dakota," "Bound for the Canadian North-west," "Free land, plenty of timber, plenty of water, interest 8 per cent. per annum," "Hurrah for Yorkton."

In the same paper in which this appeared the Globe has more than one editorial reference to the alleged exodus from Canada to the United States, but, although the news item did get into its columns, editorial eye of the paper can see nothing that counts in favor of Canada.

The Liberals would have the people of Manitoba believe that their lot would be improved by Commercial Union with the States, but the flocking of settlers into that Province from Dakota, and the reasons for the migration as indicated are a practical answer to their specious pleas.

Simply Appalling.

It seems that an uptown housewife relates that she was about closing an engagement with a new help the other day and after acceding to several stipulations as to hours out, Sunday's off, etc., finally had to break off the prospective engagement, when the applicant inquired whose teas were used in the house, and learning that the article was bought from the regular peddler replied that she couldn't stay in a house and do justice to the table where they did not use Hawley Bros'. teas, the best and purest sold in town. d98f-w18

An Electric Drilling Machine.

One of the latest applications for electricity is that of a machine for drilling holes in boilers, in the sides of iron vessels and in other places where iron or steel is the material to be worked upon.

The machine has its own holding-on magnets, and it may be swung over the side of a ship, or placed on the surface of a boiler; where it will stick without the necessity of clamping.

The convenience of such a device, adjustable as it is, by the mere switching off or on of a current, is great, while, it is claimed, the saving of labor resulting from its use is considerable.

Carlyle's Opinion of Thackeray.

Poor Thackeray! I saw him not ten days ago. I was riding in the dusk, heavy of heart, along by the Serpentine and Hyde Park, when some human brother from a chariot, with a young lady in it, threw me a shower of salutations. I looked up—it was Thackeray with his daughter; the last time I was to see him in this world. He had many fine qualities, no guile or malice against any mortal; a big mass of a soul, but not strong in proportion; a beautiful vein of genius lay struggling about in him. Nobody in our day wrote, I should say, with such perfection of style. I predict of his books very much as you do. Poor Thackeray—adieu!—adieu!—From a letter from Carlyle.

Bismarck's Latest Story.

Bismarck's continued conversations with German journalists still keep the gossip columns of German dailies full of anecdotes of great men the ex-Chancellor has known. His last story concerns Nicholas I. of Russia. The Czar suffered from a disease that his physicians told him could not be relieved only by a rubbing of the spine. Nicholas was anxious enough to try the prescription, for he was in great pain, but in all his court he had no one whom he could trust to give him the treatment. So eventually he sent a courier all the way to Berlin with a written request that Frederick William II. should send him five non-commissioned officers of the Guards to rub his back. The officers were sent, rubbed the Czar's back for a few weeks, and were then dismissed to Berlin with presents of $1,200 each.

In speaking of the matter to the Prussian King subsequently the Czar said: "I trust my Russians as long as I can look them in the eye, but to let them go to work at my own back—that is more than I care to risk."

As regards the present Czar, Bismarck thinks: "He is a man of peace, and wishes no war, yet I doubt that he can avoid it. Most of the Russian army are in very bad quarters, and from time to time require a war for a change. A factor in precipitation of the last Russo-Turkish war was the growing discontent of the Russian army."

Trust Providence.

When troubles come and sorrows fall,
And pain and care are rife;
When clouds hang o'er thee like a pall;
Then trust in Him whose love's o'er all
His creatures in this life.

The daisies smile when dark clouds frown,
And nestle in the lawn,
When lightnings smite the great oaks down,
And trunks are riven, branches strewn—
God saves the lambs and fawn.

Weakness is strength, and might is vain,
God hears the feeblest cry;
Whilst boasted powers He doth disdain,
The weakest suppliant doth gain
The guidance of His eye.

The tiniest fish that swims the sea,
Or insect in the air,
Has o'er its life the mystery—
That Providence, whose history
Keeps weaklings from despair.

There's not a star in heaven's crown
That's treated with disdain,
There's not a flower or grassy lawn
That doth in darkness and in dawn [illegible] retain.

Then [illegible], weak one, if thy trust
[illegible] power,
[illegible] are trodden in the dust
[illegible] faith—the meek and just [illegible] like the flower.

WARKWORTH.

A PIONEER DEAD.—Dr. James N. McCrae died at his residence here on Sunday night. He was born in Merrickville, Greenville county, Ont., on the 13th of May, 1819. He was of U. E. Loyalist descent, and when but a lad of eighteen years held the rank of lieutenant in his father's (Col. McCrae) regiment, Lanark division, and took part in the battle of the windmill. He obtained his medical education at Victoria University, Cobourg, where he graduated, after which he opened an office in the village of Roseneath, removing five years later to Warkworth, where he resided many years. He enjoyed a successful and lucrative practice, which he relinquished to his son-in-law, Dr. Richards, on his moving to Campbellford nine years ago. In the spring of 1889 he retired from active practice and returned to Warkworth. His acquaintance extended throughout the Province, and professionally he was held in the highest esteem by his confreres, his advice and consultation being constantly sought. He leaves a widow and one daughter, the latter Mrs. Dr. Richards of this village.

Life is Like a Flower.

A well-known and popular writer says: "Life is like a flower, which is no sooner blown than it begins to wither." It is now generally acknowledged that if the flower of life has not been carefully tended before it is blown, that the bloom will not be of long duration. If on the other hand the health has been preserved, when the bloom of life occurs it will last for years without signs of withering or decay. How very important then for all to maintain in its fullest splendor and beauty the full blown life, a condition which should bring with it joy, pleasure and contentment. This flower of life—our health, shows indications of withering and decay, when we allow any form of nervous disease to lay hold of us. That tired, used-up brain, that feeling of weariness and goneness, those hollow cheeks and sunken eyes, those dyspeptic pangs—all are monitors of fading and decay. The bloom of health can be maintained by that great life giver, Paine's Celery Compound; it will banish every trace of pain and disease, and restore the bloom of health to the cheek, and give you the vigor of true manhood and womanhood. Paine's Celery Compound stands alone in this great work. Its results are certain, safe and always satisfactory. Do not delay using it if you value life.

CASH HARDWARE STORE.

On and after 1st April we shall do business on a Cash Basis.

To cover the inevitable losses attendant upon a credit business, which accrue from amount of time spent in keeping accounts, collecting, bad debts, interest account, and in numerous other ways, larger margins of profit must be asked.

In these times cash buyers ask, expect and are entitled to close prices. A careful consideration of the subject convinces us that the time has come for a cash business done on smaller profits.

The only customers who may be put to inconvenience are those who have had long credit. In more ways than one it will be to their advantage to pay cash.

For convenience of our old customers who consider their accounts due when presented, we will call 30 days cash and render all accounts the first of each month, and we wish to say that we will be happy to do business with them on these terms.

As the new departure is something of an experiment, what would be considered a close cash price will be made all through the stock. Not a few leaders only, but a general reduction in everything from the fourth flat to the cellar.

Our idea is to perform more than promised rather than promise more than can be fulfilled.

Our stock is large and varied, consisting of Builders', Contractors', Household, Mechanics', Painters', Shoemakers', Farm, Mill, Factory, Lumbermen's, Sporting, Tinsmiths', Cabinetmakers', and other lines of Hardware.

Father Derichmont, M.S.H. Only near relatives and friends were present. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home and at 10.30 o'clock the happy couple left the city for a trip to New York and other places, taking with them the best wishes of a host of friends. On their return they will reside at Peterborough, where the groom is engaged in the merchant tailor business."

MUSIC BY ALL AGES.

A Pleasing and Enjoyable Musical Review at the Congregation de Notre Dame—The Programme Rendered.

Music hath charms, and perhaps none of the fine arts will give as much pleasure to the same number as will the pianoforte when touched by the skilful fingers of the proficient artist. This fact was indeed fully realised by those who attended the musical review at the Congregation de Notre Dame last evening.

Hundreds of young ladies have had their musical talents patiently trained by the Sisters of the Congregation de Notre Dame and have developed into proficient graduates who could fill their homes with sweet music, or bring forth outbursts of appreciation from the cultured audience in the concert hall.

Last evening the handsome new hall where the pleasing entertainment had been given on the previous afternoon was filled with friends of the children and music-loving ladies and gentleman who had come to have a practical demonstration of the progress their young folk had made or to enjoy the treat they knew was in store for them. The children, all the younger ones dressed in spotless white, were ranged at the east side of the hall, while the guests occupied the seated portion on the west side. His Lordship Bishop O'Connor was present, and with him were Rev. Father Whibbs, Rev. Father Dube and Rev. Father Scollard.

The programme rendered was a highly entertaining one, the principal object being to show the parents and friends what progress the pupils had made in their musical studies. That this progress had been made was manifested in a marked and distinct degree. From the little tot at the opening who was just forming the foundation upon which her musical culture was to be reared to the gold medalist at the close who swept the key-board with skillful and well-trained fingers and entranced the audience with her sweet music, all evidenced what had been accomplished. The patience, time and talents which must have been assiduously and indefatigably exerted by the sisters cannot be fully conceived, but a pleasing reward was given for all the toil in the marvellous results which were shown in the renditions by the pupils. All ages were represented on the programme and all acquitted themselves with great credit. To make individual comment is impossible owing to demands on our space and to single out any numbers would be to do an injustice to those unmentioned for each did her part well. The Sisters can feel proud of their pupils and the pupils can congratulate themselves and thank their teachers who have trained or are training them.

The programme as rendered was as follows:—

1. Entree—Duet..........
2. Greeting Song—Chorus..........
3. Piano Solos...M. Sheffield, S. Kelly, M. Conroy, M. Henderson, M. Welsh
4. "Killarney"..........M. Cahill, T. Reiley
5. "L'Innocence"..........A. Doris, D. Dolan, I. Laplante, D. Jackson
6. May Chimes..H. Fitzgerald, L. Jackson, M. Sherwood, L. Pearse
7. Vocal—"Visions of Childhood"...D. Jackson, T. Reiley
8. Duet....M. E. Cahill, H. Cahill, E. Allen, A. Dowling, M. Begley, P. Carew, E. McAuliffe, K. Mahoney
9. "Hunting Song"—Mendelssohn E. Hall, M. McCabe, M. Butler M. Smith
10. Vocal Solo—"Esmeralda"..........L. Jackson
11. Impromptu—"Ninon"....E. Lynch, L. McAuliffe, M Kelly, Maggie Kelly
12. "Tarantella"....A. Dunn, A. Sherwood, M. Begley, A. Aldridge
13. Chopin's Waltz...M. Morrow, M. Kelly, L. Mahoney, M. Doherty
14. "Homeward Bound"—Chorus..........
15. "Recitation"..........F. Holmes
16. "Le Jet d'Deau"..........M. Butler, M. Smith
17. "Butterfly Caprice"....E. Hall, M. McCabe
18. Vocal Solo—"Rest of the Weary"..........A. Dowling
19. "Recollections of Home"..........L. Laplante
20. "The Valley lay Smiling before Me" "The Girl I Left Behind Me" ..... M. Morrow, M. Kelly, M. Doherty, L. Mahoney
21. "Robin des Bois"..........E. Howden
22. Vocal Quartette—"Good Night, Honored Guests". A. Dunn, E. Howden, M. Begley, M. Cabe

At the conclusion of the programme Maud Cahill stepped forward and in a neat, well spoken little address thanked the audience for their attendance.

His Lordship then briefly expressed his gratification at the pleasant musical evening he had enjoyed, saying that he knew he only voiced the sentiments of all present, when he said that instead of being called a review it might be called a first-class concert. He congratulated the pupils upon the progress they had made and the Sisters upon the success of their training.

The well pleased audience then dispersed, many taking occasion to congratulate the Sisters upon the success of their "review" and the progress of their pupils.

No Fishing in Rice Lake This Month.

Inspector Gilchrist, says the Port Hope Times, informs us that there will be no fishing allowed on Rice Lake until the 16th of June. This intelligence will be disappointing to many of our local sports, who were in hopes that there was some chance of their being allowed to fish there on the 24th of May. The water in Rice Lake this year has risen much higher than it has ever been known to do before, the road leading to Bewdley being flooded and some of the marshes are completely submerged.

Interesting to Gentlemen.

Prominently on the first page of the REVIEW stands out the advertisement of Mr. W. H. Meredith, merchant tailor, of 369 George-st. Mr. Meredith has been enjoying an ever increasing patronage and by keeping a large and complete stock of tweeds, pantings, overcoatings and gents' furnishings of the latest style and always giving a faultless fit, turning out nothing but satisfactory work, he has established a business as a merchant tailor which his close attention to business and courteous efforts to please have merited. At the present time he is carrying a most complete and elegant line of clothes suitable for spring suitings and overcoats and all intending purchasing should call and examine his goods before buying elsewhere. He also makes a speciality of ordered shirts and always has a well-assorted stock of the latest shirtings either in linen, flannels or cashmere from which to select. His fit is also guaranteed and you will be satisfied every time. Then he has a full line of the latest and nobbiest gents' furnishings. Neckwear, underwear, umbrellas and handkerchiefs in all lines can be had in the store. His stock of neckties is well worthy of inspection. He can also fit you with a stylish hat at surprisingly low figures. In fact a gentleman can be well furnished in about any of his wants in attire. The number is 369 George-st.

LOUD AND LONG AND GREAT

Was the Applause and the Pleasure at the Entertainment of the Baptist Mission Band.

Most people when they get a mere taste of a good thing, are not satisfied, but long for more. Such was the experience of those who attended the Mission Band entertainment in the Baptist church last night, every one must have gone away wishing it had been longer. It might truly be said of the programme that it was "short and sweet." Here is a copy of it:—

Instrumental Duet.....Prof. Hoover and Miss Gilmour
Recitation....."A Mission Call"....Miss May Fitzgerald
Vocal Duet...."The Lost Ship" Messrs. W. H. Manning and Geo. S. Matthews
Song......"Seeking the Lost"....Dolly Fowler
Recitation "Three Little Toadstools".....by three little girls
Vocal solo...."In Romany Land".... Miss N. Wrighton
Recitation "The Angel in our House". Violet Billings
Vocal duet...."Hope Beyond"..Messrs. Manning and Matthews
Recitation..........Masters G. Birnie and Eddy Langford
Song..........Dolly Fowler
Instrumental Solo..........Prof. Hoover

The mention of such well known talent as Prof. Hoover, Miss Gilmour, Miss Wrighton, Messrs. Manning and Matthews bespeak the choice character of the programme without any further encomiums, and the best praise that could be offered is a reiteration of the well merited applause of the audience in a hearty "well done." Miss Wrighton's selection was choice and rendered with taste, whilst Mr. W. H. Manning was in excellent voice and pleased his audience as he ever does.

The part taken by the little ones was especially pleasing. The singing of little Dolly Fowler certainly captured the audience, and the little lady of five summers is sure of a hearty welcome from a Peterborough audience in the future. So well did she render her two pretty songs that the audience would not be satisfied, and when she responded by singing the familiar old song "Bring Back My Bonny," the applause was both long and hearty. The recitations by the children were well given and deservedly applauded. The rendition of the "Three Little Toadstools" was really good and had a pretty effect. The gas was turned very low and a minute afterwards turned on again, showing three little white robed maidens kneeling on the platform, each holding a pretty white silk parasol over her head, a very true representation of three little toad stools, and in this posture they gave their recitation. Violet Billings, a little tot scarce able to lisp her words, received the heartiest applause with her recitation, "The Little Angel in Our House," which proved to be her own little brother. When at half past nine Dr. Scott, who filled the chair in his usual happy and genial manner, announced that the end had been reached, all felt they could have listened as long again and went away almost hungry. The music was furnished by a piano from J. W. Crosby's music store, and the accompaniments played by Prof. Hoover.

A Pleasant Herb Drink—A Spring Medicine.

The druggists tell us that the people call daily for the new cure for constipation and sick-headache discovered by Dr. Silas Lane. It is said to be Oregon grape root (a great remedy in the far west for those complaints) combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength. It sell at 50c and $1 a package and is called Lane's Family Medicine.

A Coming Violinist of Talent.

In a report of a concert given in St. James Hall, Ottawa, on Thursday night, April 28th, the Ottawa Free Press makes the following reference to one of Peterborough's young ladies, Miss Louise Yokome, who is now in that city under the instructions of Mons Francois Boucher:—"Miss Russell deserves special mention for her pianoforte recitals and her tasteful accompaniment of Miss Yokome's brilliant violin playing. De Beriot's "Fantaisie de Ballet" for which she was loudly applauded. Miss Yokome is a violiniste of special merit and has a brilliant future before her."

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. d16wl-6m

HUNTING THE BULLS-EYE.

The Rifle Association Have Their First Monthly Match—Two Events.

The first monthly match for this season of the local Rifle Association was shot at the ranges in Ashburnham yesterday, and the marksmen had a great afternoon's outing.

There was a tricky fish-tail wind blowing up to the five hundred yards, and then it changed and blew a side gale. This effected seriously the scores at 600 yards, but taken all around, as the first match of the season, the scores were very good

He Struck His Father.

A call was made for the police to visit the residence of Mr. Thos. Beavis last evening. Chief Roszel responded and found that Charles Beavis had been drinking and in a fit of anger had struck his father over the eye with a boot, inflicting a wound and causing the blood to flow freely. The father wanted the son arrested, but he had escaped by the back door when the Chief came in at the front.

The Town's Law Suit.

The civic case of Leonard vs. the Town of Peterborough came up before Justice McMahon at Ottawa yesterday, according to adjournment at the Spring Assizes here. Mr. E. B. Edwards, Town Solicitor, represented the town, and Mr. Watson, of Toronto, appeared for the plaintiff. The evidence of one witness was put in, and the case was adjourned to allow further evidence to be put in at Toronto, when His Lordship has concluded his circuit.

MARRIED.

LEBRUN—HACKETT.—At the church of "Our Lady of the Sacred Heart," in Watertown, April 29th, by the Rev. Father F. Derichemont, Harry LeBrun and Marie Louise Lonsay Hackett, both of Peterborough, Ontario.

The Edison Siding.

To the Editor of the Review.

DEAR SIR,—Under the guise of supposed interference by the G. T. R. Company with the siding of the C. P. R. Company to the Edison Works, the Superintendent of the latter Company, in his telegram to the Council on Thursday evening, was enabled to let himself down easily from the position of hostility to the town that it pleased him to take for his Company.

Were it not for the manifestly unfair insinuation contained in that telegram, that the G. T. R. Company contemplated interfering with the property of the C. P. R. it would not be necessary or desirable to prolong for a moment, what, for want of a better term, we may call a tempest in a teapot.

Those gentlemen of the Council, who have at exceeding trouble to themselves been dealing with these siding questions, will know that the G. T. R. Company have never assumed to act other than in a perfectly fair way when, in respect of the C. P. R. Company, that Company's interests came into question. No one in the employ of the G. T. R. Company ever dreamed of interfering with the siding of the C. P. R. Company, that Company was fully informed of everything that had transpired with reference to the sidings, and knew well that both lines were placed on an equal footing in respect to them.

Yours truly,
J. G. MACKLIN.

Peterborough, May 2nd.

A New Measure.

An ingenious device for measuring distances, and which will be likely to interest architects and builders, is an invention of an English firm. It consists of a small revolving wheel which operates a spindle, the revolutions being accurately registered by a dial counter. By running the distance wheel along a wall or other surface the recorder will show how many feet have been measured. There is practically no limit to the distance that may be determined by this little device.

Venus Wears Patches.

A bulletin of the Belgium Royal Academy of Sciences states that the dark spots that have been noticed by observers on Venus are of a permanent character. Observations have been made of successive rotations of this planet, and the facts demonstrate that after an interval of three years the spots were fixed enough to be recognized, and that the markings are not accidental, but are probably due to some configuration of the land, like those of the planet Mars. The atmosphere is so dense on Venus that the success of the recent observations were much interfered with.

Lake Superior to be Utilized.

Since the organization of a company to utilize the water power of Niagara Falls an Englishman has organized another company to employ the water power produced by the fall from Lake Superior at Sault Ste. Marie to Lake Huron. It is estimated that 276,000 horse-power are running away without an equivalent. It is proposed to build two canals—one on the Canadian side and the other on the United States side—the canals to be five miles long and 1000 feet wide. It is expected that sufficient power will be obtained from these expensive races to furnish innumerable industries.

Hot Water Cures.

There are but few cases of illness where water should not occupy the highest place as a medical agent. A strip of flannel or a napkin wrung out of hot water, and applied around the neck of a child that has croup, will usually bring relief in ten minutes. A towel folded several times and quickly wrung out of hot water, and applied over the seat of pain in toothache or neuralgia, will generally afford prompt relief. The treatment in colic works like magic. We have known cases that have resisted other treatment for hours yield to this in ten minutes. There is nothing that will so promptly cut sore throat or rheumatism as hot water when applied promptly and thoroughly.

Pieces of cotton batting dipped in hot water and kept applied to sores and new cuts, bruises and sprains is the treatment adopted in many hospitals. Sprained ankles have been cured in an hour by showering with hot water, poured from the height of a few feet.

Working Power of Niagara.

According to Herr Japing the hourly rate of water falling over Niagara Falls is 100,000,000 tons, representing 16,000,000 horse-power, and the total daily production of coal in the world would ust about suffice to pump the water back again.—Boston Globe.

Vary the Food.

The policy of feeding any animal only one kind of food is a great mistake. It is not possible for them to thrive thus, nor is this their natural way of feeding. Observe a cow or horse at pasture. If there is any variety in the succulent herbage, they avail themselves of it. Even weeds are not disdained between mouthfuls of clover and grass. In the barnyard in winter a little bright straw will be greedily eaten by animals whose usual diet is hay. People in cities who keep a horse or cow, and have to buy everything they feed, are most apt to restrict animals, and with least excuse. By using a little forethought they can secure a variety of feed, and all will then be eaten, with less waste than is the case where only one kind at a time is given. Appetite fails from lack of variety in horses and cows, as it does in men.

Vegetables for Farmers.

The following list of vegetables are recommended by the Illinois horticultural society for every farmer to plant: Peas, bush and lima beans, onions, sweet corn, cucumbers, radishes, beets, lettuce, cabbages, tomatoes, asparagus, salsify, horse radish, melons and rhubarb. To make a first-class garden we would add to this egg plant, summer and winter squashes, pumpkins, turnips, cauliflower, celery, spinach, peppers, carrots, endive, parsnips and not forgetting potatoes. This seems like a big list and it will take maybe an acre of ground for it all, but it will give a family half their living and better than any money can buy. No one acre on the farm will pay more money or give more health and happiness than an acre devoted to a good garden.

Are You Ready?

Are you ready for spring? How about that hot-bed? Got all your seeds? Sent in your order for trees, or are you going to "wait until the last gun is fired?" Is your barnyard making you poor (by leaching) or benefiting you? Are your buildings and stock insured? Isn't it better to pay a small fee and let thousands join in bearing your risk than to take it alone? By and by, not very far in the future either, spring will open and the busy time begin. Are you all ready for the grand rush? Don't get behind this spring [illegible] of your neighbors did last

BUY A HOME!

Stop Paying Rent! Be Your Own Landlord!

We Offer For Sale by Public Auction on

MONDAY, 11th MAY, 1891, at 3 p. m., ON THE GROUND.

Lots on Romaine-st. Each lot is 33ft. by 220ft. Soil high and dry, sandy loam. 10 minutes walk from the Edison Works, Peter Hamilton Works, the Carbon Works and the Bridge Works. The new Electric Car Line will touch this street and George and Aylmer-sts. will be opened through to the Fair ground.

To secure a respectable street the deeds will contain a clause compelling the purchasers when they build to erect a uniform distance from the front, and that the houses when built shall not cost less than $600. These lots are double the depth of the ordinary town lot and are fine for gardening. This is the finest property in the market and one which will afford the best building lots to be had at low prices. These are only lots left on the south side of the street. Lots in the neighborhood half the depth sell at $8 to $10 per foot frontage, while these lots are 220ft. deep and will be sold for what they will bring. These lots while sufficiently near the great factories, are close to George-st. and being off the muck are clean and healthy.

Ten years will be given for payment. $5.00 on the $100 down; $5.00 on the $100, in one month; $10 on the $100 in 3 months, then a free deed will be given and mortgage taken back for the remainder of the purchase money, payable in 9 equal annual payments with interest at 6 per cent. Five per cent. discount will be allowed for cash. For further particulars apply to

ONE FIRE WITH ECZEMA

Terrible Sufferings of Little Baby. Seven Doctors and Two Hospitals Fail. Cured by Cuticura.

My baby boy, 5 months old, broke out with eczema. The itching and burning was intense; the eczema spread to his limbs, breast, face and head, until he was nearly covered; his torturing agonies were pitiable to behold; he had no peace and but little rest night or day. He was under treatment at different times at two hospitals and by seven doctors in this city without the least benefit; every prescription of the doctors was faithfully tried, but he grew worse all the time. For months I expended about $8 per week for medicines, and was entirely discouraged. I purchased CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT and followed the directions to the letter. Relief was immediate, his sufferings were eased, and rest and sleep permitted. He steadily improved and in nine weeks time was entirely cured, and has now as clear a skin and is as fair a boy as any mother could wish to see. I recommend every mother to use it for every Baby Humor.

SEVENTH PARLIAMENT.

DEBATE ON THE ADDRESS IN REPLY TO THE SPEECH.

Pen and Ink Sketches of Some of the Members—A Gay Scene in the Chamber—The House Sits Until Nearly Midnight.

OTTAWA, May 1.—May-day was a glorious one as far as the Capital was concerned. The weather was bright, warm and invigorating with a short downfall of rain in the afternoon. The real business of Parliament also opened auspiciously.

The House was well filled. Sir John was as racy as ever and wore a lily in his lappel. Mr. Laurier brought out another of his pattern waistcoats in honor of the occasion. Prefontaine of the Hyacinthine Locks picked his teeth with a pocketknife, Dr. Montague trotted out a white plug of ancient lineage and the whole brood of members seemed to look at the affair as a kind of national circus.

After the formalities of the day, Sir John turned round and, looking at a handsome young man three seats behind him, said audibly, "Go on." Amid the plaudits of both sides, Mr. Hazen of St. John, N.B., arose. He is a little over 30. He was dressed in black clothes, small black tie and gold shirtstuds. His features are pleasing and his forehead a noble one. His voice is strong and youthful and he knows how to use the rising inflection, so [illegible] in those who aspire to Parliamentary elocution.

The House met at 3 o'clock promptly. A large number of petitions were presented, including several in favor of prohibition and better observance of the Lord's Day.

The Address in Reply to the Speech.

Mr. Hazen rose at 3.25 to move the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne and was greeted with hearty applause. After asking the indulgence of the House, he proceeded in a pleasant manner to discuss the speech, clause by clause, prefacing his remarks with the statement that in a young and vigorous country like this it was well that legislation should be progressive. He referred to the visit of the tenant farmers last year, and thought that the effect of the spreading of of this report will do more good than the efforts of a hundred immigration agents and would no doubt assist materially in the development of the Northwest. He read a short extract from one of the reports and in glowing terms dwelt on the glorious future of the Northwest. Mr. Hazen approved of the policy outlined in the speech with reference to the proposed conference to Washington, and while advocating a reciprocity treaty on the lines of the old treaty strongly deprecated any approach to annexation or any policy which would tend to loosen the bonds which bind us to the Mother Country. In touching on the renewal of the modus vivendi, he called attention to the destructive manner of herring fishing in some parts of the Maritime Provinces, where small herring were caught in great quantities to be packed as sardines.

Mr. Corbould followed in a speech of ten minutes' duration, in which he touched on some of the points in the speech, except in British Columbia caused some amusement by stating that out of the six members returned from that province two were elected by acclamation to support the Government. In three cases the Opposition candidates lost their deposits, and in the sixth case two supporters of the Government ran against each other.

Mr. Laurier, after paying the usual compliments to the mover and seconder, referred to the omission of any statement as to the cause of the dissolution of Parliament. He pointed out that no intimation was made of any intention of repealing the election law and nothing was said about Atlantic mails. He said he was confident that if Sir John would repeal the Gerrymander Act, revise the voters' list and try the election over again the Opposition would win.

Sir John Macdonald speaking with respect to the mails being carried by way of New York contended that for some time past the Canadian service had been so inadequate that two-thirds of the mails from Canada went by way of New York before the expiration of the contract with the Allans. The Government had made every effort to secure an efficient service, but so far had not been successful. He hoped, however, very soon to be able to announce that a satisfactory arrangement had been made which would give a first-class service to the St. Lawrence in summer and Halifax in winter. (Applause.) He (Sir John) denied that the Government was in a minority in Ontario, and said that if some friends had fallen in battle most of them would have a glorious resurrection. He touched on the question of negotiation with the United States, and said that the Government had taken advantage of an opportunity to have a friendly discussion and he anticipated satisfactory results.

Sir Cartwright followed and spoke up to 6 o'clock.

Free Education in England.

LONDON, May 1.—The leading proposals of the Government's free education measure are gradually leaking out. They confirm the Liberal expectations that it will be a Tory clerical measure against which the party will fight to the death. The ministers' privately assure their supporters that the bill will tend to strengthen the position of the denominational schools. The anxiety of English Church circles has been set at rest by communications through the Bishop of London and other clerical leaders, that an understanding has been arranged with the Government which preserves intact vested interests of the church. Similar assurances have also been given privately to Catholic bishops. This understanding is producing a strong clerico-political combination against which the Liberals, who are working for the popular control of public money given to the schools, will find it hard to contend. In spite of growing opposition, the Ministerialists profess to believe they will carry the bill through the House of Commons within a fortnight after it is introduced. Many Liberal Unionists and numerous Conservatives insist that the Government will commit a grave tactical mistake if they postpone the general election until next year. The Tory Provincial election agents urgently appeal to the Minister to dissolve without delay.

Save Your Hair

BY a timely use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. This preparation has no equal as a dressing. It keeps the scalp clean, cool, and healthy, and preserves the color, fullness, and beauty of the hair.

"I was rapidly becoming bald and gray; but after using two or three bottles of Ayer's Hair Vigor my hair grew thick and glossy and the original color was restored."—Melvin Aldrich, Canaan Centre, N. H.

"Some time ago I lost all my hair in consequence of measles. After due waiting, no new growth appeared. I then used Ayer's Hair Vigor and my hair grew

Thick and Strong.

It has apparently come to stay. The Vigor is evidently a great aid to nature."—J. B. Williams, Floresville, Texas.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for the past four or five years and find it a most satisfactory dressing for the hair. It is all I could desire, being harmless, causing the hair to retain its natural color, and requiring but a small quantity to render the hair easy to arrange."—Mrs. M. A. Bailey, 9 Charles street, Haverhill, Mass.

"I have been using Ayer's Hair Vigor for several years, and believe that it has caused my hair to retain its natural color."—Mrs. H. J. King, Dealer in Dry Goods, &c., Bishopville, Md.

TORONTO TRUTH'S

New Spring Bible Competition

No. 22.

In these latter days there have arisen many false schemes and many scores of imitations of TRUTH'S Competitions, but one after another have failed and utterly perished, yet TRUTH remains, and makes good all its promises. Its reputation is now too well established to risk damaging it, and as it has cost a very large amount of money and many years of care and labor to build up, the publisher could not afford to fail in carrying out all his agreements to the letter. There are twenty-one divisions of the largest list of bona fide prizes ever offered and ever actually given away by any publisher in the world. The total value of prizes in this Spring list is about $10,000 00. The lists are so large it would cost altogether too much to give them in detail here. There are pianos, gold and silver watches, china tea and dinner sets, ladies' and gentlemen's bicycles, silver tea sets, silk dresses, books, money, and hundreds of other valuable rewards. You pay nothing for these prizes, as everyone concedes that full value is received for the dollar in securing TRUTH every week for three months. Send one dollar and answers to the five following questions. Where in the Bible are these words first found: 1, GRAIN; 2, CORN; 3, WHEAT; 4, BARLEY; 5, RYE. If your answers are correct and your letters arrive in time you are almost sure to get a reward, as there are so many and everyone cannot always find correct answers to all these questions. All the five answers must be correct to get any prize, but you will get full value for the dollar in TRUTH if you don't get anything else. If you want to see the list of rewards before sending in your dollar, mail TRUTH ten cents and a copy will be sent you containing the list of prizes. But there have been very few dissatisfied prize-winners in previous competitions, considering that he has given away during the past eight years scores of thousands of prizes. Some people expect a piano for every dollar sent, and are mad if they don't get it. He wishes it were possible to give every subscriber a gold watch or a piano or both, but says it can't be done. Some publishers intimate they will, but nobody can do it for any length of time. Send one dollar and correct answers and you wont repent it; and bear in mind that it is not guaranteed that everybody whose answers are correct will get a prize, but that all the prizes in the twenty-one different lists will be given away. The competition remains open only until the last day of June next, inclusive, after which the prizes will be immediately distributed to the successful ones. Ten days will be allowed for letters to reach TRUTH from distant points after the 30th June. All, however, must be postmarked where mailed not later than 30th June, or any time between now and that date. Address S. Frank Wilson, "Truth" Office, Toronto, Ont., Canada.

Burdock BLOOD BITTERS

BANISHES BAD BLOOD.

Bad Blood is responsible for all the Boils, Blotches, Pimples, Eruptions, Skin Diseases, Humors and Disfiguring Rashes that are so prevalent, especially in spring. There is a NATURAL FOE TO BAD BLOOD called Burdock Blood Bitters which always conquers, never fails and is recommended by thousands. It searches out and removes all impurities from the smallest pimple to the worst scrofulous sore. In Scrofula, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Shingles, Tetter, etc., its effects are wonderful.

WHAT THEY SAY.

Two of my children had large sores on their bodies caused by poorness of the blood. They were completely cured by one bottle of B. B. B. MRS. J. PIKEL, London East, Ont.

About a year ago I got a running abscess on my neck which made me very weak. B. B. B. cured it and I am strong again. MRS. GEO. LEDINGHAM, Montefiore, Man.

B B B

A Faithful Friend.

SIRS,—I have great faith in your Burdock Blood Bitters, and can recommend it for most anything. Two years ago I was troubled with an ulcer on my ankle; having used B. B. B. for bad blood I procured a bottle, and a box of Burdock Healing Ointment; after using three bottles and three boxes I was completely cured and can recommend it everywhere. Yours truly, MRS. WM. V. BOYD, Brantford, Ont.

YOUNG'S POINT.

The Improved Mary Ellen—The Water Lower—Other Interesting Items.

Correspondence of the Review.

A TRIAL TRIP.—On Saturday afternoon last Mr. P. P. Young, proprietor of the steamer Mary Ellen, invited a number of the residents of this place, including your correspondent, to a trip as far as Burleigh. The Mary Ellen has undergone extensive repairs by Mr. McGregor, of this place. Her engine and boiler have been removed back, giving more room in the fore cabin for freight and luggage. Two large doors on each side have been added for the purpose of loading and unloading baggage, &c. The upper deck has been all covered in from stem to stern, and the smoke chimney has an outside sheeting of sheet iron, allowing a current of air to pass through, making it all the more comfortable for passengers. The speed is also considerably increased. Altogether the improvements have made her complete for comfort, and we predict for her a prosperous season. Captain W. Scollard will be master of her again, and all the other old hands will be to the fore also.

NURSERY STOCK.—Mr. B. F. Campbell, of Rochester, when here last summer took a large number of orders around this section for all kinds of fruit trees and shrubs, and on Monday last the stock arrived here for delivery by Mr. McFarlane, his old agent. They were a fine lot of nursery stock and a credit to the shipper. Mr. Campbell will double his orders when he comes along this summer.

THE HIGH WATER.—The water is now getting a little lower. It has not been so high for seven years. The last of the ice went out of Clear Lake on Thursday, the 23rd.

STONY LAKE.—Owing to the extremely high water this spring some of the cottages on the islands had a narrow escape from floating towards Peterborough, but the danger is now over for a season.

LOG DRIVING.—Mr. C. Young sent a gang of men on Monday last to gather all his logs into booms, which will be towed to the mills here by the steamer Mary Ellen.

BUCKHORN HOUSE.—Owing to the large trade done last season with Americans and others from a distance, the genial proprietor of the above hotel, Tom Eastwood, is going to have ten more bedrooms added, also the dining room enlarged and other improvements for the comfort of his guests. Buckhorn is getting to be quite a summer resort and Tom is always found at his post.

THE NORTH SMITH ROAD.—As your correspondent was kindly invited some time ago by letter to pass an impartial comment on this new piece of road from McKee's Corners, built by Mr. S. Nicholls, I do so with great pleasure. It really is a well built piece of road work, and for which our old friend deserves credit. No doubt the icy nature of the roads last winter made my informant jump at conclusions rather hastily. This summer's traffic will widen the road considerably and enable him and others to travel over it next winter without upsetting. It was at one time a very bad, crooked road and now it is as straight as an arrow and level.

BENSFORT BRIEFS.

Sudden Death of a Young Lady—The Sunday School Hall to be Enlarged.

Correspondence of the Review.

SPRING WORK.—Spring seeding is going on rapidly, the land being in fine condition for working. The farmers are further on with their work than they have been for many years at the same date.

WHEAT AND CLOVER.—The clover has come out splendid this spring and promises well, but the fall wheat has not been so fortunate, being badly smothered out by the ice laying on it during the winter.

HIGH WATER.—The water in the river and lake is very high this season, flooding quite a lot of land on the shores. Now is the time for the boys to keep a sharp eye on the fish inspector.

WILL BUILD.—Mr. James Wedleck is preparing to erect a brick residence at his landing during the summer.

THE UNION SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The committee of the Bensfort Union Sunday School have decided to enlarge their hall. The membership of the school is constantly increasing and the hall, as at present, is too small for comfort.

MEASLES.—There are several cases of measles in the neighborhood.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We have to notice this week the very sudden death of Miss Theresa Thompson, eldest daughter of Mr. F. Thompson, which took place last Sunday morning after a few hours illness. The news of her death caused quite a shock in the neighborhood, as she was a general favorite with her companions and highly respected by her many friends. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to the Methodist cemetery and was very largely attended.

SOUTH HARVEY.

Correspondence of the Review.

NEW CHEESE FACTORY.—A new cheese factory has been established a mile and a half south of Lakehurst by Mr. W. H. Merrill, and it begins with 42 patrons and 250 cows. The building is 20x30 feet and two storeys high. The first floor is devoted to the making and the second to the curing of the cheese. The machinery in the building is all new, and under Mr. Merrill's experienced management the product will be of the best quality. At a recent meeting of the patrons the following officers were appointed: Salesman, Mr. Alex. Thompson; Secretary Treasurer, Mr. Wm. Weir; Milk Committee, Messrs. Alex. Thompson, Wm. Weir and W. H. Merrill; Committee of Management, Messrs. Alex. Thompson, Wm. Weir, A. G. Shearer, George Portsmouth, John Smith and W. H. Merrill. A liberal offer has been made to the people living on the Government road for milk delivered at the factory. This is the first cheese factory established in the township, and with the good and rich grazing land that there is in this district the industry should be a profitable one for the patrons and will grow. It is expected that the factory will be opened on May 4th.

The lodge meets on Friday of each week.

Shocking Death of a Crimean Hero.

CARDIFF, May 1.—A shocking discovery was made in a quarry at Llanishen, near Cardiff. A policeman found the body of a man named Moses Williams shot through the heart and mouth, and by his side was a revolver containing three undischarged chambers. The deceased was well-known, and had taken part in the charge of the Light Brigade in the Crimean War. He had been employed by the Taff Vale Railway Company for 23 years.

Lives Lost in New York By an Explosion in a Fireworks Factory.

NEW YORK, May 1.—The fireworks factory of George Kramer at 902 Union-avenue caught fire this afternoon from an explosion of powder. These employes were burned to death: Lizzie Hammond, 19 years old; Mamie Lynch and Jennie Headley, each 17 years. George Florence, 40 years old, and Lottie Horn, 14 years old, were severely burned. The damage amounted to only $8000.

REMEMBER THIS IT'S IMPORTANT!

One tablet of "Sunlight" Soap will do more washing than two tablets of ordinary laundry soap
It will make your cloth s-whiter,
It will not injure the most delicate lace.
It will not shrink flannels or woollens.
It will enable you to do the washing easily, without boiling the clothes or using washing powders.
It will cut down the labor of wash-day tremendously.
Millions of women use the "Sunlight." If you don't, you are missing a wonderful household comfort.

BUY NOW IF AT ALL.

EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Erin property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighborhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

ATTRACTIONS IN DRY GOODS
At TURNBULL'S.

The change in the weather has brought with it a great demand for millinery; also for spring shades in dress goods. Our store was never more attractive in these lines than at present. We have every New Shade of Dress Goods in Stock, with Millinery to match. If you are in town this week have a look at our Gray Dress Goods and Millinery window. Large Gray Checks for young people made up alone or mixed with Black, Small Black and White Checks and Stripes. Broken patterns for older people, goods that are hard to find in Neat Patterns. We justly claim to take the lead in our Tailoring department for Quality of Goods, Fit and Price. We get up a Splendid Suit in Halifax Tweed or Navy Serge for $12.00. Fine grades of Almento and other makes of Tweed for $13.00, $14.00, $15.00 and $16.00; Scotch Tweeds and Serges from $16.00 to $20.00 for the best. Fine All Wool Worsted, Venetian Finish or Diagonal Cords for Coat and Vest, with Black or Fancy Panting to match, at from $19.00 to $22.00 a suit. Remember our prices. Call and see our Stock and do not go and pay a great deal higher figure through force of habit. We have added this week to our already Attractive Stock of Boys' Clothing another shipment just turned out of the manufacturer's hands, Neat and New Styles. We have shown an Immense Range of Patterns in Cottonades and Shirtings in the Best Quality; we also keep all the lower lines, beginning at 5c. a yard for Shirtings and 12½c. for Cottonades.

We have an opening now for an apprentice in the Millinery department. Apply until Saturday.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE.

THE BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE COMPLETED.

Neither Mr. Mowat Nor Mr. Meredith will Accept the Sums Voted to Them by the House—Wind-up of the Session

TORONTO, May 4.—In the Ontario Legislature on Saturday morning Mr. Mowat said, with respect to the proposal to increase his salary from $5000 to $7000, that he was very grateful for the kind words that had been said regarding him and his work. An increase would be a relief and and very acceptable. But there had been no discussion of the matter either in the press or among the members generally. Having given the matter careful consideration he felt compelled to decline, for this session, the proposed increased remuneration.

Mr. Meredith, after expressing his gratitude for the kind words used regarding him, said that he, too, must decline the proposed increase to his sessional allowance from $800 to $2000 for his services as leader of the Opposition. He believed such a course was without precedent and would be unconstitutional. The proposal to increase the salary of the Attorney-General was of another character and he thoroughly approved of it. With regard to the indemnity allowed the members it must be remembered that it was only the members themselves who could settle it. It was always a difficult matter for them to discuss what remuneration they should receive. The first thing to be done was to decide what was a fair remuneration and then place it on record in the statutes so that the unfortunate occurrence of the evening before might not recur. The last time an increase was made in the indemnity it was made behind closed doors, after a round robin had been passed around. The feeling of the country then was not so much against the increase as the way it was brought about. He felt it would be his duty to defend, under all circumstances, the mover and seconder (Messrs. Sol White and Field) of the resolution to increase the indemnity, for having the courage of their convictions. He again expressed the hope that the Government would consider the matter and bring in a resolution regarding indemnity next session and have it placed on the statute book so that there might not be a repetition of the unfortunate occurrences of the evening before.

Mr. Guthrie, as mover of the resolution to increase the salary of the Attorney-General, said he regretted the decision that had been reached, but not the action taken. It was a simple act of justice. With regard to the leader of the Opposition, if there was no precedent for giving him an extra allowance it was time they made a precedent.

Prorogation will take place this afternoon at 3.

Fire at Simcoe.

SIMCOE, May 3.—Saturday afternoon the farm residence known as Brookville House, situated about one mile east of Simcoe, owned by Dr. C. H. Coverston of Toronto and occupied by Mr. R. Downing, was consumed by fire together with three barns and contents. With much difficulty the horses and cattle were rescued, but the farming utensils, hay and a quantity of grain were consumed. The fire caught from a pile of rubbish. No insurance.

FOR AN EIGHT-HOUR DAY

MONSTER MASS MEETING IN HYDE PARK, LONDON.

Between 200,000 and 300,000 Persons Attend and Pass Resolutions in Favor of an Eight-Hour Day—Similar Meetings in Dublin, Berlin and Elsewhere.

LONDON, May 3.—The attendance at the labor meeting in Hyde Park to-day is variously estimated at from 200,000 to 300,000. The procession in connection with the meeting included workers at all the trades and was miles long. Its route was by way of Westminster, Victoria Strand, Grosvenor-place. It was interspersed with bands and many banners were carried. Traffic along the line of march was blocked for several hours. John Burns, Thomas Mann, the president of the Dockers' Union, Benjamin Tillett, the Avelings and Mr. Graham, the Socialist member of parliament, were among the speakers, who were assigned to 12 different platforms which had been erected in the park; an identical resolution in favor of a compulsory labor day of eight hours was moved on all platforms.

From various despatches it is ascertained that in general quiet prevailed in continental centres to-day. A number of labor meetings were held in Berlin and resolutions were passed favoring the compulsory eight hour labor day. They were conducted in an orderly manner.

The city was guarded by mounted infantry.

DUBLIN, May 3.—Ten thousand workmen of this city to-day marched in procession to Phoenix Park, where they held a meeting at which a resolution demanding a workday of eight hours was passed.

ROME, May 3.—The galleries of the Chamber of Deputies were crowded to-day with people who had come to listen to the debate on the labor troubles. After an animated discussion the debate was adjourned. The indications are that the Government will secure a majority on the question, as many Radicals are supporting Sig. Nicotera, the Minister of the Interior, in his action in the matter.

BERLIN, May 3.—The German Socialist meetings to-day were all thinly attended and not the slightest interest was displayed. The people were intent on enjoyment and it was evident that the movement is losing its vitality.

The principal towns of Germany, Holland and Switzerland were to-day the scenes of demonstrations of workmen in favor of an 8-hour law. In Hamburg 30,000 persons, a tenth of whom were the wives and sweethearts of the workmen, paraded through the suburb of Horn, delegates from the workmen societies keeping excellent order. In the line were many bands and banners and a number of chorals. After a short meeting in the public park, at which appropriate resolutions were adopted, the crowd dispersed and devoted the remainder of the day to music and dancing. No disorder was reported anywhere.

In the Belgian mining districts disorder still prevails and many telephone wires have been cut and windows smashed. Meetings were held at Liege, Seraing and other places to denounce the action of the Brussels labor union, which sent delegates to various centres to delay or prevent strikes. At these meetings it was decided to disregard the advice of the union and commence a strike to-morrow. A general siege has been proclaimed in the villages around Liege.

VIENNA, May 3.—Fifteen thousand weavers at Bilitz and 2000 employes at Pesth have been dismissed for being absent from work May day.

PARIS, May 3.—Further particulars received here in regard to the labor riot at Fourmies show that early last night a mob of about 1200 people carrying sticks and armed with revolvers surrounded the gendarme, crying: "Down with the masters!" "We want our brethren!" This last cry referred to the men arrested early in the day for intimidating the men who had refused to go out on strike. The mob attacked the Town Hall. The gendarmes fired their revolvers in the air in order to frighten the rioters, but without effect. The troops with fixed bayonets then charged the mob and drove it away from the immediate neighborhood of the town hall. The crowd, however, after being driven backward, retaliated by firing volleys of bricks and pieces of paving stones at the troops, frequently striking the soldiers. The mob subsequently reappeared with increased numbers and made an attack upon the gendarmes. A fierce conflict took place in the rear of a church.

A regiment of infantry was then summoned and an exciting time followed, the crowd fighting hand-to-hand with the police and soldiery. Finally upon the rioters persisting in their refusal to retire, the soldiers fired, killing three persons outright and wounding a number of others. The soldiers, in order to avoid the taking of life, fired low, with the result that many legs of the rioters have been amputated. After this severe lesson the mob fled. Four of the rioters wounded last night have died.

The fact that six women, several children and eight men were killed on the spot, while 30 were seriously wounded, several fatally, gives the affair the character of a massacre. The soldiers were merely exposed to stone-throwing, but they replied with successive volleys from their new Lebel rifles, inflicting frightful wounds on their victims. The houses exposed to the fire were riddled and there is every sign that reckless and wanton inhumanity was shown by the troops. The local popular commotion is intense and it finds a response in the growing excitement in every working centre. Fourmies to-night is practically in a state of siege. Cavalry patrol the streets and are everywhere greeted with yells of reprobation from excited groups of men and women.

It is learned that the sub-prefect of Fourmies ordered the firing on the crowd. It would have been still worse had not the Mayor risked his life and rushed between the combatants and implored them to stop fighting. This is the first time that the Lebel rifle had been used against human beings.

THE CORK KILLED HIM.

The Peculiar Death of a New York Physician.

NEW YORK, May 3.—After two weeks of unparalleled suffering the Rev. Dr. George W. Bothwell died at the Brooklyn hospital to-night. The accident which resulted in his death was the inhaling of a cork into the bronchial tube. He had removed a cork from a bottle and was holding it in his teeth. The antics of a child amused him and he commenced to laugh when the cork slipped down his throat. Several surgical operations and all that medical skill could do failed to relieve the sufferer.

Deserted Her Babe.

HAMILTON, May 3.—About midnight last night Mrs. Birely, 111 Charles-street, heard a baby crying. Going downstairs she found a baby six weeks old lying in a basket on the doorstep. Mrs. Birely brought the infant into the house and took care of it.

FOREIGN MONEY MARKETS.

An Order Issued for the Winding Up of the Anglo-Austrian Printing Co.

LONDON, May 4.—Discount was firm during the past week at 3¼ per cent. for 3 months and 3⅜ for short. During the settlement on the Stock Exchange there was a strong demand for loans, the average rate being 4 per cent. The foreign drain of gold has ceased, and an influx of bullion is expected which promises to ease the money market. On the Stock Exchange there was a holiday after Thursday. The opening of the week was devoted to the settlement, after which business was restricted. The investment business was on the highest scale since last autumn, which further strengthened values.

A sensation has been caused by disclosures arising from the petition for the wind-up of the Anglo-Austrian Printing Company. Evapoch Hansard was its promoter and Managing Director Bottomley of Hansard's Union, now a bankrupt, received £35,300 out of £33,029 received from shareholders as part of the price of business he was supposed to have acquired in Austria. In addition Bottomley asked for a total purchase money of £30,000. Sir Horace Davey in applying for an order for the compulsory wind-up of the Anglo-Austrian Company, declared that Bottomley had never any business of any sort in Austria to sell. The directorate of the concern, of which the recent Lord Mayor Isaacs is chairman, in September declared a dividend of 15 per cent., although the company never possessed any business. Bottomley and the directors within a single year divided among themselves the whole share capital subscribed. An enquiry being threatened they formed a committee, which appointed a liquidator controlled by the directorate. The judge before whom the petition was made has ordered a compulsory winding-up of the company's affairs and has dismissed the liquidator. A crop of prosecutions, arising from the affair, is impending.

At Paris on the Bourse during the week business was dull and the tendency was distinctly weak. Adverse rumors continue, affecting several joint stock concerns.

Ottawa Gossip.

OTTAWA, May 4.—George Sanfield Macdonald will oppose Rory Macleanan in Glengarry in the event of the seat being thrown open.

The session is opening inauspiciously for the members. Sir Adolph Caron was taken suddenly ill at the state dinner on Thursday night and has been confined to his house since, but is expected to be out to-morrow. Laurier and Livingston are both said to be suffering from slight indispositions to-day, but nothing serious. The most severe illness so far is that of Senator Haythorne, who is laid up at the Grand Union with a severe attack of inflammation of the lungs, and whose recovery is considered doubtful. It appears that he had been suffering from a severe cold for some days and on Thursday night took a warm bath, which so weakened him that on returning to his room he fell exhausted on the floor, unable to gain the bed or reach the bell to ring for assistance. He managed to get hold of some of the bedclothes and pulled them over him, but laid helpless for hours and got so severely chilled that inflammation of the lungs set in and he is in a very precarious condition, although reported to be a little easier to-night.

A deputation of Montreal steamship owners and agents, consisting of Messrs. J. Allan, Allan Line; D. Torrance, Dominion Line; R. Reford, Reford Line, and J. Thom, Beaver Line, had an interview yesterday with the Ministers of Marine and Agriculture with reference to the new regulations for shipment of cattle. Heretofore the space allowed for each animal has been 2 feet 6 inches, but as the result of the recent investigation the bill which the Government proposes introducing will increase this to two feet eight inches. The shippers are anxious that this regulation should be put into force this year, but the vessel owners object. It is understood that the Government agreed not to enforce the regulations until the bill has been passed. The shipping season begins to-morrow. It is expected that a big deputation of shippers will be here to-morrow or next day to urge the Government to change the regulations at once.

Mr. Quinn says the main reason for taking this step is the refusal of Mr. Parnell to consent to release the Paris fund in order that the money might be devoted to the use of the evicted tenants.

Drowned in a Cistern.

MILLGROVE, Ont., May 3.—A child belonging to Robert Langton, jr., farmer, was playing about the yard and was not missed for a couple of hours. A search was instituted and the child was found at the bottom of the cistern.

MURDERED THE NOTARY.

A FASCINATING WIDOW CONVICTED OF MURDER.

Ill-Treatment of a Sea Captain—A Socialist Shoots Two Gendarmes and Then Hangs Himself—Foreign Money Markets—General News of Europe.

PARIS, May 3.—The trial at Moulins of Mme. Achet, a young and beautiful widow, for the murder of a notary named Lepine has filled the court daily with a crowd of intensely interested spectators. There was a conflict of testimony in the case, and the prosecution failed to prove that the woman had accomplices, but it was shown beyond a doubt that she murdered Lepine in order to rid herself of a creditor.

Mme. Achet, while confessing the killing, said that she had acted in self-defence, Lepine having attempted to assault her. The court imposed a sentence of 12 years at hard labor upon the prisoner and ordered her to pay the sum of 2000 francs to the relatives of her victim.

The body of Lepine was found in the highway near Mme. Achet's house. He had been shot and then his throat had been cut. Suspicion fell upon Mme. Achet and she was arrested. To-day she confessed that she committed the crime in self-defence. She said that she had had transactions with Lepine, but was not intimate with him; that he came late one night and tried to assault her; that a desperate struggle ensued, in which she shot him with a revolver, and that she then dragged the body into the road and cut Lepine's throat to make it appear that tramps had murdered him.

The prosecution declares that Mme. Achet inveigled Lepine to her house and compelled him to sign a receipt for 18,000 francs which she owed him. This document, written in a trembling hand, was found in her desk. A little son of Mme. Achet testified that he heard men's voices in addition to pistol shots. A neighbor said he saw the body carried out by men.

Australia Doesn't Want Hebrews.

LONDON, May 3.—The Adelaide correspondent of The Chronicle telegraphs that the proposed scheme of Baron Hirsch to transport Hebrews from Poland and the southeast of Europe to Australia is much commented upon by the Australians and that the colonies are strongly hostile against an influx of Russian Jews.

LONDON, May 3.—Sir John Sutton, in addressing a meeting of the Choveral Zion Association to-day, opposed the sending of Russian Jews to America. He said that he preferred the British colonies, which could easily absorb the whole Jewish population of the world. He had reason to believe that the Rothschild syndicate would withdraw their offer of a loan to Russia. It is believed that the Rothschilds authorized Sir John to make this statement.

Threats to Burn Their Quarter.

ATHENS, May 3.—A despatch from Zante, capital of the Ionian island of that name, brings news of a serious religious riot which has taken place there. To-day is observed by the Greek Christians as the Greek Good Friday, and part of the ceremonies of the day consisted of a procession of Christians, which marched through the principal streets. The processionists, however, were not contented with a peaceful demonstration. When they neared the quarter of Zante which is known as the Hebrew quarter the Christians practically besieged that section of the town.

In order to guard against just such an occurrence a cordon of soldiers had been drawn around the Hebrew quarter, and upon the refusal of the Christians to retire in peace the soldiers fired upon them, killing and wounding several people. The Christians, the despatch added, are now pillaging the houses of the Hebrews at Zante and threaten to burn the Jewish quarter of the town. It is supposed that disturbances at Zante have their origin in the disturbance which recently occurred at Corfu.

FIGHT FOR LIFE.

Two Men Shot to Death on a Midnight Train.

VIENNA, May 3.—A passenger traveling from Cracow to Lemberg in the night express train last night suddenly drew two revolvers and with one in each hand demanded of his three fellow travelers in the same carriage their money and valuables. A frightful struggle ensued in the narrow compartment. Although the men assailed were unarmed they fought to desperation. The ruffian used his revolvers with effect, killing two of the men in succession. The third passenger grappled closely with the assassin, who fired in vain, being unable to touch him. Having emptied all the chambers of his revolver the assassin tore himself from the grasp of his antagonist, burst open the car door and jumped from the train while it was going at full speed.

As soon as the alarm could be communicated to the engineer the train was stopped. In the compartment where the tragedy occurred the two passengers were found shot through and through, lying weltering in their blood on the floor. The cushions and lining had been torn up in the struggle, the glass was smashed and the walls were spattered with blood and penetrated with bullets. The survivor was barely able to tell the horrified passengers and guards what had happened.

The train was backed to the vicinity of the spot where it is supposed the assassin jumped out. A search was made but without avail. No trace of the miscreant could be discovered.

The English Naval Exhibition Opened.

LONDON, May 3.—The Naval Exhibition on the Chelsea Embankment was opened at noon yesterday with great ceremony. The Prince of Wales presided at the opening ceremonies. He wore the uniform of an admiral of the British navy. The entire passageway, an eighth of a mile long, leading to the spot from which the Prince of Wales was to declare the exhibition open, was lined by well-known naval and military officers, to the rear of whom a strong force of blue-jackets and marines presented arms as the royal party passed. The Prince and Princess of Wales were conducted to a dais, after which the Archbishop of Canterbury came forward and uttered a prayer for the success of the exhibition, the prosperity and peace of the country and the health of the royal family. The Prince of Wales then replied to the address of the officers of the exhibition, after which the Princess of Wales turned a tiny switch in front of a miniature model of the Eddystone Lighthouse. There was a flash from the top of the lighthouse, and the exhibition was formally declared to have been opened to the public.

The drivers on the Steinway & Hunter's Point street railway cars at Long Island City, N.J., struck yesterday.

Purify Your Blood

The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is heredited and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing more conclusively proven than the positive power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. Thousands testify to the superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. Full information and statements of cures sent free.

NORWOOD NEWS.

A Team of Horses Drowned—Preparing for the New High School.

Correspondence of the Review.

PERSONAL.—We regret to learn that the Rev. J. Carmichael is again ill, having had a relapse after the grip.

I. O. O. F.—An anniversary sermon was preached to the Oddfellow's of Norwood on Sunday by the Rev. John Gibson in the English church. Visiting brethren from Hastings were in attendance.

AN ACCIDENT.—Mr. Thos. Wigmore, a teacher and ex-pupil of the high school, accidently broke his leg on Saturday while playing football. Mr. Geo. Rose takes charge of his school during his absence.

A TEAM DROWNED.—On Thursday evening a team of horses standing untied at Birt's mill, being freightened by the express whistle, rushed headlong into the pond at the woollen mills and were drowned. They were the property of a farmer near Westwood and were valued at $300.

SCHOOL BOARD.—The Board of Education held a special meeting on Monday night to make arrangements for securing a site for the high school building on the submitting of a by-law to the ratepayers of the section.

BEING RENOVATED.—The Ladies Home Circle of the Presbyterian church are having the building inside thoroughly renovated. They have given the job to some artists of Hastings. The ladies are to be congratulated on the financial results of this society.

CRICKET.—Our village sports including some in the "sear and autumn leaf" are all enthusiastic over cricket this year. We are [illegible] this good old fashioned game is to be received again in Norwood. It is upwards of ten years since a game of cricket was played in our village.

CHAINED IN IRONS.

A German Captain's Tale of Ill-Treatment By His Crew.

LONDON, May 4.—Capt. Weiss of the German steamer Nestor jumped into the sea off Dover yesterday and swam to a passing smack, to the occupants of which he offered £300 to take him ashore. The offer was accepted, and he was landed at Dover. There he informed the German Consul that he had suffered from brain fever, that the crew of his steamer had kept him in irons until the vessel arrived in the channel, when they released him, but would not allow him on deck and that he bribed a cabin boy to facilitate his escape.

HE DID WELL.

A Dresden Socialist Shoots Three Gendarmes and Then Hangs Himself.

DRESDEN, May 3.—One of the money order postmen, who started with 20,000 marks in all for delivery, was proceeding on his rounds as usual yesterday. Having an order for a small amount for Herr Mehlert, a Socialist well known for his violent speeches, the postman entered his lodgings to pay it. As he opened the door Mehlert sprang from behind it and dealt him a blow with a hatchet which felled him to the floor. After a desperate struggle the postman escaped into the street and gave the alarm. A number of gendarmes were soon upon the spot and entered the house to seize the would-be assassin. Mehlert mounted to the garret, where he barricaded himself, and armed with a pistol, defied the officers to take him. Three of the latter were shot as they mounted the stairs and fell to the bottom seriously wounded. As the gendarmes were about to force an entrance through the windows Mehlert, seeing that he was sure to be captured, hanged himself to a rafter. When the gendarmes appeared on the scene life was found to be extinct.

TIRED OF LIFE.

A Wealthy Flamboro Farmer Commits Suicide While Deranged.

HAMILTON, May 3.—At daylight yesterday George Forbes, a wealthy young farmer of East Flamboro, left his house intending to feed his horses and prepare to visit the city. Subsequently his footprints were traced towards Brown's Pond, a shallow body of water three-quarters of a mile away, and the body of Mr. Forbes was lying near the shore in three feet of water. It was lying face downwards with the hands spread out as if he had fallen or thrown himself forward from the shore. Deceased was about 35 years of age and leaves a widow and three small children. He had a farm on the fourth concession near Waterdown. There is little doubt that he took his own life while suffering from melancholia. Last fall he had a severe illness and has never felt well since.

Drowned in Humphrey's Lake.

RENFREW, Ont., May 3.—M. Buffet and William Deacon went up to Humphrey's Lake, nine miles from Renfrew, on a fishing trip. While examining the nets they were overwhelmed by a wave and the boat upset. Deacon started to swim to shore, but sank and was drowned. Buffet clung to the boat and was tossed about by the waves for an hour, when he reached shore almost perished with cold and completely exhausted.

WAYS OF WOMEN FAIR.

FADS, FASHIONS AND FANCIES OF THE GENTLER SEX.

Value of Turkish Baths or Their Equivalent in Springtime—Women Who Are Making Their Mark in Unique Callings—The Latest Fashions.

Perhaps there is no time in the year when the Turkish bath is more beneficial in quickening the various processes of nature than in the spring, when they are most lethargic. One or two Turkish baths a week with a great deal of rest, will transform a most sallow complexion to freshness and color. But if, you haven't time for such heroic treatment, remember to wear always a veil in the street, and that the poisonous effect of the rough March breeze is more often due to the fine dust which it deposits in the pores than to its wild caresses. Every night this dust must be carefully removed with a soft flannel cloth, pure soap, and hot water, not by vigorous rubbing, but by long-continued exposure to the heat and steam of the water. Then any healing lotion may be used to take away the smarting sensation due to the soap. Glycerine with rose water is always a favorite remedy and harmless, though the too frequent use of glycerine alone is apt to darken the skin. If one could mortify their pride and eschew all cosmetics for a time it were well. If not, use only purely vegetable powders, of which rice powder is most healing and healthy, and be very careful to wash it entirely from your face before you lie down for the beauty sleep which is nature's own remedy.

It is related of the late Madame Sophie Kovalevsky, Professor of Mathematics at the University of Stockholm, that she gained her first familiarity with the terms of the science from reading, as a child, a lithographed course upon higher mathematics, with which the walls of her nursery were papered. She was admitted as a student at Heidelberg when only sixteen, having received her first instruction from her father, who was a Russian artillery general. Her early marriage to Professor Kovalevsky did not interrupt her studies. She was graduated a Ph. D. at Gottingen, and later took the Professorship of higher mathematics at Stockholm University. Here she lectured the first year in German, and afterward in Swedish, making Russian meanwhile the language of her published works.

The dear little cheats of girls have ferreted out a way of getting ahead of the fashions. It is the season for contracted skirts with little material in them, and no apparent clothing under them. The girls are well aware of this, and they also know that none of the pretty beruffled superfluities of former years can be worn underneath the simplicity of these tailor-made gowns. Yet one and all have declared that they can not and will not go unpetticoated. So she sews a flounce of lace about two inches below the knees and long enough to reach the hem of the skirt. This is highly satisfactory. There is the dress skirt beautifully elevated at just the right angle, and, hanging below it, the lace skirts in charming folds and poses.

The fashion of substituting small tables for the ordinary large dining table is gaining ground in English society. The Prince of Wales during a recent house party adopted the new arrangement with a marked increase in the general conversation. By a little thought on the part of the hostess in seating people whose interests are similar at the same table it would seem that the new arrangement might be more enjoyable than the old custom of carrying on conversation only with the people sitting beside you.

The Chicago women health inspectors are demonstrating the wisdom of their appointment by faithful service. There are five of these women employed at a salary of $1,000 a year, and empowered with police authority to enforce their [illegible]. They wear a badge of authority, a star, which is usually concealed until its exhibition is necessary in obstinate cases. Their special duty is, of course, the inspection of sanitary condition of the places where women and children are employed.

The Kansas girl seems to be the most wonderful product of the Union. She can play the piano, do the housework, teach school, drive racehorses, and hit the bull's-eye every time with a six-shooter. One of these all-round young women during one spring helped to plant 120 acres of corn, did the housework for a family of seven, went to ten dances, tried twice to elope, and taught the most interesting class in the village Sunday school.

A much-admired girl was overheard while carrying on the following brief conversation with a young man who was known to be desperately smitten with her charms. She was fondling her dog, who was walking by her side. "I wish I were your dog!" said he, giving the girl most rapturous glances. The girl looked at the dog and then at her adorer, and said with a patronizing air: "You'll grow!"

A novel method for quieting the nerves is that of pressing the finger on each side of the neck below the ear, thus constricting the blood-vessels which convey their load to the active brain; Another way is to knot a towel so that the knots compress those veins below the ear. Rest the head in an easy and comfortable position and sleep will soon visit you.

Be sure that your umbrella is unfurled before you leave the doorstep or car. It is exasperating to a woman to walk under a drizzly drip while her escort is fumbling with the shelter. When once the umbrella is raised hold it, not to the right nor to the left, nor to the front nor to the back, but directly over the hat of the woman.

A dainty personal gift is a likeness of one's self painted upon a coffee cup which is to adorn the bachelor quarters of one's best love. If painted by an artist who understands china painting the colors do not change in the firing, and the effect is as lovely as could be desired.

Miss Aston, a young girl who has been blind from babyhood, has just entered the Melbourne University at the age of seventeen. In spite of her infirmity, she passed creditably in algebra, arithmetic, Latin, French, and other branches.

There are 300 women preachers in the United States who have been ordained during the latter part of the present progressive century. Forty years ago only one woman had been ordained as the pioneer of the new movement.

The first American woman who ever entered a Chinese city was Mrs. Oscar, who has lately died. She circumnavigated the globe with her husband, a sea-captain, sixty years ago, and it was then that she visited China.

Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache and is the best Spring Medicine. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. and $1 a package.

A DISHONEST CLERK.

Systematic Pilfering in the Waterworks Office by Clerk William Murray.

HAMILTON, May 3.—About three weeks ago it was discovered that there were irregularities in the accounts of the waterworks. They were all traced to Clerk William Muarray. He had received cash for water rates and kept the money, failing to enter the amounts in the cash book, but entering them in the ledger so as to avoid discovery. His plan was to enter fictitious amounts in the cash book shortly before the examination of the auditors, in order to make the cash book and ledger correspond. This was rendered easy by the fact that no itemized comparison between the two books is made by the auditors, because of the vast number of accounts; only the totals are compared.

When charged with having filched the waterworks money Murray made a confession, but said he did not know what he had done with the money and could not make restitution. The exact amount of Murray's misappropriations is not known, but already his accounts are $1200 short and it is likely that the shortage will not be less than $1500. He has not as yet been arrested.

Peculiar Death of a Babe.

ATHENS, Ont., May 3.—Mr. and Mrs. James Kerr of Athens were horrified to find that their six months old babe, which was lying beside its mother, was dead. The little one had been in the best of health and was not even restless during the night and could not possibly have been smothered, as it was lying in its place in bed with features as composed as if in sleep.

Presbyterian Church Burned.

LEAMINGTON, Ont., May 3.—About one o'clock the Leamington Presbyterian Church with its contents was destroyed by fire. The fire was doubtless the work of an incendiary, as there has been no fire in the building since last Sunday. Loss, $3000; insurance, $1400. A new building will probably be commenced at once.

A Circus in a Blaze.

SING SING, May 3.—At 2 o'clock this morning a fire destroyed $10,000 worth of property and horses belonging to the Irwin Brothers' Railroad circus, which showed in Sing Sing yesterday. Five educated horses were burned to death and several more will probably have to be shot. Two trick donkeys also perished in the flames.

In the British Commons

LONDON, May 2.—In the House of Commons to-day Baron Henry de Worms said that the Government had not received a communication from the delegates expressing willingness to introduce into the Newfoundland Legislature a domestic coercive measure calculated to avoid the necessity of the passage of the Knutsford bill. Continuing, he said that the Government had no information as to the French authorities having offered any bounty for bait or to otherwise induce the Newfoundland fishermen to break the bait regulations. As to whether the purchase in St. Pierre-Miquelon, of bait illegally brought there would or would not constitute a breach of the declaration of 1783 was a matter of opinion.

Says He Will Beat the Detective Home.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 3.—B. P. Hutchinson started for Chicago to-day by himself. He drank considerable beer during the day, but did not appear to be intoxicated. He had been shown various telegrams from Chicago relative to himself and laughed heartily about one from a Chicago detective, who said he would be here to take him home. "I'll beat that fellow home," was his laconic reply.

Big Fire at Chatham.

CHATHAM, May 3.—About 1 o'clock yesterday a fire broke out in Northwood's elevator, spreading with great rapidity to Tighe & Stringer's produce warehouse, both situated on the bank of the river. Both buildings were destroyed. In the elevator were about 3500 bushels of wheat, the property of Richardson & Sons of Kingston and a quantity of oats; also two barley mills, which were uninsured. The insurance on the grain is unknown. The building was valued at from $15,000 to $16,000 and was insured for $6500. There was a large quantity of beans and some potatoes and peas in Messrs. Tighe & Stringer's warehouse, all of which were destroyed.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Visited Peterborough to Make it Complete.

The coach containing a number of round-the-world tourists who sailed from England on the Empress of India passed through Peterborough on Saturday night attached to the 5.30 train. The passengers who are encircling the globe, had a fast ride from the Pacific Coast across the continent, the fastest ever made so one of them stated, on this side of the Atlantic. The tourists were going to Toronto and Niagara before proceeding to New York.

The Police Were not Included.

On Saturday afternoon a man was making the air resound with his loud and boisterous language in the neighborhood of the Balmoral hotel. He was challenging the general public to a personal combat when Chief Roszel appeared. Then the man's Dutch courage failed him and he made a run for it, but the Chief caught him and locked him up. At the Police Court this morning he gave his name as James Brennan and was fined two dollars and costs or ten days. Having no money he took the days.

Sunday Selling Severely Dealt With.

At the Police Court this morning Mr. John Clancy was charged with selling liquor during prohibited hours. He pleaded guilty and was fined $80 and costs, this being his second offence. Inspector Cochrane paid an unexpected visit to Mr Clancy's bar-room between eight and nine o'clock last night and found several men in the bar drinking. The men made a rush out of the side door and escaped over the back fence, but Mr. Clancy had to pay dearly for their indulgence. He pleaded guilty and the Magistrate gave him the heaviest fine.

COBOURG'S RAILWAY PROJECT.

An Old C. & P. Railway Bonus—Could it be Transferred?

Cobourg sent a deputation to Toronto to interview the Government in regard to a bonus for the proposed C. N. & P. railway. One of the objects they had in view was to secure the transfer of a bonus granted to the C. P. & M. railway of $26,000 to aid in building the line to this town from Rice lake. This offer, it appears, still holds good, and by bridging the lake and continuing the railway to Peterborough the Grand Trunk would secure it. The Cobourg deputation was not successful, as appears from the following extract from the Sentinel Star's report of the Council meeting:—

Coun. McCallum reported on behalf of the delegates who interviewed the Mowat government, that they saw three members and presented the case of the town as strongly as it could be presented. They did not seem inclined to fix a time after which the Grand Trunk could not claim the bonus. They said they had done nothing towards railway appropriations, but were discussing that subject now, and if they decided to do anything ours was as much entitled to aid as any other road.

The Mayor.—I suppose we will have to live in hope.

Coun. McCallum.—Of course, they did not promise anything.

Coun. Gravely.—They will take the matter into their careful consideration.

Coun. Graveley said a paragraph had appeared in the Empire in which it would appear that the town of Cobourg conceded to the G. T. R. a prior right to the $26,000 voted to the old C. P. & M. Ry. They did not, as he understood it, and he moved the following resolution:—

Moved by Coun. Graveley, seconded by Coun. Boggs—That this Council and the town of Cobourg do not recognize the prior right of the Grand Trunk Railway or any other company to the $26,000 granted some time ago to the Cobourg and Peterborough Railway.

There was some discussion pro. and con. and the resolution was finally carried on the following division.

Yeas.—Fish, Graveley, Boggs, Bickle, Spence.

Nays.—Wilson, Hayden, McCallum, Field.

Ex-Mayor Clark, who was one of the deputation to Toronto, to interview the Ontario Government, was heard. He said they had seen several members of the Government, and had discussed the question thoroughly, and the claims of Cobourg had been strongly put. As Coun. McCallum had stated, the Government had not considered the question of granting railway aid, and they would not make any promises. They were met with the argument that this $26,000 was granted to a road to run to Peterborough, and to transfer that to another line, it would be necessary to get the consent of the people through whose section the road was originally to run, for a transfer, and in that event Peterborough would be up in arms at once. Mr. Clarke himself, had not any very great hopes that this money would ever be granted to the new road.

Coun. Bickle said he was sure the deputation had represented our case as strongly as any that we could have sent, and deserved the thanks of the Council.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

An Eloquent Sermon at St. John's—Other Church Notes.

Rev. E. C. Cayley, Fellow of Trinity College, Toronto, preached a sermon of more than ordinary interest at St. John's church last evening on the subject of prayer, its nature and some of the difficulties connected with it. He dealt with his subject as viewed by materialism and paganism and went on to speak of it as being a channel for blessing and a means of communion with God and a bending of the human will to the Divine. This latter, he pointed out, was the Christian conception of prayer as in opposition to the pagan conception of bending the mind of God to that of man. The rev. gentleman closed by speaking of the connection between work and prayer. Prayer without work was to mock God and work without prayer was to defy Him. The whole sermon was clear, logical and particularly interesting. Mr. Cayley will always be a welcome visitor to Peterborough and to St. John's church.

The anniversary of the opening of St. Paul's church will be marked by special services on Sunday, 17th inst. Rev. Principal Grant will preach both morning and evening.

Rev. Dr. Moffat, of Toronto, preached at both services at St. Andrew's church yesterday.

Take Heed and Escape.

The sanitary inspectors are on their rounds now and the spring yard cleaning will have to be commenced at once. All citizens are warned that if the notices which are served by the officers are not heeded prosecution will follow.

A dry, hacking cough keeps the bronchial tubes in a state of constant irritation, which, if not speedily removed, may lead to bronchitis. No prompter remedy can be had than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which is both an anodyne and expectorant.

No Council Meeting To-night.

There will be no meeting of the Town Council this evening. Mayor Stevenson went to Ottawa at noon to-day and will not return until Thursday. The regular meeting of the solons will therefore not be held until Thursday night next.

A Horse That Never Breathed.

Mr. Ben. Shortly, saddler and harness dealer, has introduced an attractive sign at his place of business on George-st. A lifesize equine, with a shining coat of brown, stands with life like expression at the store entrance, fully harnessed and apparently ready to be hitched to the best top buggy for an afternoon's drive with your best girl. The lifeless equine attracted much attention. See it.

It was the Work of an Incendiary.

In referring to the fire on Friday morning last at the corner of Stewart and McDonnel-st. a faint suspicion was thrown out that the fire might have been ignited in some way by the scavengers, who, it was said, had been working there that night. Mr. Thomas Williams, the town scavenger, is wholly free from any suspicion of carelessness, as he was not at the place at all on the night of the fire, and is always careful, neither himself nor his assistant smoking during their work.

Overworked, broken down, prematurely aged men or those suffering from excesses or indiscretions will find a certain cure in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They supply the material necessary to enrich the blood, build up the nerves and restore the shattered system. Never fail. Sold by all dealers, or sent on receipt of price—50c. per box, or five boxes for $2—by addressing The Dr. Williams Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

Bell Telephone Extensions.

Mr. Schaffer, local manager Bell Telephone Co., has engaged a staff of men and will commence work on the Burleigh Falls line at once. The new line from Peterborough to Belleville via Keene, Hastings and Campbellford is under construction and will be finished about last of July. A new line to Bridgenorth and other places is under consideration and expected to be commenced when the line is finished to Burleigh Falls. Mr. Schaffer has been working hard for a better connection with Toronto and is glad to say that Peterborough will have a copper wire metalic circuit which will be finished by middle of August. The present lines will be used for local points between Toronto and Peterborough.

THE FLAG FLOATS FREE.

AN INTERESTING CEREMONY AT THE VILLAGE OF KEENE.

The Flag Won by a Pupil of the School Raised—Speeches and Singing Mark the Occasion.

Last year the Toronto Empire offered a Dominion flag for competition in each county in Ontario for the best essay on "The Patriotic Influence of Hoisting the Flag on the Schools" written by a pupil in the schools. The flag for this county went to Keene, the essay written by Miss Flora C. Powell winning that honor for her school, and on Friday last the flag was run up on the school building with appropriate ceremony.

THE CEREMONY.

The ceremony took place shortly after two o'clock, and at that hour there was a large gathering in front of the school building, including the pupils. Mr. George Read presided, and on the platform with him were Rev. F. Andrews, Rev. Jas. Macfarlane, Messrs. Geo. Eson and John O'Keefe, Trustees, Councillor John Lancaster, Dr. Shaw, Secretary of the Committee, Dr. Harrison, Mr. K. Mark, teacher, and Miss Powell, the successful essayist. Miss Paget, teacher, was also present.

The CHAIRMAN, in opening the proceedings, said they knew the object they had in view in assembling on that occasion, to raise the honored flag that gave freedom to all and that the people honored. It was the emblem of authority of that great nation to which they were glad to belong, and he hoped the flag would create a feeling among the children that they belonged to a great nation, lived under the best government in the world and belonged to the greatest people. He was proud that Keene school had obtained such a flag.

THE SUCCESSFUL ESSAY.

Miss FLORA POWELL was then called on and read the essay that had been successful in winning the flag. It was entitled "The Patriotic Influence of Hoisting the Flag on the Schools" and was as follows:—

"Our national flag is the emblem of a kingdom on whose dominions the sun never sets. Its fleet rules the sea. A kingdom whose people by their enterprise and industry have placed their country first among the nations of the world.

"We have reason to be proud of our flag. The sight of it has revived thousands of weary and discouraged soldiers on the various battle fields with fresh hope and courage, thus securing to them the victory. If all Canadian school houses had a flag to hoist on the anniversary of memorable events in our nation's history the pupils would become more patriotic, because it would remind them of the perils their country had passed through and the glorious victories gained by our countrymen in its defence. Our hearts would thrill as the hoisting of the flag would recall the battle of Queenston Heights, or other notable events recorded in history that have helped to make Canada what she is. On our Sovereign's birthday we would be reminded of the Queen who has ruled so long and so well; also of the great progress that has been made in the sciences and literature since she came to the throne, and the great men who have lived in her reign, as also of the brilliant writers who have done so much by the works they have written to educate and refine the masses. On Dominion Day we would be reminded of the possibilities, size, beauty and productiveness of Canada, and remember that it rests with her people whether she is to have the glorious future that her merit deserves.

"As it is, the Canadian boys and girls living in the country seldom see the national flag. Children in the junior classes have been known to be unable to select the picture of their flag from others. It is not their fault that they know so little about their ensign. If they are to be taught to love their country and honor their country's flag it should be more to them than a name. The children of to-day will fill the parliamentary and government offices in the next generation. If these children are taught to cherish patriotic principles, to regard the happiness of others, then the government must be powerful, and the country will know to the fullest extent the benefit of hoisting on the school house our glorious banner which has for a thousand years braved the battle and the breeze."

The reading of the essay was received with loud applause.

UP GOES THE FLAG.

The children of the school sang, very prettily and in excellent time, "Raise the Flag," and as they concluded Miss Powell took hold of the halyard and ran the fine large flag to the top of the staff on the school building. As it floated in the breeze the National Anthem was sung and three rousing cheers were given for Queen, country and flag.

A LETTER OF REGRET.

Dr. Shaw then read the following letter from Rev. Father Browne:—

"DOURO, April 28th, 1891.

"DEAR DOCTOR,—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 25th inst. inviting me, in the name of the committee you represent, to assist at the ceremony of 'raising the flag,' which is to take place at Keene on Friday afternoon next. I regret to say in reply that a previous engagement for that day will unfortunately prevent me from accepting your kind and valued invitation. Were it not for this, I can assure you I would be only too happy to join with the patriotic inhabitants of Keene in honoring the noble flag that guarantees perfect freedom to all classes of Her Majesty's subjects in the exercise of their social, political and religious rights.

"Wishing you every success on Friday, and assuring you of my hearty sympathy with your action on that day,

"I am, very sincerely yours,

"J. BROWNE."

PATRIOTIC ADDRESSES.

REV. F. ANDREWS was the first speaker called on. He expressed his pleasure in being present and meeting so many loyal children come together to honor their country and Queen. He saw representatives of all sects, parties and classes, and it was a grand meeting. He delighted in the fact that one of the young ladies of Keene had secured the flag for this county in competition with the other schools and had thus brought honor upon the village. This country was worthy of their love. The speaker then dwelt eloquently upon the size, the climate, the wonderful natural resources and acquired advantages of Canada, the intelligence of its population and the freedom enjoyed under its constitution, and it was connected with one of the noblest empires of the world. There was no use of anyone talking in Canada of annexation or independence. They had peace, plenty and prosperity, and desired no change, but wished to remain under the rule of their noble Queen.

A little girl, one of the pupils of the school, here stepped forward and presented Miss Powell with a beautiful bouquet, amid applause, and the children sang "My Own Canadian Home."

REV. JAMES MACFARLANE, the next speaker, was pleased to see so much interest taken in this event. It was an honor to Keene to have won this prize in a county like Peterborough. They were all true in their loyalty to their sovereign and to Canada, because this was their home and he hoped it always would be. He was in no sense an annexationist, for if he should be brought under the stars and stripes he would go elsewhere. To be a great people they must be a righteous people, for righteousness exalteth a nation While other things were important, there was nothing so important as character, and they must get rid of everything that hindered the development of Christian character.

The pupils then sang "The Village School," a pleasing glee.

Mr. JOHN LANCASTER spoke briefly. They should be proud of their country, he said, and he hoped the children would grow up patriotic men and women.

Dr. HARRISON on being called on called for three cheers for the young essayist, Miss Powell, which were given with a will. He then referred to the extent and grandeur of the British empire, and of that empire one-third was committed to their care. There was not a country on this hemisphere as happy and prosperous as Canada. He compared the progress of Canada and the United States, showing that Canada had grown more rapidly, and referred to the loyalty and valor of Canadians as exemplified on various occasions. Canadians were so educated and trained that they were appreciated across the lines. Their country was equally as good as any on the continent and in many respects better, and for sturdy men and women and happy boys and girls they could beat all creation. He referred to Ontario's great mineral wealth, which should be developed even though they had to make sacrifices to do it. Just as they were honest among themselves individually so that country would be true to itself, and each one should do his or her duty. It was their duty to love God first and their country next.

The National Anthem was then sung, and after a few remarks by the chairman the assemblage dispersed with cheers for the chairman, the school and the teachers.

NOTES.

As the flag was being raised Dr. Harrison took two good photographic views of the scene.

The school in Birdsall's section in Asphodel will soon have a similar ceremony. They held a concert and raised funds to purchase a fine flag for the school.

A New Society.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in the hall of the C.M.B.A. Sunday at 2 o'clock, and formed itself into a temperance Society under the title of St. Peter's Catholic Total Abstinence Society. The officers were elected and the meeting adjourned until Sunday next at same time and place to complete the work of organization.

He Abused his Wife.

Another man, charged with abusing his wife, went to gaol on Saturday night for one month. His name was Joseph Woodcock and he lives in Norwood. County Magistrate Edmison heard his trial at the village on Saturday. It appeared that he had pulled his wife around by the hair of her head and abused her generally, going so far as to threaten to shoot her. The man was committed once before by Magistrate Edmison as a lunatic, but was liberated after a medical examination. He is said to be a dangerous man and if he regains his freedom some act of violence, it is feared, will follow.

Cure for Diphtheria.

A few years ago when this dread disease was raging in England, a very simple and rapid remedy for it was, it is said, discovered by the celebrated Dr. Field. He put a teaspoonful of flour of brimstone into a wineglass of water and stirred it with his finger, instead of a spoon, as the sulphur does not readily amalgamate with water. When the sulphur was well mixed he gave it as a gargle, and in ten minutes the patient was out of danger. Brimstone kills every species of fungus in man, beast, or plant in a few minutes. Instead of spitting out the gargle, he recommended the swallowing of it. In extreme cases, in which he had been called just in the nick of time when the fungus was too nearly closing to allow the gargling, he blew the sulphur through a quill into the throat and after the fungus had shrunk to allow of it, then the gargle.

A GIRL IN POMPEII.

It would be very difficult to tell anything at all definite about the little girl in Pompeii who lived long, long ago. One can only try to imagine what she was like, what she thought, what she did, and how her young life was passed. And imagination, however powerful, can scarcely be relied on to depict to one very clearly and truly the things that happened more than 1,800 years ago.

More than 1,800 years ago she died in the ancient city of Pompeii, an awful tragic death, which 2,000 people shared with her, perishing in the most overwhelming catastrophe the world has ever known. And yet today one can pass through the streets she walked about in, stand in the "peristylium" or court of the house which was perhaps the one she lived in, and where her favorite flowers grew, and where she amused herself by watching the gold fishes in the little oblong stone-lined pool, which we are told was called the piscina. One can perhaps her very own little bedroom where she slept with her playthings about her, as rosy and peaceful as other little girls sleep to-day in their bedrooms in London or New York. And one can stand and look down pityingly at the slender lava and ash encrusted little form which was all that the great eruption of Mount Vesuvius on the 24th of August, A. D. 79, left of her childish body. She is lying by her mother, just as she fell when they were trying to escape among the blinding showers of hot ashes, red-hot lapilli, or small fragments of pumice-stone, and the sudden deluge of boiling water, which the great volcano poured forth alternately, and sometimes all at once, and which turned the beautiful day into black night, filled the air with shrieks of terror, and the narrow streets with bewildered, agonized people losing their way and stumbling in the hopeless darkness as they were flying for their lives.

Many hundred years she lay in the darkness with the gay, luxurious little city she had lived in, and which the quaking earth had broken into ruins and the burning mountain had covered with shower after shower of lapilli and ashes until it was buried 30 feet deep, no trace of it left to show that it had ever existed.

When one stands in the small museum and looks down at the slender, lava-encrusted frame, which looks more like a curiously-rough gray image than anything else, it is difficult to think of it as the body of a real, living young creature, warm and soft and full of movement and color. And yet she was so—eighteen hundred and eleven years ago.

If she had died as others do, she would have been dust centuries ago, but as it is, she lays in the tiny Pompeii museum, in a glass case, near the other lava-encrusted image which is supposed to have been her mother, and one stands and looks at her with thrilled wonder and tries to imagine what she looked like, what her short life was, and if all was quickly over when she fell, amid the stifling ashes, the sulphurous vapor, the sudden unnatural gusts of hot wind, the flashes of ghastly lightning, and the awful volcano's thunder.

In a case near her there is a poor dog with what seems to have been quite a beautiful collar round his neck. He is lying in a distorted position on his back, his feet in the air, and his mouth open as if he had died on giving a last yelp of terror and pain. I wondered if perhaps he had been her dog, and I hoped he was not or that she had not heard his poor cry for the help which she could not give.

It was her figure which was my companion all the soft sunny day as I wandered through the once brilliant little city where she had lived and died. My friends did not see her, but I did and fancied that I even felt the touch of her little hand. No one could hear her for she moved so softly. But when I imagined she walked with me she was no longer a poor little grey lava encrusted thing, but supple and pretty and soft and clothed in the delicate graceful garments she wore so long ago—or at least as nearly as my imagination, assisted by Alma Tadema's beautiful pictures, could array her.

But for those wonderful pictures I think I could not have really called her to life, but remembering them I made a little shadow which seemed almost more than a shadow—a slender figure, in a graceful little white tunic falling in simple lovely folds and with a border of gold or purple and gold together. She had small sandals on her slim feet and a light wreath of flowers on her delicate head. As for her face, I only seemed to see that it was sweet and innocent and fair, that there was a childish rose bloom on her cheeks, that her eyes were deep and shadowy under their long lashes, and that she had blue-black hair which was not long but waved softly about her head and neck and shaded her forehead a little, as it might if she lived in the present day.

She was my guide, and she seemed to tell me many things and make the dead ancient city live again, though I do not know how I understood her, for I think she used to speak Latin when she was alive. But there was a guide in uniform who led our party, and as he explained things in French perhaps I stole the words from him and altered them and added to them, and translated them into the music of the voice that ceased speaking 1,811 years ago.

I have many interesting days in my life to remember, but among them all there is not one which stands out as a memory so utterly, strangely beautiful and absorbing as that day spent rambling through the streets and ruins of a long, long, dead city warmly flooded with an Italian sun. It must have been such a gay and brilliant little place, with its richly colored and decorated houses, their flower-wreathed red or yellow columns, their bright court yards their fountains and vines, the graceful temples and theaters and villas, the great mountain behind, the blue Mediterranean at its feet.

"It was very beautiful," I thought my little shadow told me. "The people were so gay and rich. It was not so stately and magnificent as Rome, but it was so bright and luxurious. There were so many flowers everywhere, the sky was always so blue and the sun so warm. We lived so much out of doors, we used to sit and work and take our meals in the open court, and the wine cups were wreathed with flowers and garlands hung from the columns and were twined about them, and we wore fresh garlands on our heads—every one wore them when there was gayety and feasting."

TORONTO TOPICS.

TORONTO, May 4.—Jimmy McGlinn, who made his escape from the Central Prison on Thursday afternoon, is again an inmate of that institution. The police have been actively searching for him since notified of his flight, but it was not until Saturday afternoon that they succeeded in tracking him down. It was noticed that McGlinn's brother was hanging around the stables of a hotel in West Market-street rather more than was his usual custom. This awakened suspicion and a little careful enquiry resulted in the discovery that Jimmy was stowed away in the hayloft. The stable boss is Jim Mann, who formerly was also an inmate of the Central. In fact, it was to his job as storekeeper that young McGlinn was detailed when he donned the yellow and black uniform. The place was carefully watched all afternoon, and at 8 in the evening Detectives Burrows, Davis and Alf Cuddy proceeded to the stables to look up their man. He was found up to his neck in the mow with a big flask of whisky by his side. He was very drunk—in fact, so drunk as not to realize that he had been captured. He was taken to Headquarters, and half an hour later was transferred to the Central.

Hose [illegible] is said to have [illegible] to the stable in [illegible]-street which the firemen found blazing at an early hour Saturday. When near Grant-st, in Queen, the reel was upset by a small pile of earth. Driver Johnny Rathkin, Foreman William Brown and Branchman Thomas Sargent, Harry Jones, John Lynch and James Cook were thrown out with violence. Cook received a bad scalp wound and a dislocated thigh, and Jones a sprained ankle. Saturday evening some men were tearing the half-burned boards off the building and piling them on a waggon when the whole thing fell in. Four boys were playing inside, two of whom escaped injury, and one named Moore got off with a sprained wrist and some bad bruises. A 5-year-old son of Mrs. Margaret Rose, 18 Thompson-street, was buried in the debris, but after a few minutes was rescued in an insensible state.

Two Good Things IN FLOUR!

1. Scale Weight.

2. First Quality.

If good flour makes good bread it follows that one sort of flour makes better bread than another.

Which sort makes best?

That depends. The best flour is the purest, the best ground, the strongest and containing the most health giving and nourishing properties.

These good points are all found in our Flour.

Have you tried it? Perhaps yes. Perhaps no. If you have not, do so, and you may find a better flour than you have been using, and we a customer.

BUY NOW IF AT ALL.
EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Erin property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighbourhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

BURGLARS AT BRUSSELS.

BRUSSELS, May 4.—The postoffice was burglarized this morning about 1.30. The thieves obtained an entrance by prying open the back door with heavy chisels, then bored a hole through the top of the safe and used powder to blow it open. A young man named D. McDonald was passing and was stopped by one of the burglars stationed outside. The fellow drew a revolver and presented it at McDonald's face and made him sit down on the doorstep outside while the other man was inside drilling and blowing the safe up. He remarked to McDonald that that was the way they made a living and that there would be an explosion in a few minutes, but it would not hurt him if he kept quiet. The explosion was heard by a great many. The burglars obtained $25, a gold watch and two registered letters.

A Burglary at Harriston.

HARRISTON, May 4.—The drygoods store of Wilson & Pye of this town was broken into by thieves about 3 o'clock this morning, and goods consisting of kid gloves, silk gloves, cashmere, hosiery, ties, etc. were stolen to the amount of $600. The residence of A. C. Scarr was also entered but no loss sustained, owing to the thieves being frightened off.

A MODERN ABRAHAM.

Mr. Jessup Erects an Altar and Attempts to Sacrifice His Grandchild.

BRIDGEWATER, Conn., May 4.—Oliver H. Jessup, one of the most prominent citizens of the town, conceived the idea that he was a second Abraham and that the Lord required a human sacrifice. On Thursday, being left alone for a few minutes, he prepared for the horrible affair by constructing an altar out of his bedroom furniture, around which he piled a heap of combustibles. Then he caught his little grandchild, a year old, and placed her on the altar and prepared to ignite it. The child's cries attracted a member of the family, and the old man was nearly killed in the struggle to restrain him.

TWO YOUNG MARRIED MEN.

One of Them Suffocated, the Other Hurt, in a Bar-room Brawl.

QUEBEC, May 4.—Shortly after 11 o'clock last night fire was discovered in a tenement house situated in Sous le Cap-street, Lower Town. The fire was quickly got under control, but not before an occupant of the building, Alfred Boucher, aged 28 years, was found to be asphyxiated by smoke. Boucher had only been married three weeks.

A quarrel occurred between three young men of the city and the bar-keeper of the Albion House, in the course of which an inoffensive boarder, a young married man named Pelletier was felled to the ground by a blow supposed to have been inflicted with a poker. He is suffering from depression of the skull.

A Child's Strange Death.

THESSALON, Ont., May 4.—The tug May Day brought over the news of a very sad accident which happened on Cockburn Island last Monday. It seems that Mr. and Mrs. Conn and infant were driving along a road through a bush, and the strong wind that was blowing at the time caused the falling of a large tree, which fell across the laps of the trio, killing the infant in the arms of its mother and seriously wounding Mrs. Conn. Hopes are entertained for the recovery of Mrs. Conn, though her injuries are very severe.

'MURDERER! MURDERER!

THE CHARGE HURLED AT ONE OF FRANCE'S MINISTERS.

Wild Scene of Excitement in the Chamber of Deputies—The Soldiers Charged With Having Massacred the People at Fourmies.

PARIS, May 4.—It was announced yesterday that the A section of the left would demand a vote of censure against Constans, Minister of the Interior, on the ground that the latter was responsible for the slaughter of the men, women and children shot down by the troops at Fourmies on labor day.

Constans to-day, after replying in explanatory terms to a question as to the Fourmies affair and giving his version of the matter, holding that neither the Government nor the troops were to blame for the disaster, was astonished to see M. Roche, the deputy representing the seventeenth electoral district of the Seine, spring to his feet and shout fiercely, "Murderer!" A tremendous sensation followed. Members shouted and threatened each other. Finally order was restored, and the chamber voted that Roche should be excluded from any further participation in to-day's session, and he should be declared censured by the chamber for the term he had applied to the Minister of the Interior. No sooner was this course decided upon than M. Roche again sprang to his feet and, shaking his fist at those of his associates who had been most active in bringing about his expulsion and censure, the deputy yelled: "You are a lot of varlets worthy of your master!" The presiding officer ordered Roche to be removed by force from the chamber. This was finally done amid scenes of the wildest excitement ever witnessed in the Chamber of Deputies.

The excitement began with M. Dumay's interpellating the Government in regard to the Fourmies riot. He threw the entire blame for the trouble upon Minister Constans. M. Boyer, in supporting Dumay, commented upon the brutality of the official instructions. M. Roche said he had enquired into the cause of the riot and had found that immediately after a stone had been thrown, without summoning the people to disperse, the troops opened fire and continued firing for four minutes. There were more soldiers than people in the streets and the troops were made to act the part of butchers of women and children.

At this point vehement protests were raised and Roche was called to order. M. Constans denied the accuracy of Roche's statement. A mob of 4000, said the minister, received the soldiers with a shower of stones. One officer was knocked down and the rioters were on the point of forcing their way through the troops when the commander called upon them to keep back. The summons was unheeded and the commander ordered his men to fire into the crowd. This, however, had no effect and he ordered the soldiers to fire point blank. The soldiers obeyed and the result was the killing of seven persons and the wounding of fourteen. The soldiers, added the Minister, had a right to use their arms when in danger. The conduct of the army and the police throughout France on May day had checked serious disaster.

Roche at this point cried, "Murderer!"

A number of members protested against Roche's language, and the president ordered that the offender be temporarily expelled. Quiet having been restored, M. Millerand demanded that a committee be appointed to enquire into the Fourmies riot.

M. DeFreycinet, Premier and Minister of War, opposed the motion. He said the Government was not indifferent. It did not desire to put a barrier of arms against political and social claims, but would rather cooperate with Parliament to improve the lot of the working classes. [Applause.] Millerand's motion was rejected by 371 to 45. The Chamber by a vote of 356 to 33 passed a resolution declaring confidence in the Government.

Arms and Dynamite to be Used Against the Troops—Funeral of the Victims.

FOURMIES, France, May 4.—The situation here to-day is one of great gravity and may induce the Government to postpone the funeral of the men, women and children who were killed by the troops on labor day. The greatest excitement prevails throughout this town and in the villages in its vicinity. Many of the leaders of the labor party have started for Belgium to collect arms and dynamite for use against the troops stationed here, and especially against the infantry regiment, which used its rifles with such fatal effect upon the populace on Friday last. The report has reached here that 300 kilograms of dynamite destined for the people of this town has been seized while being smuggled across the frontier from Belgium.

Cavalry pickets will be stationed all along the route of the funeral procession of the victims of the May-day massacre, for such is the term applied to the tragedy by the people of Fourmies. The cavalry along the route will receive instructions to act promptly and effectively in the event of trouble. The Government has sent two details here with instructions to make a thorough inquiry into the causes which led to the disturbances on labor day and into the action of the subprefect who ordered the troops to fire upon the people.

The funeral procession this afternoon was very long, being participated in by a large number of workmen's clubs. The nine coffins were surrounded by the relatives of the victims. After the religious services the clergy left and the Socialists then took charge, some violent addresses being delivered. Many women carrying banners placed wreaths upon the graves. The troops keeping order in the streets shouldered arms while the coffins were passing.

The "Treking" Boers.

LONDON, May 4.—The Globe publishes despatches from the Transvaal stating that President Kruger, although anxious to keep his promise to the British Government in regard to preventing the Boers from invading Mashonaland and Manicaland, will be unable to cope with 20,000 Boers who are now said to be upon the point of "treking" into the territory in dispute between the English and the Portuguese. It will not be possible for the Transvaal authorities to command a force large enough to keep the Boers from carrying their designs into effect.

The Miners' Strike Spreading.

BRUSSELS, May 4.—The miners and ironworkers' strike in the Liege and Charleroi districts continues and is spreading to the Borinage district. Fifty thousand men are out of work in Central Belgium. There has been more rioting at Liege. Several more people have been injured.

Mixed Drinks.

OTTAWA, May 4.—The food inspectors connected with the laboratory branch of the Inland Revenue Department have been engaged for the past three or four weeks collecting samples of distilled liquors, which are now being examined with a view to the publication of the results for information of the public.

WALES MUST GO TO COURT.

A Royal Flush to be Shown in the Baccarat Scandal.

LONDON, May 4.—The trial of the baccarat scandal is expected to take place on the Saturday after the Derby, which will be run on May 27. The Lord Chief Justice has specially selected the case to try himself and is already flooded with applications from social celebrities for admission to the court.

The Prince's appearance on the stand will be no worry, but it will only be a formality and he will be asked only cut-and-dried questions.

The London season now being in full swing, I hear, that Mrs. Wilson's reception socially has been in many quarters markedly cool. The Prince, however, supports her staunchly, knowing that the set made against her arises largely from jealousy of the distinction shown her by him on the part of other unsuccessful aspirants for admission to his special circle. Meanwhile Mrs. Wilson has decided to give no entertainment, pending a decision on the suit.

Russian Students Defy the Police.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 4.—The funeral to-day of Schelgounow, the well-known Russian political economist, was made the occasion of a great demonstration. The students of both sexes marched through the main thoroughfares in defiance of the police order prohibiting them from so doing. The latter having no suspicion that the students would venture to disobey the orders issued were not out along the line of march followed in sufficient force to stop them. The police, however, afterward arrested a large number of the students who had taken part in the demonstration, and several of them were afterwards dismissed from their schools and have been expelled from this city.

Reports have been received here that riotous and revolutionary meetings have been held at Warsaw, the capital of Russian Poland.

A Dead Woman Taken to the Asylum.

HAMILTON, May 4.—A very strange affair occurred yesterday. About 3 o'clock two men arrived at the asylum with a woman named Mrs. Mary Bradley from Trafalgar township, county of Halton. One of the men was a county constable from Palermo and the other was the woman's brother, named King. The woman was sitting between the two men. When they arrived at the asylum and went to take the woman out of the rig it was discovered that she was dead. The men then started back to Palermo with the body unclaimed, still lying in the bottom of the rig. The man stated that the woman was all right when they left King's place, and they did not know she was dead until they arrived at the asylum. She had been living at her brother's place and was out of her mind.

Fed Through a Tube.

BRAMPTON, May 4.—Egerton Grafton, the 10-year-old son of Royal Grafton of Toronto township, was leading a horse behind another lead by his father. Something caused the first horse to kick out and the animal's hoof came in contact with the boy's face fair on the mouth. The blow broke the boy's jaw bone in three places and played havoc with his teeth. The patient is fed through a tube inserted in his bandaged mouth.

Trouble in the Coke Region.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 4.—Another collision has occurred between the coke strikers and the deputies. Two of the men who had been at work and were being held by strikers were sought out last night by the deputies. The latter were set upon and stoned. The deputies fired, and in the volley which followed John Mahan, a striker, fell dead, and another, name not known, received a mortal wound.

Fire at Clinton.

CLINTON, May 4.—A fire broke out here early yesterday morning in the store owned by Thomas Jackson and occupied by John Mude as a restaurant, caused by the explosion of a lamp. The fire was extinguished before making much headway, but the entire contents were deluged with water.

Farm Dwelling Burned.

BRUSSELS, May 4.—The dwelling house of Mr. Turnbull of the 4th concession of Grey, five miles from here, was completely burned to the ground to-day. Loss about $1200; insurance, $700. Cause spark from chimney.

Dr. Von Boetticher, secretary of the German Imperial Home Office in the Reichstag, replying to a question as to how the Government intended to relieve the pressure felt by the people owing to the high price of corn, said it was impossible to do so pending commercial arrangements which were being made with other states.

The Russian Government has issued a decree prohibiting students from holding public meetings, from engaging in manifestations, from publishing tracts and from otherwise propagating the doctrine of the religious sect to which they belong. This ban extends to the works of Tolstoi, which deals with questions of religion and with the family relations.

Mangled in a Sawmill.

MONTREAL, May 4.—A man named Lafleume was killed to-day in the sawmill of Shearer & Co. He was thrown upon the saw and instantly killed, being mutilated beyond recognition.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THE DEBATE ON THE ADDRESS TERMINATED.

Mr. Charlton Delivers an Excellent Address—Mr. Laurier Indisposed—The Prohibition Question—Interesting Capital Chat.

OTTAWA, May 4.—The debate on the address died of anaemia this afternoon. The first half hour after prayers was taken up in presenting petitions, a great portion of which were the prayers of persons favoring prohibition of the liquor traffic.

Mr. Charlton's speech on the resumption of the debate on the address in reply was the event of the afternoon. The member for North Norfolk received a hearty round of applause on rising. He began by a reference to the manner in which the elections had been sprung upon the people. The dissolution had been very sudden—was thrust upon the country at a moment's warning. Mr. Charlton next referred to the reciprocity question and contended that if the Government wanted reciprocity they would have to accept it upon the lines advocated by the Liberal party—upon no other terms would they obtain it. Mr. Charlton next adverted in severe terms to the tactics which he alleged the Government employed to return to power. One of their first acts was the stealing of private correspondence and placing it before the country in their organ. Then there were the charges of disloyalty—charges of treason hurled against the Opposition. All these things were the characteristics of the last election that was sprung upon the people in order to stifle the expression of public opinion and in order to forestall a question of paramount importance.

With regard to the argument that reciprocity would discriminate against Great Britain, he said Canada must take care she does not discriminate against herself. Why talk about refusing to discard a policy which injures this country, he asked, which retards her growth, impairs her prosperity, because the adoption of a remedy for these things may injure some one else? Canada must take care of her own interests and let England take care of herself. The Liberals were offering a policy that would make Canada prosperous. He contended that the Liberal party was loyal to Canada, to the empire and to the English-speaking race.

Thursday is Ascension Day, and there is some probability that an adjournment will take place from Wednesday till Monday.

The host of prohibition petitions will be followed up by a visit on the part of a representative of the Dominion Alliance.

Capital Chat.

A somewhat distinguished visitor to the city is Joe Kirby, a gentleman whose career has been an adventurous and varied one. Kirby is connected with the Niagara family of that name. He has been employed in various capacities by the Dominion Government, but chiefly as a discoverer of Irish plots against Britain or her dependencies. Latterly Kirby took some part in working up The London Times side of the case against Parnell and the league. His life history if committed to paper would, it is said, make a very interesting story.

A. J. Horne, a young gentleman not yet 25 years of age, has succeeded in keeping his name before the Ottawa public in a series of surprises. The young man, who is the son of a clergyman of the Episcopal Church in England, was a clerk in the Department of Justice. He has a nice voice, dances well, has an engaging manner and is altogether calculated to please in social circles. He added to his other accomplishments the ability to read the church services in a sweet baritone voice with an English accent, and frequently officiated in that capacity in the Anglican churches here. Suddenly it was announced that he was to enter the Roman Catholic Church. He carried out this intention, Sir John Thompson being his sponsor. It was soon apparent, however, that he was not contented to remain a mere layman, but suddenly joined the Capuchin Order of Monks. In a few days the young society man of former days was seen on the streets attired in the coarse brown serge of the society, the cord girdle, the stockingless feet and bare head. To many the sight was shocking. The greatest sensation, though not the greatest surprise, remains. It is learned that on Friday last he disappeared from the monastery leaving behind him a brief note stating that he had determined to leave owing to ill-health. He added that after a two weeks' rest in the country he would visit his brother in Montreal. This is all that is known of him. He will have a good deal of sympathy despite his erratic course, as he was a pleasant man and genial gentlemanly young fellow.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes

REVIEWS.

THE COSMOPOLITAN.—Two pieces of fiction will attract attention in the May number of the May Cosmopolitan; two real war stories by men who have been in the thick of the fight. One is by Archibald Forbes, the famous war correspondent, and the other by Albion W. Tourgee, author of The Fool's Errand. The illustrations of all three are something unusual. Boyesen's story, illustrated by Wenzell, so well known throught the pages of Life; Forbes' Story, by Frederic Villiers, another famous war correspondent and artist, and Tourgee's story by Zogbaum. In addition to its story fiction the number contains a beautifully illustrated article on the Cleopatras of the stage; another on New Philadelphia, for which the drawings were made by Harry Fenn. Some wonderful flash-light photographs illustrate the underground workings of a Leadville Silver Mine. Kennels and Kennel Clubs, and Dr. Koch and his Lymph, by one who went to Berlin to study the subject, are two articles with numerous illustrations. (Price 25 cents. Cosmopolitan Pub. Monthly Weather Report.

Mr. Thos. Telford supplies the following:—April has gone with its many rejoicings and sorrows, for where is the month these two do not blend together? For the tilling of the soil, although many quick and sudden extremes of weather have taken place, it has been one of the finest months on record for out door labor. Up to the 18th the days were bright, clear and warm, and nights cold and invigorating with somewhat of a low temperature. Then followed 9 days of showery warm weather, from which to the latter end of the month it continued fine and spring like. Our lowest record was on the 9th, the thermometer not rising above the freezing point all day, while on the 22nd at sunrise it stood at 40 degrees, at 9 to 50 degrees, at 11 to 70 degrees, at 1 and 3 to 76 degrees, at 5 to 70 degrees, and sundown to 60 degrees, while again on 29th at sunrise to 40 degrees, at 9 to 60 degrees, at 9 to 66 degrees, at 12 to 74 degrees, at 2 to 77 degrees, at 5 to 70 degrees, and at sundown to 70 degrees, leaving the mean temperature of the month at 76 14-30 degrees. Rain fell on 10 days, but only to the depth of one inch and 56-100 of an inch, being light for April, the heaviest fall being only 30-100 of an inch. We had slight flurries of snow on the 2nd and 29th, thunder on the 18th but no rain, a fierce gale on the night of the 27th and all day of the 28th, aurora l lights on 4 nights and fog on one morning, with frost on several occasions. Of migratory birds, sea gulls first made their appearance on the 3rd, robins on the 16th, black birds on the 20th and the first croaking of frogs was heard on the 18th. The following are the different points from which the wind was blowing at sunrise during the month, namely:—South 6 days, south-west 3 days, north-east 3 days, west 4 days, north 7 days, north-west 8 days and south-east 1 day.

MAY 5TH.—After our awful gale and flurries of snow yesterday we had snow lying on the ground this morning, thin ice on the water and the thermometer standing 4 degrees below the freezing point at sunrise.

Take Care of Our Dear Girls.

Thackeray says: "A fair young creature bright and blooming, distributing smiles, levying homage, inspiring desire, conscious of her power to charm, and gay with the natural enjoyments of her conquests—who in his walk through the world, has not looked on many such a one?"

There are many such in Canada, and the numbers could be largely increased if mothers and their girls were true to themselves. We have often with sadness looked upon girls of exquisite figures and beauty very models of the Divine Architect, who were handicapped with some of the common ailments of life such as nervousness, dyspepsia, impaired digestion and general weakness of body. We can see the dark circles under the sunken eyes, and sallow countenance, the hollow cheek, and general listlessness. Such subjects require instant attention; they are just entering the abyss of suffering and destruction; and just at this stage all our energies and powers should be devoted to their treatment and cure.

The great succor and relief for them is Paine's Celery Compound, and its use cannot be urged too strongly. These girls are the hope of our country, and their health should have our best attention and consideration. Paine's Celery Compound will do for them what cannot be accomplished by regular physicians. It acts as a true brain and nerve food in their case; it brings to them great bodily strength, keen appetites, and a healthy and vigorous digestion which alone can render life pleasant and happy. Paine's Celery Compound brings to the handsome face a glow of health a freshness, gives bright eyes and a cheerful disposition, which all our girls should possess. Only Paine's Celery Compound can accomplish these wonders, and make our girls what they should be in youth and mature age.

KNUTSFORD BILL TO PASS.

UNLESS THE NEWFOUNDLANDERS SPEEDILY GET A MOVE ON.

A Priest's Alleged Insult of the German Emperor—The Usual European Horrors—Wholesale Evictions Reported From Wexford.

LONDON, May 4.—Lord Kimberley in the House of Lords moved that in view of assurances given the Government from the Newfoundland delegates that the colony would immediately pass an act which would provide for the due enforcement of the treaty stipulations existing between France and Great Britain the House ought not to go into committee on the Knutsford Coercive bill until reasonable time had been given to Newfoundland to pass the necessary legislation. Lord Kimberley also urged that the colonial legislature would not repudiate the promises of delegates and that therefore the Knutsford bill ought not to be carried any further. Lord Knutsford refused to accede to Kimberley's motion, claiming that the Newfoundland question had an Imperial character which must be recognized in dealing with it.

Knutsford added, however, that if Newfoundland would pass the promised measure the bill at present before the House would be dropped.

Lord Dunraven said he regretted the Government could not agree to abandon the Knutsford Bill, as it seemed the Newfoundlanders were honestly determined to do all in their power to avoid the necessity of any coercive measures.

Lord Herschell, one of the deputy speakers of the House of Lords, said it was of primary importance in this connection to consider "the opinions of the colonists if the Government desired to maintain its colonial empire. The action of Lord Knutsford justified the rejection of the bill.

Lord Salisbury said the Government had entered into serious international obligations with France, which must be carried out. Under the decisions of the Newfoundland courts the hands of the naval powers were paralyzed. They could not regularly exercise the jurisdiction which they had hitherto effected. The bill, Lord Salisbury said, was necessary in the event of the failure of an act by the Newfoundland Legislature to enforce the measures which the Knutsford bill was designed to carry out. After further discussion Lord Kimberley's motion was rejected by 113 to 53.

Lord Herschell moved that the Knutsford Act continue in force for only one year. Lord Salisbury opposed the motion, and it was rejected, 61 to 21. The bill then passed the committee stage.

Deepening the Liverpool Harbor.

LONDON, May 4.—The well-known engineer, Mr. McGillivry, has published in detail a plan for deepening the Liverpool harbor and getting rid of the bar at the mouth of the Mersey, which is so detrimental to the commerce of that port. He proposes to keep the sand and mud of which the bar is composed constantly stirred up by means of powerful machines resembling plows, operated by steam. The tides are swift and strong enough to carry the matter suspended out with the water and distribute it over an area so great that it will not impede the entrance to the harbor. It is claimed that the process would be both speedy and cheap.

Lady Dysart's Divorce.

LONDON, May 4.—Lady Dysart has just paid her second call at the Divorce Court, this time on her own account. A few years ago she was divorced by the Earl of Dysart for a guilty intrigue with an actor named Sugden. She married Sugden and now has obtained a decree against him for desertion and adultery. Most people think she has been deservedly paid in her own coin. Some other cases are pending, which cannot fail to cause a stir in high life.

Simply Appalling.

It seems that an uptown housewife relates that she was about closing an engagement with a new help the other day and after acceding to several stipulations as to hours out, Sunday's off, etc., finally had to break off the prospective engagement, when the applicant inquired whose teas were used in the house, and learning that the article was bought from the regular grocer replied that she couldn't stay in a house and do justice to the table where they did not use Hawley Bros'. teas, the best and purest sold in town. d92d-w16

Not Afraid of the Rain.

In accordance with a recommendation of the Committee on Appointments and Supervision of Police of the Town Council, the police force have been supplied with four heavy water-proof coats, supplied by Mr. J. J. Turner. The coats are good serviceable coats with long capes and are just such a protection as the men require for rain storms. They are a big improvement on the regular cape.

In cases where dandruff, scalp diseases, falling and grayness of the hair appear, do not neglect them, but apply a proper remedy and tonic like Hall's Hair Renewer.

A Small Fire.

Last evening about nine o'clock the fire brigade was called to Ashburnham, but when they got there the small blaze was about out and their services were not needed. By some means the fence at the end of the Ontario Canoe factory shed got on fire and was blazing up nicely when discovered, and for a time the shed was in danger, but the blaze was extinguished with pails. If the shed had caught the lumber in the yard would have been endangered.

Distributing Sugar Beet Seed.

The directors of the West Riding Farmers' Institute held a meeting at the Morgan House on Saturday afternoon last. Mr. Dawson Kennedy, President, was in the chair. The distribution of the sugar beet seed was up for consideration. The following gentleman made application for seed:—D. Kennedy, F. Birdsall, W. Collins, W. Rutherford, H. C. Garbutt, John Clegghorn, T. E. [illegible] Bell, Jos. Redmond, John Johnson, B. Mayshaughnessy, [illegible] John Garbutt, Thos. bee, John Stothart, [illegible]rt, Joseph Barnard, Stothart, Wm. There is seed enough to give ten or twelve more applicants two pounds each. The applicants can obtain the seed at Poplow & Hilliard's flour and feed store on Simcoe-st., C. N. Brown's old stand. The annual meeting of the West Peterborough Institute is to be held on Saturday, June 6th, in the Council Chamber.

ASHBURNHAM COUNCIL.

Elizabeth st. Should be Watered—Shade Trees for the Streets.

A regular meeting of the Council of Ashburnham was held last evening. In the absence of Mr. John Burnham, M.P., the Reeve, Councillor Calcutt presided. Councillors Throop, Craig and Wand were also present.

COMMUNICATIONS.

A communication was read from Mrs. Jas. Johnston, who is 68 years of age and had been a resident of the village for nearly forty years, asking for aid.

Also from M. A. Stiles and others asking for a sidewalk on Crescent-ave. and other street improvements. This application stood over until the Councillors made their annual inspection.

From Wm. Collins and a number others asking for a crossing on Elizabeth-st., at Driscoll terrace. This was also laid over.

ACCOUNTS.

The following accounts were ordered to be paid:—

A CROSSING.

Mr. McCarthy made a verbal application for a crossing near his place, which received favorable consideration.

TREES FOR THE STREETS.

Mr. CALCUTT asked what the Council thought of getting some trees? It would be a great advantage to the village to have trees.

Mr. THROOP did not like the idea of the Council buying trees. A better way, he thought, was for the citizens to put in the trees themselves and for the Council to afterwards to pay 25 cents a piece for them when they had grown two or three years. They would be better taken care of then.

Mr. CALCUTT said the difficulty was that it cost nearly as much to get a few trees as to get a load.

After further discussion Mr. CRAIG moved, seconded by Mr. WAND,—That the Street Inspector order 150 trees to be planted on our streets, the Inspector to keep an account of the distribution of the of the trees and applications for them to be made to Mr. Throop, maple and elm trees to be ordered.—Carried.

COURT OF REVISION.

Mr. THROOP moved, seconded by Mr. CRAIG,—That the Court of Revision for the village of Ashburnham for 1891 be held on May 30th at 7.30 p.m., and that the Clerk advertise the same.—Carried.

STREET WATERING.

A largely signed petition was read from ratepayers asking to have Elizabeth-st. watered from the Otonabee bridge to Stewart-st.

Mr. WAND moved, seconded by Mr. CRAIG,—That Messrs. Throop and Craig be a committee to enquire the cost of watering Elizabeth-st. from the bridge to Stewart-st. and report to this Council at its next meeting.—Carried.

The Council adjourned.

Congregational Reunion.

Members of St. John's congregation in all parts of the parish are asked to hold themselves disengaged for next Monday evening, the 11th inst. At an informal meeting of a few ladies yesterday afternoon it was considered to be necessary to hold the semi-annual reception at once, in order to prevent the clashing with other events already advertised to take place later. The matter will be further discussed as opportunity offers this week, and in the meantime all who are interested in the welfare of St. John's are urged to prepare to take their part in making this Reception a thorough success. These gatherings are designed to promote social intercourse of an informal character between fellow Churchmen. There will of course, be no admission fee, and the members of the congregation are looked to to provide everything necessary for the pleasure and success of the evening.

Five Hundred Dollars

Will be given for a case of Catarrh which cannot be cured permanently by Clark's Catarrh Cure. Step right up to the office and prove your case and get the reward. Thousands have tried this remedy, but no one has claimed the reward, because it cures in every case. If you have a cold or are troubled with Catarrh, ask your druggist for Clark's Catarrh Cure, price 50 cents, and see what a pleasant relief it will be instantly. If you are asked to take something else, send to us direct, and we will send you a bottle by mail on receipt of price. Clark Chemical Co., Toronto.

The Ladies at Work.

At a largely attended meeting of the ladies of George-st. Methodist Church held in the school room last evening it was decided to hold on Monday evening next a tea meeting and afterwards an entertainment in the body of the church. The object in view is to add to the fund for the erection of the tower of the church, work on which is about half done in that the stone is out and window frames, etc., now on the ground. With their well know skill and with their usual liberality the ladies have undertaken to provide a splendid tea and after the good things are despatched a meeting will be held at which addresses will be delivered and music rendered. Rev. E. Roberts will be one of the speakers. The committee have assured the trustees that they may expect a success and are pushing preparations. An adjourned meeting of the ladies will be held Wednesday night at the close of prayer meeting.

What it Costs

Must be carefully considered by the great majority of people in buying even necessities of life. Hood's Sarsaparilla commends itself with special force to the great middle classes, because it combines positive economy with great medicinal power. It is the only medicine of which can truly be said "100 Doses One Dollar," and a bottle taken according to directions will average to last a month.

ANOTHER YEAR HAS FLED

TWENTY-THIRD ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.

The Reports for the Year Presented—The Directors' Review of the Year—The Books that Have Been Added—The Books Read and the Class of Literature Most Popular—The Election of Directors.

The twenty-third annual meeting of the Peterborough Mechanics' Institute was held in the reading room of the building last evening, when there was a very good attendance. The annual reports for the year were presented and are worthy of careful perusal by all readers, especially the class whom the Institute is specially intended to supply with an almost inexhaustible stock of reading material of all descriptions. The latest works, both in fiction, science and religion are to be found on the shelves and are placed within the reach of every mechanic and citizen. Over three hundred were added last year. The report of the Library committee shows the class of works which are most largely read, fiction, of course, being ahead of all other classes.

Mr. Thos. A. Hay, President, was in the chair and after opening and disposing of the minutes, Mr. John Corkery read the Directors' report as follows:—

Your Directors submit for your consideration the following statement of the affairs of the Institute for the year ending April 30th, 1891:—

During the year just closed these affairs have varied, and while in some respects we have cause for regret, in others we have greater cause for satisfaction. The membership, we are sorry to say, has, for causes beyond our control, somewhat decreased, although everything has been done to please subscribers. Several new and attractive magazines and periodicals have been added to those formerly taken in the Reading room, and a large number of new, interesting and instructive books placed in the Library, which is now one of the best mechanics' institute libraries in the Province. The class in machine and Freehand Drawing has, too, been continued under the charge of Mr. Alex. McCallum and every opportunity given to members to improve in these subjects and at a very small expense.

Shortly after our last annual meeting, through the munificent generosity of the late Mrs. Nicholls, the large sum of ten thousand dollars was bequeathed to the Institute, the interest of which will be available before long; and as one of the greatest hindrances in the past has been a lack of funds to carry out improvements, it is hoped that with the increased income, a much more rapid progress may be made in the time to come.

As will be seen by the report of the Library Committee, a number of books issued has been large and there has been an increased issue in classes A. D. I. L. and N.

Arrangements have been made for the issue of printed catalogues containing a classified list of all the books in the Library and also a list of authors, and we trust by a free circulation of these to make people in town and the adjacent country more familiar with the fine Library which we have and which we believe would be better patronised if better known.

The financial report, and that of the Library and Class Committee, are also annexed.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN CORKERY, Sec.-Treasurer. THOS. A. HAY, President.

THE BOOKS ON THE SHELVES.

The report of the Library Committee followed, reading as follows:—

To the President of the Peterborough Mechanics Institute:

SIR.—Your Library Committee beg to present the following report for the year ending 1st May, 1891.

There have been 3[illegible] volumes added to the library since last report at a cost of $[illegible], in addition to which $217.08 has been expended upon the reading room. The new books purchased may be classified as follows:—

Class		Vols.		$
Class A.	Biographical	12	vols.	$ 17.35
" B.	Essay, etc.	6	"	11.25
" C.	Fiction	68	"	[illegible]
" D.	History	12	"	[illegible]

" M.	Religion	4	"	[illegible]
" N.	Science	46	"	[illegible]
" O.	Travel	13	"	[illegible]

We have had 24 volumes presented to the library, 20 of these relating to geography and natural history of Canada, were presented by James Stevenson, Esq., M.P.

THE BOOKS READ.

Biographical	304	volumes
Essays	87	"
Fiction	2,648	"
History	377	"
Miscellaneous	2,546	"
Poetry	66	"
Periodical	276	"
Religious	74	"
Scientific	276	"
Travels	444	"
Philosophy	68	"

There are now in the reading room 15 newspapers and 57 magazines and periodicals.

Our list of members numbers 261, as compared with 287 last year, a decrease very much to be regretted but which may be accounted for by the fact that there are now other somewhat similar institutions in the the town.

Your committee have great pleasure in testifying to the zealous and efficient manner in which the duties of the librarian (Mr. Peters) have been performed during the year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

F. J. LEWIS, Chairman.

THE FINANCIAL REPORT.

THE DIRECTORATE FOR 1891.

The election of directors was the next business. Dr. Burnham is to be the president for this year and the ballot elected the following gentlemen as the directorate:—Messrs. James English, Thos. A. Hay, F. H. Brennan, M. D., John Corkery, F. J. Lewis, Geo. Munro, Thos. Richardson, R. Robertson.

The meeting then adjourned.

A Pleasant Herb Drink—A Spring Medicine.

The druggists tell us that the people call daily for the new cure for constipation and sick-headache discovered by Dr. Silas Lane. It is said to be Oregon grape root (a great remedy in the far west for those complaints) combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength. It sell at 50c and $1 a package and is called Lane's Family Medicine.

MILITARY MATTERS.

The Visit of the Governor General's Foot Guards on the 24th of May.

The visit of the Governor General's Foot Guards, of Ottawa, to Peterborough on the 24th of May should keep alive an active interest in the battalion among all the men of the different companies. Yesterday Major Hodgins, of the Guards, was in town, and in company with Adjutant Dennistoun made an inspection of the camping ground and arranged other preliminaries. Burnham's Point, where the Queen's Own were camped, was decided upon as the site of the city of tents again and pleased Major Hodgins exceedingly. The men will take their meals at the hotels while they are here. The visitors will arrive here on Sunday morning and a church parade will be held to one of the town churches. There stores will be sent on ahead and a fatigue party of the 57th will pitch the tents and have the camp ready for their guests to walk into when they arrive. This will be done by the Guards when the Rangers go to the capital.

The two bands of the visiting battalion number 70 men, 36 in the brass and 24 in the bugle band. The Peterborough bandmen will entertain their fellow musicians of the Guards and promenade concert will be given by the joint bands, probably in the market building.

The visitors will leave on Monday night on the midnight train. The visit is looked forward to by the Guards with pleasant anticipations and the citizens of Peterborough will also enjoy the mingling of the volunteers. A grant will probably be asked from the Town Council to assist in entertaining the visitors.

The 57th Battalion will drill this evening. As the time is short and a creditable showing is desirable on the 24th, every man is requested to turn out.

THE RIVER AND LAKE.

Calcutt's Line of Steamers Ready—The Rice Lake Resorts.

The indications are that the coming season will be a lively one on the Otonabee river route and at the Rice lake summer resorts, and Commodore Calcutt's line of steamers have been prepared for active and prompt work on these routes. They have been fitted out and are ready for the season's trade.

THE STEAMERS.

The Golden Eye has received considerable attention. She has been all newly stayed inside, new ribs have been put in, new bilge kelsons added and a new lower deck has been put in. The machinery has been all overhauled and improvements made. The work was done under the supervision of the Government inspector, and the Golden Eye is in fine trim for her work. Capt. Clare Calcutt will again be in command, with Mr. S. Lombard, of Hastings, as first mate. The engine will be in charge of Mr. Marchand, of Kingston, a thoroughly competent engineer. The Golden Eye goes to the mouth of the river next week to clear out the channel, the Government having made a grant for that purpose, and will take up her route, as last year, after May 24th, and in the meantime the Daisy will run on the route.

The steamer Daisy will have the same officers as last year, Capt. Charles Calcutt in command and Mr. Jerome Young in charge of the engine. The Daisy has also been thoroughly overhauled and has been repainted. A new wheel house has been added to afford protection for the captain in rainy weather, and the trim craft is in fine form for work.

The steamer Pearl has been refitted in good shape, new machinery added, and thoroughly overhauled. She has been supplied with new screw wheel and shaft, and the neat little boat is in excellent form for carrying private picnic parties, for which she will be open during the season.

Last Saturday the Daisy took a large cargo of merchandise from Peterborough down on her route. It was a good opening for the season.

THE SUMMER RESORTS.

Jubilee Point, the fine summer resort at the mouth of the river, will be under the management of Mr. M. Greer, who conducted it so successfully in former years. Considerable improvement will be made at the Point this spring. Walks will be laid out all through the well-shaded park, which will make it an even more pleasant place in which to spend warm days in summer. A windmill will be erected at the beach to force water up the hill for bathing purposes and a bath house will be built near the hotel. Boats of different kinds will be kept on hand for fishing parties and the Point will be a excellent place for rest and recreation. It will be opened on May 24th.

The Idyl Wild house, which is under the management of Mr. Frank Arkells, is now open, and the grounds at this favorite resort look very fine. There are good prospects of an active season at Idyl Wild, for already Americans have engaged rooms and will take possession of them as soon as the fishing season opens. A number from town also purpose spending some time there this season, and the Grange society of Hastings and the Patrons of Industry intend to hold picnics there.

It is expected that the Grand Trunk trains will run down to the wharf at Harwood this season, and arrangements have been made for cheap excursion rates from points as far west as Toronto and east to Belleville. This arrangement will no doubt draw many to Jubilee Point, Idyl Wild and other points on the lake.

THE SUGAR BEET COMPETITION.

Considerable interest is taken in the sugar beet competition which is to be held at Jubilee Point on Sept. 10th and Mr. Calcutt, who has offered the prize, has received a number of enquiries regarding it. It is intended to add prizes for other produce. The competition is open to members of the Farmers' Institutes, and it will aid in creating more interest in these institutions, which are deserving of the patronage of all farmers, for in addition to the useful discussions in the winter, the members received the Agricultural College bulletins and other advantages.

Altogether the prospects for the river and Rice lake route and resorts this season are promising, and the Calcutt line of steamers are in fine form for attending to the travel and traffic on their routes.

BUY A HOME!

Stop Paying Rent! Be Your Own Landlord!

We Offer For Sale by Public Auction on

MONDAY, 11th MAY, 1891, at 3 p. m., ON THE GROUND

Lots on Romaine-st. Each lot is 33ft. by 220ft. Soil high and dry, sandy loam. 10 minutes walk from the Edison Works, Peter Hamilton Works, the Carbon Works and the Bridge Works. The new Electric Car Line will touch this street and George and Aylmer-sts. will be opened through to the Fair ground.

To secure a respectable street the deeds will contain a clause compelling the purchasers when they build to erect a uniform distance from the front, and that the houses when built shall not cost less than $600. These lots are double the depth of the ordinary town lot and are fine for gardening. This is the finest property in the market and one which will afford the best building lots to be had at low prices. These are only lots left on the south side of the street. Lots in the neighborhood half the depth sell at $8 to $10 per foot frontage, while these lots are 220ft. deep and will be sold for what they will bring. These lots while sufficiently near the great factories, are close to George-st. and being off the muck are clean and healthy.

Ten years will be given for payment. $5.00 on the $100 down; $5.00 on the $100, in one month; $10 on the $100 in 3 months, then a free deed will be given and mortgage taken back for the remainder of the purchase money, payable in 9 equal annual payments with interest at 6 per cent. Five per cent. discount will be allowed for cash. For further particulars apply to

Spring Announcement.

MR. LeBRUN has just returned home after a personal inspection in the best markets for Cloths and Clothing: We are satisfied you will be pleased to take a look through our New Stock of Spring Goods for 1891, and learn the splendid values we can offer you.

In Foreign and Canadian Cloths, we make a display of very fine goods, the leading styles for the season.

We have also provided a large assortment of Spring and Summer Clothing of the newest styles, and best of all, at prices which will be found extremely moderate.

By a Special Purchase of West of England and Scotch Tweeds, we are in a position to make up pants, worth from $6.00 to $7.00 in the regular way, for the very low price of $4.50. We say it, and say it confidentially, that our range of Tweeds, Worsteds and Pantings can hardly be excelled.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices gives us a great advantage. We carry in stock, all the fast selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit all ages and sizes.

Special lines in Fine Spring Overcoats, and Fine, Spring and Summer Suits. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

Save Your Hair

BY a timely use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. This preparation has no equal as a dressing. It keeps the scalp clean, cool, and healthy, and preserves the color, fullness, and beauty of the hair.

"I was rapidly becoming bald and gray; but after using two or three bottles of Ayer's Hair Vigor my hair grew thick and glossy and the original color was restored."—Melvin Aldrich, Canaan Centre, N. H.

"Some time ago I lost all my hair in consequence of measles. After due waiting, no new growth appeared. I then used Ayer's Hair Vigor and my hair grew

Thick and Strong.

It has apparently come to stay. The Vigor is evidently a great aid to nature."—J. B. Williams, Floresville, Texas.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for the past four or five years and find it a most satisfactory dressing for the hair. It is all I could desire, being harmless, causing the hair to retain its natural color, and requiring but a small quantity to render the hair easy to arrange."—Mrs. M. A. A GIRL IN POMPEII.

"You were never afraid of the great mountain, then," I said, and I looked up at it as it towered so near us, and bare-looking and sullen with its cloud of smoke rolling upward and about its summit.

"No one was afraid of it then—particularly not the children. We used to hear that before—when some of us were not born—there had been a great earthquake which the mountain had caused, but it seemed so quiet and peaceful then, covered with beautiful meadows, and the earthquake seemed to us to have been so long ago that it would have seemed only like a legend if we had not been able to see some of the ruins it had made and the forum which was being rebuilt. It was not finished when the great eruption came, which turned everything. When you go into it to-day you will see the unfinished columns just as the slaves left them when they turned and fled into the darkness to try to save their lives."

And then there came to my mind a paragraph I remembered reading in Bulwer's "Last Days of Pompeii":

"At one of the public offices appropriated to the business of the city workmen were employed upon the columns, and you heard the noise of their labor every now and then, rising above the hum of the multitude. The columns are unfinished to this day."

We went into the ruins of the forum—the great mart and gathering place of those ancient days—and saw the rows of incompleted pillars, standing still. To one who was not told their story they would look as if they had all been broken smoothly off at about the same hight.

"It was very busy and gay here once," my small shadow seemed to tell me. "There were such crowds of people coming and going. They came to meet each other if they were rich and idle, to do all sorts of business, to buy and sell, to saunter and look on, to sit and eat and drink and talk over all that happened. The magistrates decided cases here. There was the temple of Jupiter, where the senators met. The garments worn were so graceful and so rich. There was so much purple and gold and ornament. The clasps and girdles of the rich ones sparkled with jewels, and they wore such splendid rings and chains. There was so much luxury and pleasure and the people seemed to enjoy themselves so. This place used to seem like a great brilliant fair."

One hears so much of the past luxuries and splendors of this small dead city that in visiting it one wonders continually how this luxury exhibited itself. The streets are so very narrow that an ordinary modern carriage could not pass through them. In the days when people drove through the narrow streets two-wheeled chariots were used—one sees today the deep grooves worn by the wheels into the stone of the pavement—we are told that there were numbers of such chariots, and that they were very elegant and elaborate in their artistic decoration, but how it would be possible for two to pass each other, when the worn grooves seem to prove there was barely room for the wheels of one, is a mystery which appears unexplained. Our guide could not tell us, and as he could not I could not imagine the answer my shadow might have given.

And yet we are told that the streets were brilliant once—that they were filled with richly-attired people, jeweled and clad in Tyrian dyes; that beautiful women, gracefully veiled, passed through them followed by slaves, that the shops glittered with wonderful and beautiful things, that one caught glimpses of fountains and exquisite temples and triumphal arches, that all was brightness and grace and color and wealth of life. Today one only sees the narrow streets, the broken columns, the fallen temples and the ruins of the houses that were their owners' tombs 1800 years ago.

Though my shadow companion could not make me understand what her answers might have been to some of the questions I should have liked to ask, and which neither my imagination nor the uninformed guide could reply to, yet I think her presence helped me to give some fancied life and color to the ruined houses, and made them something as they might have been when they were homes.

Through street after narrow street we walked through houses and temples, through forums and once sumptuous baths and theatres. The excavations which are made by the government are still going on. The silent streets, the ruins themselves seem to be kept swept and in order. But for the broken halls and columns, the roofless buildings left open to the sunshine, all is so free from obstacles and rubbish that one says to one's self again and again, "eighteen centuries! eighteen centuries since Pompeian feet trod these stones."

The large streets are called "strada," the smaller ones "bicolo." The Strada di Mercurio (the Street of Mercury), the Strada della Fortuna (the Street of Fortune), the Strada dell' Abbondanza (the Street of Abundance), the Strada della Terme (the Street of the Baths), Strada del Faro (Street of the Forum), the bicolo del Fauno (Little Street of the Faun), bicolo del Balcone Pensile (Street of the Hanging Balcony).

These are of course only a few of the names. All the houses have their names also, most of them taken from some statue or painting which decorated them. Some of them given by the scientific excavators, and were taken from seal or signet ring found in the ruins.

There is the Casa di Apollo (House of Apollo), the House of Adonis, the House of Castor and Pollox, the House of the Faun, the House of the Little Fountain, and of the Great Fountain the House of the Tragic Poet, the House of Pansa, the House of Sallust, the House of the Centaur. They are all names like these.

In the present day, when a man builds a house he builds it solely after his own tastes and fancies. His entrance hall is square or oblong or irregular as he pleases, he builds as many stories as he is inclined to mount: he places his dining room, his bedroom and library just where he thinks best. In other times there seems to have been an idea that the houses men lived in should naturally be as much alike as the shells on the back of snails and tortoises are like each other. In London one sees rows and rows of melancholy structures, all exactly the same: one sees them in New York, though there they are not smoke-be-grimed all to one hopelessly dingy shade. And in Pompeii one passes from street to street and finds in all the houses the one plan.

One enters, through a narrow passage, the vestibulum, which leads one to a court, which was called the "atrium," and which has in the centre a sort of square, shallow pool made in the mosaic pavement to receive the rain water which emptied itself into it from the aperture in the sloping roof. This was called the "impluvium." At the opposite end of this "atrium" was a room called the "tablinum," and all round it tiny rooms which, in modern days, would seem scarcely more than closets. But it was the centre court or "peristylium" where the people really lived, and which I am sure they must have felt to be truly their home. Surely they could not have spent much time in the tiny rooms, which had no windows, and no doors to close—only draperies to hang over them.

But the "peristyle" was open to the sunshine and the blue southern Italian sky. There is a colonnade around it, whose columns were garlanded with flowers. The centre was a garden.

CASH HARDWARE STORE.

On and after 1st April we shall do business on a Cash Basis.

To cover the inevitable losses attendant upon a credit business, which accrue from amount of time spent in keeping accounts, collecting, bad debts, interest account, and in numerous other ways, larger margins of profit must be asked.

In these times cash buyers ask, expect and are entitled to close prices. A careful consideration of the subject convinced us that the time has come for a cash business done on smaller profits.

The only customers who may be put to inconvenience are those who have had long credit. In more ways than one it will be to their advantage to pay cash.

For convenience of our old customers who consider their accounts due when presented, we will call 30 days cash and render all accounts the first of each month, and we wish to say that we will be happy to do business with them on these terms.

As the new departure is something of an experiment, what would be considered a close cash price will be made all through the stock. Not a few leaders only, but a general reduction in everything from the fourth flat to the cellar.

Our idea is to perform more than promised rather than promise more than can be fulfilled.

Our stock is large and varied, consisting of Builders', Contractors', Household, Mechanics', Painters', Shoemakers', Farm, Mill, Factory, Lumbermen's, Sporting, Threshers', Cabinetmakers', and other lines of Hardware.

Two Good Things IN FLOUR!
1. Scale Weight.
2. First Quality.

If good flour makes good bread it follows that one sort of flour makes better bread than another.

Which sort makes best?

That depends. The best flour is the purest, the best ground, the strongest and containing the most health giving and nourishing properties.

These good points are all found in our Flour.

Have you tried it? Perhaps yes. Perhaps no. If you have not, do so, and you may find a better flour than you have been using, and we a customer.

BUY NOW IF AT ALL.

EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Erin property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighbourhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

We think the best Black Hosiery at 20 and 25 cents is to be had at Rowse's. Of course they have Hose from 2 cts. per pair upwards, but you never saw the beat of the value they give you at 20 cts. Another thing, you can get the Best Fitting Corsets at Rowse's. They control several makes that are not to be had in other stores. When you want to make a present to a dear friend, just get one of those Elegant Shopping Bags hand-painted at $1.50 or a lovely Table Scarf, or a hand-painted Silk Tidy. Orders taken at Rowse's new store for all kinds of Decorative Art Paintings. They have some choice panels, hand-painted, really worth $3.50, and for a few days you can have one at $2. Their customers say there is splendid light in the new store, we think there is none better, their goods are so bright and pretty. In a few days the new store will be beautifully illumined with the new incandescent light. Remember that you get everything new at

ATTRACTIONS IN DRY GOODS At TURNBULL'S.

The change in the weather has brought with it a great demand for millinery; also for spring shades in dress goods. Our store was never more attractive in these lines than at present. We have every New Shade of Dress Goods in Stock, with Millinery to match. If you are in town this week have a look at our Gray Dress Goods and Millinery window. Large Gray Checks for young people made up alone or mixed with Black, Small Black and White Checks and Stripes. Broken patterns for older people, goods that are hard to find in Neat Patterns. We justly claim to take the lead in our Tailoring department for Quality of Goods, Fit and Price. We get up a Splendid Suit in Halifax Tweed or Navy Serge for $12.00. Fine grades of Almento and other makes of Tweed for $13.00, $14.00, $15.00 and $16.00; Scotch Tweeds and Serges from $16.00 to $20.00 for the best. Fine All Wool Worsted, Venetian Finish or Diagonal Cords for Coat and Vest, with Black or Fancy Panting to match, at from $19.00 to $22.00 a suit. Remember our prices. Call and see our Stock and do not go and pay a great deal higher figure through force of habit. We have added this week to our already Attractive Stock of Boys' Clothing another shipment just turned out of the manufacturer's hands, Neat and New Styles. We have shown an Immense Range of Patterns in Cottonades and Shirtings in the Best Quality; we also keep all the lower lines, beginning at 5c. a yard for Shirtings and 12½c. for Cottonades.

We have an opening now for an apprentice in the Millinery department. Apply until Saturday.

JURY BRIBERS INDICTED.

THOROUGH EXPOSURE OF O'MALLEY AND HIS MATES.

The Investigating Committee Find That at Least Three of the Jurors Accepted Cash Bribes—They Decline to Indict Any of Those Engaged in the Massacre.

NEW ORLEANS, May 5.—The grand jury, after investigating the alleged jury-fixing in the trial of the Italians charged with murdering Chief of Police Hennessey, has indicted Thomas McCrystal, John Cooney and K. C. O'Malley for attempting to bribe a talesman and Bernard Glaudi, Charles Granger and Fernard Armant for attempting to bribe three different talesmen.

The report of the grand jury says it was learned from various sources that talesmen had been approached. As a rule the talesmen who had been previously marked out were seen when alone or invited over to some secluded and unsuspected place. Talesmen were visited at their homes during the evening or early morning, intercepted on their way to the court house, stopped in the corridor of the court, and the vile work was deliberately carried forward in the court room during the trial. One favorite expression was that big money might be made by going on the jury and doing right. The report states that there is no possible doubt that such attempts were made by various parties in the service of the defense entertained by some of the talesmen and scornfully rejected by others.

Out of 310 names drawn for the February panel 33 were names supplied by O'Malley and Adams.

The grand jury report speaks of the great difficulty of establishing a conspiracy by adequate proof on account of the secrecy observed by the conspirators, but it says that sufficient evidence was offered by the voluntary and reliable witnesses to justify the indictment of six men as follows: Thomas McCrystal and John Cooney with K. C. O'Malley, for attempting to bribe a talesman, and Bernard Glaudi, Charles Granger and Fernard Armant for attempt by cash to bribe three different talesmen. These parties are shown to have been closely intimate with O'Malley, often at his office, informed of all doings and were active workers in the jury-fixing business generally.

The report declares that the existence of the secret society called the Mafia is confirmed by evidence from various sources. Officers of the Mafia and many of its members are now known. It also states that three if not more of the jury accepted money bribes.

Not to be Indicted.

The jury declined to indict the perpetrators of the massacre. The report says: The magnitude of this affair makes it a difficult task to fix the guilt upon any number of the participants. In fact the act seemed to involve the entire people of New Orleans. The report concludes as follows: "In view of these considerations the thorough examination of the subject has failed to disclose the necessary facts to justify the grand jury in presenting indictments."

Lord James Edward Sholto Douglas, brother of the Marquis of Queensberry, committed suicide yesterday by cutting his throat with a razor. Lord Douglas had been traveling from Ireland during the night and acted strange. Upon arrival in London Lord Douglas put up at a hotel and subsequently eluded an attendant and cut his throat. Lord Douglas was born in 1855.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THE GOVERNMENT DECIDE IN FAVOR OF GRAND JURIES.

Parliament Will To-Day Take a Recess Until Monday—Bills to Amend the Election Act—The Senate and the Divorce Court.

OTTAWA, May 5.—A perfect shower of petitions came from all parts of the chamber, dealing with all conceivable subjects, when the House opened to-day.

Mr. LaRiviere moved for returns or copies of correspondence, petitions, memorials and all other documents submitted to the Privy Council in connection with the abolition of the French language and of separate schools in Manitoba by the Legislature of that province.

Mr. Devlin, Alonzo Wright's successor as member for Ottawa County, had given notice of a motion for a return of the papers for which Mr. LaRiviere had procured an order of the House. The object of his motion would be obtained by the motion of the member for Provencher, but he considered it his duty to present to the House the reasons for his having brought this matter forward at the earliest opportunity, as he had promised his constituents he would do. It was Mr. Devlin's maiden speech in Parliament. He has a vivid and rapid command of English and he spoke with vigor. It was an extreme speech in some of its parts and the temper of the House did not respond to some of his appeals, but the force with which he spoke was frequently applauded. By the allowance of the Manitoba School Act he declared the Government had sanctioned it. He said that he and those for whom he spoke were willing to wait until the papers were brought down before they protested against the violation of a sacred right, against a blow at the constitution of the country, which should have been prevented by the Government. He called attention to the widespread alarm among his co-religionists which had been caused by the legislation in Manitoba and by an agitation in Ontario. He would be glad to tell them that their fears were unfounded, but in the light of events was it possible to hold out such assurance? They were told there were ministers in the Cabinet who would look after their schools, but when the deeds of these men were contrasted with their protestations the conclusion was forced that the mantel of office produced very remarkable effects. The attention of the Government, he said, had been called by the French press to the feeling against the Manitoba legislation, but in vain, and that feeling had increased since the lapse of the time during which the power of disallowance might have been applied. "To-day is the turn of our brethren in Manitoba to suffer," he continued, "to-morrow it may be ours." He referred not to the senseless writings and pamphlets by agitators, not to the idle speeches of hundreds of speakers throughout Ontario, but when prominent men were heard in the legislature of Ontario declaring that the agitation is not dead was there not ground for alarm? The great danger to Confederation he declared was not in the French people or the French language or in separate schools, but in the feeling of the hon. member for North Simcoe and his friends.

Mr. Charlton's Elections Act Amendment provides in the first section that "any candidate promising public works of any kind to electors of any particular district will be deemed to have used undue influence, and his doing so will be considered a corrupt practice under the act." The second is to the effect that "any Minister of the Crown or agent of the Government who shall during the progress of an election contest make a promise of Government appropriations or aid to any constituency, that promise being calculated to influence the result of an election in that constituency, it shall be deemed a corrupt practice." The third clause stipulates that "where the Government during the progress of an electoral contest or at any time within two months of the dissolution of the House send engineers for the purpose of surveying public works for which no appropriation has been made for the purpose of such works, this shall, where such survey influences the result of an election in any riding, be deemed a corrupt practice."

M. C. Cameron has a bill to amend the Election Act. He explained it in a few nervous terse sentences that were full of snap and evoked a hearty round of applause when their utterer subsided. Briefly he proposes to provide severe penalties for misdemeanors connected with elections, while at the same time providing that seats of candidates who can be shown to have honestly endeavored to conduct a fair contest shall not be imperiled by trifling acts of corruption on the part of persons ostensibly acting for them. He was also down for the introduction of an act amending the Franchise Act. He explained, however, that the use of the word "amend" was totally misleading, as he intends to move that the present act be abolished.

Ascension Day had to be observed, and as it falls on Thursday Mr. Wood (Brockville) proposed that the House at its rising on Wednesday adjourn till Monday next.

The motion was agreed to.

OTTAWA, May 5.—The Minister of Justice will on Monday introduce a bill to codify the criminal code of Canada. Contrary to expectations it will not contain a clause abolishing grand juries. Circulars were sent last winter to all judges and attorneys-general; but of nearly a hundred replies the majority favored the retention of grand juries in view of doubtful qualification of magistrates in general.

C. C. Chipman, secretary to Canadian Minister of Marine, and formerly to High Commissioner in London, has been appointed Commissioner for the Hudson's Bay Company.

M. C. Cameron (Huron) intends once more introducing a bill in the Commons to allow an accused person to give evidence in his own behalf. The bill is almost similar to the one he introduced in the Parliament before the last and which was defeated by a small majority.

The work for the staff of the geological survey has been laid out by the director of the geological survey, Dr. Selwyn, and in a few days these scientists will all be engaged in their several fields of investigation.

Advices from the Northwest are to the effect that the cattle on the ranches came through the winter splendidly, and as a consequence all the ranchmen are feeling jubilant and expect to pay big dividends and at the same time increase the numbers of their herds.

The funeral of the late Patrick Purcell took place to-day from his house at Summerstown to the little burying ground at Flannigan's Point, right on the St. Lawrence. Among the pall-bearers was Hugh Ryan of Toronto. The deceased left an estate of between $800,000 and $1,000,000. He made many wills; just how the last one disposed of his wealth is not yet known.

Dominion Alliance.

The Legislative Committee of the Dominion Alliance and a number of members of Parliament favorable to prohibition met in the tower room at 10 o'clock this morning, Senator Vidal, president, in the chair and there being also present: Messrs. J. J. MacLaren, chairman of the executive; Secretaries Spence of Toronto, Carson of Montreal, J. R. Dougall and William Tees, Montreal; Rev. Mr. Chown of Almonte, and the following members of Parliament: Messrs. Jamieson, Scriver, Henderson, Dyer, Taylor, Laidlaw, Roome, Mills (of Annapolis), Macdonald (Huron), McMillan, Bowers, Flint, White (Shelburne), Christie, Coatsworth, Dickey, Carpenter and Craig. There was the usual exhibition of political feeling, each party accusing the other of using the alliance for its own purposes. Mr. Coatsworth said the presentation of petitions was largely turned into a farce when they saw a batch of them presented in the House by a prominent distiller. It was finally agreed that Mr. Jamieson should present a resolution to Parliament: "That in the opinion of this House the time has arrived when it is expedient to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes."

Mr. Laurier is still confined to his room and Sir Adolphe Caron remains on the sick list.

At a late hour to-night Senator Haythorne was alive, but recovery is looked upon as impossible.

On motion of Sir John Macdonald the House will adjourn from Wednesday till Monday.

Over 300 petitions, chiefly relating to prohibition and immigration of Chinese were represented to-day. The members were quite unruly while these were being presented.

Petitions from Toronto and Hamilton Gun Clubs were presented asking that the export of woodcock and snipe to the United States be prevented.

A huge deputation will be here on the 21st representing a large number of Ontario municipalities to press on the Government the justice of assuming the indebtedness incurred by cities, towns and counties in bonusing railway enterprises.

Speaker White gives his first official dinner on Saturday night. Sir John feasts his friends on the same night, while the Governor entertains a number of the members to-morrow night.

The Holland Bros., the Senate reporters, will introduce the phonograph in their work this season. They have always experienced difficulty in whispering the details of divorce cases into the ears of the lady typewriter. They will in future breathe them into the soulless phonograph, the cylinders will be sent down to the printing bureau and there set up by the linotype. The experiment will be watched with much interest.

OTTAWA, May 5.—In the Senate to-day the report of the Committee on Vacancy caused by Alexander's absence for two years was received. The matter will be laid over for three weeks, he to be notified in the meantime.

Quite a discussion sprung up on Abbott's motion to appoint a divorce committee of nine members.

Macdonald (British Columbia) expressed his views on divorce legislation. He contended that the subject ought to be taken out of the hands of the Senate and a divorce court established similar to the British court established in 1857. As it was now the Senate was virtually a jury of 72 members, of whom one third by reason of their religious training were opposed to divorces altogether, and others for various reasons should not act as jurors. But this was not all, for after the case had gone through the Senate it had to go to the Commons and be tried by a jury of 215 who had not heard the evidence.

Senator Power made an attack on the English Divorce Court, which he said was a disgrace, and said that if the Commons had known in 1857 what the result of their bill would be they would never have passed it.

Senator Abbott said that he could not enter into the merits of the case now nor give an opinion on the matter, but he hoped it would be brought up again later in the session, when he would give an opinion.

STREET CAR MAIL SERVICE.

A Novel Experiment to be Made at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 5.—Postmaster McKean says that this city will soon be fitted out with mail boxes on the street cars. The scheme will be put into operation here first, and will be of the nature of an experiment before introducing it in other cities, and will be inaugurated soon after the return of the Postmaster-General.

ONLY ONE SURVIVOR.

Nine Bodies Recovered from the Wreck of the Barque Helga.

HALIFAX, May 5.—Nine bodies have been recovered from the wreck of the barque Helga. One more was seen, but the sea was too rough to venture near it. The bodies have been buried on the beach opposite the scene of the wreck. The barque was bound for Quebec in sand ballast. The only survivor is Alexander Eliason, who was rescued by a boat's crew of eight men, who entered the breakers at the risk of their lives.

MADE A SUCCESS OF IT.

A Bottle Which Had Contained Laudanum Explained This Man's Death.

ST. CATHARINES, May 5.—The dead body of a middle-aged man was found in a barn on the Hartzel-road on Monday afternoon by a young man named Caffrey, who had gone to the barn for a load of straw. The body was identified as the man named Smith, alias Miller, who had attempted suicide in the American Hotel on April 23 last and who was then removed to the hospital, which he left on April 27, stating that he was going to St. David's to work. The supposition is that it is a deliberate case of suicide, as a four ounce vial, which had contained laudanum, was found lying empty by the side of the victim.

$20,000 Fire Near Windsor.

WINDSOR, May 5.—Walker & Son's brick-yard plant, together with about 3000 cords of wood and many thousand bricks, were destroyed by fire early this morning. Loss $20,000. Fire supposed to be the work of an incendiary and a tramp named Frank Kline has been jailed on suspicion.

On the London stock exchange yesterday foreign securities closed depressed. Russian securities dropped 2½ owing to the fact that the syndicate which is to furnish money for the new Russian conversion loan has asked the Russian Government to defer the issue of the loan. Other Government securities were affected through fears of political complications. The same condition prevailed on the bourses at Paris and Berlin.

DRIVEN FROM HOME.

DISTRESS CAUSED BY THE CZAR'S CRUEL EDICT OF EXPULSION.

Heartrending Scenes in the Russian Synagogs—Bankruptcy Staring the People in the Face—Thousands of Men Thrown Out of Work.

LONDON, May 5.—The Moscow correspondent of The Standard dwells upon the utter disorganization of business through the sudden expulsion of the Jews. All who are engaged in the various business agencies, the correspondent says, find it impossible to collect debts and hundreds of bills are protested daily. The judge of the Commercial Court has been obliged to telegraph to the Minister of Finance for instructions how to act in the emergency. Many traders in the Jewish quarters are facing bankruptcy owing to the departure of the Jews who only left their belongings to cover debts amounting to £130,000.

At St. Petersburg a synagog has already been sold for £9000. A new and unused synagog in Moscow has been offered for sale, as it is useless in the face of the exodus.

A Moscow letter to The Times records sacrifices made by the Jewish emigrants. In many cases they have sold their belongings for the merest trifle, chairs being bought for twopence and beds for sixpence. Many persons destroyed their goods in preference to selling them at such a complete sacrifice. Many Russians have declined to pay debts owing to Jews. Heartrending scenes are witnessed daily in the synagog, the people weeping and praying to Jehovah to help them. Thousands of workmen are idle who have hitherto been employed by Jews. Foreign importers are keeping back goods on the frontier. It is reported that one Swiss silk firm has lost £8000 in a single week. The letter confirms The Standard's despatch as to the business collapse. Neither Jews nor Gentiles are paying their debts. The correspondent declares it a shame that Jewish bankers who are rich are not touched by the Government's decrees, and yet do not appear to help their unfortunate brethren in their plight.

St. Petersburg advices state that all speeches and pamphlets in favor of the Jews are prohibited. The Government is considering a scheme to solve the Jewish question, which if they adopted will astonish and perhaps shock the civilized world. An Odessa paper states 80,000 Jews have joined the Greek and Lutheran churches since the issue of the expulsion decrees. Each one embracing the orthodox faith receives a gratuity of 15 roubles.

THE ROYAL NAVAL EXHIBIT.

Fifty Acres of Models, Relics and Mementoes.

LONDON, May 4.—The naval exhibition on the Chelsea embankment, which was opened Saturday, is held in the grounds of the old Chelsea Hospital, in the temporary buildings erected last year for the military exhibition. The exhibition and grounds cover an area of 15 acres.

The larger section has an arena and a good-sized artificial lake. Between the arena and the lake is a grand-stand of large seating capacity, and across the arena from the grand-stand rises the exact facsimile of the Eddystone Lighthouse. The lighthouse, which is lighted up to the extent of 500,000 candle power, is built of a framework of iron covered with American expanded wire, over which cement is laid, giving it the appearance of solid stone. The lower part of the lighthouse is used for an exhibit of lighthouse and signaling apparatus, while the top reached by elevators affords a good observatory.

One of the most interesting features of the exhibition is a full-sized model of Nelson's famous flagship Victory, furnished throughout with guns and accoutrements of Nelson's day. On the lake it is proposed to give each day a mimic naval battle between miniature ironclad men-of-war, including torpedo attacks, torpedo practice, submarine mining, fireworks, etc. In the arena bodies of sailors will demonstrate how drill is done aboard ship, and gymnastic contests and displays will also be given, wherein the boys of the naval school at Greenwich will figure. The handling of naval machine guns, such as the Gatling, will be shown here by picked parties of blue jackets.

The main exhibition building is divided into nine galleries, each named after some celebrated sailor, such as the Nelson, Benbow, Cook, Howe and Blake galleries, each gallery being devoted to some one class of exhibits.

There are interesting collections of old naval relics and of relics of the various Arctic expeditions, and the art section contains the finest collection of naval pictures ever brought together. Rumley, Gainsborough, Knell, Vandyke, West Hall, Reynolds, Sir Benjamin West, De Martino, MacBee, Phillips and many other artists are represented.

The other galleries are equally interesting, containing specimens and models of all the latest developments of naval invention. There are hundreds of models of old and new warships. Innumerable charts, ancient and modern, are hung on the walls of the galleries.

Just inside the main entrance is a fine model of the battle-ship, the Queen, constructed in 1837. Nothing could show more strikingly the enormous strides made in naval construction during the past half century than a comparison of this warship with a modern ironclad. Innumerable kinds of machine guns are exhibited, and also some of the heaviest cannons ever made. A 110-ton gun is particularly conspicuous in a full section of the turret of the Victoria. All the various appliances for manipulating heavy ordnance and machinery of all kinds are on view, as are also shells, sections of shells and models of shells in their different stages of manufacture. An interesting contrast is made by placing side by side a charge for the modern 100 ton gun weighing 789 pounds and a bag containing the heaviest charge used during the Crimean war, weighing 16 pounds.

All the largest shipbuilders and shipowners are represented, if not in the exhibition itself, in buildings specially provided in the grounds.

Among the naval curiosities that may be seen at the exhibition are Capt. Cook's waistcoat, the washstand used by Nelson at sea, the Exmouth trophy, the figure-head of the Shannon, carried on that ship during her memorable encounter with the Chesapeake; the Duke of Edinburgh's curious collection of silver ships, a portion of the mainmast of the Victory pierced by shot at the battle of Trafalgar, a panorama of the battle of Trafalgar and many other such relics similar to those already mentioned.

May offers specially favorable circumstances for driving catarrh out of the system, and every sufferer from this loathsome disease should use Nasal Balm for that purpose. It cures when all other remedies fail, if the directions are faithfully adhered to. A single bottle will convince you of its merit. Sold by all dealers.

King of Medicines

A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well.

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

ON THE WRONG SCENT.

SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT, in his venomous speech on the address, attacked as traitors those who had been "creating bad blood" between the people of this country and the United States. Of course he meant the members of the Government and of the Conservative party, but as usual with Sir Richard he let his hot imagination supply his facts. The Government has done nothing further than to maintain the rights of the Dominion. Would the Government have been justified in giving over the Atlantic fisheries to the United States lest that country should be offended? Why, the Liberal papers jeered at the Government for not taking more vigorous measures to protect those fisheries, although it is true that afterwards Mr. Laurier acted the part of a traitorous Canadian at St. Thomas by alleging that the Government had been harsh and unneighborly. When the treaty was negotiated in 1888, the treaty which the United States Senate rejected, the Liberals alleged that the Government had given away Canada's rights to placate the United States, while now Sir Richard charges that it has endeavored to create bad blood between the two countries. And would the Liberals have the Government remain quiet while Canadians were shut out of the seal fisheries of the Pacific? As to trade matters, the Government has always been willing to arrange for enlarged trade relations, and has again shown its willingness by sending a delegation to Washington and by agreeing to hold a conference on that and other matters on October 12th.

If Sir Richard desires to hunt out traitors to Canada, let him look to the editor of the Liberal organ—a paper, by the way, he is said to largely control—who wrote a document pointing out how the United States might injure this country. And he might also give some attention to the efforts, scarcely concealed, of that same journal to create bad blood in Canada against Great Britain, an unholy work in which it has had little success. If it would be traitorous to foster ill-feeling against a foreign country, it is surely a greater wrong to try to create a bad feeling between different portions of the same country.

THE TRENT CANAL.

THE Toronto Globe last week discussed the Trent Valley canal and its desire to injure the Government led it into inaccuracies. It stated that the Government drifted into this undertaking because "it occurred to somebody at or near an election time to press for the construction of the canal." This is incorrect, for the project was brought before the present Government immediately after it assumed office. The Mackenzie Government, acting on the belief of the then Premier that the canal was impracticable and that the works in existence were simply a burden, handed the works over to the Provincial authorities, and one of the first acts of the present Administration was to rescind the transfer. The Government has constructed a portion of the work, and the appointment of the commission, to which the Globe refers, was made in consequence of statements of Liberal members that the canal was impracticable, a member whose constituency is interested in the work going so far as to quote professional opinion against it. The commissioners, however, having reported favorably there is no necessity now for arguing that question, and the alleged opinions of the late Mr. Page, which the Liberal organ quotes, may be laid aside. Says the Globe:—

"It is clear, however, that if the canal would be serviceable to the great lake route it would be for the general welfare of the Dominion and ought to be undertaken without regard to the jealousy and sectionalism of other parts of the country."

This is a more sensible opinion than the greater part of the Globe article, and if the organ would look fairly at the question, apart from sectionalism and political jealousy, it would see that the canal would be of great benefit to the country and it would drop the "if."

A Pleasant Herb Drink—A Spring Medicine.

The druggists tell us that the people call daily for the new cure for constipation and sick-headache discovered by Dr. Silas Lane. It is said to be Oregon grape root (a great remedy in the far west for those complaints) combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength. It sell at 50c and $1 a package and is called Lane's Family Medicine.

Simply Appalling.

It seems that an uptown housewife relates that she was about closing an engagement with a new help the other day and after acceding to several stipulations as to hours out, Monday's off, etc., finally had to break off the prospective engagement, when the applicant inquired whose teas were used in the house, and learning that the article was bought from the regular grocer replied that she couldn't stay in a house and do justice to the table where they did not use Hawley Bros'. teas, the best and purest sold in town. d98-w18

Mr. Justice MacMahon on Orangemen.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—As some people have a prejudice against the Orange Order and believe that the members are sworn to injure and harass Roman Catholics, the following observations, published in the Toronto Mail of the 29th April, by Mr. Justice MacMahon (himself a Roman Catholic) at the L'Orignal Spring Assizes will enlighten them respecting "An Orangeman's Oath" and I trust remove from their minds such prejudice and belief:—

"Hunter v. McAlpine.—In the course of his charge to the jury his Lordship Mr. Justice MacMahon referring to the obligation taken by Orangemen remarked that this was the first time he had heard it read and he found it just contained what was the duty of every Christian man, nothing more and nothing less; just what every honest and upright man could subscribe to without any difficulty at all."

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for giving me space in your paper for these remarks,

I remain, yours,
C. W. SAWERS.

Peterborough, May 6th, 1891.

WHAT GIRLS TALK ABOUT

Two Subjects That Always Present Interesting Points.

"What do girls talk about," I asked one of them, "at their luncheons and during calls upon each other?"

"Well," she replied, "there are usually two subjects of conversation at gatherings of girls, and they are about equally prolific. One of them is the men and the other is girls who don't happen to be present. We discuss the men of our acquaintance from every possible point of view, exchange confidences that have been made to us, criticise them with unrestricted freedom, and wonder which of them want to marry and what styles of girls they prefer. Sometimes we are rather sharp in our criticisms, but on the whole the men get out rather easily. But when it comes to other girls—my!"

"What do you mean by that?"

"I mean that no mercy is shown. For example, we take up some poor unfortunate who isn't with us and go through the pleasant operation known as picking her to pieces. We discuss her costumes, her complexion, her manners, her sayings, her tastes, and by the time we have got through with her the Creator wouldn't recognise his work. Then we start in on some other girl."

"But have you many enemies of this sort?"

"Enemies? Bless your innocent soul, I haven't an enemy in the world. I love my neighbor as myself."

"You surely don't intend to convey the impression to my mind that these girls whose characters you discuss in this cannibalistic way are friends of yours?"

"Why, certainly. For instance, on the south side the other day we were all taking 5 o'clock tea and having a simply beautiful time picking Maria Jones to pieces. Just in the middle of it all Maria came in. Was she greeted coldly? Well, hardly. We all embraced her, gave her a seat near the fire and changed the subject of conversation to Annie Smith. And how Maria did go for her, to be sure!"—Chicago Post.

Went Before Stanley.

It is not generally known that Stanley was not the man first selected by James Gordon Bennett to find Livingstone. When the idea of a Herald search expedition occurred to Mr. Bennett he cast about for an available man and picked out a Scotchman named McPherson or McKenzie, or something of that kind. This gentleman set out for the East Coast of Africa, got as far as Zanzibar and mysteriously disappeared. What became of him is a profound mystery to this day.

Please Pave Your Feet.

A German inventor proposes to make boots with stone soles. He mixes with a waterproof glue a suitable quantity of clean quartz sand, which is spread on the thin leather sole employed as a foundation. These quartz soles are said to be very flexible and almost indestructible, while they enable the wearer to walk safely over slippery roads.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Organ Recital.

Remember the organ recital in St. John's church to-morrow evening by Dr. Davies.

A Broken Arm.

Mr. Jos. Legrandeur met with an accident as a result of which he is nursing a broken arm. He was digging a well at his house when he fell, and in falling struck his arm, with the above results.

Lacrosse Meeting.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Lacrosse Club will be held this evening in the rooms of the Young Men's Catholic Club, at which the attendance of all members is requested. A delegate will be appointed to represent Peterborough at the district meeting at Madoc. The new district comprises Kingston, Stirling, Madoc, Norwood and Peterborough.

Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers can be applied when at home, and is uniformly successful in coloring a brown or black. Hence its great popularity.

An Old Resident Dead.

One of the oldest residents of the town has passed over the river in the person of Mr. James O'Brien, who resided on Lake-st. It was nearly half a century ago since the deceased came to Peterborough and settled in what was then a struggling settlement, and during the succeeding forty-nine years he has been a resident. He was an Irishman by birth and was born in the Emerald Isle in 1816, being 75 years of age at the time of his death. He leaves three sons, John, James and Edward, all residents of the town, to survive him. A quiet unassuming man he goes to his long sleep respected by all his friends. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at three o'clock from his late residence on Lake-st.

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial

Druggists of Five Counties.

Organizations among all trades and classes are as common now as strawberries in June and this week will probably see another association organized in this district. This time it will be the druggists. The Province of Ontario is divided into thirteen districts for election purposes and in some of these districts the druggists have organized with good results. An effort is therefore going to be made to organize the gentlemen of the drug trade in this district, which comprises the counties of Durham, Northumberland, Peterborough, Victoria and Ontario. The meeting will be held here on Thursday next and some seventy notices have been sent out and it is hoped that there will be a representative meeting. The objects of the association are obvious. Meetings will be held at which subjects of interest to the drug trade will be discussed and thus material benefit derived. The protection of the trade will also be a main object.

A Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache and is the best Spring Medicine. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. and $1 a package.

MINUTES COUNTED THIS TIME.

The Board of Education Does not Meet in the Absence of a Quorum—Near at Hand but a Little Late.

The Board of Education failed to hold their regular meeting last evening owing to the lack of a quorum. It requires eight members to make the quorum and at eight o'clock there were only five present, as follows: Messrs. Wrighton, Chairman, Bradburn, Corkery, Denne and McBain. Eight o'clock is the hour at which, in the absence of a quorum, the law says the Board may stand adjourned, and after waiting for a few minutes Chairman Wrighton declared the meeting adjourned. The members donned their overcoats and hats and started out. Near the entrance gate Messrs. W. G. Ferguson and Peter Hamilton were met. A short distance further was Dr Burnham travelling towards the Board room and before George-st. was reached Messrs. John McKee and Thos. Rutherford were also met en route. All these members had been delayed a minute too long, little imagining that on their promptness depended the meeting.

One of the members who was late had a customer in the shop at a few minutes to eight and was not going to miss the chance of making a few honest shekels, especially when he did not know that the lack of a quorum was going to cause an adjournment.

Another member, also oblivious of the scarcity of early comers, had gone down street to make a purchase before the store was closed.

Such were the reasons which prevented the meeting. Next night it is safe to say that a repetition will not take place, as the members will arrive five minutes earlier if at all possible.

There was not anything of pressing importance for the Board to deal with, except perhaps the matter of the Institute building. It was expected that this question would be discussed and some interest was manifested in it. The present Institute building must be repaired to meet the Government requirements, as laid down in the Inspector's last report, at a cost of probably about five thousand dollars, or a new building must be built at an expense of between thirty and forty thousand. One of the members of the Board last evening said he favored the placing of the matter before the people at once and let them decide. The matter will probably be considered at the next meeting of the Board.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Dentistry.

Until further notice J. B. Pentland, Dentist, will insert sets of teeth of best quality and workmanship for $8.00. Gas administered free. d4181-4w18

Driven on a Lee Shore on Rice Lake.

The terrible gale of wind which passed over the town on Monday swept across Rice Lake with an awful fury and the peaceful waters of the inland sea were lashed in foam as the waves rolled high. The staunch little craft, the Pearl, owned by Mr. Harris at Gore's Landing, was anchored at the latter place and no danger was anticipated. But the storm, which surpassed anything seen on the lake in years, came in on the little steamer and she dragged her anchor and was carried by the furious sea upon the lee shore. The waves then continued to wash over her and damaged her somewhat, but to what extent is not known.

A dry, hacking cough keeps the bronchial tubes in a state of constant irritation which, if not speedily removed, may lead to bronchitis. No prompter remedy can be had than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which is both an anodyne and expectorant.

A Collision and Accident.

At noon to-day just as the hacks and 'busses were leaving the C.P.R. station, after the arrival of the 11 30 train an unfortunate accident occurred which happily did not result in serious injuries. Mrs. H. C. Nesbitt, accompanied by her little daughter Eva, was driving up in a phaeton when one of the omnibusses turned too close to her and collided with the light vehicle. A wheel was smashed and Mrs. Nesbitt and her daughter were thrown out upon the road, while the horse took fright and started to run away. Fortunately neither of the occupants of the phaeton was injured, although it was a narrow escape. The horse was caught before running far.

A New Water Wheel.

A new water wheel has been introduced here lately by Mr. John C. Lansing, who has patented his invention and is now having its power tested. One of the new wheels, known as the Lansing turbine water wheel, has been placed in the small saw mill of the Dickson Company and is working very satisfactorily. Much is claimed for the new wheel as superior to other similar inventions and Mr. Lansing, it would appear, is going to make a success of his invention. It is said to be more durable and less liable to get out of order and more easily righted when it does. The Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Co here manufactured some of the wheels for Mr. Lansing, who is living in town.

Five Hundred Dollars

Will be given for a case of Catarrh which cannot be cured permanently by Clark's Catarrh Cure. Step right up to the office and prove your case and get the reward. Thousands have tried this remedy, but no one has claimed the reward, because it cures in every case. If you have a cold or are troubled with Catarrh, ask your druggist for Clark's Catarrh Cure, price 50 cents, and see what a pleasant relief it will be instantly. If you are asked to take something else, send to us direct, and we will send you a bottle by mail on receipt of price. Clark Chemical Co., Toronto.

Had to be Separated.

Many an amusing scene is witnessed by the regular attendants at the Police Court, but none had ever presented a more laughable aspect than that of this morning. The amusement was furnished by two women whose power of manipulating a woman's weapon, the tongue, was marvellous. A man by the name of John Irwin, who lives on Bethune-st., was charged by Chief Roszel with disorderly conduct on Saturday night last. Among the witnesses was an elderly neighbor lady who was directly interested in the conduct of the accused which was termed disorderly. It was when this witness and the wife of the defendant were ventilating their versions of the affair marked by emphatic interruptions, that the fun was rich, and the Magistrate, who had his hands full to keep track of the contradictory stories, had to separate the two women to keep them quiet. The evidence went to show that the trouble had arisen out of the quarrels of the children of the respective households and the vilest of language was imputed to the accused. This, however, was contradicted and the Magistrate dismissed the case, much to the sorrow of the elderly neighbor lady who left the court room in tears.

THE RANGERS IN RED.

A Battalion Drill—Some Orders and Promotions.

There was a good muster of the 57th at the drill shed last evening, about 200 men being on parade. They were exercised in battalion movements and in company drill, while a large class of recruits were given a taste of drill under the command of Sergt. L. G. Hall. Capt. Dennistoun, Adjutant, read the regimental orders. Company drill will be held on Thursday evening and on Tuesday next battalion drill will again be held.

Now that the 24th is approaching the men should take an interest and attend all drills so that they may compare favorably with their visitors from the Capital. Then a month later the battalion will be on parade at Ottawa so that proficiency in drill is doubly important.

Among the regimental orders read last evening were the following promotions:—

Corporal's certificate granted to L. G. Cluxton and W. J. Loyd.

Pte. L. G. Cluxton, F Co, promoted to be Corporal, Vice W. H. Magood resigned.

Pte. W. J. Loyd, C Co., confirmed in his rank from May 5th.

Certificates from the Royal School of Infantry, Toronto, were presented to Sergt. J. G. Mellor, C Co.; Bugler Sharpe, D Co.; and Pte. Roberts, E Co.

THE ASSOCIATION WORK.

The Y. M. C. A. Building Fund—Monthly Board Meeting and Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The monthly Board meeting was held last evening. Mr. Early, President, occupied the chair. There was a large attendance of the directors. After devotional exercises seven new members were elected. Interesting and encouraging reports were received from the Devotional, Reception, Invitation and Finance Committees, Rescue Brigade and General Secretary of the work done during the past month. The work was shown to be in a prosperous condition, spiritually and financially, which will lead to more aggressive work in the future among our young men. Mr. G. M. Roger reported on behalf of the building scheme as to what steps had been taken so far. Mr. T. S. Cole followed and related the progress made with the canvass. On motion the following were elected the building committee:—G. M. Roger, chairman; A. L. Davis, Secretary; J. L. Gower, Treasurer, Peter Hamilton, Richard Hall, Chas. McGill, G. J. Early, R. J. Kidd and R. J. Colville. The canvass for the funds to complete the new building will be pushed vigorously and much time might be saved the committee if friends interested would remit at once. Their contributions will be gratefully acknowledged. If we are to have the new building this fall, this must be done.

We purpose giving the Edison company employees a welcome to our town towards the end of the month and also hope to reach the Governor-General's Foot Guards during their visit on 24th May. We believe our Ladies Auxiliary purpose providing entertainment for them also.

Special votes of thanks were given to the I.O.O.F. for collection for building fund also Rev. Mr. Johnston, Lindsay, Messrs. R. M. Roy and Cole, also Gordon and Helliwell, Toronto, for valuable services rendered the Association.

Salvationists at Bridgenorth.

The Salvation Army gave an entertainment at Bridgenorth last evening, which was very successful. The brass band of the Peterborough corps was in attendance and with addresses and music a happy time was spent.

Ascension Day.

The service at St. Luke's in commemoration of the ascension of our Lord will be held in the church at 8 p.m. to-morrow.

Services will also be held at St. Peter's to-morrow morning, when Masses will be celebrated at 6, 8 and 10 o'clock. At the 8 o'clock Mass the receiving of First Communion will take place.

Personal.

Brakeman Wm. Scott of the Lakefield suburban has been transferred to the Junction branch under Conductor Morris. Patrons of the suburban will miss "Billy" as he was always courteous and obliging to passengers. We understand his removal is a promotion for him.

Overworked, broken down, prematurely aged men or those suffering from excesses or indiscretions will find a certain cure in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They supply the material necessary to enrich the blood, build up the nerves and restore the shattered system. Never fail. Sold by all dealers, or sent on receipt of price—50c. per box, or five boxes for $2—by addressing The Dr. Williams Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

Tea and Sale at St. Luke's.

The annual tea and sale given each May by the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Luke's church, took place yesterday afternoon and evening. Notwithstanding the inclemency of May weather this spring, and of yesterday in particular, the school was fairly well filled. A good display of fancy articles graced the lower end of the room, while the dinner tables stood at the opposite end. Both divisions were well patronized, the dinner tables being especially tempting. On the whole the efforts of the ladies seemed to be well appreciated, as they deserved to be. The proceeds, amounting to about $60.00, will be applied as usual to the building fund. The silk quilt which attracted considerable attention became the property of Mrs. Nesbitt.

A Pleasant Time in the South Ward.

The St. John's South Ward Mission building was the scene of a happy and enjoyable social gathering last evening, when an entertainment was given which was largely attended and highly pleasing in its character. Mr. W. M. Loucks presided and performed the duties of chairman in a neat and felicitous manner. He made a few remarks at opening. The entertainment was more of a social gathering to permit friendly intercourse, rather than a musical or literary evening. However a number of delightful renditions were given during the evening. The Peterborough orchestra was present and gave several excellent selections which were much appreciated. Miss Snowden rendered a vocal solo, Mr. P. D. Parker gave a humorous reading which provoked much amusement, Mr. J. F. Drope contributed a song and the little Jones sisters gave a duet. Refreshments, tempting and toothsome, were served in the basement, in which a new floor has been laid. The rector, Rev. J. C. Davidson, made a few remarks at the close returning thanks to the orchestra and the enjoyable evening closed with the National Anthem.

LAKEFIELD LOCALS.

The New Summer Hotel—Higher Religious Instruction Examinations.

Correspondence of the Review.

CHEESE FACTORY.—The cheese factory formerly operated by Mr. J. D. Moore has been purchased by a joint stock company of the leading farmers and is now running under the management of Mr. W. W. Grant, who has been cheesemaker there for the last two years.

TREMONT HOUSE.—Capt. Leon Dion has now moved into his new brick hotel, situated near the G. T. R. station. It is a fine large building and should attract a large number of summer tourists. The hotel will accommodate twenty-five regular boarders in addition to the requirements of the travelling public. The captain expects to have it complete by June 1st. Already ten have engaged rooms in it for the summer, and we have no doubt as it becomes known it will be a popular summer hotel, so that it will require to be enlarged to double its present sleeping accommodation. The situation is a very pleasant one, with the G. T. R. station in front and the steamboat wharves in the rear, where boating, &c., can be indulged in by the guests. On the grounds, which are large, is a fine playground for children, with a beautiful cedar grove where the elders can while away many a pleasant hour in a hammock. The prospects are that when fully opened the hotel will be filled, from the number of applications already received by the captain.

HIGH RELIGIOUS INSTITUTION.—At the recent examinations of the Higher Religious Institution of the Presbyterian church in Canada the following members of the Lakefield Sabbath school were successful:—Intermediate Biblical, Miss Clara P. McEwan, Diploma; Life of Christ, Miss Minnie Fitzgerald, Certificate; Junior Doctrinal, Master Geo. Hendren, Certificate; Intermediate Doctrinal, Master Andrew Smith, Certificate; Master Able Hendren, Certificate; Miss Clara P. McKwen, Diploma; Junior History, Miss Jessie I. Smith, Certificate; Intermediate History, Mr. David M. Hunter, Diploma; Senior History, Miss Isabella Duff, Prize.

STEAMERS.—The new sidewheel steamer Sunbeam is rapidly approaching completion and is expected to make her trial trip during this week......The Golden City will also make her trial trip on Friday......A number of applications have already been received by the owners of both boats for excursions at early dates which indicate that this route is again to be the popular one for excursions.

COUNCIL MEETING.—The Council will meet in the town hall on Monday evening. The regular meeting of the School Board will take place in the Ward school on Tuesday evening.

NEW BUS.—Our enterprising livery man, Mr. John Cooper, will in future meet all the trains with a bran new bus, which was made by our local carriage maker, Mr. J. H. McWilliams, and which is alike creditable to maker and owner.

WIDOWS AND ORPHANS.

Scenes at the Homes of the Victims of the New Orleans Mob.

LONDON, May 4.—A correspondent of The New York Herald, writing from Palermo April 30, says he has visited some of the relations of the men who were lynched at New Orleans. In the mountains of Caccamo he found the widow and orphans of Pietro Monastero. In the middle of a bare stone chamber sat the widow draped from head to foot in black in the native manner. Around her stood the five small orphans of the dead man—three toddling boys and two girls. The widow's face was Madonnalike in its simple beauty. Her eyes were soft and dark. On a rude table were a few handfuls of raw wheat contributed by the neighbors to feed the little ones. On the wall was the dusty crucifix, at which Monastero prayed for success on the day he left his mountain home. Around the room sat the five sisters of the dead man, and the doorway was choked up with the neighbors, who told how good Monastero had been to the poor, and how everybody was contributing a few centimes to keep his helpless family from starvation. The correspondent heard for the first time that Monastero was a member of the Municipal Council and a hard-working, respectable shoemaker, who went to New Orleans to get money enough to pay his debts. The widow said Monastero never did wrong in his life, and he wrote to her from prison saying he was innocent. He could not understand how he came to be with the other men, but she was sure he had committed no crime. The other members of the family expressed the same belief. Monastero's brother, a priest, said the Mafia passed away from this land long ago; there is no such thing now. Tell the American people we are honest folks who cannot understand how they allowed an honest man to be publicly murdered. Tell them his widow and orphans are helpless.

In Palmero along the sea front the correspondent found the top story of an old stone house the aged mother and two brothers of Antonio Abagnato, who was strangled in the presence of the mob. The mother is a wrinkled, feeble woman, who stood shivering and crying in her black garb while her eldest son read the dead man's last letter from prison protesting his innocence and asking them not to tell his mother of his trouble. "God will defend me, for I am innocent," said the letter. "I send my mother a kiss, and ask for her blessing. Pray to God for me and believe that I am innocent." The whole thing seemed a dream to the poor mother. Her son had written that he would soon come home, but the days passed and no Antonio came. Then she was told that the public had put her son to death, although he had been declared innocent by a jury and that the police did nothing to prevent it. "My son had nothing to do with the Mafia," said Abagnato's mother. "You cannot find in the whole of Sicily a man who can say a word against his character. He went to America to earn more money and see his aunts. He was my only support. The talk about the Mafia is all false. There is no Mafia in Sicily, and if there is I am sure my son would have nothing to do with it. They say he changed his name in New Orleans, but you will see by his letters that he shortened it because he could not get the people there to spell it in the right way. I do not think my boy was killed because he was a Sicilian; it was because there was great excitement. I understand it, but that will not bring back my son to me. I am poor and he was my bread-winner."

The correspondent next found the relatives of Francisco Romeo. They stated that Romeo's father, who is 91 years of age, died of grief when he heard of his son's death. Romeo, they declared, was innocent, and the idea of his belonging to the Mafia was nonsense.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Mr. Blue Appointed Director of the Bureau of Mines—Fatal Accident.

TORONTO, May 6.—Mr. Archibald Blue has been appointed to the position of director of the Bureau of Mines, a new office created by Mr. Hardy's Mining Act, under the Crown Lands Department and worth $3000 per annum. Mr. Blue has been Deputy Minister of Agriculture for several years and secretary of the Bureau of Industries since its organization, with a salary of $2200.

James Sandford, employed on the new Parliament buildings, fell from the rafters yesterday and was so badly injured that he died at the hospital a few hours later.

DOUBTS AS TO SHEOL.

A Methodist Pastor Questions the Idea of Perdition.

MONTICELLO, Ill., May 4.—The Rev. H. O. Hoffman, one of the leading ministers of Illinois, and pastor of the Independent Methodist Church at Bloomington, created a sensation last night by announcing that the doctrine of everlasting hell is not taught in the Bible. He says Christ never used the word damnation with the meaning it has applied to it by the orthodox preachers of to-day. Mr. Hoffman has a large following, formerly believing in the doctrine of perpetual punishment by fire and regular Methodists. He is very popular and an able minister.

UPSET BY WINE SAUCE.

Church Women Shocked by Recipes in a Society Cook Book.

BIRMINGHAM, Conn., May 5.—There is a row among the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Shelton Methodist Church over recipes for wine sauce printed in a cook book recently compiled by prominent society ladies, Mrs. Fred Tucker and Mrs. John Wilkinson, in behalf of the organization. The work was well edited and finely bound and the recipes were the best to be found. The work met with a ready sale, $300 being realized thus far.

The discovery of the wine sauce recipes was not made until a few days ago. Four of the members of the society noted them, and it was characterized as horrible that they should appear in a book got up to aid the church. The compilers say if the society doesn't take the money they will be satisfied to keep it. Shelton is at present a nonlicense town and the compilers are prohibitionists.

ONE FIRE WITH ECZEMA

My baby boy, 5 months old, broke out with eczema. The itching and burning was intense; the eczema spread to his limbs, breast, face and head, until he was nearly covered; his torturing agonies were pitiable to behold; he had no peace and but little rest night or day. He was under treatment at different times at two hospitals and by seven doctors in this city without the least benefit; every prescription of the doctors was faithfully tried, but he grew worse all the time. For months I expended about $6 per week for medicines, and was entirely discouraged. I purchased CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT and followed the directions to the letter. Relief was immediate, his sufferings were eased, and rest and sleep permitted. He steadily improved and in nine weeks time was entirely cured, and has now as clear a skin and is as fair a boy as any mother could wish to see. I recommend every mother to use it for every Baby Humor.

Burdock Blood Bitters

BANISHES BAD BLOOD.

Bad Blood is responsible for all the Boils, Blotches, Pimples, Eruptions, Skin Diseases, Humors and Disfiguring Rashes that are so prevalent, especially in spring. There is a NATURAL FOE TO BAD BLOOD called Burdock Blood Bitters which always conquers, never fails and is recommended by thousands. It searches out and removes all impurities from the smallest pimple to the worst scrofulous sore. In Scrofula, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Shingles, Tetter, etc., its effects are wonderful.

Ormond & Walsh are now fully prepared with their spring supply of newly imported FIELD, GARDEN & FLOWER SEEDS. Purchasers of seeds must now be convinced of the disappointment experienced in buying seeds from boxes or packages already put up and placed in stores on commission and in many instances transferred from place to place for many years before being sold, the disappointment experienced not only from their non-vegetative powers but from the small quantity contained in each paper. To prevent these disappointments, Messrs. Ormond & Walsh sell the whole of their seeds by weight at a fair and moderate price with a guarantee of their Freshness and Vegetative Power. 6w14

BUY NOW IF AT ALL. EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Fitz property, in the west end, owned lately by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on the property to dispose of. Property in this neighborhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged. WM. FITZGERALD.

SHEENY HAL ALCHEMIST.

CLAIMS TO HAVE DISCOVERED THE PHILOSOPHER'S STONE,

Attempts to Swindle a London Jeweler Out of £40,000 and is Locked Up—An Old Fake Which Landed an Ingenious Hebrew in Bridgewell Being.

LONDON, May 6.—A man understood to be an American, who described himself as Edward Pinter, was arraigned in the police court yesterday charged with having attempted to swindle a jeweler named Streeton out of £40,000. Prisoner represented to the jeweler that he possessed the philosophers stone and was thus enabled to convert the baser metals into gold. Pinter was remanded for trial.

LORD DOUGLAS' SUICIDE.

The Brother of the Marquis of Queensberry's Census Experience Recalled.

LONDON, May 6.—In conjunction with the suicide of Lord James Douglas it is recalled that April 11, at the West London Police Court, application was made by Mr. Rutherglen, Clerk of the Kensington Board of Guardians, for a summons against Lord James Douglas, described as "of Kensington Court," for a contravention of the Census Act. Mr. Rutherglen made the application at the instance of the Registrar-General, and in so doing handed the magistrate, Curtis Bennett, a letter and Lord James Douglas' census paper, which purported to be a return of the members of his household. Upon this return were the names of Lady James Douglas and her son, the former being described as a "cross sweep" and "lunatic," and the latter as "shoeblack," born "in Darkest Africa." Mr. Rutherglen then said that he relied on the 20th section of the act, which provided that, 'If any person refuses to answer, or wilfully gives a false answer to such questions or any of them, he shall for each offence be liable to a fine not exceeding £50.

The magistrate said that the offence was clear on the face of the return, and granted the summons asked for. Mr. Rutherglen asked if he should call Lady James Douglas as a witness, but Mr. Bennett thought not, as the act did not authorize the wife to be called. The magistrate added that some of the servants who knew Lord James' handwriting might be called, and subpoena summonses were granted for the attendance of two of them.

The summons against Lord James Douglas came up for a hearing on Monday, April 20, when Mr. Rutherglen applied to the magistrate for permission to withdraw it, stating that he had seen Lord James, who had expressed regret and shame for the childish and foolish return. The latter told Mr. Rutherglen that he was ill in bed, and that he gave the return to his wife to fill up, after writing his own name in pencil. Mr. Rutherglen added that the return was filled up by Lord James' wife and stepson, who thought it a good joke to make the entries as noted. The magistrate said that he had noticed that in the return there was a handwriting different from the signature. Mr. Rutherglen admitted this, but pointed out that Lord James Douglas was responsible, though there was some excuse for him. Lord James, he added, had paid all the costs and had satisfied the Registrar-General, who instructed the Speaker to withdraw the summons. The magistrate then allowed the summons to be withdrawn.

DYNAMITE IN ROME.

A FIRE WHICH IS ATTRIBUTED TO AGITATORS.

Another Gladstonian Victory—Captain Verney Sentenced to One Year's Imprisonment

ROME, May 6.—Startling rumors are circulating in this city and are causing much alarm at the Vatican and in Government circles. The rumors originated after a fire which yesterday evening, was discovered in the barracks occupied in this city by the carbineria, a picked body of armed and mounted policemen or gendarmery. The flames, in spite of the carbineria, assisted by the troops and the firemen who were summoned to the scene, soon spread to the barns or storehouses adjoining the carbineria barracks, where the stock of forage intended for the horses of the carbineria were stored. The stables were soon attacked by the flames, and the terrified horses, liberated with difficulty by the stable guard, rushed frantically down to the banks of the Tiber, where they were afterward recaptured. In the meanwhile the news of the fire had spread throughout Rome, and naturally reached the Vatican, and so alarmed them that the entire Swiss Guard was immediately ordered under arms and was kept under arms throughout the night. It is now currently reported that the fire which so alarmed the Vatican was undoubtedly of an incendiary origin, and that it was the work of the Socialist element in this city, which has been bubbling up here and elsewhere before May-day, on May-day and since that date in various forms and under different disguises.

ONE YEAR FOR VERNEY.

He Pleaded Guilty of Conspiring with the Frenchwoman.

LONDON, May 6.—The trial of Capt. Verney, M.P. for North Buckinghamshire, charged with procuring a governess, Nellie Beckett, for immoral purposes, took place to-day. Captain Verney pleaded not guilty of procuring the girl, but he pleaded guilty of conspiracy in conjunction with Mme. Poulier of Paris to procure her. The recorder, Sir Thomas Chambers, accepted the plea and sentenced Capt. Verney to one year's imprisonment without hard labor.

The Disgraced Officer.

LONDON, May 6.—During the trial the court was packed with people, eager to witness the last scenes in the sensational case. Capt. Verney, though downcast in appearance, pleaded guilty in a firm voice to the charge of conspiracy to procure. Counsel for the defence, in his plea for the prisoner, alluded to the prisoner's distinguished services in the Crimea and in Parliament, and undoubtedly won sympathy for the disgraced ex-naval officer. The recorder in sentencing Capt. Verney said he had come to the conclusion through the evidence given that the case of Miss Nellie Beckett was not the only case of procuration in which the captain had been implicated, and therefore he could not lean towards the side of mercy so much as he could have done had it been an isolated case.

Officers of the navy are highly indignant at Capt. Verney for having used an honorably discharged seaman, who had served under him, as an innocent tool in his infamous business of decoying young women. The seaman alluded to, Robert Russell, was induced to allow his house to be used as a place for receiving letters addressed to Verney in his false name of Wilson and Ronard. In one of Verney's letters to his agent in crime, Mme. Eugenie Rouillier, he says of a certain book: "You know it is considered such a naughty book in America that it is not allowed to be sold at all. Myself cannot see that it is so very naughty." The police claim to have evidence in about 40 cases against Verney. Expulsion from Parliament will doubtless follow conviction.

GLADSTONIAN VICTORY.

The Vacancy in Suffolk Lately Filled by a Tory Now Goes the Other Way.

LONDON, May 6.—The result of the election held yesterday for a successor in Parliament to the late Edward Greene, who represented the Stowmarket division of Suffolk, shows that the Gladstonians have won another victory. Barnstorn (Gladstonian) received 4346 votes and Greene (Conservative) 4131. The late member, Edward Greene, was a progressive Conservative and a well-known brewer of St. Edmunds. At the last election he received 3966 votes, 3361 being cast for the Gladstonian Liberal candidate, Edward North Baxton.

Suspended the Expulsion.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 6.—The authorities have suddenly suspended the expulsion of Jews from Moscow. It is reported that there were disorders at Warsaw Sunday, which were suppressed by troops. The agitation among the Russian Poles is spreading. Official circles here put the blame upon the conciliatory policy adopted by Germany in Prussian Poland, and believe that Germany's object is to arouse envy and discontent among the Russian Poles.

The Price of Flour Has Decreased.

LONDON, May 6.—The Millers' Association of Leeds has issued a notification that the price of flour has been decreased to one shilling and sixpence per bag.

The Death List 180.

LIMA, May 6.—The latest advices say 180 lives were lost by the sinking of the Chilian insurgent warship Blanco Encalada.

The Ill-Treated Huns.

VIENNA, May 6.—In the Reichsrath to-day Herr Masaryk gave notice that he would interpellate the Government as to whether it was aware that subjects of Austria-Hungary in the State of Virginia, U.S., were treated as slaves, and if so what measures would the Government take to obtain redress for such treatment of Austro-Hungarian subjects!

NOTE—The interpellation probably refers to the alleged terrible ill-treatment some time ago of 75 Bohemians lured in New York city and taken to Virginia to work on the extension of the Norfolk and Western Railway.

Schaefer Wins Easily.

CHICAGO, May 6.—The challenge game of billiards between Jacob Schaefer, the world's champion, and Eugene Carter here to-night was easily won by Schaefer. Score: Schaefer 800, Carter 461; Carter's best run 111, Schaefer's highest 104.

The New York Athletic Club is anxious to have Hanlan train their oarsmen and scullers and yesterday the Torontonian received a letter asking for his terms. Ned does not desire a position as trainer and will write the Gotham institution to that effect.

A Toronto Man Cuts His Throat.

ISHPEMING, Mich., May 6.—George Dewick, a farmer about 60 years old, committed suicide near this city this morning by cutting his throat with a razor. He had been suffering with the grip, and it is believed the malady had unbalanced his mind. He was formerly from Toronto, Ont.

RANDALL CLINE IN CUSTODY.

A Well Known Character in the West Charged With a Serious Crime.

WINDSOR, May 6.—Randall Cline was seen hanging about the Walkerville brickyard yesterday morning before the plant burned down. He was arrested later and said he came from Leamington. This gave rise to suspicion that he fired the church here. He was sent to Sandwich jail for 15 days pending investigation. Cline, it is subsequently learned, is a cattle buyer and owns 200 acres of land in [illegible], Elgin county. Cline has been an inmate of nearly every lock-up in the [illegible] counties [illegible] escaped from jail [illegible]. He is at present fully $1000 in [illegible] from sprees.

DELEGATED TO KILL GOULD.

A Crank Who Said He Was One of Christ's Followers.

NEW YORK, May 6.—A dangerous lunatic named Charles J. Dixon, who says he comes from Pueblo, Col., was arrested here last night at the residence of Dr. Munn, Jay Gould's physician. Dixon told the Doctor that he belonged to an organization known as "Christ's Followers." This organization was strong throughout the country and he had been delegated at a secret meeting to come to New York and kill Jay Gould. He said he was known as Vespre Idout, No. 71, of the order and told a sensational story as to how the organization was formed. He was locked up as insane.

Dixon said that if Mr. Gould would give himself $[illegible] in cash and $20,000 for some charitable institution he felt as though he could save Mr. Gould's life by arranging matters with his people. If Mr. Gould refused to accept both propositions and he (Dixon) failed to kill him, the organization would certainly kill Dixon.

In a room where Dixon has been stopping detectives found a trunk full of clothing, a revolver and a slungshot, but the lunatic was unarmed when arrested. He had $300 in his pocket. Dixon said, among other things, that he killed four men who tried to rob his offices at Pueblo. He declared he had been a land agent and formerly owned a newspaper called The Jacksonian in Colorado. To-morrow he will be examined as to his sanity.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER

President of the New Waterworks and Gasworks Securities Corporation in London.

LONDON, May 6.—Sir Charles Tupper has been appointed director of the Waterworks and Gasworks Securities Corporation, which has just been organized here with a capital of £2,000,000 sterling. The object of this new corporation is to buy up waterworks, gasworks and other concerns of the kind in Canada and the United States. There is every prospect of an early settlement of the question of the power of the trustees to invest in colonial inscribed stock. A simple bill approved by the colonial representatives in London is being drafted for the Imperial Parliament. Legislation may also be necessary in Canada and other colonies.

HURONTARIO CANAL.

A Deputation of Capitalists Explain the Scheme to U.S. Senators.

BUFFALO, May 6.—The Senatorial Committee which is now in this city investigating this country's trade relations with Canada met in the Merchant's Exchange again this morning. An important Canadian delegation arrived while the committee was in session and were given an opportunity to present their views. The delegation consisted of Charles R. Pope, U. S. consul at Toronto; Kivas Tully, Government Engineer, Toronto; Ald. Hewitt, Messrs. J. C. Fitch and David Blain, Joseph Blakeley and J. Hedley, representing the Board of Trade of Toronto.

The deputation gave information to the committee with reference to the projected Hurontario Ship Railway, which proposes to carry laden vessels overland from Georgian Bay to Lake Ontario. At the request of the chairman, Kivas Tully, C.E., gave a sketch of the enterprise from an engineering point of view, and David Blain a fuller account of its economic and commercial features, quoting largely from the comprehensive paper on the subject recently compiled by E. L. Corthell, M. Can. Soc. C.E., long the associate of the late Capt. Eads. The Senate Committee, of whom Senator Gray of Delaware and Dolph of Oregon, were present, besides Senator Hoar, took evident interest in this scheme of a shorter, quicker and cheaper route to tidewater for the grain of the Northwestern States and Territories.

A Green Goods Negotiator Acquitted.

OTTAWA, May 6.—In the assize here to-day William McCormack was arraigned on a charge of purchasing counterfeit money, known as "green goods," with a view to trafficking in them. The judge reviewed the indictment, detected a flaw in it, and, saying he did not think the crown had a case sufficient to go before the jury, he dismissed the prisoner.

Fire at Oakville.

OAKVILLE, Ont., May 6.—A fire broke out yesterday in Doty's foundry, near the G.T.R. station, just as the men were leaving for dinner, and it was totally destroyed. The building was a frame one. It has been used latterly as a storehouse for fruit baskets and pretty well filled at the time. Together with the loss of the building was a valuable lath-cutter. The foundry was just being fitted up for a dyeing establishment and some furs were also destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown. Loss about $12,000.

FORSOOK HIS VOWS FOR LOVE.

Tragic Ending of the Romantic Career of the Rev. Father Zang.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 6.—Some fishermen found in the Red River, near Fulton, this morning, the dead body of a white man, believed, from papers in his pockets, to be Rev. Father Zang, who was a resident of this state, with a most romantic history. The reverend gentleman was educated in Germany and possessed ability of the highest degree. After coming to this country he was placed in charge of a Catholic Church at Dixie, Ark., and under his administration it prospered greatly.

Among his congregation was a young girl named Annie Doyle, who was young and very attractive and with whom it was reported the priest, who was not 30 years of age, became so infatuated that he renounced his faith and church for the sake of marrying her.

The marriage is claimed to have been a failure. Zang, after renouncing the priesthood without means, found it difficult to make a living for himself and pretty wife. He tried a number of vocations, but with indifferent success. Becoming despondent he recently announced that he would go to Texas, where he hoped to get employment teaching. He was seen Friday last in Southwest Arkansas. He had started to make the long journey overland and on foot.

The body taken from the water is swollen out of semblance almost, but it answers his description exactly. It cannot be ascertained whether his death was the result of accident or suicide.

GOSSIP FROM OTTAWA.

THE GOVERNMENT CONSIDERING TWO-CENT POSTAGE.

Mr. Tarte Will Have Considerable to Say About the McGreevy Scandal in a Day or Two—A Large Number of Deputations Wait Upon the Government.

OTTAWA, May 6.—Penny postage is in the air. Men who are now old will live to see imperial penny postage, and as for Canada the two-cent rate may be considered to have knocked at the door when we hear the Postmaster-General declare that the Government are considering a reduction in the present rate. That was the answer that Hon. John Haggart returned to an enquiry of Mr. Somerville whether it was the intention of the Government to reduce letter postage to two cents.

Col. Denison also had a question whether it was the intention of the Government to approach the imperial authorities with a view to establish a uniform two-cent postage rate between all parts of the empire. Mr. Haggart said this also was under consideration.

Mr. Tarte's Bombshell.

Early to-day it was understood that Mr. Tarte would place the McGreevy matter before the House for action. The impetuous French-Canadian editor was ill for a few days, but he was about to-day and occupied his place in the House. He carried under his arm a neatly-wrapped-up parcel, which was said to contain his arraignment of the Hon. Thomas McGreevy and of the Minister of Public Works. He did not unwrap it, however, and it is now said he will not make his statement until Monday. He will read his story from a type-written copy which he has prepared, and the mere reading of which will occupy an hour and a half.

The Election Returns.

A debate of the pleasantest character occurred on motion of Dr. Landerkin, requiring certain important information regarding the recent general election and the methods adopted in making the returns to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery.

Mr. Mills had something to say about it. The returning-officers, the hon. David said, under the statute could be proceeded against, but what was the use when the official was not, as in his constituency, worth anything and not a cent could be collected from him!

The Premier arose and in a mollifying speech assured the House that the Government would assist in rectifying any feature of the Franchise Act that worked unfairly. This was greeted with Opposition "Hear, hear," and the doctor thanked the leader of the House for his promise.

Messrs. McMullen and Mulock testified to the rectitude of the returning officers in their constituencies, and it was then the Ministerialist's turn to say "Hear, hear."

Apportioning the Seats.

The striking committee, composed of members of the two parties, met to-day and concluded the work of forming the committees. It is whispered about to-night that the Opposition were conceded 94 seats. Subtracting from the total number of members the Speaker's seat, one of the two constituencies represented by Sir Hector Langevin and Algoma, this would leave the Government at present with 118 seats, or a majority of 24.

The Duty on Confectionery.

R. Watson, Toronto; McLaughlin, Owen Sound; J. E. Ganong, St. Stephen, N.B., and Carruthers, Kingston, a deputation representing wholesale confectioners, will have an interview with the Minister of Finance and Customs to-morrow to urge that the duty on confectionery be increased or duty on raw sugar taken.

Want the Excise Duty Reduced.

A deputation representing Canadian importers, manufacturers and wholesale dealers in tobacco, waited upon Messrs. Foster, Bowell and Costigan, Ministers of Customs and Inland Revenue, at the office of the Finance Minister this morning. The deputation consisted of Messrs. Tuckett, Bristol and Stuart of Hamilton; Percheron of Montreal and Benetteau of London. They were introduced by Messrs. McKay and Ryckman of Hamilton and Denison of Toronto. They asked that the excise duty on tobacco be reduced from 20 cents to 10 cents or 11 cents per pound, and argued that this course would increase the consumption of tobacco and would not reduce the revenue derived from it. The ministers promised to lay the views of the deputation before the government.

Gossip from the Capital.

The position awarded to Mr. Chipman, Tupper's private secretary, as Hudson Bay commissioner in Winnipeg is worth $2000. Chipman is a relative of Tupper.

Viscount Kilcoursie, Grenadier Guards, arrived at Government House to-day to assume his duties as aide-de-camp on the staff of His Excellency Lord Stanley of Preston.

A delegation of sugar refiners are here asking that the duty on raw sugar be taken off and a corresponding duty added to the duty on the refined article.

Rev. Mr. Dougall, Methodist missionary in the Northwest, is here to-day, and waited on Mr. Dewdney, Minister of the Interior, to ask for a money grant to the Industrial School at Morley.

At the caucus of members of Parliament in favor of prohibition Mr. Jamieson suggested rushing the prohibition resolution on the House as soon as possible so as not to have it so far down on the order paper that it could not be finally disposed of this session.

A leather manufacturers' deputation arrived here to-day and urged the Government to place on the free list dongras and [illegible] materials required in the manufacture of leather. Hon. Mr. Foster promised to lay the matter before his colleagues. The deputation included Messrs. Beardmore and Wickett, Toronto; C. J. Millard, Orillia; George Lang and Mr. Breithaupt, Berlin.

Dr. Montague presented a petition to-day of the Canada & Michigan Tunnel Co. for an act to extend the time of commencing and completing their work. The petitioners are: James Ross, Andrew Onderdonk, J. D. Hawke, George Bliss, D. O. Mills, H. B. Laidlaw and Nicol Kingsmill. The petition recited that after a charter was obtained for a tunnel under the Detroit River, from Windsor or Sandwich to Detroit, the promoters of a rival scheme, the Detroit Winter Railway Bridge Co., obtained a charter, and this disconcerted the promoters of the first scheme. The railway companies have not however, decided that the tunnel is the most feasible; the company therefore ask for an extension of their time so that the work may be commenced. The River St. Clair Railway Bridge & Tunnel Co., which also purposes to pass over or under the river between the township of Moore and the town of St. Clair, also wants an extension of time.

Dyspepsia

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it had cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

Correspondence of the Review.

TEMPERANCE HOUSE.—The Commercial House, which has been closed for two years, re-opened again on May the 1st, as a thorough temperance house, under the management of Mr. W. A. Arnberg. Everything is fitted up in good style for the reception of guests.

THE BOATS.—The Esturion started on her regular trip on the 23rd ult., between this place and Lindsay, and the Maple Leaf began her single trip between this place and Bridgenorth on the 27th ult. As soon as the Chemong railway opens this boat will run a double trip to Chemong.

MUMPS.—The mumps are taking their rounds these last couple of weeks here. They have been working in the schools this last week or so, in consequence of which a number of the pupils has had a rest for about a week.

SEEDING.—The farmers of this vicinity have been very busy for the past week seeding. As the weather has been so fine they have made good progress.

[illegible].—The [illegible] of this school is to be holden on May the 8th at 2.30 p.m. As a nice programme is being prepared a pleasant time may be expected.

HYMENEAL.—Mr. Isaac Hodge and Miss Harriet Hamilton, both of Emily, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the residence of Mrs. Steele, of this place, by the Rev. Mr. Anderson, M.A., on the 22nd ult. We wish the young couple health, wealth and prosperity in their new sphere.

Once She Bloomed as the Rose.

"Yes sir," said the doctor to me, "that is Mrs. Francis; you, however, will remember her as the rosy-cheeked Agnes Durham at whose mother's house we were always so comfortably quartered during our fishing expeditions around Lake M—— every autumn. She got married about three years ago to a very worthy young fellow, who unfortunately was not able to provide her with all the comforts she enjoyed in her mother's house. She has now two children, which, with her husband and her cousin, and her many household duties, is a burden I fear she is unable to bear, and she cannot afford the luxury of a servant. Do you notice how pale and worn-out she looks? She is only twenty-three, but now looks more like forty; poor girl, I pity her from the bottom of my heart."

There are to-day around us many worn-out wives and mothers, who, like Mrs. Francis, were once as fresh and blooming as the rose, but who are now, owing to the multifarious cares of the family, weary and faded, thin and pale: suffering silently and uncomplainingly from nervousness, tired brain and headache. Very often these apparently trivial ailments are aggravated and intensified by more alarming troubles such a sleeplessness, melancholia and all feeling of morbidness, sometimes accompanied by terrible dyspepsia and indigestion. Such a state is serious in the extreme, and requires instant care and attention to save life.

Mothers, you will readily admit that this is not an over drawn picture of many of your self-sacrificing lives. There is, however, within your reach an infallible remedy for all your ailments and troubles; it is Paine's Celery Compound, a preparation especially of great value for the broken-down, wearied and half-dead system. Its use will soon give great vitality, healthy vigor and a feeling of joyousness which will enable any mother to renew her life and regain freshness of look. Mothers, give Paine's Celery Compound a trial, and you will use no other remedy.

The death of Archbishop Magee of York will be a most serious loss to the Church of England, for he was the most brilliant and able man on the bench of bishops. He only took his seat as Archbishop on York on March 17 last, desiring to emphasize his Irish nationality by assuming that high office on the anniversary of Ireland's patron saint. There was a fitness in the circumstance, for he was the only conspicuous living link between the old established Church of Ireland and the English Church. As Bishop of Peterborough he became famous as a great preacher and for his independence and caustic wit, which he was particularly fond of exercising on solemn bores. He was one of the few prelates who ever said anything worth listening to in the House of Lords; and his speech against Irish disestablishment in that House at once placed him in the front rank of English-speaking orators. The freedom with which he expressed his views on delicate questions frequently provoked criticism, as when he took ground against those who denounced betting as a sin in itself, and when he declared that he would rather see England free than England sober. But taken in all he was a man of whom the English Church might well be proud, and it will be difficult to find anyone worthy to succeed him. Within a short time a number of brilliant Anglican clergymen have passed away, including Archbishop Thompson, Dr. Magee's predecessor, Bishop Lightfoot, Canon Liddon, Dean Church and Dean Plumptre.

A THOUSAND DOLLAR BILL

WOOSTER, O., May 6.—On the night of Aug. 30, 1890, the farm residence of Michael Shelby, near this city, was forcibly entered by four masked men, who bound Shelby and his aged wife and stole cash amounting to $12,000. Mrs. Shelby died from nervous prostration brought on by the excitement of the robbery. A detective bureau has just caused the arrest of Henry Binckley, his grandson, Harry Webb, and a son of Daniel Binckley, who are neighbors of the Shelbys. Daniel Binckley was until a few weeks before the crime was committed, a member of the police force in Kansas City, where he was discharged. Among the bills stolen was one of a thousand dollar denomination. Daniel Binckley's wife made a trip to Canada to get this bill changed. The Canadian bank officials, who were suspicious of her actions, took a snap-shot picture of her as she was receiving the money. The men will also be prosecuted for murder.

IN THE MIDST OF LIFE.

Mrs. Palmer Had Just Completed a Purchase of Goods When She Expired.

TILSONBURG, May 6.—This afternoon Mrs. Palmer, aged 55, wife of John Palmer of the tenth concession of Dereham, fell dead while shopping in Northway & Anderson's store. Heart disease was the cause. She leaves a family of nine children, ranging from three to 18 years of age.

Found Dead in Bed.

TILSONBURG, May 6.—William Dobbie, tenth concession of Bayham, was found dead in bed. Heart disease was the cause.

A PIECE OF OPIUM.

An Aylmer Cooper Makes His Exit From This Vale of Tears.

AYLMER, May 6.—This morning Lester Ryckman, cooper, who resided in Sydenham-street, was found dead on his bed. A piece of opium was found in his pocket partly used, and the condition of the body after death indicated that the opium had been the medium, but whether taken by mistake or intention will probably never be known.

FEAR TURNED HER HAIR WHITE.

Frightened by a Face at the Pane a Woman's Hair Turns Gray.

PORTSMOUTH, N.H., May 6.—The hair of Mrs. Murby, the wife of a shoemaker, turned white last night by fright. Nine years ago, when she was 11 years old, her stepfather committed an assault upon her, and was ordered by the courts to stay out of New Hampshire at least 13 years. Last night as she sat at her window the brutal stepfather, from whom she had not heard in the interim, pressed his face against the pane.

Mrs. Murby was so terrified that she could not utter a word or move a finger. The man scowled and pressed a card against the glass, on which was written the following in his own handwriting: "I have located you and have returned for revenge." Then the figure vanished. The woman fell on the floor in a faint and it was half an hour before she recovered sufficiently to relate what had happened. Her hair had then become white. It was later learned that a man answering the description had boarded the evening train for Boston.

Almost Consumed the Village.

BOWMANVILLE, Ont., May 6.—A disastrous fire occurred at Blackstock, 12 miles from here, on Monday night. The greater [illegible] of the business portion of the village was destroyed. The following are the losses as far as can be obtained: Mr. Cowan, stable, store and dwelling, $4[illegible]; W. Taylor, dwelling, $1000; Mrs. Hoare, dwelling, $900; James Holmes, carriage shop, [illegible]; John Aitchison, shop and dwelling, [illegible]. The amounts of insurance have not yet been ascertained.

Preferred Pistol to Imprisonment.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Joseph Katz, a drummer in the employ of Scheyann & Co. of this city, was to-day accused of embezzling goods of the firm. As an officer was about to arrest him Katz whipped out a revolver and shot himself dead. He was twenty-two years old.

Ask Your Friends About It.

Your distressing cough can be cured. We know it because Kemp's Balsam within the past few years has cured so many coughs and colds in this community. Its remarkable sale has been won entirely by its genuine merit. Ask some friend who has used it what he thinks of Kemp's Balsam. There is no medicine so pure, none so effective. Large bottles 50c. and $1 at all druggists'.

Why Manure is Needed.

The exploded idea that soils are inexhaustible we believe nowhere prevails in any community. All now recognize the fact that the crop reduces the amount of the fertilizing elements in the soil. But to what extent these drafts are made is not generally known. Prof. E. B. Voorhees says in the Rural New-Yorker that the amount and proportion of the plant food elements contained in any farm crop vary somewhat according to the variety grown, its method of culture, time of harvesting, etc. The average given below were secured from a large number of analyses, and may be safely used as a basis for calculating the amounts contained by the different crops mentioned. In all cases per cent. or pounds per 100 are given:

	Nitrogen.	Phosphoric. Acid.	Potash.
Wheat	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Barley	1.5[illegible]	0.78	0.48
Oats	1.86	0.76	0.59
Corn	1.45	0.62	0.39
Beans	4.00	1.16	1.29
Potatoes	0.53	0.12	0.45
Clover	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Timothy	1.09	0.58	[illegible]
Wheat straw	0.54	0.19	0.74
Oat straw	0.65	0.27	1.23
Barley straw	0.50	0.19	0.98
Bean straw	0.63	0.41	2.59

As surely as a continual dropping of water wears away the stone, so surely must these continual drafts from the fertilizing elements of the soil exhaust them, unless an equivalent is returned.

A Disinfectant for the Poultry House.

Intimately mix a gill of crude carbolic acid with a quart of dry, air-slacked lime; then mix this quart with two pecks of lime. Dust the dry lime over every part of the poultry house, on the walls, in the nests, over the roosts and over the yards. It will be found an excellent disinfectant and will do more to destroy the germs of disease, and with as little cost, than anything else that can be tried.—Farm and Fireside.

Profiting by the Experience of Others.

There is profit in finding out how the best farmers are conducting their work. This can be done by visiting such as are near at hand, and by reading the practical experiences of others in books and periodicals.

Tschaikowsky, the Russian composer, who is at work on a new opera which he hardly expects to complete inside of two years, says: "The labor of composing is slow and I never attempt to do anything in a short time. I am sometimes a month doing what most modern composers accomplish in ten minutes. I cannot work rapidly, nor at any time except when in the mood."

Antoine Chapu, the French sculptor who recently died from influenza, executed a bust of President Carnot last year, making his model in Bonnat's studio, where the painter was at work simultaneously on a portrait. He was a bright, vigorous gentleman of 54 years, and was often seen at receptions and fetes with a lovely daughter, who completely tyrannized over him.

For the Health of the Town.

Since the 1st of May no slaughtering has been done within the limits of the town by any of the butchers. Chief Roszel, as Sanitary Inspector, notified all the butchers that they must remove their slaughter houses, and they promised that the butching knife would not be wielded within the town. No complaints have reached the health office since. The enforcing of the health by-law is being accomplished and pit closets within the prescribed limits are being filled up and others substituted.

The St. Andrew's Pastorate.

Rev. Mr. McEwen, of Lakefield, Moderator, and Messrs. J. McClelland and Dr. Bell who were appointed by the Peterborough Presbytery to appear before the Brockville Presbytery and plead for the translation of Rev. Mr. MacWilliams who has been called to the St. Andrew's pastorate, left last evening to attend the meeting of the Brockville Presbytery. The call will probably come up for consideration to-day. Mr. J. Paton who was also appointed on the committee was unable to go.

The Great Water Route.

A meeting of the Council of the Board of Trade was held last evening when there was a full attendance of members. The Board of Trade are desirous of getting the towns and cities along the route of the Trent Valley Canal to impress upon the Government their sense of the necessity of this canal as a natural undertaking and the secretary was therefore instructed in conjunction with Mr. Carnegie, secretary of the Association, to communicate with Winnipeg, Port Arthur and other places along the route.

Their First Communion.

To-day was Ascension Day and special services were held as usual at St. Peter's Cathedral. Masses were said at 7, 8 and 10.30 o'clock this morning. At the eight o'clock service the first communion was solemnized. His Lordship Bishop O'Connor celebrated mass and then administered communion. About one hundred and twenty-two children received their first communion. The girls were beautiful symbols of purity, dressed in spotless white with long flowing veils of the same symbolic white. After the administration of the holy rite, His Lordship addressed the children, impressing upon them the solemn character of the communion and admonishing them to follow in the good pathway upon which they had entered.

OBITUARY.

Death of John J. Doherty.

His many friends were grieved this morning when the announcement was made that Mr. John J. Doherty, son of Mr. John Doherty, market clerk, had passed away rather suddenly last night at the family residence on Rubidge-st. For some weeks past the deceased had been so weakened that he had been confined to the house, but his death so early was not anticipated by his friends. Last night about eleven o'clock after a severe fit of coughing he called his father to his bedside. His coughing had caused a hemorrhage of the lungs and he passed away before anything could be done for his relief. The deceased was an exemplary young man who was well-known in Peterborough and wherever known he was respected and popular. Always obliging and pleasant he made many friends while in the dry-goods establishment of Mr. Thos. Kelly, while among the young men he was universally well liked. Given to reading, he was well informed for his years, and was an interesting conversationalist. He was twenty-one years of age and his demise just at the age of maturity will be regretted by all who knew him. General and sincere sympathy will be extended to his parents and friends in their bereavement. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning at nine o clock to St. Peter's cathedral, in which congregation the deceased was an active member.

Death of Mr. Wm. Job.

Mr. Wm. Job, one of the well-known personages of Peterborough, being familiar as the proprietor of the candy stand at the corner of Simcoe and George-st., died at his residence on Charlotte-st. Wednesday night. The deceased was an old resident of the town and was respected by all who knew him. In his humble walk of life he was quiet and unassuming, but scrupulous in his integrity. He had been ill for only a few days and his demise was an unexpected event to his friends. The funeral takes place on Saturday from the family residence on Charlotte-st.

Died in Nebraska.

The numerous friends in town and country of Mr. Nathaniel Travise, formerly of Ennismore, will read with regret the announcement of his death at Orleans, Nebraska, which appears in another part of this paper. A friend contributes the following in regard to his demise:—Poor 'Nat' has passed away, but his memory shall last forever among his friends. In all the relations of life he was a model man. In his home he was always the best of husbands and the kindest of fathers; among his fellow men he was always kind and genial, sociable and neighborly; in this life of strife he always had a pleasant word for everybody—was always a peacemaker. ('Blessed are the peacemakers.') It is consoling to know that although he died in a foreign land kind friends were always in attendance around his sick bed. God bless them for it. In faraway Nebraska as well as here his friends will all unite in praying for the repose of his soul. 'Eternal rest give unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.' Hearty sympathy is everywhere extended to his afflicted widow and children. One who knew the deceased well and loved him much lays this wreath upon his tomb in faraway Nebraska.

Personal.

Mr. Geo. A. Cox is in town to-day.

Mr. J. M. Fairbairn, M.P., for South Victoria, was in town to-day.

Mr. J. A. McLelland, of the Ontario Bank, has received notice of his removal to the Bowmanville branch of the bank. His move is also a promotion.

Messrs. James Stevenson, M.P., and John Burnham, M.P., arrived home from Ottawa this morning. The House has adjourned until Monday.

Mr. Arthur Rutherford, his friends will be glad to learn, is improving slowly at the hospital in Toronto. A message from Mrs. Rutherford, who is with him, was received to-day to the above effect.

Mr. R. H. Green and his wife and Miss Lottie Green left this morning for Denver, Col. Mr. Green goes to the west for the benefit of his health, and his friends will wish that he will be fully restored by the change of climate.

One of the Toronto dailies in a report of a concert in James' Hall at West Toronto Junction has the following reference to a rendition of the daughter of Mr. Wm. Glover, a former resident of Peterborough:—"Miss Glover did her part grandly. She is only 13 years old, and sings divinely. She essayed music last night that was rendered here early in the season by Mrs. Caldwell, and competent judges say that in one song at least she fairly rivalled that lady. She gave the 'Cuckoo' song in splendid style."

We take the following from the Cornwall Freeholder of May 1st:—

"The change in the management of the canal, spoken of by The Freeholder some time since as probable, has come about. T. S. Rubidge, C.E., has been appointed Superintending Engineer of the St. Lawrence district, extending from the Murray canal to the Province line, with headquarters at Cornwall. Mr. Rubidge will have the superintendence of all canal and river improvements, and no man is so well qualified for the position, for he has spent his life in the service of the Government, principally along that part of the river which is now comprised in this district. With a chief engineer on the spot and thoroughly understanding the difficult problems that are all the while coming up, the canal enlargements that are in progress will be completed in the best possible manner. For the good of the country the pity is the change hadn't been made a couple of years ago. The Government has leased for a term of years the Bee House (the old Dickinson's place) opposite the Rectory, and fitted it up as a headquarters for Mr. Rubidge and his staff, which now comprises eight professional men with a number of assistants. The house has been thoroughly remodelled and fitted up to suit the requirements of the important works that will be planned under its roof."

THE NORTH KING.

The New Steamer Will be "One of the Finest" on Lake Ontario.

This new steamer will be placed on the route between Port Hope and Rochester by the 20th May. She belongs to the Lake Ontario Steamboat Company, and is now being completed at the dry dock of Davis & Son, Kingston. She is 176 feet in length, 44 feet wide over the guards, 10 feet depth of hold, eight feet between decks, and ten feet high in upper saloon. The leading features of her construction are the result of the experience of Mr. Gildersleeve, the manager of the company, as to the requirements of the route, and the best experts have contributed in the carry out of the details. The hull lines are by Captain J. W. Pearce, of Evansville, Ind.; engine proportions by Frank E. Kirby, of Detroit, and feathering wheels, by Messrs. Logan & Rankin, Toronto. She is sharp and high forward, and the leading idea in the shape of the hull has been to secure a vessel that would make her time in all weathers, and with the greatest comfort to passengers. The hold below the main deck not being required for freight, is mainly devoted to strengthening. In addition to the usual water-tight bulkheads and side strengthening, she is screw-bolted throughout and iron-strapped from forward to aft between the planking and frames. Trusses are built the full depth of the hold. Similar trusses are built over the centre keelson forward and aft of the sister keelsons. To prevent side strain, there are double braces from gunwale to bilge across the hull every 20 feet, kneed at both ends and bolted together where they cross. It is believed this is the largest amount of strengthening as yet introduced in a wooden steamer. She has a skeleton beam engine with cylinder 36 inches in diameter and 10 feet length of stroke, with Steven's valve gear and drop cut of latest design. The paddle wheels are of the feathering type, 18½ feet in diameter. The small diameter of the wheels as compared with the leverage of the crank is designed to give great speed of engine and consequent power. She has two return tubular boilers, one in front of the other to distribute the weight and place face to face with separate smoke-stack to each. The power is estimated at 750 indicated horse power and the speed at not less than 15 miles. The feathering side wheel type of steamer, although more expensive, has been decided on as the best for passenger lake service. The extra width of the guards gives greater space for passenger accommodation; and the tremor and rolling are less than with either single or double screws. The North King will have ample freight room on the main deck, on each side of and forward of the engine. Between the after gangways is the main saloon, with office, baggage rooms, stairway, etc., and aft of this the main cabin, with state-rooms on each side. On the second or promenade deck is the upper saloon, 136 feet in length, 14 feet wide aft of and 20 feet wide forward of the engine. The forward portion, from its greater width, comfortable sofas, and spacious glass front, will be the favorite resort for passengers. Dining tables will be laid in the whole of the after and part of the forward portions. Ladies' and gentlemen's toilet rooms are also in the upper saloon. On each side of the upper saloon, as far as the forward end of the engine, are double rows of staterooms, and in front of this a single row on each side. The outside promenades are in front of the upper saloon and also on the forward portion of the third or hurricane deck in the vicinity of the pilot house and texas. She will be heated by steam and lit with electricity with reserve oil lamps. Her life saving apparatus of boats, life rafts, and life preservers are over the legal requirements. Captain C. H. Nicholson who has become a favorite on the route, will be in command assisted by J. Jerrolds, mate, J. W. Johnston, purser, Thos. Milne, 1st engineer and A. W. Stevenson, steward, all old friends; the latter has long been famous for keeping a well supplied table and his steamer scrupulously clean. With so good a ship and such competent officers the route across the lake is certain to be well served.

Overworked, broken down, prematurely aged men or those suffering from excesses or indescretions will find a certain cure in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They supply the material necessary to enrich the blood, build up the nerves and restore the shattered system. Never fail. Sold by all dealers, or sent on receipt of price—50c. per box, or five boxes for $2—by addressing The Dr. Williams Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

Put out Their Statutory Sign.

Chief Roszel held his usual reception in the Police Court room this morning and had favored the majority of the hotel keepers in town with invitations. The licensed dispensers of the exhilarating beverages who were present were Messrs. Ed. Phelan, Thos. Dunn, M. Connors, T. Cavanagh, J. Clancy, J. Carew, W. Snowdon, W. Clancy and Mrs. Halpin (represented by Mr. Pat. Halpin). The hotel keepers were summoned before the Magistrate on an information charging them with neglecting to have the sign above their places of business which is required by the statutes and which reads "Licensed to sell beer, wine and other spirituous and fermented liquors." It would appear that this statutory provision has never been enforced in Peterborough, and was unknown to many of the hotel men until they received notice with their licenses on May 1st. Mr. Phelan, who claims a record for always keeping the letter of the law, had a sign painted the same day that he received notice and put it up before it was dry. Mr. Cavanagh had been in the hotel business for 24 years and never knew of the statutory requirement of a sign. Mr. Dunn had given his painter an order for a sign at once. Mr. Connor's had had a sign up for years, but when the painter was giving his front a new spring coat he had taken it down and had not put it up again as the painting was not finished. Mr. J. Clancy had put his sign up as soon as notified. Thus ran all the responses to the charge and the Magistrate enlarged the case for one week to give them all a chance to comply with the law.

A dry, hacking cough keeps the bronchial tubes in a state of constant irritation which, if not speedily removed, may lead to bronchitis. No prompter remedy can be had than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which is both an anodyne and expectorant.

Brevities.

—The Town Council will not meet to-night.

—The Chancery Sittings open here to-morrow before Judge Ferguson.

—Chief Roszel has a bunch of keys picked up on Hunter-st, for which he wants an owner.

—A meeting of the druggists of this district is being held in the Council Chamber this afternoon.

—The name of Mr. Harris' steamer, which was driven ashore in Rice lake as referred to in the REVIEW last evening, was the Beaver. The Pearl, mentioned by mistake, is Mr. Calcutt's boat.

The Wise Servants

Tell us that Rheumatism is a blood disease; that it can be cured only by a remedy which works through the blood. And yet, if you have the darting pains of Rheumatism in muscles or joints, try a Bottle of Clark's Lightning Liniment. It will go direct to the seat of pain and relieve it at once. There is no waiting weeks and months until the disease can be attacked through the blood. This seems to be contrary to scientific claims, but it is true that Clark's Lightning Liniment will cure Rheumatism. Sold by all druggists; price fifty cents. Clark Chemical Co., Toronto.

Telephone Extension and Connections—The Queen's Hotel.

Correspondence of the Review.

TELEPHONE TO BURLEIGH FALLS.—A staff of six workmen under foreman Fred Bourdignon arrived here last Monday and put up at McFarlane's hotel (the Carlton House). They will be engaged for some time digging the holes and putting in the poles, &c., that were taken out and laid down last winter by Mr. John Holmes, of the Burleigh Falls Hotel, for the purpose of having telephone connection from here to his hotel. It certainly will be a very great boon to the numerous guests that frequent his hotel during the summer months. It is certainly one of the most enjoyable summer hotels in the Dominion, and for picturesque scenery cannot be beaten.

BAD ROAD.—The sooner the Council of Smith instructs the pathmaster who looks after that long swamp on the 12th concession, west from Mr. Blewitt's farm, the better for all concerned, as the holes in the middle of the road are numerous and dangerous, and somebody's horse will get its leg broken. A stitch in time, &c.

TELEPHONIC.—Mr. McFarlane, of the Carlton House, is having a Bell instrument placed into his hotel for the convenience of his summer guests. Go ahead, Mac; you are bound to lead.

QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.—The managers of the Ebenezer Methodist church ber eintend holding their annual picnic on the grounds adjoining the church on Saturday, the 23rd May. Tea and refreshments will be served in the same good style as in former years by the young ladies of the congregation. Let there be a good attendance. The proceeds will be devoted to some alterations in the interior of the church and building new driving sheds. There will be music, singing, speeches, &c.

MOUNT JULIAN HOTEL.—Mr. W. Kenneally, formerly of Peterborough, has leased from Mr. Jas. Wynn the hotel at Julian's Landing. We are sure Mr. Kenneally will do a good summer trade, as a good hotel and well kept is what the place requires. He is making extensive improvements and no doubt he will be well patronized by those in that vicinity in the summer months.

MORE TELEPHONE.—Mr. D. Anderson, of Apsley, called on your correspondent the other day and tells me he has had considerable correspondence with the head office of the Bell Telephone Co. re having telephone connection to Apsley when the poles are laid to Burleigh Falls. Mr. Anderson deserves credit for the trouble he has taken in the matter, but he and others are desirous of having connection with the outside world.

We Offer For Sale by Public Auction on

MONDAY, 11th MAY, 1891, at 3 p. m., ON THE GROUND.

Lots on Romaine-st. Each lot is 33ft. by 220ft. Soil high and dry, sandy loam. 10 minutes walk from the Edison Works, Peter Hamilton Works, the Carbon Works and the Bridge Works. The new Electric Car Line will touch this street and George and Aylmer-sts. will be opened through to the Fair ground.

To secure a respectable street the deeds will contain a clause compelling the purchasers when they build to erect a uniform distance from the front, and that the houses when built shall not cost less than $600. These lots are double the depth of the ordinary town lot and are fine for gardening. This is the finest property in the market and one which will afford the best building lots to be had at low prices These are only lots left on the south side of the street. Lots in the neighborhood half the depth sell at $8 to $10 per foot frontage, while these lots are 220ft. deep and will be sold for what they will bring. These lots while sufficiently near the great factories, are close to George-st. and being off the muck are clean and healthy.

Ten years will be given for payment. $5.00 on the $100 down; $5.00 on the $100, in one month; $10 on the $100 in 3 months, then a free deed will be given and mortgage taken back for the remainder of the purchase money, payable in 9 equal annual payments with interest at 6 per cent. Five per cent. discount will be allowed for cash. For further particulars apply to

EYESIGHT TESTED.

Rheumatism,

BEING due to the presence of uric acid in the blood, is most effectually cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Be sure you get Ayer's and no other, and take it till the poisonous acid is thoroughly expelled from the system. We challenge attention to this testimony:—

"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing complaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months, and am pleased to state that it has effected a complete cure. I have since had no return of the disease."—Mrs. R. Irving Dodge, 110 West 125th st., New York.

"One year ago I was taken ill with inflammatory rheumatism, being confined to my house six months. I came out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system disordered in every way. I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon recovering my usual health. I cannot say too much in praise of this well-known medicine."—Mrs. L. A. Stark, Nashua, N. H.

THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1891.

A GIRL IN POMPEII.

There was the tiny piscina with the gold fish; there were pedestals with vases of brilliant flowers upon them; perhaps there was a fountain, and sometimes a graceful statue.

Around this peristyle there were other tiny rooms in which the people of the house must have slept. They used to sit in the shade of the colonnade and work or receive there guests there.

I tried to imagine one of these houses as it was when my little shadow with the blue-black hair and deep soft eyes and the white tunic, played in the peristylium. I tried to make a picture of the red and yellow columns, the gay colors, the frescoes, the rich draperies, the mosaic pavements, the graceful couches of bronze ornamented with gold and silver, the wonderful sumptuous stuffs thrown over them. But though with the help of what I had heard and read and seen I could make a sort of half antique Roman, half antique Grecian picture, I could not find in it very definite surroundings for my little girl. What did children do 1800 years ago? Does any one really know? I think there were no antique Pompeiian dolls excavated. I saw none in the museum. But surely she had something of wood or stone or some composition, which was made in the form of a miniature child, and which she could hold in her arms and sing to sleep, and dress when it awakened, in a doll's tunic, and sandals and girdle, and for whose head she could twine a tiny garland of flowers. Ah, it must have been so even eighteen hundred and eleven years ago.

She had no books to read; even the grown up people had scarcely any. "A very small room" we are told "was sufficient to contain the few rolls of papyrus which the ancients deemed a notable collection of books." She must have looked at the frescoes on the walls, the pictured legends of gods and goddesses, and told herself stories about them. Perhaps her mother told her about them, too, and perhaps there was some favorite slave—a sort of Pompeiian Uncle Remus who could tell stories of goddesses and gods, of Fauns and Satyrs, and of his own country from which he had perhaps been taken as a prisoner of war.

For the rest she had the flowers and the gold fish, it may be, some birds or a pet dog with a golden collar.

"There was the beautiful sea, too," I fancied her saying. "It was as blue as the sky, and there were ships coming and going from strange countries. And we loved the mountain then. It was beautiful, too. It was covered with lovely, soft green meadows, and the most fertile vineyards were upon it. The grapes in them were larger and more purple, and sweeter than those that grew anywhere else. Only at the very top it was sterile, and the earth was like ashes and the rocks were blackened as if they had been burned. Wise men who had climbed to look at them used to say strange things about them and tell strange stories. They said that it might once have been a volcano, one of the mountains that are filled with fire and which sometimes spout forth flames and showers of boiling water and molton stones. They were stories which made me afraid, but I could not help drawing near to listen when they talked; but I did not believe that ever there had been a time when our beautiful green mountains had been so terrible. The children used to talk about it among themselves and speak of the soft grass and the flowers that grew on it, and the sweet purple and white grapes in the vineyards, and say it must be all a philosopher's legend and could not be true."

We went to the wonderful baths, where the rich and idle spend the greater part of their days lounging, talking, listening to the reading of some poet and passing, under the hands of slaves, through the luxurious processes of bathing. We saw the public fountains at the ends of the streets, with the grooves worn away in the stone by the many hands and vessels which had rested there when water was drawn. We explored the temples of the gods—of Apollo, of Mercury, of Jupiter, of Hercules, of Venus, of Fortune and the temples of the Egyptian god Isis, through the lips of whose image an oracle was believed to speak.

"People used to come here," explained my shadow, "to ask if their voyages and ventures and other affairs would be successful. It was very wonderful to hear Isis give them his answers."

It must have seemed very wonderful then, but it does not seem so wonderful to-day when one is shown the secret staircase which was found among the excavations—and which was the means the priest used to make their way to the place behind the goddess from where their voices would seem to come from her oracular lips.

"But none of the gods prophesied what was coming on that terrible day," I said. "There was no warning."

We walked for hours through the [illegible] silent streets; we had sat on the steps of altars of the ruined temples; we had stood in the amphitheatre where the gladiators fought with wild beasts and with each other, and where the blood of criminals and martyrs flowed upon the sands of the arena amid the applause of these strange people, to whom the agonies of despair and death were an amusement.

All the day I felt the presence of the mountain brooding over us and the ruins it had made. It seemed such an awful, sullen, mysterious power. Who could tell what it might do at any moment? Silent and calm for centuries, the very cattle at one time browsing on its crater, who could have feared it? Luxurious cities had clustered at its feet, homes and happiness and pleasure had grown beneath its soft, smiling shadow. But here one stranger from a far-away country sat wondering and dreaming on the steps of the altars of the temple of Venus in the ruins of Pompeii.

As I tried to imagine that strange, awful last day, I tried also to make quite real my little slender shadow with the blue black hair. I wanted to know what she had thought and felt. Poor little shadow with the innocent face smiling under her light wreath of flowers.

"And there was no warning," I kept thinking. And this is what my imagination made her tell me:

"No, there was no warning. At least there was none that we could understand and feel real fear of. We were so sure of our Vesuvius. We had never doubted it. For some days before the weather was very hot—but it was often hot. And there were heavy, curious clouds hovering about the mountain top—but though we watched them and spoke to each other about them, we were not afraid. Clouds always gathered there when there were storms. But it was very hot and the air seemed so close and heavy. The morning of the last day I felt languid when I awoke, and I went into the peristyle to see if it would be cooler. But it seemed to be even hotter there. The garlands were drooping and the flowers hung their heads. They looked so tired and thirsty that I gave them some water.

Two Good Things IN FLOUR!

1. Scale Weight.

2. First Quality.

If good flour makes good bread it follows that one sort of flour makes better bread than another.

Which sort makes best?

That depends. The best flour is the purest, the best ground, the strongest and containing the most health giving and nourishing properties.

These good points are all found in our Flour.

Have you tried it? Perhaps yes. Perhaps no. If you have not, do so, and you may find a better flour than you have been using, and we a customer.

Send or telephone a trial order.

EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Erin property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighbourhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

ENGLAND HAS ANOTHER LITTLE WAR ON HAND.

This Time it is the South African Boers Who Are Making the Trouble—Goschen Prefers Hard Cash—Murder of a French Officer at Metz.

LONDON, May 7.—Governor Lidderdale of the Bank of England and his official associates were tendered a banquet last evening at the Mansion House, at which the leading financial magnates of the city were present as guests. Right Hon. George J. Goschen, Chancellor of the Exchequer, was the chief speaker. He eulogized the conduct of the managers of the bank during the recent crisis, and declared that the lesson of that troublous time and its safe survival was that the English gold reserve should be so increased as to obviate any chance of panic being caused by any sudden foreign demand for gold. It should not be necessary to borrow from the Bank of France even as a matter of overabundant caution. Mr. Goschen preferred sovereigns to pound notes, unless by the introduction of the proposed notes some great national object could alone be obtained. Mr. Goschen gave an indirect assurance that the Government would not interfere with the control of voluntary schools.

LONDON, May 7.—Replying to a question in the House of Commons to-day in regard to the reported Boer "trek" being prepared for the invasion of Mashonaland, Manicaland and other South African territory for the purpose of establishing the so-called "Republic of the North," Hon. Edward Stanhope, Secretary of State for War, intimated that troops were being sent to British Bechuanaland to oppose the proposed Boer "trek." Recent advices are that 20,000 well-armed Boers propose to cross the Limpopo on June 1 and proclaim the Republic of the North. The leaders of the "trek" include men of position from both the Free State and Cape Colony, and all steps taken are said to have met with the approval of the famous Afrikander Bund, recently in session at Kimberley. The Boer movement is a South African movement in the direction of northward expansion, and is bound to conflict with the claims of the British Chartered Company, to say nothing of the claims of the Portuguese South African Co. One of the objects of the raid is said to be the replacement of the Chartered Company by a popular movement from the Imperial Government's control. There is a strong feeling against the company and against Imperial control in South Africa. The leaders of the "trek," however say little or nothing about the Chartered Company, claiming to base their proceedings upon concessions granted long before the Chartered Company existed.

Another little war in South Africa seems to be threatened. It will require many more British troops than are now available in South Africa to cope with the 20,000 Boers, who are dead shots and capable of suffering the most severe hardships without complaint.

Baptized in a Coffin.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, May 7.—Mrs. Alice Madison of this city is dying of consumption. She became convinced that it was necessary to her soul's salvation that she should be baptized. She sent for Elder Green to perform the sacrament, and he baptized her in a metallic coffin.

FOOLED UNCLE SAM.

CHILIAN VESSELS GET SUPPLIES AT SAN FRANCISCO.

One Carries Off a U.S.A. Deputy-Marshal—The Attempt to Capture the Robert and Minnie Fails—The Chilians Too Smart for the Americans.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 6.—Last night United States Marshal Gard seized the Chilian steamer Etata, now receiving supplies in the harbor, and placed Captain Mauseun under arrest. Telegrams have been passing between this city and the Department at Washington which brought about the above results. Tug-boats have left to seize two vessels seen outside, one of which is supposed to be the schooner Robert and Minnie, and the other a warship belonging to the Chilian insurgents, which have been hovering around the entrance of the harbor to receive the supplies taken on board the Etata. The warship was first sighted about noon yesterday passing north. Ten hours later she repassed the harbor, going south, laying to just north of Coronado Islands. Customs Officer Berry sent a party out to investigate, who reported seeing a large vessel under steam, which they could not approach nearer than two miles on account of her steaming away from them. Orders were received from Secretary Blaine to seize both vessels if found within the three-mile limit, and Marshal Gard and Collector Berry went out last night in different tugs for that purpose. At midnight the Etata received 40 head of cattle, 47 head of sheep and 3000 pounds of dressed meat from the ferry-boat Coronado. The vessel has also received other stores, including 800 tons of coal. As soon as all the provisions and fuel were on board she expected to leave the harbor and cruise between here and Catalina to meet the schooner Robert and Minner, from which she was to take the Remington rifles and ammunition and then sail for Chili.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 6.—About 3.30 last evening the Chilian steamer Etata quietly steamed out into the ocean, carrying with her U.S. Deputy-Marshal Spencer. Marshal Gard was not aware that the captain had any intention of disregarding his authority, for he left for Point Loma just one hour ahead of the big steamer and had proceeded some distance out to sea before he could have been aware that the Etata was following him. Marshal Gard's errand on his second trip was to take the schooner Robert and Minnie anywhere she might be found in the open sea, outside of Mexican jurisdiction, as a piratical craft. The marshal's launch left the wharf at 4 o'clock. Besides Marshal Gard there were aboard A. C. Spaulding of San Francisco, A. M. Conoughly, Capt. Crawford and four soldiers from the barracks armed with rifles and ammunition, who had been detailed to go on the expedition at the request of Marshal Gard. It is known that the Marshal received instructions from Washington that he be authorized to take the Robert and Minnie on the high seas under the neutrality and piracy laws. At 4 o'clock Wednesday morning Marshal Gard and party left for Coronado Island, where the Robert and Minnie were last seen on Tuesday. Just outside a sail appeared, which the tug made for. As soon as her master saw the Tiaguana he put about and ran south in order, it was supposed, to get into Mexican waters before he was overhauled. The meeting place of the schooner and tug was two and a half miles south of the international line—about 15 miles southwest of Point Loma. The tug passed to windward of the Robert and Minnie, and those on board had a good chance to observe her closely. On her stern were the words Robert and Minnie, San Francisco. The schooner was so heavily laden that she made but slow progress. There were but four of her crew visible, and these watched the movements of the tug anxiously through a glass from their position on the poop. The schooner being in Mexican waters Marshal Gard returned to port to telegraph for instructions. There has at no time been any real doubt in the minds of those best informed that the ammunition which the Robert and Minnie carried was intended for the Chilian transport, and that it would be transferred to the hold of the Etata for use of the insurgents as soon as the big steamer obtained what supplies she needed. It is definitely known that communications have passed between Captain Farrall of the schooner and Captain Mausum of the Etata. The Chilians laid their plans well and they carried out to the letter regardless of the interference of the U. S. authorities. Just after midnight this (Thursday) morning Marshal Gard and party returned from outside and reported that the Robert and Minnie had completely disappeared. The Deputy-Marshal who had been placed in a small boat at the entrance to the harbor to watch for developments, reported that when the Etata started out Pilot Dill was sandwiched between two armed Chilians, while four cannon guarded both bow and stern. He reports that at least 60 Chilians were drawn up in line on the decks, showing that while the vessel was in port she was plentifully supplied with men, arms and ammunition. While here she displayed only one small cannon and a crew of about 60 men. The deputy reports that when the vessel left the harbor she turned north and steamed toward San Clemente.

LONDON, May 7.—The Berlin correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says the Marquis di Rudini, the Italian Premier, has signed a treaty renewing the Dreibund for 6 years.

FURTHER REVOLUTIONS.

Honduras Rebels Take Possession of the Seat of Government on Fonseca Bay.

LA LIBERTAD, Salvador, May 7.—Advices from Honduras state that at 3 o'clock yesterday morning a force under the command of Col. Molina and Gen. Bardiales, both of which officers were leading rebels, attacked the Cuartel at Amapala. The guard there was taken by surprise and the rebels were soon in possession of the Cuartel. Six hundred and thirty Government troops under Col. Barrera made a movement against the Cuartel. Severe fighting followed, but at noon the Government troops drove the rebels from the Cuartel, inflicting great loss upon them. Among the killed was Gen. Bardiales, one of the rebel leaders.

Amapala is situated upon the island of that name and the rebels were driven to the mainland. Col. Barrera has 300 infantry and 40 cavalry guarding the island. The rebels are besieging the place and evidently intend to make another attack as soon as reinforcements, which are expected, arrive.

Tried to Kill the President.

VALPARAISO, May 7.—Much excitement was caused here to-day by an attempt to assassinate the leading members of the Cabinet. The persons engaged in the plot threw a bomb at the intended victims in the street.

The Costa Rica Conspiracy.

SAN JUAN DEL SUR, Nicaragua, May 7.—From official sources it is learned that on April 20 a conspiracy was discovered in San Jose, Costa Rica, to overthrow President Rodriguez. The Government received permission from the permanent council to suspend the constitution and the conspirators were captured. Everything is now quiet. From other sources it is learned that the revolutionists attacked the barracks in San Jose, but were repulsed, five being killed.

TORONTO TOPICS.

TORONTO, May 8.—J. B. Henderson, one of the shareholders of the defunct Central Bank, has begun an action against six of the directors to recover about $20,000, the amount of his double liability as a shareholder. If judgment is given for the plaintiff the other shareholders will also step in to recover their losses.

A complimentary dinner was tendered to Oronhyatekha, M.D., Supreme Chief Ranger I.O.F., last evening at the Rossin.

The Central Methodist Church was crowded at 8 last night, when Mr. Robert H. Ramsay and Miss Mabel May Gooderham joined hands in marriage. The groom is of the firm of R. H. Ramsay & Son, wholesale commission merchants, and the bride is second daughter of Mr. C. H. Gooderham of Gooderham & Worts.

The contracts for most of the remaining work of the new Parliament buildings have been signed and work will be commenced on them forthwith. The successful contractors were: For lathing and plastering A. H. Rundle, Toronto, $37,770; steam heating and ventilating, [illegible], Toronto, $55,400; plumbing and gasfitting Purdy, Mansell & Mashinter, $21,490. The tenders for copper work, etc., in connection with the roofing were considered too high, and it was decided to call for tenders again for that work.

The annual meeting of the Methodist Board of Regents was closed last night after a three days' important session. Matters of import, both spiritual and temporal, were fully considered. Reports from Chancellor Burwash, George A. Cox and Rev. Dr. Potts, Secretary of Education, were received, discussed and adopted by the board. A committee was appointed to attend to the ceremony of laying the copper stone of the new Victoria College in Queen's Park, which will take place on Tuesday, June 16. These, however, were merely matters of formal business.

The orthodoxy of Dr. Workman of Cobourg has been brought into question and many have been the arguments for and against his position towards the accepted doctrines of the Methodist Church. The members of the Board of Regents were not particularly anxious that the public should be acquainted with the nature of his discussion. But it was the most interesting part of the business transacted by the board, nevertheless. Dr. Workman's lecture on "Messianic Prophecy" was considered yesterday. After a discussion lasting nearly three hours the board passed this resolution:

"That it is the decision of this board that under existing circumstances Brother Workman be transferred from the faculty of theology to the faculty of arts."

In other words Brother Workman becomes a member of the temporal in place of the spiritual faculty, and this is significant.

The 14th annual closing exercises of Wycliffe College took place yesterday afternoon.

Those who won prizes in the recent examinations were then presented with them. The list is:

Crazed by Cigarets.

CHICAGO, May 7.—Charles Marston, son of Thomas Marston, jr., of this city, is reported to be almost hopelessly insane at Oconomowoc, Wis., the result of cigaret smoking. He was one of a party of 200 globe trotters, and became violently insane when two days out from Yokohama on the steamer en route to Vancouver, B.C. When the party arrived at Winnipeg, Man., on April 30, Marston's condition was pitiful. He was met there by his parents and brother and taken to his present retreat, where, it is hoped, the quiet scenes may restore him to mental soundness.

Dropped Dead in His Office.

HAMILTON, May 7.—Shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon Charles H. Hills, dentist, who had an office over the store at the corner of John and King-streets, died very suddenly. At 1.10 o'clock he returned with his wife from dinner and was about to start work when he was taken ill and commenced spitting blood. Mrs. Hills hurried for a doctor. When she returned her husband was lying dead on the floor, having fallen off the chair.

HER LOVER PROVED FALSE

A SIMCOE YOUNG WOMAN ASKS $25,000 DAMAGES.

A Man of 69, Who Had Buried Four Wives, Failed to Carry Out His Promises and is Now Asked to Shell Out—A Racy Case from Buffalo.

BUFFALO, May 7.—Nellie R. Livingston, a pretty Canadian about 20 years old, is suing Frank W. Knox, a prominent Pennsylvania lawyer, for $25,000 damages for not keeping his word when, as she alleges, he promised to make her Mrs. Knox. Briefly told, the plaintiff's story begins with the following advertisement, which appeared in a Buffalo paper:

WANTED—SITUATION BY A YOUNG CANADIAN lady as companion to a lady (musical); will assist in housekeeping. Address M. L., Simcoe, Ont.

This advertisement came into Mr. Knox's hands and he opened correspondence with the lady. He wanted a musical companion, but she must come as his wife. The preliminary correspondence ended in a meeting at the Tifft House, and this meeting within two days resulted in an engagement, the lady to be the companion for life of Mr. Knox, who gravely acknowledges 69 years as having passed over his head and his sad deprivation, by inscrutable Providence of four wives. The case opened in the Supreme Court this afternoon before Judge Childs and a jury. Miss Livingston told her story. Her brother she said, was a judge in Canada. The correspondence between her and Knox was read and then came the details of her meeting with Knox. Miss Livingston was the first to reach the trysting place, the well-known hotel the Tifft House, in company with her brother-in-law. The wooer's train was belated, but presently arrived and he appeared on the scene. He rushed in and greeted the lady and then prosaically enough went to dinner. "Then," said Miss Livingston, "when he got through he came and pressed both my hands and said he liked me. He spoke of my hands, my figure, my hair, my face and said anyone could see I had been brought up a lady. He at once said: 'Let us make this a business matter.' I did not like that idea." "What took place then?" "He then began to talk of making preparations for our marriage. He said harmony was complete. We were both Scotch, both Presbyterians, and he said I suited him every way. He told me of his home and said he kept three horses and two gardeners at his house in Pennsylvania. He spoke of recarpeting the house and wanted me to help him. He asked me what kind of engagement ring I wanted and told me of his idea of visiting the seashore and various popular resorts, and gave me to understand he was a rich man and that after marriage all he wanted me to do was to sew on his buttons. He wanted to get married right away, but I told him I wanted some time to think over it. He visited me next day at a friend's house where I was stopping and I went to the theatre with him and to the cyclorama. His talk was almost entirely on the subject of our marriage. He wanted to buy my trousseau, but this I would not allow. I asked him to defer the wedding a few months and he wouldn't hear of it. He said his heart was in the marriage and he could not wait. He drew me on his knee and said he couldn't stand disappointment. He took an envelope from his pocket and said there was $150 for me to begin to buy things with. I said to him: 'Mr. Knox, you've taken your first mortgage on me.' He said: 'I'm going to make an American of you.' I took the money and put it in my pocket. He asked if he had any rival in my affections and I told him he had, but did not pursue the subject. He took me on his knee and kissed me and said matters should be arranged as I wished." Miss Livingston reluctantly acknowledged that at this time she was engaged to be married to another person, but the match had since been broken off.

THE CRIME OF A LOVER.

Scorned by the Woman for Whom He Had an Infatuation He Attempts to Kill Her.

COBOURG, May 7.—Andrew McGuire was placed on trial to-day on a charge of having attempted to murder his former sweetheart, Miss Tucker, by throwing her under the wheels of a Grand Trunk freight train. It appears McGuire had pestered Miss Margaret Tucker with his attentions and had repeatedly threatened her. On the night in question she was walking along the station platform with an escort, and according to the evidence of Prof. Reynar of Victoria College and other witnesses, McGuire, his eyes blazing with insane jealousy, ran up to her and deliberately pushed her in front of an incoming train. Her escape from death was almost miraculous, her life being only saved by the promptness of the engineer. Prisoner's counsel attempted to prove that the occurrence was purely accidental—that McGuire had unintentionally run against the girl. The jury, however, found him guilty of the offence as charged. It was shown that McGuire had some time ago grievously wounded and attempted to kill John Tucker, the father of the young lady, and had also attacked Turnkey John Higgins while in jail. On this latter charge he was sentenced to five years' incarceration in the penitentiary, and while there attempted to escape by concealing himself in a load of manure, but was discovered. Sentence was reserved by Judge Rose to-day, but it is generally thought McGuire, who is 23 years of age, will spend the balance of his life in jail.

HIS WIFE SAW HIM DIE.

His Wife's Shrieks the Last Sounds Heard by an Indian Murderer.

WAGONER, I.T., May 7.—Fred and George Dunewas, full-blood Cherokee Indians, 28 and 24 years of age, respectively, were hanged at Tahlequah, the capital of the Cherokee Nation, within the walls of the National Penitentiary. Some 600 people witnessed the execution, either within the yard or from the fences, treetops and housetops in the vicinity.

The prisoners were marched to the scaffold dressed each in a blue cassimere suit, with bouquets of flowers in the lapels of their coats. Their women relatives bade them good-by in the penitentiary just before they were brought out, and amid the shrieks of the young wife, who saw the execution from the window of the penitentiary, and the wails of the mother and other relatives, they mounted the scaffold and were hanged.

Millbrook's Spring Fair.

The Port Hope Guide says that on Monday the May fair came off at Millbrook, at which there was quite a number of fine horses on exhibition. The number of spectators was not as large as usual, the unpleasant day, no doubt, kept many away and those present were complaining of the strong cold wind which chilled people more than wintry blasts. The following are the prize winners: Imported Clydesdale—1st Mr. Dunday' horse, of Springville; 2nd, Mr. Evans' horse, of Manvers. Canadian Draught—1st, Mr. Wm. Fair's horse, of Cavan; 2nd, Mr. Wm. Martin's horse, of Ida. Carriage Horses—1st, Mr. Jas. Baptie's horse, of Springville; 2nd, Mr. A. B. Appleby's horse, of Peterborough.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

The Visiting Soldiers.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—As the people of our enterprising and progressive little city are and always have been noted for their hospitality to those whom we have the pleasure of receiving and entertaining as visitors, would it not be a graceful acknowledgement to the Governor-General's Body Guards for the compliment paid us in selecting our town for the celebration of the Queen's Birthday, if the Town Council voted a sum sufficient to defray the expense of a ball to be given in their honor in the Opera House on the night of the 25th inst? Not only would the citizens endorse the vote but they would participate in the pleasure which the ball would undoubtedly give them.

I am sure the Edison General Electric Co. is held in high esteem by our people simply because they showed in a practical manner their appreciation of the town in giving to its citizens a ball which was pronounced the most successful social event ever held here and which afforded hundreds of our citizens an opportunity of meeting each other which they would not otherwise have had of becoming acquainted. And also the publicity which such an event would cause would in no small degree advertise the town, thereby repaying indirectly the expenditure voted.

The Town Council deserve the most sincere thanks from the citizens for what they have already accomplished for the prosperity of the town, and if the citizens generally would co-operate with them instead of finding fault their efforts would be more effectual and their labors a work of love.

I hope the suggestion in reference to the ball will be acted upon, the necessary amount furnished, the affair placed in the hands of a competent committee, and there is no reason why the result would not be creditable to the Town Council and to the citizens, while our visitors would return home with the most pleasant memories of their visit to the little City upon the banks of the Otonabee.

POISONED BY THE BITE OF A CAT.

Mr. Smith Sat on the Family Tabby With Perhaps Fatal Results

TEN MILE RUN, N.J., May 7.—James Smith, a wealthy resident of this town, lies at the point of death from the effect of the bite of a cat. Mr. Smith sat down on a chair on which there was a newspaper three weeks ago. Beneath the newspaper was the family cat. As his weight descended on the animal she seized his right hand with her teeth and inflicted a deep wound, from which the blood flowed freely.

Mr. Smith thought little of the incident at the time, but last week the hand and arm became greatly swollen and very painful.

Dr. Meser of Griggstown was called in and pronounced it a case of blood-poisoning resulting from the cat's bite. Remedies were administered, but without effect, and the patient is in a dying condition. Mr. Smith is about 50 years old, has a wife and two daughters and is the owner of considerable farming land in this vicinity.

HIS INSANE ACT.

A Bank Employe Strips Himself Before Suiciding by the Rope.

ALMONTE, Ont., May 7.—Mr. Tegerdine, for a long time in the employ of the Montreal Bank, was found hanging in his own kitchen with a rope around his neck. He was perfectly nude when found. It seems that deceased had been troubled in mind and determined to do away with his life. His wife was in Carleton Place when the suicide occurred. The servant girl at the bank wondered why deceased was not putting in an appearance as usual, but did not investigate till next evening, when she went over to his residence in New England. She wrapped at the door, but, receiving no answer, went to Mr. Mattock's house and asked him to see what was the matter. He raised one of the windows of deceased's residence and went in and was horror-stricken to find him suspended by the neck in his own kitchen. A tub of water was sitting beside him, and it is supposed he tried to commit suicide by that means, and, failing in that, resorted to the rope.

WEDDING AT HAMILTON.

HAMILTON, May 7.—Miss Tillie E. Robinson, daughter of Mr. W. W. Robinson of the D. Moore Manufacturing Company, and Mr. R. Y. Eaton of the firm of T. Eaton & Co., drygoods merchants of Toronto, were married to-day at the Centenary Church. Miss Robinson wore a gown of white faille silk with front of silver brocade and silver trimmings, a beautiful diamond pendant (the present of the bridegroom), white veil with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and Chinese lilies. She was attended by four bridesmaids. All were dressed in gowns of white and gold Lansdowne of the Empress design, with trimmings of gold, and each wore a crown of violets and carried a bouquet of the same flowers. At the altar the groom was assisted by Dr. E. H. Robinson of Toronto, brother of the bride.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. E. H. Dewart of Toronto, uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. J. S. Ross, M.A., pastor of the church. To add to the beauty of the scene the church was beautifully decorated with palms and flowers. Miss Robinson was one of Hamilton's fairest and most talented daughters, a graduate with high honors from the Ladies' College of this city and winner of post-graduate honors as well. Her friends marked their esteem for her by sending an almost endless number of the most valuable presents. Among them was a gold-lined fruit epergne of rare design and workmanship from the superintendents of departments of the firm of T. Eaton & Co. Mr. and Mrs. Eaton left by the afternoon train for the east.

The Toronto guests included Dr. and Mrs. Doolittle, Mr. and Mrs. Barker, Dr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. Howard Chandler, Dr. and Mrs. Dewart, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Dewart, Mr. R. H. Dewart, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hanford Alley, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, Dr. Chambers.

A Hod-Carrier's Fatal Fall.

HAMILTON, May 7.—Charles Hiscox, a well-known character, was engaged in carrying a hod for William Tyson, a contractor. Hiscox essayed to carry mortar to the second floor, when he stumbled and fell headlong through an opening to the ground floor, a distance of about 14 feet. The injured man was picked up unconscious and conveyed in the ambulance to the hospital. The doctors report him suffering from concussion of the brain. His recovery is doubtful.

Died in Its Mother's Arms.

GRAND VALLEY, Ont., May 7.—Mr. Gorfine, who has bought north quarter lot 25, concession 1, East Luther, left Belwood with his family Tuesday. All went well until they came within a mile of their new house, when a child of four months commenced to cry and continued crying for a few minutes and then stopped, and when they reached their house and uncovered the wraps the child was found to be dead.

A Black Otter.

BOWMANVILLE, May 7.—Quite a curiosity was exhibited in town this morning by Mr. William Osborne, farmer, lake shore, in the shape of a large black otter.

THE INFLUENZA SPREADING.

London Hospitals Averaging 100 Cases a Day—Earl of Powis Dead.

LONDON, May 8.—Each of the large hospitals in London has an average of 100 cases of influenza. There are signs of a continued increase of the epidemic. Several more members of Parliament have been attacked. Six of the usual occupants of the Treasury bench were absent to-day.

Prince Christian and Count Hatzfeldt, the German ambassador, were unable to attend a dinner given this evening.

The Duchess of Marlborough, Justice Romer and a host of public officials are among those affected.

The Earl of Powis died to-night. The cause of death has not been reported.

Zetland Visits the People.

DUBLIN, May 8.—The Earl of Zetland, Viceroy of Ireland, is making a tour of a portion of the district affected by the shortage of a potato crop last year. He is everywhere well received by the people. At Skibbereen and Baltimore he was warmly cheered by the men on the relief railways. He visited the various institutions and received the thanks of the people for his efforts in the raising of funds for their benefit.

A French Officer Murdered.

METZ, May 7.—A sensation has been caused in the garrison here by the discovery that Col. Plazer has been murdered. The body of the officer was found this morning at his residence. His head had been smashed in with a hammer, which was found in the room covered with blood. The officer's throat had also been severely gashed with a knife or razor. The military and police authorities believe robbery was the motive of the crime. There is no clue to the murderer.

Expelled From St. Petersburg.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 7.—The author Mikhaelovsky has been expelled from the city for acting as master of ceremonies at the funeral of Shelgounoff, the political economist, on Saturday last, on which occasion the students of the University marched through the main thoroughfares in defiance of the orders of the police.

This and impure blood is made rich and healthful by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cures scrofula, salt rheum, all blood disorders.

Rheumatism,

BEING due to the presence of uric acid in the blood, is most effectually cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Be sure you get Ayer's and no other, and take it till the poisonous acid is thoroughly expelled from the system. We challenge attention to this testimony:—

"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing complaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months, and am pleased to state that it has effected a complete cure. I have since had no return of the disease."—Mrs. R. Irving Dodge, 110 West 125th st., New York.

"One year ago I was taken ill with inflammatory rheumatism, being confined to my house six months. I came out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system disordered in every way. I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon recovering my usual health. I cannot say too much in praise of this well-known medicine."—Mrs. L. A. Stark, Nashua, N. H.

REVIEWS.

THE METHODIST MAGAZINE (Toronto; William Briggs.)—In its May number this Magazine continues to give a number of articles of special interest in connection with the Methodist Centennial. One of these is an account of a recent visit to Epworth, the cradle of Methodism, by the Rev. E. N. Baker, B. A., with ten engravings of the old town, rectory and church. Mr. Percy H. Punshon, who inherits much of his father's eloquence of diction, writes a graphic account of Napoleon's exile at St. Helena, with numerous engravings. Rev. Geo. J. Bond, B. A., gives an illustrated account of a recent visit to Ephesus, and of his exploration of the ruins of the famous temple of Diana. Another article, beautifully illustrated, describes the quaint old city of Zurich, and the strange pre-historic pile dwellings of Switzerland. Dr. Daniel Clark, Superintendent of the Asylum for the Insane, contributes an interesting paper on Popular Delusions about Insanity and the Insane. Mr. Thomas Thompson gives a narrative sketch of graphic fidelity of an old-fashioned love-feast and other experiences of early Methodism in Toronto; and the Rev. Geo. Bond tells a thrilling story of The Castaway of Fish Rock. John Haberton's fascinating story, All He Knew, is continued. The Editor concludes his paper on Methodism in the Eighteenth Century. These Centennial numbers of the Magazine should be in every Methodist household and every Methodist Sunday school.

SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE.—Scribner's for May contains important articles in two notable illustrated series—the first of The Great Streets of the World, and the second of the Ocean Steamship articles. A. B. Frost has made eighteen drawings for the Broadway article, which are as complete an interpretation of the varied life of that thoroughfare as Richard Harding Davis' picturesque and vivid text. Skilful artists, like Metcalf, Zogbaum, Denman, Broughton and Villiers make the steamship article very attractive and elaborate in illustration. With two such series of articles, and a special fiction issue in August, it is believed that the summer numbers of this magazine will be remarkably interesting. The May number is noteworthy in fiction, containing the conclusion of the much-praised serial, Jerry, and the first of a two-part story, An Alabama Courtship, by F. J. Stimson (J. S. of Dale), the author of Guerndale, and First Harvests. In addition there are two complete short stories—A Fragment of a Play, by Mary Tappan Wright, who wrote that weird tale, A Truce; and A Toledo Blade, by T. R. Sullivan, author of The Lost Rembrandt and short stories which have appeared in this magazine. There is also a short illustrated article by E. H. House, on the Japanese Temples of Ise which for nearly two thousand years have been re-created in every detail, at intervals of twenty years; a carefully prepared paper on Shakespeare as an Actor, a phase of his career which is generally overlooked; and a brief and amusing essay on Dream-Poetry, with curious examples of verses composed in dreams.

Resolution of Sympathy.

At the regular meeting of Jubilee Lodge of Prentice Boys held last evening the following resolution was moved by Bro. W. J. Sanders, seconded by Bro. F. Peck, and adopted:—"Resolved, that the members of Jubilee Lodge No. 7 of Prentice Boys desire to place on record their deep sense of the loss they have sustained by the death of their departed brother, F. J. Parker, late Treasurer of the lodge, who was a faithful member, assiduous in the discharge of his duties and kindly and affable to all, and beloved by all who knew him as well as by his brethren on account of his kindly nature and many excellent qualities of head and heart. We also desire to convey to his parents and relatives our sincerest sympathy in their sad bereavement."

A SPRING MEETING.

The horsemen of the town and all who take a delight in witnessing tests of speed on the turf will be afforded a field day here on Monday, May 25th, on which day a spring meeting will be held at the Driving Park.

Mr. M. C. Chadburn, Secretary-Treasurer of the Association, intends to make the programme a success and with fine weather and good entries, the latter is assured, there will be an afternoon of rare sport presented for all who attend. The town will be in a state of gala excitement as the Ottawa Foot Guards will be here and there will be a grand celebration of the Her Majesty's birthday.

The programme of events for the afternoon at the Driving Park includes a named race for a purse of $100. This event will be open to the following horses:—R. Croft's Billy C., J. Beatty's pacer, Ormus, Fred Jones' chestnut pacer, R. Phillip's brown pacing mare, Pollard's mare, Newcastle, J. Dickinson's pacer Royal Ned, J. Hickey's Rip Van Winkle, T. Pettit's chestnut pacer, Connor Bros'. black colt, J. Simpson's chestnut pacer Maud B., J. E. McIntyre's Glen Alpine, J. Newhall's Gladstone, J. McRae's gelding, B. Appleby's Mollie Clark, J. Daly's bay pacer, G. Bizzard's bay mare, J. Elmhirst's bay gelding, Maher's bay gelding Little Jumbo, and Taylor's brown gelding Zulu.

Then there will be a free for all for a purse of $125, which will be an exciting contest.

The judges will be Messrs. Wm. Croft, Peterborough, Thos. Chalk, Port Hope, and Adam Watson, Harwood.

The track is in first-class condition and the meeting should attract a large crowd.

COURT OF CHANCERY.

Mr. Justice Ferguson Opens the Spring Sittings—Three Cases.

The spring sittings of the Court of Chancery opened in the Court House at noon to-day, Mr Justice Ferguson presiding. There were only three cases down for trial and very little interest was taken in the Court. The lawyers' table had only a few members of the bar around it, and the other seats were almost all empty. Mr G. H. Watson, of Toronto, was the only barrister present from a distance.

The three cases set down for hearing were:—

HALL VS. CHARLTON.—This, the first case called, is an action brought by Mr. R. R. Hall, assignee of the estate of Robert Johnston, to set aside a mortgage on the ground of being fraudulent preference.—G. H. Watson, Toronto and W. A. Stratton, for the plaintiff; E. B. Edwards for the defendant.

YOEMANS VS. YOUNG.—An action for trespass, laid over from the assizes.—John Burnham, Q.C., for the plaintiff; E. B. Stone for defendant.

HOUGH VS. MILLER.—An action for ejectment. Mrs. Hough claims the property under the will of her brother, the late John Patterson, and the defendant claims it under a verbal agreement with Mr. Patterson.—G. M. Roger for the plaintiff; Stratton & Hall for the defendants.

Telephonic.

An item from Peterborough appeared in to-day's Mail stating that a petition was circulated in town asking to have the manager of the Ontario Telephone Co. removed from that position. Mr. Kendry, the President of the company, was asked about it and said that he knew of no such petition and that the directors had heard of none—that, in fact, it was not correct.

The Druggists Organized.

A meeting of the druggists of this district was held in the Council Chamber yesterday afternoon, when an Association was formed in accordance with the Pharmacy Law of 1889 relating to the formation of Associations. Officers were elected and the meeting adjourned to meet at a near date at the call of the chairman. Several druggists from outside places in the district were present.

Don't Forget the Tea Meeting

at George-st. church on Monday evening next. An ample and well served tea will be provided by ladies of the congregation. Platform meeting to follow at which addresses will be delivered by Rev. E. Roberts and others. The object is to assist the Tower Committee with a view to the early completion of the work now in hand. Tickets for tea and meeting 25 cts. 1d106

The G.G.F.G. Band.

Mr. F. Miller, bandmaster of the 57th band, returned this morning from Ottawa where he had been in connection with the coming visit of the Governor-General's Foot Guards and band and making arrangements regarding the concert. Mr. Miller brought with him a very fine photograph of the band, taken at the opening of Parliament. The members of the organization are clearly photographed and every face is almost as distinct as life. The uniform is gorgeous and the appearance the band will present will be striking, while their music will be of the best.

A New Man at Lakefield.

Mr. Matt. Jamieson, who has been at Hespeler with Brodie & Co. for the past two years, has decided to go into a new line of trade and has bought out the D. Baptie Bakery and Confectionery business at Lakefield and takes possession on Monday next. He has engaged a first-class baker and confectioner and proposes to run a good shop and send out the best articles that good work and attention can produce. Special attention will be paid to the bread and pastry business. We wish Mr. Jamieson success in his new venture.

The Organ Recital.

There was a good audience to listen to the masterly renditions which formed the programme at the organ recital at St. John's church last evening given by Dr. Davies. The programme was as follows, each number being rendered with a master's skill and delighted the audience:—

Marche Religeuse	Piccsi
Pastorale op 57	Kullak
Andante expressivo	Mendelssohn
Aria (4th Sonata)	Paradies
Marche Nuptiale	Sullivan
Berceuse	Kjerulf
Selection......"Samson"	Handel
Andante in D (new composition)	Davies
Marche au Sacre	Meyerbeer

To The Justices of Peace.

The following is of interest to those gentlemen in this district who were appointed to be the Justices of Peace and who have never taken the oath of office. The gentlemen will be disqualified from taking the oath if they do not do so before August 1st. Here is the section of the Act respecting the disqualification passed at the recent session of the Legislature which governs the case:—"Every person heretofore appointed who has not prior to this Act taken or shall not on or before the 1st day of August next take the oaths of office and qualification shall cease to be a justice of the peace and the commission under which he was appointed shall, so far as relates to him, be deemed to be absolutely revoked and cancelled."

A FEAST FOR THE FLAMES

TWO DESTRUCTIVE FIRES IN THE ONE NIGHT.

Mr. Jos. Gagnon's Dwelling House Badly Damaged—Denne's Old Mill Totally Destroyed by the Devouring Element—An Old Landmark—Some of Its Ancient History—Insurance to Lighten Losses.

The firemen had a hard night's struggle with the fiery fiend last night, two alarms being sounded, both of which entailed a fight. The dwelling house on Smith-st. was a small blaze, but the destruction of Denne's old mill was one of the hottest fires seen here in some years.

A DWELLING HOUSE DAMAGED.

It was shortly after nine o'clock when an alarm was sounded for a fire that was discovered in the dwelling house, No. 44 Smith-st., owned and occupied by Mr. Jos. Gagnon, a carpenter employed with Mr. Thos. Rutherford. The fire originated in the kitchen, probably from the stove. Mr. Gagnon and his family had retired for the night when a passer-by discovered the blaze. They made their escape, but nothing was saved from the upper story and this morning Mr. Gagnon had not a coat for his back, the only one saved being badly burned across the back. The brigade responded promptly and although the fire had a good start it was got under control and the house saved in a very badly damaged concondition. It is almost completely destroyed. Mr. Gagnon had just purchased the house and had an insurance of $800 on it.

AN OLD LANDMARK GONE.

The clock was just about to sound two o'clock this morning when the alarm was again sounded calling the firemen to a conflagration in Denne's old mill, which stands on the bank of the Otonabee just below Charlotte-st. When discovered the fire had gained complete possession of the interior of the immense structure, and, although the brigade were on the scene in short order, the wooden pile, seasoned with age, was a seething furnace of fierce flame, and to attempt to save the building was a hopeless task. Powerful streams, however, were soon pouring a deluge of water on the conflagration, but they had no more effect than would water thrown on with a tea cup. The mill, as all readers know from familiarity with it, was an immense building entirely of wood, and parts of it had stood for several decades and was as dry as tinder. The flames, therefore, had an easy prey, and licked up their feast with fearful rapidity. Within ten minutes after the fire was discovered the entire structure was one flaming mass, the heat from which was something terrible. Besides the inflamable nature of the building itself, the agricultural implements which were stored within fed the flames and increased the conflagration. It was a hot fire, perhaps the hottest seen here for some years, but the firemen worked well in saving the surrounding property.

When it was seen that the mill was doomed the water was directed to save the adjoining buildings. The boat house of the Peterborough Boating Club and Mr. H. Denne's barns were of igniting, but were saved without damage. The stillness of the night was fortunate, for had an east wind been blowing Mr. Peter Hamilton's foundry would have been in jeopardy and the firemen would have been unable to fight their foe so expeditiously from the Water-st. side. Quite a crowd gathered, attracted by the brilliant glare, for the illumination must have been visible for miles when the huge pile of timber and wood was entirely enveloped by flames which shot skywards in long forked tongues. By 2.30 the fire had burned itself out and by four o'clock the firemen had the flickering fires of the ruins extinguished.

SOME ANCIENT HISTORY.

The mill which went up in smoke in such a short but glorious glare was an old landmark. Before the straggling village was known by the name of Peterborough the site was occupied by a mill. The accurate ancient history of the building is not easily obtained. About the year 1830 Mr. Adam Scott had erected a little mill on the ground of last night's fire. It was a frame structure about 18x24 feet and was fitted up to do gristing and sawing both. An excuse for a distillery was added to this defective mill and the primitive enterprise continued to be operated until 1834, when it was improved and a brewery and distillery added. It was then operated by Messrs. Hamilton & Fortye. In 1835 fire destroyed the entire building and Mr. Thos. Rountree, of Water-st., remembers the fire, when the whiskey flowed from the vats and ran upon the top of the waters of the Otonabee, making the river a stream of floating flame. Another grist mill was erected on the site, and part of the frame of this structure was in the building which was burned last night. Several millers occupied the building, among them being Messrs. Parnell, Fortye, Peplow, father of Mr. Ed. Peplow, and others. During Mr. Peplow's time an engine was introduced to aid the water power and shortly after being placed in the boiler exploded and killed one of the workmen by the name of Perry. Thus the old building had seen a tragedy. About fifteen years ago Mr. Henry Denne and made additions which practically made a new building of it. At this time the building must have cost and been valued at about $15,000. Mr. Denne operated it for some years until some four or five years ago when it was shut down. It was purchased shortly afterwards by Mayor Stevenson who still owned it when it was destroyed. It was worth at the present time perhaps about $6,000, and Mr. Stevenson had an insurance on it of $4,000. The machinery all remained in the building with the exception of two stones and the engine which had been removed. It was erected at a time when timber was plentiful and was constructed on a very substantial plan.

HAD THE MILL REMODELLED

The building had been unoccupied until recently when Mr. Peter Hamilton secured it as a store house for his surplus agricultural implements. He had stored a large quantity of implements in the building which were all swallowed up by the flames. He had only a partial insurance on the stock stored. His loss, however, will not interfere with his supplying his customers with orders, as may probably be reported.

The fire was undoubtedly an act of incendiarism as no fire had been in the building for years. If such is true the incendiary can view his successful work with complacence this morning for nothing is left but a few smouldering charred remains.

"If you can't afford fancy penwipers, stick your pens into a potato," says a writer who is evidently uninformed as to the price of potatoes and consequent waste of good eatable material. However, there is the satisfaction of knowing that if potatoes are dearer Hawley Bros. teas are just as cheap as ever and the quality better. Remember Hawley's when you want tea. 6113

THE CALL ACCEPTED.

Rev. Mr. MacWilliams to be the Pastor of St. Andrew's.

Rev. Mr. McEwen, Moderator, and Messrs. John McClelland and Dr. Bell, the Peterborough Presbytery Committee appointed to attend the meeting of the Brockville Presbytery and plead for the translation of Rev. Mr. MacWilliams, of South Mountain, who had been called to the pastorate of St. Andrew's church, were on a successful mission. Mr. John McClelland arrived home this morning. The Brockville Presbytery met at Spencerville yesterday afternoon and the meeting was of a most pleasant character to the Peterborough delegation. Rev. Mr. MacWilliams accepted the call and the Brockville Presbytery consented to the translation. One of the members of the Brockville Presbytery was appointed to preach the pulpit vacant on May 31st, and the induction as pastor will follow on June 2nd.

The further preliminaries in connection with the call and translation will remain for the Peterborough Presbytery.

The new pastor is a divine who in being made the choice of St. Andrew's congregation will receive the hearty and united support of that people upon his assuming his charge. He is a comparatively young man of ability and is an eloquent preacher and energetic and earnest as a pastor.

Everybody Knows

That at this season the blood is filled with impurities, the accumulation of months of close confinement in poorly ventilated stores, workshops and tenements. All these impurities and every trace of scorfula, salt rheum, or other diseases may be expelled by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier ever produced. It is the only medicine of which "100 doses one dollar" is true.

Special Sunday Service

On Sunday next, at George-st. church, with the object to promote the extension and welfare of the church. Rev. E. Roberts, so well and favorably known in Peterborough and district, will preach morning and evening sermons of a special and interesting character.

Lots on Romaine-st. Each lot is 33ft. by 220ft. Soil high and dry, sandy loam. 10 minutes walk from the Edison Works, Peter Hamilton Works, the Carbon Works and the Bridge Works. The new Electric Car Line will touch this street and George and Aylmer-sts. will be opened through to the Fair ground.

To secure a respectable street the deeds will contain a clause compelling the purchasers when they build to erect a uniform distance from the front, and that the houses when built shall not cost less than $600. These lots are double the depth of the ordinary town lot and are fine for gardening. This is the finest property in the market and one which will afford the best building lots to be had at low prices These are only lots left on the south side of the street. Lots in the neighborhood half the depth sell at $8 to $10 per foot frontage, while these lots are 220ft. deep and will be sold for what they will bring. These lots while sufficiently near the great factories, are close to George-st. and being off the muck are clean and healthy.

Ten years will be given for payment. $5.00 on the $100 down; $5.00 on the $100, in one month; $10 on the $100 in 3 months, then a free deed will be given and mortgage taken back for the remainder of the purchase money, payable in 9 equal annual payments with interest at 6 per cent. Five per cent. discount will be allowed for cash. For further particulars apply to

Seed Potatoes

and which we are offering for sale, for seed, at a moderate advance on the price of ordinary potatoes. This variety was obtained from Seattle, Washington Territory, and has proved itself a valuable potato. It is very productive, of good size, uniform, smooth, white; a fine table potato and a long keeper, and has been found less subject to rot than other varieties.

CASH HARDWARE STORE.

On and after 1st April we shall do business on a Cash Basis.

To cover the inevitable losses attendant upon a credit business, (which accrue from amount of time spent in keeping accounts, collecting, bad debts, interest account, and in numerous other ways, larger margins of profit must be asked.

In these times cash buyers ask, expect and are entitled to close prices. A careful consideration of the subject convinces us that the time has come for a cash business done on smaller profits.

The only customers who may be put to inconvenience are those who have had long credit. In more ways than one it will be to their advantage to pay cash.

For convenience of our old customers who consider their accounts due when presented, we will call 30 days cash and render all accounts the first of each month, and we wish to say that we will be happy to do business with them on these terms.

As the new departure is something of an experiment, what would be considered a close cash price will be made all through the stock. Not a few leaders only, but a general reduction in everything from the fourth flat to the cellar.

Our idea is to perform more than promised rather than promise more than can be fulfilled.

Our stock is large and varied, consisting of Builders', Contractors', Household, Mechanics', Painters', Shoemakers', Farm, Mill, Factory, Lumbermen's, Sporting, Threshers', Cabinetmakers', and other lines of Hardware.

A GIRL IN POMPEII.

And as I went from one to the other, I I saw that the goldfish in the piscina looked tired too. I went and looked at them. They were so still that at first I was almost afraid they might be dead. They scarcely moved at all and seemed sometimes to gasp for breath. While I was watching them something flew past me and alighted at my feet. It came so close that I could scarcely believe it was a bird. But it was one—a pretty little bird which seemed to have fallen frightened and exhausted. Its feathers were ruffled, and it was panting for breath and held its tiny beak open. It looked at me with such timid, bright eyes as if it wanted me to be kind and protect it. I think it must have flown from the mountain and felt the first stifling vapors. But I did not think of that then. It let me stoop down and take it in my hand gently. It nestled down in my palm as if it felt comforted a little. I smoothed its feathers softly and gave it some water. It drank, but it would not eat, and all the time it looked at me with its timid bright eyes as if it were asking me a question. I did not try to keep it prisoner, but it would not leave me. It seemed to like best to be in my hand. It was with me to the last. I think all the animals were frightened and felt that something terrible was near. My little dog was restless and turned round and round on his bed as if he were afraid to lie down, and again and again he lifted his head and gave long, doleful howls.

"The day got hotter and hotter. I tried to sleep in the shade of the colonade, and the little bird nestled in the folds of my tunic on my breast. But we neither of us slept, and it kept ruffling its feathers and opening its beak as if to get the air.

"And the flowers drooped so that at last I thought I would give them more water to drink. I gave them all some and went to look at the gold fish again. I was standing near them when suddenly I heard a strange rumbling sound and felt myself shaken as if the earth was trembling, the fish were darting to and fro, the water in their basin was agitated, my little dog cowering to me, and the bird fluttered wildly about my head. I knew what earth quakes were, and I guessed this was one and turned to run to find my mother. But in a moment there were awful sounds on every side. There was the crash of falling halls and roofs and pillars, and a great darkness seemed to come from the mountain—a blackness lighted with deep burning red. I looked up where the strange clouds had been hovering, and there was a great tree of fire flaming to the skies. Its trunk was blackness, but its branches were flame. Then an awful volume of the blackness rolled over us and seemed to swallow the city up. I ran screaming to my mother's rooms. She met me before I reached them, and caught my hand in the darkness, and we ran through the falling vestibulum into the street. It was filled with shrieking, flying people; on all sides things were falling, the air was thick with stifling vapors, and we were smothered with heavy showers of hot ashes and scorched with burning fragments of pumice stone. We could not see and we could not breathe; I could scarcely cry out when a house or a temple crumbled near me, or a huge red-hot boulder came flying from the awful mountain and fell at my feet.

"We ran hither and thither in the darkness, not knowing where to go; we stumbled over crushed and dead bodies, the ashes and lapilli came thicker and thicker. And in the midst of it I had a strange thought of the beautiful perstulium, with the garlands and statues and flowers and the gold fish in the little crystal pool.

"I do not know how long we ran and struggled over the ruins in our way. It could not have been long, because the ashes came so thickly and there was no air to breath, but it seemed as if we ran to and fro for hours. Then there came more awful sounds from the mountain, more flames, more ashes, more stone, and what seemed a scalding rain. Boiling water was spouting forth with all the rest, and mixed with the ashes and molten stones it fell upon us. I could run no more and fell writhing on the trembling earth. My mother would not leave me. She struggled to raise me and then fell too. I only remember one thing more—that I thought how soft and green the mountain had been only the day before—that I remembered the garlands again and the thirsty flowers and frightened gold fish, and I wondered where the little bird had gone."

This was what I imagined she told me in the voice and language of a little girl of to-day. One can imagine anything and make it seem real to oneself—even the story of a poor little gray image in a glass case—all that awful Last Day left of the child who had died in Pompeii eighteen hundred and eleven years ago.—Frances Hodgson Burnett.

SUSPECTS CAUGHT.

The Brussels Safe Crackers Believed to be in Custody at Listowel.

BRUSSELS, Ont., May 7.—The burglars who are supposed to have gone through the post-office safe here on Sunday night were arrested at Listowel to-day. A revolver and some powder were found in their possession. They were tried and found guilty of carrying a revolver and fined $2. As soon as they were arrested Brussels' chief was wired and he and McDonald, whom they had used so badly on Sunday night, drove to Listowel. McDonald picked one out as the man instantly. The other one he was not quite so sure about. They give their names as William Hendrick of Detroit and Louis Smith, alias "The Kid."

DROWNED HERSELF IN A WELL.

Supposed Suicide of a Bowmanville Young Woman in Feeble Health.

BOWMANVILLE, May 7.—Miss Jane McClung, who resided at the home of her brother William in this town, had been in feeble health for some time and had been sitting with the family as usual during the evening. Being missed from the room for a time, about 9 o'clock, it was thought she had retired to bed, but on looking in her room and not finding her a search around the premises was instituted. No trace of the missing one could be obtained for some time, until one of the family probed into an open-top cistern which stood in rear of the dwelling, and there the lifeless body was discovered.

A "slight cold" settling upon the lungs of one whose blood is tainted with scrofula, nearly always results in consumption.

For removing scrofulous humors from the blood, curing scrofulous sores and ulcers, and Consumption (which is lung-scrofula) in its earlier stages, by removing their underlying cause, and for purifying the blood of all humors or poisons, no matter of what name or nature, as well as for toning up the system generally, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is acknowledged by all who know anything of it, to stand at the head of all remedies.

All the year round, you may rely upon Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify the blood and system. It's not like the sarsaparillas, that are said to be good for the blood in March, April and May. The "Golden Medical Discovery" works equally well at all times, and in all cases of blood-taints, or humors, no matter what their name or nature.

It's the cheapest blood-purifier, sold through druggists, no matter how many doses are offered for a dollar, because you only pay for the good you get.

Your money is returned if it doesn't benefit or cure you.

Can you ask more?

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol to inebriate, and no syrup or sugar to derange digestion.

It's a concentrated vegetable extract; put up in large bottles; pleasant to the taste, and equally good for adults or children.

Two Good Things
IN FLOUR!
1. Scale Weight.
2. First Quality.
If good flour makes good bread it follows that one sort of flour makes better bread than another.
Which sort makes best?
That depends. The best flour is the purest, the best ground, the strongest and containing the most health giving and nourishing properties.
These good points are all found in our Flour.
Have you tried it? Perhaps yes. Perhaps no. If you have not, do so, and you may find a better flour than you have been using, and we a customer.

BUY NOW IF AT ALL.
EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Erin property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighborhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

They are constantly opening out New Goods.

To-day we are showing a large lot of Wool and Union Carpets just turned out of the loom, all new patterns. Housekeepers will do well to remember us. 36 in. Union Carpet at 35c. a yd., the old price was 50c. Heavier grades at 40c., 50c. and 60c. The All-wools range from 75c. up to $1.00 yd. Lace Curtains, Cream and White, ranging in price from 60c. a pair to $5.00. Curtains were never so cheap and handsome as they are this season. You will be surprised to see what we can give you at $1.25 a pair.

Art Muslins in single and double widths at 10c. up to 20 a yard. Double Fold Reversable Cretonnes for porteaus at 75c. a yard.

In our Mantle Department we show a choice range of Wool Mantle Cloths, plain and brocaded, suitable for elderly ladies wraps. Also handsome Laces for trimming.

Our Pue-de-soie Silk we warrant not to cut, price $1.25 and $1.50 a yd.

We show Jet Capes and Visites from $2 to $5, either all Jet or Jet and Lace. Also some very handsome ones for mourning. We have such quantities we can suit any size or style of make. Allover Jet Lace at the surprising low figure of 75c. Fish Nets at 60c. We believe you will pay twice these figures elsewhere for these goods. Quantities of Millinery to select from, pretty as a picture.

SATURDAY, MAY 9, 1891.

THE WEEK'S TRADE.

Cold Weather Interferes Somewhat With the General Movement of Goods—Heavier Yields of Cereals.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Special telegrams to Bradstreet's, as in preceding weeks, do not show a general growth in the volume of trade in staples, although there are instances where business is reported quite active and equal to expectations, even exceeding records of the like week a year ago. Minneapolis tells such a story, as does St. Paul, and somewhat modified the like is true at Omaha. There has been a pronounced gain at Chicago. Nowhere else are announced expanding volumes of business and records in excess of 1890. Cold weather has interrupted buying of some seasonable goods, but not seriously. West and south the crop outlook is all that could be desired. Sugar is said to be a little late in Louisiana and spring wheat in the Northwest, but except the probability of a smaller area planted to cotton this month all agricultural staples promise heavier yields than last year. Industrial disturbances the first week in May have been numerous and costly. Nearly 25,000 coal miners struck for various causes, although a general eight-hour demand was not made. The total number of industrial workers on strike is not far from 30,000, as compared with 54,000 one year ago. Crude iron, on the whole, has not gained any strength. Prints have reached the lowest figure ever recorded. Leather and hides are dull without change. Lumber is quite variable. Sugar is weak and 1/8c off on raw and refined on weakness abroad.

Stocks of wheat, United States and Canada afloat for Europe and available in Europe, show that supplies have fallen off: Jan. 1 to May 1, 1891, being only 16,675,000 bushels, compared with 25,666,000 bushels in a like portion of 1890 and 43,206,000 bushels in 1889.

In the province of Ontario general wholesale trade is only fairly active with collections moderately prompt. Staple groceries are more active at Toronto. Drygoods sales at Montreal have been curtailed by colder weather. Throughout Quebec trade is quiet. Cattle export business is good. The Dominion report 21 business failures this week against 41 last week and 28 this week last year. The total number Jan. 1 to date is 777 against 734 last year.

Baldness is either hereditary or caused by sickness, mental exhaustion, wearing tight-fitting hats, and over work and trouble. Hall's Renewer will prevent it.

IN FLAMES' FIERY GRASP

A SIMCOE COUNTY VILLAGE COMPLETELY DESTROYED.

Nearly Every Store and Many Dwellings Burned in a Fierce Fire, Which Raged for Several Hours—Fire at Guelph, Lucan, Niagara Falls, and Gravenhurst.

ALLISTON, Ont., May 8.—What at daybreak this morning was a thriving village of 1800 inhabitants on the Boyne River, in Simcoe county, is now a smouldering mass of ruins, a fire which originated in the stables of the Queen's Hotel, and which quickly spread in all directions, having almost completely destroyed the village. When the flames were subdued after five hours' stubborn fighting five or six blocks of buildings, together with four hotels, a bank, foundry and dozens of dwellings had been destroyed.

The Mayor telegraphed early in the day for assistance to Barrie, the county town, 24 miles northeast of here, but the engine was out of repair. The Collingwood brigade promptly answered the call for help and assisted the local department in extinguishing the flames. The town presents a desolate appearance, telephone, telegraph and electric light wires being strewn all over the street, together with a large quantity of goods, etc. The principal buildings destroyed were the postoffice, the Bank of Hamilton, Oddfellows' Hall, O'Brien's, Marrow's and Nolan's hotel, the Revere House, the large brick block owned by T. M. Brown, the Market House and town and fire halls, the skating rink, the fine brick block occupied by M. J. Doyle, tailor, Aitken & Sons' iron foundry, Longeway's grocery, vacant store belonging to William Mawhinny, Goddard's furniture store, McMylor's furniture store, W. Bavair's barber shop, J. C. Hart's general store, G. S. Edmunds' jewelry store, Miss Graham's fancy goods, J. J. Armstrong's harness shop, P. D Kelly & Sons' hardware store and offices, in which telegraph and express office were situated, and house occupied by two tenants adjoining, frame store unoccupied, property of P. D. Kelly; Mrs. Carmichael's temperance hotel, William Jenkins' grocery, McChesney's boarding house, J. G. Sutherland's dental office, houses occupied by William Badger and W. S. Wallace. On the south side of Victoria-street these places were burned: R. Henderson's grocery, frame house to the east, Callaghan's butcher shops, Foster's grocery, George Upton's store, O. McHugh's barber shop, H. F. Mann's fancy store, Bell Telephone office, McCarthy, Pepler & McCarthy's law office, Fanjoy's photograph gallery, C. C. Lee & Co.'s drygoods store, J. G. Hood's Division Court office, Mrs. Crawford's confectionery store, Badger's drygoods store, Mrs. Hurst's drygoods store, Thomas Evans' jewelry store, Burk & Graham's banking office, Fisher & Bell's law offices, I. McMahon's drug store, Hutchinson & Sons' drygoods store, W. B. Clifton's tinshop, H. W. Wright's grocery, Dr. Bell's surgery and residence and J. C. Hart's barns to the east, A. Kinsey's furniture store, T. H. Hoyes' boot and shoe store, R. F. Young's boot and shoe store, James Allen's blacksmith shop and residence, T. I. Clifton's grocery, William Dennis' butcher shop, Christopher Donnelly's liquor store, K. McRae's tailor shop.

The Royal City Visited By Fire.

GUELPH, May 8.—At 3 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the engine house at Cockburn's wood-yard, and before it was got under control totally consumed the engine and boiler house and a large quantity of wood. The yard stable was also burned to the ground and the three horses cremated.

At Niagara Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 8.—The large frame planing mill at the corner of St. Clair-avenue and Huron-street owned by Jacob Lovell was destroyed by fire this morning. A couple of houses owned by B. C. Lundy and Mrs. Wagstaff of Detroit were burned. An hour after the water was turned on a new main burst, causing a delay of 25 minutes. Lovell will lose $3000 stock and $3000 on the mill, B. C. Lundy $600. Neither was insured. The fire is supposed to be the work of two men seen near the mill shortly before the flames broke out.

A Fatality at Montreal.

MONTREAL, May 8.—By a fire in a tenement house at 20 St. Felix-street to-day Zolique Demer's two children were fatally burned, one of them dying in a short time. The children were bravely rescued by the men of the salvage brigade. The fire was caused by the explosion of a coal oil lamp on a table near the two little boys.

Forest Fires at Gravenhurst.

GRAVENHURST, Ont., May 8.—The lumber yard at Tasker's Switch, five miles from here, containing 1,000,000 to 2,000,000 feet of lumber, is burning and eight loaded cars on the switch are also on fire. This village has been threatened all day by forest fires, but they are now under control. A house owned by Alexander Clark of Allendale, and occupied by W. R. Goodwin, was destroyed, involving $700 loss.

Incendiary Act of a Vicious Boy.

LUCAN, May 8.—George Hackett, one mile from Lucan, had an English immigrant boy in his employ named W. K. S. Bryant, and his month having expired he demanded his wages, which Mr. Hackett did not pay. He went out to the barn and deliberately set fire to it and then started for Lucan, but was caught and jailed.

BOTH PERISHED.

A Six-year-old Girl Drowned in Trying to Save Her Baby Sister.

HALIFAX, May 8.—Two little girls, aged 3 and 6, daughters of Paul O'Dee, were drowned at Cape Rouge yesterday in a brook. One was washing a pan and went into the brook to catch it and was drowned. The other met the same fate trying to rescue her.

A Disastrous Trip Followed His Wedding.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 8.—Near Bangor, on the L. & N.R.R., last night a freight train broke in two and ran back into the one following. The engine and several cars were wrecked and burned with heavy loss. An unknown white tramp was killed and three other tramps were badly hurt. The engineer, J. H. Blair, who was making his first trip after his wedding, was seriously hurt.

Killed Going for Medicine.

HARTFORD, Conn., May 8.—Mrs. Richard Dillon, over 80 years of age, fell from a four-story window in Pearl-street before daylight this morning and was killed. She arose in the night for medicine and it is supposed she slipped and fell out of the window, which has a very low sill.

Natural Gas Companies Responsible.

WINDSOR, May 8.—At the assizes to-day the case of Boulton v. the Kingsville Gas Company was decided for plaintiff with $1250 damages. Boulton's house was burned through a natural gas explosion.

ANTI-RITUALIST ROW.

Extraordinary Scene in the Church of Ascension at Hamilton—The Lights Put Out—Shouting, Cat-Calls, Etc.

HAMILTON, May 7.—The most exciting incident in the recent troublous history of the Church of the Ascension occurred last evening. Yesterday being Ascension Day, a series of services was arranged by Rev. Mr. Crawford in celebration of the festival. The morning service was held, and there was nothing particularly significant in it. But a special service had been arranged by the rector for the evening. Mr. Crawford had invited the choir of Christ Church Cathedral (a surpliced choir) to participate in the service, and the invitation was accepted.

When it was learned that the rector had determined to introduce a surpliced choir into the church, the leaders of the memorialist majority decided to adopt such tactics as would emphasize their opinion. At a hastily summoned meeting prior to the service it was determined that the gas and the water supply should be cut off, so that the service would have to proceed amid darkness and without any organ music.

The church was brightly lit up as usual, when the sound of the processional hymn was heard, growing louder as the clergy, in procession, approached the chancel. There was a buzz of eager expectancy in the congregation, and then a sudden hush as the processional crosses appeared, one on each side of the chancel, and the white-robed singers filed in behind them. Then, suddenly and without warning, the lights went out. The gas had been turned off by Mr. Williams. An attempt was made to hold the services in the dark. The organ was dumb, the water supply having been turned off. Then the noise at the rear of the church increased until at length the church became a Babel of sounds. Hisses and groans were heard mingling with the music, and while the choir and clergy and part of the congregation were singing "Crown Him Lord of All," the memorialists were singing "Nearer My God to Thee," and with as much lung-power as they could command.

The confusion continued throughout the services, which were held in semi-darkness, some person having obtained possession of two oil lamps and four candles, which were distributed in such a manner as to shed the light as evenly as possible.

WITH PARIS GREEN.

An Elora Barrister Seeks Death by Poison.

ELORA, May 8.—Edward Burns, barrister, took a dose of paris green with suicidal intent in his office and went home and went to bed. He admitted being sick, but did not say anything about what he had taken, and it was several hours after the desperate deed was done that the awful discovery was made. Medical aid was then summoned with all possible speed and the stomach pump and other treatment were brought to bear. However, the poison had been so long in his stomach that it had spread pretty well through his system, and consequently the case appears to be a very hopeless one. Throughout the treatment he expressed a desire for death and said that life had no attractions for him.

Remarkable Suicide.

VICTORIA, B.C., May 8.—The steamer Rainbow, which arrived from the north this morning, brought down the news that a logger named Charles Simons, employed at Brickley Bay, Cadero Channel, committed suicide by cutting off his arm and bleeding to death. He was buried next day.

The Body Recovered.

THAMESVILLE, May 8.—After several days of weary work Mr. Watson and another found the body of Miss Christie Simington in the river, about a quarter of a mile from the place where she jumped in. A jury brought in a verdict of suicide during a fit of temporary insanity.

A Suicide at Swift Current.

WINNIPEG, May 8.—Ex-Mounted Policeman Jamieson, who has been drinking heavily for some time, suicided yesterday at Swift Current.

APPALING DISASTER.

A Quarry Town Filled with Workingmen Engulfed By a Flood and Nearly All on Board Drowned.

ROME, May 8.—News of a terrible disaster which occurred to-day at Allerona, near Orvieto, in the Province of Umbria, has been received here. While a quarry train on which were many workingmen was at Allerona, a sudden flood occurred in the river and the rushing water engulfed the train. The cars were lifted from the tracks and were carried a considerable distance. Most of the men on board were drowned.

SLAVIN SCARED.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8.—Jack Kelly of Port Richmond has gained the distinction of being the first American pugilist to bluff Frank Slavin, the Australian heavyweight fighter. Kelly yesterday offered to fight either Slavin or Charley Mitchell to a finish, Marquis of Queensberry or London prizering rules, for $1000 a side.

Mitchell said he had retired from the ring, while Slavin said that the stake was not large enough. Kelly then offered to bet $1000 that Slavin could not stop him in 10 rounds, the fight to take place under the auspices of the club that would offer the largest purse, but Slavin also declined this proposition on the ground that Kelly was not a recognized champion. When asked why he had boasted that he could stop any man in America in six rounds Slavin said that he had never made any such assertion.

Broke His Neck.

ORILLIA, May 8.—Alexander Simpson, a teamster employed at the Longford Lumber Co., was killed by a runaway team at the mills. He was on a load of slabs and his head struck the low roof of the mill, his jaw catching on the eavetrough, breaking his neck. Death was instantaneous.

Caught in a Wagon Wheel.

MIDLAND, Ont., May 8.—Mr. Henry Borey's son, aged 7 years, while playing around where his father was teaming stone had the misfortune to get caught in the hind wheel of the wagon and was severely crushed in the lower part of the abdomen.

Supposed to be Drowned.

WINNIPEG, May 8.—William Scanlon, who has been a cook at Scott's Camp on Lake of the Woods, is supposed to be drowned. He has not been seen since he left camp on April 18 for Rat Portage.

Stake Elected.

KANSAS CITY, May 8.—At the meeting of Y.M.C.A. secretaries to-day S. H. Stake of Toronto was settled upon as the Canadian member of the International Committee.

Further Arrests of Anarchists.

ROME, May 7.—Additional arrests have been made of Anarchists concerned in the May-day riot here. The persons arrested to-day had in their possession a pamphlet issued by Malatesta, an Italian refugee in London, explaining the manufacture and use of bombs.

LOVE RUNS ROUGHLY.

A "BUSINESS" MARRIAGE ARRANGEMENT COSTS $5000.

Acquitted of Shooting the Horse Driven by the Girl Who Rejected Him—Attempted to Kill Her Husband—A Preacher Who Had Many Sweethearts.

AMHERST, N.S., May 8.—The Amherst Baptist Church, at a business meeting this evening, passed a very strenuous paper concerning the conduct of the pastor's late assistant, Mr. Alfred B. Staples. It appears Mr. Staples has been engaged to two or more ladies at the same time and promised to marry each within a short time. This was rather too much for any ordinary mortal and the crash came on Tuesday last, when the youngest of the ladies came over from New Brunswick and she and her friends insisted that he should marry her then and there. He consented, procured a license and then refused to make use of the license. Under the circumstances all the parties concluded to wait until morning, but during the night the curate slipped away, leaving a carriage, road cart, sleigh, horse, library, trunk, etc., to console a good many creditors.

A BUSINESS ENGAGEMENT.

Although It Was to Include the Marriage Ceremony—Miss Livingston Secures a Verdict For $5000 Damages.

BUFFALO, May 8.—Miss Nellie Livingston's suit against Frank W. Knox terminated today and the jury promptly returned a verdict of $5000 for the plaintiff to heal her wounded affections. Miss Livingston was subjected to a rigid cross-examination by Lawyer Milburn. She stated that Mr. Knox urged her to break her engagement to Mr. Wallen of Oil Springs, Ont., the young Canadian, stating that his money would outweigh his rival's youth. She did not want it understood that she had fallen in love with Mr. Knox. There was no time for either love or affection. It was a distinctly business matter. Joseph Jackson, Miss Livingston's brother-in-law, and Mrs. Laura Laycock corroborated Miss Livingston's testimony.

The gay but aged Lothario was heard. He admitted the preliminaries but denied the promise.

ROMANTIC EPISODES.

In a Case Tried at Cobourg Assizes Yesterday.

COBOURG, May 8.—At the Assize Court today a young farmer residing near Colborne named Peters was tried on a charge of having fired at and killed a horse which was being driven by Miss Spillsbury. There was no evidence to connect the prisoner with the crime, although it was shown that he entertained ill-feelings against the accused on account of her having rejected his attentions. It came out in evidence that Miss Spillsbury's betrothed lover was threatened by Peters, but this took place three months previous to the day decided upon for the celebration of the wedding, and so was removed from all acts of vengeance had any been contemplated. Peters was found not guilty, but was bound over in sureties of $1000 to keep the peace for five years towards Miss Spillsbury and her father.

A VIRAGO WITH A REVOLVER.

A Wife in Welland Attempts to Kill Her Husband.

WELLAND, Ont., May 8.—Mr. Joel Dean, a drayman and agent for Cronmiller & White's lager beer, had a very narrow escape yesterday. About 4.30 o'clock his wife tempted a revolver at his head, one shot grazing his cheek, making the blood run freely, and another grazed his neck. His wife is known as "hell fire," as she is in the habit of going in the hotels and smashing the furniture and using very bad language when her husband takes a little too much stimulants, and that is of late once a week. Thursday about 1 o'clock her husband was having a spree at the Fraser House, when she entered the bar-room and made everything fly, securing her husband's pocketbook, which was filled at the time. Later in the afternoon he paid a visit to some lady friends of his. It soon came to his wife's ears, when she immediately went to the house, but was refused admittance and had boiling water flung at her. This made her desperate, and she went and secured a revolver and waited till he made his appearance, when she fired on him.

Gossip from Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 8.—There is talk of asking for an extra sessional indemnity of $600.

Senator Haythorne was buried at Beechwood Cemetery, this city, this morning. The funeral cortege left the Grand Union Hotel at 10 o'clock and proceeded to St. John's Episcopal Church, where Rev. H. Pollard conducted the service. There was a large attendance of Senators and M.P.'s. The pallbearers were Hon. R. W. Scott, Hon. Mr. Prowse, Hon. Mr. McInnes, Hon. Mr. Wark, Hon. Mr. Gowan and Hon. Mr. Grant. The Senators and members from Prince Edward Island acted as chief mourners.

The Railway Committee of the Privy Council met in the Railway Committee room at 11, the members present being Sir John Macdonald, Sir Hector Langevin, Sir Adolphe Caron, Sir John Thompson, Hon. Joseph Chapleau, Hon. E. Dewdney and Hon. John Carling. John Bell, Q.C., appeared for the Grand Trunk and ex-Judge Clark for the C.P.R. There were 25 cases in all set down for hearing, but most of them were postponed until next meeting of the committee.

The next case was an application of the town of Ingersoll for a level crossing near the Grand Trunk track, which was argued at some length, and then postponed on the ground that the town had not passed a bylaw declaring the crossing a public street.

Some Maritime Province cases took up time up to recess.

After lunch Toronto took the floor again, and the application of the city with reference to constructing the Belt Line across the C.P.R. was discussed. The committee, after considerable discussion, granted the city's contention with regard to the cost of protecting crossings, etc.

The city's application, that the C.P.R. and Grand Trunk should protect the crossings at several streets by placing sign posts and lamps, was taken up and after some argument granted.

The Esplanade question was threshed over again to a small extent and again postponed for the purpose of the railway companies and the other parties interested trying once more to come to an agreement amongst themselves.

A SHIFTING POLICY.

When Mr. Laurier accused Sir John Macdonald the other day of having a shifting policy, he must have conveniently closed his eyes to the record of his own party in that respect, says the London Free Press. The Liberals, he must have known, have not had the same policy for any two years in succession since 1878. In that year they were out-and-out free traders, not admitting protection as a defensible principle beyond the raising of a sufficient revenue to carry on the affairs of the country. In 1881 they joined issue with the Government on the building of the C.P.R., and having met with no sympathy from the people in that struggle, they went to the country in 1887 on the general matter of the debt and expenditure. The latter part of 1887 found them comparatively regardless of the public burdens in their devotion to commercial union. It was about that time Mr. Wiman appeared on the scene, and gave them a policy which filled them with a new and exhilarating joy. Up to that period they had suffered under the reproach of being a party without a policy; but with Mr. Wiman's fad in hand they grew hopeful and aggressive. Then again they fell into vacillation, and in 1889 repudiated commercial union and took up with what they called unrestricted reciprocity. Now, they hold out for what is described by Mr. Laurier as continental free trade. But there is no man bold enough to stand up in the House and say precisely what continental free trade is, and in what essential respects it differs from the original scheme which Mr. Wiman gave the Liberals in 1887. It is probable, therefore, that while demanding to know in specific terms what the Government propose to do at Washington in October, the Opposition will be very careful to withhold a fair definition of the alternative they are urging. How can the Government take up an alternative which is so vague, and, as defined by different Liberals, so contradictory?

Be Good to Those Around Us.

It can safely be asserted without fear of contradiction that Canadians are a reading people. The large number of newspapers, magazines, weekly and monthly journals now published in Canada fully prove this statement.

The proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound have taken advantage of the large circulation of many of these newspapers and magazines, to bring to the notice of our people the great benefits to be derived from the use of this scientific remedy in all cases of nervousness, exhaustion, insomnia, melancholia, dyspepsia, indigestion and rheumatism. Notwithstanding the fact that our Canadian people are great newspaper readers it is well known that there are people, who, owing to various circumstances, are not able to see a paper and unfortunately some are unable to read. We believe it to be a duty incumbent upon every daily reader, to inform their less favored brothers and sisters around them who have not yet heard of the great efficacy of Paine's Celery Compound, that it is the medicine that they require if they are afflicted with any of the ordinary ills of life. Tell them of its great reputation and its many wonderful victories over disease and suffering. Ask them kindly to try it; by so doing you will have a great pleasure and satisfaction of knowing that you have given golden advice, and conferred some good. No remedy known to mankind can be so truly recommended.

Electricity for the Mosquito.

Wire netting, as ordinary mosquito netting, and attached to an electric battery, is an invention for entrapping the Jersey stork, yclept the mosquito. The netting hangs in folds around the bed or crib, and the occupant can enjoy an hour's sport by lighting a lamp and waiting attack. The stork, attracted by the lamp, will soon alight on the canopy. The invention consists of pressing a button and turning on the fatal electric shock.

THE WORLD OF WOMEN.

FADS, FANCIES AND FASHIONS OF THE GENTLER SEX.

The Value of Not Being in a Hurry to Decide About Your Spring Gown—The Bonnets of To-day—Notes About Women.

Will you take a word of advice about your spring gown? Do not hurry. Think first that it is vulgar, then decide that it is dangerous, and next that you will not do it, and then there will be no regrets. Look into the future, but do not strain your vision. April is a month adapted to the looking for things—it is a pleasant month in which to walk and talk; in which to look at the riches of the shops and to discuss their possibilities with your female Pythias. If she can argue against an unbecoming color and give a good reason for her objection to it she is a bosom friend worth having. Therefore have your chat about clothes, not, of course, in a stage coach, but in the sanctum, over a cup of tea. And in the exchange of opinions, you will find that originality is contagious and that as the most courtly of men said in the dear old Spectator, "Much may be said on both sides."

There is a roomy old-fashioned house in Surrey, England, in which is established a training home for ladies, where every kind of domestic work is taught, laundry work, dairying, the saddling and harnessing of horses, the management of poultry, and everything necessary to fit them for the management of a home on a small income. These homes are common in Europe, and would be useful in this country, where everything else is well taught.

A charming creation is made of mauve cloth. The skirt draped in front, ornamented at the foot with a steel embroidery on white cloth bordered with Bruges lace. The corsage pleated in bias, of mauve cloth, with corselet belt of white cloth, embroidered with steel and fringe of steel falling over the skirt. The sleeves full, of mauve cloth, crossed by a band of white cloth embroidered with steel and ornamented with wrists of gauze of silk.

The simplest of plaid cotton frocks for a miss has a gathered skirt with a four-inch hem, sewed to the edge of a round waist, shirred at the centre, back and front of the waist line and buttoned in the back the high collar and cuffs on the full-topped sleeves are of embroidery or white cotton passementerie. A canvas, leather, or ribbon belt may be worn.

The wash silks are in demand for ladies' dresses and blouse waists and for girls as well, but the name is rather a misnomer, as half will not wash, and if they would endure the test we do not want to try them, for they are prettily trimmed with velvet, and while our manufacturers improve hourly, none of them yet claim that "velvet will wash."

Miss Ellen Terry must be a very busy woman now, for besides her regular work she is taking dancing lessons of Sylvia Gray and writing articles for the New Review, one of which is entitled "Stray Memories."

Hats and bonnets are ready for the spring purchasers, and are laden with blossoms of every kind. It seems impossible for nature to be more faithfully imitated than in the artificial flowers this season.

A mass of roses, tulle, ribbons, and gems, and behold! a bonnet. It seems as if the milliners wanted to make a chapeau look as if it had lighted on the head of a woman who wore it.

How Should She Treat Him?

One of my girls has written this: A young man I have known since I was a little child persists in calling me by my first name before entire strangers, and has a decidedly unpleasant manner that would suggest to anybody who didn't know us, either that I was a girl of no refinement, or that I was engaged to be married to him, and that his manners were very bad. What shall I do? This is what you shall do. You have known the young man all your life; the next time you see him tell him you have something to say to him, and set an hour when he shall pay you a visit. Of course, beforehand, tell your mother all about it, and don't do anything of which she would disapprove. When he comes just state the case to him plainly, quietly and with dignity. Tell him that it hurts you; tell him that you can't permit it, and, in addition, that if he continues to act as he does, unpleasant as it may be, you will have to entirely drop his acquaintance. If he is a gentleman, who has been a little thoughtless, your first words will be enough, and he will respect you all the more for what you have said. If he is neither gentle, nor a man, but simply a rude fellow, he will grow angry, and the loss of his acquaintance will mean nothing to you. Harsh? No, I don't think so. It is these horrible little familiarities of speech or action that make other men think that they can be equally familiar with you, and your own self-respect demands that you should act promptly and decisively at such a time. Will you take my advice? I can assure you it is good.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Hoop Skirts are Coming.

"Ladies are to be afflicted with the old time hoop skirts again," said a fashionable modiste the other day, "just as surely as they have been emancipated from the thraldom of the bustle. They have already become fashionable in a modified form.

"If you will take the trouble to watch the lower part of the skirt of any expensive spring costume you will perceive that it stands out stiffly. That effect is produced by a 'band skirt,' which is nothing else than a very narrow hoop skirt.

"Soon it will get wider, however, and grow from its present limit of a foot until the hoops multiply on each other and form the old fashioned cone reaching to the waist.

"Fashion has no compassion on us women; we might as well submit with a good grace." —New York Herald.

Another Canadian Mineral Find.

In the latest mining news from British Columbia is reported the discovery of a large bed of auriferous gravel in the Cariboo district. It runs parallel with the Canal river for about ten miles, and every linear foot has produced the value of $1. Several hydraulic mining companies are now working it, and the find is considered one of the most important made in many years. Quartz mining in Cariboo is greatly handicapped by the absence of railway facilities, and practical men say that a road through the Yellow Head pass is absolutely necessary for the development of the district, and could not help proving a paying investment to its promoters.

WOMAN—A PROBLEM.

To the Editor:

It is difficult to understand why so many women suffer in silence from those diseases peculiar to their sex, when they have at their command a remedy guaranteed to put an end to their suffering and restore them to perfect health. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills never fail in cases of functional derangement, irregularities, suppressions, bearing-down pains, weakness, and the many other complaints with which womankind is afflicted. They restore the system, enrich the blood and bring the red and rosy glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. They are equally efficacious from girlhood to old age, and are a boon and a blessing to suffering woman:

Mrs. S. Devine, Petawawa, Ont., writes: —My daughter has been ill for the last two years. She is pale, weak, short of breath with ringing noises in the head, cold hands and feet, and not regular. Doctoring all the time and of no benefit. The doctor says her blood has turned to water, and that she is run down very low. After taking four boxes Pink Pills she again writes: —I enclose balance due on Pills. I am well satisfied with them, and I must say that I have got every satisfaction that any person could ask. I can recommend your Pink Pills to anyone that is out of health. The change in my daughter's health and appearance is so wonderful that a great many persons are continually asking me for some of the medicine that cured her, so I wish to take an agency for the sale of your pills in this place.

Mrs. M—— M——, Brockville, Ont., says:—Gentlemen,—My daughter, S——, was sick for about a year, crying all the time with the pains of her head and eyes. In the morning her eyes and face were all swelled. She was pale and short of breath, with great jumpings of her heart whenever she tried to do anything or walk. Appetite bad or else entirely gone, with a dirty tongue and a bad stomach. She was never properly regular. She took two boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and they cured her. She became regular within a month, and she remained so since, and is in the best of health. I can heartily recommend these Pills to all suffers who are in the miserable condition my daughter was.

These pills are for sale by all dealers, or will be sent post paid, in sealed package, on receipt of price (50 cents a box), by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medical Co., Brockville, Ont.

REVIEWS.

The Century Magazine.—A new volume is begun with the May number of the Century, which contains several new features of what the Century calls its summer campaign. The Squirrel Inn, by Frank R. Stockton, is one of the principal and most popular of these new features. The long promised papers (two in number) on the Court of the Czar Nicholas I. are now begun, the frontispiece of the magazine being a portrait of the Emperor Nicholas. These papers are by the late George Mifflin Dallas, in his day one of the most distinguished statesmen of the country. Pioneer Mining Life in California is a day-to-day description of the conditions of mining life in '49 and '50, by Hon. E. G. Waite, Secretary of State of California. Mrs. Amelia Gere Mason's articles on the Salons of the Empire and Restoration are concluded in the present number with a paper on some of the most prominent women of France. Among the separate papers none is more striking than that of F. Hopkinson Smith's who made a special trip to Bulgaria to gather impressions for the Century. The first article in the number is a paper by C. F. Holder entitled Game Fishes of the Florida Reef, strikingly illustrated after sketches by the author. Ex-Minister John Bigelow gives a chapter of secret history which he calls The Confederate Diplomatists and their Shirt of Nessus. Mr. Fraser, of The Century Art Department, prefaces with a few words a novel feature of magazine illustration, namely, a little picture gallery taken from a recent Exhibition of Artists' Scraps and sketches in the Fellowcraft Club. Other interesting papers are those on Visible Sound, by the English singer, Mrs. Margaret Watt Hughes, with comment by Mrs. S. B. Herrick, of The Century staff. The literary paper of the number is by Miss Josephine Lazarus, and is an interesting study of the character and career of the late Louisa May Alcott, the popular writer for children. Portraits are given of Miss Alcott and her father. Besides the beginning of Mr. Stockton's story, The Century includes further chapters of Dr. Eggleston's Faith Doctor; the story, Old Gus Lawson, by Richard Malcolm Johnston; and In Beaver Cove, by Matt Crim. The poetry of the number is excellent and the departments very interesting, while the numerous illustrations are of a high class.

Harper's Magazine.—Harper's for May opens with the first of a series of attractive papers on The Warwickshire Avon, by A. T. Quiller Couch, superbly illustrated by Alfred Parsons. The Venerable F. W. Farrar, Archdeacon of Westminster, contributes an impartial and appreciative sketch of the origin and work of The Salvation Army. Roman London is the subject of an extremely interesting paper, written by Eugene Lawrence and illustrated by H. D. Nichols, describing the Roman remains recently discovered beneath the London pavements. Colonel T. A. Dodge writes the first of a series of entertaining articles about Some American Riders, his paper being beautifully illustrated from paintings by Frederic Remington. Apropos of the recent increased interest in the affairs of the Spanish-American republics, Bishop J. M. Walden contributes an account of The Argentine People and their Religious and Educational Institutions. Theodore Child, continuing his series of South American papers, gives a very complete description of the climate, people, and resources of The Republic of Uruguay. This paper, like those which preceded it, is amply illustrated. Moncure D. Conway contributes an important article on The English Ancestry of Washington, which contains many interesting facts hitherto unpublished, and is accompanied by numerous illustrations and fac-similes of entries in old parish registers. Other articles in this number of the Magazine include a causerie, by Walter Besant, Over Johnson's Grave, short stories by A. B. Ward and Caroline Earl White, the continuation of the serials by Charles Egbert Craddock and Thomas Hardy, and poems by W. D. Howells and Robert Burns Wilson. The editorial departments, under the control of George William Curtis, William Dean Howells, and Charles Dudley Warner, maintain their usual vigor and interest.

One Dozen Bottles

Of the best known Blood Remedy will not work such a change in a case of Catarrh as one package of Clark's Catarrh Cure. All the wise talk about Catarrh being a constitutional or blood disease depends entirely upon what the advertiser has to sell. If you have Catarrh in any form, try Clark's Catarrh Cure, and you need not take a cartload of it before any benefit is derived. Druggists keep it and recommend it. Price 50 cents. Sent to any address by the Clark Chemical Co., Toronto.

Why Clover Fails.

The chief cause of failure with clover is foul seed and imperfect preparation of the land. There are but few clover fields free from weeds, the seeds of the weeds being harvested with the clover seed and sold to all points, only to spread the evil. The quantity of seed used is also too limited sometimes. It should be a rule always to use too much seed rather than to incur the risk of too little. It would be well if corn should follow wheat, so as to work and cultivate the land in order to clean it of weeds and sow the clover seed in the fall, as by so doing the land could be thoroughly prepared and made fine, the seed being lightly brushed in, thus enabling the farmer to have his field of clover uniform. Failures also occur from lack of a supply of lime and potash after the clover is well under growth. All clover land should be well limed after harrowing, and if a supply of wood ashes cannot be obtained the crude potash salts should be applied as well as the lime.

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. That it may become known, the Proprietors, at an enormous expense, are placing a Sample Bottle Free into every home in the United States and Canada. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat, or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup, or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease Consumption, use it. Ask your Druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster, Price 25 cts.

A Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache and is the best Spring Medicine. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. and $1 a package.

WHAT AND WHY.

"Hell to Pay and No Pitch Hot," With Other Sayings.

"Hell to pay and no pitch Hot!" is a corruption of a nautical expression, "Hull to pay." To pay, in sailors' phraseology, means to lay hot tar on the seams or joints in the vessel. When the "hull," or body, of the vessel was to be thus covered it was a great job, and if the tar was not sufficiently heated much time would be required. Hence the dilemma, "Hull to pay and no pitch hot."

"GRINNING LIKE A CHESHIRE CAT!"

Cheshire, in England, was once noted for the manufacture of cheeses, which were often molded in fanciful shapes. One was made in the form of a cat, and was known to the trade as "the Cheshire cat." It is not surprising that this cheese cat wore an expressive grin.

ACADEMY.

In the suburbs of ancient Athens there was a famous garden and grove, owned by Academus, which was a popular resort for meditation or study. Plato taught his disciples in this grove, and it became after the death of Academus the property of the city. In it learning was encouraged and patronised, hence academy, a place of learning.

JOHNNY CAKE.

When people were travelling long distances, as early emigrants to the far West, a cake which was mixed soft with flour and milk or water and baked before the camp-fire was called a "journey cake." This has been corrupted into johnny cake.

MANSARD ROOFS.

These were first introduced into France in the seventeenth century by Francis Mansart, a celebrated architect.

BOGUS.

About 1840, in the Middle and early Western States, there flourished a noted counterfeiter named Borghese, who flooded that section of the country with what was known as "Borghese currency." Bogus is a corruption of Borghese.

He Had His Choice.

"Bring me an oyster stew," said a pompous individual in a restaurant.

"Yes, sah," answered the waiter politely, "will you have them with or without, sah?"

"Without what?"

"Pearls, sah."

"Tired All the Time,"

Say many poor men and women who seem overworked, or are debilitated by change of season, climate or life. If you could read the hundreds of letters praising Hood's Sarsaparilla which come from people whom it has restored to health, you would be convinced of its merits. As this is impossible, why not try Hood's Sarsaparilla yourself and thus realize its benefit? It will tone and build up your system, give you a good appetite, overcome that tired feeling and make you feel, as one woman expressed it, "like a new creature."

F. R. Fitzpatrick, of Hamilton, is to be appointed Grand Master of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, Grand Master Ormiston, of Gananoque, having decided to resign, owing to pressure of business. Mr. Ormiston is collector of customs at Gananoque, and recently the custom house was burned there. A large quantity of memoranda and papers relating to correspondence was consumed, necessitating a large amount of additional work on the part of Mr. Ormiston, who, feeling that he could not conscientiously continue to officially perform the duties of his position, decided to resign the office of Grand Master.

The Italian Sold on Sunday.

Frank Anthony, the proprietor of the peanut stand at the corner of George and Hunter-sts., is perhaps the best known Italian in town and he has always borne a very good character. Frank lives on Aylmer-st. near Hunter and has a small shop there. He was in the Police Court this morning to answer to a charge of selling on Sunday, it being alleged that some of the small boys on the way to Sunday school would drop into Frank's and spend their collection in candies instead of giving it towards the school which was giving them their scriptural education. Frank denied the charge, but a young lad went into the witness box and told him he and his little sister had got five cents worth of candies at the place on Sunday afternoon last. The Chief had evidence to substantiate this and the Magistrate had to fine the Italian, but he made it light. The fine was one dollar and costs ($4.30) and it was paid.

NORTHERN DIVISION CANOE MEET.

Jacob's Island, Pigeon Lake, the Place and July 15th to 29th the Dates—A Capital Meet Looked For.

This year the annual Summer Meet of the Northern Division of the American Canoe Association will be held at Jacob's Island, Pigeon Lake, a decision that will afford satisfaction of all members of the Association in this vicinity.

At the annual business meeting held last year it was decided to have a cruising meet as a sort of innovation, the Division to get together at some point on Georgian Bay and cruise about for a couple of weeks. The project looked feasible and it seemed to be popular at the time. In the interval developments showed that if such a meet was held it would not be largely attended as the equipment for cruising purposes is so different from that in use at a regular meet that few members would have it on hand and that few would incur the additional expense involved in geting it up. Correspondence among members showed that a meet located on some inland water would be more popular. This was largely the wish of Toronto and Western canoeists, who, it was understood, would go into camp at some convenient point and let the cruising meet go by default.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Division was held at Kingston last week and the matter discussed. Good feeling prevailed and it was decided to hold the meet at Jacob's Island, Pigeon Lake, a locality well known and to the north-west of Peterborough. The date fixed is a trifle earlier than usual but opportune, from 15th to 29th July. The meet will open on Wednesday and close two weeks later affording ample time for the members to enjoy a good outing.

A special committee to make arrangements for the meet was named, selected from the clubs in the district. It includes Commodore Col. Cotton and Purser C. E. L. Porteous, of Kingston; D. B. Jacques and Dr. Powell, Toronto; A. F. D. Macgachan and J. G. Edwards, Lindsay; W. Boyd and W. J. Reid, Bobcaygeon, and Col. J. Z. Rogers and G. W. Hatton, Peterborough. A meeting of the committee will be held here on May 16th, after which a trip will be taken up to Jacob's Island to view the camp and make other arrangements for the meet. A report will at once be issued to members advising as to details, route to reach camp, etc.

The committee have done well in locating the meet on Pigeon Lake. No more beautiful site for a camp is available than Jacob's Island. The shores are accessable for small craft, and on the "Narrow's" side is a sheltered shore available for a safe harbor. The sloping shore, rising gradually from the water, is covered with grass, while behind is a splendid grove of maples among which tents can be pitched with comfort to the occupants. The only uncertanty at present is will the ground be large enough. That point will be considered by the committee on the 16th. That desire of a sailing canoeman, wind, is nearly always found on Pigeon lake. What breeze there is moving on a hot day will fill the sails on that water when it is perfectly calm on the neighboring lakes of Buckhorn and Chemong. In the neighborhood of the camp good well water is at hand and it is directly on the line of boats passing from Bridgenorth to Bobcaygeon. Supplies for table can be procured from the farms on the shores of the lake.

The site has the further advantage of being easy of access to canoeists from a distance. By way of Peterborough, canoes and camp matters will be taken by rail to the Bridgenorth terminus of the G.T.R., and to the camp by steamer or the canoeman can take ship and sail to the camp. By way of Lindsay, Bobcaygeon is reached by steamer and the camp is then distant only a 5 mile trip by canoe, a mere trifle.

The local membes of the committee, Col. Rogers and Mr. G. W. Hatton, are pushing the meet in an energetic way and promise a success. They are anxious that all canoeists, especially those of the Otonabee Canoe Club, will lend a hand and by their presence at the meet and assistance make the event a big success, which it deserves to be. Those who are not members of the Division can apply to Mr. Hatton, who will arrange matters handily. It is on record in canoeing annals of the success of the big A.C.A. Stony Lake meet in 1883, and of the Northern meet at the same place in 1887. Peterborough and the district about it is the home of canoeing and it behooves all lovers of the sport to lend a hand on this occasion.

COURT OF CHANCERY.

The Case of Hall vs. Charlton—The Question of Assignment for the Preference of Creditors.

All yesterday afternoon until eight o'clock last evening and this morning the attention of the Court at the Chancery Sittings was occupied by Hall vs. Charlton, an action which is exciting some interest among the legal profession, owing to the many conflicting authorities on the question of preference assignments.

HALL VS. CHARLTON.—This is an action brought by Mr. B. B. Hall, of Peterborough, as Assignee of the real and personal estate of Mr. Robert Johnston, of Douro, to set aside a certain mortgage made by Johnston to the defendant, Mr. Wm. Charlton, for $476, on the ground that it was a fraudulent preference of creditors. His Lordship found facts, shortly stated as follows: That at the time of the giving of the mortgage in question, Johnston was in insolvent circumstances and unable to pay his debts in full; that the defendant and Johnston knew that Johnston was insolvent and unable to pay his debts in full; that the mortgage was made with intent on the part of both to defeat, delay and prejudice creditors of Johnston; that the mortgage had such effect after the defendant became a creditor of Johnston, the defendant was surety for Johnston on a certain promissory note made by Johnston in favor of Dr. Caldwell, the defendant brought pressure to bear on Johnston and but for such pressure the transaction would never have taken place, the mortgage was not given voluntarily by Johnston to the defendant but was consented to by Johnston as the outcome of his importunity, that Mr. L. R. Steele advanced the money to defendant to take the mortgage and to pay of the following notes, viz.:—A note made by Johnston in favor of Steele and endorsed by Mr. Isbister; and a part of a note for $200, made by defendant and endorsed by Johnston in favor of Mrs. Darling; that money was paid to Caldwell after the mortgage was executed and not before. His Lordship reserved judgment.—G. H. Watson, Q.C., and W. A. Stratton for the plaintiff; E. B. Edwards for defendant.

LAID AT REST.

Last Tribute of Respect to a Deceased Brother—Resolution of Condolence.

The funeral of the late John Jos. Doherty, son of Mr. John Doherty, market clerk, took place from the family residence this morning and was largely attended. Over eighty members of the E.B.A., of which deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body to pay their last respects to their deceased brother. The pall bearers were Messrs. J. J. Sheehy, C. E. Roach, Ed. Walsh, Rufus Stevenson, J. Cahill and A.G. Gough. The funeral cortege proceeded to St. Peter's Cathedral where High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Dube, Chaplain of the E.B.A. local branch, with a full choir.

Upon returning to the hall the following resolution was passed:—

Moved by Bro. W. J. Devlin, seconded by Bro. A. Mercier, that the following letter of condolence be placed on the records of this Association and that copy of the same be forwarded to John Doherty, Esq., father of our late brother:—

John Doherty, Esq.

DEAR SIR,—We the members of the Emerald Beneficial Association, St. Peter's Branch, No. 21, desire on the occasion of your great bereavement to express to yourself and family our deepest and most heartfelt sympathy with yourself and them, and to express our deep-felt regret at the great loss this Association has sustained in the death of Bro. Doherty, one of its most esteemed and valued members.

We always found him faithful to the duties of his obligation as a member, and in a social sense his cultivated mind, irreproachable moral walk and conversation, his courtesy and kind demeanor made him respected by all.

In conclusion, we pray that God, whom your son and our late brother and associate served with such devoted piety, may comfort you and your family in your hour of deep bereavement.

Signed on behalf of the branch,

EDWARD O'NEIL,
President.

BRILLIANT ILLUMINATION.

The Incandescent System to be in Circuit—Two Miles of Wire Strung.

Some time ago it was announced that the Light and Power Company had commenced operations in placing in a system of incandescent lighting for the use in business places. Last night the first test of the new system was made when the current was turned over the wires and this evening all the lights in the different stores will be connected and the system be in full working order. A. Mercer & Co's tailoring establishment was lighted by the new lights last night and the test was a most satisfactory one. The lights are far more acceptable than the other electric lights, the illumination being more brilliant as the light is better diffused.

About two miles of wire have been strung. The wire was made by the Edison General Electric company and is of a superior quality, with perfect insulation secured by a heavy rubber covering next to the wire and a network outside soaked in some compound. The current is supplied by a Thompson-Houston alternating dynamo of 650 light capacity. At present there are 75 or 80 lights connected and more will be placed in as soon as the work can be done. The company intend to substitute an Edison direct dynamo for the present one as soon as the capacity of the latter is reached.

The residence lights will be placed in circuit some time next fall.

A Pleasant Herb Drink—A Spring Medicine.

The druggists tell us that the people call daily for the new cure for constipation and sick-headache discovered by Dr. Silas Lane. It is said to be Oregon grape root (a great remedy in the far west for those complaints) combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength. It sell at 50c and $1 a package and is called Lane's Family Medicine.

THE LACROSSE SEASON.

The District Meeting and Arrangements Made—The Games of the Peterborough Club.

Dr. Brennan, who attended the meeting of Lacrosse district No. 18, at Madoc yesterday, has returned home. The following delegates were present at the meeting which was held in the club rooms in the village: Mr. H. S. Price, Madoc, Secretary of the district; Dr. Fred H. Brennan, Peterborough; W. Tandy, Kingston J. R. Orr, Madoc. The Norwood club is not in the league this year, Port Hope was not heard from at all and Stirling backed out at the last minute. The district will therefore likely be composed of only and the Kingston, Madoc and Peterborough clubs. The business of the meeting was harmoniously conducted by the delegates present. On motion of Messrs. Orr and Brennan, it was resolved that the series system be adopted and that in each game the home team take the entire gate receipts, and the visitors pay all their own expenses. It was further resolved that two games between each club be played, home and home matches. A forfeit of $15 is to be paid by any club defaulting a scheduled match. Any club may play exhibition matches with other clubs during the season.

At a session held in the evening a shedule of games was adopted, and those in which the local interest centres are:—

Peterborough plays in Kingston on July 1st and in Madoc on August 29th.

The following official referees were appointed:—

PETERBOROUGH.—Messrs. H. LeBrun, J. J. Sheehy and Dr. Brennan.

MADOC.—Messrs. Geo. Brown and Ross.

KINGSTON.—Messrs. Elliott and Bass.

The Telephone Companies.

To the Editor of the Review.

DEAR SIR,—I notice in to-day's Toronto Mail a news item purporting to mislead the public as to "status quo" of telephone matters in this town and I would claim a few lines space to correct the untrue statements stated therein. The item I refer to is a sample of the Bell Telephone Company's manner of meeting with an upright, fair and legal opposition. I have reason for believing that the item referred to was inspired by the Bell Telephone Company, who, I believe, send local news of this kind to the Toronto papers for publication, and as they are badly "rattled" in the contest in which they have so entirely failed here that they can only keep their exchange open as a charity dispensing institution, it apparently becomes necessary for this one time extortionate monopoly to manufacture untrue reports concerning the management of the company that has brought telephone service in this town to a reasonable figure, thus saving the townspeople some $3,500.00 per annum. The report sent to the Mail says that "a petition has been circulated and largely signed by the stockholders asking to have Mr. Frye removed from the management." This is a direct and malicious falsehood. The report goes on to intimate that the petition asks that a gentleman of this town, mentioning his name and occupation, be appointed. I might say that I have ascertained from directors of the Ontario Telephone Company that this gentleman's name was never mentioned in any capacity or in way at any meeting held by the directors or stockholders. In short, sir, the whole news item sent to the Mail is the offspring of a desperate corporation who cannot stand a fair competition.

Yours truly,
LOCAL INTEREST.

Bradburn's Opera House.

McKee Rankin's great play, "The Runaway Wife" will be produced at this Opera House Friday, May 15. The story is one of great interest and the characters are all drawn from life in masterful style and the production will prove interesting to all classes of theater-goers. Mr. Frank Evans, the star, is a well-known, capable and popular actor, and his support is competent to portray fully all the various characters as designed by the authors. Particular attention is paid to the staging of the play and the scenic effects. The play is one for the people called "a poem of every day life." There is a broad vein of comedy throughout the drama which relieves the more sombre periods of the performance. The management will have the drama nicely mounted in accordance with the commendable custom that prevails at this house. As an extra feature to please the ladies and children, a very charming child artist, "Lottie," called the child wonder, will appear at each performance in her specialties; she is not quite four years of age and in all the cities has created the greatest enthusiasm, being considered the brightest child in the profession. She soon becomes the pet of the entire audience.

Seed Potatoes

and which we are offering for sale, for seed, at a moderate advance on the price of ordinary potatoes. This variety was obtained from Seattle, Washington Territory, and has proved itself a valuable potato. It is very productive, of good size, uniform, smooth, white; a fine table potato and a long keeper, and has been found less subject to rot than other varieties.

BUY A HOME!

Stop Paying Rent! Be Your Own Landlord!

We Offer For Sale by Public Auction on

MONDAY, 11th MAY, 1891, at 3 p. m., ON THE GROUND.

Lots on Romaine-st. Each lot is 33ft. by 220ft. Soil high and dry, sandy loam. 10 minutes walk from the Edison Works, Peter Hamilton Works, the Carbon Works and the Bridge Works. The new Electric Car Line will touch this street and George and Aylmer-sts. will be opened through to the Fair ground.

To secure a respectable street the deeds will contain a clause compelling the purchasers when they build to erect a uniform distance from the front, and that the houses when built shall not cost less than $600. These lots are double the depth of the ordinary town lot and are fine for gardening. This is the finest property in the market and one which will afford the best building lots to be had at low prices. These are only lots left on the south side of the street. Lots in the neighborhood half the depth sell at $8 to $10 per foot frontage, while these lots are 220ft. deep and will be sold for what they will bring. These lots while sufficiently near the great factories, are close to George-st. and being off the muck are clean and healthy.

Ten years will be given for payment. $5.00 on the $100 down; $5.00 on the $100, in one month; $10 on the $100 in 3 months, then a free deed will be given and mortgage taken back for the remainder of the purchase money, payable in 9 equal annual payments with interest at 6 per cent. Five per cent. discount will be allowed for cash. For further particulars apply to

Horrible Sufferings of Little Baby. Seven Doctors and Two Hospitals Fail. Cured by Cuticura.

My baby boy, 5 months old, broke out with eczema. The itching and burning was intense; the eczema spread to his limbs, breast, face and head, until he was nearly covered; his torturing agonies were pitiable to behold; he had no peace and but little rest night or day. He was under treatment at different times at two hospitals and by seven doctors in this city without the least benefit; every prescription of the doctors was faithfully tried, but he grew worse all the time. For months I expended about $2 per week for medicines, and was entirely discouraged. I purchased CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT and followed the directions to the letter. Relief was immediate, his sufferings were eased, and rest and sleep permitted. He steadily improved and in nine weeks time was entirely cured, and has now as clear a skin and is as fair a boy as any mother could wish to see. I recommend every mother to use it for every Baby Humor.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

THE HOLY FATHER AND HIS CHILDREN IN CANADA.

Emperor William Endorses Duels Among Students—The Influenza Epidemic—Mr Goschen Cannot Support a Universal Rate of Penny Postage.

LONDON, May 8.—A deputation called today upon Mr. Goschen, Chancellor of the Exchequer, for the purpose of laying before him their arguments in favor of the establishment of a universal rate of penny postage to all parts of the British Empire. In reply Mr. Goschen said it would be impossible to lower the postal rates. The Government had already lost £37,886 in four months by the reduction made in colonial postage.

ENGLAND ANNEXES TERRITORY.

She Also Proposes to Prevent the Rumored Boer Trek.

LONDON, May 8.—England has annexed a strip of territory which she has hitherto protected on the western frontier of Bechuanaland in order to prevent a threatened "trek" of Boers and Damaras.

The word "trek" is from the Dutch trekken, and means to draw, to travel by a wagon, or to journey in search of a new settlement.

The Holy Father and His Children.

ROME, May 7.—The memorial recently presented to the Pope in the name of all the United States emigration committees begs the protection of the Holy Father for the 600,000 to 800,000 Catholics who annually emigrate. The memorial is also signed by a representative of Canada and contains statistics of a very pessimistic character. Leo XIII. accepted the memorial and promised to give the matter special attention. One reason urged why national bishops should be appointed for America to look after the emigrants from different nationalities is that Irish bishops in the United States only nominate Irish priests, who do not know the languages spoken by immigrants. The result of this is that Catholic immigrants lose their religious faith. The statistics communicated to the Holy See prove these two points.

The Newfoundland Question.

LONDON, May 8.—To-day's Cabinet Council discussed Lord Knutsford's reply to the memorial which the Newfoundland deputation presented Wednesday.

Lord Knutsford after to-day's council resumed communications with the Newfoundland delegates. The delegates' draft of the bill now known as the Knutsford Bill is reported to have been approved by the Cabinet. Lord Knutsford reply to the delegates memorial it is expected will enable the colonial legislature to pass the proposed act before the Whitsun recess and thus lead to the Government's dropping the obnoxious bill.

Narrowly Escaped Defeat.

LONDON, May 8.—At the Parliamentary election yesterday in the South Dorset division, Brymer (Conservative) defeated Edgcumbe (Gladstonian) by 40 votes, the poll standing: Brymer 3978, Edgcumbe 3938. The election was held to fill the seat left vacant by the death of Lieut.-Col. Hambro (Conservative). The Liberals polled 739 more votes than they did at last election, while the Conservatives polled 189 less.

We All Know Her.

She warbled the soprano with dramatic sensibility,
And dallied with the organ when the organist was sick;
She got up for variety a brand new church society, and Spoke with great facility about the new church brick.

She shed great tears of sorrow for the heathen immortality,
And organized a system that would open up their eyes;
In culinary clarity she won great popularity, and Showed her personality in lecturing on pies.

For real unvarnished culture she betrayed a great propensity;
Her "Tuesday talks" were famous and her "Friday glimmer" great.
She grasped at electricity with mental elasticity, and lectured
With intensity about the marriage state.

But with the calm assurance of her wonderful capacity,
She wouldn't wash the dishes, but she'd talk all day on rocks,
And while she dwelt on destiny, or space and its immensity, with such refined audacity, her mother darned the socks!

"Have you run an engine?" was asked.

"Yes, sir."

"You understand how steam works, do you?"

"I do."

"You know that water makes steam?"

"Of course."

"How is water got into a boiler?"

"By an injector."

"Suppose you have got too much water?"

"Then I can't get steam enough until I draw it down."

"Correct. Suppose you haven't enough?"

"Then look out for an explosion."

"Correct again. Suppose you found the water almost gone, and couldn't start the injector—what would you do?"

"Yes; but, mother, you should see the look in the other boy's eye."

Rheumatism,

BEING due to the presence of uric acid in the blood, is most effectually cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Be sure you get Ayer's and no other, and take it till the poisonous acid is thoroughly expelled from the system. We challenge attention to this testimony:—

"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing complaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months, and am pleased to state that it has effected a complete cure. I have since had no return of the disease."—Mrs. R. Irving Dodge, 110 West 125th st., New York.

"One year ago I was taken ill with inflammatory rheumatism, being confined to my house six months. I came out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system disordered in every way. I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon recovering my usual health. I cannot say too much in praise of this well-known medicine."—Mrs. L. A. Stark, Nashua, N. H.

Burdock BLOOD BITTERS

BANISHES BAD BLOOD.

Bad Blood is responsible for all the Boils, Blotches, Pimples, Eruptions, Skin Diseases, Humors and Disfiguring Rashes that are so prevalent, especially in spring. There is a NATURAL FOE TO BAD BLOOD called Burdock Blood Bitters which always conquers, never fails and is recommended by thousands. It searches out and removes all impurities from the smallest pimple to the worst scrofulous sore. In Scrofula, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Shingles, Tetter, etc., its effects are wonderful.

WHAT THEY SAY.

Two of my children had large sores on their bodies caused by poorness of the blood. They were completely cured by one bottle of B. B. B. MRS. J. PINEL, London East, Ont.

About a year ago I got a running abscess on my neck which made me very weak. B. B. B. cured it and I am strong again. MRS. GEO. LEDINGHAM, Montefiore, Man.

A Faithful Friend.

B B B

SIRS,—I have great faith in your Burdock Blood Bitters, and can recommend it for most anything. Two years ago I was troubled with an ulcer on my ankle; having used B. B. B. for bad blood I procured a bottle, and a box of Burdock Healing Ointment; after using three bottles and three boxes I was completely cured and can recommend it everywhere. Yours truly, MRS. WM. V. BOYD, Brantford, Ont.

YOUR ATTENTION

is once more called to the immense stock of

FINE STIFF and SOFT FELT HATS

manufactured to the order of S. Glaister the Hatter of Stratford which we bought at a sacrifice and are now selling at prices that defy competition. During the past week they have sold exceedingly well and therefore it behooves every man that wants to get a Fine Hat at a saving of from 25 per cent. to 33 per cent. to call at once and inspect this stock.

Influenza is raging in Alsace-Lorraine and the Rhine district.

Parliament will probably sit until late in the autumn.

Sir John Robertson, formerly Premier of Victoria, N.S.W., is dead.

The expulsion of Capt. Verney from Parliament will be conducted in secret.

Henry Ferguson, J.P., an old resident of Middlesex, died in London yesterday, aged 82.

Lord Salisbury has assented to a short extension of the modus vivendi with Portugal relating to South Africa.

The registrar's returns show a serious increase in the death rate in England, largely attributed to influenza.

The expulsion of Jews still continues at Moscow. Harsher measures are expected with the approach of the Easter.

All the compositors in Vienna have struck. The managers of the printing establishments refused the demands of the compositors for nine hours a day.

Manufacturers of Brussels will wait on King Leopold and urge him to accede the demands of strikers for universal suffrage.

In a speech at Bonn, Germany, the Emperor justified students' duels, saying that they were largely misunderstood to the public.

The Times in an editorial on the Behring Sea correspondence says Secretary Blaine's important concessions make possible arbitration.

Journeymen plumbers of Pittsburg and Allegheny to the number of 350 struck yesterday against new rules promulgated by the masters.

John A. Sterchor has purchased a fourth interest in the American and German editions of Frank Leslie's Weekly for $100,000.

The Italian Government is about to address a circular to the European powers submitting the conduct of the United States Government in the New Orleans affair to their judgment.

Bob Barr, the Buffalo pitcher, has rented a big house near the Buffalo ball grounds and the entire Bisonic aggregation will live with him when at home.

At the Fasig-Emery sale at Cleveland Thursday 64 head of trotters sold for a total of $33,210, an average per head of $519. The prices as a rule were satisfactory to consignors.

Dalton, the American back swimmer, who took the water at 8 o'clock yesterday morning for a 16 hours' swim in the English Channel, finished his feat at midnight in good condition.

Some shrewd betting men are backing Al Farrow to win the Brooklyn Handicap. Al Farrow is a good race horse, but he is hardly class enough to cope with Prince Royal, Burlington, Tea Tray, Teuton and Judge Morrow.

The war of the Amateur Athletic Union and the League of American Wheelmen has at last been happily ended. Articles of alliance have been drawn up and signed, and there is not likely to be any further difference between the wheelmen and the athletes.

Yesterday was Canadian Lacrosse Association district committee meeting day all over the province. Enthusiastic meetings were generally held, except at Blenheim, from which place report comes that not a club has been organized in the district. The series system was invariably adopted.

[illegible] ant individual, especially if he is Mike Kelly. When the king appeared with his Cincinnati nine on the Boston grounds for the opening game this week he received an ovation and was presented with a wagonet and a fine horse.

Twenty-six members of the House of Commons have been attacked with influenza. Lord Knutsford has been ordered a complete rest, being threatened with influenza. Business in the War Offices is hampered by the absence of officials. In Liverpool the epidemic is spreading rapidly. The disease has appeared in Dublin and among the prisoners at Tullamore jail.

Madame Helene P. Blavatsky, the well known theosophist, is dead. She was born in Russia in 1830 and married Gen. Blavatsky, Governor of the Crimea during the Crimean war, but spent nearly 40 years in India studying the mysteries of Buddhism, to which as modified by her own theories she was a convert. She published "Isis Unveiled" in 1877 and founded the Theosophical Society in the United States in 1878, returning to India the next year to spread its tenets. She dealt much in occult love and claimed to have found the key of wonderful knowledge. She gained many adherents in India.

The Press has the authority of Mr. Pulsifer, the owner of Tenny, for stating that the horse will not start in the Brooklyn Handicap, and has had that authority throughout. If there is any better authority it does not see it, and The Press refuses to believe that Mr. Pulsifer, in saying what he did, had any intention of merely rigging the market. His instincts as a gentleman and a sportsman would not permit of such a course.—N. Y. Press, May 7.

At a meeting of representatives from surrounding towns held at Mitchell on Wednesday, a circuit for fall races was formed, to be known as the Lake Huron Trotting Circuit. T. S. Ford, Mitchell, was elected president; T. F. Coleman, Seaforth, vice-president, and W. Martyn, Mitchell, secretary-treasurer. Arrangements were made for meetings as follows: Hanover, Aug. 12 and 13; Harriston, Aug. 18; Brussels, Aug. 21; Goderich, Aug. 26 and 27; Clinton, Aug. 28; Seaforth, Sept. 1; Mitchell, Sept. 4.

Asking for Goodwin's Discharge.

OTTAWA, May 8.—At Carleton Assizes today D'Alton McCarthy made application for the release of George Goodwin, charged with the murder of Richard Langford at Carp. Judgment was reserved until Wednesday. It is understood the evidence against the accused is very weak.

Strange Death From Blood Poisoning.

NEWMARKET, May 8.—While splitting wood James Homer raised a blister on his hand. No attention was paid to it until a day or two after, when his hand commenced to swell and the swelling continued to the elbow. A doctor was called in, and after treating it for two days pronounced it a case of blood poisoning. Just a week after splitting the wood Mr. Homer was a corpse.

Elopers Caught.

WINDSOR, May 8.—R. J. Gibbons and Mrs. Emma Thompson, two runaways from Hamilton, Ohio, were captured in Windsor on Wednesday by Detroit detectives. About $2900 of stolen money was recovered from Gibbons, who had stolen $3000 from his brother with which to have a good time. The couple went under the name of J. R. King and wife, and visited London a few days ago.

St. Kitts Athletics Meet.

ST. CATHARINES, May 8.—The special committee of the St. Catharines Amateur Athletic Association met last night and appointed sub-committees in connection with the first annual meeting of the association, which will be held on July 1. Valuable prizes will be offered for the several events in bicycle racing, sprinting and other athletic sports, particulars of which will be hereafter given. The Buffalo Athletic Club will be largely represented, as also will be several Canadian athletic clubs, which have communicated with the secretary of the association, T. H. Fitzsimmons. A good track will be placed in order so that fast records can be made. The Wanderers and other bicycle clubs intending taking part in the wheeling outing from Niagara Falls are expected to visit the city and take part in the races.

Two Good Things IN

FLOUR!

1. Scale Weight.

2. First Quality.

If good flour makes good bread it follows that one sort of flour makes better bread than another.

Which sort makes best?

That depends. The best flour is the purest, the best ground, the strongest and containing the most health-giving and nourishing properties.

These good points are all found in our Flour.

Have you tried it? Perhaps yes. Perhaps no. If you have not, do so, and you may find a better flour than you have been using, and we a customer.

Ladies, Just a Word:

DO YOU KNOW

That "Sunlight" Soap does more work than any other, and therefore in must be cheaper?

That the labors of the kitchen and wash-day can be made easier by using "Sunlight" Soap.

That you need not boil the clothes by using "Sunlight" Soap, nor use washing powders, and yet they will be white as snow?

That "Sunlight" Soap is so pure that it can not possibly injure the most delicate skin or fabric?

These are solemn facts, which you can prove by testing.

REJOICING! REJOICING!

It affords me unbounded pleasure to know that those who have bought properties from me in the past have reason to rejoice. I positively do not know one instance out of the hundreds of properties which I have sold, where the purchasers have had to sell at a loss, while on the contrary I can name dozens of purchasers who have pocketed their tens, hundreds and thousands. These are facts which I can prove true.

I have a few Real Bargains in Comfortable Homes on easy terms for those who are wise enough to buy quickly. Be advised and do not delay. Building Lots at all prices.

Speculators, from 50 to 100 per cent. profit ought to satisfy you. I can supply a limited demand at these profits. Call on

BUY NOW IF AT ALL.

EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Erie property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighbourhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

NEWFOUNDLAND MATTER

THE LEGISLATORS DISCREDIT THEIR OWN DELEGATION.

They Decline to Entertain the Proposals of Premier Whiteway and Postpone the Question Pending Further Developments—Proposal to Annex New England States.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 10.—It is understood that Mr. Mills, Conservative member for Annapolis, will shortly introduce a resolution in Parliament at Ottawa declaring that "The New England States should be invited to join the Maritime Provinces and become part of the Dominion.

A cable from St. Johns, N. F., says the colonial delegates at London have become converted to the Knutsford view or the question at issue between Newfoundland and France much more rapidly than the people at home. This was evinced in the Newfoundland Legislature last night when a despatch was received from the delegates requesting the House to pass resolutions confirming the proposals made by the delegates to the British Government. But the Assembly refused to take action until further information was received. The popular sentiment in St. John's is opposed to the passage of any legislation binding the colony to carry out a treaty without some assurance that the French will abandon their claim to exclusive fishing.

The fact is that Sir William Whiteway, although nominally Premier, neither controls his government nor party. The real leader is Mr. Bond, the Colonial Secretary, whose sympathies are all against England and with the United States, and whose every move is made with the view of still further straining the colony's relations with the Mother Country.

Sir William Whiteway being in London, Mr. Bond is now absolute master of the Legislature. He urges that before the colony should be asked to pass such laws the French should give some guarantee that they will abandon their claim to exclusive fishing. This, of course, is impossible, so that the Colonial Legislature will likely make this the excuse for not ratifying the pledges of its delegates.

Baldness is either hereditary or caused by sickness, mental exhaustion, wearing tight-fitting hats, and over work and trouble. Hall's Renewer will prevent it.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

THE LITTLE WAR IN MANIPUR IS ENDED.

Capture of the Rebellious Regent—The Commander-in-Chief Also Surrenders—A Couple of Blackguards—The Koch Lymph.

CALCUTTA, May 10.—Information has been received to the effect that friendly Maniparis have captured the regent and that the Senaputty (native commander-in-chief) has yielded.

NICE PEOPLE THESE.

Both the Besmirched British Members Traded on Religion.

LONDON, May 10.—A letter received here from Bilboa, Spain, says Edward de Cobain, M.P. for East Belfast, for whose arrest on a serious charge a warrant has been issued, was seen recently at Bilboa with a lady at the religious service at the Seamen's Hall. De Cobain declined to give his address, but professed great interest in religion, and even offered to conduct the services at Seamen's Hall.

Captain Verney will probably have the honor of creating a Parliamentary precedent, besides giving occasion, in company with Mr. de Cobain, for a new statute. His sentence to 12 months' imprisonment followed on his plea of guilty to the charge of conspiring with the woman Roullier to procure another woman for an immoral purpose. Even the social purity zealots do not complain of the sentence as inadequate; the less so, perhaps, since Captain Verney was one of their band, a fact which gives rise to some vain imaginings in reference to some still more notorious County Councillors and other persons who belong to the National Prurient Society. Imprisonment is, indeed, the lightest of Captain Verney's penalties. He had a high social position, and was a naval officer of repute. He is ostracised, cashiered, and on Tuesday will be expelled from the House of Commons.

ANOTHER GLADSTONE VICTORY.

Decisive Liberal Victory in the South Leicestershire Bye-Election.

LONDON, May 10.—The Tory victory of Thursday, when Mr. Brymer (Conservative) defeated Mr. Edgecombe (Gladstonian) by 40 votes in the election for member of Parliament held in the South Dorset Division, the seat being left vacant by the death of Lieut.-Col. C. T. J. Hambro (Conservative), was followed yesterday by a decisive victory for the Gladstonians in the South Leicestershire division. The member for South Leicestershire, Thomas Kay Tapling (Conservative), died on April 11, the same day as Colonel Hambro. In the election yesterday, the returns of which have just been announced, Mr. Logan, the Gladstone candidate, defeated Mr. Hardy, the Conservative nominee, by 480 votes, as follows: Mr. Logan, 3983; Mr. Hardy, 3503.

At the last election, Mr. Tapling, who was head of the firm of Tapling & Co., well-known wholesale carpet and Manchester warehousemen, polled 5708 votes, defeating the Gladstone Liberal candidate, James Harris Saunders, by 1138 votes. With 1197 more men voting yesterday, the Liberals won by 480 votes.

THE KOCH LYMPH.

The Prussian Diet Discuss the Efficacy of Dr. Koch's Treatment.

BERLIN, May 10.—The depreciated esteem in which the Koch method is held was plainly expressed during the course of yesterday's debate in the lower house of the Prussian Diet on the vote for the Koch Institute. The supporters of the vote spoke in an apologetic manner. Herr Graff, a member of the Centre party, said it had been widely acknowledged that the lymph was of value as an aid in diagnosis, but the chief interest of the public lay in its curative powers as a remedy for tuberculosis. In this respect there had arisen general disappointment following the high hopes at first entertained regarding the discovery—not only disappointment but fears also that the use of the lymph endangered life. Despite the relative failure of the remedy the discovery of Kochine was a scientific achievement of the first order, and the members were therefore bound in honor to concur in the grant asked for. Prof. Virchow opposed the grant and denounced Kochism, asserting that it had proved a failure. He warned the doctors who were using the lymph that they ran a great risk if they persisted in treating their patients with the alleged remedy. After similar criticisms from other members the vote was passed. It appropriates 165,000 marks ($39,600) for the Koch Institute.

"We Won't Have Fees."

LONDON, May 8.—The Bow-street Police Court was filled this morning with men arrested for creating disturbances in the Adelphi and Strand theatres last night while attempting to make a protest against the fee sytem. The corridors and stairways of the police station were crowded with their sympathisers. During the examination of the prisoners the police exhibited a banner which had been borne into the Adelphi by the protestors and hundreds of handbills distributed by them in both theatres, inscribed, "We won't have fees." Testimony was given as to the behavior of the accused, interruption of the performance in each theatre and the rioting which followed when they were ejected. Two leaders in the demonstration were bound over to keep the peace for three months, two others for 10 and 20 days respectively and the remainder were discharged with a caution from the magistrate.

Foreign Money Markets.

LONDON, May 10.—Discount was in demand during the past week at 4 for 3 months and 3½ for short. A further rise of the Bank of England is probable, in view of the falling off of reserve, combined with the further drain of gold to the Continent. About £1,200,000 in gold is coming from New York, but it is expected that the whole will be bought up in open market for Russia. The Bank of England has raised purchasing price for foreign coin one-half penny per ounce in order to retain American and other remittances. There is every prospect of money ruling higher, although the rumors of foreign failures have ceased. Prices on the stock exchange closed flat yesterday, without any sign of rallying. The conviction is general that with the cessation of the gold movement the tone of the market will quickly recover.

At Paris the bourse was less excited yesterday. Distrust in regard to the position of several big financial houses still affects business.

Held Up by Train Robbers.

GUTHRIE, O.T., May 10.—The southbound passenger train on the Santa Fe road was held up last night by five masked men. The gang is supposed to have been the notorious Dalton boys. They boarded the train at Wharton and detached the engine and express car and then proceeded two miles south and robbed the express car of all the money it contained. The passengers were not molested.

THE M'GREEVY SCANDAL

To Be Brought Before the House To-Day.

OTTAWA, May 10.—There is a strong flavor of Tarte about the lobbies to-night amongst the few members and press men who are here, and there is a general air of expectancy of "big things" to-morrow, when Mr. Tarte is expected to formulate his charges against Mr. McGreevy and Sir Hector Langevin.

From a gentleman who has read the statement to be presented by Mr. Tarte I learn that it will contain a great deal of matter not published in Le Canadien, including copies of letters, receipts for money, extracts from contractors' books, etc.

As near as I can ascertain the statement will make between two and three columns of a newspaper and Mr. Tarte will furnish typewritten copies to the papers.

He will most probably, after making his statement, offer to repeat it in French and will submit a written copy in that language, so that both the English and French version may appear in the official debates at the same time instead of French members having to wait until a French copy of the debates is issued.

There is just a possibility that the statement may not be made to-morrow, as I understand Mr. Tarte will not make it if Mr. Laurier is not present. Mr. Laurier is expected here to-morrow, but he was not in the House last week and was not very well when he left, so he may not be on hand to-morrow, in which case Mr. Tarte will postpone his charges.

TRADE WITH JAMAICA.

Arrival of the Canadian Commissioner at Halifax An Interview.

HALIFAX, N.S., May 10.—Adam Brown, Canadian Commissioner to the Jamaica Exhibition, expressed himself quite enthusiastically to-day over the good results that will accrue to the Dominion through the prominent part it took in the exhibition. Mr. Brown believes not only that Canada can control the flour trade, but that the Upper Provinces may be able to take fruit and coffee from Jamaica in quantities if the fruit can be packed to stand the journey and the freight charges are not too high.

Canadian butter and cheese also created a favorable impression among the West Indians and he thinks those articles could be largely exported there. Regarding manufactures he says we can send many lines of goods. He is decidedly of opinion that the Dominion gross trade with the West Indies can be greatly increased even without any tariff alterations, particularly as Jamaicans will give Canada preference against the United States, which was poorly represented at the exhibition.

TO PREVENT SMUGGLING.

Mr. Gooderham Wants the Illicit Traffic in the Gulf Put Down.

OTTAWA, May 10.—William Gooderham, distiller, of Toronto has arranged for an interview with the Minister of Customs to-morrow. It is understood that the object of his visit is to urge that vigorous steps be taken by the Government to suppress smuggling on the lower St. Lawrence, where large quantities of spirits are being constantly smuggled into Canada from St. Pierre and Miquelon. Last year the Minister of Customs contemplated employment of one or two steam launches as revenue cutters, but the project dropped. It may be carried out now.

BOYS' PLAY THAT COST A LIFE.

They Put Spikes on a Railway Track at the Only Dangerous Point.

OMAHA, May 10.—Two boys playing at "blacksmithing" on the tracks of the Union Pacific Railroad drove a number of spikes in a sleeper and then bent the irons downwards and over the rails. As a result of this a train was derailed, an engine smashed and George Gleason, an engineer, was killed. At the inquest the chief witness was 9-year-old Harry Bush, one of the juvenile "blacksmiths." He said that he and another boy had often "played blacksmith," but had never before used the railroad tracks as an anvil. Railroad men say that had the spikes been placed at any other point no accident would have resulted.

THROUGH A TRESTLE.

Serious Wreck on the Canadian Pacific—Colonist Trains in a Creek—One Killed, Five Injured.

SUDBURY, Ont., May 10.—The Pacific express which left Montreal Friday night last met with an accident near Straight Lake, 80 miles west of here. Bush fires had partially destroyed a trestle-bridge over a creek and the train was too close when the fire was discovered to permit the engineer to stop. The engine, baggage and mail cars and two colonist cars went into the creek. A man named McAlpin from Quincy, Mass., was killed and five passengers injured, only one seriously. Two of the cars took fire from the debris of the bridge and were destroyed. The first-class, sleeping and dining cars did not leave the rails and none of the occupants were injured.

THE BERING SEA.

Lord Salisbury Intimates a Willingness to Accept a Proposal for a Closed Season.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The President has determined to have an end of the Behring Sea business. He has called a halt in further proceedings until he can come back here and dictate the exact terms of further correspondence. A private letter received here to-day from a member of the President's party in the West shows that the proposition for a closed season in Behring Sea was made to the British Government by Secretary Blaine as far back as last January. The President has directed that a closed season be proposed and it is probable that his proposition will finally be accepted.

The answer of Lord Salisbury has been slow in coming here, but it has recently been communicated to the State Department by Sir Julian Pauncefote and transmitted by Secretary Blaine to the President. This reply intimates a willingness to accept the proposal for a closed season, but suggests certain conditions which our Government is not yet willing to accept. What these conditions are will be made known at the first meeting of the Cabinet after the President's return. While they may be regarded as embarrassing they probably will not stand in the way of a final agreement.

Lord Salisbury is willing that a joint high commission should investigate the entire question of the condition of the seals in Behring Sea, and such a commission will probably be named as soon as the main question of a closed season is settled. The time for action is brief if the seals are to be saved from another season of destruction, and the correspondence will probably be carried on by cable and ended within a fortnight or three weeks after the president's return. The questions are now in such definite shape that a moderate amount of correspondence will settle them and probably bring about harmonious action between the two countries.

IMPRISONMENT FOR LIFE

FOR ATTEMPTING TO MURDER THE WOMAN WHO SCORNED HIM.

McGuire Picks His Handcuffs and Escapes, but is Recaptured—A Listowel Constable Shot by a Burglar Whom He Was Attempting to Arrest at Clinton.

CLINTON, May 10.—Shortly after 6 o'clock this morning Constables Bulmer (Listowel), Wheatley and Parsley (Clinton) attempted to arrest a young man who was suspected of being the accomplice of the two Detroit thieves in custody at Listowel for burglaries committed in Brussels and Harriston. The burglar was in bed at the Commercial Hotel and was ordered to get up, which he did. He opened fire through the door and the fire being returned by the officers the man made a feint to escape by way of the back window. All but Bulmer rushed downstairs to intercept him and the burglar then made a rush out of his bedroom, being caught by Bulmer, who managed to grasp the burglar's revolver in his left hand. A desperate struggle ensued, during which Bulmer brought the fellow to his knees by a rap on the head with his free hand. But at that moment the robber managed to discharge the revolver, the bullet entering Bulmer's left side, lodging in a rib and cutting a muscle. Bulmer being thus disabled, the burglar coolly walked downstairs, and bidding some one who happened to be there at the moment "Good morning," walked out of the door and escaped. Pursuit was given, but the man disappeared in Weir's bush and is still at large.

COBOURG. May 10.—Andrew McGuire, found guilty of attempting to murder Miss Tucker by throwing her in front of a moving train at the Grand Trunk station, was sentenced by Judge Rose yesterday to imprisonment for life in Kingston Penitentiary. In sentencing the accused Judge Rose referred to the shady character borne by the prisoner, to his attempt to kill Miss Tucker's father and to his rebellious conduct while in prison, where he had assaulted and wounded several of his guards.

Judge Rose then sentenced the prisoner to the full extent of the law, viz., to be confined in this provincial penitentiary to the full extent of his natural life. He said that McGuire could not expect any mercy from the higher court, and that the only time he could expect to gain his freedom was only on the demise of Miss Tucker or on the occasion of her leaving the country.

Governor Colver then took charge of his prisoners and started to convey them to the jail, 1½ miles away, using his own rig for the purpose, having first handcuffed, as he thought securely, another prisoner named Brown, and McGuire together. When about halfway to the jail McGuire skilfully picked the lock of the handcuff and leaped from the rig, and scaling a barb-wire fence made for a swamp, pursued by two constables, one of whom came to grief at the barb-wire fence, having there deposited his trousers; the other constable gamely kept up the chase and captured McGuire at the edge of the swamp, where if he had entered he would have undoubtedly been safe. McGuire swam a creek and in his condition this action greatly weakened him.

Sang and Danced Before Death.

OTTAWA, Ill., May 10.—Carl Ford, who was hanged here to-day, was awake bright and early, and after performing his morning ablutions partook of a hearty breakfast. His wife called to see him at an early hour and remained with him nearly two hours. Her grief was intense, and the parting of husband and wife was very pathetic. Ford soon rallied from his depressed spirits and indulged in singing and dancing until he became exhausted. When the sheriff had finished reading the death warrant Ford said: "It's a shame that such a fine young fellow as me must die—and such a death too." He made a profession of Roman Catholic faith shortly before the execution, and a priest of that religious denomination was with him during the night and again at his side early this morning. The priest walked with Ford to the scaffold and remained with him until the drop fell. Ford maintained his nerve throughout and died firm. His crime was the murder, June 23, 1889, of David Moore, an Omaha traveling man. Ford's wife, Kate, enticed Moore to Allen Park, on the banks of the Illinois River, where he was set upon by Ford and one Bill O'Brien and beaten to death with coupling pins. O'Brien was sentenced to 14 years' imprisonment, and Mrs. Ford yesterday received a similar sentence.

Told in a Line or Two.

All on board the Robert and Minnie are under arrest at San Pedro, Cal. They have delivered their cargo, but declined to say anything about Itala.

The name of Hon. Donald Ferguson, ex-Provincial Secretary, Prince Edward Island, is mentioned in connection with the vacancy in the Senate caused by the death of Senator Haythorne.

France is Hopeful.

PARIS, May 10.—The report made to the Senate by the Committee on Newfoundland Arbitration Convention, after referring to treaties upon which France bases her claims, concludes by urging the Senate to adopt the bill. The committee looks forward with confidence to the decision of the arbitrators.

Unleavened Bread is Taxable.

OTTAWA, May 10.—The Customs Department, it has transpired, refused the application of Toronto Hebrews who wanted to import unleavened bread for the Passover feast free of duty. The department decided that the importation must be taxed 20 per cent. ad valorem.

The Ocean Mails.

OTTAWA, May 10.—The announcement that the Allan and Dominion Lines had refused to carry the mails to Great Britain by their fast steamers Parisian and Vancouver at the same rates as are paid to New York vessels, 80 cents per pound, is quickly followed by the intimation that the two companies have reconsidered their decision. The Postmaster-General has received a communication from the two companies to the effect that their refusal in the first instance was the result of misapprehension. This means that for the present Canada will have fortnightly a direct service.

Live Stock Cremated.

MONTREAL, May 10.—A serious fire broke out in the dairy farm of Evans, Maron & Tremblais in the Upper Lachine-road, whereby 18 cows and two horses perished. The balance of the 75 cattle escaped.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." ED. JENKINS, Mt. Savage, Md.

Fagged Out

"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BROOKS, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out

"Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Indeed, I might say truthfully it saved my life. To one feeling tired and worn out I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. PHEBE MOSHER, 30 Brooks Street, East Boston, Mass.

THE OLD POLICY.

THERE is a wearisome reiteration in the predictions of ruin that appear from day to day in the chief Liberal organ. While not engaged in the congenial task of predicting the immediate fall of the Dominion Government, the organ revels in the seemingly equally pleasant work of painting, in the most gloomy colors, the speedy collapse of the entire country. In its eyes there is nothing right with the Dominion. While its news columns tell of an influx of settlers from Dakota into the Canadian Northwest, its editorial columns are devoted to trying to show that the western States are blooming paradises compared with our western dominions, and while its commercial pages speak of improvement and hopefulness in commercial circles, the editorial pen is busy describing the alleged weakness and despondency in the same circles. While the Government and the business men are [illegible] commerce with success, the Globe is wringing its hands and bemoaning the helplessness of Canadians unless Uncle Sam comes to their relief. This is, unfortunately, not only the attitude of the organ, but also of the party leaders. In the House of Commons the same despairing note is heard from the Liberal benches. And why is this [illegible] commerce is proceeding as usual, the people are going about their customary business with their customary energy and contentedness characteristic of our prosperous Canadian country. The one drawback to the rapid progress of the country is the division within itself—the croaking of the disappointed politicians who can see no good in the country so long as they are not enjoying the sweets of office. It is the old policy still continued; they are determined to either rule or ruin. It matters not to them that their unfounded wailings misrepresent their country abroad, and the fact that their misrepresentations make capitalists and settlers fearful of coming to Canada has no effect upon them further than to encourage them to pursue the same injurious course. And apparently they will continue to cry down their own country and to laud other countries in their efforts to disparage their own until the people take the matter in hand, and by depriving the unpatriotic leaders of the party of their prominent position show them that such conduct will not be tolerated and at the same time minimize their power for mischief.

MR. CHARLTON, while advocating unrestricted reciprocity in the House, said that a part of the revenue that would be lost could be made up by cutting down the expenditure on the militia. Is this a part of the Liberal policy approved of by the gallant majors of the 57th?

OHIO has adopted the "Australian" ballot system, says the Montreal Gazette, which makes twenty-four states across the border that now have a perfectly secret ballot. Eighteen states and Ontario on the English-speaking section of the continent maintain a ballot system that is not secret.

THE blue books show that the total amount expended from 18[illegible] to 1884, on the Trent Valley Canal works is $1,000,000. Except for political exigencies this is a useless expenditure.—Cobourg World.

Deadly Gasoline

ST. LOUIS, May 10.—Mrs. Fannie Feinberg of No. 1214 North Seventh-street was fatally burned by the explosion of a gasoline stove yesterday afternoon.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Fire was discovered in a basement laundry in North Clark-street to-day. A dozen firemen went into the room to extinguish it. A can of gasoline exploded, throwing the men to the floor and against the wall with great violence. Two of them are believed to be fatally injured, and the others are badly cut, burned and bruised.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Miss Jennie Tupper, aged 19, died in horrible agony here last night of injuries received from a gasoline explosion. Her uncle, Prof. John H. Thomas, principal of the Wells school, and his wife were severely burned and the former will probably die.

There is danger in impure blood. There is safety in taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. 100 doses one dollar.

TALKS FOR THE FARMER.

INTERESTING PARAGRAPHS ABOUT THE AGRICULTURIST'S BUSINESS.

The Feeding and Management of Farm Horses—Grooming too Much Neglected—When and How to Feed and the Results That May be Expected.

There can be no doubt that the ordinary draught horse is best able to perform his work satisfactorily, and is more free from disease when his food is prepared; by preparing, I mean the hay and straw should be chopped, the corn ground into flour, the meals and chaff mixed and saturated with water, and in this state allowed to remain not less than twelve hours before being fed. A mixed ration is cheapest, because it is the most efficient—oats, beans, peas and linseed; the proportions of which will vary with the severity of the exertion. Many farmers use Indian corn, rice meal and other nominally low priced foods, which, however, when largely employed, are conducive neither to health nor to economical management. A few roots, either raw or boiled, the latter for preference, are a valuable adjunct to the usual bill of fare. Regularity of feeding and working are of the first importance.

In the case of farm horses far too little attention is devoted to grooming. To maintain an animal in health and spirits careful dressing is of equal importance here as it is in the case of the hunter or carriage horse. Few men know how to dress or even to litter a horse. Farmers who take a pride in their horses, and insist upon strict rules being carried out as to their stable management, insist on having their horses cleaned, fed and littered at a fixed hour, usually eight o'clock. This work is invariably supervised either by the farmer himself or by his foreman. They are particular as to the littering down, an operation which is always first begun on the off side. The straw is carefully shaken up, and the bed made deepest next the standing and thinning down to the centre of the stall. The animal is then moved to the off side, and the near side prepared in the same way. When completed the attendant can go backwards and forwards to the manger without disturbing the horse or allowing him to disarrange his bed.

The time to commence feeding in the morning will depend on the hour the team has to be turned out. A horse should have a full hour to feed; this is independently of the time occupied in harnessing. Skilful feeders begin by placing only a small quantity of food in the manger, at the same time replenishing it as required. In the best constructed stables a front passage is provided. This is one of the utmost importance, as it enables the attendant to regulate the quantity of food in accordance with the requirements of each individual animal. Horses, like other animals, should have free access to water at all times. It is those that are stinted that injure themselves by taking too large a quantity when available. Prompted by natural instinct, they endeavor to lay in a store to meet future requirement, oblivious of the danger it frequently entails. The hay rack is placed on a level with the manger, and is replenished from the front passage. In well managed stables a very small quantity of hay is used. The chops consists of two of straw to one of hay. During the spring and early summer great care must be exercised in seeing that the food is thoroughly soaked. The quantity of [illegible], and bran, if procurable at a moderate cost, otherwise there is the danger of impaction of the rumen, causing gripes, which are troublesome and difficult of successful treatment. By the middle or end of April, rye, winter oats, or other of the common catch crops should be ready on tillage farms. Where straw is plentiful and with good yard accommodation farm horses can be maintained not only better but cheaper when kept in the yards. At the same time, they produce a quantity of valuable manure.

The quality of water has great influence on the health of the horse, soft, pure water is the most wholesome, provided it be free from animal impurities. The supply should be constant, whether obtained by gravitation or by pumping to a higher level by employing machinery. Hard water is improved and softened by exposure to the action of the atmosphere.

THE BITER BIT.

How a Green Countryman Beat a Card Sharp at His Own Game.

A well-dressed man had attracted a crowd of gaping onlookers round him by a number of ingenious and skilfully executed tricks with a pack of cards, says Pearson's Weekly, and at last, shuffling the cards several times and slapping them down on his knees, he said:

"I'll bet any man that I can cut the knave of diamonds at the first attempt."

Every one hung back, suspicious of him, until a green, gawky-looking individual pushed his way forward.

"Mister," he questioned, "may I take a squint at them keerds?"

"Certainly," replied the professional, as he handed them over. The countryman inspected them suspiciously, and then, apparently satisfied, returned them, but did not take the bet.

"The cards are all right, aren't they?" the professional asked.

"Ya'as," the countryman said, hesitatingly.

"Why don't you take my bet then?"

"Well, I don't know; I ain't much of a betting man."

The professional saw that the countryman was more than half inclined to take him up, and, to make sure of his game, he said:

"Come, I'll bet 10s. to 5s., 15s. to 5s., £1 to 5s."

"Hanged if I don't take ye," exclaimed the countryman after a moment's hesitation; and diving into his pocket he drew out a strip of calico (apparently a sample to show his girl), some cheese, a plug of tobacco, several horseshoe nails, and, lastly, a dyspeptic-looking leather purse, from which he extracted two half crowns, which he placed in the hand of a bystander. The professional speedily covered the deposit with a bright sovereign, and then, thoroughly shuffling the cards as a prelude, he grasped the pack firmly in one hand, and, producing a sharp pocket-knife, he cut every card in two at a stroke.

"There," he exclaimed, triumphantly, "haven't I cut the knave of diamonds!"

"I'll be eternally blamed if you have," the countryman replied, producing that veritable card from his sleeve, whither he had dexterously converted it while pretending to examine the cards. The countryman quietly pocketed the stakes, and the professional slunk off.

Black—How do you like your mother-in-law? White—at a distance.

"Let us get married at once," said Chipper. "Why so soon?" asked Ethel. "I can't stand the expense of an engagement," returned Chipper. "Besides, it keeps me out late."

"Yes," said the scientist, as he took a drink of water from the glass that rested on the table at his elbow, "the temperature of the moon is something over a hundred degrees below zero the year round." A local coal dealer, who sat in the audience, heaved a deep sigh, and thought so hard for the next half hour that his hair actually curled up tight to his head.

A Logical Conclusion.

Jack—I want to marry a woman who does not consider marriage the chief end and aim of existence.

Dick—I suppose you want to marry a married woman, then.

Boston Girl—I have always been taught that marriage is the end.

Chicago Girl—Well, I haven't. Out here we regard it simply as a means to the end.

Her Injuries May Prove Fatal.

HAMILTON, May 10.—A very exciting runaway accident occurred near the corner of King and James-streets yesterday. Mrs. Lloyd, employed as nurse for the children of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Crerar, Bay-street south, was badly injured and lies in the Hospital in a critical condition, and Miss Ottaway, the young daughter of Mrs. Crerar, and little Harry Crerar were badly bruised and will likely feel the effects of their terrible experience for some time. Mrs. Lloyd and the children were out driving when the horse took fright and ran away throwing the occupants on the roadway. Mrs. Lloyd's injuries consist of a contusion on the forehead; her body and head are bruised, but no bones are broken. Miss Ottaway and little Miss Crerar were not badly hurt.

A Young Traveller.

The Port Hope Guide says:—"There came down on the local from Toronto, last Friday night, alone, a little girl 6 years old, an orphan named Kate McGuire, sent from Rochester to friends in Peterborough. She was cared for by a young lady as far as Port Hope."

A Second Alarm for the Mill.

About nine o'clock last night an alarm of fire was sounded calling the brigade out to extinguish a blaze which had been fanned into life at the ruins of Denne's old mill which was destroyed by fire on Friday morning. A stream was turned on and the fire drowned out.

Ashburnham's Good Example.

The Lakefield Chronicle says:—"At the last meeting of the Ashburnham Town Council the Street Inspector was instructed to procure 150 maple and elm trees for planting on the public streets. Nothing so beautifies a place as a good supply of shade trees, and the example of the Ashburnham councilmen might with advantage be copied by our councilmen."

His Widow Goes to Gaol.

Wrinkled with age, with tottering steps which were assisted by a cane, an old lady slowly made her way towards the gaol this morning. She was Mrs. Johnston, the widow of the late "Gobbler" Johnston. The aged lady had a ticket in her hand which entitled her to six months board at the gaol. She was at the Police Court seeking a committal and the Magistrate granted her request by giving a six months sentence as a vagrant.

Many More Like Him.

Geo. Wheeler, who has kept clear of the police for some months now, was locked up on Saturday night and at the Police Court this morning he was arraigned on the old charge of drunkenness. He pleaded guilty and was allowed to go. He told the Magistrate he had work to do, and the bench replied, "Yes, you earn your money like an ass and spend it like a fool," a remark which must have struck George as applicable for he is a hard worker but spends his money foolishly when he gets it.

James Kane's impending doom does not seem to make any material change in his demeanor, says the Belleville Ontario. If anything he has rather improved in appearance since his incarceration and calmly awaits the end which is now less than two weeks. Since his imprisonment he has been converted to the Roman Catholic faith and daily receives spiritual comfort from Msgr. Farrelly. He professes his peace with all mankind and says he is prepared to meet his God. He believes he has been forgiven for his crime. He is constantly found with his prayer book in hand and the sound of song and prayer is often heard from his cell. The sheriff is in receipt of several applications from hangmen, but Radclive will no doubt get the job.

THE COURT CONCLUDES.

A Verdict of $45 for Plaintiff in Yeoman vs. Young—Hough vs. Millar.

Justice Ferguson held long sessions at the Chancery sittings on Saturday and succeeded in concluding the docket. The Court rose after nine o'clock on Saturday evening.

YOEMANS VS. YOUNG.—This was an action brought by Eleazer Yoemans, of Belmont, against Wm. Young, of the same township, for damages for trespassing and cutting timber on his property. The question of boundary gave rise to the suit. A verdict of $45 damages for plaintiff was given by His Lordship.—John Burnham, Q.C., for plaintiff; E. B. Stone for defendant.

HOUGH VS. MILLAR.—This was an action of ejectment brought by Mrs. Jane Hough, plaintiff, against Mr. and Mrs. William Millar, defendants, to recover possession of a house and lot known as 289 Rubidge street. The plaintiff claimed as devisee under the last will of the late John Paterson, deceased, and alleged that the defendants were only tenants from month to month of the deceased. Mrs. Millar alleged that she employed the deceased to purchase for her a house and lot for $750, which money the deceased was to advance for her and by way of security for the loan he took the conveyance of the lot in his own name: that Mrs. Miller was to repay the purchase money in ten years by paying the deceased $60.00 per year, doing his washing and mending and give him the right to use a bedroom in the house if anything should happen to him; that pursuant to this agreement, which was a verbal one, about the first day of August, 1876, the defendants entered into possession of the house and have since remained in possession; that at the expiration of the ten years the deceased thought that the transaction had not paid him and the time was extended five years more on the same terms but in case the deceased should die in the meantime Mrs. Miller was to be entitled to a conveyance of the lands. His Lordship after hearing the evidence concluded that the weight of evidence was in favor of the plaintiff and accordingly gave judgment for the plaintiff with costs. G. H. Watson, Q.C., and G. M. Roger for plaintiff, W. A. Stratton and R. R. Hall for the defendants.

Death of Mr. H. H. Crosby.

His friends here will read with regret of the death at Bowmanville of Mr. H. H. Crosby, uncle of Mr. J. W. Crosby, of town, and father of Mrs. John Crane. The deceased gentleman was suddenly stricken with paralysis on Tuesday last and never rallied from the stroke, remaining in an almost unchanged condition until yesterday, when death called him away. He was fifty-nine years of age and was a gentleman respected and esteemed. The funeral will take place from the family residence, 188 Dalhousie-st., at three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon.

A Pleasant Farewell Token

Mr. J. A. McLelland, of the Ontario Bank, who received notice of his removal to the Bowmanville branch and leaves for that place some day this week, was given a pleasant testimony of the many happy friendships he has established here. A number of his friends surprised him with an address, accompanied by an elegant gold locket, suitably inscribed. The address said many nice things expressive of the esteem and friendship in which the recipient was held by the Peterborough young people and regret at his departure.

Personal.

Mr. Sam Ray was in Whitby on Saturday attending the funeral of his father who died there on Thursday at the age of 73 years.

Mr. H. LeBrun and his bride have arrived home and are the recipients of congratulations and well wishes of numerous friends.

The Lindsay Post says:—"Mr. W. J. Montgomery, for some years past teller in the Ontario Bank here, has been promoted to a similar position in the Peterborough branch, and left town Thursday morning. Having had but a day's notice of the impending transfer his many friends were unable to manifest in a tangible manner their appreciation of his many estimable qualities, and feel somewhat sore in consequence."

The Minden correspondent of the Independent says:—"The Rev. O. Bennet, Presbyterian clergyman, who laboured on this mission last year, and who has been spending a year in Edinburgh, and travelling on the continent, is expected here about the 10th inst. to pay us a visit, and to attend the formal opening of the Twelve Mile Lake Church, the erection and completion of which was largely due to his deep interest and individual effort. The rev. gentleman will receive a cordial welcome."

The Spring Medicine.

The popularity which Hood's Sarsaparilla has gained as a spring medicine is wonderful. It possesses just those elements of health-giving, blood-purifying and appetite-restoring which everybody seems to need at this season. Do not continue in a dull, tired, unsatisfactory condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

Among the Churches.

The tower tea and entertainment at George-st church to-night is expected to be largely attended.

Next Sunday will see the commemoration of the anniversary of the opening of St. Paul's church. Rev. Principal Grant, of Queen's University, Kingston, is to preach the special sermons.

Rev. E. Roberts, formerly of Peterborough, occupied the pulpit of the George-st. Methodist church yesterday. At the morning service the rev. gentleman chose for his text Romans viii., 38 39, and delivered an earnest, thoughtful and practical discourse, comparing love in the spiritual world to the law of gravitation in the physical universe—the great principle with the power of attraction which ruled the Christian and kept him a follower of the Master. In the evening Mr. Roberts again addressed a large congregation and delivered an able sermon. This evening he will be one of the speakers at the tea and platform meeting.

Rev. Canon Davidson, of Colborne, preached at St. John's church yesterday at both services, his discourses being of a very able and eloquent character.

The Synod of the Presbyterian church formally opens in Lindsay to-morrow evening. The Peterborough Presbytery will meet in Lindsay to-morrow.

Rev. J. C. Davidson, rector of St. John's, conducted the services at the South Ward Mission building last evening.

This evening the St. John's congregational reception is to be held, when all members of the congregation from all parts of the town are invited to meet for social intercourse. The school room has been fitted up as a drawing room and an enjoyable evening may be anticipated. No children under fifteen years of age will be admitted to the building.

Mr. W. M. Loucks conducted the services at Colborne yesterday.

SEEKING A DIVORCE.

And Another Young Man Waiting to Take Her to His Arms.

Some of the former residents of Peterborough well-known to the general public, are, according to a report, figuring in a small-sized sensation or romance in Rochester.

Charles Brown, who was known as the proprietor of a grocery store here, and his wife went to Rochester some time ago and were accompanied by their daughter, who was married to a Charles Reed. The Brown family had probably dropped from lively recollection among townspeople generally.

To-day, however, Chief Roszel received a letter from a Mr. Conger in Rochester asking for information regarding the family and especially the daughter, who passes in Rochester as an actress. It appears that the latter is now suing for a legal separation from Reed, the man whom she married here. The romance comes in here. A Rochester young man, whom the letter says is well-related in the city and is not yet of age, has been smitten by Miss Reid's charms and has aroused his intention of marrying her if she succeeds in getting a divorce. The young man's parents are greatly opposed to the match and are making strenuous efforts to turn their son's affections. It was evidently a search of information on this account that Chief Roszel was communicated with.

Y.M.C.A. Notes.

Special meeting of Ladies' Auxiliary on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 to arrange for the lunch to be served by the Auxiliary on Monday, 25th May, in Bowse's old stand. All ladies interested in the furnishing of our new building invited to be present.

Bible Class Tuesday evening at 8 p.m.

Mr. W. D. Smart gave a very impressive address at the young men's meeting on Saturday evening. The attendance was good and singing hearty. The after meeting was a season of refreshing.

Mr. R. M. Russell led the consecration meeting on Sabbath morning. The interest manifested was helpful and profitable.

The personal purity meeting yesterday afternoon was well attended. The earnest talk of Mr. W. D. Smart met a ready response in the hearts of the young fellows. The orchestra rendered excellent service in the song service.

Mr. M. Cummings gave the address at the Gospel and song service last evening. The helpful and practical address was listened to with much profit by all.

Bible class for young men on Tuesday evening from 8 to 9 p.m. Topic, "The Right Use of the Sabbath."—Mark 2-23-28-3-1-4.

We thank Mrs. Garland for the beautiful geraniums for our rooms. We are always pleased to receive these gifts, they add so much to the attractions of the rooms.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

REVIEWS.

ST. NICHOLAS.—St. Nicholas for May presents a very tempting table of contents, beginning with an imaginative poem, Morning, by the late Emily Dickinson, whose work has been so cordially praised by the critics. Nora Perry's Siege of Calais, a ballad with striking illustrations by Birch, will delight little students of history, who will also read the second paper on The Land of Pluck, by Mrs. Dodge, with keen delight, supplemented as it is by two very interesting letters on Holland, in the Letter-box Department. J. O. Davidson, the marine artist, has written and fully illustrated a short serial of adventure entitled, Chan Ok, which describes the capture of a noted Chinese pirate of the present day. The excellent serials by Trowbridge and Nora Brooks are continued. Among other attractions we find a clever bit of verse with pictures by Margaret Johnson, in which children of different nationalities extol their native foods; a verse by John Albee called The Manners of Sheep; an allegory A Lesson in Happiness, by J. W. Henderson; My Microscope, an article on some interesting objects in minute life, by M. V. Worstell; an amusing dialogue by Oliver Herford, The Professor and the White Violet, and two slightly didactic pieces, A Turning Point, and a Diet of Candy, wherein the young reader may find food for reflection sugar-sprinkled with fiction. The Departments, and the usual delightful jingles and pictures tucked in between the longer stories and poems, force one to confess that St. Nicholas not only gives good measure, but generously inserts small extra bits wherever space can be found. In short, it is one of the few periodicals in the world which it is a pleasure to read right through from cover to cover.

Not many physicians make great therapeutic discoveries. For the most part they content themselves with administering judiciously what is prescribed in the books. To J. C. Ayer, however, is due the credit of discovering that greatest of blood purifiers—Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

THE MERRY BRICK-MAKER BOYS.

I have been requested by the master and workmen in the brickyards and around Peterborough to compose a few verses for them, touching upon the nature of their work, and the manner in which it is performed. I can easily understand and fully sympathize with the brick-maker boys, as my first work at the age of ten years was to run off brick. Bare-headed and bare-footed I followed that occupation for eleven years, eight in Scotland and three in England, so that birds of a feather flock together.

The merry month of May has come, the sun Jack Frost has spurned,
The lakes and rivers free, the ice to water has returned;
The bird and bee are on the wing to sip sweets from the flowers,
The buds are opened on the trees to deck the shading bowers.
The gardener trims his shrubs and flowers, the farmer sows his fields,
The laborer with his sweating brow the tools of toil he wields;
The air is full of joyful notes, full well I know the noise,
The spring has come, it is the sound of merry brickmaker boys.

For six long months the brickyards were closed with a silent spell;
The scene has changed, the boys have burst out off their winter shell.
Jack Frost has pulverized the clay they dug up from the rim,
With spade and water now the boys works it to proper trim.
With merry hearts and willing hands, clay from their shovels rise
Into the nice machine, when bricks come streaming from the dies;
On barrows bear them to the hack, and lay them up like toys,
Row after row so nicely laid by the merry brick-maker boys.

Their notes reverberate like the lark when soaring upon high
As they trip with their loads of brick and leave them there to dry;
There, sun and wind—the brick makers' friends—fulfill the needful part,
Complete the drying process and cheer up the master's heart;
With spirits high, as red coat boys when marching for the fray,
All are on tip-toe, for they start to build the kiln to-day;
They grasp their barrows with a cheer, charge bricks like wild Sepoys,
They whis'le, sing they load and wheel, like smart brick-maker boys.

The setter plies his nimble hands, he neither sleeps nor snores,
The boys are pitching them like hail—he must catch twos and fours;
If Mark don't catch them as they fly and for the falling stoops
The boys near scare him out his wits with their wild Indian whoops;
They walk, they run, load and unload, while each his own place keeps,
With loud hurrah's they pitch them up and shout, "Look smart, John Heaps;"
The kiln is finished, lined and fired, now sounds the crackling noise,
The mirth and glee rings far and near, from the merry brickmaker boys.

Employers and employed all work with one united will,
No laboring class requires more sharp and energetic skill;
No lazy, slouching young man need seek work in the brickyard,
Against all snail-like, creeping drones the gates are closely barred.
The boys that handle bricks are trained to sharp and active toil,
A ready will power they possess that needs but little oil;
No scourching seen, no strain of work impedes or them annoys,
Above each tread loud rings the notes of the merry brickmaker boys.

Many belong unto that class, their hairs now changed to gray,
That spent the vigor of their life in handling bricks and clay;
Perhaps their steps are not so quick or falling arm so strong,
Still they can take their share of work and sing their youthful song.
The greatest number are young men scarce in their manhood days,
With a good [illegible] of self-conceit, trying a moustache to raise;
Like other youths there is a charm that fills their hearts with joy,
It is the spark of early love in the young brickmaker boy.

The object of their love each hour across their fancies steal,
Till work seems but a youthful sport, bricks light as feathers feel,
The flame of love braces up their nerves, they whistle, sing and talk,
When six arrives with her they love to share their evening walk.
Although brickmakers hand and face at work are daubed with clay,
No truer love, no kinder hearts, beat in young man to-day.
There are brickmakers wives to-day a happy life enjoy,
Young girl, you may do worse than catch a young brickmaker boy.

Some people at brickmakers sneer—I heard it said by some
Of every class of working men—they were the scurf and scum.
To such I say, I know of some made bricks and tiles for drains
Compares with any working class for either hands or brains;
They have their faults like other men, I will not hold them clear
On Saturday nights a few of them enjoy their glass of beer;
But they are not the only class, if that their name destroys;
Many wash out their dusty throats like the merry brickmaker boys.

CASH HARDWARE STORE.

On and after 1st April we shall do business on a Cash Basis.

To cover the inevitable losses attendant upon a credit business, which accrue from amount of time spent in keeping accounts, collecting, bad debts, interest account, and in numerous other ways, larger margins of profit must be asked.

In these times cash buyers ask, expect and are entitled to close prices. A careful consideration of the subject convinces us that the time has come for a cash business done on smaller profits.

The only customers who may be put to inconvenience are those who have had long credit. In more ways than one it will be to their advantage to pay cash.

For convenience of our old customers who consider their accounts due when presented, we will call 30 days cash and render all accounts the first of each month, and we wish to say that we will be happy to do business with them on these terms.

As the new departure is something of an experiment, what would be considered a close cash price will be made all through the stock Not a few leaders only, but a general reduction in everything from the fourth flat to the cellar.

Our idea is to perform more than promised rather than promise more than can be fulfilled.

Our stock is large and varied, consisting of Builders', Contractors', Household, Mechanics', Painters', Shoemakers', Farm, Mill, Factory, Lumbermen's, Sporting, Threshers', Cabinetmakers', and other lines of Hardware.

An old saying:—"You should go to Kingan's where you can get anything from a Needle to an Anchor."

Rheumatism,

BEING due to the presence of uric acid in the blood, is most effectually cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Be sure you get Ayer's and no other, and take it till the poisonous acid is thoroughly expelled from the system. We challenge attention to this testimony:—

"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing complaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months, and am pleased to state that it has effected a complete cure. I have since had no return of the disease."—Mrs. R. Irving Dodge, 110 West 125th st., New York.

"One year ago I was taken ill with inflammatory rheumatism, being confined to my house six months. I came out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system disordered in every way. I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon recovering my usual health. I cannot say too much in praise of this well-known medicine."—Mrs. L. A. Stark, Nashua, N. H.

LOVE'S VAGARIES.

Sad Tales of Disappointed Affections Told in Last Night's Despatches.

WELLSTON, Ohio, May 10.—Thursday night Joseph Irwin, an exemplary young man of Wellston, was married to Susie Hotchkiss of Berlin, a suburb of Wellston. After the ceremony while the dancing was going on, the bridegroom lost his reason, fled from the home of the newly-made bride and was not found till the next morning.

PITTSBURG, May 10.—Frank Noel, a young sewing machine agent, committed suicide by shooting himself in the left breast in the presence of his intended bride, Miss May Powelson. There is no cause known for the deed.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., May 10.—Martin Griner shot his mistress, Anna Kinsley, dead and then killed himself.

BOSTON, May 10.—In a divorce suit Henry Barnaby testified that his wife went to spiritual seances and played ghost at $3 per night. "At these seances," he said, "one E. L. Thayer was a constant visitor, and got acquainted with my wife. During a dark seance he sat beside Rose and when Mr. Bridge gave orders for a light seance, the turning on of the light caught him hugging her. I came home one time and found the same Thayer on the sofa hugging her and she with her arms around his neck kissing him.

NEW YORK, May 10.—The will of Mrs. Miriam A. Osborn, the widow of the late Charles Osborn, the millionaire stockbroker leaves $700,000 to her son provided he agrees not to marry a wife who, prior to such marriage, had not at any time acted, sung or danced professionally or otherwise performed for hire on a dramatic stage or other place of public amusement or entertainment."

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 10.—Ralph Homes, a convict serving a two-year sentence for passing counterfeit money, gave his name half an hour before his death to the nurse as F. G. Green of Connecticut, and asked that his money be notified. This was done and she ordered the remains sent to Little Falls, N.Y. Yesterday morning two well-dressed ladies called to ask the privilege of burying the body. They were from Ashtabula county, and explained that the convict was engaged to be married to the younger one. They were mother and daughter. They had never believed him guilty, and the wedding was set for July 4, when his term expired. The request was refused, but the faithful fiance took a last look at her dead lover and went away in tears. The body was sent to his mother, who by his death had the first intimation that he had been in the penitentiary.

No June Camps this Year.

OTTAWA, May 10.—It is understood that it has been definitely decided that there will be no June camps this year.

TACOMA, Wash., May 10.—The steamer Lucy Lowe has foundered in the Straits of Juan de Fuca with 53 colonists on board.

The Transit of Mercury.

GENEVA, May 10.—Prof. Brooks, director of the Smith Observatory, observed the transit of Mercury last evening. The sky was clear and the observations were successful.

Another Victim of Cigarets.

GLEN GARDNER, May 10.—Walter Clark, the 13-year-old son of Robert Clark, died yesterday, after having been in convulsions for 24 hours. The physicians who attended him say his death was the direct result of cigaret-smoking. Young Clark began to smoke when he was 8 years old.

FUNGUS IN THE FRUIT.

It Was Swallowed by the Boy and Grew a Sprout an Inch Long.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Frederick Leek, a boy of 14, lies dead at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Leek, at Jackson-avenue, Long Island City. The boy died from acute peritonitis, resulting from inflammation caused by his swallowing an orange pit. Young Leek swallowed the pit while eating an orange at the residence of his aunt a week ago. He ate the orange in the morning and towards evening complained of severe pains in his left side. He continued in great agony until Thursday, when an operation was performed and the pit was found on the right side of the groin at the point where the large and small intestines meet. It had a sprout fully an inch long. The boy grew better after the operation, and it was thought that he would recover, when peritonitis set in, resulting in his death.

ALLISTON'S FIRE.

A Town That Has Not a Grocery or a Drygoods Store in It.

ALLISTON, May 9.—In the present confusion it is impossible to give any correct idea of the amount of the several losses caused by yesterday's fire and the insurances thereon. The loss is estimated at from $450,000 to $500,000, with total insurance of about $160,000. Not a drygoods nor grocery store is left in the town. The number of buildings destroyed is put at 130, mostly places of business. None of the churches were burned, but every hotel and hall was wiped out. The Government will likely be asked for assistance.

Millions of Feet of Lumber Burned.

GRAVENHURST, Ont., May 10.—The fire which broke out yesterday at Tasker's switch yard destroyed 10 loaded lumber cars. A million and a half feet of lumber belonging to J. T. Harvie and 160,000 feet belonging to Robert Thomson of Hamilton were destroyed. Harvie's loss is covered by insurance; Thomson was uninsured. The fires are still raging and are very close to town.

TORONTO TOPICS

Sam Small Says Its Devilish—Street Car Drivers Want More Pay.

TORONTO, May 11.—Interviewed last evening with reference to a despatch from Ogden, Utah, in which it was alleged that he had misused the funds of the Utah Methodist University, of which he was president, and had been asked to resign in consequence, Rev. Sam Small said: "It is a devilish lie, and is the work of the secretary, who is trying to undermine my reputation. I have unearthed his rascality. He has got to go overboard and he wants to drag me with him. When I accepted the presidency they offered to allow me $4000 and ordinary expenses. All of this, however, I was to raise out of my lectures, etc. Whatever remained over and above this I was to refund to the university. Naturally I was somewhat taken back. The amount I had netted from lectures, etc., had been about $10,000 per annum. In fact the sum they offered was the smallest I had received since I married. Why, my salary from the courts before I became converted averaged some $6000 a year. My pride, however, would not allow me to reject the proposal, for people would talk if I did, don't you see! I told the board of directors I would try it for a year.

"Talk about me misusing the funds of the university," he sarcastically remarked. "It has nor never had any funds. It has nothing but a hole in the ground and a big maw, with which it wants to swallow everything up. I can show vouchers for every cent I have received.

In the last 10 days there have been no less than 27 fires, all of more or less importance. Incendiary fires have been very frequent of late and the firemen attribute them to a gang of mischievous boys.

About 350 employes of the Toronto Street Railway Company, conductors, drivers, stablemen, change boys and others, met yesterday and passed a resolution requesting the following terms on and after May 16, viz.: Ten hours a day and $10 a week for conductors, 10 hours and $9 for drivers and 15 cents per hour as a minimum for all other employes except for Sunday work, which is considered worth 25 cents per hour. The hard fate of the stablemen was especially dwelt upon. These men work 84 hours a week for $8.50, and said one of them: "We do more work than the drivers and conductors put together."

The need of a clearing-house for facilitating the business of the banks in this city has been recognized for some time, but up to the present nothing practical has been done in the premises. Now, however, there appears to be every indication of the desideratum being obtained. Friday evening the bankers' section of the Toronto Board of Trade held a meeting, at which the pros and cons were carefully considered. The opinion seems to have been unanimous that the banking business of the city had reached that stage when such an institution had become a necessity. A committee comprising these gentlemen were appointed to arrange the details: Messrs. B. E. Walker (chairman of section) of the Bank of Commerce, D. R. Wilkie of the Imperial Bank, W. Grindlay of the British North America, C. Brough of the Montreal.

Two Good Things IN FLOUR!

1. Scale Weight.

2. First Quality.

If good flour makes good bread it follows that one sort of flour makes better bread than another.

Which sort makes best?

That depends. The best flour is the purest, the best ground, the strongest and containing the most health giving and nourishing properties.

These good points are all found in our Flour.

Have you tried it? Perhaps yes. Perhaps no. If you have not, do so, and you may find a better flour than you have been using, and we a customer.

REJOICING! REJOICING!

It affords me unbounded pleasure to know that those who have bought properties from me in the past have reason to rejoice. I positively do not know one instance out of the hundreds of properties which I have sold, where the purchasers have had to sell at a loss, while on the contrary I can name dozens of purchasers who have pocketed their tens, hundreds and thousands. These are facts which I can prove true.

I have a few Real Bargains in Comfortable Homes on easy terms for those who are wise enough to buy quickly. Be advised and do not delay. Building Lots at all prices.

BUY NOW IF AT ALL.

EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Brin property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighborhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

MR. TARTE'S CHARGES.

HIS STORY RETOLD IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Sir Hector Langevin Gives a Denial and Favors an Enquiry—Mr. McGreevy Pronounces Letters to be Forgeries—Referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

OTTAWA, May 11.—At five minutes to a o'clock this afternoon a dapper little French gentleman with a black frock coat buttoned tightly across his chest rose in the House of Commons as the orders of the day were called, and in a somewhat nervous manner addressed the Speaker in French.

This was Mr. Tarte, and his purpose was the impeachment of Mr. Thomas McGreevy, member for Quebec West, for having used his position as a member of Parliament and of the Quebec Harbor Commission to obtain from the Public Works Department information which he used with contractors for his own advantage, thereby making a considerable amount of money, said to be about $200,000.

Mr. Tarte only spoke a few minutes in French and then proceeded in English, speaking with a strong accent, but clearly and with a good choice of words.

The Statement.

Mr. Tarte moves, seconded by Mr. Guay, that Mr. Tarte, a member of this House, having declared from his seat in this House that he is credibly informed and that he believes that he is able to establish by satisfactory evidence:

That in 1882 the sum of $375,000 having been voted by the Parliament of Canada to carry out the works of the harbor of Quebec, the Quebec Harbor Commissioners called for tenders for dredging in connection with the said works.

That Messrs. Larkin, Connoly & Co. tendered and were awarded the contract for the said dredging.

That in order to secure the influence of Hon. Thomas McGreevy, then and now a member of the Parliament of Canada, and a member of the Quebec Harbor Commission by appointment of the Government of Canada, the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., with the knowledge of the said Thomas McGreevy, took as a partner Robert H. McGreevy, his brother, giving him an interest of 30 per cent. in the firm.

That the said Thomas McGreevy consented to his brother becoming a member of the firm, and stated that he had first consulted the Minister of Public Works, Sir Hector L. Langevin, and secured his consent.

That the said contract, signed on Sept. 25, 1882, stipulated that the works thereunder were to be finished by Nov. 1, 1884, but that the said Larkin, Connolly & Co. continued to perform the work of dredging under the scale of prices therein mentioned up to the close of the season of 1886.

That in order to help Larkin, Connolly & Co. to secure the said dredging contract, the said Hon. Thomas McGreevy agreed to give and did give in an undue manner his help as harbor commissioner to Larkin, Connolly & Co.

That up to the year 1883 aforesaid Messrs. Kinipple and Morris of London, Eng., had acted as engineers to the Quebec Harbor Commission, and that the resident engineer for carrying out the works was Mr. Woodford Pilkington.

That in concert with Larkin, Connolly & Co. the said Thomas McGreevy undertook to secure the removal of Messrs. Kinipple, Morris and Pilkington from their positions and they were in fact so removed in 1883 and replaced by Mr. Henry F. Perley and Mr. John Edward Boyd with the consent of the Minister of Public Works.

That in the same year 1883 tenders were called for a crosswall and lock in connection with the harbor works at Quebec, in accordance with plans and specifications prepared in the Department of Public Works under the direction of Mr. Henry F. Perley.

That several tenders were made, and amongst others who tendered were Messrs. Larkin, Connolly & Co.

That before tendering and in order to secure the influence of Hon. Thomas McGreevy, then and now a member of the Parliament of Canada, and a member of the Quebec Harbor Board by appointment of the Government, Larkin, Connolly & Co. took into partnership with themselves Robert H. McGreevy, a brother of the said Hon. Thomas McGreevy, giving him a 30 per cent. interest in the firm, and this with the knowledge and consent of the said Hon. Thomas McGreevy.

That among the parties tendering were a contractor named George Beaucage and one John Gallagher.

That it was on the suggestion of the said Hon. Thomas McGreevy that Beaucage consented to make a tender.

That with the knowledge of the said Thomas McGreevy, the three tenders of Larkin, Connolly & Co., of Beaucage and of Gallagher were prepared by the members of the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., Beaucage being throughout deceived by the said Hon. Thomas McGreevy as to his position in the matter, as he alleges in an action recently entered by him against the said Thomas McGreevy in relation to the said contract, in the Superior Court of Montreal.

That the said tenders were transmitted to the Department of Public Works of Canada for examination and extension.

That while all the tenders were being examined and the quantities applied in the Department of Public Works the said Hon. Thomas McGreevy, then and now a member of the Parliament of Canada, and a member of the Quebec Harbor Commission by appointment of the Government, promised to obtain and did obtain from the Department of Public Works and from officials of that department, in relation to the said tenders, to figure in connection therewith and to the amounts thereof, information which he offered to communicate before the result was officially known, and which he did communicate to the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., and to certain members of the said firm individually.

That to the knowledge of the said Thomas McGreevy the tenders of Messrs. Gallagher and Beaucage were lower than those of Larkin, Connolly & Co., but that in consideration of the promise of the sum of $25,000 to be to him paid, he, the said Thomas McGreevy, agreed to secure the acceptance of the tenders of Larkin, Connolly & Co., and that he suggested to that firm and to certain members thereof individually to make arrangements in connection with said Gallagher and Beaucage, and to so manipulate matters as to render the tender of these two parties higher than those of the said firm, or at all events to secure the contract for Larkin, Connolly & Co., and that said arrangement and manipulation were carried out as suggested by him.

That in consequence of the said arrangement and manipulations wherein the said Thomas McGreevy directly participated, the contract for the crosswall and lock in connection with the Quebec harbor works was awarded to Larkin, Connolly & Co. on a report to Council made by the Minister of Public Works under date May 26, 1883.

That a few days thereafter the sum of $25,000 was in fulfilment of the corrupt arrangement above stated paid to the said Thomas McGreevy in promissory notes signed by the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., which said notes were duly paid.

That about the same date, namely, the 4th June, 1884, a sum of $1000 was paid by the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., towards "the Langevin testimonial fund," a fund destined to be given to Sir Hector Langevin.

That in the course of the carrying out of the works the said Thomas McGreevy caused changes contrary to the public interests to be made in the conditions of the said contract.

That in 1884 Thomas McGreevy, then and now a member of the Parliament of Canada and a member of the Quebec Harbor Commission by appointment of the Government, agreed with the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co. and certain members thereof individually to secure for them a contract for the completion of the graving dock of Levis, one of the conditions of the agreement being that he, Thomas McGreevy, should receive any excess over the sum of $50,000 in the contract price.

That to the detriment of the public interest a contract was signed in or about the month of June, 1884, for the performance of the said works, and that subsequently the said Thomas McGreevy received the price stipulated in the corrupt arrangement above mentioned, namely, $22,000.

That in 1883 and 1884 tenders were asked for by the Government of Canada for the completion of the graving dock at Esquimalt, B.C.

That the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co. were among those who tendered, and that the contract was awarded to them in pursuance of a report to council dated Oct. 24, 1884, and signed by the Hon. Minister of Public Works.

That before tendering the said Larkin, Connolly & Co. had with Thomas McGreevy, then and now a member of the Parliament of Canada, communications and interviews wherein they secured his services to assist them in dealing with the Department of Public Works in order to secure the said contract.

That he agreed to help them, and that he did in fact help them in divers ways, and amongst others by obtaining from the Department of Public Works information, figures and calculations which he communicated to them.

That to the knowledge and with the consent of the said Thomas McGreevy, and for the purpose of securing for themselves his influence, Larkin, Connolly & Co. took into partnership with themselves his brother, Robert H. McGreevy, giving him a 30 per cent. interest in their firm.

That during the execution of the said contract the said Thomas McGreevy was the agent or one of the agents in the pay of Larkin, Connolly & Co. in dealing with the Department of Public Works; that he endeavored to obtain and did obtain for them at their request important alterations in the works and more favorable conditions.

That the said more favorable conditions and the said alterations enabled them to realize to the detriment of the public interests very large profits.

That during the execution of the works large sums were paid by Larkin, Connolly & Co. to Thomas McGreevy for his services in dealing with the Minister of Public Works, with the officers of the department and generally for his influence as a member of the Parliament of Canada.

That in consideration of the sums of money so received by him and of the promise to him made, the said Thomas McGreevy furnished to Larkin, Connolly & Co. a great deal of information, strove to procure and did procure to be made by the department and the Hon. Minister of Public Works, in the plans of the Graving Dock, and in the execution of the works, alterations which have cost large sums of money to the public treasury.

That he himself took steps to induce certain members of the Parliament of Canada to assist him, the said Thomas McGreevy, in his efforts in concert with Larkin, Connolly & Co., to obtain alterations and additional works, for which large sums of money were offered to him by the members of the firm.

That on his suggestion member of the Parliament of Canada were approached by members of the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co.

That certain members of the said firm have declared that the said members of the Canadian Parliament on being so approached had asked for a certain sum of money for exerting their influence in favor of Larkin, Connolly & Co. with the Minister of Public Works, and that Larkin, Connolly & Co. had agreed to give them money for that purpose.

That Thomas McGreevy, acting in concert with Larkin, Connolly & Co., did at their request corruptly endeavor to procure the dismissal from office of certain public officers employed in connection with the works of the Graving Dock at Esquimalt in order to have them replaced by others who would suit Larkin, Connolly & Co., the former having for a time incurred the ill-will of Larkin, Connolly & Co. because they then compelled them to carry out the works in conformity with the specifications and contract, and prepared their estimates according to the terms of the said contract.

That during the winter of 1886-87 the said Thomas McGreevy proposed to and made with the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., through certain members of the said firm, an arrangement whereby the said firm undertook to pay him the sum of $25,000 on condition that he would obtain for the firm the sum of 35 cents per cubic yard for the dredging of 800,000 cubic yards in the area of the wet basin in the harbor of Quebec.

That dredging of the same kind, and even more difficult, had previously and up to that time, and to the knowledge of the said Thomas McGreevy, been executed for the sum of 27 cents per cubic yard, and even less, in the same works.

That the said Thomas McGreevy used his influence as a member of the House with the Department of Public Works, and in particular with Mr. Henry F. Perley, to induce him to report to the Quebec Harbor Commission in favor of the payment of the said sum of 35 cents per cubic yard.

That the correspondence on this subject between Henry F. Perley and Larkin, Connolly & Co. before the Quebec Harbor Commissioners were consulted took place at the suggestion of the said Thomas McGreevy and was conducted with his knowledge and participation in such a manner as to conceal from the eyes of Parliament and of the public the corrupt character of the contract in connection with which he had received $27,000.

That Larkin, Connolly & Co., paid in money to the said Thomas McGreevy the sum of $30,000 in fulfilment of the arrangement above mentioned and that at his own request a sum of $5000 was left to secure the election of the said Thomas McGreevy to the House of Commons at the general election of 1887 in the hands of one of the members of the firm, who, finding that sum insufficient, had to add thereto the sum of $2000.

That on May 23, 1887, in fulfilment of the arrangement above mentioned and through the effort, the influence and the intervention of the said Thomas McGreevy, and without any public tender having been called for, a contract was made between the Quebec Harbor Commissioners and Larkin, Connolly & Co. for all the necessary dredging and removal of material in the wet basin of the Quebec harbor works.

That in the execution of the works of this contract extensive frauds were perpetrated to the detriment of the public treasury, and sums of money were paid corruptly to officials under the control and direction of Henry F. Perley and appointed by the Quebec Harbor Commission.

That by an order in Council dated May 10, 888, the Government of Canada decided to pay a sum of $12,500 yearly during five years to Mr. Julien Chabot on the condition of his causing the steamer Admiral to ply between Dalhousie and Gaspe, forming a connection with the Intercolonial Railway.

That the said sum of $12 500 has since been paid in the manner prescribed in the order in Council and the contract made thereunder.

That the said Julien Chabot was merely a screen for the benefit of the said Thomas McGreevy, who then was and continued to be for a long time thereafter, the proprietor of the Admiral in whole or at least in great part.

That previous to the 10th of May, 1888 to wit, since 1883 or 1884, the same subsidy of $12,500 was paid for the said steamer Admiral, then also owned by men representing the said Thomas McGreevy.

That the said Thomas McGreevy received in that connection a sum of about $120,000 while being a member of the Parliament of Canada.

That in 1886 tenders were asked for by the Quebec Harbor Commissioners for the construction of a work called the "south wall" or "retaining wall."

That Mr. Thomas McGreevy procured from public officials the tenders received and showed them to Messrs O. E. Murphy, Connolly and R. H. McGreevy, for whom he was acting, in order to give them an undue advantage over their competitors.

That they had the said tenders in their possession during several hours, after which they returned to Henry F. Perley, then in Quebec, by the said Thomas McGreevy.

That the contract was awarded to one John Gallagher, a mere figurehead for the said Murphy, Connolly and R. H. McGreevy, who did the work for their own profit and advantage.

That changes detrimental to the public interest but of a nature to secure great profits to the contractors were made in the plans and the carrying out of the works, and in the conditions and securities set out in the contract, through the influence and intervention of the said Thomas McGreevy.

That from the year 1883 to 1890, both inclusive, the said Thomas McGreevy did receive from Larkin, Connolly & Co., and from his brother, R. H. McGreevy, for the considerations above indicated a sum of about $200,000. But during the period aforesaid he was the agent and paid representative of Larkin, Connolly & Co. on the Quebec Board of Harbor Commissioners. He often used the name of the said minister in Parliament and in connection with the Department of Public Works. That the said Thomas McGreevy exacted and received out of the subsidies voted by Parliament for the construction of the Baie des Chaleurs Railway a sum of $40,000. That the money expended in connection with the works mentioned in the present motion is money voted by the Parliament of Canada and amounts to about $5,000,000. That from 1882 to the present session the said Thomas McGreevy has always lived in Ottawa in the same house as the Hon. Minister of Public Works and that he seems to have done so in order to put in the mind of Larkin, Connolly & Co., the impression that he had over the said minister an absolute control and he was acting as his representative in corrupt transactions with them. That in fact on many occasions he used the name of the Hon. Minister of Public Works in his dealings with them, undertaking to obtain his co-operation or declaring that he had secured it. That before the Board of Quebec Harbor Commissioners he often also used the name of the said minister. That certain members of the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co. paid and caused to be paid large sums of money to the Hon. Minister of Public Works out of the proceeds of the said contracts, and that entries of the said sums were made in the books of the firm. He therefore moved that a select committee be appointed to enquire fully into the said allegations, and specially but without limiting the scope of such enquiry to investigate all circumstances connected with several tenderers' contracts and charges therein and the payments and other matters mentioned in these statements with power to send for persons, papers and records. The names of the committee to which Mr. Tarte wished the matter referred were Messrs. Wood (Brockville), Davies, Kirkpatrick, Mills (Bothwell), Edgar, Prior, Weldon, Ouimet and Tarte.

Tarte spoke just three-quarters of an hour. His remarks were received throughout in solemn silence.

On the motion being put Sir Hector Langevin said that he had intended to make a similar motion himself, but as he had been informed the member for Montmorency might add something to what had been already published he had thought it best to allow him to move in the matter. He then read the following statement:

Sir Hector's Statement.

"I never communicated in any way to anyone tenders or prices of tenders or relative positions of tenders or names of tenderers at any time before the contract was allotted and signed and the work in progress, the only persons having the same information being the members of the Privy Council and such of the officers of my department as were entrusted with the opening of tenders after the periods fixed for their reception. I never found or knew any such or other officer of my department to be guilty of any indiscretion or breach of trust in connection with any tender or contract. Tenders are accepted, have been and are so accepted according to law. If the parties named in the motion as having contributed to a testimonial presented to me some eight or ten years ago have so contributed to it I never asked them to do so, and up to this moment I never knew them to have done so directly or indirectly. I never asked the contractors named in the motion for money, checks or notes nor did I receive any such checks, money or notes for my own use or advantage." He added that he had no reason to suspect Mr. Perley of having been connected with any of the charges made or having been guilty of any misconduct, and that as far as the member for Quebec West was concerned he was in the House and could speak for himself.

Mr. McGreevy briefly stated that when the accusation was made last session he was not in the House, but he had authorized the member for Montreal Centre (Curran) to make a statement for him totally denying the charges. That statement he wished to repeat now. The statement was all false and got up by a clique, which was conspiring against him, even to the extent of forging his name to letters he had never written. The charges were false from beginning to end. He was prepared for a speedy and thorough investigation and concluded by aginistating that letters purporting to be written by him were forgeries.

To the Privileges and Elections.

Mr. Tarte denied that he had ever been associated with anyone in the matter and said that if the letters signed by Mr. McGreevy were forgeries then he would be willing to go out of the House.

Mr. Edgar moved in amendment to Tarte's motion that the matter be referred to Committee on Privileges and Elections.

The motion as amended carried and the House adjourned at 6.

SIXTY DAY'S GRACE.

The Portuguese Government Grant a Delay in the Payment of All Obligations.

LISBON, May 11.—Owing to the alarming state of the financial situation here the Government has issued a decree granting a delay of 60 days in the payment of all obligations. It is estimated that silver to the value of $1,000,000 was withdrawn from Lisbon banks on Friday and Saturday. A nobleman drew $12,000, the whole of which was given to him in silver coin, to the amusement of the onlookers. Troops kept order at the doors.

The crisis is due to the bad political and financial situation of the Government, causing distrust.

A McCarthyite Convention.

LONDON, May 11.—A conference here today of the McCarthyite members of Parliament resolved to call a convention in Ireland. The resolution adopted was to the effect that since Parnell has refused to comply with all suggestions as to releasing the Paris funds his colleagues are led to believe he is opposed to applying these funds to the relief of the evicted tenants. Therefore, in view of the extreme urgency of the case and of the approach of a general election, it has been resolved to appeal to Ireland in behalf of the evicted tenants.

King of Medicines

A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 8 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well.

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

THE COBDEN CLUB.

THE Cobden Club of England, which undertook the mission of converting the world to free trade ideas, has not succeeded to its mission and is becoming embarrassed through lack of funds. It has been the custom of the members to hold an annual dinner, but this year the celebration has been abandoned and a cable despatch says that the club may soon be disbanded. Instead of bringing other nations to an acceptance of the free trade doctrine, the efforts of the Cobdenists have had so little effect that protection is in higher favor now than it was some years ago. And even in England, where circumstances favored the success of free trade, there is a large and growing section of public men who favor fair trade, and especially a commercial league by the different parts of the Empire. Either of these ideas is repugnant to the Cobdenists, but they are growing in public favor, and the financial straits of the great free trade club shows that there is a decrease of enthusiasm among even the leading advocates of free trade.

THE BUSINESS TAX.

A COMMITTEE of the Ottawa City Council which was appointed to consider the business tax, has reported in favor of that system and states its reasons as follows:—

"1. It will greatly simplify the work of the assessors.

"2. It will do away with the personal property tax on the mercantile community, which is so objectionable on account of its inquisitorial character, and the impossibility of applying it equitably.

"3. It will distribute the burden of taxation over a large number who are not now reached; relieve many unduly burdened and generally prove a more equitable system than exists under the operation of the present law."

The members of the committee all agreed to the report and the business tax will in all probability be adopted in that city.

MR. MOWAT will give $66,532.55 this year to the houses of refuge and orphan and Magdalen asylums of the province. Sir John Macdonald will give them nothing, but he will tax them with his National Policy.—Hamilton Times.

But Sir John Macdonald provides Mr. Mowat with the money which is given to these and other institutions. It is an easy matter for Mr. Mowat to hand over the money—or should be—when Sir John furnishes him with it.

THE Toronto Globe says:—"Water-ways have received a rude shock from railroads, but their usefulness is by no means gone. The water route is now carrying wheat from Chicago to New York, a distance of 1,500 miles by water, for five cents per bushel or $1.66 2-3 per ton—the lowest rate ever known." It is a pity that the Globe could not impress this upon its friends in Parliament so that there would be no further opposition from that source to the Trent Valley canal, which would give cheaper freight rates to a very large section of country as well as opening an advantageous through route from the west.

The Wise Savants

Tell us that Rheumatism is a blood disease that it can be cured only by a remedy which works through the blood. And yet, if you have the darting pains of Rheumatism in muscles or joints, try a little of Clark's Lightning Liniment. It will go direct to the seat of pain and relieve it at once. There is no waiting weeks and months until the disease can be attacked through the blood. This seems to be contrary to scientific claims, but it is true that Clark's Lightning Liniment will cure Rheumatism. Sold by all druggists; price fifty cents. Clark Chemical Co., Toronto.

The Government Safe.

Dundas Banner, Liberal.

Unless four or five members of the Cabinet at Ottawa get struck by lightning, or the Parliament buildings fall down and smash up the Government's majority, the chances are that the Old Man and his crowd will not be turned out this session, and will continue to enjoy themselves in the public pasture while the Liberals sniff the oats from the wrong side of the fence. It is sad, but it seems unavoidable.

Going for Mr. Mowat.

Hamilton Times, Liberal.

We have not much patience with public men who wait to be driven instead of doing some independent thinking for themselves. If Mr. Mowat had devoted the time and labor to the study and principles of taxation which he applied to the study of the evidences of Christianity, he might have done a service to his native province, and indirectly to the civilized world, for which his name would be held in grateful remembrance for generations. There were plenty of preachers as well qualified as Mr. Mowat to tabulate the evidences of Christianity, but no other man is in as good a position as Mr. Mowat to apply Christian principles to the Ontario tax system.

A Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache and is the best Spring Medicine. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. and $1 a package.

A FIERY HELL [illegible] H

TRAIN HANDS DASH [illegible] A FOREST OF FLAME.

About a Dozen Persons Slowly Roasted to Death Pinned Beneath the Wreck and Unable to Help Themselves Owing to Partial Suffocation from Smoke.

COUDERSPORT, Pa., May 11.—To-night the pretty little lumber-farming towns of Austin, Costello, Galeton and Moore's Run in Potter County are threatened with annihilation from forest fires which have been raging for days. At Moore's Run on the Sinnamahoning Valley Railroad a train load of 73 men sent out from Austin Sunday night had been fighting the fire by building trenches, etc., but were forced to retreat. The men hastily boarded the train and started to make a run to another point, when it was found that they were hemmed in by the forest fires on one side and a huge skidway of logs on the other. It was finally decided to dash past the burning skidways, and the engineer and firemen with faces covered with dampened cloths and their hands and arms wrapped in wool mounted the little engine and pulled out through the wall of fire. The 73 exhausted men gathered in groups on the flats for protection or lay on their faces on the floor. As the blazing furnace of logs was approached the heat became unbearable and the smoke was so blinding and stifling that the men were obliged to cover their mouths with cloths. Just opposite the millions of feet of burning logs there was a lurch, an ominous heaving and a shriek of despair as the train toppled over into the hell of fire beneath. Every survivor will bear to his grave a mark of that awful moment. The cars caught fire like so many paper playthings and the men within, half blinded and scarcely realising anything except that they were being roasted to death, struggled fearfully to regain the track, where safety lay for a time at least.

Superintendent Badger of the Sinnamahoning Valley road was in charge of the relief train. He was found jammed in the wreck, where he had evidently slowly burned to death. It is known that six others also miserably perished at once or died soon after and 30 others of the party were badly burned, many probably fatally.

Seven others of the party are missing. They are thought to be in the charred wood of the logs or the train.

SHEPHERD, Mich., May 11.—Last night an extra freight collided with 13 log cars, which ran down the grade to a mile south, where the rest of the train was being loaded with logs, crashing into the cars standing there with frightful effect. The killed were: Z. Bigelow, Clark E. Struble and Sherwood Clark. All lived at Shepherd. Thirteen were injured.

Simcoe's Market House Destroyed.

SIMCOE, May 11.—Early this morning fire broke out in the market buildings and entirely consumed them. The fire was the work of an incendiary. Insurance $1000.

FELL FROM THE TRESTLE.

Nine-Year-Old Willie Goodfellow Fatally Hurt on Route to School.

GALT, May 11.—While en route to school this morning Willie, the 9-year-old son of Benjamin Goodfellow, painter, fell from the C.P.R. bridge, which he was crossing, and alighted on the ground 40 feet below. Two of his limbs were broken and his skull so badly fractured as to expose the brain by his head striking upon a stone. He will die.

An Insane Man Commits Suicide at St. Catharines.

ST. CATHARINES, May 11.—A deranged young man named George Gregory jumped from the upper window of his father's residence in Haynes-avenue on Saturday; a distance of about 20 feet, during the temporary absence of his step-mother, who had been watching him. He alighted on his head, receiving injuries which resulted in his death this morning.

Women Clean the Streets

CINCINNATI, May 11.—Petitions having been in vain, Wade-street's women all turned out on that thoroughfare in this city today and proceeded themselves to clean the street which city officials had ignored for a year. For squares women and children with brooms, rakes and hoes not only dug till they cleaned the paving stones, but also cleared out the sewer inlets.

A Sprightly Craft Weighs Anchor.

QUEBEC, May 11.—A sprightly young woman of Levis, who was married six years ago to an old widower, has just weighed anchor with her paramour, a young man whom she introduced as her cousin, for parts unknown. She carries as a souvenir of the old fellow the wallet that used to be in the old chest of drawers and which contains the old man's savings of many years, $3000.

Suicide at 110.

HAZELTON, May 11.—Mrs. Donnelly, aged 110, committed suicide to-day by setting fire to her bed. She had of late been infirm, and the neighbors, who have kept her for the past 20 years, decided to send her to the almshouse where she would receive good care. She suspected this, and rather than suffer what she considered an indignity burned herself to death.

Had a White Wife, But Took a Red One

BRANTFORD, May 11.—A white man named William Teeple was arrested on the Indian reserve on Saturday on a charge of bigamy. Teeple, it seems, came from Michigan and settled on the reserve, where he married an Indian girl named Bradley.

Killed By a Mad Cat's Bite.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 11.—A cat belonging to J. R. Vansandt, who lives near Rogers, was attacked with hydrophobia and bit one of Vansandt's children, a boy of nine years. The doctors say he cannot recover.

Wanted a Shave on the Scaffold.

MARSHALL, Mo., May 10.—"Sheriff, I ought to have had a shave!" exclaimed William Price, the black felonious assailant of Miss Alice Ninans, while the official pulled the black cap over his face before executing him upon the gallows here at 11.40 a.m. today. He went to his death with a laugh.

Abandoned Her Babe on the Roadside.

FERGUS, Ont., May 11.—Two men driving along the road near the village noticed a basket on the side of the road. One of the men got out of the conveyance to get the basket, when he was surprised to find that it contained an infant. The child is being cared for by a Fergus lady, and the police are looking for its mother.

The Committee's Action Approved.

PARIS, May 11.—The Senate has approved of the report made to it by the committee on the Newfoundland arbitration question.

Newfoundland Legislature Adopts a Wise and Honorable Course.

NEW YORK, May 11.—A dispatch from St. John's Nfld., says: After a conference between the two houses of the Legislature and prolonged sittings in private, both branches decided to indorse the action of the delegates to England, and to carry into effect the proposals made by them to the British Parliament and Government. There was much opposition at first, but reflection showed this to be the wisest and most honorable course. A bill will be submitted enforcing the modus vivendi.

The Coercion Bill Passed.

LONDON, May 11.—In the House of Lords to-day Lord Knutsford's Coercion bill relating to Newfoundland, passed its third reading.

BEFORE!

A gentleman of middle age, occupying a government position in the City of Ottawa, and who is well known in social circles, came through a serious illness some months ago. Before using the great remedy which restored him, (Paine's Celery Compound), he was very nervous and extremely weak; his appetite had failed so much, that his wife became very anxious. Brandy and water for some time seemed to sustain life, and altogether, his condition was serious and doubtful. Nervous debility had reduced him to a skeleton. Two of his friends urged strongly the use of Paine's Celery Compound, which his dear wife consented to try.

AFTER!

After using the Compound for a few days, happy results were observed. There were evident signs of increasing strength and appetite, and less prostration. In two weeks the nervous symptoms had abated, and the patient was able to converse freely and without fatigue. In seven weeks after the continued use of Paine's Celery Compound, the gentleman was able to be out and visit his office. To-day he is one of the strongest and most robust men of the Capital, and takes pleasure of speaking of the great Compound that restored him to life and health.

BELIEVED SHE WAS A PAUPER.

Starved Rather Than Buy Food, But Expended $500 For a Monument.

ST. CATHARINES, May 11.—Winnifred Gavin, or "Old Winnie" as she was more familiarly known, has been charitably cared for by neighbors, having represented that she had not a shilling to bless herself with. Last night she died and a few hours before the end sent for a lawyer and handed over securities amounting to $3001, of which sum she ordered $500 to be expended for a monument and the balance to be given to the Roman Catholic church.

How a Parkhill Man Lost His Life at Winnipeg Last Night.

WINNIPEG, May 11.—Harry Williams, a young man who arrived from Parkhill, Ont., only a few days ago, was drowned while rowing in the Red River to-night. He attempted to change places with his comrade, George Elliott, also of Parkhill, and in doing so lost his balance, fell overboard and was drowned.

FORTUNE TELLERS TO THE RESCUE.

"Clues" to the Heslop Murder Which Failed to Pan Out.

HAMILTON, May 11.—The Heslop murder is scarcely ever mentioned now except by those interested in the case. Detective Greer will resume work on the case in a few days. Chief McKinnon has occasional visitors who have pointers for him about the murder. Two of these, both women, called last week. The first was a woman who had a dream in which it was revealed to her who the murderer was. The chief, who found it to be a mix-up of various clues that had been suggested, fully investigated and abandoned. The other woman was from Brant County. She had been to see an American fortune-teller about some family affairs and the fortune-teller talked about the murder and gave a description of the murderer. The woman put so much confidence in the fortune-teller that she proceeded to hunt up the chief at once. She was not a little disappointed and annoyed when the chief showed her that the woman of hidden ways didn't know what she was talking about.

A Fat Woman's Toboggan.

PORTSMOUTH, N.H., May 11.—Mrs. Lotherly, in jail here, got out of an attic window yesterday, slid 25 feet down a lightning rod, then dropped 15 feet to the ground, scaled a nine-foot fence and got away. She weighs 180 pounds.

TUESDAY, MAY 12. 1891.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Ashburnham Sanitary Affairs.

Dr. Clarke, Medical Health Officer, made a tour of inspection in Ashburnham yesterday in company with Mr. Craig, Sanitary Inspector. They had to deal with several complaints and found good reason for most of them. The health regulations are to be strictly enforced this year, and all notices must be promptly attended to.

Personal.

Mayor Stevenson, M.P., and Mr. John Burnham, M.P., returned to Ottawa yesterday.

Mr. M. B. Orde, accompanied by his bride, is in town visiting his mother. The happy couple, who are on their honeymoon, will be the recipients of congratulations of Peterborough friends.

Parliamentary Committees.

Mr. Stevenson has been appointed on the Parliamentary committees on Railways, Canals and Telegraph Lines, Standing Orders, and Agricultural and Colonization, and Mr. Burnham on the committees on Railways, Canals and Telegraph Lines, Standing Orders, Banking and Commerce, and Agriculture and Colonization.

Word comes from all quarters that the neatest and most satisfactory dye for coloring the beard a brown or black is Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers.

Port Hope Illustrated.

"Port Hope Illustrated" is the title of a descriptive and historical sketch of Port Hope published by Mr. W. Williamson, of that town. It traces the history of the town from the time that it was a hunting ground for the Indians up to the present, and is embellished with several good views. The pamphlet is a handsome one, neatly got up and tastily printed, and does justice to Port Hope and to the beautiful situation of the town.

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on a trial.

The Giant War Canoe.

The monster war canoe which has just been completed by the English Canoe Company for a Montreal canoe club is now ready for shipment and is a model of workmanship. The big craft is 30 feet long with a 30 inch beam and a depth of 22 inches. There are nine thwarts in it, providing for a crew of sixteen paddles and a steersman. The model of the canoe is perfect and will undoubtedly give satisfaction to the Montrealers when they man her and come in from their trial trip. The work has been executed with neatness, but everything has been added which could add to its strength and durability, for such an immense craft cannot be handled the same as an ordinary canoe but will have to stand a good deal of rough usage. It is highly creditable to the company and will serve to still further extend the high reputation which the English canoe now holds throughout the world. As stated last evening the canoe can be seen at the factory on Charlotte-st., where it will probably be for a day or two before shipment.

A CONGREGATIONAL RECEPTION.

A Pleasant Informal Evening at St. John's—The Programme.

"Members of One Family Should Need No Introduction."

This was the appropriate motto which greeted those who attended the third semi-annual reception of the St. John's church congregation last evening. In fact it was the realization of the sentiment of the motto which was the object of the reception, a true conception of the family relationship which exists in the church. The attendance was large, the gathering being a representative one of the congregation. Each one of the assemblage entered heartily into the spirit of the occasion and goodwill and pleasant sociability pervaded. One of the ladies had undertaken the management of the evening and was ably assisted by a staff of willing workers. The entire arrangements were so well anticipated that everything was conducted with a smoothness which was pleasing to all.

The Sunday school room, where the evening was spent, had been transformed into a drawing room, being seated with easy chairs, provided with tables, flowers, etc., which harmonized with the informal, social character of the gathering.

The principal music of the evening was furnished by the amateur orchestra, who gave the greatest pleasure by their brilliant selections. Dr. Davies' vocal society also elicited loud applause by the rendition of the glee "Tell me Roses," which was rapturously encored. The Misses Lech rendered a brilliant piano duet in excellent taste. Miss Lumsden and Miss Davidson gave two vocal selections which were highly appreciated.

Refreshments, of the most tempting, were spread on tables at one corner of the room and after nine o'clock the jingle of teaspoons mingled with the hum of conversation.

Rev. Canon Davidson, of Colborne, was present during the evening, but Rev. J. H. McCleary, of St. Luke's, who had intended to be present, was prevented at the last moment.

At 10.30 precisely the orchestra played the national anthem and the pleasant gathering dispersed, delighted with their evening of friendly intercourse as members of the one congregation.

A Pleasant Herb Drink—A Spring Medicine.

The druggists tell us that the people call daily for the new cure for constipation and sick-headache discovered by Dr. Silas Lane. It is said to be Oregon grape root (a great remedy in the far west for those complaints) combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength. It sell at 50c and $1 a package and is called Lane's Family Medicine.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

THE BUILDING OF THE TOWER.

$2,411 Subscribed for Completion of George-st. Methodist Church.

Last evening George-st. church people met and enjoyed themselves thoroughly well. A Methodist tea meeting is invariably a whole-souled, comfortable place where one can pleasantly spend an hour or two and incidentially enjoy something good in the way of refreshments. The ladies of the congregation provided an ample tea which was served in the lecture room at nicely set tables. Early in the evening a large number enjoyed tea and at eight o'clock the friends moved up stairs and took seats in the church.

The meeting was opened with prayer followed by an anthem by the choir, under Mr. Seward's direction. Mr. Jas. Kendry had been named as chairman by the trustee board and he kindly filled that important office in a happy and satisfactory way. He briefly stated the object of the gathering, to raise funds to complete the tower of the church.

Rev. Mr. Roberts, Rev. Mr. Davis and the pastor having taken seats on the platform Rev. Mr. Roberts begun his address. He complimented the town on its growth and fine appearance, all of which, he argued, required that the church should now be completed. Taking up the question of giving he related a number of antedotes and drew a series of illustrations to prove that those who gave liberally, from a good honest motive, were benefitted as well as benefitting at the same time. It was thought that $2,500 would complete the tower, and make some necessary repairs, and he hoped the amount would be forthcoming and proposed to raise it by a series of subscriptions graded from $100 to $5.00. He asked for five subscriptions of $100 each, and members of the congregation at once came forward and $700 was subscribed in a few minutes, including the handsome subscription from Charlotte-st. church of $100, through Mr. A. L. Davis. Ten subscriptions of $50 each were quickly made, followed by fifteen of $25 each and five of $20 each. Twenty-five at $10, was added to the list and a large number of subscriptions of $5, and smaller amounts, will make the total, including some amounts previously placed to credit of the fund, reach the pleasing and gratifying total of $2,411. It was a noble and praiseworthy effort and reflects the greatest credit on the loyalty and liberality of the people of the church.

The subscription from Charlotte-st. church was a pleasant surprise and an evidence of good will and fraternal feeling that was heartily appreciated.

Some additions were promised to the list which, when completed, will be printed in acknowledgement by the officials of the kindness and desire to assist on the part of members. Work on the tower will be pushed to completion at once. A large part of the material required is now on the ground and being made ready.

Before the friends dispersed votes of thanks were tendered Rev. Mr. Roberts, and the chairman, and the ladies of the congregation for services performed, and the meeting closed with the benediction by the pastor.

Young Women's Reception.

In response to the invitation issued in last week's locals quite a number of fair maidens gather in "Y" hall on Saturday evening. An hour was whiled way in gay social chat and in the enjoyment of various parlor games, after which a short programme was rendered, consisting of vocal solos by Mrs. Seward and Miss Butcher, with instrumental duet by Misses Hall and Neithercutt. A number of ladies had joined with with the members of the Association in providing refreshments which were served at the close of the programme. During the evening the Secretary announced that from present date the rooms would be open every evening as a resort for young women, and that until further notice the following programme would be carried out:—

Monday evening........General recreation
Tuesday evening..............Bible reading
Wednesday evening....Open reading room
Thursday evening......Shorthand class for [members
Friday evening....Class in plain and fancy [needlework
Saturday evening..Music and social enter- [tainment

A cordial invitation is extended to all young women to make free use of the rooms and their privileges. Miss Code, Secretary of the Hazel Brae Home, will conduct the Bible reading this evening.

A Cool Proposition!

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—Hang me if the proposition made by your correspondent, "M. A. Y." in Friday's paper isn't the sublimest piece of cheek I've run across in a long time! I'll swear that everyone who read it, other than the writer, just lay back and roared. Bless his innocent soul, he wants the Council to vote a sum sufficient to defray the expenses of a ball, "in honor of the Governor General's Body Guards," at which ball he proposes to kick his heels in high glory at the corporation's expense. He believes the citizens would endorse the vote and afterwards participate in the pleasure which the ball would "undoubtedly give them."

If the Guards were objects of charity, which they are not, and if the citizens were anxious to act the benefactor there would be some excuse for such a donation. To spend some money to entertain the visitors in a public way and to lighten expenses at this end of the trip is a fairly reasonable suggestion. To vote money—public money—that your correspondent might be enabled to don his claw hammer and pumps and kick about the floor is absurd. If he wants to dance let him put up his share like a man.

If such ball were given at public expense how many citizens would be invited and permitted to enjoy it? Few, precious few! And how many would want it?

Why the mischief didn't he go a little farther and suggest an appropriation to endow a dancing class at the Mechanics' Institute and a department for the same lively exercise at the High School? He might understand that if the town can find money to meet legitimate municipal expenses it will do well, without throwing it away on the delectation of such as our friend who wants to dance while some one else pays the piper and caterer.

Yours, &c.

LAKEFIELD LOCALS.

New Cottages to be Erected at Stony Lake—Accident to an Engineer.

Correspondence of the Review.

SOCIAL.—The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church intend having a social in the P. C. A. Hall on Monday, May 25th.

CHANGED HANDS.—Mr. M. A. Jamieson, of Hespler, has bought the stock and plant of the D. Baptie estate and will continue the baking and confectionery business here in the old stand. We wish him success.

GONE TO THE LAKE.—Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, of Massachusetts, have gone up to the summer cottage at Boschink per steamer Golden City.

HER FIRST TRIP.—The Golden City carried quite a large number of passengers on her first trip up the lakes.

You will find with R. Graham & Son an elegant line of Parasols.

SUMMER COTTAGES.—New cottages are to be erected on islands in Stony Lake by Mr. Wm. Cox, of Lakefield, Mr. Merritt, of Toronto, and Mr. Geo. Guillett, M. P., Cobourg.

OMISSION.—The name of Miss Violet Wade, who was awarded a diploma in Junior History in Higher Religious Instruction examination, was omitted last week.

PERSONAL.—Rev. J. McEwen and Mr. Wm. M. Graham were in Lindsay this week attending the meeting of the Synod of Toronto and Kingston.

LOST A DIGIT.—The engineer of the steamer Sunbeam met with a serious accident in the loss of a finger which got caught in the pump while the engine was working and had to be amputated, which was successfully done by Dr. Fraser and Dr. Bell.

Very Audible.

Gussie—Cholley, how do you like my new trousers?

Cholley—Gwarious, Gussie! Do you have them in your room when you go to bed?

Gussie—Certainly; why not?

Cholley—Oh, I—aw, don't see how you can sleep with the racket. Bah Jove, I don't.

That Dreadful Collar Button.

Mrs. Homily (after church)—How did you come to preach on backsliding, dearest? You said at breakfast that you were going to preach your sermon on profanity.

The Rev. Dr. Homily—I had intended to, my dear, but my collar button got down my neck when I was dressing for church.

Only the Woman Changed.

Mrs. Gay—Your habits have changed since we were married; before you never left me until midnight, now you don't get in until that time.

Mr. Gay—My hours are just the same; only it used to be my mother who did the kicking!

City Accomplishments.

Deacon Hardscrabble—An' how's your nephew gettin' along in college, squire?

Squire Catcake—Purty well, I guess. Th' last time I was in taown I noticed that he could eat in French, smoke in Spanish, and drink in German.

An Ethical Point.

La Fiancee—I am sorry to hear papa is speculating so heavily.

Le Fiance—By Jove! It is almost criminal for a man to speculate with money that ought to be saved for his son-in-law.

A Worse Slavery.

Gusher—You are ruined by your sentimental ideas, Gusher. You are a slave to woman's smiles.

Gusher—All right, old man. You're a slave to your own smiles.

Utilizing Waste Smoke and Gases.

A company in Scotland pays a yearly rental to a number of iron works for the right to collect the smoke and gases which escape from the blast furnaces. These gases pass through several miles of iron pipe, gradually diminishing in size from six feet to eighteen inches, and, as the gases cool, there is found to be a considerable deposit of oil, while the residual gases are used for distilling and other purposes, besides yielding a large percentage of ammonia.

At one of these plants in Glasgow, which is the smallest of the works in operation, about 60,000,000 feet of gas is pumped and collected a day, and the company recovers on an average of 25,000 gallons of oil a week. A few coke ovens are also supplied with the condensing apparatus. The oils obtained are used for the Lucigen and other similar lights and for pickling timber.

Don't Touch Wires.

It is always best to avoid danger if possible; therefore, there is one rule which ought to be taught in every school in the country, and that is—never lift a wire off the ground.

A telegraph wire is perfectly harmless, but an electric wire is always deadly. When you see a wire hanging from a pole or a house, or in any position, it may not be dangerous, but it may kill you.

Not many physicians make great therapeutic discoveries. For the most part they content themselves with administering judiciously what is prescribed in the books. To J. C. Ayer, however, is due the credit of discovering that greatest of blood purifiers—Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Rheumatism,

BEING due to the presence of uric acid in the blood, is most effectually cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Be sure you get Ayer's and no other, and take it till the poisonous acid is thoroughly expelled from the system. We challenge attention to this testimony:—

"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing complaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months, and am pleased to state that it has effected a complete cure. I have since had no return of the disease."—Mrs. R. Irving Dodge, 110 West 125th st., New York.

"One year ago I was taken ill with inflammatory rheumatism, being confined to my house six months. I came out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system disordered in every way. I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon recovering my usual health. I cannot say too much in praise of this well-known medicine."—Mrs. L. A. Stark, Nashua, N. H.

HIS FIRST ELEPHANT.

THE RECORD OF AN EXCITING HUNT IN A JUNGLE OF CEYLON.

A Splendid Specimen Stealthily Tracked and Finally Brought Down—It is Highly Exhilarating but Exceedingly Dangerous Sport—A Word Picture.

The current number of the Cosmopolitan Magazine contains an exceedingly spirited article by Macmahon Challinor, entitled "How I Shot My First Elephant." It is descriptive of a hunt in Ceylon, and the story of the final experience runs thus:

It must be 10 or 11 o'clock. We have crawled ten or twelve miles. I can't go on much longer. Heat! Why, perspiration was pouring out of us; our clothes were wringing wet. The only thing that did not look as if it was dying was the old chap in front of us. He had not turned a hair, and his tracking now was wonderful, indeed. Not a sign or track or broken branch or anything could I see; but on he went, slowly—because locomotion had to be slow in such stuff—but with most wonderful certainty, as though he saw the elephant itself ahead of him. So we went on and on, from bad to worse, for another two hours or so, and then he suddenly stopped. I ran into "L;" Vellian, of course, dashed the rifle into the same hole which he had almost jabbed right through me by this time. No one could see, and any stoppage in front meant a collision along the whole line.

For hours I had been carrying a ten-pound rifle and I had realized the earnestness of life. I had made up my mind that, once through with my first elephant, the rest were safe. Never, no never, not for the finest tusker, would I again go through all the agony I had been enduring since 6 o'clock. Yes, my mind was fully made up, this was my first and last elephant. I had thought of nothing but this determination for hours, when this sudden stoppage took place.

"What is up? Is he there?" This was the expression on every face. All my keenness was back. I felt equal to anything.

"L" and Bohomo-Hondi hold a whispered confab, and I almost kill myself in my efforts to hear what it is all about. Not a word can I make out. The excitement is intense. Quite too awful. Then the old man disappears in the undergrowth, gliding away like a snake, without the slightest sound of effort, the undergrowth closing behind him, leaving not a sign of him.

Crawling up to "L," I whisper: "What is it?" "S——h! s——h!" says "L." Now, my whisper had hardly been a whisper. I had looked it more than anything, and to be met with a scowl and s——h was fearfully irritating. "L" then went on to whisper something, but what on earth he said I could not make out, for just then my hat brushed against a tree, deadening all other sounds. Having recovered this shock, I again looked "What is it?" Thump came something into the small of my back, and, glaring around, I see my faithful Vellian, also looking "What is it?" He, too, had crept up, terror depicted all over him.

At this moment the ludicrousness of the whole thing burst upon me. I could not help laughing. Seizing my handkerchief I stuffed it into my mouth. Stop laughing I could not. The agonised expression on "L's" face was terrible. Throwing myself on the ground I buried my face in my arms, but whenever I looked up and saw the perspiring faces, protrudent eyes and woe begone appearance of the coolies and the intense anxiety depicted on "L's" face lest my giggling should be heard, off I went again into paroxysm after paroxysm of laughter. Looking up on one of these occasions I saw Bohomo-Hondi, who had returned as quietly as he had gone, staring at me with the utmost contempt and an almost fiendish look of rage. I saw the old chap had lost all respect for me, and this stopped my giggling fit. "One must maintain one's dignity even in a cane brake."

"The 'rogue' was close here, had been lying down, but seemed restless and had got up and gone on," said the old chap, in a whisper, evidently implying that I was the cause. "What do you propose?" said "L." "I think I know where he is going and we must make a detour and cut him off. He has gone to the river," said Bohomo-Hondi. "That is just as well," said "L," "for I would not go near him in this jungle." "No, no," mumbled the old man in a doubtful way. (No, no, nor he neither) that was very certain.

We now turned to our right, and after some time in the same sort of going we had been having so much of, we struck a ridge with a very decent game track on it. Here one could walk upright and in comparative comfort. The jungle got more open as we went along, and presently we struck on an old abandoned paddy field; not a house to be seen; everything growing up into jungle.

"The people are all dead—fever;" said the old man with the greatest unconcern. And I wondered how many villages he had seen pass away. From his age, which might have been centuries, but more for his utter unconcern, I came to the conclusion that he must have seen many. He seemed to think nothing whatever of it.

Crossing this woe-begone and forlorn village we halted, and the old man said he would go and reconnoitre and see if the "rogue" had not stopped at the old tank here, before going on as far as the river. The tank in all probability was dry, but still might have a little water in it, sufficient to tempt the elephant down, he thought: so off he went to see, we sitting down meantime. "The tank is just here, the old man won't be more than five minutes," whispered "L."

Visions of water, cool, refreshing water, floated before me, when "Enawa malaimavia"—the old man was back. The "rogue" was there. He was down in the tank and seemed very restless; we had better come quickly. Taking up a handful of sand, the old chap, holding his hand aloft, let it slowly pour away, observing most carefully which way the wind carried it. To me, uninitiated, there did not appear to be a breath of wind, but he made up his mind at once that we must go round. Trudging off, we once more crossed the abandoned paddy field, and entering the jungle, crept stealthily along. I Presently heard something. It was not my confounded hat this time, but most certainly a breaking branch. Yes, there goes another! The "rogue" had left the tank then, he was restless. How my heart throbbed against my ribs! Here, at least, was the "rogue." Staring into the jungle I could see nothing, but from the noise I knew he must be quite near. Ah, Bohomo-Hondi points at something! "L" stoops, nods, and, turning round, beckons to me, his perspiring face beaming with delight. He points into the jungle, and though I strain my eyes in that direction until they nearly drop out of my head, I can make out nothing. How I did stare! I could see nothing, nothing whatever, nothing but jungle. Suddenly something moving caught my eye. Good heavens, 'tis the "rogue's" tail! Here within fifteen feet, I had all this time mistaken his huge form for a rock; I had no idea we were so close as that. Yes, there he was! He evidently did not know we were there, for he was slowly swinging one leg to and fro, and with his ears cocked was keenly watching the path he had himself just come along, evidently expecting something. Yes, there was no doubt about it, he had either scented us or heard us, and was now lying in wait, probably to make a charge.

By jove! how lucky it was he had not done that in the fearful stuff we had crept through earlier in the day. We could never have escaped. "L" slowly, with his rifle clutched in his hand, creeps inch by inch nearer to the "rogue." He gets to within ten feet of him, the "rogue" stops swinging his leg to and fro and suddenly wheels round on "L." "L's" rifle is raised, bang! bang! There is a screaming trumpet, a swaying of trees in all directions and the "rogue" has gone. "Come on," shouts "L."

Off we dash, tearing our way through the jungle and the jungle tearing its way through us. The whole place is covered with blood, and there can be no doubt that the elephant is badly wounded.

"Look out!" Bohomo-Hondi stops and beckons me, and I creep up to him, for 'tis my turn now. Oh, yes, there he is looking straight at me about twenty feet off. "Look out, he's going to charge! Wait until he's quite close; I'll back you up," whispers "L." W-r-r-r-r! here he comes, everything falling in all directions! The noise of his trumpet, the swaying of the trees, the crashing and then the awful thud, who can describe them? "Well done, old man; you stood that charge like a veteran."

Yes, there he was. I had got my elephant. How? Well, even now, after all this description, I hardly know how it had happened. He had charged right on to me, and I had dropped him with my first shot. That was quite certain, for there he was, his huge carcass only seven feet from where I stood.

It was more good luck than good management. Had the bullet not killed him instaneously he must have crushed me in his fall.

Where were the coolies? They were conspicuously absent. There was my other rifle lying on the ground, but not a cooly to be seen. The intrepid Vellian had not been able to stand that charge, and "seeing Parpen get up a tree, why, he did so, too."

Our prize was a magnificent elephant, fully nine feet. "L's" two bullets had penetrated a little too far back to be fatal. The shot he got was a difficult one, the suddenness of the elephant's swerve round putting him off, or possibly the bullets may have glanced off a sapling. This old "rogue" had foiled him several times.

Old Bohomo-Hondi meantime has taken off the tail, which he hands to me with great politeness, and I see I am once more installed in the old man's good graces, from the manner in which I shot "my first elephant."

APHORISMS.

The anticipation of evil is the death of happiness.—Jane Porter.

Inquisitive people are the funnels of conversation; they may not take in anything for their own use, but merely to pass it to another.—Steele.

Mental pleasures never cloy. Unlike those of the body, they are increased by repetition, approved of by reflection, and strengthened by enjoyment.—Colton.

Energy will do anything that can be done in this world; and no talents, no circumstances, no opportunities will make a two-legged animal a man without it—Goethe.

Justice is itself the great standing policy of civil society, and any eminent departure from it, under any circumstance, lies under the suspicion of being no policy at all.—Burke.

It is a good thing to laugh, at any rate; and if a straw can tickle a man it is an instrument of happiness. Beasts can weep when they suffer, but they cannot laugh.—Dryden.

Good manners are the blossom of good sense and good feeling. If the law of kindness be written in the heart, it will lead to that disinterestedness in both great and little things—that desire to oblige, and that attention to the gratifications of others, which are the foundation of good manners—Swift.

One for Nothing.

The editor of The Week, a paper published in the Indian Territory, refused to insert a death notice free, and the man who brought it in pulled his gun and popped the editor over with the remark: "All right! I'll give you a chance to put in one for yourself for nothing!" He will, however, hang for it.

BUY NOW IF AT ALL.

EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Ebis property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighborhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 1891.

HIS LOVE WAS ABIDING.

An English Crank's Messages to His Lady Love.

LONDON, May 12.—At the Brighton Police Court to-day Frederick Muspratt, aged 24, was charged with writing letters to Miss Ethel Guest of No. 12 Walpole-terrace, containing threats of murder. Muspratt is of good family and is an undergraduate of Cambridge University, studying for holy orders. Miss Guest is a pretty girl of 17 and belongs to a well-respected family in Brighton, moving in the best society. The pair had been engaged to each other for some time, but the letters written by Muspratt to Miss Guest were of such an inflammatory and passionate nature that the young lady's mother took alarm and induced her daughter to break off the engagement.

After the rupture the prisoner had followed Miss Guest from place to place, and eventually the particular letter complained of was received. The prisoner, it seems, had purchased a large army revolver, bought a copy of Shakespeare's plays and sent a bullet through the pages of the tragedy of "Othello" and then sent the book all smeared with blood to the young girl, but by mistake had put it into a wrong envelope. Miss Guest now went in fear of her life and prayed the court for protection.

The Rev. Alfred Waller, curate at Tunbridge Wells, stated that he had been at Queen's College, Cambridge, during the time the prisoner was there, and knew him. He had received a telegram from the prisoner asking him to do all he could to aid him, as he (Muspratt) was utterly desperate. He afterwards saw the prisoner in Brighton, when the latter told him that he had planned to carry off Miss Guest and had arranged all the details, but had failed in his efforts, because one of the men who had promised to assist him had disappointed him, fearing the punishment of penal servitude if they should be caught. The prisoner gave him the particulars of the scheme and produced a pair of handcuffs and a dagger which, he said, he intended to use upon himself if the abduction failed. Evidence as to the purchase of the revolver by the prisoner was also given. Muspratt was committed for trial.

A Bartender Knifed

HAMILTON, May 12.—Pat Wolfe, a bartender at the St. Nicholas Hotel, was stabbed several times with a knife by one Richard Hutchinson in a row yesterday afternoon. The wounds are not serious.

ATTACKED BY A JAP.

THE CZAREWITCH OF RUSSIA SERIOUSLY WOUNDED.

A Fanatic, Armed With a Short Sword Succeeds in Badly Cutting the Young Romanoff Prince Before He is Beaten Off.

LONDON, May 12.—A despatch received here from Japan officially confirms the report that an attempt has been made upon the life of the Czarewitch and that he had been wounded in the head by a fanatic. The despatch says the attack upon the heir to the Russian throne was made yesterday and that the scene of the attempted assassination was at Otsu, on Lake Biwa, 12 miles from Kioto, now officially called Saikio, or Western Capital, the former capital of Japan, on the Island on Honsu, 35 miles by rail northeast of Osako and 250 miles southwest of Tokyo. The Czarewitch, who has been traveling in India and China for some time past, recently returned to Hong Kong from Canton and started for Foo Chow and Hankow. After leaving China the Czarewitch started for Japan.

Particulars of the Assault.

SHANGHAI, May 12.—The Czarewitch had gone to a picturesque resort known as Otsu on Lake Biwaumi, six miles from Kioto, Japan. There a native policeman, Tsuda Zanso, struck the Czarewitch on the head with a sword with intent to murder him, but owing to the toughness and thickness of the Czarewitch's sun helmet the wound inflicted by the sword was not serious. The injury is described as a sword cut on the side of the forehead. The Czarewitch and party immediately returned to Kioto and there obtained surgical assistance. It is believed the culprit is insane, or that brooding over fancied wrongs he was tempted to commit the deed by the presence of the illustrious guest. The Emperor and his ministers hurried to Kioto to express their concern.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 12.—The official account confirms the despatch from Shanghai about the attack on the Czarewitch, and adds that as the assailant raised his weapon for a second blow Prince George of Greece floored him with his walking stick. The Czarewitch himself telegraphed his father that his injury was not serious enough to change his program.

YOKOHAMA, May 12.—According to advices received here the wounds inflicted on the Czarewitch are more serious than reported or than at first supposed. Further particulars of the affair are anxiously expected here. The utmost regret at the occurrence is expressed in Government diplomatic circles.

FRANCE AND NEWFOUNDLAND.

The French Senate Adopts the Committee's Report of [illegible].

PARIS, May 12.—The Senate has approved of the report made by the committee on the Newfoundland arbitration convention. Before the adoption of the report the Marquis de Beaumanois said there was no need to add to the number of treaties existing, remarking: "We are at home on the French shore and can make our own police regulations. The British have no right to know whether we fish for lobsters or not. They have no right to come there. Treaties often savor of drawing-room diplomacy. The Minister of Marine ought to strengthen the resolution of his colleagues. Ironclads are not meant for mere naval promenades."

Senator Lenvoi argued that France ran no risk in referring the matter to arbitration, "as our rights do not form part of the reference to the arbitrators."

M. Ribot, Minister of Foreign Affairs, said that both Governments were obliged to proceed on parallel lines in order to place themselves in accord with their respective Legislatures. There was no doubt that the English convention bill would pass.

A LISBON EXPLOSION.

LISBON, May 12.—In the midst of the alarm caused here by the financial panic, a sensation was caused to-day by an explosion, supposed to be the work of the Republican party, which took place in the Ministry of the Interior. The authorities are keeping the facts from the public, but it is known that the explosion was caused by a dynamite bomb, which caused a tremendous report and did considerable damage.

Chat From Over the Sea.

All Jews are being expelled from beyond the Caspian.

Thirty-five hundred weavers have struck at Ghent.

Joseph Chamberlain and Lord Hartington are down with influenza.

There was a panicky feeling in the London Stock Exchange yesterday. Berlin and Paris Bourses were depressed.

The House of Commons yesterday expelled Capt. Verney. De Cobain will also be expelled in a day or two.

The South Wales miners' conference, by a vote of 87 to 27 has resolved to continue the agitation for a working day of eight hours.

The Belgian Government has threatened to expel Gen. Boulanger from the country unless he is silent on political matters.

For Counterfeiting.

SANDWICH, May 12.—John Stinson and his son William were placed on trial here to-day for having in their possession tools used in the manufacture of bogus American silver dollars. The prisoners have a farm in Rochester Township, Essex County, and had, at the time of their arrest in January last, a restaurant in Detroit. The prisoners were arrested on the farm and the tools on which the charge is based were found on it. Detectives Mulhall and Turnbull were the principal witnesses examined to-day. The former testified that the prisoners made counterfeit money in his presence and sold it to him, thinking he belonged to the crooked fraternity.

Was Not Drunk.

HAMILTON, May 12.—Before the police commissioners this morning Big Jim Mackenzie, the well-known detective, was charged with getting a jag on, so to speak, during the forenoon on April 3, and that while in that state he visited the house of J. E. Berryman and insulted the Queen, Sir John A. Macdonald, Berryman and his wife. It was brought out by the evidence of Chief McKinnon, Dr. Wallace and others that the offender was dazed with quinine and not with liquor and the case was allowed to drop.

Crawford Coates of Belmont has obtained the coveted honor of securing the first century of the season. His score of 148 was compiled in about three hours and a half, and was a masterly exhibition of batting.

Cornwall will take advantage of Montreal's absence in Toronto and play an exhibition game with the Shamrocks in Montreal on May 26.

The Shamrocks will decide at their next meeting whether to join Montreal and Toronto or stay in the newly formed sebb league.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

The "Philosopher's Stone" Fraud and His Dupes.

LONDON, May 10.—Edward Pinter, alias "Sheeny Al," also said to be known in New York under the name of Sondheim, the American swindler who has been reaping gold in Europe by pretending to be possessed of the Philosopher's Stone, was again under examination to-day at the Marlborough-street Police Court charged with attempting to obtain $41,000 by false pretences from Edwin Streeter, a Bond-street jeweler. Pinter, who was arrested on May 4, had previously induced Streeter to go to his (Pinter's) bedroom at Storey's hotel, where, so as to test the American's claim, Streeter handed Printer a sovereign, which the latter threw into a crucible covered with some kind of a powder, and after appearing to melt it pulled out a lump of gold equal in weight to three sovereigns. "Sheeny Al" then suggested that Streeter should furnish him with 10,000 sovereigns, which he would transform by the use of the Philosopher's Stone into gold weighing 24,000 sovereigns, or equal to £120,000. Streeter appeared to agree to this and asked that Pinter should go to his jewelry works to further test the power of the Philosopher's Stone. Pinter consented and appeared there on May 4, placed two sovereigns in a crucible, covered them with the powder and placed the crucible and its contents in a heated furnace. Streeter, however, had become suspicious and when the gold was simmering he gave a signal which brought two Scotland Yard detectives from concealment in the workshop and Pinter was arrested.

When arraigned to-day Pinter insisted he could increase the weight of gold and asked if it was just that he should be compelled to divulge his secret in court. Thereupon Streeter called attention to the fact that Pinter, while claiming to increase the weight of gold, refused to make the increase with gold bars and kept everybody away from the crucible while the "experiment" was being conducted, claiming the fumes of the acid he used would kill anybody who approached it without being thoroughly prepared for and guarded against the fumes.

Messrs. Avery & Pollard appeared as counsel for the Public Prosecutor under instructions from the Treasury Department. Mr. Avery said the game the prisoner played was of the most simple nature possible. He made it a condition of his "experiments" that the sovereigns were to remain in the acid or composition which he used for a certain time. The prisoner would then use materials which produced such a horrible stench that everybody present at the "experiment" was glad to rush away. When they returned to ascertain the result of the American's work they found the prisoner and the sovereigns gone. Several years ago Pinter played this trick with success in Liverpool. He then managed to get 500 sovereigns and vanished. The hearing was then adjourned.

Among the people said to have been victimized by Pinter's Philosopher's Stone is a member of the Rothschild family and a member of the firm of Baring Bros.

CONSIDERABLE OBJECTION.

Want of Harmony in the Camp of Legislative Prohibitionists.

OTTAWA, May 12.—At a conference of Senators and members of Parliament interested in prohibition held in the tower room this morning, the action of the Alliance Committee on Legislation at their meeting last week was endorsed and it was decided to introduce the immediate prohibition resolution agreed upon at the earliest practicable moment. There were some differences of opinion on matters of detail. The meeting was rather stormy at the outset, as the result of the announcement made by the chairman, Mr. Jamieson, that he intended to move the resolution adopted by the Alliance Committee, thus shutting off any alteration which this meeting might propose. A number of members opposed to immediate prohibition objected to the resolution and held that the present meeting was altogether useless if they were not to be allowed to declare what shape the Parliamentary action should take. Amongst those strongly objecting were Messrs. Taylor and Trow, the chief whips of the Government and Opposition respectively. They declared that many members favorably disposed to the principle of prohibition would be compelled to vote against the proposed immediate enforcement. Finally the dissidents left the room and the members remaining endorsed the resolution as above stated.

MURDER OF CHARLES III.

Commits Suicide at Buenos Ayres Under the Wheels of a Train.

LONDON, May 11.—Many there are who will remember the commotion that was caused when the news was spread in March, 1854, that Charles III. of the Duchy of Parma, in Italy, had been stabbed to death by an assassin. All the police authorities in Europe were long in search of the murderer, but they failed to find him and the foul deed has long ceased to be spoken about. But a man known as Louis Barda lately committed suicide at Buenos Ayres by throwing himself down before a railway train. He has left behind him documents which, as it is now made known, perfectly satisfy the Italian police that the self-murderer was none other than Cara, the assassin of Charles III.

Printing Office Burned.

MILLBROOK, May 12.—About 10 o'clock on Monday night The Millbrook Reporter printing office was destroyed by fire. The printing plant, owned by T. B. Collins & Co., was a total loss. The plant was insured in the Norwich Union for $1500, the building in the Western for $800.

The World's Championship to be Contested for in Australia in July.

SYDNEY, N.S.W., May 12.—A match has been fixed between McLean and Stanbury, the oarsmen, for the championship and £200 a side, the contest to take place on the Paramatta River, July 7.

As expected the hungry Australians will not let the world's sculling championship leave their soil. If Stanbury should win this race he will find some excuse for postponing American visit and race with O'Connor. Should McLean win then Stanbury's patriotism will not be violated by a trip to this continent.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

PRINCE EDWARD'S ISLAND DAY IN THE COMMONS.

Annual Grumbling From the Kicking Little Province in the Gulf—Free Petroleum for Fuel—Labor Legislation—Several Motions.

OTTAWA, May 12.—This was Prince Edward Island's day in the Commons so far as any debating was concerned, and the House was treated to a small dose of annual grumble from the kicking little province in the Gulf. The debate was not long or important, but marked by the manner in which the Postmaster-General "hit back" when the postal service on the Island was attacked.

The debate arose over a motion of Perry for returns relative to service performed by the steamer Stanley and spread as usual over the somewhat threadbare subject of winter communication with the island, including an effort on the part of Davies to get an expression of opinion from the Minister of Marine on the tunnel scheme and a complaint about the mail service. Messrs. Perry and Davies did the talking, the former pointing out that there was a lack of proper winter service and the latter admitting that the Stanley had proved an efficient boat, but complained that a responsible officer of the Marine Department was wanted on the island.

Mr. Tupper moved an amendment that the return include a report from the Deputy Minister of Marine on the Stanley, which he said would show that the delay of three days at opening of season was caused by circumstances over which the department had no control.

Then Mr. Haggart had a whack at the matter and said that the debate had assumed a wider range than the motion indicated, and if he had supposed that the postal service would have been attacked he would have prepared some statistics about the postal service in Prince Edward Island. He would, however, remind the hon. gentleman that the postal receipts of the Island last year were $32,000, from which commissions had to be deducted, leaving less than $19,000. The cost of ordinary transportation was $13,000 and $17,000 for transportation by railway, and this without cost of supplies or carrying of the mails by boat. The postal receipts in Prince Edward Island were the smallest in proportion to the population of any part of the Dominion. In fact the postoffice department spent more than double the receipts for the purpose of accommodating the Island.

A number of private bills were introduced to-day, including one by Col. Denison, respecting the London & Canadian Loan & Agency Company, and one by Dr. Montague respecting the Canada & Michigan Tunnel Company, and another respecting the River St. Clair Bridge & Tunnel Company. [illegible] introduced a bill to amend the act incorporating the Empire Printing and Publishing Company.

In introducing his bill for codification of the criminal law, Sir John Thompson said that as its title implied it was for the codification of the criminal laws, but it would also embrace some new legislation based on the English code.

George Taylor, M.P., to-day introduced to the Minister of Finance Chillian Jones and William Byers, a deputation of manufacturers from Gananoque, who presented a petition that petroleum for fuel purposes be admitted free when imported by manufacturers. The petition sets forth many manufacturers have put in expensive machinery for using petroleum mixed with air as fuel. Petroleum then cost $1 per barrel, now it costs $1.35, owing to Canadian supply giving out, and unless they are allowed to [illegible] it free they will have to take out their machinery and revert to use of coal.

Dr. Dawson of the Geological Survey has been elected a member of the Royal Society of Great Britain. This is the highest honor a scientist can attain and only enjoyed by three Canadians.

Messrs. Ingram and Lepine, the representatives of labor in the House, have arranged with the Government for an interview on Monday next with a deputation of the Executive of the Dominion Trades and Labor Council, who will present the views of the council as to what legislation is desired by labor bodies.

The annual meeting of the Press Gallery was held this morning and the following officers were elected: President, L. P. Kribs, Toronto Empire; vice-president, T. P. Gorman, Ottawa Free Press; secretary, Horace Wallis, Toronto Mail; executive committee, J. A. Phillips, London Free Press; W. A. Harkin, Montreal Star; Fred Cook, Toronto Empire; A. J. Magurn, Toronto Globe. A resolution was passed cordially endorsing the proposition of the Canadian Press Association to hold their annual meeting for 1892 at Ottawa during session of Parliament and promising to do everything possible to make this visit a pleasant one. The gallery will pay its annual visit to the Speaker in the morning.

The state ball is in progress at Rideau Hall to-night and is largely attended by a number of members of Parliament and their wives and daughters.

Mr. Barron will ask on Thursday whether the Trent Valley Canal Commission has reported in favor of the completion of the scheme and also does the Government intend to ask Parliament this session for a grant for the purpose.

Mr. McMullen will on Thursday next ask what was the amount on deposit in each postoffice and Dominion Savings Bank on May 1.

Mr. Lepine gives notice that he will ask for copies of all correspondence between the workman's associations of Canada and the Minister of Agriculture with reference to the establishment of the bureau of labor statistics for the Dominion.

Hyman will ask on Thursday whether it is the intention of the Government to make a new issue of sac-tiery to the first regiment of cavalry in lieu of that condemned by the board of officers appointed for the purpose of examining the same.

Jamieson gives notice that he will move on Thursday next: "That in the opinion of this house the time has arrived when it is expedient to prohibit the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes."

Thompson announced in the House to-day that proclamation would be issued declaring Monday, 25th May, the date for celebrating Queen's birthday.

Dyspepsia

Intense Suffering for 8 years—Restored to Perfect Health.

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1873 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it had cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 1891.

THOUGH the Tories can point to a large majority from the Maritime Provinces they cannot honestly say that the people are in favor of trade restriction.—Toronto Globe.

Of course not. They were opposed to restricting the trade of Canada to the United States and consequently elected Conservative representatives.

Facts About our Railway System.

Within the pages of the annual report of the Department of Railways and Canals—that branch of the public service over which the veteran Premier, with his long experience and sound judgment, so ably presides—there are imbedded, in a mass of other statistical information, many facts of great interest and importance.

It does not mean very much to the average person to be told that we have so many miles of railway, carrying this much freight annually and earning so and so per year. A statement, however, like the following, compiled from the latest report and the one for 1878, shows the tremendous advances we have made in railway construction during the period of Conservative administration:—

	1878.	1890.
Miles in operation	6,143	13,626
Passengers carried	6,443,[illegible]	12,151,[illegible]
Tons of freight carried	7,883,472	17,924,626
Paid up capital	$360,617,186	$700,576,446
Gross earnings	20,[illegible]	46,[illegible]
Working expenses	16,100,102	31,[illegible]

This is a record in twelve years of which any country in the world could be proud. The annual report deals in detail of course, only with the roads owned and controlled by the Government, the chief of these being the Intercolonial. That line which, with its various extensions, is 894 miles long, and has cost to date $46,906,283, is worth to Canada,—in the Union of which it was the necessary complement, in the interprovincial trade it has created, in the community of interest and sentiment it has been the means of sustaining—every penny of the large sum laid out upon it. According to Mr. Longley, one of the Opposition trade authorities, there is no commerce between Old Canada and the Maritime Provinces, and the little that exists is in defiance of God and Nature. Yet in the face of this dictum, we find that there are now four available routs between Halifax and Montreal, in all of which the Intercolonial is utilized.

The road carried more freight and passengers last year than in any year of its previous history, but the revenue fell off owing to the opening of the "Short Line" and expenditures upon new rails and iron bridges. There was an increase of 79,000 in the number of passengers, an increase of 142,087 tons in the quantity of freight carried and an increase of $92,716 in the earnings, so that the usefulness and necessity of the line are amply vindicated.

That the interprovincial trade promoted by the Intercolonial is of growing and vital importance may be judged by the following table given at page 23 of the report:

	1889.	1890.	Increase.
Barrels of flour	927,014	1,094,186	167,172
Bushels of grain	1,819,963	2,897,951	1,078,988
Lumber in feet	197,545,777	209,904,071	12,358,294
Head of live stock	77,661	80,065	2,404
Other goods in tons	814,960	917,009	92,046

What it Costs

Must be carefully considered by the great majority of people in buying even necessities of life. Hood's Sarsaparilla commends itself with special force to the great middle classes, because it combines positive economy with great medicinal power. It is the only medicine of which can truly be said "100 Doses One Dollar," and a bottle taken according to directions will average to last month.

THE GYPSY'S WARNING.

Trust him not, O gentle lady,
  Though his voice be low and sweet,
Heed not him who kneels before thee
  Softly pleading at thy feet.
Now thy life is in its morning,
  Cloud not this, thy happy lot,
Listen to the gypsy's warning—
  Gentle lady, heed him not!

Lady, turn not from me coldly,
  I have only told the truth;
From a stern and with'ring sorrow,
  I would only shield thy youth;
I would shield thee from all danger,
  Save thee from the tempter's snare—
Lady, shun the dark-eyed stranger,
  I have warned thee—now, beware!

Lady, once there lived a maiden,
  Young and pure, and, like thee fair,
But he wooed—he wooed and won her,
  Filled her gentle heart with care;
Then he heeded not her weeping,
  Nor cared he her life to save;
Soon she perished, now she's sleeping
  In the cold and silent grave.

Keep thy gold, I do not want it;
  Lady, I have prayed for this—
For the hour when I might foil him,
  Rob him of expected bliss!
Lo! I see thou'rt filled with wonder
  At my looks so fierce and wild—
Lady, in the church-yard, yonder,
  Sleeps the gypsy's only child.

SCIENCE AND PROGRESS.

INTERESTING PARAGRAPHS CULLED FROM VARIOUS FIELDS.

The Profligacy of the Elements—Sir Lyon Playfair's Humorous Account of the Advance of Chemical Knowledge—The Latest Science Notes.

One of the results of fifty years' advance in chemistry is that you have introduced a great deal of profligacy into the elements. When I was young we always taught that oxygen was the universal lover, and joined freely with almost everybody, while nitrogen was a confirmed bachelor, and could only be put into union under great difficulty. But now, how completely this is all changed. Oxygen is now a respectable bigamist, while nitrogen, which acts so meekly in the atmosphere, when it gets out of it becomes a terrible polygamist, for it takes three and sometimes even five conjugates at a time, and produces bodies of a remarkable character.

I have two friends, one of whom, Hofmann, is not here, but the other, Dr. Perkin, is, and they have done very much to corrupt the morality of the nitrogen of my youth. They have not only taught us what it can do in the way of conjugates, but have shown it to be a most fickle body, from whom you may take one conjugate and readily replace it by another, and thus produce most remarkable compounds. Sometimes they carried their efforts so far that nitrogen became apparently ashamed of itself and blushed as rosanilin or became scarlet as magenta and even, when moved by strong emotion, became purple as mauve.

Occasionally chemists have tried to get nitrogen back to good habits, to be content with more simple conjugates, and be content with fewer elements in combination. But see how it revenges itself. Curtius and Radenhausen have lately described a most extraordinary compound — azoimide — in which three atoms of nitrogen unite with one atom of hydrogen. This was most unfair, for three atoms of nitrogen ought to have at least nine atoms of hydrogen. But they compelled it to do with one, and what is the consequence? They had to make it take the form of a liquid, and when in that condition it exploded with such violence as to break every glass vessel in the laboratory, and, I am sorry to say, injured one of the persons who tried to force it into this unnatural union.

I have therefore some right to complain that the respectable nitrogen of my youth has become a most profligate element under your tuition. And what shall I say of carbon? How different was the carbon of 1841 from the carbon which we now know. At that time we knew, of course, that it was combined in most organic bodies, and Liebig had determined the constitution of the bodies, into which it entered, but then we did not require to puzzle ourselves with those fearful complications of diagrams and graphic methods by which we now represent the tenacity of carbon for various substances.

These methods are very difficult for the pupil to follow. I am sure that if Cullen, who invented the system of chemical diagrams, could come to life again and see the wonderful methods by which chemical combinations are now represented, he would ask to go back to his grave again and rest.

Chemical substances now have such astounding properties. If there are two bodies which I thought I knew most thoroughly they are the quiet, and respectable compounds called in my old professional days carbonic oxide and carbonic acid. But the respectable quiet carbonic oxide of 1841 was shown the other day by Mond to run away with nickel in the state of a gas—a quiet stable element like nickel. And then when it was followed in hot pursuit, by raising the temperature a few degrees, it dropped the nickel like a hot potato.—Nature.

The Olfactometer.

The olfactometer of M. Charles Henry, recently exhibited to the Academie des Sciences, Paris, measures one's smelling powers. It determines the weight of odorous vapor in a cubic centimetre of air which is preceptible by the olfactory sense of a person. It is based on the fact that a membrane, such as paper, allows a vapor to diffuse across it at a certain rate. M. Henry finds great difference of smell in power among people, but in general from one to two thousands of a milligramme of vapor of wintergreen or other per centimetre of air can be felt. The more agreeable the scent the more of it is required to produce an effect.

Opening Safes by Electricity.

The Elektro-Technische Zeitung says that any safe, however strong, can be opened in the space of thirty minutes through the use of electricity. Connect the safe with one pole of the electric machine, put a carbon point on the other pole, place the latter against the safe, and in a few minutes the iron will be quite soft and easy to cut. The whole affair can be managed in a very short time, and without any noise or smell. Burglars, as a rule would not even have to encumber themselves with tools, as many banks are fitted with the electric-light, thus providing all the requisite implements.

"You Press the Button."

A curious costume for London fogs is said to be the invention of an American visitor, and is to be made of light waterproof cloth, to protect the wearer from the damp of the fog. It is to be compact and comfortable in cut, and furnished with buttons the size of a half-crown piece. The whole brilliancy of the new garment lies in the buttons, which will be really tiny electric lamps connected with a miniature battery concealed in the dress, after the style of those used by fairies in the pantomimes.

A Novel Railway Clock.

A railroad man has invented a novel clock to be used in connection with the block signal system. It is arranged with dials and figures, of unusual size, so that they may be readily seen by the engineers of rapidly moving trains. The hands mark the time of the passage of a train and remain in that position until another train appears. The engineer may thus learn from the clock exactly how long it was since the previous train passed the station.

THE CITY AND SUBURBS.

Taking the Levels.

Mr. J. E. Belcher, C.E., is pushing on the work of taking the levels of the town, which will be useful for general purposes and especially for drainage or sewerage.

Personal.

Mr. W. F. Gladman, of Dumble & Leonard's office, who recently passed his second intermediate law examination, has accepted a position in the office of Mr. John Akers, of Toronto. He will leave for the Queen City this week.

The Strong Man Coming.

The Cricket Club have decided to bring to Peterborough the celebrated Samson, Louis Cyr. This man is probably the strongest man living and his wonderful feats of strength have attracted large crowds to see him all over the United States. His exhibitions are of a very interesting and decidedly novel character and should draw a large audience to the Opera House. He will be here some time about May 29th.

Some Real Estate Deals.

There is considerable activity in real estate in town at present. Mr. Chas. Stapleton yesterday held a sale of twelve lots on Romaine-st. at the southern limit of the town. Six of the lots were sold at figures varying from $215 to $300. The handsome new white brick residence of Mr. George Elliott's on Rubidge-st. was also offered, but was not sold. There were several offers, the highest being a good figure. Competition at both sales was good.

Overworked, broken down, prematurely aged men or those suffering from excesses or indiscretions will find a certain cure in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They supply the material necessary to enrich the blood, build up the nerves and restore the shattered system. Never fail. Sold by all dealers, or sent on receipt of price—50c. per box, or five boxes for $2—by addressing The Dr. Williams Med. Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Rangers in Red.

The 57th Battalion paraded at the drill shed last evening. About 120 men mustered and were practiced in battalion movements, and the feu de joi for the 24th.

Lieut. Stevenson is officer on duty for the week and a guard will be mounted at the drill shed every Tuesday night hereafter.

The Battalion will march out on Tuesday next, with the band.

The regimental orders included the following promotions:—

Ptes. F. G. Goldsmith and P. F. Meharry, of "C" Company promoted to be corporals.

Ex-Sergt. D. Belleghem appointed to be hospital Sergt.

A Coming Convention.

A Christian Alliance convention, similar to the one held two years ago, will be held here on June 9th, 10th and 11th. Rev. A. B. Simpson, Rev. Dr. Wilson and Mrs. Whittimore, of New York, and probably two or three others, will make a visit to Canada and hold four conventions, in Hamilton, Toronto, Peterborough and Ottawa. Rev. Mr. Simpson is President of the Alliance and also of the International Missionary Alliance. He is an able speaker and gave up a pastorate worth $5,000 a year to enter this work. Rev. Dr. Wilson, of St. George's Anglican church, New York, was formerly of Kingston and is a native of Peterborough. He is a eloquent preacher and will be remembered on account of the prominent part he took in Salvation Army meetings while in Kingston. Mrs. Whittimore is a wealthy New York lady who has taken an active part in rescue work in that city. The delegation will be a powerful one. The meetings will be held in the Opera House and three meetings will be held each day.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is on the flood tide of popularity, which position it has reached by its own intrinsic, undoubted merit.

THE BOARD AND COUNCIL

WILL MEET AND CONSULT OVER THE SCHOOL ACCOMMODATION.

Meeting of the Board of Education—The Question of Increase of Salaries—Applications Dealt With—Some Sanitary Matters—The Question of the Institute Building to be Discussed by the Board and Town Council at a Joint Meeting.

At eight o'clock last evening the necessary quorum for the meeting of the Board of Education were seated in the Board room and Chairman Wrighton took his seat and business was proceeded with. There was quite a grist of committee reports and these with the talk over the Institute accommodation furnished the programme for the short session. The members present were Messrs. McKee, Burnham, Denne, Bradburn, Ferguson, Hamilton, Rutherford, Corkery, McBain and Dumble.

The minutes being read and confirmed communications and accounts were disposed of.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Mr. John Miller, Deputy Minister of Education, wrote stating that the suggestion of the Board in regard to one member of the Board being also a Councillor will receive the Minister's attention.

The Boiler Inspection and Insurance Co. of Canada, head office at Toronto, wrote placing the claims of the company before the Board and soliciting patronage when their counsel was needed.

ACCOUNTS.

The following accounts were presented:—

R. W. Errett, piano	$225 00
Light and Power Co.	7 20
W. H. Clazton, insurance	3 75
J. W. Crosby, rent for piano	14 00
M. S. Macdonald	77 86

These accounts were referred to the Finance Committee.

FEES AND ATTENDANCE.

The fees for April were reported as follows:—

Collegiate Institute	$360 00
Public Schools	30 00
Kindergarten	28 80

The reports of attendance for the month of April were as follows:—

	On Roll	Ave.
Collegiate Institute	196	174
Central school	546	465
North Ward	157	121
South Ward	343	276

THE QUESTION OF SALARIES.

Mr. DUMBLE, Chairman, read two reports of the Committee on Appointments as follows:—

The Committee on Appointments beg to report in reference to the several applications made by teachers for an increase of salary, that they do not feel justified in recommending any increase of teachers' salaries at the present time.

The committee recommend that after the midsummer vacation the salaries of all the teachers of the third grade be uniform, at $300 a year.

Your committee recommend that Drill Sergeant Rundle's salary be raised to $400 a year, to be reckoned from January 1st, 1891. At this salary Sergeant Rundle will be expected to act as truant officer when required.

Your committee recommend that the salary of John Lecheur, Janitor of the South Ward School, be $250 a year from January 1st, 1891, Mr. Lecheur to keep grounds in order, make all repairs he is able to make and obey instructions of the Chairman of the Property Committee.

As to the janitor of the North Ward School your committee recommend that his salary be $150 a year from January 1st, 1891, his duties to be the same as Mr. Lecheur's.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

D. W. DUMBLE,
Chairman.

THE INSPECTOR'S REPORT.

The Committee on Appointments beg to report on the report of Inspector Seath.

As to many minor matters therein referred to, the Principal of the Institute has directed his attention to them and will act upon the suggestion of the Inspector.

Your Committee congratulate the Board upon the marked improvement in the Institute reported by the Inspector and feel confident that his anticipation that this school will as to the staff shortly take its place as one of the best in the province will be realized.

Your Committee have given much anxious thought to that part of the Inspector's report which points out the inadequacy of the school building and appointments for High school purposes. Your Committee lament the necessity for using a basement story for a class room, as besides being low and ill ventilated, it is unhealthy and wholly unfit for teaching purposes for which it was never intended.

The time has come when the present crowded state of the schools can no longer be tolerated, but your committee can only suggest that new buildings must be erected somewhere, but whether public schools or a proper Institute building is a matter deserving much consideration and your committee without assuming to decide leave the matter in the hands of the Board.

D. W. DUMBLE,
Chairman.

Both of these reports were adopted.

THE MONEY MATTERS.

Dr. BURNHAM, Chairman, presented the report of the Finance Committee as follows:—

To the Chairman and Members of the Board of Education:

GENTLEMEN,—The Finance Committee recommend the payment of the following accounts:—

Denniston & Stevenson	$ 14 00
D. H. Kernaghan	6 00
Geo. McWilliams	3 00
J. R. Donnell	5 28
REVIEW Co.	16 16
Cox & Davis	45 00
Peterborough Water Co.	6 75
R. Gibbs	9 00
S. Nicholls	55 00
J. R. Stratton	166 71

Your committee recommend that Miss Ames be paid $10 and J. Butler $2.50 in full of their accounts.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEO. BURNHAM,
Chairman.

The report was adopted.

SOME SANITARY MATTERS.

Mr. Hamilton, in the absence of Mr. Stevenson, chairman, read the report of the Property Committee, as follows:—

The Property Committee beg leave to report that they have examined the North Ward School and grounds and find the water in the well all right and only requiring pumping out.

We find the West Ward School almost deserted in consequence of diphtheria and scarlet fever in the neighborhood. The closets are in a very filthy condition. They are deep and we are informed that it is impossible to empty them so long as J. White & Co's dam is kept filled. We would recommend that the present closets be filled up and that earth closets be substituted instead.

We also beg leave to recommend the purchase of the piano from R. W. Errett for $225. We consider it good value. The one at present in use in Miss Warren's room is very poor and we are paying for it rent at three dollars per month.

J. STEVENSON,
Chairman.

The report was adopted.

WILL BE HEARD FROM LATER.

Mr. DENNE made a verbal report as Chairman of the Supervision Committee but said the result of the committee's visits to the schools had been well covered by the Property Committee's report which had been presented.

THE ELECTION OF CHAIRMAN.

Mr. DUMBLE brought up the motion of which he had given notice at the last meeting, which provided for the election of a chairman by ballot without nomination, a majority of the whole Board being necessary to an election.

Dr. BURNHAM wanted an election to require only a majority of those present and moved an amendment to that effect.

The amendment was lost and the original motion carried.

THE QUESTION OF THE INSTITUTE.

Mr. DUMBLE then introduced the all important question of school buildings and accommodation. He pointed out that the crowded state of the schools demanded immediate action, either the making of some shift to increase the accommodation or the building of a new building.

Mr. DENNE said they might as well pass a resolution asking the Council to submit a by-law providing for $40,000 to erect an Institute building.

Mr. DUMBLE said when it came to the time when this was necessary they should go to the Town Council and consider the question together as it was a public one. An Institute building would not cost $40,000, a very good one being erected in Napanee for $21,000. At present they were paying $1600 a year rent, which was interest on $30,000, and this for poor accommodation. He thought the time had come for some action and in the next term they should give the Institute staff an opportunity to do good work by giving them good accommodation. Mr. Dumble thought the town was not burdened and the time having come some action should be taken. The Board should act unanimously. He would not move a motion asking for the submission of a by-law until after they had consulted with the Town Council.

TO CONSULT TOGETHER.

The question of getting some outside room to relieve the press on the Institute building and give the staff the use of one of the rooms now used by the public school was discussed. The Court House was mentioned and the Chairman went further and mentioned the gaol.

Mr. DUMBLE thought the cells might perhaps be better and more healthy accommodation than some of the present rooms.

After considerable discussion about the feasibility of making additions to the present building the opinion was expressed by nearly all the members that the wisest course would be to erect a new Institute building which would do away with all complaints of the Institute accommodation and give all necessary public school room that would be needed for years.

This feeling gave birth to the following resolution:—Moved by Mr. FERGUSON, seconded by Mr. MCKEE,—That the Town Council be invited to meet with the Board to confer with them in the matter of increased school accommodation.

This resolution was carried unanimously.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELIEF.

To supply the accommodation required immediately, Mr. FERGUSON moved, seconded by Mr. BRADBURN,—That the Supervision Committee make the necessary arrangements to accommodate two rooms for the public school.

This also carried.

The Board then adjourned.

"Minnie Belle" Arrives Here.

Mr. J. J. Daly's new equine purchase, "Minnie Belle," arrived here to-day from Lindsay and is in a comfortable box stall in the Grand Central stables. Mr. Daly is in town also and to-day had to listen to many admiring exclamations from those who inspected his new flyer. "Minnie Belle" is one of the prettiest mares ever seen here. She is a beautiful dark bay, with black points and is a finely formed animal, showing her good breeding. Apart from her speed—and she can travel—she is a magnificent beast, and all local horsemen should see her at the stables. She will probably show her speed in some of the local races before many days. She is groomed to perfection. "Jimmy," the colored groom who came with her and is greatly attached to the mare which he has been with for a couple of years past, knows his business and can give the best of them pointers.

"Ayer's Hair Vigor is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from experience. Its growth promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The Vigor is a sure cure for dandruff."—J. W. Bowen, Editor Enquirer, McArthur, Ohio.

Amusements.

At Bradburn's Opera House on May 15th will be given a first-class production of McKee Rankin and Fred Maeder's play, "The Runaway Wife." This is one of the few new plays before the public. It has been greeted with large and enthusiastic audiences in the cities where it has been seen this year and is considered by all a "strictly gilt-edged attraction" in every sense of the world. The play is worthy of patronage. The managers have spared neither time, money, nor energy to mount the play in the most approved manner possible and the piece will be produced here with every attention to detail. The star is Mr. Frank Evans, and his support is conceded by him to be the best he has ever had, as it should be to thoroughly carry out the ideas of the authors. A diminutive prodigy, "Lottie," said to be the brightest of all the children artists, who is not quite four years of age, will appear at each performance in her specialties. 1d

CHARLIE BUTLER IN THE TOILS.

Arrested on a Charge of Conspiring to Defraud—A Piano Deal the Cause of Arrest.

Mr. Charles Butler, known here in connection with the "Dominion Seed and Grain Co." and the "Dominion Piano Co.," which was registered here, has fallen into the toils at London, Ont., and from reports is in serious complications. Butler's modus operandi both in the seed and grain and piano deals have been fully dwelt upon in the columns of the REVIEW.

Of his arrest and present difficulty the Mail's correspondent from London, Ont., says:—Charles Butler was arrested at Berlin by Detective Rider, of this city, and has been remanded till Saturday by Squire J. B. Smythe, on a charge of conspiring to defraud Mrs. Jane Dicey, of Westminister. The accused is one of the piano agents who have been working this section, and whose methods have been already outlined in the Mail. It is alleged he left a $480 piano at Mrs. Dicey's place, on the understanding that she was to act as agent for selling similar instruments, and when she sold so many was to keep the one left in her possession without paying for it. A few days after the instrument was left there Butler went out and urged the complainant to sign a note for the value he placed on the instrument to insure the owners against loss. As she refused to do this, it is further alleged he threatened and worried her to such an extent that she did sign a cheque for $116 to cover the expenses of moving the piano, and the defendant took that and moved it away. Butler had about $200 in his possession when arrested, and some of his creditors in Berlin or Guelph have filed a claim for the money and are taking action through the firm of Meredith & Co. to obtain possession of it.

The Empire's despatch says the police are after two others who are mixed up in the affair. The case will come before Judge Elliott on Saturday, the prisoner having been committed for trial.

The King Fisherman in Toronto.

The Toronto Globe of this morning contains the following paragraph:—

"Yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock, when crowds were out in King-st. enjoying the bright vernal weather, a strange shadow fell athwart the doorway of The World's business office. A moment after a swarthy figure and a soft felt hat came in. There was fish in his gait and fish in his eye, in fact the circulation clerk went out and took a ginger-pop, because, as he said, the smell of fish came so strongly into the atmosphere that it made him thirsty. The gentleman was Tobias Fitzgerald of Peterborough, better known as Tobe Fitz. and he was in town arranging his affairs to get away for the summer's fishing.

"Speaking of fish," he said, "I have trolled, speared and angled, I have fished in season and out of season. I've fooled the inspector. I've caught everything from a salmon to a mud cat, but give me a rod and line and I'll out-fish any man in Canada."

"Tobe says he has money to back himself against all comers and is ready for the fray at any time. This challenge should not be left unnoticed by Arthur Sturgis Hardy, the Great Muskoka Angler."

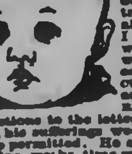
manufactured to the order of S Glaister the Hatter of Stratford which we bought at a sacrifice and are now selling at prices that defy competition. During the past week they have sold exceedingly well and therefore it behooves every man that wants to get a Fine Hat at a saving of from 25 per cent. to 33 per cent. to call at once and inspect this stock.

FAIRWEATHER & CO.



ONE FIRE WITH ECZEMA

Terrible Sufferings of Little Baby. Seven Doctors and Two Hospitals Fail. Cured by Cuticura.

My baby boy, 5 months old, broke out with eczema. The itching and burning was intense; the eczema spread to his limbs, breast, face and head, until he was nearly covered; his torturing agonies were pitiable to behold; he had no peace and but little rest night or day. He was under treatment at different times at two hospitals and by seven doctors in this city without the least benefit; every prescription of the doctors was faithfully tried, but he grew worse all the time. For months I expended about $5 per week for medicines, and was entirely discouraged. I purchased CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT and followed the directions to the letter. Relief was immediate, his sufferings were eased, and rest and sleep permitted. He steadily improved and in nine weeks time was entirely cured, and has now as clear a skin and is as fair a boy as any mother could wish to see. I recommend every mother to use it for every Baby Humor.

MRS. M. FERGUSON,
86 W. Brookline-st., Boston.

Cuticura Remedies.

The greatest skin cures, blood purifiers, and humor remedies of modern times, instantly relieve the most agonizing forms of eczema and psoriasis, and speedily, permanently, economically and infallibly cure every species of torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted and pimply diseases and humors of the skin, scalp and blood, with loss of hair, from infancy to age, whether simple, scrofulous or hereditary, when all other methods and best physicians fail.

Sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 75c.; SOAP, 35c.; RESOLVENT, $1.50. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CORPORATION, Boston.

☞ Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases," 64 pages, 50 illustrations, and 100 testimonials.

OLD FOLKS' PAINS.

Full of comfort for all Pains, Inflammation, and Weakness of the Aged is the Cuticura Anti-pain Plaster, the first and only pain-killing strengthening plaster. New, instantaneous, and infallible.

THE WORLD OF LONDON.

CHRONICLED AND CRITICISED BY MR. EDMUND YATES.

The Queen and the Drawing-Room—Emperor William's Coming Visit—King Leopold and Mr. Stanley—Lord Powis—Lord Randolph's Voyage—The Outlook For Dissolution.

LONDON, May 12.—The Queen, on account of the prevalence of influenza, decided not to come up to London this week for the drawing-room. The Princess of Wales, in consequence of the near approach of the confinement of the Duchess of Fife, will not leave town for Whitsuntide. The Duchess is as well as can be, but there is some anxiety on her account, and the Princess of Wales drives down to Sheen every day to see her.

A paragraph appeared in these columns last week respecting the Prince of Wales's alleged financial embarrassments and proposed liquidation. I am assured on the highest possible authority that there is not the slightest foundation for the current rumors on which the paragraph was based, and I unhesitatingly express great regret that it should have appeared.

The Belgian rooms in Buckingham Palace are to be to a considerable extent redecorated and refurnished during the next month in anticipation of the visit of the German Emperor, who is to occupy this suite during his stay in London. The Emperor proposes to visit the Dutch and Belgian courts when on the way to England. According to present arrangements, he will leave Berlin on Monday, June 29, for the Hague, where he will stay three days, one of which will be devoted to a visit to Amsterdam. The Emperor will proceed to Brussels on Friday, July 3, and is to stay there until Monday, July 6, when he comes to England.

There is great annoyance at the Court of Vienna in consequence of the failure of the attempt to arrange a marriage between the Archduke Francis Ferdinand and the Princess Elizabeth of Bavaria, granddaughter of the Emperor Francis Joseph. The Archduke declared that he found it impossible to fall in love with the Princess, and unless he can make a marriage of affection he will remain single.

The King of Belgians will spend a fortnight in England at the end of the month, for the purpose of still further discussing certain questions which have arisen in connection with the Congo. He is specially anxious to confer with Mr. Stanley, who, with Mrs. Stanley, will be very shortly the King's guests either in Brussels or Ostend.

In that illustrious old bachelor, Lord Powis, White's loses one of its few remaining links between the present and the past. Standing in the historical bow-window in an old-fashioned coat, collar and cravat, Lord Powis seemed but yesterday to be a genuine relic of the olden time, and there are few men living who remember the desperate attempts made season after season by enterprising mothers to capture Powis Castle and its wealthy owner. The house in Berkeley-square, where Lord Powis died, was almost as quaint as its occupant, who, like Lord Warwick, in the stable-yard in St. James-street, always insisted on retaining on the door a brass plate bearing his name. Lord Powis had no sympathy with modern fashions and entertained a strong opinion that ladies should always appear at evening parties in full court costume. His nephew, Mr. George Herbert, now Lord Powis, is in face almost the double of his cousin, Lord Lansdowne.

A projected marriage is announced between Lady Constance Campbell, the youngest daughter of the Duke of Argyll, and Mr. Charles Emmett, son of a wealthy Lancashire cotton spinner, who is familiarly known in the Oldham District as "Breadbasket." This sobriquet has been attached to Mr. Emmett, sr., who, by the way is a Quaker, ever since a strike during which he is stated to have declared that the men would very soon resume work when the breadbasket was empty.

Letters from Madeira give a prosperous account of the voyage of the Grantully Castle so far. The journey across the bay was very rough, and even the invincible Lord Randolph was on his beam ends, as well as the majority of his fellow-passengers.

Influenza seems determined to be satisfied only with distinguished victims. Lady Salisbury, Lady Maud Wolmer, Mr. Chamberlain, Lady Burton, Lady Winifred and Mr. Gardner, and Mr. Gerald Loder are only a few of its latest captures, and every day one hears of dinner parties collapsing on every side in consequence of sudden seizures, while the cold weather increases. Mr. Leslie Stephen has been suffering from an attack of pneumonia which at one time caused considerable anxiety to his friends. He has been ordered to give up work for the time and has left London to recruit in Surrey.

There never was any ground for the dissolution scare, and all fear of a sudden appeal to the country has disappeared. The results of the by-elections, though not constituting serious disaster, are not encouraging, and the younger men of the Tory party, who favored immediate dissolution now take a more sober view. Unless something very unexpected occurs the present Parliament will not be prematurely sent about its business. Spring, next year, is the earliest period that a general election need be looked for, and autumn, 1892, is a very probable date.

SUICIDE WAS THE RESULT.

An Inventor Who Wanted to Grind With the Water That Had Passed.

PENNVILLE, Pa., May 12.—Christian Saiper of this place, an inventor of several valuable mechanical appliances, had been for a year or more studying and experimenting on the principle of a patent water wheel, which he intended should utilize the water by sending it back by reaction to use its power over and over. It was virtually a wheel that would permit a mill to grind with the water that was past. The machine he had nearly perfected, but constant study over it unbalanced his mind and yesterday he hanged himself in Lebanon.

Smothered at Birth

HAMILTON, May 12.—In a roughcast house, 54 Catharine-street south, a child was found dead under suspicious circumstances yesterday. Mrs. Mary Coleman, a colored woman, the mother, lives with her aunt, Mrs. Harvey Hallah. Mrs. Coleman did not notify the woman that she was ill until after the child was born. When they entered the room it was dead and was lying on its face beside the mother. Until an autopsy is made it will not be known if the child was smothered or died from neglect.

TORONTO TOPICS

TORONTO, May 12.—Mr. J. Herbert, the contractor, died suddenly at noon yesterday at his residence, 181 Ontario-street. He had been unwell for about two weeks, but nothing serious was anticipated. Yesterday he expressed himself as feeling much better and intimated his intention of entering upon his usual duties to-day. About 10 minutes before his demise he was talking with his partner, Mr. W. Murphy, about tendering for a certain large job. He was born in Ireland about 50 years ago and came to this city when about 20 years of age.

His Excellency the Governor-General will be present at the Ontario Jockey Club races that open at Woodbine Park next week. Yesterday the committee received the information that Lord Stanley and party would attend on the first two days.

The will of the late J. M. Williams of Hamilton was filed for probate in that city yesterday. The estate amounts to $11,385 all told, $5000 of which is represented by bank stock and $5000 in real estate. By the will the widow of the testator is to receive $1200 per annum; the three children, James Miller, Henry Royal and Melinda E., $1500 each; Mary Ann Jackson of Toronto, sister-in-law of the testator, $1000, payable on the death of the deceased's widow and $100 payable during her life, as she may desire. A provision is entered that should the income from the estate be not sufficiently large to make up the $1300 annuity for the widow sufficient of the principal shall be devoted to that use. It is whispered that some legal complications will arise over the estate, indeed its affairs are said to have already reached the courts.

M. P. Mills of Detroit, who was president of the late International League, has abandoned baseball and become a jolly yachtsman, he having recently been elected Commodore of the Michigan Yacht Club.

Philadelphia has two dangerous bowlers in Palmer and Goodwin, who, taken in connection with [illegible], make the duties of young Butler behind the wickets of a rather unenviable nature.

Rheumatism,

BEING due to the presence of uric acid in the blood, is most effectually cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Be sure you get Ayer's and no other, and take it till the poisonous acid is thoroughly expelled from the system. We challenge attention to this testimony:—

"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing complaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months, and am pleased to state that it has effected a complete cure. I have since had no return of the disease."—Mrs. R. Irving Dodge, 110 West 125th st., New York.

"One year ago I was taken ill with inflammatory rheumatism, being confined to my house six months. I came out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system disordered in every way. I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon recovering my usual health. I cannot say too much in praise of this well-known medicine."—Mrs. L. A. Stark, Nashua, N. H.

CASH HARDWARE STORE.

On and after 1st April we shall do business on a Cash Basis.

To cover the inevitable losses attendant upon a credit business, (which accrue from amount of time spent in keeping accounts, collecting, bad debts, interest account, and in numerous other ways, larger margins of profit must be asked.

In these times cash buyers ask, expect and are entitled to close prices. A careful consideration of the subject convinces us that the time has come for a cash business done on smaller profits.

The only customers who may be put to inconvenience are those who have had long credit. In more ways than one it will be to their advantage to pay cash.

For convenience of our old customers who consider their accounts due when presented, we will call 30 days cash and render all accounts the first of each month, and we wish to say that we will be happy to do business with them on these terms.

As the new departure is something of an experiment, what would be considered a close cash price will be made all through the stock. Not a few leaders only, but a general reduction in everything from the fourth flat to the cellar.

Our idea is to perform more than promised rather than promise more than can be fulfilled.

Our stock is large and varied, consisting of Builders', Contractors', Household, Mechanics', Painters', Shoemakers', Farm, Mill, Factory, Lumbermen's, Sporting, Threshers', Cabinetmakers', and other lines of Hardware.

REJOICING! REJOICING!

It affords me unbounded pleasure to know that those who have bought properties from me in the past have reason to rejoice. I positively do not know one instance out of the hundreds of properties which I have sold, where the purchasers have had to sell at a loss, while on the contrary I can name dozens of purchasers who have pocketed their tens, hundreds and thousands. These are facts which I can prove true.

I have a few Real Bargains in Comfortable Houses on easy terms for those who are wise enough to buy quickly. Be advised and do not delay. Building Lots at all prices.

BUY NOW IF AT ALL.

EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Fitz property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighbourhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC.

Annual Meeting At Montreal Yesterday.

MONTREAL, May 13.—At the tenth annual meeting of the shareholders of the Canadian Pacific Railway, which was held here this afternoon, the old board of directors was re-appointed and there were no changes made in the personnel of the staff. The most important business was the presentation of the annual report, which was submitted and adopted. The report shows: Gross earnings, $16,552,528.26; working expenses, $10,252,828.47; net earnings, $6,299,700.51. Deducting fixed charges accruing $4,246,616, leaving $2,053,082.51 surplus, deduct two supplementary dividends of 1 per cent. of $1,300,000 and there is carried forward $753,082.51, to which add former surplus of $1,[illegible], and $[illegible] is the total surplus. Working expenses for year 61.94 per cent of the gross earnings; net earnings, 38.06 per cent. In 1889 these were 60.04 and 39.96 per cent. respectively.

There were expended in additions and improvements on main line and branches $1,553,757.31, and among other items $[illegible] for telegraphs, extensions and additions and $2,275,636.41 for three China and Japan steamships. The traffic was affected in the early part of the year by the light crops of 1889, and traffic exchanged with the Southwestern railways was also similarly affected. The expectations for the coming year are good and only an average crop is required to ensure handsome results.

At a meeting of the directors of the railway held this afternoon W. C. Van Horne was unanimously re-elected president of the company. The board is composed as follows: W. C. Van Horne, Sir George Stephen, R. B. Angus, Hon. J. J. Abbott, Montreal; E. B. Osler, Q.C., and W. D. Matthews, Toronto; Sandford Fleming, Ottawa; G. A. Kirkpatrick, Kingston; G. R. Harris, Boston; R. I. Cross, New York; W. L. Scott, Erie, Penn.; Hon. J. [illegible], Hamilton; Thomas Skinner, London, and G. R. Jesup, New York.

THE GANG CONVICTED.

John Stinson, His Two Sons, the Hired Man and the Housekeeper.

SANDWICH, May 13.—At the Assizes to-day John Stinson of Rochester township, his sons William and James, their hired man Thomas Studhart and their housekeeper Mrs. [illegible] were found guilty of counterfeiting American silver. Owing to extenuating circumstances Studhart was allowed to go on suspended sentence. The others were remanded for sentence.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

MR. McCARTHY INTRODUCES HIS RESOLUTION IN THE HOUSE.

He Moves for One Language and One Set of Schools—Sir John and Hon. Mr. Laurier Both Indisposed—Help for Alliston Village.

OTTAWA, May 13.—Two hours of mingled work and talk sufficed to clear the order paper to-day of all the business which was ready, with the exception of three notices of motion, namely, that the House go into committee of supply to consider resolutions that binding twine, sugar and corn be placed on the free list.

The work consisted of answering a few questions, passing a few motions for papers, in reading pro forma for the second time 10 private bills and referring them to their several committees.

The only bill introduced to-day was Mr. D'Alton McCarthy's to amend the Northwest Territories Act. In moving for leave to introduce it he said that many members of the House would remember the long discussion which took place on a similar bill last year. The object of the bill was to repeal the clause establishing dual language in the Northwest Territories. He thought the use of two languages tended to perpetuate race distinction and it should be abolished. It should be remembered that the bill referred only to the Northwest Territories and not to other parts of the Dominion. It would be remembered that dual language in the Northwest was not a right guaranteed by treaty to French-Canadians and that it originated in the British North America Act. He thought that there was nothing more likely to prevent a common nationality than the existence of two languages, and while he did not wish to prevent any one from using any language he pleased he did not wish that more than one language should receive official recognition. There was another clause in the bill, which provided for the abolition of separate schools, which he did not think necessary in the Northwest. In Ontario and Quebec, owing to peculiar circumstances, there may be some reason for separate schools, but there was none elsewhere. He therefore proposed to relieve the people of the Northwest of them. The bill was somewhat different from the one introduced last year inasmuch as the preamble was omitted, as some of his friends objected to that last year. He had therefore left it out.

Mr. Choquette: We'll leave it all out.

The bill was then introduced.

In answer to Mr. McLennan, Sir Hector Langevin stated that an Order in Council was passed on 7th Feb., 1891, authorizing the construction of a canal on the north side of the River St. Lawrence, in the county of Soulanges, the estimated cost of which is $4,[illegible]. The cost of survey was $38,131.90, and it is the intention of the Government to proceed with the construction at an early date.

Dr. Landerkin wanted to know whether the High Commissioner had received for the year ending June 30, 1890, the sum amounting to $[illegible], which appeared in the Auditor-General's report [illegible] own salary of $10,000 down to $4.55 for dusting and including salaries, rent, office expenses, etc. He also wanted to know whether he held the office of High Commissioner during the time he acted as electioneering agent for the Government at the recent elections. If not who held the office? Was any salary or traveling allowance granted him during the time he was engaged in the election either as High Commissioner or as election agent? If so, how much? Was it by the direction of the Government that he canvassed the county of Essex in conjunction with Mr. Solomon White, an avowed annexationist? Mr. Foster answered that the High Commissioner had not received the amount referred to, that Sir Charles Tupper had held the office of High Commissioner continually since his last appointment to the position, and that as the other portions of the motion contained statements of alleged facts he declined to answer.

In answer to a question by Dr. Landerkin, Mr. Chapleau stated that two recounts had taken place after the return of the members had been gazetted: these were in North Bruce and East Grey. In neither case had the recount altered the result. The clerk of the crown in chancery had published the returns as soon as he received them. Whether a re-gazetting was necessary was a question of law, but it must be remembered that the announcement in The Canada Gazette was merely that the members had been elected, which was correct, as the recounts had not changed the result.

Mr. Foster stated in reply to Sir Richard Cartwright that he expected to bring down the estimates Friday, but if not then they would be down on Monday.

Mr. Mulock took the opportunity of urging the claim of Alliston for a grant on account of the recent fire and instanced the cases of St. John, N.B., and Hull, P.Q., where, when similar catastrophes occurred, the Government had contributed handsomely.

He hoped a sum would be placed in the estimates.

Col. Tyrwhitt ironically thanked the member for North York for taking so much interest in his (Mr. Tyrwhitt's) constituency. He had, however, attended to the matter himself, for early on Monday morning he had seen the Minister of Public Works and received an assurance from him that the matter would be laid before council. He had also received a memorial from the Mayor of Alliston, which he would present to the House to-morrow.

A rumor got about the lobbies to-night that Sir John Macdonald was very ill, but I am happy to say that the statement is incorrect. Sir John was not very well yesterday and was not at the ball last night, but to-day he attended the council meeting but did not come into the House. To-night I learn that he was suffering from a little over-exertion but expected to be all right by to-morrow. Mr. Laurier is still confined to his room at his hotel and is said to be suffering from a bronchial attack.

Mr. McMullen gives notice of a bill to amend the act respecting the Senate and House of Commons.

An extra of The Canada Gazette, issued to-night, contains proclamation of Her Majesty that Monday, May 25, be a public holiday for celebrating her birthday.

Hugh Sutherland and the Manitoba and Northwest members had an interview with Sir John to-day and asked him to introduce a bill confirming the order in council of last year, by which a subsidy of $80,000 a year for 20 years was granted Hudson Bay Railway. Sir John promised to consider the matter and it is believed the request will be complied with.

The Fisheries Bounties.

Mr. Flint, who is a good speaker and an active member, on a motion for a return in connection with the distribution of the fishery bounty checks to the fishermen of Nova Scotia, pointed out that although the Government had been in previous years urged to pay out the checks during the winter while the fishermen were fitting out for sea, it had never been done, and the delay had been a hardship to the fishermen. This year, however, the Department of Marine had been extraordinarily active, and a few days before the election the $150,000 to which the bounties amount were sent to the Government's agents for distribution. This, Mr Flint said had been done in his constituency, and he presumed in others as well. Members from the Maritime Provinces gave affirmative "hears, hears." He was not finding fault with an early distribution; it was what the fishermen had been unable to get until the last election. The activity of the Hon. Minister and his subordinates, Mr. Flint added, must have gratified all lovers of good government and prompt administration of affairs.

Mr. Tupper's explanation that the early distribution and the elections coming in the same year was a coincidence was greeted with laughter from the opposition. Referring to the resignation of the fishery overseer and his reinstatement he contented himself with saying that no harm had been done. He promised that the checks will be distributed every year in future before the 1st of March.

Pitched Battle on a Staircase.

LONDON, May 13.—Parnell to-day addressed a meeting at Limehouse, a suburb of London. The building where the meeting was held was invaded by anti-Parnellites and there was a fierce conflict on a staircase, which the police were called on to suppress. Many broken heads resulted from the disturbance.

Lord Wolseley a Home Ruler.

DUBLIN, May 13.—The National Press announces that since his arrival in Ireland, after being appointed Commander-in-Chief of the military forces in that country, Lord Wolseley has become a Home Ruler and says he does not see danger from a military point of view in granting Home Rule to Ireland.

No Long Sermons.

BERLIN, May 13.—The Kaiser has given offence to the orthodox community by ordering the court chaplains to curtail the length of their sermons, which in future must not exceed 10 minutes whatever may be the occasion.

Carrier Pigeons Used by Strikers.

BRUSSELS, May 13.—The striking workmen of France and Belgium are communicating by means of carrier pigeons. This is done to prevent the opening of letters by the Government of either country.

No Sacrament for Parnellites.

DUBLIN, May 13.—A priest of Dunmore has refused to administer the sacrament to Parnellites.

Speculation, Ruination, Suicide.

ATHENS, May 13.—There was a sharp fall in prices on the Bourse to-day. A speculator in stocks, unnerved by the decline, committed suicide.

Cables from Over the Sea.

There was a sharp recovery on the London Stock Exchange yesterday in all international securities.

During a fierce storm yesterday at Massowah a barracks containing a number of soldiers suddenly collapsed, killing six of the men outright and injuring 10 seriously.

Mrs. Batcheller, wife of the United States Minister at Lisbon, was seriously injured yesterday in a carriage accident while returning from the Queen's palace.

Not a Murderer, Said to be a Horsethief.

OTTAWA, May 13.—Judge MacMahon at the Assizes to-day granted the application of Dalton McCarthy for the release of George Goodwin, held on a coroner's warrant for the murder of Richard Langford at Carp, Ont. The prisoner was allowed to go on his own recognizances. He was at once re-arrested for horse-stealing. The murder trial should have been heard this term, but the crown declined to proceed until the fall owing to lack of evidence.

Burglars at Tavistock.

TAVISTOCK, Ont., May 13.—About 2 o'clock this morning burglars entered the jewelry store of E. Bourquin, blew open the safe and took several hundred dollars worth of watches and jewelry. The force of the explosion broke nearly all the glass in the windows. Mrs. Falk, who lives over the store, raised her window and was greeted with a pistol shot, which took effect close by in the woodwork.

Saved a Wholesale Massacre.

NEW ORLEANS, May 13.—Senor Corte, the Italian Consul, to-day asserted that he had by his influence prevented the Italians of the city from killing Mayor Shakespeare and Messrs. Parkerson and Wickliffe and other leaders of the citizens movement. After the lynching Senor Corte said the determination of certain of his countrymen to kill the mayor and others was almost uncontrollable.

Death of the Oldest Postmaster in America.

ST. ANDREWS, N.B., May 13.—P. F. Campbell, postmaster of this place, died yesterday at the advanced age of 85 years. Mr. Campbell was in all probability the oldest postmaster in America, having been appointed to the position in 1839, 52 years ago.

HE WANTS TO DIE.

The Cobourg Would-Be Murderer Makes Rope to Hang Himself.

COBOURG, May 13.—Andrew McGuire, convicted at the assizes here of attempting to commit murder, and who was for that crime sentenced to imprisonment for life in the provincial penitentiary, was taken to Kingston to-day by Sheriff Proctor and Chief Constable Rankin. Since the prisoner's bold attempt on Saturday last to escape he has been closely watched, but during Monday night he fashioned a rope from one of his bed blankets with which he had intended to hang himself. The rope was found by the jailer and removed from his cell.

GAUDAUR CHALLENGED.

Teemer Is After the Orillia Man with Sundry Offers.

ST. LOUIS, May 13.—John Teemer, formerly of McKeesport, but now of St. Joe, Mo., has challenged Jacob Gaudaur, formerly of St. Louis, but now of Canada, to row him three races for $500 a side, the best two out of three, winner to take entire amount and a fair proportion of the gate receipts. If Gaudaur is not suited with this Teemer will row a race of three miles on any body of water in the United States for $1000 or any amount Gaudaur wants to put up.

Playing "Burying" with Fatal Results.

WICHITA, Kan., May 13.—In Kiowa County yesterday Johnnie Reamer, aged 6, and his 8-year-old-sister were playing at "burying." A hole dug, Johnnie sat down in it and the girl piled up the earth until it reached the boy's chin and he was tightly imbedded. At this juncture an old sow and her brood appeared and savagely attacked the girl and drove her away. The sow then turned on the unprotected head of the boy in the ground and sank her teeth in the face and skull several times. By this time the screams of the children had been heard and assistance arrived, but the boy died before he could be released.

A LAWYER AND HIS WIFE.

RICHES DID NOT BRING HAPPINESS TO THIS COUPLE.

Marriage a Failure in the Case of a Toronto Barrister Named Smith—Worth a Quarter of a Million, Yet He Failed To Provide For His Spouse.

TORONTO, May 14.—After 30 years of married life more or less inharmonious, Frederick J. D. Smith, barrister, of Newton-Brook (North Toronto), and his wife Ellen E. Smith are in the courts in a suit for alimony and separation for all time. Mr. Smith is one of the wealthiest men in the county, being worth fully $250,000 and owner of some valuable properties in the city. Eight children have been the fruits of his marriage, four of them of age and holding good positions. Mrs. Smith is suing for alimony, and says that for the first 10 years of their married life they lived happily together, but in 1871 his conduct changed. He began to drink and from that time forward took every opportunity to make her life miserable. In consequence of the treatment she was compelled to endure she was seized with a paralytic stroke in 1888 and would have left him then had it not been for her children. Among other items of complaint she alleges, notwithstanding his wealth, he refused to hire help, or even necessary medical attendance except at rare intervals. His language, she says, was most revolting, imputing to her unchaste conduct and the worst crimes possible. He refused her her proper position in the family circle and did not provide sufficient clothing. She claims he kicked her out of bed, turned her out of the house, pulled her round the rooms by the hair of the head and blackened her eyes. He beat her with a rawhide and a stick, shot at her with a revolver, read the prayers for the dead over her frequently, and prayed to be speedily delivered from such "a vile old hag."

In addition to all this the wife charges him with tampering with her medicine with a view of preventing her recovery. Finally the course of treatment she suffered rendered her mentally and physically weak, but now she has parted from him she is slowly recovering.

If the wife's allegations are bad the husband's are still worse. He goes on to say that his wife before the marriage was a domestic in his father's house, and many years older than himself. During that period they became too friendly, with the result that he married her afterwards without the consent or knowledge of his people. Prior to the marriage ceremony a child was born, and he afterwards discovered that a person with whom the plaintiff had formerly lived in service had furnished her with considerable sums of money. When he taxed her with this she became abusive and made his life miserable.

SIR JOHN THOMPSON ARRAIGNED.

Ottawa Equal Rights Association Arraigns the Justice Department.

OTTAWA, May 13.—A special meeting of the executive of the Equal Rights Association was held last evening, when the action of the Government in deciding to defray the expenses of testing the Manitoba School Act was severely criticised, after which the following resolution was unanimously adopted: "Resolved, that inasmuch as the Dominion Government have decided to defray the expense of testing the constitutionality of the Manitoba School Act and have refused the like privilege in the case of the Jesuit Incorporation and Estates Acts of Quebec when such acts were challenged by high legal authority, thereby permitting the said acts to go into operation unquestioned; therefore the conduct of the Government in the latter case in declining the ordeal of a judicial investigation into the grave questions involved when requested so to do is a manifestly unfair and unjust discrimination in favor of the Jesuit Society, and lays the Department of Justice, hitherto above reproach or suspicion, open to the charge of gross partiality in its dealings between different classes of Her Majesty's subjects, and we hope steps will be taken during the present session of Parliament to vindicate the rights of all citizens to equal access to courts of law and a condemnation of the policy of granting special favors to one class and refusing like facilities to another class of Canadian citizens."

GO UP STAIRS.

The Distinguished Canadian Given Command of an Anglo-Belgian Expedition.

HALIFAX, N.S., May 13.—The Anglo-Belgian expedition to the head waters of the River Congo, Central Africa, promoted by the King of Belgium, has left for the scene of its work. The command has been given to Capt. W. G. Stairs of Halifax, formerly of the Emin Relief Expedition, headed by Stanley. The European members of the party sailed from London yesterday for Zanzibar, thence to march inland for seven months to Katanga. It is expected that the work of this expedition will take two years to complete.

Poisoned by a Squirrel's Bite.

NEW YORK, May 13.—Miss Ella Thomas, matron at the Jamesburg, N.J., State Reform School, is dangerously ill from injuries received a little over a week ago while petting a tame gray squirrel. Miss Thomas was caressing the squirrel, when it suddenly turned and bit her on the forefinger of the right hand. The wound grew rapidly worse, and has resulted in such a serious case of blood poisoning that death is expected.

A Passenger's Leg Cut Off.

BERLIN, May 13.—A serious accident occurred at the G.T.R. station last night. While Gotfried Niederhausen, aged 60, was about to leave the train he slipped from the platform and the wheel passed over his foot. The foot was crushed to such an extent that doctors were obliged to amputate the leg just above the ankle joint.

No Women Need Apply.

MONTREAL, May 13.—The Montreal general hospital has decided not to admit women students to the privileges of the hospital.

Shot by Her Brother.

MILVERTON, Ont., May 13.—Miss White was accidentally shot by her brother yesterday. The contents of the gun struck her foot, tearing off the shoe, while many grains lodged in the flesh.

Dyspepsia

Intense Suffering for 8 years — Restored to Perfect Health.

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1883 I was in excellent health, weighing over 135 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 102 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it had cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

MR. TARTE'S CHARGES.

THE charges which Mr. Israel Tarte has made in his newspaper, Le Canadien against Mr. McGreevy, M.P. for Quebec West and which are also aimed at Sir Hector Langevin, having been brought before Parliament will now be investigated. When the statements were given to the public through Le Canadien Mr. McGreevy entered an action in the courts, but through the intervention of the Quebec Government the case has not come to trial. The charges are, in substance, that information has been given from the Public Works department through Mr. McGreevy to a firm of contractors by which the contractors benefitted, and that alterations were made in plans to the advantage of the contractors. Sir Hector Langevin for himself denied the allegations, and for his officials also go far as he could speak for them. Mr. McGreevy gave the charges an emphatic denial and in turn charged that letters purporting to have been written by him were forgeries. The matter having been referred, by the unanimous consent of the House, to the Committee on Privileges and Elections for investigation, the charges will be thoroughly sifted, and until the evidence is produced it would be manifestly unfair to give credence to them, while in justice to the member who has taken the responsibility of making them the evidence he intends to produce should be awaited.

These allegations have been paraded in the columns of the Liberal press, and while throwing in a word as to withholding judgment to keep up some appearance of fairness, they have been retold and repeated in such a manner as to try to injure the Minister and Mr. McGreevy even though they were found to be entirely unfounded. Sir Hector, in view of the methods that had been adopted by his opponents, intended to move for an investigation himself had he not been informed by Mr. Tarte that he would bring it forward, and the dignified denial of the Minister will have weight with the community while the committee is proceeding with the investigation.

THE United States consular agent at Vancouver, B. C., Mr. Jay Ewing, has made his name well known where a short time ago it had never been heard. At a dinner in Vancouver he declined to honor the toast of the Queen, and in consequence he is likely to have a long vacation from his present post. The United States papers have sat upon him heavily for his boorishness.

THE Globe, with a fineness of feeling to which its readers are accustomed, refers to Sir John Macdonald as an old man "physically weak and mentally sluggish." And yet the young and active leaders of the Liberal party are no match for this feeble old man! It is many years since opponents of Sir John first predicted his speedy breakdown, but the veteran has disappointed them and may continue to lead the administration and the House for many years yet. That certainly is the desire of a majority of the people.

THE divorce courts afford interesting studies of human nature, viewed from a contemplative standpoint, as exhibiting with what indifference the marriage contract is entered into, no thought being devoted to the after consequences that may follow the tie that promises to be indissoluble.—St. Paul News.

Some sensible people see in the divorce laws of the States a reason for the indifference the News recognizes, as the marriage tie is too easily dissolved in many States. The experience of our neighbors does not tend to make Canadians favor the establishment of a divorce court in this country.

A Pleasant Herb Drink—A Spring Medicine.

The druggists tell us that the people call daily for the new cure for constipation and sick-headache discovered by Dr. Silas Lane. It is said to be Oregon grape root (a great remedy in the far west for those complaints) combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength. It sells at 50c and $1 a package and is called Lane's Family Medicine.

Medium descriptions show a large shrinkage in quantity and values are rather improved. Quotations are: Extra fine fall makes, 58s@60s; some pet factories are held for 62s; August makes, 52s@54s; ripe old summer makes, 50s@52s; half skims, white and colored, 42s@46s; skims, 17s@25s; New York quotation is 57s. c.i.f., for new."

SCIENCE AND PROGRESS.

INTERESTING PARAGRAPHS CULLED FROM VARIOUS FIELDS.

About Spectacle Glasses—Utilizing Waste Smoke and Gases—How to See Your Brain—Pulling Teeth by Electricity—Don't Touch Wires.

Although many opticians are in the habit of recommending various descriptions of glass for spectacles, there are in reality only two kinds—native glass or rock or mountain crystal, usually called pebble, and artificial glass. They also advise users of spectacles to have them of pebbles, as more beneficial to the eyesight, artificial glass being decried as heating and wearying the eye. The writer who has now been habitually using spectacles for 25 years on account of short-sightedness, has had no such experience. Acting upon the advice of a first-rate oculist, whom he consulted, he purchased pebble spectacles, and he used them for years. Lately, however, requiring a pair of spectacles of a particular focus, he has taken to spectacles of artificial glass, and he finds that there is not the slightest difference, with the exception that the latter are only about half the price of pebble spectacles. This is a consideration in case of persons of limited means.

The perfection to which glass making has now attained has rendered the use of artificial glass for spectacles practicable, and, seeing the advantages attached to its employment, which it is the object of this short paper to point out, it is probable that it will ultimately entirely supersede rock crystal. Sir Henry Layard found among the ruins of old Nineveh a polished pebble lens of a convex form of a focus of four inches and a diameter of one and a half inches. It may also be assumed that the magnifying power of such lenses was well known to and utilised by the old cameo cutters in their difficult and delicate work. The price lists of opticians of former centuries contain the prices of pebble eye-glasses, and they are known to have endeavored to improve the microscope by the use of crystals of precious stone. Besides rock crystal, they made microscopic lenses of sapphire, ruby, garnet, beryl, topaz, and even of diamond. Diamond lenses for microscopes were warmly recommended by Sir David Brewster (1819), and made chiefly by Pritchard (1824).

All these early efforts, after the marvelous development of the manufacture of glass now belong to history. The greatest objection to the application of precious stones to optical purposes is their structure—the fact that, as crystals having two axles, they suffer double refraction, and it is this drawback which has to be taken into consideration when dealing with rock crystal. This double refraction must greatly affect its optical application, and it can only be rectified to some extent by cutting the pebbles out of the raw material at right angles to the principal crystallographic axis.

Opera glasses with eye lenses of rock-crystal have for some time past been made in Paris for which great distinction of image is claimed. Closer examination, however, has proved that such eye lenses are not only not better in that respect than those of ordinary glass, but mostly much worse, especially if they have not received the proper setting to the crystal axis. And if in opera glass lenses the condition of cutting them out of the rock crystal at right angles is neglected, this is much more so the case with pebbles for spectacles.—Chambers' Journal.

How to See Your Brain.

Dr. Fraser Halle holds that it is quite possible for a man to see his own brain. Fifty years have elapsed since Purkinge observed that by passing a candle to and fro several times by the side of the eye the air in front was transformed into a kind of screen, on which was reflected what was then supposed to be "a magnified image of part of the retina."

Recently Dr. Halle resumed the exploration, and he has succeeded in identifying the picture with the representation of the "anterior lobe of the cerebrum."

The picture consists, he reports, of "red convolutions with dark interspaces," among which a whitish admixture is sometimes visible.

These, he says, constitute exactly the image of folds of the anterior lobe of the brain with the furrows between them.

The candle should be moved to and fro about four inches below the eye, and three and a quarter inches from the face. When the movement ceases the undulations of course also cease and the image disappears. A reddish mist appears first, and the image is soon developed and defined.

Night is the best time for it, but it can be seen in a dark place—faintly—in the daytime.

Pulling Teeth by Electricity.

An electric tooth-puller is being experimented with in England, and is creating an immense commotion in the world of dentistry. By means of this new device the stubbornest and most sensitive teeth are extracted in a twinkling, and with absolutely no pain to the patient. The victim grasps the handle attached to one wire leading from the battery, and a pair of forceps is attached to the other wire. When the forceps touch the tooth a circuit is formed. The jaw being much more sensitive to a shock than the hand, the gums are so numbed by the electricity that the tooth can be pulled without the patient suffering a particle. In order that no person receives a shock too great for his system he tests the current himself before the forceps are applied to his molars. Experiments made in the Philadelphia College of Dentistry prove beyond doubt that with the aid of an electric current even nerves can be removed from decaying teeth without causing pain. The method, as explained, is simple.

Did You Ever Think, My Dear.

That a kind word put out at interest brings back an enormous percentage of love and appreciation?

That though a loving thought may not seem to be appreciated, it has yet made you better and braver because of it?

That the little acts of kindness and thoughtfulness day by day, are really greater than one immense act of goodness shown once a year?

That to be always polite to the people at home is not only more ladylike, but more refined than having "company manners?"

That to learn to talk pleasantly about nothing in particular is a great art, and prevents your saying things you may regret.

That to judge anybody by their personal appearance stamps you as not only ignorant, but vulgar?

That to talk, and talk, and talk about yourself and your belongings is very tiresome to the people who listen?

That to be witty (?) at the expense of somebody else is positive cruelty many times?

That personalities are not always interesting, and very often offensive?

That the ability to keep a friend is very much greater than that required to gain one?

That if women would allow their friends to enjoy themselves in their own way there would be fewer stumbling blocks in life?

That if the girls all over the world were to form societies of one, each being her own president and house committee and entertainment committee and secretary and treasurer, and make kind words the currency, considerate actions the social functions, and love the great aim, that the whole world would be sweeter and purer for it? Just form one society where you are, and see what a great success it will be.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Cause and Effect.

The danger attending the blood and thunder style of reading popular with young lads was well illustrated at Shelburne on Saturday. On that day the 16-year-old son of Mr. R. J. Whittan found a small piece of plow-line. The boy had read or heard of a 13-year-old boy hanging himself. He was apparently trying to explain to his younger brother how it was done. He fastened the plow-line to a beam and made a noose of the rope in which he placed his head. The ground being slanting and slippery he seems to have lost his footing and was strangled to death. His father drove into the yard shortly afterwards and immediately cut him down but life was extinct. Coroner Norton held an inquest at the home where a verdict was returned that deceased accidently came to his death while at play. Parents cannot too carefully watch the class of literature supplied to their children.

There is a Demand for Hygienic Knowledge.

As people become more educated and intelligent, the demand for an exact science for preventing disease increases. The educated men and women of the world who have the good of humanity at heart, should at all times teach their less favored brothers and sisters how the best growths, mental and physical, may be obtained. The people require to be taught in plain, everyday language to which they are accustomed. A writer very wisely says: "Doctors who talk Latin to the patients and use big sounding names and phrases will not satisfy the hunger for knowledge which seems contemporaneous throughout the world."

Until Hygienic knowledge and perfect Sanitation is thoroughly understood and practiced, and its benefits fully appreciated in all our large towns and cities where disease is continually lurking, and laying its deadly hand upon thousands of men, women and children; Paine's Celery Compound should have a place in every household. Physicians should impress upon all families the necessity of its use, as a means of avoiding disease from malarias, sewer gases and noxious vapors. The weak, and all predisposed to sickness and disease should use this great builder of nerve and brain every day, until health and strength is assured. The Spring time carries off thousands of all ages. This death rate can be vastly lowered if Paine's Celery Compound is used. Canadians are beginning to realize this important fact as the demand for this kind of remedies has increased tremendously.

A Profitable Sale of Horses.

Dr. Stevenson, V.S, intends opening and operating a sale stable, at which horses will be disposed of by auction to the highest bidder. This inauguration of Mr. Stevenson's was suggested by the demand in Canada and United States for horses of a certain class and these sales will give owners an excellent opportunity to make a good sale at a profitable figure of suitable horses. The sales will be advertised all over America and inducements will be offered which will bring the best buyers of Canada and the United States here, which will ensure competition and good prices. Owners of horses desiring to sell should make their entries at once, as the sales will have to be thoroughly advertised.

Selling Less Than Three Half Points.

At the Police Court this morning the enlarged liquor case against the holder of a shop license came up. The evidence which had been taken went to show that a man had gone into the shop and asked for a flask of whiskey, which was given to him. The man who purchased the fire-water imbibed freely both from the flask and at the bars and was locked up. The flask purchased at the store was found on him and he told where he bought it. On measurement the flask held a little more than a half pint, and a charge was laid against the shopkeeper for selling less than three half points. The Magistrate found the accused guilty and had to fine him $50 and costs according to the statutes. The offence of selling less than three half pints is looked upon the same as selling without license and the penalty is not less than $50 for first offence and four months in gaol without a fine for the second offence. It is generally known that few or probably none of the flasks sold by the shop keepers contain three half pints or five quarter pints, and every dealer who sells one of these is liable to the heavy fine. This is a clause of the liquor law which shop licensees should bear in mind.

Not many physicians make great therapeutic discoveries. For the most part they content themselves with administering judiciously what is prescribed in the books. To J. C. Ayer, however, is due the credit of discovering that greatest of blood purifiers—Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

A CHURCH CHORAL SOCIETY.

An Organization Which should be a Success Proposed by Mr. L. Seward.

Mr. L. Seward, organist and choirmaster of the George-st. Methodist Church, has for some months past been desirous of forming a church choral society, the object of which would be to improve the music in the town churches and to provide musical instruction to those willing to learn, thus enabling them to join with a musical intelligence in the many services. He has issued the following circular fully explaining the proposed organization, its objects and the manner in which it will be conducted:—

The object of the Association is to bring the music loving members of the congregations of the city into rapport with the choirs, by practising anthems together at a weekly rehearsal. Also to provide sufficient musical instruction to those willing to devote the time to learn, so as to enable them to join intelligently in the service of song.

On Sundays the members of the Association would bring their anthem folios (as they would their hymn books) to the churches, and join with the choir in singing anthems. Many old members of the choir who now sit in their pews, would thus be enabled to revive their choir experience. There also are numbers of young people in the congregations who are very fond of singing but from want of musical knowledg and quality and strength of voice are now debarred from singing, except in well known hymn tunes. To such, an opportunity would be offered to gradually and pleasantly acquire a knowledge of part singing, and at the same time strengthen and improve their voices.

One rehearsal a week will be given, and a charge of 50 cents per member would be made, quarterly, in advance, to cover cost of instruction, trouble and time spent in organizing and keeping the Association in working order. An additional 50 cents per quarter would cover cost of anthems to be furnished each member.

At the end of each quarter a musical anthem festival will be held, with orchestral accompaniments.

This plan will commend itself to anyone acquainted with the glaring defects of our present choir system. In all our churches the choirs seem entirely out from the sympathies of the congregations. Complaint is frequently made that the words of the anthems are seldom distinctly heard, giving rise in many cases to unpleasant criticism. This would be obviated in a great measure by the music loving members of the congregation joining the Society, when they would be furnished copies of the anthems and follow the words without trouble.

Great difficulty is also experienced in recruiting the ranks of the choirs from the fact that the younger members of the congregations have no opportunity afforded them of strengthening their voices and acquiring a knowledge of singing part music. It is due to this reason that so many choirs are small, and the parts badly balanced. Hence discouragement takes possession of singers, an utter lack of enthusiasm is shown and things go on from year to year in this unsatisfactory manner.

The object of this Association is to meet the present difficulties of the situation by creating interest and enthusiasm in the higher forms of church music. Also to bring the Sunday Schools up to a higher standard by introducing at least one anthem in the afternoon sessions of the schools.

There being no compulsion for attendance on Sundays, the members would not feel the few simple rules of the Society to be grevious. The most ambitious of those at the different services could arrange to sit together and give to each other confidence.

The very small charge made for the instruction and carrying on of the work puts this plan within the reach of all, and I would urgently request all our lovers of [illegible] 'ng by joining the Association and encouraging others to do so.

It would give me great pleasure to have the co-operation of other church congregations and their respective choirs in this effort to improve our services of song. Let us all remember that in union there is strength.

Those who receive this card will please hand it to some friend who may possibly through reading it be induced to join the Association.

Personal.

At Victoria University yesterday Mr. J. Davidson, M. A., Head Master of the Norwood High School, had the degree of L.L.B. conferred upon him. The REVIEW extends congratulations to Mr. Davidson on this new honor. Mr. J.S.L. Wilson, son of Rev. J. C. Wilson, formerly of Ashburnham, received the degree of B.A.

It Looked Serious.

An exciting runaway which miraculously did not result in serious injury broke the monotony of life on Simcoe-st. this morning. The pole of the milk waggon of Mr. John Hargath broke just as the horse turned from George-st. onto Simcoe. The pole striking the horses feet started them to run. Mr. Hargath and his little son were on the seat of the high democrat, and when people saw the pole dashing along the road and the horses going at a headlong speed it was feared that a sudden stop would precipitate the occupants upon the hard road with serious results. Just in front of the Salvation Army barracks the pole struck a tree and the horses stopped short. Mr. Hargath was thrown out upon the road, but the boy remained in the rig. The only damages were to the democrate, the pole and the dashboard of which were shattered.

Another Farley Fracas.

Jimmy Farley, whose domestic trials are now historical, was again in the grasp of the law this morning. Jimmy cannot drink and live peaceably with his wife. Every time he gets a little intoxicated he vents his exuberance on his wife and it will be remembered that a short time ago he nearly closed her mortal career by a blow over the head. Disturbances have been frequent again of late. Wednesday night cries of murder attracted a neighbor to the Farley mansion, upon entering which he found Mrs. Farley stretched on the floor, her face covered with blood and the drunken Jimmy standing over her with a club in his hand. Quiet was soon restored and Constable Craig took James in charge. This morning County Magistrate Edmison, who had warned Jimmy to leave his wife or he would some day have a charge of murder to answer for, listened to Mrs. Farley's tale of woe. She had been out washing all day and when she returned found her lord and master drunk. Upon entering she was knocked down by a blow, the force of which was seen in a black eye which she produced in court. Jimmy said he had not much to drink, having only bought a flask which held a little over a pint, he thought, and which he drank himself. The Magistrate gave him two months at hard labor in gaol, but gave Jimmy until the end of this week to make himself scarce in the neighborhood. If he is found at the end of this week he will go to gaol. He said he would leave town to-morrow.

A New Swing Bridge to be Erected—The Queen's Birthday.

Correspondence of the Review.

FOR THE MARKETS.—Mr. Stewart, our enterprising merchant, left this week for the Montreal and Toronto markets to purchase his summer stock of dry goods, ready-made clothing and boots and shoes. Mr. Stewart is determined that his customers will have a first-class assorted stock to select from at city prices.

NEW LOCKS BRIDGE.—Mr. Thos. Walters, from Lindsay, inspector of locks bridges, &c., for the Ontario Government, was here last Saturday. He intends inviting by advertisement for tenders for the wood work of a new swing bridge in place of the old one, which has served its time.

THE STEAMER GOLDEN CITY.—Capt. Reynolds passed through here from Lakefield on a trial trip to Burleigh Falls on Wednesday, the 6th inst. The Golden City is now a fine looking steamer. The improvements she has undergone has altered her appearance considerably for the better. We hope the Captain will do a good summer trade. A good many took a trip on her.

THE QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.—The managers of Ebenezer Methodist church here have chartered the steamer Mary Ellen to carry passengers from Lakefield to their annual pic-nic to be held here on Saturday, the 23rd May. A great gathering is expected and the bill of fare is A-1.

NORLAND.

Correspondence of the Review.

A WORTHY PASTOR.—The last business in connection with the conference year ending May 20th, 1891, for Norland Mission, was held in Norland church on Saturday, May 9th at 3 p. m. All the members of the Quarterly Board were present. The receipts and reports from the four appointments were all that could be deserved. Spiritually the mission is truly enjoying much of that peace and love which casteth out all fear. God has especially blessed his people during the past year and enabled his servant, the pastor (Rev. H. A. Strike) to labor in our midst with great zeal and to accomplish a grand work for his blessed Master. Financially the various appointments have not only paid the amount promised but even more. The missionary givings for this year are almost three times as much as last year. The pastor received the sum of $30 as a present. A new organ was paid for during the year and throughout the mission is in a good shape. During the year some seven families, all members or adherents of the Methodist church have moved from this locality. Notwithstanding this loss and the cry of hard times, we have been very fortunate and have great reason to be thankful. At our last business meeting it was moved by Bro. Wakelin, Sr., who has been a hero in the service of his Master—a class leader and Superintendent of Sabbath School for upwards of a quarter of a century—that our most sincere thanks be tendered to Bro. Strike, our esteemed pastor, for his indefatigable efforts and practically eloquent addresses in the cause of his Divine Lord and Master during his pleasant stay among us, and praying that the conference will allow him to remain with us for another year. This motion was seconded by several of the members at once and carried unanimously. And here permit me to say this is not only the wish of the members of the Board, but the great desire of all on the mission. Knowing he is on the side of right Bro. Strike therefore discourses in a fearless manner, yet gentle and persuasive. We unitedly pray that God in His infinite wisdom will continue to bless and prosper him, and may his, as well as all [illegible] longing for the Divine glory of our Heavenly Father. Bro. Walkelin was elected to attend the district meeting to be held in Cannington May 21st and 22nd.

A Cure for Constipation and Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache and is the best Spring Medicine. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c. and $1 a package.

Dairying.

To the Editor of the Review.

SIR,—In studying any special work on the breed of cows suitable for dairy purposes, we find that there are very marked differences of opinion as to what is the best kind of stock, system of feeding and mode of delivery. It is reasonable to admit there is room for improvement in regard to this particular line in our progressive town, in order to keep abreast of other places probably of less importance. It is necessary to have a practical experimental knowledge of stock to be able to make a choice of the best, and to know what are the requisites of a first-class dairy cow. Then there are the diseases of cattle, and the diseased portion of the body tends to disarrange and affect the whole system. For instance the temper of a vicious cow will affect the quality of the milk. The cow is the product of a natural Providence, and all animals were created for some purpose. The field of thought in the animal creation is broad and deep and our perception of its usefulness is very limited; it is a subject that requires much study and practical knowledge in all its various exercises. Our country has very great resources for stock raising and dairying. Secure cows of a good strain that will stand on their own merit. The Galloway, Aberdeen, Angus, Poll and Herford are generally good for beef. The Holstein is hard to surpass for quantity of milk; Durhams are healthy stock fair for milk; Ayrshires are well proportioned in the good qualities of milk; Devons are generally noted for sweet-tasted milk, but the Jersey (excelsior,) takes the lead for cream.

We want to make a special study of quality and quantity of milk for the dairy and creamery. Good milk is one of the necessaries of life. Our progress and experiments are in advance of the past, but we are desirous to have milk of that quality that will raise it up to the highest standard. In submitting to our readers the idea of the different qualities, we would suggest here that each kind has a special purpose and it is a matter of some importance to adopt a proper system of feeding. Children are the hope of a nation; therefore it is wise to give them healthy food for the sustenance of the body as well as education and moral training for the development of the mind. Milk is often used in the preparation of food and is very susceptible to taint; also partakes largely of the nature of the kind of food that is fed. Proper cow feed is the best for cow life, maintains the animal system and produces the best milk. The position of roots in dairying is an important one. Butter from mixed food is generally good. In the winter months give cows out-door exercise, also be very gentle and kind in feeding and tending stock.

Thou hast taught, Silent Cheer,
Many a lesson deep and long;
Thou hast been a generous giver,
I can give thee but a song.

In this inventive age there are varieties of opinions and differences of tastes, methods of delivery, etc. Better to have milk fresh as possible, and one of the leading essential points is to give attention to cleanliness in all the departments of the work in connection with dairying. Passing through too many systems takes away from the nutriment. A party in selling a horse said he had worked in the lumber shanty eight winters, drew so many standard logs at a load and other work, but the purchaser refused to buy, on the ground that he must be nearly worn out. Among the good things of life dairying is a special Providence, and after dispensing with some unnecessary Sunday work, we take much pleasure and interest in bringing it up to that perfection as will place it alongside of any other business enterprise.

Yours,
R. WHITE.

Montreal Live Stock Market.

The Montreal Gazette of Tuesday says:—Shipping cattle are very hard to get at the moment. The stock in the country which is in fit shape to ship this month has been pretty well picked up, and the shippers who were on the markets to-day only succeeded in securing about half a dozen loads, paying 5c@5¼c for steers and 4½c for fat bulls. The improvement in the British markets will no doubt have the effect of stiffening the local markets and working the exporters into a state of excitement, but if they consider long enough they will no doubt realize that the advance is only temporary and will not do anything rash. We would advise them to move cautiously, as the prospects are 10 to 1 that prices will fall off with anything like a large run. For the week ending May 2 only 2,990 head of cattle and 16,441 quarters of beef were shipped out of American ports, 1,510 cattle and 9,456 quarters going from New York, 300 cattle and 5,385 quarters from Boston, 400 cattle from Baltimore, and 1,000 quarters from Philadelphia. These shipments are very light, and with a few weeks of heavy shipments form here the market is almost sure to take a drop. Last year's lesson was a very severe one and should serve as a reminder that a quiet conservative trade is preferable to that plunging-gambler-like policy which was so prominent all through the season of 1890.

There was a brisk trade this morning at the Point St. Charles yards, but buyers and sellers agreed that cattle could be bought cheaper than in Toronto on Friday last. James Eakins, of Port Hope, was the only shipper who did any business, taking about 4 loads, for which he paid 5c@5¼c for steers 4½c for bulls. Local speculators and butchers also bought freely, the Meat Company taking two loads. The 450 hogs offered sold at 5¼c@5¾c fed, hogs off the cars being worth $5.50.

Constipation,

If not remedied in season is liable to become habitual and chronic. Drastic purgatives, by weakening the bowels, confirm, rather than cure, the evil. Ayer's Pills, being mild, effective, and strengthening in their action, are generally recommended by the faculty as the best of aperients.

"Having been subject, for years, to constipation, without being able to find much relief, I at last tried Ayer's Pills. I deem it both a duty and a pleasure to testify that I have derived great benefit from their use. For over two years past I have taken one of these pills every night before retiring. I would not willingly be without them."—G. W. Bowman, 26 East Main st., Carlisle, Pa.

"I have been taking Ayer's Pills and using them in my family since 1857, and cheerfully recommend them to all in need of a safe but effectual cathartic."—John M. Boggs, Louisville, Ky.

"For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so bad that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action, so that now I am in excellent health."—S. L. Loughbridge, Bryan, Texas.

"Having used Ayer's Pills, with good results, I fully indorse them for the purposes for which they are recommended."—T. Conners, M. D., Centre Bridge, Pa.

WARSHIPS ORDERED TO CORFU BY BRITAIN.

Further Murders Reported in the Hebrew Quarter—The Attempted Assassination of the Czar's Son — Dynamitards at Work in Ireland.

CORFU, May 13.—The anti-Hebrew excitement, which caused an outbreak about April 27, is becoming more venomous. Yesterday rioting was renewed. Two Hebrews were killed and a number were injured. Troops dispersed the rioters and now surround the Hebrew quarter. Hebrews are forbidden to pass outside the cordon of troops and all stores kept by Hebrews are closed. The prefect of Corfu has been summoned to Athens to explain the situation to the Government. Troops have been sent here from Athens to restore order.

Corfu is the capital of the monarchy of the same name in the kingdom of Greece. It has a population of 15,482, and consists of two parts, the town and citadel, and has several suburbs. It was the capital of the Ionian Republic.

Gunboats for Corfu.

LONDON, May 13.—England and France have sent gunboats to Corfu to protect their subjects.

Bloody Riot in China.

SHANGHAI, May 13.—An anti-European riot has taken place at Woo Hoo. The natives attacked and burned the Catholic mission and a number of other European dwellings. The Europeans have taken refuge upon the hulks anchored in the river. Her Majesty's ship Inconstant has been ordered to proceed immediately to the scene of the riot, to protect the lives and property of the European residents. Woo Hoo is a treaty port in the province of Ngan-Hoei, on the Yangtse-Kiang, 50 miles from Nanking.

A Revolt in Dutch Guiana.

LONDON, May 13.—A South American despatch says the people of the lower orders have revolted against the authorities in Dutch Guiana. Several serious conflicts with the insurgents have occurred in which many persons were wounded and the situation is constantly becoming more alarming.

"HE IS DEAD!"

How the News Was Received by the Czarina—The Assailant a Fanatic.

LONDON, May 13.—All accounts of the attempt to take the life of the Czarewitch at Otsu, Japan, agree in expressing the belief that the act was due to religious fanaticism so that it was either a Buddhist protest against the increase of Russian missions or that the Czarewitch omitted observance of customary rules of etiquet whilst visiting the temple.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 13.—When the news of the murderous attack on the Czarewitch was conveyed to the Czarina she exclaimed, "He is dead. You are hiding the truth from me," and then fell into a faint. When the reports of the affair reached here thousands of persons assembled about the Atchinoff Palace to learn the latest particulars.

EXPELLED FROM FRANCE

A Scotch Member of Parliament Ordered Out of the Country.

CALAIS, May 13.—Mr. R. Cunninghame Graham, Gladstonian Liberal member of the British Parliament for Northwest Lanarkshire, Scotland, who is prominent as a sympathizer with advanced thinkers, has been expelled from France by the authorities. After attending a Socialist meeting in Paris on Sunday night, on going to his hotel Mr. Graham was informed that Police Commissioner Brasseur wished to see him in an adjoining room. On entering the apartment M. Brasseur, after reading the warrant of his expulsion, took his arm and informed him that he must proceed at once to Calais in order to catch the boat leaving for Dover at 1.30 this morning. Mr. Graham was not allowed to return to his room to obtain his luggage or to say good-by to his friends.

DYNAMITE IN IRELAND.

A Magazine Blown Up in County Down Occasioning Great Damage.

DUBLIN, May 13.—A magazine exploded to-day at Donaghadee, county Down, near Belfast. The shock shook the whole town and broke many windows. It is supposed the explosion was the work of a dynamiter. The police are hunting for an American suspected of having committed the crime.

CHARITY COVERS THE SIN.

The Paris Mutuel System to be Allowed Under Government Control.

PARIS, May 13.—The Chamber of Deputies to-day by a vote of 312 to 160 adopted the bill allowing the Paris mutuel system of betting under a tax, the proceeds of the tax going to the different charitable institutions, and placing the whole regulation of the racecourses under Government control.

Poor Portugal's Plight.

MADRID, May 13.—Advices from Lisbon state that a severe censorship has been placed over telegrams sent from or into that city. Even news telegrams destined for the official journal have been stopped. The well-known political economist Coelho has written a letter in which he says Portugal has a colonial deficit and ruinous loans contracted upon humiliating terms, and she is confronted by monetary, industrial and political crises of the most threatening kind.

England and Portugal Agree.

LISBON, May 13.—It is stated that negotiations between England and Portugal for an agreement relative to South Africa have been concluded and the draft of the agreement will arrive here Friday.

The Prince Has the Grip.

LONDON, May 13.—The Prince of Wales is suffering from a slight attack of influenza and indisposition which prevented him from attending the drawing-room held at Buckingham Palace to-day by the Princess of Wales, and the Queen has ordered the Duke of Connaught to hold the levee to-morrow instead of the Prince. Mr. Gladstone is progressing towards recovery. Baron Brassey's brother Henry has died from pneumonia following influenza.

Charge Annulled.

LONDON, May 13.—The court to-day annulled the charge of perjury against Mr. Samuel Storey, M.P. for Sunderland, but allowed the costs to stand against him. The alleged perjury was said to have been committed on the hearing of the charge of assault preferred by Mr. Storey against Superintendent Barrell during the Silksworth colliery strike.

THE BROOKLYN HANDICAP.

Final Trial of the Cracks at Gravesend—Tenny Does the Distance in 2.07.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The horses who are to run for the $20,000 stake at the Brooklyn Jockey Club on Friday were given their final trials to-day. The following are the names and the times in which they covered the mile and a quarter, the handicap distance:

Tenny finished strong in 2.07, Tentray 2.08¼, Russell and Terrifier 2.09¼, Castaway, Cassius and Once Again 2.14¼. Loantaka finished strong in 2.08¼. Uncle Bob finished four lengths in front of Terra Cotta in 2.09¼. Senorita ran well within herself in 2.12½, Carrol in 2.11, Leighton 2.12¼. Judge Morrow and Reilly went the distance in 2.12¼. Both pulled up. Burlington was not pushed and did it in 2.13. Cousin Jeems ran good and strong and finished in 2.09¼. Chaos went the distance in 2.15 and pulled up very lame. Banquet was sent the handicap distance, but all the watches were left on the time. Saunterer went in 2.12. Los Angeles and Santiago were sent a mile, which they finished in 1.46. Prince Royal and Eon did a mile in 1.45¼. Lavinia Belle galloped the distance in 2.17. There will be no important runs to-morrow and most of the horses will be given a rest until the big race is run.

Thought His Dead Mother Slept.

MONTCLAIR, N.J., May 13.—Mrs. Ellen Johnson had not been seen by her neighbors for a week, and her little son told them that his mother was asleep. The boy said his mother had been lying still in her bed for several days and that "she looked funny." An investigation was made, when the body of Mrs. Johnson, much decomposed, was found lying on the bed. The boy said he last spoke to his mother on the night of May 3. She then shook violently, and afterward lay very still. He supposed that she was asleep and he did not attempt to awaken her. For several mornings he got up from the bed and left his mother lying in the same position. Her eyes were closed and he thought she was having a good long sleep.

M. Mercier Created a Count.

MONTREAL, May 13.—A report has been received here that Premier Mercier of Quebec has been created a count of the Holy Roman Empire by the Pope.

'Twas Ever Thus.

A man is bending o'er me
Who asks but to adore me;
His fondest love to me
He's freely giving.
He murmurs his devotion
In tones of sweet emotion,
And swears that life alone
Is not worth living.
And all the time I listen
My eyes with rapture glisten,
While drinking in his tones
So rich and mellow.
I understand the feeling,
And bliss is o'er me stealing,
For I'm in love—but with Another fellow.

To Wash Lace Curtains.

It is not an easy task to wash a lace curtain. The washers of nice lace form a class of labor quite by themselves, and few people have an idea of the amount of labor involved in the cleansing operation, and of the skill and knowledge required. The labor, of course, comes in chiefly in drying, for the washing is but a simple thing in comparison. A table is cushioned and covered closely with a spotless cloth, and on this the lace is stretched with an intricate care that is amazing. Through every mesh a pin is placed to hold it in place, and the whole pattern is thus pricked out till every leaf and spray and sprig is firmly fastened, so that it cannot shrivel or contract, a whole day being sometimes used up in preparing a single yard of the lace, so that when dry it is lifted off soft and perfect and unimpaired in the design.

The SURPRISE Way

YOU want your Cottons, Linens, Flannels always sweet, clean, snowy white?

YOU want "the wash" done the easiest, the cleanest, the quickest, the cheapest way?

SURPRISE Soap "the Surprise way," without boiling or scalding, gives these results.

BUY NOW IF AT ALL.
EVERY day makes more apparent the fact that the town is going ahead rapidly. Numerous changes have taken place in the way of the ownership of property. Many workingmen are buying houses and lots or lots on which to build. One of the most suitable locations is that known as the Erin property, at the west end, owned largely by Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald. This week he has closed the sale of a very desirable new house and lot, and has several eligible lots on this property to dispose of. Property in this neighborhood is rapidly being built up, and it will be well to have a look at the situation if one is at all disposed to buy. The terms are very favorable and especially low for cash, though payment on time may be arranged.

JACK THE RIPPER.

The Son of Ali, Alias Frenchy, Found Guilty of Murder.

NEW YORK, May 14.—The jury in the Carry Brown inquest rendered a verdict that the woman came to her death by strangulation at the hands of Ameer Ben Ali, alias "Frency Number 1."

Police Captain Richard O'Connor of the Oak-street station testified that he found drops of blood in the hallway leading from room 31, where the woman was murdered, to room 33, where "Frenchy Number 1" slept that night; also blood on the panel of the door of the room 33, also on the handle of the door. On the inside of the door there was a small spot of blood. He also referred to the other blood spots found on the bed and in room 33. He then testified the shirt that "Frenchy Number 1" had on when arrested. The blood marks on the shirt had been carefully cut out by the district attorney.

Dr. Cyrus Edson exhibited several envelopes containing pieces of clothing, dirt from beneath "Frenchy's" nails and wall paper from the East River Hotel stained with blood.

The Essex Coiners Sentenced to Long Terms in the Penitentiary.

WINDSOR, May 14.—The counterfeiters were sentenced this morning. John Stinson, the old man, will serve 10 years in Kingston Penitentiary and William and James, his sons, three years each. Stoddard, charged with making instruments for the counterfeiters, was released. Stoddard gave a bond for a thousand dollars to appear when called upon. The Dooley woman was also found guilty and will stop at the jail for two weeks. John Stinson when sentenced called the detectives all the vile names he could muster, but was quickly removed from the court.

Badgered to Death.

CLEVELAND, May 14.—Michael Shanley, an aged farmer near Wooster, who was robbed of a large sum of money last August, was found dead with a bullet through his head yesterday. The preliminary trial of Henry and Daniel Blakley and Harry Webb, neighbors, charged with the robbery, was started Tuesday. The old man was on hand all day, being subjected to a rigid examination. This it is supposed shattered his nerves and drove him to suicide. His wife was killed at the time of the robbery, and persons were arrested through changing a stolen $1,000 bill at a Canadian bank.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THE ALIEN LABOR BILL WITHDRAWN YESTERDAY.

Proposed Analysis of All the Liquors on Sale in Canada—Ministers Under Fire—The House Adjourns After a Two Hours' Session—Capital Chat.

OTTAWA, May 14.—Another two-hour session to-day sufficed to get through the business on the order paper which was ready to go on with, and the House adjourned at 5 o'clock.

The most noticeable feature of the proceedings was the application of Mr. McMullen for a return showing the amount deposited in each postoffice and Dominion Savings Bank in the Dominion on May 1. Mr. Haggart replied that this return would employ the entire staff of the savings bank branch for eight or nine months and cost six or seven thousand dollars. There were over 400,000 depositors in the Postoffice Savings Bank alone, and every account would have to be examined. They were not kept by cities or postoffices, but each was a separate account and it would involve rearranging the entire system to give the information in the way it was asked for. Of course the total amount could be given that was published in The Canada Gazette, but it would take a very long time to find out what was the balance at each place.

Messrs. Flint and Lavergne both introduced bills to amend the Canada Temperance Act. The amendments are on the line of enlarging the powers of justices of the peace to act as magistrates and regulating the sale of spirits in counties where the act has been adopted.

Ministers Under Fire.

Mr. Costigan stated in answer to Mr. Gauthier that the Government had no intention of abolishing the fees for inspecting weights and measures, as a large portion of that expense was already borne by the Government.

Mr. Hyman wanted to know whether new saddlery would be issued to the 1st Regiment of Cavalry in lieu of that condemned by the board of officers. Sir Adolphe Caron in reply said that a contract for saddlery had been entered into and when the contract was filled it would be decided whether a new issue would be made to the 1st Regiment of Cavalry.

Trent Valley Canal.

For Mr. Barron Mr. Burdett asked whether the Trent Valley Canal Commission had reported in favor of the completion of the scheme; if so, does the Government intend to ask Parliament this session for a grant for that scheme?

In the absence of the First Minister Sir Hector Langevin replied: "The commission has reported. I am not in a position to state the contents of the report, which will speak for itself. With regard to the second question the Government has come to no decision."

Mr. Burdett was not satisfied with this reply. He told Sir Hector no answer had been given whether the report was favorable, and Sir Hector's reply was: "I have given the reply of the Government."

Mr. Davies protested that his was a simple question. The Government surely could not refuse to answer the questions of members. The Speaker interfered to say that any discussion was out of order, and the member for Queen's replied that he would move the adjournment of the House but he would have an answer from the Hon. Minister.

Sir Richard Cartwright acting as leader of the Opposition, moved the adjournment, and after this motion was put to the House Mr. Davies resumed his protest against the discourtesy of the Government. He said he understood that the contract with the line of steamers which last year performed the service had expired at the close of the year and another line was this year doing the work. He wanted to know if this service was going on the same terms as last service. He did not want voluminous papers and by a notice of motion to have to wait weeks for them. The information he asked for was simple and easily obtainable by the minister. It was information which the public had a right to expect, and the hon. minister was not treating the House right in obstructing the obtaining of it. (Opposition applause.)

Mr. Foster assured the member for Queen's and the House that he had had no intention to be disrespectful nor to keep back information. If the question were added to a motion which the hon. member had on the paper for documents of a similar character he would promise to have the information asked for before the House before 24 hours. A considerable amount of work was entailed by them, and that had been the reason for his suggestion that the questions stand as a motion. The explanation of the Minister of Finance was accepted and the motion to adjourn was withdrawn. Subsequently, when Mr. Davies' motion was reached, it was adopted with the questions added.

Before the Foster episode was dropped, however, Mr. Burdett again called the attention of the House to the Government's refusal to answer his question. The excuse of the Minister of Finance, he declared, would not lie in the mouth of the hon. Minister of Public Works. It was well known to the country that the Trent Valley Canal had been dangled before the counties interested for half a century, and that it was always resurrected before an election. The simple question of the member for North Victoria was whether the report of the commission was favorable or not. If the Minister of Public Works knew, why did he not answer, and if he did not know why he did not say so? It might be said, Mr. Burdett proceeded, that he could read the report for himself. That was not the point. What the country wanted to know was whether the Government considered it favorable or not.

Sir Hector explained that in the absence of the Minister of Railways and Canals he had made the reply handed him to make.

Alien Labor.

Mr. Taylor, on rising to move the second reading of the bill to prohibit the importation and migration of foreigners and aliens under contract or agreement to perform labor in Canada, said that he understood that there had been some correspondence between the Dominion and United States governments on the question of alien labor, and if the question was one of those to be discussed at the conference next October at Washington he thought it would be better to withdraw the bill.

Sir John Thompson said that there had been some correspondence. He thought it would be unwise to proceed with the bill at present, as practically all questions in dispute between the United States and Canada might be discussed in October. Of course he was not in a position to say whether this was one of the questions to be discussed in Washington, but it would be, he thought, wise not to proceed with the act at present. The bill was then withdrawn.

Analyzing Our Grog.

A number of returns for papers were passed, amongst them one, on motion of Curran, for all petitions addressed to the Government praying for the analysis of intoxicating liquor manufactured or offered for sale in the Dominion.

Mr. Curran spoke of the injurious effects arising from the adulteration of liquor, which had caused great increase in delirium tremens and other diseases which were almost unknown in Canada some years ago when pure liquor was sold. He believed the inspection at the distilleries was very good, but the trouble was with the retailers.

Mr. Costigan said there was no objection to the motion. There was already provision in the Adulteration of Foods Act for analyzing liquors, and the officers of the Inland Revenue department had made a number of analyses.

The Senate.

The death of Senator Leonard at London at the advanced age of 77 removes another of the Confederation members from that chamber and another of the few remaining Liberals. There now remain in the Senate 13 members appointed at Confederation, of whom four are Liberals. The Senate as it now stands contains only 17 Liberals all told.

Notes.

Sir John Macdonald was at the council to-day, but did not come to the House.

The first parliamentary dinner of the session was held at Rideau Hall to-night.

All the standing committees will meet to-morrow morning for organization and election of chairmen. Mr. Girouard has been chairman of Privileges and Elections several years and will be re-elected if he will take it, but I am told to-night he may decline.

Montreal & Ottawa Railway.

OTTAWA, May 14.—Judge Foster of Montreal, who is here, says that he and Mr. Charlebois, the contractor for the Montreal & Ottawa Railway, while in England recently completed the financial arrangement for completion of the road, that the steel rails have been purchased and construction will be pushed.

Chinese Lepers.

OTTAWA, May 14.—Owing to the presence of leprosy amongst the Chinese in British Columbia, the Government will send Dr. Smith of the Tracadie Lazaretto to make an examination with a view to their segregation. The corporation of Victoria has purchased Darcy Island, some distance from the city, for the purpose of placing an establishment there if necessary.

The Purity of Girls.

OTTAWA, May 14.—Amongst the petitions presented to-day was one from Cardinal Taschereau asking that in the codification of the criminal law the age of consent be raised.

TORONTO TOPICS.

The troubles between Frederick D. Smith and his wife have reached the Police Court. Mr. Smith took out a warrant against his eighteen-year-old son Herbert W. D. Smith on a charge of abduction, and he was arrested last night. It is charged that Herbert forcibly conveyed his youngest brother Charles to his mother's residence in Eglinton.

The following gentlemen have passed the requisite examinations for certificate of fitness and call. The examinations were held on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

For certificate:

1 T. M. Higgins, 2 W. J. Fleury, 3 E. F. Blake, 4 T. A. Gibson, 5 H. W. Rowell and W. H. Murray, 7 H. C. Boultbee and R. McKay, 9 J. A. Taylor, 10 H. Armstrong and G. Waldron, 12 F. Pardee and E. G. Burned in Their Beds.

OTTAWA, May 14.—Early this morning a fire took place in the Chelsea-road, three miles from the city in the private residence of William Hudson. Hudson and his wife were on the ground floor of the building and managed to escape, but their son James, 22 years of age, who was asleep upstairs, was burned to a crisp. His sister Maud also perished in the flames, while her sister, a girl of 15 years of age, escaped by leaping from a window to the ground. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Want Aid For Their Harbor.

MONTREAL, May 14.—A deputation of harbor commissioners will shortly proceed to Ottawa to endeavor to obtain from the Government a loan to enable them to proceed with harbor improvements.

Smuggled Chinamen and Opium.

ROCHESTER, May 14.—W. B. Mather is on trial at the U.S. Court here for smuggling Chinamen from Canada into the United States at Sackett's Harbor last Christmas Eve. Yee Won and Wing Chiping are under indictment for smuggling opium from Montreal through Rouse's Point.

Took Leg Bail.

WINNIPEG, May 14.—One of the toughest cases in Manitoba Penitentiary, Convict Hill, sentenced to 10 years for safe-blowing at Portage, escaped last night and has not yet been recaptured. He had only served three years.

The foreign merchants at Lisbon propose to appoint three delegates, one French, one English and one German, to take action in common with the Portuguese [illegible] on the public debt.

AGED BUT WICKED.

A Septuagenarian Found Guilty of Firing His Barns for the Insurance.

ORANGEVILLE, May 14.—John Kirkland, aged 72, was found guilty at the Assizes today of setting fire to his barn, near Marsville, to secure an insurance of $1121, much more than its value. He was recommended to mercy and was given three years in the penitentiary.

THE CAMPBELLS ARE GOING.

The Chief Bookkeeper of the Montreal Department is Missing.

MONTREAL, May 14.—Mr. John F. Campbell, the head bookkeeper of the Montreal Customs Department, is missing. It is feared his books are wrong. An investigation will be held. He is supposed to have fled to the United States.

ALL READY FOR WAR.

RUSSIA PILING UP GOLD AT ST. PETERSBURG.

Concentrating Her Troops on the Frontier and Building Strategetic Railways—The Continent, it is Believed, Will Soon Echo With the Noise of the Battle.

BERLIN, May 14.—Bismarck once said that the first battles of the next European war would be fought out on the Bourses. The events of the past fortnight and the menaces of the next few weeks to come suggest the possibility that this great conflict may be already upon us.

No less than eight Russian loans have been advertised in England during the past two years, and after the floating in January of a loan of £15,000,000, which was the last of four conversion loans, amounting in all to £106,000,000, brought out by the Rothschilds during that time, Russia had the means of withdrawing fully £32,000,000 from the markets of the world.

Last summer about £5,000,000 were on deposit with the Messrs. Baring, and the withdrawal of half this sum was one of the causes of that firm's downfall.

Money at Disposal.

A telegram from St. Petersburg last evening gave a semi-official statement of the outstanding Russian credits on May 8 as over forty millions, of which twenty-three millions were ear-marked for the purpose of redemption as loans, 1850, 1860, and service of public debt loans, while of the balance eleven millions are entirely unappropriated and at the Government's disposal.

Piling Up Gold at St. Petersburg.

During the last 10 weeks Russia has withdrawn £7,000,000, of which about one ultimately came out of the Bank of England, five from New York, and one was either from Amsterdam or was brought in London as it arrived from other parts of the world.

Five millions have already arrived in St. Petersburg, and they showed in the last return of the Imperial Bank, and the remaining £2,000,000 have since arrived or are on the way thither. In detail, this large amount was withdrawn principally from Amsterdam and Berlin, the latter place being reimbursed by purchases of gold bars in the London market, and by shipments from New York made to some extent against sales of American railway shares.

Rumors as to Russia's Intentions.

At the beginning of the present week the Russian deposits had been reduced to £2,500,000 at the Bank of England and £12,000,000 at the Rothschilds, plus about £4,500,000 in Berlin, Paris and Amsterdam—in all £16,000,000.

Another loan of £20,000,000, partly for conversion purposes, had also been arranged for and still another was talked of. Sinister rumors began floating about as to Russia's intentions, and upon the heels of these came the news that the Paris Rothschilds had withdrawn from the syndicate and refused to go on with the loan, although the contract had already been signed by them.

The ostensible reason credited to the nervous state of the Paris Bourse indicated that the present was an inopportune time. This, of course, imposed upon no one.

Divided Between Two Ideas.

Europe is divided between two explanations. One is that the Rothschilds withdrew as a protest against the new and savage outbreak of Jewish persecution; the other is that they got an inkling of a Russian intention to precipitate a war within the next few months. I do not pretend to choose between the two.

I am informed that the Rothschilds have already been drawn upon for three millions, and have in turn ordered gold shipments from New York during the week and as far ahead as Wednesday next.

It is this which induced the Bank of England to advance the discount rate and raise its buying price of gold coin a half penny an ounce.

The United States Must Pay Out the Gold.

The notion is that Russia having failed to float the loan has resolved to draw in all her available balances regardless of the consequences. This will be bad for Europe, but the United States have an even greater financial concern.

England and America are the only free markets for gold, and as England is not in a position to ship any more the brunt of the Russian demand must fall on America and gold be exported without regard to whether it pays as an exchange operation or not.

As has been said opinions differ as to the sudden passion of the Russian Imperial Bank for piling up metal in its vaults. There is one theory that Veshnegradsky has been frightened by the Baring panic, and prefers gold safely at home where it can be used to put the rouble on a metallic basis.

Hastily Preparing for War.

A more intelligible idea is that Russia is hastily preparing for war. She has completed a heavy concentration of troops along the western frontier; she has finished a number of small strategic railways, and has built a lot of modern grain elevators.

True, her distribution of the new magazine rifles is not perfected, but the old guns will serve to arm the reserves of peasants too ignorant to be instructed with the new and complicated weapons. At all events, the next few weeks will be the most anxious time Europe has seen since the great war scare of 1887.

Italy Sees Universal Peace.

ROME, May 14.—The Marquis di Rudini in the Chamber of Deputies to-day discussing the New Orleans affair, said it was simply a legal question. The departure of Baron Fava from Washington had been ordered as a protest against the action of the United States in rejecting responsibility for the affair. European sympathy, the Premier added, was with Italy, and he hoped for a friendly solution of the question involved.

In regard to the triple alliance the Marquis said Italy would maintain that agreement between the powers as a guarantee of universal peace.

Another Big Blaze at Gravenhurst.

GRAVENHURST, May 14.—About 9.30 to-night the following buildings were burned: Brock's dwelling house and a large barn in which the fire originated; Albion Hotel, barns and sheds with a number of outbuildings; J. T. Harvie's stables and office; Dr. Cornell's vacant store.

The buildings were all wooden situated in the centre of the town.

Killed His Mother With a Hoe.

BENTON, Ark., May 14.—Tom Page, aged 12, struck his mother on the head with a hoe here to-day, killing her instantly. Mrs. Page was attempting to chastise the boy.

Fatal Deduction.

Editor—"Grubber has been with us a dozen years or more, but I'm afraid we shall have to let him go."

Business Manager—"What's the matter with Grubber?"

Editor—"He has got to thinking we can't run this paper without him."

100 Doses One Dollar

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, MAY 15, 1891.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER IN LONDON.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER delivered a speech before the Colonial Institute in London this week, in which he defended the fiscal policy of the present Canadian administration. Of course, the people in England have nothing to do with forming the fiscal policy of this country, but there was a feeling in England when the National Policy was proposed that it would be injurious to the interests of that country and it was argued by some, on this side of the Atlantic, that it would be so injurious as to threaten the political relations between the Dominion and the Mother Country. Sir Charles, however, was able, after years of experience with that policy, to point out to his audience that instead of it having an injurious effect, British trade with Canada had increased to greater extent under the present policy than it did under the so-called free trade system previously in force in the Dominion. He was also able to show that that policy had benefited the Dominion and had enabled it to secure a railway across the continent besides doing much in other ways to develop the country. Sir Charles' statement that Canada was loyal, and that only a small section in Canada had any leanings towards annexation, was amply justified by the facts. He applauded Mr. Howard Vincent's efforts to promote closer tariff unity between the colonies and the mother country by a system of preferential treatment, and in doing so Sir Charles voiced the opinion of Canada, for such an arrangement could not fail to be beneficial to all concerned and would bind together more closely the different portions of the Empire.

In thus addressing an English audience, and the English people, Sir Charles did a service for the country he represents. It is well to have the people of England informed regarding Canadian interests and public opinion on this side of the Atlantic, and the High Commissioner is in a good position to do that and makes good use of his opportunities. In delivering such addresses as the one referred to Sir Charles is doing a better service than in carrying on the discussion in the Times regarding the Grand Trunk management, for even friends of the High Commissioner cannot help thinking that little good and some harm may be done by attacking and continuing attacks upon a corporation such as the Grand Trunk in the English press. Sir Charles' address will be of considerable assistance to Mr. Howard Vincent and those associated with them in endeavoring to bring about closer trade relations between Great Britain and Canada and the other colonies, for it will give British public men a clearer idea of the position of affairs in this important part of the Empire and help to show to the British people the benefits that would accrue from carrying out such a scheme.

THE Y.M.C.A. BUILDING.

In another column a letter is published from the Travelling Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association. It should not be necessary to remind the people of Peterborough of what other places have done in order to obtain sufficient aid here to erect a building suitable for the purpose of the Association. The handsome bequest of Mrs. Nicholls leaves comparatively little remaining to be done in order to erect a building that will serve the requirements of the Association work for many years to come and place it in a position to do thoroughly good work. It is not necessary to enlarge on the benefits derived from this Association, which always has its doors open for young men. Mr. Cole's letter will no doubt be sufficient to set the ball rolling.

"That tired feeling" is entirely overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives a feeling of buoyancy and strength to the whole system.

A Lesson on Manners.

Hamilton Herald.

We see that the Toronto Grit organ denies that Mr. Laurier will accept knighthood on the Queen's Birthday. Perhaps not. But it is always considered to be good manners to wait until you are asked.

Let us be Neighborly.

Toledo, Ohio, Blade.

There is a vast deal of rot talked about Canada and ourselves being "neighbors." Two farmers whose lands adjoin are neighbors, but it don't follow that they will abolish the line fence and allow Farmer A's cattle to forage on Farmer B's growing grain, and Farmer B's pigs to root up Farmer A's potatoes, for the sake of being neighborly.

A Chance for Sir Richard.

Toronto Empire.

Representative "Jerry" Simpson, one of the Farmers' Alliance leaders in the west, has been making a trip to the east. One of the results of his visit, he says, is the discovery that 90 per cent. of the farms of New York state are mortgaged for more than they would bring if sold now. They were mortgaged when farm lands were high, and "many of them are not worth half what they were then." If Sir Richard were only the "Senator from New York," instead of Ontario, how he would gloat over a decline in farm lands of over 50 per cent.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER OF A WIFE IN NORTH WALES.

The Pope in His Labor Encyclical Sees the Solution of All Troubles is To Be Found in the Gospel—Further Rioting At Woo Hoo.

ROME, May 14.—The Latin text of the Pope's encyclical on the labor question refutes the Socialist theories, intending to abolish private property and upholds the principles of the church as the first and main element in the solution of social questions. The true solution, the Pope says, can be found in the Gospel and if rightly studied would teach employers and the employed to live in unity while fulfilling their respective duties. The church has always sought to promote the application of the principles stated in the Gospel and to give moral and material help as inculcated by Christ's doctrines. The state should intervene to regulate disputes in regard to private property in order to ensure the public peace and the moral and material welfare of the working people. His Holiness comments on the necessity of Sunday rest and deals at length with the questions of strikes, wages and hours of labor for workmen, women and children. The Pope dilates on the subject of workingmen's associations, including mutual aid and insurance societies, sick funds, classes for technical education, and mixed syndicates of employers and employes. The state he holds ought to countenance all such institutions as are calculated to improve the existing social conditions. The Pope praises the work these institutions have already achieved and calls upon all Catholics to assist in the reformation urging that all should be animated with a Christian spirit.

A BRIDE LURED TO DEATH.

A Washington Man Batters Out His Wife's Brains with a Stone.

CHESTER, Eng., May 14.—R. C. Duncan of Washington, U.S., arrived three weeks ago at the Benar View Hotel at Bettwsycoed accompanied by a young foreign lady, whom he introduced as his wife. Duncan was already known at the hotel where he stayed last summer with two other Americans. He was then unmarried. Tuesday Duncan and his wife left the hotel ostensibly with the purpose of going to Liverpool, but having left their luggage at the railway station they returned to the hotel.

They started at midday apparently on friendly terms to take a walk. At 6 o'clock in the evening a farmer passing through a plantation in a secluded spot in the fertile valley under the Snowdon saw Duncan leaning over a woman who was lying on the ground. Duncan shouted that the woman was his wife who had fallen and hit her head on a rock. The woman who was unconscious was removed to a farm house. The doctors who heard Duncan's story were unable to reconcile the nature of the woman's injury with his story. Her skull was fractured over the right ear obviously from a blow.

The operation of trepanning was performed. Duncan, who was arrested, confessed on being informed that his wife was still alive that he had battered her head, and the police have found a stone covered with blood and hair near the spot where the woman had fallen. Duncan on being taken before a magistrate made no explanation of the affair and was remanded. Duncan is 27 years old, is short, slight and fair-haired and wears spectacles. He is a noted linguist. His family in Washington occupy a good social position. It is stated that he met his wife in Stockholm and her father is a cigar manufacturer at Abo, in Finland. Mrs. Duncan is still unconscious and there is only the smallest hopes of her recovery. Duncan's motive for the crime has not been explained.

Escapes Disguised as a Chinese.

SHANGHAI, May 14.—Further particulars from Woo Hoo show the Chinese who burned the Catholic mission and other European buildings also burned and looted the Custom House and the British consulate. The wife of the British Consul disguised as a Chinese woman escaped from the consulate to the bank of the Yangtsekiang, where she took refuge on the hulks moored in the stream. The British Consul was wounded while on his way from the consulate to the hulks. The Europeans of Woo Hoo are anxiously waiting the arrival of Her Majesty's ship Inconstant.

More Murders at Corfu.

LONDON, May 14.—Dispatches received here say two more Jews have been murdered at Corfu and the bodies of several Jews who died from starvation lie unburied. Troops continue to keep a cordon about the Hebrew quarter.

An attack was made upon the Ghetto quarter of Corfu yesterday. The Jews' houses were burned, and nine persons were killed and many injured. A state of siege has been declared.

Desertion of Prominent Supporters from the Parnell Wing of the Irish Party.

DUBLIN, May 14.—The two Harringtons, Timothy and Edward, have decided to give in their adhesion to the Nationalist party. The two brothers have been the most formidable of Parnell's friends, because they controlled the machinery of the old National League.

E. Dwyer Gray, formerly M.P. for Dublin and holder of half of the stock of The Freeman's Journal, has seceded from the Parnellite party.

Redmond's Salary Stopped.

DUBLIN, May 14.—The electors of North Wexford have resolved to stop payment of the salary of John E. Redmond, their member, and to devote the money thus saved to the relief of evicted tenants.

Chat From Over the Sea.

In Russian Poland influenza has decimated the population of many villages.

Eighty-four members of the House of Commons are suffering from influenza.

The draft of the Anglo-Portugal agreement with reference to East Africa has been signed in London.

There was renewed rioting at Brussels last evening and the police charged the crowd with drawn swords.

The steamer City of Paris, Capt. Watkins, sailed from Liverpool for New York yesterday. She touched at Queenstown and proceeded for her destination.

A collision occurred during a dense fog yesterday between the British steamer Montana and the German steamer Fredrick Krupp off Quessant Island. The Montana was sunk. No lives were lost.

THE SWORD WAS BLUNT.

The Mikado Says the Czarevitch's Wound is of a Trifling Character.

BERLIN, May 14.—The Japanese Embassy here has received advices from Tokio stating that the Mikado's physician reports that the Czarevitch's wound is trifling. There is a complete absence of fever and the Czarevitch is in good spirits. The latest report concerning the affair is that the Czarevitch and Prince George were returning incognito from a place of amusement when they came in conflict with police officers, who asserted themselves too vigorously until the identity of the princes was revealed. The princes were without escort at the time. The slightness of the Czarevitch's wound is explained by the fact that the Japanese police use blunt swords.

Constipation,

IF not remedied in season, is liable to become habitual and chronic. Drastic purgatives, by weakening the bowels, confirm, rather than cure, the evil. Ayer's Pills, being mild, effective, and strengthening in their action, are generally recommended by the faculty as the best of aperients.

"Having been subject, for years, to constipation, without being able to find much relief, I at last tried Ayer's Pills. I deem it both a duty and a pleasure to testify that I have derived great benefit from their use. For over two years past I have taken one of these pills every night before retiring. I would not willingly be without them."—G. W. Bowman, 26 East Main st., Carlisle, Pa.

"I have been taking Ayer's Pills and using them in my family since 1857, and cheerfully recommend them to all in need of a safe but effectual cathartic."—John M. Boggs, Louisville, Ky.

"For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so bad that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action, so that now I am in excellent health."—S. L. Loughbridge, Bryan, Texas.

"Having used Ayer's Pills, with good results, I fully indorse them for the purposes for which they are recommended."—T. Conners, M. D., Centre Bridge, Pa.

Is it a Voice of Authority?

The views of the New York Tribune have suddenly become of superior importance in the eye of the Opposition. Its editorial opinions are quoted at great length in the Globe; we are told with unction that it "knows the mind of the Harrison administration"; and that it is strong, if not conclusive evidence upon the condition of feeling in Washington official circles regarding Canadian reciprocity. Very well; that being the present opinion of the chief Opposition mouthpiece let us quote, for the instruction and edification of the loyal Liberals, a few words from the same journal now so highly lauded as a competent authority on what from the Washington Administration desire Canadian reciprocity to take.

The New York Tribune, in its issue of February 18 last, just before our general elections—when the Unrestricted Reciprocity agitators were indulging in unrestricted shrieks of what they would do and wouldn't do—poured this douche of cold practical common sense down the backs of the Opposition politicians:

"This nation has not the slightest notion of allowing Canada to open a back door as wide as it may please while tariff enactments by the United States are closing the front door against sundry importations at New York and Boston. If anybody is really silly enough to propose that such a plan is entertained by Americans he does not live in this country."

And spoke also this same Tribune, so thoroughly imbued, remember, with the "mind of the Harrison administration":

"The one thing which may as well be accepted by all parties concerned as the only possible basis of any commercial arrangement between this nation and Canada is that the people of the United States shall decide on what terms goods from Europe can be brought into this country."

Unrestricted Reciprocity, therefore, means at Washington a tariff wall right round this continent, the exclusion of British goods under the McKinley system, the incorporation commercially of Canada into the American Union, and the other evils incident upon loss of the control of the tariff. The Grit organ having fitted this cap neatly over its head may now wear it as gracefully as discomfiture will permit.—Toronto Empire.

CASH HARDWARE STORE.

On and after 1st April we shall do business on a Cash Basis.

To cover the inevitable losses attendant upon a credit business, (which accrue from amount of time spent in keeping accounts, collecting, bad debts, interest account, and in numerous other ways, larger margins of profit must be asked.

In these times cash buyers ask, expect and are entitled to close prices. A careful consideration of the subject convinces us that the time has come for a cash business done on smaller profits.

The only customers who may be put to inconvenience are those who have had long credit. In more ways than one it will be to their advantage to pay cash.

For convenience of our old customers who consider their accounts due when presented, we will call 30 days cash and render all accounts the first of each month, and we wish to say that we will be happy to do business with them on these terms.

As the new departure is something of an experiment, what would be considered a close cash price will be made all through the stock. Not a few leaders only, but a general reduction in everything from the fourth flat to the cellar.

Our idea is to perform more than promised rather than promise more than can be fulfilled.

Our stock is large and varied, consisting of Builders', Contractors', Household, Mechanics', Painters', Shoemakers', Farm, Mill, Factory, Lumbermen's, Sporting, Threshers', Cabinetmakers', and other lines of Hardware.

A Wine and Beer License.

A meeting the Board of License Commissioners was held yesterday afternoon in the Council Chamber, Messrs. Graham and Walton, Commissioners, and Geo. Cochrane, Inspector, being present. Some routine business was done and a wine and beer license was granted to Mr. R. R. Hamilton at the restaurant at the C.P.R. station.

Is this Another Opportunity?

The Hamilton Herald says:—"Hamilton should be able to meet all requirements of the street car factory which has resolved to move away from St. Catharines. This city has no desire to take other cities' factories from them, but once they resolve on making a change Hamilton should not be behind hand in unfolding her advantages as a manufacturing centre."

Caught in the Belt.

Chris. Clagence, a machinist employed in the Wm. Hamilton Company's works, had a narrow escape from losing his arm this morning. He was shifting a belt on his lathe when his hand was caught under the revolving leather and his hand was drawn in. His fellow workmen cut the belt and liberated his hand before the arm had been drawn in. As it was the hand was fearfully torn and lacerated. He is under Dr. Clarke's care.

A District Convention.

Arrangements are being made to hold a Woman's Missionary Society convention at Peterborough in the George-st. church, on Thursday, May 21st. The President and two delegates from each auxiliary are expected, one of whom will give a report of the auxiliary to which she belongs; another is expected to give a five minutes' paper bearing on the work. The programme will be varied by music, addresses, and papers. A testimony meeting will be held, and everything that can be done to stimulate interest in the missionary cause. Every minister's wife on the district, and all other ladies interested, are cordially invited to be present.

Very Like Santa Claus.

The Belleville Intelligencer says:—"At the Anniversary meeting of the Bridge-st. Sunday school last evening, the Superintendent of the school, after welcoming the Hon. B. Flint, turned to the primary class, who was seated on tiers of chairs behind him, not one of whom had ever seen Mr. Flint before, and asked them if they had ever seen anybody whom Mr. Flint looked like, and immediately two score of hands were raised in response, and replied, 'Santa Claus, Santa Claus.' More than once has Mr. Flint been stopped on the streets by little children and asked, 'Is you Santa Claus?' He certainly very much resembles the typical Santa Claus that one sees in pictures."

Everybody Knows

That at this season the blood is filled with impurities, the accumulation of months of close confinement in poorly ventilated stores, workshops and tenements. All these impurities and every trace of scorfula, salt rheum, or other diseases may be expelled by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier ever produced. It is the only medicine of which "100 doses one dollar" is true.

A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.

Dangers which Threatened and Damaged Life, Limb and Property.

A son of Mr. Alex. Ross, of Lindsay, met with a very serious accident last Friday at the hands of a companion, says the Watchman. It appears that the boys were enjoying themselves practising with an air gun, when young Ross received a shot in the eye, which totally destroyed the sight of the organ.

A young son of Mr. S. S. Ritchie, of Lindsay, narrowly escaped drowning on Thursday afternoon last near the Lindsay-st. bridge. He had fallen into the water and was going down for the third time, when he was rescued by Mr. Thos. Brady (of Hurley & Brady) after much difficulty and danger. He was restored to consciousness with difficulty.

Mr. Arthur Cunningham, of Ops, had a narrow escape from being done to death the other day. He was attacked by a bull owned by the township agricultural society, and being knocked down the animal proceeded to trample upon him. The women folks of the house fearlessly assailed the brute with clubs and drove it off. Mr. Cunningham was badly, but not seriously injured. The bull was immediately disposed of.

On Thursday last, as the Alice Ethel was steaming up the river, near Lindsay at a place where the men are employed blasting and dredging, she struck a rock thrown up by a blast and was so injured that she immediately sank. Luckily she reached shallow water and by the assistance of a diver the hole was patched sufficiently to allow the steamer to be pumped out.

LAST SAD RITES.

Funeral of the Late James McIntyre—A Resolution of Condolence.

The funeral of the late James McIntyre took place yesterday to Little Lake cemetery and was largely attended. The deceased was a member of L.O.L. No. 69, and the brethren of this lodge, together with representatives from L.O.L. No. 68, True Blues and 'Prentice Boys, turned out in large numbers to pay their last respects to their departed brother. Upon retiring to the hall a resolution of thanks was passed by No. 69 to the brethren of the other Orange organizations who had turned out to do honor to the memory of their deceased brother.

At a meeting of the Band of Hope, Auburn, the following resolution of condolence was passed to the children of the deceased:—

PETERBOROUGH, May 14th, 1891.

To our Bros. and Sister McIntyre:

DEAR BROS. AND SISTER,—Having heard of the sad and sudden death of your beloved father, we, the members of the Band of Hope, of Auburn, hereby extend to you our heartfelt sympathy with you in your affliction, and an expression of our regret at the lamentable loss you have sustained, and would say put your trust in Him who doeth all things well, for in the midst of life we are in death.

Yours truly,
MAGGIE PRATT,
Secretary.

The Weather Report.

Mr. Thos. Telford sends, in the following weather report:—White frost again this morning with the thermometer at the freezing point, no doubt doing considerable damage to early vegetation but may be the cause of producing rain in a few days.

A Final Warning.

This is the 15th of May, the day after which, according to the Health By-law, all pit closets have to be filled up within the prescribed limits and all closets in the town cleaned. Warning is hereby given and prosecutions will follow in event of failure to comply with requirements.

More New 'Phones.

The Ontario Telephone Co. are pushing the work of putting in telephones as fast as connections can be made with the central office. Within the last day or two the following have been placed:—T. J. Bogan, grocer, Ashburnham, 270; Oriental stables, A.B. Appleby, prop., 15; J. Long, confectioner, 10; H. LeBrun, residence, 63.

The First of the Season.

It was announced some time ago that the local lacrosse team would have a game here on the 25th of May, the celebration of the Queen's birthday. A game has been arraigned with a team of the Toronto lacrosse club. This will be a good eleven and the exhibition will be one worth seeing. The local boys are getting into shape by hard practice and intend to give the visitors a proper struggle. The game will be played on the P.A.A.A. grounds.

Preparing for the 25th.

The races at the driving park on May 25th promise to furnish some rare sport for the local horsemen. The track is in fine condition and some speedy contests will be witnessed. Jimmy Curtis' trotter and J. Daly's "Minnie Bell" are here getting in shape for the races.

Messrs. Appleby and Chadburn's pacer is showing considerable speed and is quite a surprise party to some of the boys. There is a good deal of speculation as to where the side-wheeler comes from.

Not many physicians make great therapeutic discoveries. For the most part they content themselves with administering judiciously what is prescribed in the books. To J. C. Ayer, however, is due the credit of discovering that greatest of blood purifiers—Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Slept in the Cells.

Jimmy Farley, whose freedom for the next two months depends upon his absence from his better half and the community generally, spent last night in the police cells. He did not dare to go home fearing that another breach with Mrs. Farley would bring down the suspended sentence of two months at hard labor upon his old gray head. This morning he was seeking a pass to Rochester, and had a most woeful tale to tell of his domestic troubles and his wife's conduct.

Personal.

Mr. G. H. Locke passed very successfully his second year examination at Victoria University, taking 1st class honors in classics. Mr. Locke is a son of Rev. J. H. Locke, pastor of the George-st. church.

Dr. Oronhyatekha, accompanied by Mrs. and Miss Oronhyatekha and Miss Hayley, lately started for Edinburgh, Scotland, where they attend the Right Worthy Grand Lodge of Good Templars of the world. It is expected that the doctor will return with the title of Right Worthy Grand Templar, being the highest position in the gift of the order.

A note received from Dr. Rutherford, who is in Toronto with his father, says that Mr. Rutherford is improving and may, if strong enough, come home on Saturday of this week. Reference is made to the careful attention shown in the General Hospital and to the kindness of many friends including that of Mr. Geo. A. Cox, who has sent daily fresh flowers and placed his carriage at disposal to drive out in when the patient felt like it and to convey him from the hospital to depot.

AT STONY LAKE.

The party of cottage owners who went on a visit of inspection to Stony Lake yesterday arrived home last evening, after having enjoyed a pleasant day's trip and explored their respective summer retreats. The party numbered fourteen in all, as follows:—Mr. and Mrs. E. H. D. Hall, Mr. Wm. Hamilton and Miss A. Hamilton, Messrs. J. McClelland, E. B. Edwards, E. G. Lech, T. E. Bradburn, F. Brownscombe, J. W. Butcher, J. D. Collins, H. Grundy, J. Fairbairn and F. Hall.

The party drove to Lakefield and there took the Mary Ellen which Capt. Scollard had volunteered to place at their disposal. The run through the islands was made in a short time, the sail being a delightful one. Each of the cottage owners was dropped off at his respective summer residence and proceeded to make an inspection after the winter's desertion. No reports were brought back of any vandalism during the winter months. The water, however, which rose to an unusual height this year had floated away a good many wharfs, but otherwise no damages are reported. The water is still very high.

The Mary Ellen is said to be steadier and to trim better in the water this year as a result of the changes made during the winter. The engines have been moved further back and the cabin enlarged. This has made a great improvement in the craft. With the Golden City and the Sunbeam the lakes will have an excellent fleet of steamers for this season's trade.

The party reached home about eight o'clock last night, and were immensely pleased with their outing. Everything at the islands looked beautiful, the spring verdure beginning to paint the surrounding landscape.

AN EVENING OF PLEASURE.

An Evening With the Royal Templars of Temperance—The Programme.

An "at home" of a most pleasant informal character was held last evening by the Royal Templars of Temperance in their hall on Hunter-st. and was largely attended. The hall had been transformed into a commodious and attractive drawing room, easy chairs, tables, etc., being used with good effect in the transformation. The domestic surroundings of the drawing room tended to enhance the general feeling of goodwill and sociability which prevaded all present. Parlor games of all description were provided for the entertainment of guests, and while these were in progress the piano was being manipulated by skillful fingers, adding to the enjoyment. Among those who contributed impromptu music was Miss Cochrane, who also played some of the accompaniments on the programme.

Dr. Goldsmith performed the duties of chairman, and during the evening announced the numbers of an excellent programme. Miss Owens gave a vocal solo in good voice, Mr. A. Clegg contributed a reading, Mrs. Seward sang a delightful solo, Miss Edith Hall and Miss Patterson rendered a charming instrumental duet and Miss Butcher and Miss Moyse gave a duet, piano and violin respectively. This was part one of the programme, and during a short intermission light and tempting refreshments were served.

Part two of the programme consisted of a vocal solo by Mrs. Seward, readings by Mr. A. Clegg, humorous selections by Mr. C. Brown and a duet by Misses Hall and Patterson.

The evening was a very pleasant one, and the gathering dispersed about eleven o'clock delighted with their entertainment by the Royal Templars.
